It shall be lawful for the Inspecting Officer of the Coast Guard or the principal Officer of Customs residing at or near the Place where such Loss, Abandonment, Damage, or Casualty occurred, if the same occurred on or near the Coasts of the United Kingdom, but if elsewhere at or near the Place where such Witnesses as aforesaid arrive or are found or can be conveniently examined, or for any other Person appointed for the Purpose by the Board of Trade, to make Inquiry respecting such Loss, Abandonment, Damage, or Casualty; and he shall for that Purpose have all the Powers given by the First Part of this Act to Inspectors appointed by the said Board.

Formal Investigation before Justices.

433. If it appears to such Officer or Person as aforesaid, either upon or without any such preliminary Inquiry as aforesaid, that a formal Investigation is requisite or expedient, or if the Board of Trade so directs, he shall apply to any Two Justices or to a Stipendiary Magistrate to hear the Case; and such Justices or Magistrate shall thereupon proceed to hear and try the same, and shall for that Purpose, so far as relates to the summoning of Parties, compelling the Attendance of Witnesses, and the Regulation of the Proceedings, have the same Powers as if the same were a Proceeding relating to an Offence or Cause of Complaint upon which they or he have Power to make a summary Conviction or Order, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit; and it shall be the Duty of such Officer or Person as aforesaid to superintend the Management of the Case, and to render such Assistance to the said Justices or Magistrate as is in his Power; and, upon the Conclusion of the Case, the said Justices or Magistrate shall send a Report to the Board of Trade, containing a full Statement of the Case and of their or his Opinion thereon, accompanied by such Report of or Extracts from the Evidence, and such Observations (if any) as they or he may think fit.

Power to appoint Nautical Assessor.

434. In Cases where nautical Skill and Knowledge are required, the Board of Trade shall have the Power, either at the Request of such Justices or Magistrate, or at its own Discretion, to appoint some Person of nautical Skill and Knowledge to act as Assessor to such Justices or Magistrate; and such Assessor shall, upon the Conclusion of the Case, either signify his Concurrence in their Report by signing the same, or if he dissents therefrom shall signify such Dissent and his Reasons therefor to the Board of Trade.

Stipendiary Magistrate to be the Magistrate who is Member of Local Marine Board.

435. In Places where there is a Local Marine Board, and where a Stipendiary Magistrate is a Member of such Board, all such Investigations as aforesaid shall, whenever he happens to be present, be made before such Magistrate; and there shall be paid to such Magistrate in respect of his Services under this Act such Remuneration, whether by way of annual Increase of Salary or otherwise as Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, may direct; and such Remuneration shall be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund.

Costs of such Investigations.

436. The said Justices or Magistrate may make such Order with respect to the Costs of any such Investigation or any Portion thereof as they or he may deem just, and such Costs shall be paid accordingly, and shall be recoverable in the same Manner as other Costs incurred in summary Proceedings before them or him; and the Board of Trade may, if in any Case it thinks fit so to do, pay the Expense of any such Investigation, and may pay to such Assessor as aforesaid such Remuneration as it thinks fit.

437. In

Inquiries into Wrecks.

Investigations in Scotland.

437. In the Case of any such Investigation as aforesaid to be held in Scotland, the Board of Trade may, if it so thinks fit, remit the same to the Lord Advocate to be prosecuted in such Manner as he may direct, and in case he so requires, with the Assistance of such Person of nautical Skill and Knowledge as the Board of Trade may appoint for the Purpose.

Master or Mate may be required to deliver Certificate to be held until Close of Inquiry.

438. Such Justices or Magistrate as aforesaid may, or in Scotland such Person or Persons as is or are directed by the Lord Advocate to conduct the Investigation may, if they or he think fit, require any Master or Mate possessing a Certificate of Competency or Service whose Conduct is called in question or appears to them or him likely to be called in question in the course of such Investigation, to deliver such Certificate to them or him, and they or he shall hold the Certificate so delivered until the Conclusion of the Investigation, and shall then either return the same to such Master or Mate, or, if their Report is such as to enable the Board of Trade to cancel or suspend such Certificate under the Powers given to such Board by the Third Part of this Act, shall forward the same to the Board of Trade, to be dealt with as such Board thinks fit; and if any Master or Mate fails so to deliver his Certificate when so required, he shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Appointment and Duties of Receivers.

Appointment and Duties of Receivers.

Board of Trade Superintendents of Wreck, with Power to appoint Receivers.

439. The Board of Trade shall throughout the United Kingdom have the general Superintendence of all Matters relating to Wreck; and it may, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, appoint any Officer of Customs or of the Coast Guard, or any Officer of Inland Revenue, or, when it appears to such Board to be more convenient, any other Person, to be a Receiver of Wreck in any District, and to perform such Duties as are herein-after mentioned, and shall give due Notice of every such Appointment.

Admiral not to interfere with Wreck.

440. No Admiral, Vice Admiral, or other Person, under whatever Denomination, exercising Admiralty Jurisdiction, shall as such, by himself or his Agents, receive, take, or interfere with any Wreck except as herein-after mentioned.

Duty of Receiver when any Ship is stranded or in Distress.

441. Whenever any Ship or Boat is stranded or in Distress at any Place on the Shore of the Sea or of any Tidal Water within the Limits of the United Kingdom, the Receiver of the District within which such Place is situate shall, upon being made acquainted with such Accident, forthwith proceed to such Place, and upon his Arrival there he shall take the Command of all Persons present, and assign such Duties to each Person, and issue such Directions, as he may think fit, with a view to the Preservation of such Ship or Boat, and the Lives of the Persons belonging thereto, and the Cargo and Apparel thereof; and if any Person wilfully disobeys such Directions, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds; but it shall not be lawful for such Receiver to interfere between the Master of such Ship or Boat and his Crew in Matters relating to the Management thereof, unless he is requested so to do by such Master.

Powers of Receiver in case of such Accident to any Ship or Boat.

442. The Receiver may, with a view to such Preservation as aforesaid of the Ship or Boat, Persons, Cargo, and Apparel, do the following Things; (that is to say,)

(1.) Summon such Number of Men as he thinks necessary to assist him:

(2.) Require the Master or other Person having the Charge of any Ship or Boat near at Hand to give such Aid with his Men, Ship, or Boats, as may be in his Power:

(3.) Demand the Use of any Waggon, Cart, or Horses that may be near at Hand:

And any Person refusing without reasonable Cause to comply with any Summons, Requisition, or Demand so made as aforesaid, shall for every such Refusal incur a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds; but no Person shall be liable to pay any Duty of Assessed Taxes in respect of any such Waggon, Cart, or Horses by reason of the User of the same under this Section.

All Articles washed on Shore or lost, or taken from any Ship or Boat, to be delivered to the Receiver.

443. All Cargo and other Articles belonging to such Ship or Boat as aforesaid, that may be washed on Shore, or otherwise be lost or taken from such Ship or Boat, shall be delivered to the Receiver; and any Person, whether he is the Owner or not, who secretes or keeps Possession of any such Cargo or Article, or refuses to deliver the same to the Receiver, or to any Person authorized by him to demand the same, shall incur a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds; and it shall be lawful for such Receiver or other Person as aforesaid to take such Cargo or Article by force from the Person so refusing to deliver the same.

Power of Receiver to suppress Plunder and Disorder by Force.

444. Whenever any such Accident as aforesaid occurs to any Ship or Boat, and any Person plunders, creates Disorder, or obstructs the Preservation of such Ship, Boat, Lives, or Cargo as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Receiver to cause such Person to be apprehended, and to use Force for the Suppression of any such Plundering, Disorder, or Obstruction as aforesaid, with Power to command all Her Majesty's Subjects to assist him in the Use of such Force; and if any Person is killed, maimed, or hurt, by reason of his resisting the Receiver in the Execution of the Duties hereby committed to him, or any Person acting under his Orders, such Receiver or other Person shall be free and fully indemnified, as well against the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as against all Persons so killed, maimed, or hurt.

Certain Officers to exercise Powers of Receiver in his Absence.

445. During the Absence of the Receiver from the Place where any such Accident as aforesaid occurs, or in Places where no Receiver has been appointed under this Act, the following Officers in Succession, each in the Absence of the other, in the Order in which they are named, that is to say, any principal Officer of Customs or of the Coast Guard, or Officer of Inland Revenue, and also any Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, Commissioned Officer on Full Pay in the Naval Service of Her Majesty, or Commissioned Officer on Full Pay in the Military Service of Her Majesty, may do all Matters and Things hereby authorized to be done by the Receiver, with this Exception, that with respect to any Goods or Articles belonging to any such Ship or Boat, the Delivery up of which to the Receiver is herein-before required, any Officer so acting shall be considered as the Agent of the Receiver, and shall place the same in the Custody of the Receiver; and no Person so acting as Substitute for any Receiver shall be entitled to any Fees payable to Receivers, or be deprived by reason of his so acting of any Right to Salvage to which he would otherwise be entitled.

Appointment and Duties of Receivers.

446. Whenever any such Accident as aforesaid occurs to any Ship or Boat, all Persons may, for the Purpose of rendering Assistance to such Ship or Boat, or saving the Lives of the Persons on board the same, or the Cargo or Apparel thereof, unless there is some public Road equally convenient, pass and repass either with or without Carriages or Horses over any adjoining Lands, without being subject to Interruption by the Owner or Occupier, so that they do as little Damage as possible, and may also, on the like Condition, deposit on such Lands any Cargo or other Article recovered from such Ship or Boat; and all Damage that may be sustained by any Owner or Occupier in consequence of any such passing or repassing or Deposit as aforesaid shall be a Charge on the Ship, Boat, Cargo, or Articles in respect of or by which such Damage was occasioned, and shall, in default of Payment, be recoverable in the same Manner as Salvage is hereby made recoverable; and the Amount payable in respect thereof, if disputed, shall be determined in the same Manner as the Amount of Salvage is hereby in case of Dispute directed to be determined.

Power in case of a Ship being in Distress to pass over adjoining Lands with Carriages.

447. If the Owner or Occupier of any Land over which any Person is hereby authorized to pass or repass for any of the Purposes herein-before mentioned does any of the following Things, (that is to say,)

(1.) Impedes or hinders any such Person from so passing or repassing, with or without Carriages, Horses, and Servants, by locking his Gates, refusing, upon Request, to open the same, or otherwise however:

(2.) Impedes or hinders the Deposit of any Cargo or other Article recovered from any such Ship or Boat, as herein-before mentioned:

(3.) Prevents such Cargo or other Article from remaining so deposited for a reasonable Time, until the same can be removed to a safe Place of public Deposit;

He shall for every such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on Owners and Occupiers of Land refusing to allow Carriages, &c. to pass over their Land.

448. Any Receiver, or in his Absence any Justice of the Peace, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, examine upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby respectively empowered to administer) any Person belonging to any Ship which may be or may have been in Distress on the Coasts of the United Kingdom, or any other Person who may be able to give any Account thereof or of the Cargo or Stores thereof, as to the following Matters; (that is to say,)

(1.) The Name and Description of the Ship;

(2.) The Name of the Master and of the Owners;

(3.) The Names of the Owners of the Cargo;

(4.) The Ports or Places from and to which the Ship was bound;

(5.) The Occasion of the Distress of the Ship;

(6.) The Services rendered;

(7.) Such other Matters or Circumstances relating to such Ship, or to the Cargo on board the same, as the Receiver or Justice thinks necessary:

And such Receiver or Justice shall take the Examination down in Writing, and shall make Two Copies of the same, of which he shall send One to the Board of Trade, and the other to the Secretary of the Committee for managing the Affairs of Lloyd's in London, and such last-mentioned Copy shall be placed by the said Secretary in some conspicuous Situation for the Inspection of Persons desirous of examining the same; and for the Purposes of such Examination every such Receiver or Justice as aforesaid shall have all the Powers given by the First Part of this Act to Inspectors appointed by the Board of Trade.

Power of Receiver to institute Examination with respect to Ships in Distress.

449. Any Examination so taken in Writing as aforesaid, or a Copy thereof, purporting to be certified under the Hand of the Receiver or Justice before whom such Examination was taken, shall be admitted in Evidence in any Court of Justice, or before any Person having by Law or by Consent of Parties Authority to hear, receive, and examine Evidence, as primâ facie Proof of all Matters contained in such written Examination.

Original or certified Copy of Examination to be primâ facie Evidence.

450. The following Rules shall be observed by any Person finding or taking possession of Wreck within the United Kingdom; (that is to say,)

(1.) If the Person so finding or taking possession of the same is the Owner, he shall as soon as possible give Notice to the Receiver of the District within which such Wreck is found, stating that he has so found or taken possession of the same; and he shall describe in such Notice the Marks by which such Wreck is distinguished:

(2.) If any Person not being the Owner finds or takes possession of any Wreck, he shall as soon as possible deliver the same to such Receiver as aforesaid:

And any Person making default in obeying the Provisions of this Section shall incur the following Penalties; (that is to say,)

Rules to be observed by Persons finding Wreck.

Appointment and Duties of Receivers.

(3.) If he is the Owner and makes default in performing the several Things, the Performance of which is hereby imposed on an Owner,

He shall incur a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds:

(4.) If he is not the Owner and makes default in performing the several Things, the Performance of which is hereby imposed on any Person not being an Owner,

He shall forfeit all Claim to Salvage;

He shall pay to the Owner of such Wreck, if the same is claimed, but if the same is unclaimed then to the Person entitled to such unclaimed Wreck, double the Value of such Wreck (such Value to be recovered in the same Way as a Penalty of like Amount); and

He shall incur a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds.

Power for Receivers to seize concealed Wreck.

451. If any Receiver suspects or receives Information that any Wreck is secreted or in the Possession of some Person who is not the Owner thereof, or otherwise improperly dealt with, he may apply to any Justice of the Peace for a Warrant, and such Justice shall have Power to grant a Warrant, by virtue whereof it shall be lawful for the Receiver to enter into any House or other Place wherever situate, and also into any Ship or Boat, and to search for, and to seize and detain any such Wreck as aforesaid there found; and if any such Seizure is made in consequence of Information that may have been given by any Person to the Receiver, the Informer shall be entitled by way of Salvage to such Sum not exceeding in any Case Five Pounds as the Receiver may allow.

Notice of Wreck to be given by Receiver.

452. Every Receiver shall within Forty-eight Hours after taking possession of any Wreck cause to be posted up in the Custom House of the Port nearest to the Place where such Wreck was found or seized a Description of the same and of any Marks by which it is distinguished, and shall also, if the Value of such Wreck exceeds Twenty Pounds, but not otherwise, transmit a similar Description to the Secretary of the Committee of Lloyd's aforesaid; and such Secretary shall post up the Description so sent, or a Copy thereof, in some conspicuous Place, for the Inspection of all Persons desirous of examining the same.

Goods deemed perishable or of small Value may be sold immediately.

453. In Cases where any Wreck in the Custody of any Receiver is under the Value of Five Pounds, or is of so perishable a Nature or so much damaged that the same cannot, in his Opinion, be advantageously kept, or if the Value thereof is not sufficient to defray the Charge of warehousing, the Receiver may sell the same before the Expiration of the Period herein-after mentioned, and the Money raised by such Sale, after defraying the Expenses thereof, shall be held by the Receiver for the same Purposes and subject to the same Claims for and to which the Article sold would have been held and liable if it had remained unsold.

In Cases where any Lord of the Manor or other Person is entitled to unclaimed Wreck, Receiver to give Notice to him.

454. In Cases where any Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Lord of the Manor, or other Person is entitled for his own Use to unclaimed Wreck found on any Place situate within a District for which a Receiver is appointed, such Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Lord of the Manor, or other Person shall deliver to such Receiver a Statement containing the Particulars of his Title, and the Address to which Notices are to be sent; and upon such Statement being so delivered, and Proof made to the Satisfaction of the Receiver of the Validity of such Title, it shall be his Duty, whenever he takes possession of any Wreck found at any such Place, to send within Forty-eight Hours thereafter a Description of the same and of any Marks by which it is distinguished, directed to such Address as aforesaid.

Payments to be made to Receiver.

455. There shall be paid to all Receivers appointed under this Act the Expenses properly incurred by them in the Performance of their Duties, and also in respect of the several Matters specified in the Table marked V. in the Schedule hereto, such Fees, not exceeding the Amounts therein mentioned, as may from Time to Time be directed by the Board of Trade; and the Receiver shall have the same Lien and be entitled to the same Remedies for the Recovery of such Expenses and Fees as a Salvor has or is entitled to in respect of Salvage due to him; but, save as aforesaid, no Receiver appointed under this Act shall, as such, be entitled to any Remuneration whatsoever.

Disputes to be determined by Board of Trade.

456. Whenever any Dispute arises in any Part of the United Kingdom as to the Amount payable to any Receiver in respect of Expenses or Fees, such Dispute shall be determined by the Board of Trade, whose Decision shall be final.

Application of Fees.

457. All Fees received by any Receiver appointed under this Act, in respect of any Services performed by him as Receiver, shall be carried to and form Part of the Mercantile Marine Fund, and a separate Account thereof shall be kept, and the Monies arising therefrom shall be applied in defraying any Expenses duly incurred in carrying into effect the Purposes of the Eighth Part of this Act, in such Manner as the Board of Trade directs.

Salvage in the United Kingdom.

Salvage in the United Kingdom.

Salvage in respect of Services rendered in the United Kingdom.

458. In the following Cases, (that it to say,)

Whenever any Ship or Boat is stranded or otherwise in Distress on the Shore of any Sea or Tidal Water situate within the Limits of the United Kingdom, and Services are rendered by any Person,

(1.) In assisting such Ship or Boat;

(2.) In saving the Lives of the Persons belonging to such Ship or Boat;

(3.) In saving the Cargo or Apparel of such Ship or Boat, or any Portion thereof;

And whenever any Wreck is saved by any Person other than a Receiver within the United Kingdom; There shall be payable by the Owners of such Ship or Boat, Cargo, Apparel, or Wreck, to the Person by

by whom such Services or any of them are rendered or by whom such Wreck is saved, a reasonable Amount of Salvage, together with all Expenses properly incurred by him in the Performance of such Services or the saving of such Wreck, the Amount of such Salvage and Expenses (which Expenses are herein-after included under the Term Salvage) to be determined in case of Dispute in manner herein-after mentioned.

Salvage for Life may be paid by Board of Trade out of Mercantile Marine Fund.

459. Salvage in respect of the Preservation of the Life or Lives of any Person or Persons belonging to any such Ship or Boat as aforesaid shall be payable by the Owners of the Ship or Boat in priority to all other Claims for Salvage; and in Cases where such Ship or Boat is destroyed, or where the Value thereof is insufficient, after Payment of the actual Expenses incurred, to pay the Amount of Salvage due in respect of any Life or Lives, the Board of Trade may in its Discretion award to the Salvors of such Life or Lives out of the Mercantile Marine Fund such Sum or Sums as it deems fit, in whole or part Satisfaction of any Amount of Salvage so left unpaid in respect of such Life or Lives.

Disputes as to Salvage how to be settled.

460. Disputes with respect to Salvage arising within the Boundaries of the Cinque Ports shall be determined in the Manner in which the same have hitherto been determined; but whenever any Dispute arises elsewhere in the United Kingdom between the Owners of any such Ship, Boat, Cargo, Apparel, or Wreck as aforesaid, and the Salvors, as to the Amount of Salvage, and the Parties to the Dispute cannot agree as to the Settlement thereof by Arbitration or otherwise,

Then, if the Sum claimed does not exceed Two hundred Pounds,

Such Dispute shall be referred to the Arbitration of any Two Justices of the Peace resident as follows; (that is to say,)

In case of Wreck, resident at or near the Place such Wreck is found:

In case of Services rendered to any Ship or Boat, or to the Persons, Cargo, or Apparel belonging thereto, resident at or near the Place where such Ship or Boat is lying, or at or near the First Port or Place in the United Kingdom into which such Ship or Boat is brought after the Occurrence of the Accident by reason whereof the Claim to Salvage arises:

But if the Sum claimed exceeds Two hundred Pounds,

Such Dispute may, with the Consent of the Parties, be referred to the Arbitration of such Justices as aforesaid, but if they do not consent shall in England be decided by the High Court of Admiralty of England, in Ireland by the High Court of Admiralty of Ireland, and in Scotland by the Court of Session; subject to this Proviso, that if the Claimants in such Dispute do not recover in such Court of Admiralty or Court of Session a greater Sum than Two hundred Pounds, they shall not, unless the Court certifies that the Case is a fit one to be tried in a Superior Court, recover any Costs, Charges, or Expenses incurred by them in the Prosecution of their Claim:

And every Dispute with respect to Salvage may be heard and adjudicated upon on the Application either of the Salvor or of the Owner of the Property salved, or of their respective Agents.

Manner in which Justices may decide Disputes.

461. Whenever in pursuance of this Act any Dispute as to Salvage is referred to the Arbitration of Two Justices, they may either themselves determine the same, with Power to call to their Assistance any Person conversant with Maritime Affairs as Assessor, or they may if a Difference of Opinion arises between them, or without such Difference, if they think fit, appoint some Person conversant with Maritime Affairs as Umpire to decide the Point in dispute; and such Justices or their Umpire shall make an Award as to the Amount of Salvage payable, within the following Times, that is to say, the said Justices within Forty-eight Hours after such Dispute has been referred to them, and the said Umpire within Forty-eight Hours after his Appointment, with Power nevertheless for such Justices or Umpire by Writing under their or his Hands or Hand to extend the Time within which they and he are hereby respectively directed to make their or his Award.

Costs of Arbitration.

462. There shall be paid to every Assessor and Umpire who may be so appointed as aforesaid in respect of his Services such Sum not exceeding Five Pounds as the Board of Trade may from Time to Time direct; and all the Costs of such Arbitration, including any such Payments as aforesaid, shall be paid by the Parties to the Dispute, in such Manner and in such Shares and Proportions as the said Justices or as the said Umpire may direct by their or his Award.

Justices may call for Documents, and administer Oaths.

463. The said Justices or their Umpire may call for the Production of any Documents in the Possession or Power of either Party, which they or he may think necessary for determining the Question in dispute, and may examine the Parties or their Witnesses on Oath, and administer the Oaths necessary for that Purpose.

Appeal to Courts of Admiralty.

464. If any Person is aggrieved by the Award made by such Justices or such Umpire as aforesaid, he may in England appeal to the High Court of Admiralty of England, in Ireland to the High Court of Admiralty of Ireland, and in Scotland to the Court of Session; but no such Appeal shall be allowed unless the Sum in dispute exceeds Fifty Pounds, nor unless within Ten Days after the Date of the Award the Appellant gives Notice to the Justices to whom the Matter was referred of his Intention to appeal, nor unless the Appellant proceeds to take out a Monition, or to take such other Proceeding as according to the Practice of the Court of Appeal is necessary for the Institution of an Appeal, within Twenty Days from the Date of the Award.

465. Whenever

Salvage in the United Kingdom.

Justices to transmit Copy of Proceedings and Certificate of Value to Court of Appeal.

465. Whenever any Appeal is made in manner herein-before provided, the Justices shall transmit to the proper Officer of the Court of Appeal a Copy on unstamped Paper certified under their Hands to be a true Copy of the Proceedings had before such Justices or their Umpire, if any, and of the Award so made by them or him, accompanied with their or his Certificate in Writing of the gross Value of the Article respecting which Salvage is claimed; and such Copy and Certificate shall be admitted in the Court of Appeal as Evidence in the Cause.

Payment of Salvage, to whom to be made in case of Dispute as to Apportionment.

466. Whenever the aggregate Amount of Salvage payable in respect of Salvage Services rendered in the United Kingdom has been finally ascertained either by Agreement or by the Award of such Justices or their Umpire, but a Dispute arises as to the Apportionment thereof amongst several Claimants, then, if the Amount does not exceed Two hundred Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Party liable to pay the Amount so due to apply to the Receiver of the District for Liberty to pay the Amount so ascertained to him; and he shall, if he thinks fit, receive the same accordingly, and grant a Certificate under his Hand, stating the Fact of such Payment and the Services in respect of which it is made; and such Certificate shall be a full Discharge and Indemnity to the Person or Persons to whom it is given, and to their Ship, Boats, Cargo, Apparel, and Effects, against the Claims of all Persons whomsoever in respect of the Services therein mentioned; but if the Amount exceeds Two hundred Pounds, it shall be apportioned in manner herein-after mentioned.

Apportionment of Salvage.

467. Upon the Receipt of any such Amount as aforesaid the Receiver shall with all convenient Speed proceed to distribute the same among the several Persons entitled thereto, upon such Evidence and in such Shares and Proportions as he thinks fit, with Power to retain any Monies that may appear to him to be payable to any absent Parties; but any Distribution made in pursuance of this Section shall be final and conclusive against the Rights of all Persons claiming to be entitled to any Portion of the Monies so distributed.

Manner of enforcing Payment of Salvage.

468. Whenever any Salvage is due to any Person under this Act, the Receiver shall act as follows; (that is to say,)

(1.) If the same is due in respect of Services rendered in assisting any Ship or Boat, or in saving the Lives of Persons belonging to the same, or the Cargo or Apparel thereof,

He shall detain such Ship or Boat and the Cargo and Apparel belonging thereto until Payment is made, or Process has been issued by some competent Court for the Detention of such Ship, Boat, Cargo, or Apparel:

(2.) If the same is due in respect of the saving of any Wreck, and such Wreck is not sold as unclaimed in pursuance of the Provisions herein-after contained,

He shall detain such Wreck until Payment is made, or Process has been issued in manner aforesaid:

But it shall be lawful for the Receiver, if at any Time previously to the Issue of such Process Security is given to his Satisfaction for the Amount of Salvage due, to release from his Custody any Ship, Boat, Cargo, Apparel, or Wreck so detained by him as aforesaid; and in Cases where the Claim for Salvage exceeds Two hundred Pounds it shall be lawful in England for the High Court of Admiralty of England, in Ireland for the High Court of Admiralty of Ireland, and in Scotland for the Court of Session, to determine any Question that may arise concerning the Amount of the Security to be given or the Sufficiency of the Sureties; and in all Cases where Bond or other Security is given to the Receiver for an Amount exceeding Two hundred Pounds it shall be lawful for the Salvor or for the Owner of the Property salved, or their respective Agents, to institute Proceedings in such last-mentioned Courts for the Purpose of having the Questions arising between them adjudicated upon, and the said Courts may enforce Payment of the said Bond or other Security, in the same Manner as if Bail had been given in the said Courts.

Power of Receiver to sell Property salved in Cases of Nonpayment.

469. Whenever any Ship, Boat, Cargo, Apparel, or Wreck is detained by any Receiver for Nonpayment of any Sums so due as aforesaid, and the Parties liable to pay the same are aware of such Detention, then, in the following Cases, that is to say,

(1.) In Cases where the Amount is not disputed, and Payment thereof is not made within Twenty Days after the same has become due;

(2.) In Cases where the Amount is disputed, but no Appeal lies from the First Tribunal to which the Dispute is referred, and Payment thereof is not made within Twenty Days after the Decision of such First Tribunal;

(3.) In Cases where the Amount is disputed, and an Appeal lies from the Decision of the First Tribunal to some other Tribunal, and Payment thereof is not made within such Twenty Days as last aforesaid, or such Monition as herein-before mentioned is not taken out within such Twenty Days, or such other Proceedings as are according to the Practice of such other Tribunal necessary for the Prosecution of an Appeal are not instituted within such Twenty Days;

The Receiver may forthwith sell such Ship, Boat, Cargo, Apparel, or Wreck, or a sufficient Part thereof, and out of the Proceeds of the Sale, after Payment of all Expenses thereof, defray all Sums of Money due in respect of Expenses, Fees, and Salvage, paying the Surplus, if any, to the Owners of the Property sold, or other the Parties entitled to receive the same.

470. Subject

Salvage in the United Kingdom.

Subject to Payments, Owner entitled to Wreck.

470. Subject to the Payment of such Expenses, Fees, and Salvage as aforesaid, the Owner of any Wreck who establishes his Claim thereto to the Satisfaction of the Receiver within One Year from the Date at which such Wreck has come into the Possession of the Receiver, shall be entitled to have the same delivered up to him.

Unclaimed Wreck in the United Kingdom.

Unclaimed Wreck in the United Kingdom.

Receiver to deliver up Possession of unclaimed Wreck to Lord of Manor or other Person entitled.

471. In the event of no Owner establishing a Claim to Wreck found in any Place in the United Kingdom before the Expiration of a Year from the Date at which the same has come into the Possession of the Receiver, then, if any such Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Lord of any Manor, or other Person as aforesaid has given Notice to and has proved to the Satisfaction of the Receiver that he is entitled to Wreck found at such Place, the Receiver shall, upon Payment of all Expenses, Fees, and Salvage due in respect of such Wreck, deliver up Possession thereof to such Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Lord of the Manor or other Person; and in case of Dispute as to the Amount of the Sums so payable, and also in case of Default being made in Payment thereof, such Dispute shall be determined and Payment enforced in the Manner in which such Amount and Payment is hereby directed to be determined and enforced in Cases where any Owner establishes his Claim to Wreck.

Disputed Title to Wreck how to be decided.

472. If any Dispute arises between the Receiver and any such Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Lord of any Manor, or other Person as aforesaid as to the Validity of his Title to Wreck, or if divers Persons claim to be entitled to Wreck found at the same Place, the Matter in dispute may be decided by Two Justices in the same Manner in which Disputes as to Salvage coming within the Jurisdiction of Justices are herein-before directed to be determined.

Appeal from Decision of Justices.

473. If any Party to such Dispute is unwilling to refer the same to Two Justices, or, having so referred the same, is dissatisfied with their Decision, he may within Three Months from the Expiration of such Year as aforesaid or from the Date of such Decision as aforesaid, as the Case may be, take such Proceedings as he may be advised in any Court of Law, Equity, or Admiralty having Jurisdiction in the Matter, for establishing his Title.

Power of the Board of Trade on behalf of the Crown to purchase Rights to Wreck.

474. The Board of Trade shall have Power, with the Consent of the Treasury, out of the Revenue arising under the Eighth Part of this Act, for and on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to purchase all such Rights to Wreck as may be possessed by any Person or Body Corporate, other than Her Majesty; and for the Purpose of facilitating such Purchases the Provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and the "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," relating to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, shall be incorporated with this Act; and in the Construction of this Act and the said incorporated Acts this Act shall be considered to be the "Special Act;" and any such Rights to Wreck as aforesaid shall be considered as an Interest in Land authorized to be taken by the Special Act, and Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall be considered as the Promoters of the Undertaking.

Unclaimed Wreck to be sold.

475. If no Owner establishes his Claim to Wreck found at any Place before the Expiration of such Period of a Year as aforesaid, and if no Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Lord of any Manor, or Person other than Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, is proved to be entitled to such Wreck, the Receiver shall forthwith sell the same, and after Payment of all Expenses attending such Sale, and deducting therefrom his Fees, and all Expenses (if any) incurred by him, and paying to the Salvors such Amount of Salvage as the Board of Trade may in each Case or by any general Rule determine, pay the same into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Treasury may direct, and the same shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty.

Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty.

High Court of Admiralty may decide on all Salvage Cases.

476. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, the High Court of Admiralty shall have Jurisdiction to decide upon all Claims whatsoever relating to Salvage, whether the Services in respect of which Salvage is claimed were performed upon the High Seas, or within the Body of any County, or partly in one Place and partly in the other, and whether the Wreck is found at Sea or cast upon the Land, or partly in the Sea and partly on Land.

Offences in respect of Wreck.

Offences in respect of Wreck.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 37. s. 72.

In Ireland by the Inhabitants of the County, County of a City or Town, Barony, Town or Towns Parish or Parishes, in or nearest to which such Offence is committed, in manner provided by an Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-seven, for the Recovery of Satisfaction and Amends for the malicious Demolition of or Injury to Churches, Chapels, and other Buildings used for Religious Worship, according to the Usage of the United Church of England and Ireland, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit:

1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 5.

In Scotland by the Inhabitants of the County, City, or Borough in or nearest to which such Offence is committed, in manner provided by an Act of the First Year of King George the First, Statute Two, Chapter Five, with respect to Prosecutions for repairing the Damages of any Churches and other Buildings, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit.

Penalty for plundering in Cases of Shipwreck, for obstructing the saving of shipwrecked Property, and for secreting the same.

478. Every Person who does any of the following Acts, (that is to say,)

(1.) Wrongfully carries away or removes any Part of any Ship or Boat stranded or in danger of being stranded or otherwise in Distress on or near the Shore of any Sea or Tidal Water, or any Part of the Cargo or Apparel thereof, or any Wreck; or

(2.) Endeavours in any way to impede or hinder the saving of such Ship, Boat, Cargo, Apparel, or Wreck; or

(3.) Secretes any Wreck, or obliterates or defaces any Marks thereon;

Shall, in addition to any other Penalty or Punishment he may be subject to under this or any other Act or Law, for each such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds; and every Person, not being a Receiver or a Person herein-before authorized to take the Command in Cases of Ships being stranded or in Distress, or not acting under the Orders of such Receiver or Person, who, without the Leave of the Master, endeavours to board any such Ship or Boat as aforesaid, shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds; and it shall be lawful for the Master of such Ship or Boat to repel by Force any such Person so attempting to board the same.

Penalty for selling Wreck in Foreign Ports.

479. If any Person takes into any Foreign Port or Place any Ship or Boat stranded, derelict, or otherwise in Distress on or near the Shore of the Sea or of any Tidal Water situate within the Limits of the United Kingdom, or any Part of the Cargo or Apparel thereof, or anything belonging thereto, or any Wreck found within such Limits as aforesaid, and there sells the same, he shall be guilty of Felony, and be subject to penal Servitude for a Term not exceeding Four Years.

Dealers in Marine Stores and Manufacturers of Anchors.

Dealers in Marine Stores and Manufacturers of Anchors.

480. Every Person dealing in buying and selling Anchors, Cables, Sails, or old Junk, old Iron, or Marine Stores of any Description, shall conform to the following Regulations; (that is to say,)

Regulations to be observed by Dealers in Marine Stores.

(1.) He shall have his Name, together with the Words "Dealer in Marine Stores," painted distinctly in Letters of not less than Six Inches in Length on every Warehouse or other Place of Deposit belonging to him;

If he does not he shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds:

(2.) He shall keep a Book or Books, fairly written, and shall enter therein an Account of all such Marine Stores as he may from Time to Time become possessed of, stating, in respect of each Article, the Time at which and the Person from whom he purchased or received the same, adding, in the Case of every such last-mentioned Person, a Description of his Business and Place of Abode;

If he does not he shall incur for the First Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and for every subsequent Offence a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds:

(3.) He shall not, by himself or his Agents, purchase Marine Stores of any Description from any Person apparently under the Age of Sixteen Years;

If he does so he shall incur for the First Offence a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and for every subsequent Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds:

(4.) He shall not cut up any Cable, or any similar Article, exceeding Five Fathoms in Length, or unlay the same into Twine or Paper Stuff, on any Pretence whatever, without obtaining such Permit and publishing such Notice of his having so obtained the same as is herein-after mentioned;

If he does so he shall incur for the First Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and for every subsequent Offence a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Manner of obtaining Permit to cut up Cables.

481. In order to obtain such Permit as aforesaid a Dealer in Marine Stores shall make a Declaration before some Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction over the Place where such Dealer resides containing the following Particulars; (that is to say,)

(1.) A Statement of the Quality and Description of the Cable or other like Article about to be cut up or unlaid:

(2.) A Statement that he purchased or otherwise acquired the same bonâ fide and without Fraud, and without any Knowledge or Suspicion that the same had been come by dishonestly:

(3.) A Statement of the Name and Description of the Person from whom he purchased or received the same:

Dealers in Marine Stores and Manufacturers of Anchors.

And it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom any such Declaration is made, or for the Receiver of the District in which such Dealer in Marine Stores resides, upon the Production of any such Declaration as aforesaid, to grant a Permit authorizing him to cut up or unlay such Cable or other like Article.

Permit to be advertised before Dealer proceeds to act thereon.

482. No Dealer in Marine Stores who has obtained such Permit as aforesaid shall proceed by virtue thereof to cut up or unlay any Cable or other like Article until he has for the Space of One Week at the least before doing any such Act published in some Newspaper published nearest to the Place where he resides One or more Advertisements notifying the Fact of his having so obtained a Permit, and specifying the Nature of the Cable or other Article mentioned in the Permit, and the Place where the same is deposited, and the Time at which the same is intended to be so cut up or unlaid; and if any Person suspects or believes that such Cable or other Article is his Property, he may apply to any Justice of the Peace for a Warrant; and such Justice of the Peace may, on the Applicant making Oath, or, if a Person entitled to make an Affirmation, making an Affirmation in support of such his Suspicion or Belief, grant a Warrant by virtue whereof the Applicant shall be entitled to require the Production by such Dealer as aforesaid of the Cable or other Article mentioned in the Permit, and also of the Book of Entries hereinbefore directed to be kept by every Dealer in Marine Stores; and, upon such Cable or other Article and Book of Entries being produced, to inspect and examine the same; and if any Dealer in Marine Stores makes default in complying with any of the Provisions of this Section, he shall for the First Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and for every subsequent Offence a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Manufacturers to place Marks on Anchors.

483. Every Manufacturer of Anchors shall in case of each Anchor which he manufactures, mark in legible Characters on the Crown and also on the Shank under the Stock his Name or Initials, with the Addition of a progressive Number and the Weight of such Anchor; and if he makes default in doing so he shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Salvage by H. M. Ships.

Salvage by Her Majesty's Ships.

No Claim for Salvage in respect of Loss, &c. of H. M. Ships or Property.

484. In Cases where Salvage Services are rendered by any Ship belonging to Her Majesty or by the Commander or Crew thereof, no Claim shall be made or allowed for any Loss, Damage, or Risk thereby caused to such Ship, or to the Stores, Tackle, or Furniture thereof, or for the Use of any Stores or other Articles belonging to Her Majesty supplied in order to effect such Services, or for any other Expense or Loss sustained by Her Majesty by reason of such Services.

Claims for Salvage by Her Majesty's Officers not to be determined without Consent of Admiralty.

485. No Claim whatever on account of any Salvage Services rendered to any Ship or Cargo or to any Appurtenances of any Ship by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships shall be finally adjudicated upon unless the Consent of the Admiralty has first been obtained, such Consent to be signified by Writing under the Hand of the Secretary to the Admiralty; and if any Person who has originated Proceedings in respect of any such Claim fails to prove such Consent to the Satisfaction of the Court, his Suit shall stand dismissed and he shall pay all the Costs of such Proceedings; provided that any Document purporting to give such Consent and to be signed by the Secretary to the Admiralty shall be primâ facie Evidence of such Consent having been given.

Steps to be taken when Salvage Services have been rendered by Her Majesty's Ships abroad

486. Whenever Services for which Salvage is claimed are rendered to any Ship or Cargo, or to any Part of any Ship or Cargo, or to any Appurtenances of any Ship, at any Place out of the United Kingdom and the Four Seas adjoining thereto, by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships, the Property alleged to be salved shall, if the Salvor is justified by the Circumstances of the Case in detaining it at all, be taken to some Port where there is either a Consular Officer or a Vice-Admiralty Court; and within Twenty-four Hours after arriving at such Port the said Salvor and the Master or other Person in charge of the Property alleged to be salved shall each deliver to the Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge there a Statement verified on Oath, specifying, so far as they respectively can, and so far as the Particulars required apply to the Case,

(1.) The Place, Condition, and Circumstances in which the said Ship, Cargo, or Property was at the Time when the Services were rendered for which Salvage is claimed:

(2.) The Nature and Duration of the Services rendered:

And the Salvor shall add to his Statement,

(3.) The Proportion of the Value of the said Ship, Cargo, and Property, and of the Freight which he claims for Salvage, or the Values at which he estimates the said Ship, Freight, Cargo, and Property respectively, and the several Amounts that he claims for Salvage in respect of the same:

(4.) Any other Circumstances he thinks relevant to the said Claim:

And the said Master or other Person in charge of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property shall add to his Statement,

(3.) A Copy of the Certificate of Registry of the said Ship, and of the Indorsements thereon, stating any Change which (to his Knowledge or Belief) has occurred in the Particulars contained in such Certificate; and stating also, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, the State of the Title to the Ship for the Time being, and of the Incumbrances and Certificates of Mortgage or Sale, if any, affecting the same, and the Names and Places of Business of the Owners and Incumbrancers:

(4.) The

Salvage by H. M. Ships.

(4.) The Name and Place of Business or Residence of the Freighter (if any) of the said Ship, and the Freight to be paid for the Voyage she is then on:

(5.) A general Account of the Quantity and Nature of the Cargo at the Time the Salvage Services were rendered:

(6.) The Name and Place of Business or Residence of the Owner of such Cargo and of the Consignee thereof:

(7.) The Values at which the said Master estimates the said Ship, Cargo, and Property, and the Freight respectively, or, if he thinks fit, in lieu of such estimated Value of the Cargo, a Copy of the Ship's Manifest:

(8.) The Amounts which the Master thinks should be paid as Salvage for the Services rendered:

(9.) An accurate List of the Property saved, in Cases where the Ship is not saved:

(10.) An Account of the Proceeds of the Sale of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, in Cases where the same or any of them are sold at such Port as aforesaid:

(11.) The Number, Capacities, and Condition of the Crew of the said Ship at the Time the said Services were rendered:

(12.) Any other Circumstances he thinks relevant to the Matters in question:

(13.) A Statement of his Willingness to execute a Bond, in the Form in the Table marked W. in the Schedule hereto, in such Amount as the said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge may fix.

Consular Officer or Judge to fix Amount for which a Bond is to be given.

487. The said Consular Officer or Judge, as the Case may be, shall within Four Days after receiving the aforesaid Statements fix the Amount to be inserted in the said Bond at such Sum as he thinks sufficient to answer the Demand for the Salvage Services rendered; but such Sum shall not exceed One Half of the Value which in his Estimation the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo, or any Parts thereof in respect of which Salvage is claimed, are worth; and the said Consular Officer or Judge may, if either of the aforesaid Statements is not delivered to him within the Time hereby required, proceed ex parte, but he shall in no Case under this Act require the Cargo to be unladen; and the said Consular Officer may in any Proceeding under this Act relating to Salvage take Affidavits and receive Affirmations.

On Master executing Bond, the Right of Detention to cease.

488. The said Consular Officer or Judge shall send Notice of the Sum which he has so fixed as aforesaid to the said Salvor and the said Master; and upon such Master executing a Bond in such Form as aforesaid, with the said Sum inserted therein, in the Presence of the said Officer or Judge (who shall attest the same), and delivering the same to the said Salvor, the Right of the said Salvor to detain or retain Possession of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, or any of them, in respect of the said Salvage Claim, shall cease.

Provision for additional Security in the Case of Ships owned by Persons resident out of Her Majesty's Dominions.

489. If the Ship, Cargo, or Property in respect of which the Claim for Salvage is made is not owned by Persons domiciled in Her Majesty's Dominions, the Right of the Salvor to detain or retain Possession thereof shall not cease unless the Master procures, in addition to the said Bond, such Security for the due Performance of the Conditions thereof as the said Officer or Judge considers sufficient for the Purpose, and places the same in the Possession or Custody of the said Officer or Judge, or, if the Salvor so desires, in the Possession or Custody of the said Officer or Judge jointly with any other Person whom the said Salvor appoints for the Purpose.

Documents to be sent to England.

490. The said Consular Officer or Judge shall at the earliest Opportunity transmit the said Statements and Documents so sent to him as aforesaid, and a Notice of the Sum he has so fixed as aforesaid, to the High Court of Admiralty of England, or if the said Salvor and the said Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid agree that the said Bond shall be adjudicated upon by any Vice-Admiralty Court, to such Court.

Whom the Bond shall bind.

491. The said Bond shall bind the respective Owners of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, for the Salvage adjudged to be payable in respect of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo respectively.

Court in which it is to be adjudicated on.

492. The said Bond shall be adjudicated on and enforced by the High Court of Admiralty in England, or if the said Salvor and Master at the Time of the Execution of the said Bond agree upon any Vice-Admiralty Court, then by such Vice-Admiralty Court; and any such Vice-Admiralty Court may in every Proceeding under this Act have and exercise all Powers and Authorities whatsoever which the said High Court of Admiralty now has or at any Time may have in any Proceeding whatsoever before it; and in Cases where any Security for the due Performance of the Conditions of the said Bond has been placed in the Possession or Custody of the said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge, or of such Officer or Judge jointly with any other Person, the Person or Persons having the Custody of such Security shall respectively deal with the same in such Manner as the Court that adjudicates on the Bond directs.

Power of High Court of Admiralty to enforce Bonds.

493. The said High Court of Admiralty shall have Power to enforce any Bond given in pursuance of this Act in any Vice-Admiralty Court in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions; and all Courts in Scotland, Ireland, and the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, exercising Admiralty Jurisdiction shall, upon Application, aid and assist the High Court of Admiralty in enforcing the said Bonds.

Saving Clause.

494. Any such Salvor as aforesaid of any Ship, Cargo, or Property, who elects not to proceed under this Act, shall have no Power to detain the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, but may proceed otherwise otherwise for the Enforcement of his Salvage Claim as if this Act had not been passed; and nothing in this Act contained shall abridge or affect the Rights of Salvors, except in the Cases by it provided for. Salvage by H. M. Ships.

495. All Bonds, Statements, Agreements, and other Documents made or executed in pursuance of the Eighth Part of this Act shall, if so made or executed out of the United Kingdom, be exempt from Stamp Duty. Documents free from Duty.

496. Every Person who, in any Proceeding under Provisions contained in the Eighth Part of this Act relating to Salvage by Her Majesty's Ships, forges, assists in forging, or procures to be forged, fraudulently alters, assists in fraudulently altering, or procures to be fraudulently altered, any Document, and every Person who in any such Proceeding puts off or makes use of any such forged or altered Document, knowing the same to be so forged or altered, or who in any such Proceeding gives or makes, or assists in giving or making, or procures to be given or made, any false Evidence or Representation, knowing the same to be false, shall be punishable with Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Two Years, or, if summarily prosecuted and convicted, by Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Six Months. Punishment for Forgery and false Representations.

Salvage, General. Salvage (General).

497. Whenever Services for which Salvage is claimed are rendered either by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships, or of any other Ship, and the Salvor voluntarily agrees to abandon his Lien upon the Ship, Cargo, and Property alleged to be salved, upon the Master or other Person in charge thereof entering into a written Agreement attested by Two Witnesses to abide the Decision of the said High Court of Admiralty, or of any Vice-Admiralty Court, and thereby giving Security in that Behalf to such Amount as may be agreed on by the Parties to the said Agreement, such Agreement shall bind the said Ship, and the said Cargo, and the Freight payable therefor respectively, and the respective Owners of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo for the Time being, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, for the Salvage which may be adjudged to be payable in respect of the said Ship, Cargo, and Freight respectively, to the Extent of the Security so given as aforesaid, and may be adjudicated upon and enforced in the same Manner as the Bonds provided for by the Eighth Part of this Act, in the Case of Detention for Salvage Services rendered by Her Majesty's Ships; and upon such Agreement being made the Salvor and the Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid, shall respectively make such Statements as are herein-before required to be made by them in case of a Bond being given, except that such Statements need not be made upon Oath; and the Salvor shall, as soon as practicable, transmit the said Agreement and the said Statements to the Court in which the said Agreement is to be adjudicated upon. Voluntary Agreementmay be made which shall have the same Effect as the Bond above mentioned.

498. Whenever the aggregate Amount of Salvage payable in respect of Salvage Services rendered in the United Kingdom has been finally ascertained, and exceeds Two hundred Pounds, and whenever the aggregate Amount of Salvage payable in respect of Salvage Services rendered elsewhere has been finally ascertained, whatever such Amount may be, then if any Delay or Dispute arises as to the Apportionment thereof, any Court having Admiralty Jurisdiction may cause the same to be apportioned amongst the Persons entitled thereto in such Manner as it thinks just; and may for that Purpose, if it thinks fit, appoint any Person to carry such Apportionment into effect, and may compel any Person in whose Hands or under whose Control such Amount may be to distribute the same, or to bring the same into Court, to be there dealt with as the Court may direct, and may for the Purposes aforesaid issue such Monitions or other Processes as it thinks fit. Powers for Courts having Admiralty Jurisdiction to apportion Salvage.

Miscellaneous. Miscellaneous.

499. All Wreck, being Foreign Goods brought or coming into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, shall be subject to the same Duties as if the same were imported into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man respectively; and if any Question arises as to the Origin of such Goods, they shall be deemed to be the Produce of such Country as the Commissioners of Customs may upon Investigation determine. Foreign Goods found derelict to be subject to the same Duties as on Importation.

500. The Commissioners of Customs and Excise shall permit all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise saved from any Ship stranded or wrecked on its Homeward Voyage to be forwarded to the Port of its original Destination, and all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise saved from any Ship stranded or wrecked on its Outward Voyage to be returned to the Port at which the same were shipped; but such Commissioners are to take Security for the due Protection of the Revenue in respect of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise. Goods saved from Ships wrecked to be forwarded to the Ports of their original Destination.

501. All Matters and Things that may in pursuance of the Eighth Part of this Act be done by or to any Justice, or any Two Justices, may in Scotland be done also by or to the Sheriff of the County, including the Sheriff Substitute; and the Expression "Lord or Lady of a Manor" shall in the Eighth Part of this Act, so far as regards Scotland, include "Heritable Proprietor duly infeft." Provision as to certain Terms in Scotland.

PART IX.

LIABILITY OF SHIPOWNERS.

Application.

Application of Part IX. of Act.

502. The Ninth Part of this Act shall apply to the whole of Her Majesty's Dominions.

Limitation of Liability.

Limitation of Liability.

Owner not liable in respect of certain Articles.

503. No Owner of any Sea-going Ship or Share therein shall be liable to make good any Loss or Damage that may happen without his actual Fault or Privity of or to any of the following Things, (that is to say,)

(1.) Of or to any Goods, Merchandise, or other Things whatsoever taken in or put on board any such Ship, by reason of any Fire happening on board such Ship,

(2.) Of or to any Gold, Silver, Diamonds, Watches, Jewels, or Precious Stones taken in or put on board any such Ship, by reason of any Robbery, Embezzlement, making away with or secreting thereof, unless the Owner or Shipper thereof has, at the Time of shipping the same, inserted in his Bills of Lading or otherwise declared in Writing to the Master or Owner of such Ship the true Nature and Value of such Articles,

To any Extent whatever.

Measure of Owner's Liability.

504. No Owner of any Sea-going Ship or Share therein shall, in Cases where all or any of the following Events occur without his actual Fault or Privity, (that is to say,)

(1.) Where any Loss of Life or personal Injury is caused to any Person being carried in such Ship;

(2.) Where any Damage or Loss is caused to any Goods, Merchandize, or other Things whatsoever on board any such Ship;

(3.) Where any Loss of Life or personal Injury is by reason of the improper Navigation of such Sea-going Ship as aforesaid caused to any Person carried in any other Ship or Boat;

(4.) Where any Loss or Damage is by reason of any such improper Navigation of such Sea-going Ship as aforesaid caused to any other Ship or Boat, or to any Goods, Merchandise, or other Things whatsoever, on board any other Ship or Boat;

Be answerable in Damages to an Extent beyond the Value of his Ship and the Freight due or to grow due in respect of such Ship during the Voyage which at the Time of the happening of any such Events as aforesaid is in prosecution or contracted for, subject to the following Proviso, (that is to say,) that in no Case where any such Liability as aforesaid is incurred in respect of Loss of Life or personal Injury to any Passenger, shall the Value of any such Ship and the Freight thereof be taken to be less than Fifteen Pounds per registered Ton.

Value of Carriage of Goods and Passage Money to be considered as Freight.

505. For the Purposes of the Ninth Part of this Act, the Freight shall be deemed to include the Value of the Carriage of any Goods or Merchandise belonging to the Owners of the Ship, Passage Money, and also the Hire due or to grow due under or by virtue of any Contract, except only such Hire, in the Case of a Ship hired for Time, as may not begin to be earned until the Expiration of Six Months after such Loss or Damage.

Provision for separate Losses.

506. The Owner of every Sea-going Ship or Share therein shall be liable in respect of every such Loss of Life, personal Injury, Loss of or Damage to Goods as aforesaid arising on distinct Occasions to the same Extent as if no other Loss, Injury, or Damage had arisen.

Mode of Procedure.

Mode of Procedure.

In case of Loss of Life or personal Injury, Board of Trade may direct Proceedings.

507. Whenever any such Liability as aforesaid has been or is alleged to have been incurred in respect of Loss of Life or personal Injury, the Board of Trade may, in its Discretion, after giving not less than Three Days Notice by Post or otherwise to the Party to be made Defendant or Defender, by Warrant sealed with the Seal of such Board or signed by One of its Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries, require the Sheriff having Jurisdiction over any Place in the United Kingdom to summon a Jury at a Time and Place to be specified in such Warrant for the Purpose of determining the following Question; (that is to say,)

The Number, Names, and Descriptions of all Persons killed or injured by reason of any wrongful Act, Neglect, or Default:

And upon the Receipt of such Warrant the Sheriff shall summon a Jury of Twenty-four indifferent Persons, duly qualified to act as Common Jurymen in the Superior Courts, to meet at such Time and Place as aforesaid.

Either Party may require Question to be tried by a Special Jury.

508. If either Party to the Inquiry desire any such Question as aforesaid to be tried before a Special Jury, such Question shall be so tried, provided that Notice of such Desire, if coming from the other Party, is given to the Board of Trade before it has issued its Warrant to the Sheriff; and for that Purpose the Board of Trade shall, by its Warrant to the Sheriff, require him to nominate a Special Jury for such Trial; and thereupon the Sheriff shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the Receipt by him of such Warrant, summon both the Parties to appear before him by themselves or their Attornies or Agents at some convenient Time and Place appointed by him for the Purpose of nominating a Special Jury; and at the Place and Time so appointed the Sheriff shall proceed to nominate and strike a Special Jury in the Manner in which such Juries are required by the Laws for the Time being in force to be nominated or struck by the proper Officers of the Superior Courts; and the Sheriff shall appoint a Day, and shall on the Day so appointed proceed to reduce the said Special Jury to the Number of Twenty, in the Manner used and accustomed by the proper Officers of the Superior Courts. Mode of Procedure.

509. The following Provisions shall be applicable to the Conduct of Proceedings by the Board of Trade; (that is to say,) Provisions for Conduct of Proceedings.

(1.) The Sheriff shall preside at such Inquiry, and the Board of Trade shall be deemed in England and Ireland to be the Plaintiff, and in Scotland the Pursuer, both of which Terms are hereinafter included in the Term Plaintiff, with Power to appoint any Agent to act on its Behalf, and shall have all such Rights and Privileges as the Plaintiff is entitled to in Actions at Law; and the Owner or Owners of the Ship or Ships by whom such Liability as last aforesaid is alleged to have been incurred shall be deemed in England and Ireland to be the Defendant, and in Scotland the Defender, both of which Terms are herein-after included in the Term Defendant;

(2.) Not less than Ten Days Notice of the Time and Place of the Inquiry shall be served by the Board of Trade on the Defendant:

(3.) Service on the Master of any Ship shall be deemed good Service on the Owner thereof, and the Master shall, in respect of the Proceedings on such Inquiry, be deemed the Agent and Representative of the Owner, with Power to appear for him on such Inquiry, and to do all Matters and Things which he might himself have done:

(4.) If the Defendant does not appear at the Time of such Inquiry, the same shall be proceeded with as if he had appeared, upon due Proof of Service of Notice having been made on him in pursuance of this Act:

(5.) The empannelling of the Jury and the summoning and Attendance of Witnesses shall be conducted and enforced in England and Ireland in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, in Cases of disputed Compensation as to Land, and in Scotland in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, in like Cases, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit; and all Provisions in the said Acts having reference to Cases where any Question of disputed Compensation requires to be determined by the Verdict of a Jury shall, with the requisite Alterations, be considered as incorporated with this Act, and to have reference to Cases where the Question of the Liability of any Owner in respect of any such Accident as aforesaid requires to be determined by the Verdict of a Jury:

(6.) In England and Ireland the Sheriff shall, if the Board of Trade so requires, or if the Defendant so requires and the Board of Trade consents thereto, appoint as Assessor a Barrister-at-Law of competent Knowledge and Standing:

(7.) The Costs incurred by all Parties in and incidental to any such Inquiry as aforesaid shall in England and Ireland be taxed by the Master of One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law as between Attorney and Client, and in Scotland by the Auditor of the Court of Session as between Agent and Client; and shall, if the Verdict in any Inquiry is in favour of the Plaintiff, be paid by the Defendant, but if such Verdict is in favour of the Defendant, be paid by the Board of Trade out of the Mercantile Marine Fund:

(8.) The Payment of all Damages and Costs in any such Inquiry as aforesaid shall, upon Application made to such Superior Court as aforesaid by the Party entitled thereto, be enforced by Rule or Order of such Court or a Judge thereof, or otherwise as such Court or Judge thinks fit:

(9.) The Board of Trade may make any Compromise it thinks fit as to the Damages payable in respect of personal Injury, or of the Death of any Person; and any Damages received in pursuance of such Compromise shall, so far as the same extend, be applied in the same Manner and be subject to the same Rules as if the same were Damages recovered on an Inquiry instituted by the Board of Trade.

510. The following Rules shall be observed as to the Damages recovered in any such Inquiry, and the Application thereof; (that is to say,) Rules as to Damages and Application thereof.

(1.) The Damages payable in each Case of Death or Injury shall be assessed at Thirty Pounds:

(2.) The Damages found due on any such Inquiry as aforesaid shall be the first Charge on the aggregate Amount for which the Owner is liable, and shall be paid thereout in Priority to all other Claims:

(3.) All such Damages as aforesaid shall be paid to Her Majesty's Paymaster General, and shall be distributed and dealt with by him in such Manner as the Board of Trade directs; and in directing such Distribution the Board of Trade shall have Power in the first place to deduct and retain any Costs incidental thereto; and in the next place, as regards the Sums paid in respect of Injuries shall direct Payment to each Person injured of such Compensation, not exceeding in any Case the statutory Amount, as the said Board thinks fit; and as regards the Sums paid in respect of Deaths shall direct Payment thereof for the Benefit of the Husband, Wife, Parent, and Child of the Deceased, or any of them, in such Shares, upon such Evidence, and in such Manner as the said Board thinks fit:

Mode of Procedure.

(4.) The Board of Trade shall refund to the Owner any Surplus remaining under its Control after making such Distribution as aforesaid, and the Sum so refunded shall form Part of the Residue herein-after mentioned:

(5.) The Board of Trade shall not, nor shall any Person acting under it, be liable to any Action, Suit, Account, Claim, or Demand whatsoever for or in respect of any Act or Matter done, or omitted to be done, in the Distribution of such Damages as aforesaid:

(6.) If the Amount paid to Her Majesty's Paymaster General in manner aforesaid is insufficient to meet the Demands upon it, the several Claims thereon shall abate proportionally.

Any Person who is dissatisfied with the Amount of statutory Damage may bring an Action on his own Account.

511. After the Completion of such Inquiry as aforesaid, if any Person injured estimates the Damages payable in respect of such Injury, or if the Executor or Administrator of any deceased Person estimates the Damages payable in respect of his Death, at a greater Sum than such statutory Amount, or, in case of a Compromise having been made by the Board of Trade, than the Amount accepted by such Board by way of Compensation for such Injury or Death as aforesaid, the Person so estimating the same shall, upon repaying or obtaining the Repayment by the Board of Trade to the Owner of the Amount paid by him to the Board of Trade in respect of such Injury or Death, be at liberty to bring an Action for the Recovery of Damages in the same Manner as if no Power of instituting an Inquiry had herein-before been given to the Board of Trade, subject to the following Proviso; (that is to say,) that any Damages recoverable by such Person shall be payable only out of the Residue, if any, of the aggregate Amount for which the Owner is liable, after deducting all Sums paid to Her Majesty's Paymaster General in manner aforesaid; and if the Damages recovered in such Action do not exceed double the statutory Amount, such Person shall pay to the Defendant in such Action all the Costs thereof, such Costs to be taxed in England and Ireland as between Attorney and Client, and in Scotland as between Agent and Client.

If Board of Trade decline to institute Proceedings, Individuals may bring Actions.

512. In Cases where Loss of Life or personal Injury has occurred by any Accident in respect of which the Owner of any such Ship as aforesaid is or is alleged to be liable in Damages, no Person shall be entitled to bring any Action, or institute any Suit or other legal Proceeding in the United Kingdom, until the Completion of the Inquiry (if any) instituted by the Board of Trade, or until the Board of Trade has refused to institute the same; and the Board of Trade shall, for the Purpose of entitling any Person to bring an Action or institute a Suit or other legal Proceeding, be deemed to have refused to institute such Inquiry whenever Notice has been served on it by any Person of his Desire to bring such Action or institute such Suit or other legal Proceeding, and no Inquiry is instituted by the Board of Trade in respect of the Subject Matter of such intended Action, Suit, or Proceeding for the Space of One Month after the Service of such Notice.

Proceedings by Board of Trade after Refusal.

513. Whenever the Board of Trade, having refused in manner aforesaid to institute any Inquiry afterwards determines to institute the same, the Damages and Costs (if any) recovered on such Inquiry shall be payable rateably with and not in priority to the Costs and Damages recovered in any other Action, Suit, or legal Proceeding.

Proceedings in case of several Claims being made on Owner of Ship.

514. In Cases where any Liability has been or is alleged to have been incurred by any Owner in respect of Loss of Life, personal Injury, or Loss of or Damage to Ships, Boats, or Goods, and several Claims are made or apprehended in respect of such Liability, then, subject to the Right herein-before given to the Board of Trade of recovering Damages in the United Kingdom in respect of Loss of Life or personal Injury, it shall be lawful in England or Ireland for the High Court of Chancery, and in Scotland for the Court of Session, and in any British Possession for any competent Court, to entertain Proceedings at the Suit of any Owner for the Purpose of determining the Amount of such Liability subject as aforesaid, and for the Distribution of such Amount rateably amongst the several Claimants, with Power for any such Court to stop all Actions and Suits pending in any other Court in relation to the same Subject Matter; and any Proceeding entertained by such Court of Chancery or Court of Session, or other competent Court, may be conducted in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as to making any Persons interested Parties to the same, and as to the Exclusion of any Claimants who do not come in within a certain Time, and as to requiring Security from the Owner, and as to Payment of Costs, as the Court thinks just.

Money paid for Damage how to be accounted for between Part Owners.

515. All Sums of Money paid for or on account of any Loss or Damage in respect whereof the Liability of the Owners of any Ship is limited by the Ninth Part of this Act, and all Costs incurred in relation thereto, may be brought into account among Part Owners of the same Ship in the same Manner as Money disbursed for the Use thereof.

Saving Clause.

Saving Clause.

Saving Clause.

516. Nothing in the Ninth Part of this Act contained shall be construed—

To lessen or take away any Liability to which any Master or Seaman, being also Owner or Part Owner of the Ship to which he belongs, is subject in his Capacity of Master or Seaman; or

To extend to any British Ship not being a recognized British Ship within the Meaning of this Act.

Punishment of Offences, and Recovery of Penalties. 7 G. 4. c. 64.

518. In all Places within Her Majesty's Dominions, except Scotland, the Offences herein-after mentioned shall be punished and Penalties recovered in manner following; (that is to say,)

(1.) Every Offence by this Act declared to be a Misdemeanor shall be punishable by Fine or Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour; and the Court before which such Offence is tried may in England make the same Allowances and order Payment of the same Costs and Expenses as if such Misdemeanor had been enumerated in the Act passed in the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, or any other Act that may be passed for the like Purpose; and may in any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions make such Allowances and order Payment of such Costs and Expenses (if any) as are payable or allowable upon the Trial of any Misdemeanor under any existing Act or Ordinance, or as may be payable or allowable under any Act or Law for the Time being in force therein:

(2.) Every Offence declared by this Act to be a Misdemeanor shall also be deemed to be an Offence hereby made punishable by Imprisonment for any Period not exceeding Six Months, with or without Hard Labour, or by a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds, and may be prosecuted accordingly in a summary Manner instead of being prosecuted as a Misdemeanor:

(3.) Every Offence hereby made punishable by Imprisonment for any Period not exceeding Six Months, with or without Hard Labour, or by any Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds, shall in England and Ireland be prosecuted summarily before any Two or more Justices, as to England in the Manner directed by the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Forty-three, and as to Ireland in the Manner directed by the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Ninety-three, or in such other Manner as may be directed by any Act or Acts that may be passed for like Purposes: And all Provisions contained in the said Acts shall be applicable to such Prosecutions in the same Manner as if the Offences in respect of which the same are instituted were hereby stated to be Offences in respect of which Two or more Justices have Power to convict summarily or to make a summary Order:

(4.) In all Cases of Summary Convictions in England, where the Sum adjudged to be paid exceeds Five Pounds, or the Period of Imprisonment adjudged exceeds One Month, any Person who thinks himself aggrieved by such Conviction may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions which is holden not less than Twelve Days after the Day of such Conviction for the County, City, Borough, Liberty, Riding, Division, or Place wherein the Case has been tried; provided that such Person shall give to the Complainant a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, within Three Days after such Conviction, and Seven clear Days at the least before such Sessions, and shall also either remain in Custody until the Sessions, or enter into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, before a Justice of the Peace, conditioned personally to appear at the said Sessions, and to try such Appeal, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and upon such Notice being given, and such Recognizance being entered into, the Justice before whom the same shall be entered into shall liberate such Person, if in Custody; and the Court at such Sessions shall hear and determine the Matter of the Appeal, and shall make such Order therein, with or without Costs to either Party, as to the Court shall seem meet; and in case of the Dismissal of the Appeal, or the Affirmance of the Conviction, shall order and adjudge the Offender to be punished according to the Conviction, and to pay such Costs as may be awarded, and shall, if necessary, issue Process for enforcing such Judgment:

(5.) All Offences under this Act shall in any British Possession be punishable in any Court or by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in which or by whom Offences of a like Character are ordinarily punishable, or in such other Manner, or by such other Courts, Justices, or Magistrates, as may from Time to Time be determined by any Act or Ordinance duly made in such Possession in such Manner as Acts and Ordinances in such Possession are required to be made in order to have the Force of Law.

Power of Stipendiary Magistrate.

519. Any Stipendiary Magistrate shall have full Power to do alone whatever Two Justices of the Peace are by this Act authorized to do.

Offence where deemed to have been committed.

520. For the Purpose of giving Jurisdiction under this Act, every Offence shall be deemed to have been committed, and every Cause of Complaint to have arisen, either in the Place in which the same actually actually was committed or arose, or in any Place in which the Offender or Person complained against may be.

Jurisdiction over Ships lying off the Coasts.

521. In all Cases where any District within which any Court or Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate has Jurisdiction either under this Act or under any other Act or at Common Law, for any Purpose whatever, is situate on the Coast of any Sea, or abutting on or projecting into any Bay, Channel, Lake, River, or other navigable Water, every such Court, Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate shall have Jurisdiction over any Ship or Boat being on or lying or passing off such Coast, or being in or near such Bay, Channel, Lake, River, or navigable Water as aforesaid, and over all Persons on board such Ship or Boat or for the Time being belonging thereto, in the same Manner as if such Ship, Boat, or Persons were within the Limits of the original Jurisdiction of such Court, Justice, or Magistrate.

Service to be good if made personally, or on board Ship.

522. Service of any Summons or other Matter in any legal Proceeding under this Act shall be good Service, if made personally on the Person to be served, or at his last Place of Abode, or if made by leaving such Summons for him on board any Ship to which he may belong with the Person being or appearing to be in command or charge of such Ship.

Sums ordered to be paid leviable by Distress on Ship.

523. In all Cases where any Court, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or other Magistrate, has or have Power to make an Order directing Payment to be made of any Seaman's Wages, Penalties, or other Sums of Money, then, if the Party so directed to pay the same is the Master or Owner of a Ship, and the same is not paid at the Time and in Manner prescribed in the Order, the Court, Justice or Justices, or other Magistrate who made the Order, may, in addition to any other Powers they or he may have for the Purpose of compelling Payment, direct the Amount remaining unpaid to be levied by Distress or Poinding and Sale of the said Ship, her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel.

Application of Penalties.

524. Any Court, Justice, or Magistrate imposing any Penalty under this Act, for which no specific Application is herein provided, may, if it or he thinks fit, direct the whole or any Part thereof to be applied in compensating any Person for any Wrong or Damage which he may have sustained by the Act or Default in respect of which such Penalty is imposed, or to be applied in or towards Payment of the Expenses of the Proceedings; and, subject to such Directions or specific Application as aforesaid, all Penalties recovered in the United Kingdom shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Treasury may direct, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; and all Penalties recovered in any British Possession shall be paid over into the Public Treasury of such Possession, and form Part of the Public Revenue thereof.

Limitation of Time in Summary Proceedings.

525. The Time for instituting Summary Proceedings under this Act shall be limited as follows; (that is to say,)

(1.) No Conviction for any Offence shall be made under this Act in any Summary Proceeding instituted in the United Kingdom, unless such Proceeding is commenced within Six Months after the Commission of the Offence; or if both or either of the Parties to such Proceeding happen during such Time to be out of the United Kingdom, unless the same is commenced within Two Months after they both first happen to arrive or to be at One Time within the same:

(2.) No Conviction for any Offence shall be made under this Act in any Proceeding instituted in any British Possession, unless such Proceeding is commenced within Six Months after the Commission of the Offence; or if both or either of the Parties to the Proceeding happen during such Time not to be within the Jurisdiction of any Court capable of dealing with the Case, unless the same is commenced within Two Months after they both first happen to arrive or to be at One Time within such Jurisdiction:

(3.) No Order for the Payment of Money shall be made under this Act in any Summary Proceeding instituted in the United Kingdom unless such Proceeding is commenced within Six Months after the Cause of Complaint arises; or, if both or either of the Parties happen during such Time to be out of the United Kingdom, unless the same is commenced within Six Months after they both first happen to arrive or to be at One Time within the same:

(4.) No Order for the Payment of Money shall be made under this Act in any Summary Proceeding instituted in any British Possession, unless such Proceeding is commenced within Six Months after the Cause of Complaint arises; or, if both or either of the Parties to the Proceeding happen during such Time not to be within the Jurisdiction of any Court capable of dealing with the Case, unless the same is commenced within Six Months after they both first happen to arrive or be at One Time within such Jurisdiction:

And no Provision contained in any other Act or Acts, Ordinance or Ordinances, for limiting the Time within which Summary Proceedings may be instituted shall affect any Summary Proceeding under this Act.

Document proved without calling attesting Witness.

526. Any Document required by this Act to be executed in the Presence of or to be attested by any Witness or Witnesses, may be proved by the Evidence of any Person who is able to bear witness to the requisite Facts, without calling the attesting Witness or Witnesses or any of them.

Power of Judge of Court of

527. Whenever any Injury has, in any Part of the World, been caused to any Property belonging to Her Majesty or to any of Her Majesty's Subjects by any Foreign Ship, if at any Time thereafter such Ship

Ship is found in any Port or River of the United Kingdom or within Three Miles of the Coast thereof, it shall be lawful for the Judge of any Court of Record in the United Kingdom, or for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or in Scotland the Court of Session, or the Sheriff of the County within whose Jurisdiction such Ship may be, upon its being shown to him by any Person applying summarily that such Injury was probably caused by the Misconduct or Want of Skill of the Master or Mariners of such Ship, to issue an Order directed to any Officer of Customs or other Officer named by such Judge, requiring him to detain such Ship until such Time as the Owner, Master, or Consignee thereof has made Satisfaction in respect of such Injury, or has given Security, to be approved by the Judge, to abide the Event of any Action, Suit, or other legal Proceeding that may be instituted in respect of such Injury, and to pay all Costs and Damages that may be awarded thereon; and any Officer of Customs or other Officer to whom such Order is directed shall detain such Ship accordingly.

Record or Admiralty to arrest Foreign Ship that has occasioned Damage.

528. In any Case where it appears that before any Application can be made under the foregoing Section such Foreign Ship will have departed beyond the Limits therein mentioned, it shall be lawful for any Commissioned Officer on Full Pay in the Military or Naval Service of Her Majesty, or any British Officer of Customs, or any British Consular Officer, to detain such Ship until such Time as will allow such Application to be made and the Result thereof to be communicated to him; and no such Officer shall be liable for any Costs or Damages in respect of such Detention unless the same is proved to have been made without reasonable Grounds.

Power in certain Cases to detain Ship before Application made to Judge.

529. In any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding in relation to such Injury, the Person so giving Security as aforesaid shall be made Defendant or Defender, and shall be stated to be the Owner of the Ship that has occasioned such Damage; and the Production of the Order of the Judge made in relation to such Security shall be conclusive Evidence of the Liability of such Defendant or Defender to such Action, Suit, or other Proceeding.

Who to be Defendant to Suit in such Cases.

Legal Procedure (Scotland).

Legal Procedure (Scotland).

530. In Scotland every Offence which by this Act is described as a Felony or Misdemeanor may be prosecuted by Indictment or Criminal Letters at the Instance of Her Majesty's Advocate before the High Court of Justiciary, or by Criminal Libel at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the County before the Sheriff, and shall be punishable with Fine and with Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, in default of Payment, or with Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, or with both, as the Court may think fit, or in the Case of Felony with Penal Servitude, where the Court is competent thereto; and such Court may also, if it think fit, order Payment by the Offender of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution.

Offences punishable as Misdemeanors.

531. In Scotland, all Prosecutions, Complaints, Actions, or Proceedings under this Act, other than Prosecutions for Felonies or Misdemeanors, may be brought in a summary Form before the Sheriff of the County, or before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County or Burgh where the Cause of such Prosecution or Action arises, or where the Offender or Defender may be for the Time, and when of a criminal Nature, or for Penalties, at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of Court, or at the Instance of any Party aggrieved, with Concurrence of the Procurator Fiscal of Court; and the Court may, if it think fit, order Payment by the Offender or Defender of the Costs of the Prosecution or Action.

Summary Proceedings.

532. In Scotland, all Prosecutions, Complaints, Actions, or other Proceedings under this Act may be brought either in a written or printed Form, or partly written and partly printed, and where such Proceedings are brought in a summary Form it shall not be necessary in the Complaint to recite or set forth the Clause or Clauses of the Act on which such Proceeding is founded, but it shall be sufficient to specify or refer to such Clause or Clauses, and to set forth shortly the Cause of Complaint or Action, and the Remedy sought; and when such Complaint or Action is brought in whole or in part for the Enforcement of a pecuniary Debt or Demand, the Complaint may contain a Prayer for Warrant to arrest upon the Dependence.

Form of Complaint.

533. In Scotland, on any Complaint or other Proceeding brought in a summary Form under this Act being presented to the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace, he shall grant Warrant to cite the Defender to appear personally before the said Sheriff or Justices of the Peace on a Day fixed, and at the same Time shall appoint a Copy of the same to be delivered to him by a Sheriff Officer or Constable, as the Case may be, along with the Citation; and such Deliverance shall also contain a Warrant for citing Witnesses and Havers to compear at the same Time and Place to give Evidence and produce such Writs as may be specified in their Citation; and where such Warrant has been prayed for in the Complaint or other Proceeding, the Deliverance of the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace shall also contain Warrant to arrest upon the Dependence in common Form: Provided always, that where the Apprehension of any Party, with or without a Warrant, is authorized by this Act, such Party may be detained in Custody until he can be brought at the earliest Opportunity before any Two Justices, or the Sheriff who may have Jurisdiction in the Place, to be dealt with as this Act directs, and no Citation or Induciæ shall in such Case be necessary.

Mode of requiring Appearance of Defender and Witnesses.

534. When it becomes necessary to execute such Arrestment on the Dependence against Goods or Effects of the Defender within Scotland, but not locally situated within the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff or Justices Backing Arrestments.

Legal Procedure (Scotland).

Justices of the Peace by whom the Warrant to arrest has been granted, it shall be competent to carry the Warrant into execution on its being indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace of the County or Burgh respectively within which such Warrant comes to be executed.

Compelling Attendance of Witnesses.

535. In all Proceedings under this Act in Scotland the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace shall have the same Power of compelling Attendance of Witnesses and Havers as in Cases falling under their ordinary Jurisdiction.

Proceedings to be vivâ voce.

536. The whole Procedure in Cases brought in a summary Form before the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace in Scotland shall be conducted vivâ voce, without written Pleadings, and without taking down the Evidence in Writing, and no Record shall be kept of the Proceedings, other than the Complaint, and the Sentence or Decree pronounced thereon.

Power to adjourn.

537. It shall be in the Power of the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace in Scotland to adjourn the Proceedings from Time to Time to any Day or Days to be fixed by them, in the event of Absence of Witnesses or of any other Cause which shall appear to them to render such Adjournment necessary.

Sentence to be in Writing.

Imprisonment to be inflicted in default of Payment.

538. In Scotland all Sentences and Decrees to be pronounced by the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace upon such summary Complaints shall be in Writing; and where there is a Decree for Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money against a Defender, such Decree shall contain Warrant for Arrestment, Poinding, and Imprisonment in default of Payment, such Arrestment, Poinding, or Imprisonment to be carried into effect by Sheriffs Officers or Constables, as the Case may be, in the same Manner as in Cases arising under the ordinary Jurisdiction in the Sheriff or Justices: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to repeal or affect an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of William the Fourth, intituled An Act for abolishing, in Scotland, Imprisonment for Civil Debts of small Amount.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 70.

Sentence and Penalties in default of Defender's Appearance.

539. In all summary Complaints and Proceedings for Recovery of any Penalty or Sum of Money in Scotland, if a Defender who has been duly cited shall not appear at the Time and Place required by the Citation, he shall be held as confessed, and Sentence or Decree shall be pronounced against him in Terms of the Complaint, with such Costs and Expenses as to the Court shall seem fit: Provided always, that he shall be entitled to obtain himself reponed against any such Decree at any Time before the same be fully implemented, by lodging with the Clerk of Court a Reponing Note, and consigning in his Hands the Sum decerned for, and the Costs which had been awarded by the Court, and on the same Day delivering or transmitting through the Post to the Pursuer or his Agent a Copy of such Reponing Note; and a Certificate by the Clerk of Court of such Note having been lodged shall operate as a Sist of Diligence till the Cause shall have been reheard and finally disposed of, which shall be on the next Sitting of the Court, or on any Day to which the Court shall then adjourn it.

Warrant to apprehend in default of Appearance.

540. In all summary Complaints or other Proceedings not brought for the Recovery of any Penalty or Sum of Money in Scotland, if a Defender, being duly cited, shall fail to appear, the Sheriff or Justices may grant Warrant to apprehend and bring him before the Court.

Backing Sentences or Decrees.

541. In all Cases where Sentences or Decrees of the Sheriff or Justices require to be enforced within Scotland, but beyond the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff or Justices by whom such Sentences or Decrees have been pronounced, it shall be competent to carry the same into execution upon the same being indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace of the County or Burgh within which such Execution is to take place.

Orders not to be quashed for Want of Form; and to be final.

542. No Order, Decree, or Sentence pronounced by any Sheriff or Justice of the Peace in Scotland under the Authority of this Act shall be quashed or vacated for any Misnomer, Informality, or Defect of Form; and all Orders, Decrees, and Sentences so pronounced shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to Suspension, Advocation, Reduction, or to any Form of Review or Stay of Execution, except on the Ground of Corruption or Malice on the Part of the Sheriff or Justices, in which Case the Suspension, Advocation, or Reduction must be brought within Fourteen Days of the Date of the Order, Decree, or Sentence complained of: Provided always, that no Stay of Execution shall be competent to the Effect of preventing immediate Execution of such Order, Decree, or Sentence.

General Rules, so far as applicable, to extend to Penalties and Proceedings in Scotland.

543. Such of the general Provisions with respect to Jurisdiction, Procedure, and Penalties contained in this Act as are not inconsistent with the special Rules herein-before laid down for the Conduct of legal Proceedings and the Recovery of Penalties in Scotland, shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend to such last-mentioned Proceedings and Penalties: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held in any way to annul or restrict the Common Law of Scotland with regard to the Prosecution or Punishment of Offences at the Instance or by the Direction of the Lord Advocate, or the Rights of Owners or Creditors in regard to enforcing a Judicial Sale of any Ship and Tackle, or to give to the High Court of Admiralty of England any Jurisdiction in respect of Salvage in Scotland which it has not heretofore had or exercised.

PART XI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Miscellaneous.

Contracts may be made with Natives in India under certain Conditions, binding them to go to Australia, and thence to serve in other Ships to the United Kingdom.

544. It shall be lawful for any Master or Owner of a Ship, or his Agent, to enter into Contracts with Lascars or Natives of the Territories of the East India Company, binding them to proceed to any Port or Ports in the Australian Colonies either as Seamen or as Passengers, and there to engage themselves as Seamen in any Ship which may happen to be there and to be bound to the United Kingdom or to any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions; provided that every such Contract shall be in such Form, and shall contain such Provisions, and shall be executed in such Manner, and under such Conditions for securing the Return of such Lascars or Natives to their own Country, and for other Purposes, as the Governor General of India in Council, or the Governors of the respective Presidencies in which the Contract is made, in Council, may direct; and if any Lascar or other Person who has bound himself by any such Contract is, on arriving in any of the said Colonies, required to enter into an Agreement to serve as a Seaman in any Ship bound for the United Kingdom or to any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, and if it is certified by some Officer appointed for that Purpose by the Governor of the said Colony that such Agreement is a proper Agreement in all respects for such Lascar or other Person to enter into, and is in accordance with the original Contract, and that the Ship to which such Agreement relates is a proper Ship for such Lascar or other Person to serve in, and is properly supplied with Provisions, and that there is not in the Opinion of such Officer any Objection to the full Performance of the said Contract, such Lascar or other Person shall be bound to enter into the said Agreement, and to serve as a Seaman in the Ship to which it relates, and shall thereupon be deemed to be for all Purposes One of the Crew of the Ship; and if he refuses to enter into such Agreement he shall, notwithstanding such Refusal, be liable to the same Consequences, and be dealt with in all respects in the same Manner, as if he had voluntarily entered into the same; and for every Lascar or other Person in respect of whom such Certificate is applied for the Person applying for the same shall pay to such Officer as aforesaid such Fee as the Governor of the Colony may appoint.

Act not to affect Passengers Acts.

545. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to repeal or alter any of the Provisions of the "Passengers Act, 1852," or of the Act of the Seventeenth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four.

Corporations, &c. may grant Site for Sailors Homes.

546. The Municipal Corporation of any Borough, being a Seaport in the United Kingdom, and any Body Corporate, Association, or Trustees in any such Seaport, existing or constituted for any public Purposes relating to the Government or Benefit of Persons engaged in the British Merchant Service, or to the Management of Docks and Harbours, or for any other public Purposes connected with Shipping or Navigation, may, with the Consent of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, appropriate any Lands vested in them or in Trustees for them as a Site or Sites for a Sailors Home or Sailors Homes, and may for that Purpose either retain and apply the same accordingly, or convey the same to Trustees, with such Powers for appointing new Trustees and continuing the Trust as they think fit.

Power of Colonial Legislatures to alter this Act.

547. The Legislative Authority of any British Possession shall have Power, by any Act or Ordinance, confirmed by Her Majesty in Council, to repeal, wholly or in part, any Provisions of this Act relating to Ships registered in such Possession; but no such Act or Ordinance shall take effect until such Approval has been proclaimed in such Possession, or until such Time thereafter as may be fixed by such Act or Ordinance for the Purpose.

Expenses incurred by Commissioners of Customs, how to be paid.

548. All Expenses incurred by the Commissioners of Customs in the Conduct of Suits or Prosecutions, or otherwise in carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act, shall be considered as Expenses having reference to the Revenue of Customs, and shall be paid out of the Consolidated Customs; but the Board of Trade may, with the Consent of the Treasury, repay out of the Mercantile Marine Fund all or any Part of such of the Expenses so paid as are by the Provisions of this Act chargeable on the said Fund.

CAP. CV.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Militia in England and Wales. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is necessary to amend certain Provisions of the Laws now in force relating to the Militia in England and Wales:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; that is to say,

Parts of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 116. repealed.

I. The Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, and Forty-first Sections of the Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and sixteen, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. In

II. In all Cases where any Place provided for the Purpose of keeping therein the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging to any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia when not embodied is or may become from any Cause insecure, insufficient, or unfit for the safe Custody of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores, or in case the Public Service or Convenience require the Site of the same to be changed, or in case no such Place has been provided, the Justices of the Peace for such County at their General or Quarter Sessions next ensuing assembled, upon the Representation of the Lord Lieutenant of such County, and of the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, that no such Place has been provided, or that the Place provided is insecure, insufficient, or unfit, being duly satisfied thereof, may and they are hereby required to provide a secure and suitable Place for that Purpose, and to that End they may in their Discretion from Time to Time resolve either to purchase or hire any suitable Buildings or Premises, and if necessary, to enlarge, alter, or improve the same, or from Time to Time to enlarge, alter, or improve any Buildings or Premises already purchased or hired, or to purchase or take on Lease for any Term not less than Sixty Years any Portion of Land for the Purpose of building and to build or rebuild thereupon secure and suitable Buildings and Premises for the Purpose aforesaid, and, with reference to any such Purchase as is hereby authorized, the Clauses and Provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, shall be incorporated with this Act; and the Words "Promoters of the Undertaking" in those Clauses shall mean the Persons by this Act authorized to purchase Land; and the Word "Undertaking" shall mean the building or rebuilding, enlarging, or altering of a Place for Militia Stores: Provided always, that the Place to be so hired, purchased, built, altered, or enlarged shall contain an Orderly and Guard Room and Magazine, and a sufficient Yard or Place wherein the Men may be mustered for the Issue and Return of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores; provided also, that it shall be at any Time lawful for such Justices, if they think fit, to add to such Buildings Quarters for such Number of the Permanent Staff as may appear to them desirable, and Cells, together with such other Conveniences as may be suitable for the Custody and Accommodation of the Stores; and no Place provided for the keeping of Militia Stores under this or the recited Acts, nor any Buildings or Premises appurtenant thereto, shall be liable to be assessed to any County, Borough, Parochial, or other local Rates or Assessments; and all or any Person or Persons by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and this Act authorized to sell may grant Leases instead of selling, and for such Term of Years as may be agreed on, and under such Terms and Provisions in all respects as may be agreed on, and either at Rackrent or otherwise, and any Fine or Premium paid on the granting any such Lease shall be paid and applied under the Provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as if the same had arisen from a Sale made by the Party making the Lease; and the Party taking any Lease for the Purposes of this Act shall be indemnified against the Rent and the Performance of the Covenants in such Lease by and out of the County Rates, and the same shall be raised and paid out of the County Rates in the Manner after provided for the raising and Payment of Interest on Monies borrowed on Mortgage.

Place for Militia Storehouse to be provided.

Storehouse to be exempt from local Rates.

III. Whenever any Place which shall have been provided for keeping the Stores of the Militia shall have become insecure, insufficient, or unfit for that Purpose, or in case the Public Service or Convenience require the Site of the same to be changed, and the Justices of the Peace for the County at General or Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid shall have so determined, the Persons in whom such Place may be vested, upon Service upon them of an Order made at any Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, setting forth that another and more convenient and proper Place has been provided for the Purpose aforesaid, whereby the Place theretofore provided has become useless, shall proceed forthwith, in such Manner as they shall think best, to sell and convey the same to any Purchaser thereof, freed and discharged from the Uses or Trusts to which it had theretofore been subject, and shall give Receipts and Acquittances for the Purchase Money thereof, and shall pay over such Money, after deducting thereout all Costs and Charges attending such Sale, unto the Treasurer of such County, to be by him applied and paid towards the Cost of purchasing any Ground for the Purpose of building, or of purchasing, building, rebuilding, enlarging, altering, improving, or fitting up any Place, Buildings, or Premises for the Purposes aforesaid, under the Powers of this Act, and the Residue of such Purchase Money (if any) shall be invested in the Public Funds, and the Interest thereof applied in aid of the Rate of such County, according as the Justices of the same, assembled as aforesaid, may direct; provided that no Person purchasing any Place so sold as aforesaid shall be bound to inquire into any Circumstances relating to the Sale thereof, nor be bound to see to the Application nor be answerable for the Non-application or Misapplication of the Purchase Monies; and when and as soon as the Persons in whom such Place shall have been so vested as aforesaid shall have paid to the said County Treasurer the clear Proceeds arising from such Sale, and shall have procured from such Treasurer his Receipt for the same, then and from thenceforth such Persons shall be forthwith discharged from all Liability, Claim, or Demand in respect of the said Place, and of the Proceeds arising from the Sale thereof.

Sale of Place which is not required.

IV. The Sums that may be required for the Hire, Purchase, Enlargement, Alteration, building of, or Addition to any such Place, in case the same shall be approved by the said Lord Lieutenant and Colonel or Commandant, shall, together with the Sums required for the Cost of Fuel and other necessary Expenses incidental to the Use and Maintenance of the Premises, be paid by the Treasurer of such County out of any Monies in his Hands arising from County Rates; or if such Treasurer shall at any Time not have have sufficient Monies in his Hands, the Justices of such County, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, are hereby authorized and required, as soon as may be after receiving Notice that such Monies are or will be required, forthwith to cause the same to be raised by such additional County Rate as shall in their Judgment be sufficient; and the Monies so raised, according to the Laws in force for the Time being relating to County Rates, shall be applied accordingly.

Expense of Storehouse, how to be provided for.

Power to borrow on Mortgage of the County Rates.

V. In order to distribute over a Term of Years the Expenses of purchasing, building, enlarging, or altering such Place as aforesaid hereby directed to be paid out of the County Rate, the Justices of such County in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled may, if they think fit, borrow all or any Part of the Money necessary for the aforesaid Purposes upon Mortgage of the Rates of such County; and every such Mortgage may be in the Form in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and shall be executed by the Chairman and any two of the Justices present at the General or Quarter Sessions at the Time being, and shall be effectual for securing to the Person advancing the Sum in such Mortgage expressed, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the Repayment thereof, with Interest after the Rate, at the Times and in the Manner in such Mortgage specified; and any Person entitled to any such Mortgage may transfer his Right and Interest therein to any other Person, such Transfer being made according to the Form in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and the Persons to whom such Mortgages or the Transfers thereof are made, their Executors and Administrators, shall be Creditors upon the Rates and Funds thereby expressed to be charged, in an equal Degree one with another according to the respective Sums in such Mortgages mentioned to be advanced by them.

Justices to provide for Interest on Mortgages and Repayment of Principal.

VI. The said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall in every Year provide for and cause to be paid out of the County Rate, in the Manner and at the Times in such Mortgages specified, the Monies required for the Time being to pay the Interest on the several Sums borrowed under this Act or the first-recited Act, and then unpaid, and shall also set apart and appropriate a further Sum, not being less than One Thirtieth Part of the Principal Sum originally borrowed upon such Mortgages, and shall apply the same in the Repayment of so much of the said Principal Sums then unpaid as it will extend to discharge, Year by Year, until the whole of such Principal Sums have been repaid; and the said Justices shall, by Agreement with the Parties entitled to such Mortgages, or in default of Agreement, by such other Means as they deem most equitable and convenient, determine the Order of Priority in which the several Sums advanced shall be repaid.

Power to reborrow.

VII. It shall be lawful for the said Justices, with the Consent of the Parties entitled to such Mortgages, to pay off from Time to Time any of the Monies so borrowed as aforesaid, and to reborrow from Time to Time the Sums necessary for that Purpose, but so nevertheless that all Monies borrowed under this or the first-recited Act shall be repaid within Thirty Years from the Time of first borrowing the same.

Mortgages under former Acts saved.

VIII. All Mortgages made under the Powers of the first-recited Act shall be and remain as valid and effectual, and the Persons entitled to the same shall continue to have the same Rights and Remedies in respect thereof, as they would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Acts done and Contracts made by Deputy Lieutenants shall be valid.

IX. All Acts done by the Deputy Lieutenants of any County for or with reference to the providing of a Place for keeping the Militia Stores, under any of the Acts heretofore in force, shall be deemed good and valid, and all Contracts, Covenants, and Leases made by them for the said Purposes, and under the Powers of the said Acts, are hereby confirmed: Provided, that the Justices of such County shall be deemed to be substituted for the Deputy Lieutenants as the contracting Parties thereto, and such Contracts, Covenants, and Leases shall be respectively construed and put in force as if the same had originally been made and entered into by and with such Justices: Provided also, that in the Case of any Lease subsisting at the Time of the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County assembled as aforesaid, with the Consent of the Lessors or their Representatives, and in such Manner and upon such Terms as may be mutually agreed upon, to determine such Lease, and such Justices are hereby authorized to do all such Acts as may be necessary for carrying into effect such Agreement and the Avoidance of such Lease.

Powers given by this Act to extend to Militia of the City of London.

X. All and every the Powers, Authorities, and Directions in and by this Act given to or vested in the Lords Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Treasurers of Counties, and the Justices of the Peace in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, shall extend to and include the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London and their Treasurer for the Time being, so far as the same may be applicable to the Militia of the said City.

Municipal Boroughs exempt from County Rate to contribute in due Proportion.

XI. ‘ And whereas there are certain Corporate Towns and Places not liable by Law to the Payment ‘ of County Rates, but to which the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Militia in other respects apply, ‘ and it is just that such Towns and Places should contribute in fair and rateable Proportion to the ‘ Expenses incurred for the efficient Maintenance of the Militia:’ Be it therefore enacted, That a proportionate Part of the Expense to be incurred or which may have been incurred by the Counties subsequently to the passing of the Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty, in providing, building, enlarging, or altering Places for Militia Stores, and of the Expenses incident to the Use and Maintenance of the Premises, shall be paid and borne, in manner herein-after provided, by all Boroughs incorporated under the Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, or any Act amending the same, or under the Provisions of any Charter granted or to be granted under any of such Acts, and which Boroughs are not liable by Law to the Payment of County Rates.

XII. In

Mode of assessing the Proportions payable by the Boroughs.

XII. In order to determine the Proportion to be contributed by any such Borough to the Expenditure for the Purposes aforesaid of the County in which such Borough is locally situated, the Justices of every such County are hereby authorized and required at some General or Quarter Sessions held by them within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, and the Council of every such Borough are authorized and required at some Meeting of the Council to be held within Three Months after the passing of this Act, to appoint respectively Two Justices of such County and Two Members of such Council, which said Four Persons shall, as soon as conveniently may be after their Appointment, meet together, and shall jointly determine and award the respective Proportions in which the said County and Borough shall contribute to the Expenditure incurred or to be incurred under the recited Acts respectively or this Act, according to the respective annual Values of the Property as rated to the Relief of the Poor within such Borough, and of the Property as rated to the Relief of the Poor and chargeable to the County Rate within such County.

Manner in which the Award is to be made.

XIII. The said Four Persons shall certify the Sum so found by them to be contributable by such County and Borough respectively, by an Award in Duplicate under their Hands and Seals, and shall transmit One Copy of such Award to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, and the other Copy thereof to the Town Clerk of the Borough, who shall respectively keep the same in their Custody, and shall allow all Persons contributing to the County Rates or Borough Rates (as the Case may be) to inspect and take Copies of or Extracts from the same, at all seasonable Hours, without Fee or Reward, and such Award shall, until revoked as herein-after provided, be final and conclusive.

Arbitrator to be appointed in default of Agreement.

XIV. In case the said Four Persons, or any of them, shall not be appointed as herein-before provided, or, being appointed, shall be unable to agree together as to the Proportion of such Contribution, or shall neglect to meet together, or fail to make any Award within Three Months from the Time of the Appointment of the Two Persons last appointed, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and he is hereby authorized, upon the Memorial of the Justices of such County at their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to appoint One competent Person to act as Arbitrator between such County and Borough respectively, and such Arbitrator shall be empowered to determine, upon the Basis of the annual Value of Property as assessed as aforesaid, the Proportion of Expenditure which such Borough ought to contribute, and he shall make his Award upon the Matter so determined under his Hand and Seal in Duplicate, and shall transmit the several Copies thereof to the Clerk of the Peace and Town Clerk, who shall perform the same Duties as before provided in respect thereof, and any such Award, until revoked as herein-after mentioned, shall be final and conclusive.

Vacancies in Arbitrators to be supplied.

XV. In case of the Death or Inability to act of any of such Four Persons or of such Arbitrator, as the Case may be, the Vacancy shall be supplied by the Justices, or the Council, or the Secretary of State by whom the Person so dying or unable to act was appointed within Three Months after such Vacancy has occurred, and so from Time to Time.

Power to inspect Rates.

XVI. All Persons appointed under this Act for the Purpose of determining the respective Proportions contributable by any Counties or Boroughs may, without Fee or Reward, inspect or take Copies or Extracts of and from all County or Borough Rates, or Rates made for the Relief of the Poor in any Place whereto their Inquiry extends, and which they may think necessary to be examined, and any Person having the Care or Custody of any such Rate who shall refuse to permit such Inspection, or the taking of Copies or Extracts as hereby authorized, shall be liable on Conviction to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalty.

The Borough Treasurer to pay the Sums awarded to the County Treasurer.

XVII. The Sum or Sums which shall be determined, in accordance with such Award as aforesaid, to be contributable by any Borough to the Expenditure incurred or to be incurred by the County under this or the recited Acts or either of them in respect of any Place for Militia Stores, and for their Use and Maintenance, shall be paid from Time to Time by the Treasurer of such Borough to the Treasurer of the County, upon a Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two of the Justices present at the General or Quarter Sessions of the County, and such Payment, for which a Receipt shall be given by the Treasurer of the County, shall be made from Time to Time out of the Borough Rate or Borough Fund of such Borough, or in case at any Time the Monies arising from such Rate or Fund then in the Hands of such Treasurer shall not be sufficient for the Purpose, the Council of such Borough shall forthwith cause the Sum or further Sums so required to be raised by means of a Borough Rate, and to be paid over, according to the Exigency of the said Warrant, to the Treasurer of the County.

Borough may borrow Money on Mortgage.

XVIII. In order to distribute over a Term of Years the Proportion payable by any Borough of the Expense incurred or to be incurred by the County in purchasing, erecting, enlarging, or altering a Place for Militia Stores, it shall be lawful for the Council to borrow any Sum of Money, not exceeding the Proportion so payable by them, and, for the Purpose of securing such Money, to mortgage, with the Consent of Three or more Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, any Part of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of such Borough, and to repay the Money so borrowed, and the Interest thereof, according to the Terms of such Mortgages, out of the Borough Fund or Borough Rate, and from Time to Time to reborrow, for the Purpose of paying off any Sums so borrowed; provided always, that the whole of the Monies so borrowed, with the Interest thereon, shall be repaid within the Period of Thirty Years from the Time of first borrowing the same.

How Mortgages are to be made.

XIX. Such Mortgages shall be made in the Form in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, mutatis mutandis, or to the like Effect, and shall be effectual for securing to the Person advancing the Sum in such Mortgage expressed, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the Repayment thereof, with Interest, according to the Terms of such Mortgage, and any Person entitled to any such Mortgage may transfer his Right and Interest therein to any other Person, such Transfer being made according to the Form in Schedule (B.), mutatis mutandis, or to the like Effect.

Instruments exempted from Stamp Duty.

XX. All Conveyances, Leases, Mortgages, Awards, Contracts, Receipts, and other Instruments made for the Purpose of carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act shall be exempt from Stamp Duty.

Stannaries charged to be apportioned.

XXI. 'Whereas it is necessary to determine by Law the Proportions in which the Counties of Cornwall and Devon respectively shall contribute to the Expenses incurred or to be incurred in respect to providing a Place for Militia Stores for the Stannaries Corps of Militia, called the Devon and Cornwall Miners Artillery Militia:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Lord Warden of the Stannaries shall, within Three Months after the passing of this Act, appoint Four of the Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries, of whom Two shall be Persons acting as Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries of Devon, and Two shall be Persons acting as Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries of Cornwall, who shall, as soon as conveniently may be after their Appointment, meet together, and shall jointly determine and award the respective Proportions in which the Two said Counties shall respectively contribute, and shall certify the Sum so found by them to be contributable by each of the said Counties by an Award in Triplicate under their Hands and Seals, and shall transmit One Copy thereof to the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Devon, and One Copy thereof to the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Cornwall, and One Part thereof to the Clerk to the Warden, who shall respectively keep the same in their Custody, and shall allow all Persons contributing to the County Rates of the said Counties to inspect the same at all reasonable Hours without Fee or Reward, and such Award shall, until revoked as herein-after provided, be final and conclusive; but in case the said Four Persons shall be unable to agree together as to the Proportions of such Contribution, or shall fail to make any Award within Three Months from the Date of their Appointment, then the Lord Warden may appoint some other competent Person who shall be empowered to determine and shall award the fair and just Proportion to be contributed by each of the said Counties, and he shall make his Award under his Hand and Seal in Triplicate, and shall transmit the several Parts thereof to the Clerks of the Peace and to the Clerk to the Warden, and such Award shall, until revoked in manner herein-after provided, be final and conclusive: In case of the Death or Inability to act of any of such Four Persons, or of such Arbitrator, as the Case may be, the Vacancy shall be supplied by the Lord Warden of the Stannaries of Devon and Cornwall within Three Months after such Vacancy has occurred, and so from Time to Time.

Award may be revoked in certain Events.

XXII. At any Time, not being less than Three Years after the Date of any Award made under this Act, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon the Memorial of the Justices of any County in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, or of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of any Borough at a Special Meeting of their Council agreed to, if he shall be satisfied that adequate Reasons exist for a Re-adjustment of the Proportions contributable by such County and Borough respectively, to declare by Writing under his Hand that such Award shall be revoked and that a new Award shall be made in the Premises, and thereupon the same Proceedings shall be had and taken with respect to the Appointment of Persons to determine such Proportions, and of an Arbitrator if necessary, and with respect to the making of the Award and carrying the same into execution, and all Proceedings consequent thereupon in like Manner as are herein-before directed with respect to such Matters respectively in the first instance.

Three Parts of the County of Lincoln, how to be dealt with under this Act.

XXIII. 'And whereas it is necessary to determine by Law the Proportions in which the several Divisions of the County of Lincoln known as the Parts of Kesteven, Holland, and Lindsey respectively should contribute to the Expenditure incurred or to be incurred by the said County in respect to a Place for Militia Stores under this or the recited Acts:' Be it therefore enacted, That of the Sums which have been subsequently to the passing of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, or which may be hereafter expended from Time to Time for the Purposes aforesaid in respect to the whole Number of Militia raised or to be raised in and for the said County, the Proportions chargeable on the said Parts respectively shall be as follows, namely, on Lindsey One Moiety of the whole Sum or Sums, and on Kesteven Four Sevenths, and on Holland Three Sevenths of the remaining Moiety thereof.

How the several Quotas shall be paid.

XXIV. 'And whereas a separate and distinct County Rate is now raised, and a separate Commission of the Peace exists in and for each of the said Three Parts or Divisions:' Be it enacted, That the Proportion of the whole Charge hereby made payable by each such Part shall be separately raised in and for each Part, and shall be paid and accounted for by the respective Treasurer of each Part, and may be borrowed and secured upon Mortgage of the Rate leviable in each Part respectively, and under the Authority and Control of the Justices acting in and for each Part, and at the General or Quarter Sessions held in and for the same respectively, in like Manner for the Purposes now specified as if each of the said Parts were a distinct and separate County.

Parts of Lincolnshire to be separate Coun-

XXV. Each of the said Parts of the County of Lincoln shall also be deemed to be a separate County for the Purpose of determining the Proportion in which the several Boroughs and other Places not liable to County Rates situated therein respectively shall contribute to the Expenses incurred or to be incurred as aforesaid under this or the recited Acts, the said several Boroughs and Places being deemed liable to contribute in aid of the several Parts in which they are locally situated respectively; and for the Purposes of this Act the City of Lincoln shall be held to be in the Parts of Lindsey, and the Borough of Stamford in the Parts of Kesteven.

to

ties, with reference to Contributions from Boroughs and Franchises.

XXVI. 'And whereas by the Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth and the First 'Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-three, it was among other things enacted, that the Isle of 'Ely, being locally situated in the County of Cambridge, should, for the Purposes of Statutes made or to 'be passed, be deemed and taken to be a Division of a County, but nevertheless the Justices of the said 'Isle of Ely act under a separate Commission of the Peace, and a separate County Rate is made and 'levied for the said Isle, and it is necessary that Provision be made for the Removal of Doubts touching 'the respective Liabilities of the said Isle and of the County of Cambridge, and the proportionate Sums 'contributable by each of them respectively to the Expenses incurred and to be incurred by the County 'under this and the recited Acts in respect to the Militia of the said County and Isle:' Be it therefore enacted, That of the Sums which have been subsequently to the passing of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, or which may be hereafter expended, from Time to Time, for the Purposes aforesaid, in respect of the whole Number of Militia raised or to be raised in and for the County of Cambridge, including the said Isle of Ely, the Proportions chargeable on the said County and Isle respectively shall be as follow, namely, on the said County, including the Proportion to be received from the Borough of Cambridge, Twelve Nineteenth Parts, and on the said Isle Seven Nineteenth Parts of the whole, and the Proportion so chargeable on the said Isle shall, as to the Amount expended before the passing of this Act, (on Notice in Writing of the Amount thereof being transmitted by Post by the Clerk of the Peace of the County of Cambridge to the Clerk of the Peace of the said Isle,) be forthwith paid by the Treasurer of the said Isle, and as to the Amount which may hereafter be expended from Time to Time on the like Notice be paid from Time to Time by the Treasurer of the said Isle to the Treasurer of the said County.

Isle of Ely to contribute in certain Proportion to County of Cambridge.

XXVII. The Sums contributable according to the said Proportions shall be separately raised in and for the said County and Isle, and shall be separately paid and accounted for by their respective Treasurers, and may be borrowed and secured upon Mortgage of the Rates leviable in and for them respectively, and under the Authority and Control of their respective Justices and Courts of General or Quarter Sessions, in like Manner, for the Purposes now specified, as if the said County and the said Isle were Two separate and distinct Counties.

Quotas of the County and Isle to be raised separately.

XXVIII. For the Purpose of determining the Proportion of Contribution to be made under this Act to the County of Cambridge by any Borough or other Place not liable to County Rates situated therein, the Isle of Ely shall be deemed to be Part of such County.

Isle of Ely to be included in the County.

XXIX. The Provisions of this Act with respect to Boroughs incorporated under the Acts relating to Municipal Corporations, and not liable to County Rates, and with respect to the Mode of determining the Proportion of the Expense incurred by Counties under this or the recited Acts which shall be contributable by such Boroughs, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to every Franchise, Liberty, Borough, or Place not liable by Law to the Payment of County Rates, but not being such Municipal Borough; and the Proportion of the Expenditure incurred or to be incurred by the County in which any such Franchise, Liberty, Borough, or Place is locally situated which shall be contributable by such Franchise, Liberty, Borough, or Place shall be jointly determined by Two Justices of such County appointed as aforesaid, and Two Justices of or Persons appointed to act on behalf of such Franchise, Liberty, Borough, or Place by the Justices thereof at any Meeting specially convened for that Purpose, or if there be not Two Justices then by the Mayor or chief Municipal Officer thereof, or in default of any such Appointment or of the Agreement or Determination of the Persons so respectively appointed, then by an Arbitrator to be nominated as herein-before provided, and the Amount of Contribution so determined shall be paid out of the Liberty Rate or other local Rate in the Nature of a County Rate leviable within such Franchise, Liberty, Borough, or Place, and the other Provisions herein-before contained with respect to the Revocation of the Award, and to the borrowing of Money, and other Matters incidental thereto, shall apply in like Manner to such Franchise, Liberty, Borough, or Place as aforesaid.

Proportions contributable by Franchises and Places exempt from County Rates.

XXX. For the Purposes of this Act, the Borough and Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed shall be deemed to be situate within the County of Northumberland.

Situation of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

XXXI. 'And whereas the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, 'contains Provisions concerning the Qualifications in respect of Property to be possessed by Deputy 'Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia, which Provisions were altered and modified by the recited Act of 'the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty; but it is expedient further 'to relax the Restrictions imposed in that Behalf by the first-recited Act:' Be it enacted, That the Qualification by Possession or Expectancy of Landed Estate in the Manner and of the Value prescribed by the first-recited Act shall be sufficient to qualify any Deputy Lieutenant or other Officer of the Militia for whom by the secondly-recited Act a Qualification in respect of Property is still required, in whatever Part of the United Kingdom such Landed Estate may happen to be situated, and Officers of the Regular Army, the Marines, or East India Company's Service, who have served Five Years in the Regular Landed Estate to qualify Officers of Militia may be in any Part of the United Kingdom.

Regular Army or East India Company's Service, shall be admissible as Captains into the Militia Force without any Qualification being required.

Section 65 of 42 G. 3. c. 90. repealed.

XXXII. 'And whereas the Penalty imposed by the Sixty-fifth Section of the recited Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, has been found to be unnecessary:' The said Sixty-fifth Section is hereby repealed.

Drummers offending in certain Cases, how to be dealt with.

XXXIII. If any Drummer or Bugler of the Permanent Staff shall absent himself without Leave for a Period exceeding Five Days, and shall not account for such Absence to the Satisfaction of his Commanding Officer, and if any Drummer or Bugler of the Permanent Staff shall be guilty of any other Offence which the Commanding Officer may not think necessary to bring before a Court-martial, the Commanding Officer may, in addition to any other Punishment which he is authorized to award, order that such Drummer or Bugler be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding One hundred and sixty-eight Hours, with or without Hard Labour, or with or without Solitary Confinement, as the said Commanding Officer may think fit, and such Drummer or Bugler shall forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days of such Imprisonment; and any Drummer or Bugler who shall have absented himself as aforesaid may, in addition to or instead of such Imprisonment and Forfeiture or other Punishment which the Commanding Officer has Authority to inflict, be further deprived, by Order of his Commanding Officer, of his Pay for the Day or Days of such Absence; provided that such Drummer or Bugler so ordered to suffer Imprisonment or Forfeiture of Pay shall, if he so request, be entitled to be tried by a Court-martial for his Offence, instead of submitting to such Imprisonment or Forfeitures; and if any Person who shall have served in Her Majesty's Forces, and shall afterwards have been enrolled as a Non-commissioned Officer on the Permanent Staff of the Militia, shall be discharged from any Regiment or Corps for Misconduct, the Cause of his Discharge shall be certified by the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiments or Corps on the Back of the Certificate of his Discharge from Her Majesty's Army, and a Copy of the same forwarded to the Adjutant General of Her Majesty's Forces, the Secretary of State for the Home Department, and the Secretary-at-War.

Permanent Staff to be billeted.

XXXIV. Innkeepers and others who, according to the Provisions of the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, are liable to have Soldiers billeted upon them, shall in like Manner be subject to have the Permanent Staff of the Militia, when disembodied, billeted upon them, and in default of their providing convenient Lodging, with Fire and Candle, as prescribed in the Ninety-fourth Section of the Act of the Forty-second Year of George the Third, Chapter Ninety, shall be liable to the Penalties imposed upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets as prescribed by the said Acts for punishing Mutiny and Desertion.

Repeal of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 133., except ss. 1. 2.

XXXV. The Sections numbered from Three to Twenty inclusive of the Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty-three, shall be repealed, provided that such Repeal shall not revive the Provisions of any former Acts which by any of the said Sections were repealed.

Deputy Lieutenants to aid in raising Volunteers for the Militia.

XXXVI. The Deputy Lieutenants of Counties shall severally aid the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties in raising and enrolling Volunteers for such Militia in the several Parishes where such Deputy Lieutenants may be resident, and otherwise as the Lieutenants of such Counties may from Time to Time direct, but no General or Subdivision Meeting shall be holden for that Purpose, unless such Meeting be convened pursuant to any special Order made in this Behalf by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Notices of General and Subdivision Meetings to be sent to Deputy Lieutenants by Post.

XXXVII. Notices of the Days and Places of holding General Meetings of Lieutenancy shall be sent by the Post by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the several Deputy Lieutenants of the County Seven Days at the least before the Days appointed for holding such Meetings respectively; and any Notices of Subdivision Meetings required to be given to Deputy Lieutenants or others shall be sent by the Clerk of General Meetings by Post.

Times and Places of Exercise to be appointed without General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

XXXVIII. No General Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be holden for appointing the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militia in England, except by the special Order of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; but the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militia-men serving for each County in England shall be appointed, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, by the Lieutenant of such County, or by the Vice-Lieutenant in case of the Illness or Absence of the Lieutenant, or in case of the Non-appointment of any Vice-Lieutenant, then by Three Deputy Lieutenants authorized by Her Majesty to act as or in the Place of such Lieutenant when such Lieutenant is out of Great Britain, or when there is no such Lieutenant: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the Powers vested in Her Majesty under Sections Twenty-six and Twenty-seven of the Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty.

How Notices of Times and Places of Exercise to be given.

XXXIX. Notices to Men who are enrolled in the Militia in England to attend Training and Exercise shall be sent, by the Order of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Men belong, by the Post to the Residences of the several Men as stated on their Attestations, or as subsequently notified by them, and Notices shall also be sent by the Post to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers of the respective Parishes, Tithings, and Places in which such Men are so stated to be resident, with Directions to cause the same to be affixed on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and Chapel in their respective Parishes, Tithings, or Places, including including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church; and if any Place have no Church or Chapel, then in such Manner as Public Notices are usually made known in such Places, and on the Doors or outer Walls as aforesaid of the Churches or Chapels of some Parish, Tithing, or Place adjoining; and every such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, and other Officer as aforesaid shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of any such Notice, cause the same or Copies thereof to be affixed accordingly; and any such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer who wilfully neglects so to do, shall for every such Offence, on Conviction thereof before Two Justices, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and such Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of the recited Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Fifty, notwithstanding any Omission in the Notices by Post; and any such Man not appearing at the Time and Place appointed in any such Notice shall be subject to be punished and dealt with accordingly.

Penalties for fraudulent Re-enlistment.

XL. Any Militia Volunteer who, before the expiration of his Engagement as a Militia-man in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, enrols or offers to enrol himself in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, whether by the same or by different Names, (save in the Way of lawful Renewal of his Engagement,) shall, upon Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of such Payment shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Months, and shall also be liable to the Deduction out of the Bounty which he might otherwise have received in respect of his original Enlistment of a Sum equal to what he may have received upon his fraudulent Re-enlistment, and of such further Sum as the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps in which he may have originally enlisted shall think proper, or as the Secretary-at-War may from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the Expenses of his Attestation and Enrolment on such fraudulent Re-enlistment.

The Justice before whom a Militiaman is convicted of Re-enlistment in the Militia to send Report of Conviction to Secretary-at-War.

XLI. The Justice before whom a Militia Volunteer shall be convicted of having enrolled or offered to enrol himself in another Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or more than once in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, shall send or cause to be sent to the Secretary-at-War a Report of such Conviction, stating the Name of such Volunteer, the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia to which he belongs, the Offence of which he has been convicted, and the Sentence or Decision of the Justice thereon, and where such Volunteer shall be imprisoned in pursuance of such Conviction, the Period when the Imprisonment will expire; and for such Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings, and no more; and the Secretary-at-War may transmit to the Justice so convicting an Order for the Payment to any Person who has apprehended and procured the Conviction of such Offender of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as he shall think fit.

Power to discharge Men from the Militia who have enlisted in the regular Forces.

XLII. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War at any Time to discharge any Militia Volunteer for Misconduct, Unfitness, or other Cause, upon such Conditions as he may from Time to Time direct, and such Volunteer shall have no Claim to future Pay or Bounty, or to release from future Attendance in the Militia any Volunteer who may have fraudulently enlisted into Her Majesty's Regular Forces or into the Forces of the East India Company, or who may have fraudulently entered into Her Majesty's Navy, and who has been sentenced to Imprisonment, or to Forfeiture for a Period not exceeding Eighteen Calendar Months of One Penny a Day from his Pay in such Forces or Navy; and any Man so released shall serve with the Force which he may have enlisted into or entered in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, with the like Liabilities in all respects as any Soldier or Seaman in such respective Force, and his Place in the Militia shall be supplied in like Manner as if his Term of Service as a Militia-man had expired by Efflux of Time.

Provision for withholding Payment of Bounty from Men wrongfully absent from Training.

XLIII. Any Bounty which, under the Regulations made or to be made under the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, may be payable during or in respect of Attendance at Training and Exercise shall be forfeited by any Man who wholly absents himself from such Training and Exercise without Leave lawfully granted, or Sickness, certified according to such Regulations; and any such Bounty which would otherwise be payable to any Man who partially absents himself as aforesaid without such Leave, or Sickness, certified as aforesaid, or who misconducts himself during the Training, shall be wholly withheld, or issued only in such Manner and in such Portions as the Secretary-at-War, upon the Report of the Commanding Officer, shall determine.

Enrolment in Militia not to cause Forfeiture of any Interest in any Benefit Society.

XLIV. No Man by reason of his Enrolment or Service in the Militia, or in the Naval Coast Volunteers, shall lose or forfeit, or be deemed to have lost or forfeited, any Interest he may possess, or may have possessed at the Time of his so being enrolled or serving, in any Friendly or Benefit Society, any Laws, Rules, or Regulations, of such Society to the contrary notwithstanding; and in case any Dispute shall arise between any such Society and any such Man by reason of such Enrolment or Service, it shall be considered as being a Dispute directed by the Rules of such Society to be decided by Justices of the Peace, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Friendly Societies.

Punishment of Men not attending, or absenting themselves during Training, and not taken till after.

XLV. Every Militiaman raised under the recited Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty, (not labouring under any certified Infirmity or Incapacity,) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised (Notice having been given as by Law required), or who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Companies, or any Detachment or Division thereof, shall desert or absent himself during the the Time of any such Exercise, shall be deemed a Deserter, and, upon Conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, be liable to forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty shall not be immediately paid, the said Justice shall sentence such Militia-man to the House of Correction or to the Common Goal, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Three Months, unless the said Penalty be sooner paid; provided, that any Information may be laid against such Militia-man under this Section at any Time within the Period of his Engagement in the Militia.

Provision for Apprehension of Militiamen not attending or absenting themselves during Training.

XLVI. The Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall notify to the Secretary-at-War, and to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers of the Parishes, Tithings, and Places in which Militia-men reside who have not attended Training and Exercise, or who may have absented themselves during the Time of Training and Exercise of their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, the Names and Descriptions of all such Militia-men who have so absented themselves; and it shall be lawful for any Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer, or for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service or in the Militia, to apprehend or cause any such Militia-man to be apprehended, and to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace, at any Time within the Period of his Engagement in the Militia, to be dealt with as herein-before mentioned, or to be committed to safe Custody until an Escort can be sent for him, if such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps be then out for Training and Exercise; and such Justice shall transmit a Report, in the Form prescribed in Schedule (C.) annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, and the Secretary-at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to the Person or Persons by whom such Militia-man was apprehended and secured of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War may think fit.

Penalty for inducing Militiamen to absent themselves, &c.

XLVII. Any Person who by Words or other Means shall persuade any Militia-man improperly to absent himself from his Duty, and every Person who shall assist or procure any such Volunteer improperly to absent himself as aforesaid, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for buying Arms or Militia Stores.

XLVIII. The One hundred and second Section of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, shall be repealed, and if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully buy, take in exchange, conceal, or otherwise receive any Militia Arms, Clothes, or Accoutrements, or any such Articles belonging to a Militia-man as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries according to the Custom of the Army, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by Deductions out of his Pay, or any Public Stores or Ammunition delivered for the Militia, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of the other Acts in force relating to the Militia, the Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty be not immediately paid, and the Offender shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy the same, the Justice by whom such Offender was convicted shall commit him to the House of Correction or Common Gaol, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Six Months, unless the said Penalty be sooner paid.

Recovery of Penalties.

XLIX. All Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act imposed shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered in England or Wales under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

Application of certain Penalties.

L. One Moiety of every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed under this Act upon any Person duly convicted of buying, taking in exchange, concealing, or otherwise receiving contrary to Law any Militia Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries belonging to any Militiaman, or any Public Stores or Ammunition for the Service of the Militia, and every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed under this Act upon any Person assisting, procuring, or persuading any Militia Volunteer improperly to absent himself from his Duty, or concealing, employing, or continuing to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the other Moiety, or where the Offence shall be proved by the Person who shall inform then the whole of the Penalty, shall be paid over and applied in such Manner as the Secretary-at-War shall direct, anything in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and every Justice who shall adjudge any such Penalty or Forfeiture shall, within Four Days at the furthest, report the same and his Adjudication thereof to the Secretary-at-War.

Application of Penalties on Militiamen.

LI. All Penalties imposed by this Act upon Militia-men (except the Deductions from Bounty, which shall be brought to Public Credit,) shall be paid to the Commanding Officers of the respective Regiments, Battalions, or other Bodies of Militia of the respective Counties to which the Militia-man belongs, and shall be made and accounted for as Part of the Public Stock of such Regiment, Battalion, or other Body of Militia respectively.

LII. Section Ninety-eight of the Act of the Forty-second Year of George the Third, Chapter Ninety, which requires Returns of the State of the Classes of the Men belonging to each Company of Militia called out to Exercise, shall be and remain suspended so long as the raising of the Militia by Ballot shall be suspended. Section 98. of 42 G. 3. c. 90. suspended.

LIII. Any Militia Volunteer attached for a Time for the Purpose of Instruction to any Regiment, Battalion, or Depôt of Her Majesty's Forces, or Permanent Staff of a Regiment of Militia, shall for such Time be deemed to be under the Operation of the Mutiny Act, and under the Command of the Officer commanding such Regiment, Battalion, Depôt, or Permanent Staff of a Regiment of Militia. Volunteers under Instruction in the Army to be under Mutiny Act.

LIV. All Things in this Act contained shall be construed to extend, and shall be applicable, as far as may be, to the Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon, to the Lord Warden and to the Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries, and to the Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon. Act to extend to Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon.

LV. The Secretary of State shall have Power to move any Regiment of Militia not embodied into any Quarters in any Part of the United Kingdom during the Period of their Training. Secretary of State may move Regiment.

LVI. All Persons possessing Diplomas, Certificates, or Qualifications held to qualify such Persons to act as Surgeons or Assistant Surgeons in the Army shall be held to be duly qualified to serve as Surgeons or Assistant Surgeons in the Militia. As to Qualifications of Surgeons.

LVII. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854." Short Title.

LVIII. The Word "County" in this Act shall include any Riding or Division of a County, having a separate Commission of the Peace, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; and the Word "Treasurer" in this Act shall include the Treasurer of any Riding, Division, or Portion of a County for which there shall be a separate Treasurer, although such Riding, Division, or Portion of a County shall not have a separate Commission of the Peace. CAP. CVI.

An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia, and raising a Volunteer Militia Force, in Scotland. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws relating to the Militia in Scotland, and to make 'Provision for raising a Militia Force in Scotland by voluntary Enlistment:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title. I. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Militia (Scotland) Act, 1854."

Appointment

Appointment of Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, and Officers.

Her Majesty to appoint Lieutenants of Counties, who shall appoint Deputies and Officers of Militia, and certify Names and Ranks to Her Majesty.

II. In regard to the Appointment of Lieutenants and other Officers for the Purposes of the Militia in Scotland, the same shall be regulated as follows: It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to constitute and appoint Lieutenants for the several Counties in Scotland; and the said Lieutenants severally shall from Time to Time constitute and appoint such Persons as they shall think fit, being qualified as herein-after directed, and living within their respective Counties, to be their Deputy Lieutenants (the Names of such Persons having been first presented to and approved by Her Majesty); and the said Lieutenants shall, in manner herein-after mentioned, also appoint such Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, Majors, and other Officers to be hereafter made for the Militia of such County as may be authorized, and being qualified as herein-after directed.

Vice-Lieutenant, authorized by the Lieutenant, may, in his Illness, &c., grant Commissions, and act as Lieutenant.

III. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of any County to constitute and appoint any One of the Deputy Lieutenants of such County to be Vice-Lieutenant thereof; and it shall be lawful for such Vice-Lieutenant, in any Case of the Illness or necessary Absence from such County of such Lieutenant, and being in the Case of such Absence authorized for that Purpose by the Lieutenant, to grant Commissions to Officers to serve in the Militia of such County, in like Manner as the Lieutenant thereof, and to do all Acts which might lawfully be done by the Lieutenant, and the same shall be good and valid in Law as if done by or to the Lieutenant himself.

Three Deputy Lieutenants may act when the Lieutenant shall be out of the Kingdom.

IV. When the Lieutenant of any County shall be out of the Kingdom of Great Britain, or when there shall be no Lieutenant, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to authorize any Three Deputy Lieutenants of such County to grant Commissions to Officers to serve in the Militia for such County, in such Manner as such Lieutenant could do, and to do all other Acts which might lawfully have been done by the said Lieutenant, and the same shall be good and valid in the Law as if done by or to the said Lieutenant himself.

Commissions not to be vacated by the Revocation of the Power of the Grantor.

V. No Commission of any Deputy Lieutenant, nor any Commission of any Officer in the Militia to be henceforth granted by any Lieutenant, Vice-Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, shall be vacated by reason of the Revocation, Expiration, or Discontinuance of the Commission by which any such Lieutenant, Vice-Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid was or were appointed.

Qualifications of Deputy Lieutenants and Officers.

Qualifications of Vice-Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, and Officers, except within the City of Edinburgh.

VI. All Persons to be hereafter appointed Deputy Lieutenants or Officers of the Militia (except within the City of Edinburgh and its Liberties) shall be qualified as follows; (that is to say,) every Person so to be appointed a Deputy Lieutenant shall be in possession, either in his own Right or in right of his Wife, of a Real Estate in Property in the United Kingdom of Three hundred Pounds of Real Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate; and every Person so to be appointed a Colonel shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate as aforesaid of Six hundred Pounds Real Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate; and every Person so to be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate as aforesaid of Four hundred Pounds of Real Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate; and every Person so to be appointed a Major or a Captain shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate as aforesaid of Three hundred Pounds of Real Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate, or shall be a younger Son of some Person who shall be or at the Time of his Death was in possession in like Manner of a like Estate; of which said Estates required as Qualifications for Deputy Lieutenants, Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, Majors, and Captains respectively it shall not be necessary that any Portion shall be situate or arising within the respective Counties in which they shall be appointed to serve, or within Scotland.

Qualifications within the City and County of the City of Edinburgh.

VII. Within the City and County of Edinburgh and Liberties thereof the Lieutenant of the said City or where there is no Lieutenant appointed then the Chief Magistrate thereof, shall appoint the Deputy Lieutenants within the said City; and shall also appoint Officers of the Militia, whose Number and Rank shall be proportionable to the Number of Militia Men which the said City shall raise as its Quota towards the Militia of the County to which the said City may be united for the Purposes aforesaid, and Provisions made by this Act with respect to the Counties at large and the Militia thereof shall take place and be in force with respect to the said City and its Liberties and the Militia thereof; and the Qualifications of Deputy Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia of such City and its Liberties shall be as follows: Every Deputy Lieutenant shall be in possession, either in his own Right or in right of his Wife, of a Real Estate in Property within the said City and Liberties thereof of One hundred Pounds of Real Rent; and every Lieutenant Colonel shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate as aforesaid of Two hundred Pounds of Real Rent; and every Major or Captain shall be in possession in like Manner of a like Estate as aforesaid of One hundred Pounds of Real Rent: Saving always and reserving to the Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh all Rights, Immunities, Privileges, and Exemptions of which the said College may have been and still are in the lawful Possession, and the Benefit of any Act or Acts of Parliament passed heretofore in their Favour.

VIII. Where

The Lieutenant, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, may appoint the Provost of any Royal Burgh, &c.

VIII. Where it shall appear necessary to any Lieutenant of a County that a Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants should be resident in any Royal Burgh within the County of which he is Lieutenant, it shall be lawful for such Lieutenant, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, to appoint the Provost of such Burgh for the Time being, or any Persons, not being more than Three, resident in such Burgh, who shall be respectively in possession of a Real Estate in Property within such Burgh of One hundred Pounds of Real Rent, to be Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants of the Subdivision of such County within which such Burgh is situated.

Qualification of Deputy Lieutenant or Officer may arise from Personal Estate.

IX. For the Purpose of the Qualification of any Deputy Lieutenant and of any Officer in the Militia, a clear yearly Income arising from any Personal Estate within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of or to which Personal Estate and the yearly Income thereof such Deputy Lieutenant or Officer, or the Wife of such Deputy Lieutenant or Officer, is possessed or entitled for his or her own Use and Benefit, shall be deemed equivalent to an Estate in Lands or other Heritage within the United Kingdom, or, in the Case of the City of Edinburgh, or Burghs within the City or Burgh respectively, of the same Amount of Real Rent, and such yearly Income from Personal Estate shall be admitted in whole or in part of any such Qualification accordingly.

Persons holding certain Military Ranks may be appointed Field Officers, though not possessed of Property Qualifications.

X. Officers of the Regular Army, the Marines, or East India Company's Service, who have served Five Years in the Regular Army or East India Company's Service, shall be admissible as Captains into the Militia Force without any Qualification; and any Person holding or having held the Rank of Major or any higher Rank in any of the said Forces may, without any such Qualification, be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel or Colonel of the Militia; and any Person who shall have been qualified to receive and shall have received a Commission of Major or Lieutenant Colonel in the Militia shall be qualified to receive and hold a Commission of higher Rank in the Militia.

No Qualification required under Rank of Captain.

XI. No Property or other Qualification shall be required in the Case of Persons to be appointed Officers in the Militia, save as respects Appointments to the Rank of Captain or any higher Rank.

General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

XII. No General Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be held in any County under the Powers of the Militia Acts, except when called under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Mode of Appointment and Rank of Officers.

Secretary of State may make Regulations as to Appointment of Officers.

XIII. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time to make Regulations limiting the Ages at which Persons may be appointed Officers of the several Ranks in the Militia, and for securing the Appointment of Persons as such Officers who are qualified to discharge the Duties of Officers of their respective Ranks, and also for that Purpose to prescribe by such Regulations any Conditions, as to Drill, Training, and Exercise, or otherwise, under or subject to which any such Appointment shall be made.

Existing Officers who are qualified for Service may continue.

XIV. All Officers now holding Commissions in the Regular Militia may, subject to such Regulations as may hereafter be made by the Secretary of State, continue to hold such Commissions in the Militia to be raised under this Act, and to rank in the Militia Service according to the Dates of the Commissions now held by them respectively; and all Officers now holding such Commissions as aforesaid who shall not be so continued under this Act shall, notwithstanding, continue to hold their present Titles and Ranks as Officers of the Militia; and nothing herein contained shall extend to deprive such Officers not so continued of any Allowances to which they may now be entitled in respect of having held Commissions in the Militia when the same was last disembodied, or otherwise in respect of past Services, or to affect the Provisions authorizing the Grant of any retired or other Allowances to such Officers in respect of having held Commissions or of past Services as aforesaid.

Officers not so continued shall retain their Ranks.

Rank of Officers accepting Commissions in other Regiments.

XV. Every Officer of any Militia Regiment or Battalion who may have accepted or shall accept a Commission or Appointment of the same Rank in any other Militia Regiment or Battalion, and shall thereby vacate his former Commission, shall continue to rank in the general Service according to the Date of his Commission or Appointment of the same Rank in the Militia so vacated as aforesaid.

How the Field Officers shall be appointed.

XVI. The different Field Officers commanding Battalions shall be appointed as follows: Where Two or more Counties are joined together to form a Battalion, the Lieutenant Colonel shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the greatest Number of Private Men, and the Major shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the next greatest Number; and where One County of itself forms One Battalion, then the Lieutenant Colonel and Major shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County forming such Battalion: Provided always, that when the Appointment of a Colonel shall be authorized, such Appointment shall be made by the Lieutenant entitled to appoint the Lieutenant Colonel: Provided further, that where any County does not furnish Men sufficient to form a Company, the Lieutenant of such County shall not appoint any of the Field Officers.

As to a County not furnishing sufficient Men for a Company.

Where Commandant shall be absent from Great Britain, Her Majesty may direct the XVII. When any Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia shall be absent from Great Britain, and until he shall return to Great Britain, and shall have notified his Arrival to the Clerk of the General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the District to which such Regiment or Battalion shall belong, and to the Commanding Officer and Adjutant thereof, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant Warrant under Her Sign Manual, to direct and order that the Officer next in Command, who shall be residing in Great Britain, shall in all Cases act and serve as the Commandant of such Regiment or Battalion; and such Officer shall thereupon exercise all Powers and Rights and perform all Duties which might or ought to be performed or exercised by such Colonel or other Commandant as aforesaid, as fully and to the same Effect as he might have done if resident, and shall be subject to the same Responsibility in so acting as such Colonel or other Commandant would have been: Provided always, that such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid who shall assume the Powers so given to him as aforesaid, in consequence of the Absence from Great Britain of his Colonel or other Commandant, shall within Seven Days after he shall assume any such Powers notify the Absence from Great Britain of such Colonel or other Commandant to the Lieutenant of the County, and also, when the Regiment or Battalion shall be in actual Service, to the Secretary-at-War; provided also, that any Order, for Clothing or other Necessaries, or for Accoutrements, being given by proper Authority at the Time for the Use of the Regiment or Battalion, shall be completed, and the Money to be issued in respect thereof shall be paid to the Order of the Officer who gave the same, notwithstanding the Absence or Return of the Colonel or other Commandant as aforesaid.

Officer next in Command to act for him, who shall be vested with the same Powers till the Commandant shall return, and notify his Arrival.

Orders given by the Commandant, &c. for Clothing or Accoutrements shall be completed.

XVIII. The Captains and Subalterns of Companies shall be appointed as follows: Where the Men furnished by Three or more Counties only form One Company, the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the greatest fractional Part of a Company shall appoint the Captain, the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the next greatest fractional Part of a Company shall appoint the Lieutenant, and the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the next greatest fractional Part of a Company shall appoint the Ensign; and where the Men furnished by Two Counties only form One Company, the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the largest fractional Part of such Company shall appoint the Captain, and the Lieutenant of the other County shall appoint the Lieutenant and Ensign; and where any County shall furnish Men sufficient for One or more complete Company or Companies, the Captains, Lieutenants, and Ensigns of such Company or Companies shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of such County.

How the Captains and Subalterns shall be appointed.

XIX. If Her Majesty shall at any Time direct that any Proportion of the said Militia shall be trained and exercised to the Service of any Artillery that may be attached to any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to direct that a Supernumerary Officer or Officers of the said Regiment or Battalion of such Rank as Her Majesty shall order, and being duly qualified as aforesaid, shall be appointed to and for the said Men so directed to be trained and exercised as aforesaid.

Her Majesty may direct Supernumerary Officers to be appointed to Men trained for Artillery.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of the County, who is authorized by this Act to name the Lieutenant Colonel of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, to appoint One fit and proper Person, who shall possess a Diploma, Certificate, or Qualification which is held to qualify such Person to act as Surgeon or Assistant Surgeon in the Army, to be Surgeon of such Regiment or Battalion; and every such Appointment shall recite the Diploma or Certificate of the Person so appointed, and an attested Copy thereof shall be transmitted to and deposited with the Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy; and every such Surgeon so appointed as aforesaid shall, during the Time of the Militia to which he shall belong being embodied, be subject to the like Rules, Restrictions, and Directions in every respect as a Surgeon of Infantry in Her Majesty's other Forces, as far as the same may be applicable; and no such Surgeon shall be capable of holding any other Commission in such Militia during the Time of his being such Surgeon as aforesaid.

The Lieutenant authorized to name the Colonel may, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, appoint a Surgeon.

XXI. Her Majesty may and shall appoint One proper Person, who shall have served in some of Her Majesty's other Forces, or in the Militia of England or of Scotland, while embodied, for the Term of Five Years at the least, to be an Adjutant to each Regiment or Battalion of Militia; and such Adjutant, if appointed out of Her Majesty's other Forces, shall, during his Service in the Militia, preserve his Rank in the Army in the same Manner as if he had continued in that Service; and it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of any County, on the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, to appoint the Adjutant of such Regiment or Battalion to serve with the Rank of Captain, although such Adjutant may not have the Qualification required by this Act for Captains: Provided always, that no such Appointment to the Rank of Captain shall be valid unless in the Instrument granting the same it be specified in what Regiment or Battalion of the Militia while embodied, or of Her Majesty's other Forces, such Adjutant hath served for the Period aforesaid, and what was or were the Date or Dates of his Commission or Commissions: Provided also, that no Adjutant so appointed to serve with the Rank of Captain shall, by virtue of the Date of such Appointment as aforesaid, or otherwise, be entitled to rank above or to command any Captain of a Company in the Militia: Provided further, that no such Adjutant shall, by reason of any such Appointment as aforesaid, be entitled to receive any greater or other Pay than that of Adjutant.

Her Majesty to appoint Adjutants from the Army or Militia, who shall preserve their Rank in the Army, and may be appointed to the Rank of Captain.

XXII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint from Time to Time such Persons as to Her Majesty may seem proper to be Quartermasters, Paymasters, Sergeant Majors, and Sergeants of the Militia; and Corporals and Drummers of the Militia shall be appointed by the Colonel or other Commandant of each Regiment or Battalion in such Proportions as Her Majesty may direct; and the Colonel or other Commandant of every Regiment or Battalion in actual Service may appoint a Drum Major; and all Sergeants, Corporals, and Drummers, having received any Pay as such from any Regiment or Battalion, talion, shall be deemed to be engaged and compellable to serve in such Regiment or Battalion until they shall be legally discharged; and any Sergeant, Corporal, or Drummer may be discharged by the Colonel or other Commandant: Provided always, that while any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia is drawn out and embodied, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to appoint from Time to Time the Sergeant Major and Sergeants of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, as Occasion may require, for supplying any Vacancy or Vacancies, or completing the full Number of such Sergeants; provided also, that no Person who shall keep any House of public Entertainment, or who shall sell any Ale or Wine, or any Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors, by Retail, shall be capable of being appointed or of serving or receiving Pay as a Sergeant, Corporal, or Drummer in the Militia.

Her Majesty to appoint Quartermasters, &c., and Colonels to appoint Corporals, Drummers, and Drum Majors.

While Militia is embodied, Colonels to appoint Sergeants; but no Publican shall be a Sergeant, Corporal, or Drummer.

No Adjutant, &c. to be appointed Captain of a Company.

XXIII. No Adjutant, Paymaster, or Quartermaster in the Militia shall be capable of being appointed Captain of a Company, nor shall any Person holding the Commission of Captain of a Company be capable of being appointed Adjutant, Paymaster, or Quartermaster of Militia.

Extra Drummers may be kept as Fifers or Musicians, at the Expense of the Regiment.

XXIV. In case Her Majesty's Lieutenant for any County, or the Colonel or Commandant of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia shall be desirous of keeping up a greater Number of Drummers than is herein directed to be employed as Fifers or Musicians for the Use of any such Regiment or Battalion, and shall be willing to defray the Expense of such additional Drummers, it shall and may be lawful for such Lieutenant or Colonel or other Commandant to engage and retain in their respective Regiments or Battalions any Number of the Drummers employed or to be employed over and above the Number established by this Act, to act as Fifers or Musicians in their respective Regiments or Battalions; and all such Drummers so engaged or retained to serve in any such Regiment or Battalion as Fifers or Musicians shall be deemed as Drummers of Militia within the Meaning of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall be subject to the same Orders, Regulations, Penalties, and Punishments as other Drummers of Militia are by this Act subject, and shall continue to serve as Drummers so long as they shall receive from the Lieutenant of the County or Colonel or Commandant by whom they were appointed the same Pay and Clothing as other Drummers have, or better Clothing in lieu thereof, and no longer.

Oath to be taken by Persons entering Militia.

XXV. All Persons, on their first entering the Militia, whether as Sergeants, Corporals, Drummers, or Private Militia Men, shall, on their so entering the Militia, and previous to their being enrolled therein, take the following Oath; (that is to say,)

'I A.B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Her Heirs and Successors, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia in any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, for the Defence of the same, until I shall be discharged.'

And it shall be lawful for any One Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace or Commissioned Officer of the Regiment to administer the said Oath.

Raising of Men for the Militia.

Number of Militia to be raised.

XXVI. And in regard to the raising of Men for the Militia, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to raise and from Time to Time to keep up any Number not exceeding Ten thousand Private Militia Men, to serve for the several Counties in Scotland.

Quotas of Counties to be fixed by Order in Council.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, forthwith after the passing of this Act, and afterwards from Time to Time as Occasion may appear to Her Majesty to require, to ascertain and fix the Number of Militia Men who shall serve for each County, and the Numbers so fixed as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the said Counties from Time to Time, and Notice of the same shall be published in the "Edinburgh Gazette," and the Numbers so from Time to Time appointed by Her Majesty shall be the Quotas of the several Counties and Places until other Quotas are appointed in like Manner.

Her Majesty may direct into what Regiments, &c. Militia shall be formed, and with what Officers and Staff.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order signified by One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time to direct the Lieutenants to form the Militia of their several Counties into such Companies, Regiments, Battalions, or Corps as to Her Majesty may seem fit, and to direct what Number of Officers and of what respective Ranks, shall be appointed thereto, and what shall constitute the Staff thereof; and where the Number of Militia Men required to be raised for any County appears to Her Majesty insufficient to be conveniently formed into a separate Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, to direct the Militia of such County to be united with the Militia of any County or Counties adjoining.

Militia Men to be raised by voluntary Enlistment.

XXIX. For the Purpose of raising the Number of Men required to be raised under this Act, the Lieutenants of the several Counties shall, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, and in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five at such Time as Her Majesty shall, by Order made with the Advice of Her Privy Council, appoint for that Purpose, direct the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties, without Delay, to proceed to raise and enrol Volunteers to serve for the Term of Five Years in the Militia of such Counties or Places, not exceeding the Numbers of Men authorized by Order in Council to be therein raised for the Time being, and such Colonels or Commanding

Commanding Officers, and the Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers of the Militia duly authorized by such Colonels or Commanding Officers, shall forthwith proceed to raise, by Beat of Drum or otherwise, such Volunteers, being resident in the County in which such Men are directed to be raised, or in any County immediately adjoining thereto, and being able-bodied Men between such Ages and of such Height as shall be from Time to Time fixed by Regulations made by Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War as herein provided, and for such Bounties or other Payments as shall be from Time to Time authorized by such Regulations; and the Deputy Lieutenants of Counties shall severally aid the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties in raising and enrolling Volunteers for such Militia in the several Parishes where such Deputy Lieutenants may be resident, and otherwise as the Lieutenants of such Counties may from Time to Time direct, but no General or Subdivision Meeting shall be holden for that Purpose unless such Meeting be convened pursuant to any special Order made by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Provision where Number not raised by Enlistment in any County.

XXX. Provided always, That where the Number of Men for the Time being required to be raised under this Act for any County has not been raised by voluntary Enlistment, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if it appear to Her advisable so to do, by Order signed by One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, to authorize and direct all or any Part of such Number of Men as shall be deficient to be raised by voluntary Enlistment in any County in which the full Quota may have been raised and kept up.

Volunteers to be raised for supplying the Places of Men whose Time is about to expire, and for supplying Vacancies by Death, &c.

XXXI. The Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia shall from Time to Time, and so long before the Expiration of the respective Terms of Service of the Militia Men belonging to their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps as shall be directed by Regulations to be made by the Secretary-at-War, raise and enrol or cause to be raised and enrolled Volunteers to supply the Places of such Militia Men; and such Colonels or Commanding Officers shall from Time to Time, subject to any Regulations to be so made, raise and enrol or cause to be raised and enrolled Volunteers for supplying casual Vacancies by reason of Militia Men dying before the Expiration of their Term of Service, or being promoted to be Non-commissioned Officers or Drummers (except where they are so promoted in the Room of Non-commissioned Officers or Drummers reduced to the Ranks), or being discharged as unfit for Service, or in pursuance of the Sentence of a Court-martial, or having deserted, and the Deputy Lieutenants of each County shall give Assistance as aforesaid in raising such Volunteers.

Volunteers to be sworn and enrolled.

XXXII. Every Volunteer so raised as aforesaid shall, when he has been examined and approved according to such Regulations as shall be made by the Secretary-at-War, and shall have taken the Oath herein-before directed to be taken, be enrolled in a Roll to be prepared and kept by or under the Direction of the Colonel or Commanding Officer, to serve in the Militia for the County or Place for which he is raised, as a Militia Man, for the Space of Five Years.

Secretary-at-War may make Regulations for Bounties, and Age, Height, &c. of Men.

XXXIII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War from Time to Time to make Regulations as to the Amount of the Sums to be paid to Volunteers under this Act by way of Bounty or periodical Payment or Allowance in consideration of their enlisting in the Militia (such Bounty in no Case to exceed Six Pounds, and such periodical Payment or Allowance in no Case to exceed after the Rate of Two Shillings per Month during the Term of Service for which the Volunteer is enrolled), and as to the Time or respective Times, Conditions, and Manner of the Payment thereof, and as to the Ages between which Men may be received as such Volunteers, and as to the Height and for the Examination and Approval by Medical Men of all Men to be raised for the Militia under this Act, and as to all other Matters which, under the Provisions herein contained, are made subject to Regulations to be made by such Secretary-at-War.

Regulations to be laid before Parliament.

XXXIV. All Regulations made under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Twenty-one Days next after the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting then within Twenty-one Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Regulations for keeping of Arms and Stores.

Arms, &c. to be kept in a Place appointed by Commandant, to be under the Care of the Quartermaster.

XXXV. And in regard to the keeping of Arms and Stores, the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging to every Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, when not embodied, shall be kept in such convenient Place as the Colonel or Commandant shall direct, with the Approbation of the Lieutenant of the County; and the Quartermaster to such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall have the Charge and Care of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores, under the Superintendence of the Colonel or other Commandant.

Place for Militia Storehouse to be provided.

XXXVI. If such fit and convenient Place has not been provided, or is or may become from any Cause insecure, insufficient, or unfit for the safe Custody of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores, or in case the Public Service or Convenience require the Site of the same to be changed, the Commissioners of Supply of the County within which such Arms and Stores shall be directed to be kept, at the First General Meeting which shall be held after the Representation of the Lieutenant of such County, and of the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, that no such Place has been provided, or that the Place provided is insecure, insufficient, or unfit, or in case the Public Service or Convenience require the Site of the same to be changed, being duly satisfied thereof, may and are hereby required to provide a secure and suitable Place for that Purpose, and to that end may, in their their Discretion, from Time to Time resolve either to purchase or hire any suitable Buildings or Premises, and, if necessary, to enlarge, alter, or improve the same, or from Time to Time to enlarge, alter, or repair any Buildings or Premises already purchased or hired, or to purchase or take on Lease for any Term not less than Sixty Years any Portion of Land for the Purpose of building and to build or rebuild thereupon secure and suitable Buildings and Premises for the Purpose aforesaid; and with reference to any such Purchase as is hereby authorized, the Clauses and Provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, shall be incorporated with this Act; and the Words "Promoters of the Undertaking" in those Clauses shall mean the Persons by this Act authorized to purchase Land, and the Word "Undertaking" shall mean the building or rebuilding, enlarging or altering of a Place for Militia Stores: Provided always, that the Place to be so hired, purchased, built, altered, or enlarged shall contain an Orderly and Guard Room, and a Magazine; and there shall also be provided a suitable Yard or Place wherein the Men may be mustered for the Issue and Return of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores: Provided always, that it shall be lawful at any Time for the said Commissioners assembled as aforesaid to provide such Quarters for the Permanent Staff as may appear to them desirable, together with Cells and such convenient Premises as may be necessary for the safe Custody of the Stores; and no Place provided for the keeping of Militia Stores under this or any former Act, nor any Buildings or Premises appurtenant thereto, shall be liable to be valued or assessed to any County, Burgh, Parochial, or other Local Rates or Assessments.

Expense of Storehouse, how to be provided for.

XXXVII. The Sums that may be required for the Hire, Purchase, Enlargement, Alteration, Building of or Additions to any such Place, in case the same shall be approved by the said Lieutenant and Colonel or Commandant, together with the Cost of Fuel and other necessary Expenses incidental to the Use and Maintenance of the Premises, shall be certified by the Lieutenant of the County to the Clerk or Clerks of Supply of each County contributing to the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps; and such Certificate shall be laid by such Clerk before the First Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply which shall thereafter be held in each County, and such Meeting shall raise the Sum so certified, or, in the Case of Two or more Counties so contributing, a Proportion of the Sum so certified corresponding to the Proportion of the Real Rent of such County to the Real Rent of the whole of the Counties so contributing, including the Burghs within the same, and that by Assessment, to be laid on and recovered by the said Commissioners, in like Manner and subject to like Provisions as Assessments for local Prison Purposes are laid on and recovered by the Prison Board in Counties in Scotland, and the said Commissioners shall for that Purpose have all the Powers which the General and County Prison Boards have by Law for the apportioning between the County and the Burghs within the same, and the raising of such Assessments, and the borrowing of Money on the Credit thereof, subject to the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that on such fitting Place being duly provided, the Parties in whom any Place formerly used for such Purposes was vested for such Purposes shall sell the same or their Interest therein, and pay over the Proceeds to the Commissioners of Supply of such County or Counties in the Proportion of the Sums raised by each, and the same shall be applied in diminution of any future Assessment on Real Rent for Prison Purposes in such Counties.

Commissioners may raise Sums required by Assessment or by borrowing.

XXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply either to raise the whole of the Sums which they may be required to raise at any one Time under this Act, whatever be the Amount of such Sums, by Assessment at once, or to borrow the whole or any Part thereof, on the Security of the Assessments, on such Terms that the whole Sum borrowed shall be paid off by equal annual Instalments within Thirty Years at furthest from the Date of borrowing, and the necessary Bonds therefor shall be signed by the Chairman and any Two of the Commissioners present at the Meeting at which it was resolved so to borrow, and the Creditors in such Bonds shall have like Powers for enforcing Payment of the Principal and Interest thereof, as the same shall fall due, as are given by this Act to the Lord Advocate, on being authorized by the Secretary-at-War, for enforcing the raising of Assessments.

Apportionment of Assessment on Burghs.

XXXIX. In the Case of Burghs contributing to the Assessment for Prison Purposes separately from the Landward Part of the County in which they are situated, the Portion of the Assessment to be levied under this Act payable by such Burghs shall be apportioned by the Commissioners of Supply of such County in accordance with the Proportion of the Real Rent of each such Burgh to the Real Rent of the whole County; and in the event of Dissatisfaction with such Apportionment it shall be lawful for the Magistrates of such Burgh to apply by summary Petition to the Sheriff of the County, whose Decision thereon shall be final.

Queen's Advocate may raise and apply Assessments.

XL. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Advocate for Scotland, on being authorized to that Effect by the Secretary-at-War, to exercise, for compelling the raising and Application of Assessments under this Act, all the Powers which the General Board of Prisons in Scotland may by Law exercise for compelling the raising of Assessments for Prison Purposes.

Conveyances, &c. exempt from Duty.

XLI. All Conveyances, Leases, Bonds, Contracts, Receipts, and other Deeds and Instruments made for the Purpose of carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act shall be exempt from Stamp Duty.

Penalty for Neglect in Clerks of Supply.

XLII. If any Clerk of Supply shall refuse or wilfully neglect to receive or present any Certificates under this Act which he is herein-before directed to receive or present, according to the Directions and true

true Meaning of this Act, every such Clerk of Supply so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Regulations for Training and Exercise.

Lieutenants to provide Places for Exercise.

XLIII. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenants of the several Counties, with the Approbation of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to take on Lease or hire, for or during such Terms or Periods as they may think necessary, Pieces of Ground convenient for the Training and Exercise of the Militia of such Counties, and the Expense thereof shall be paid by the Secretary-at-War.

Regulations for sending Notice of the Times and Places of Exercise.

XLIV. The Times and Places of Exercise of the Militia-men to be raised by virtue of this Act shall be appointed, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, by the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the whole or the greater Part of the Militia-men of each Regiment; and Notice of such Times and Places shall be sent by Order of the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment by Post to the Residences of the several Men as stated in their Attestations or as subsequently notified by them, and also to the Parochial Schoolmasters and Inspectors of the Poor within the respective Parishes or other Divisions of the County or Counties contributing Men to such Regiment; and such Schoolmasters or Inspectors shall, subject to a Penalty of Twenty Pounds, cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed within Two Days of Receipt thereof on the Doors of all the Churches or Chapels within their respective Parishes or Places, which Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding any Omission in the Delivery of written Notices; and all such Militia-men shall duly attend at the Time and Place of Exercise according to such Notices.

Her Majesty may cause Militia to be called out for Training more than once in a Year.

XLV. The Period of Training and Exercise shall, save as herein-after provided, be Twenty-one Days in every Year; and Her Majesty may, if She see fit, direct all or any Part of the Militia of any County to be called out for Training and Exercise more than once in every or any Year, and at such Time or Times as Her Majesty may think fit, so as the whole Period of Training and Exercise of any Militia-man do not exceed Twenty-one Days in any Year, save as herein-after provided.

Militia may be exercised out of their own Counties, and Her Majesty may extend or reduce the Period of Exercise.

XLVI. It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State at any Time to move any Regiment of Militia not embodied out of their own respective Counties into any Quarters in any Part of the United Kingdom during the Period of their Training; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, where, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, She may see fit so to do, to extend or reduce the Period of Training and Exercise of all or any Part of the Militia, so that the whole Period of Training and Exercise in any Year shall not exceed Fifty-six Days nor be less than Three Days, and no fresh Notice shall be necessary where such Extension or Reduction is made during the Time of actual Training.

Regulations for embodying Militia.

In Cases of actual Invasion, Rebellion, &c., Her Majesty may order the Militia to be embodied, and put under the Command of General Officers, &c.

XLVII. In all Cases of actual Invasion, or upon imminent Danger thereof, and in all Cases of Foreign War, or of Rebellion or Insurrection, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to order and direct the Lieutenants of the said several Counties, with all convenient Speed, to draw out and embody all the Regiments or Battalions of Militia within their respective Counties herein-before appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such Part or Proportion of them or any of them, as Her Majesty shall in Her Wisdom judge necessary, and in such Manner as shall be best adapted to the Circumstances of the Danger, and to put the said Forces under the Command of such General Officers as Her Majesty shall be pleased to appoint, and to direct the said Forces to be led by their respective Officers into any Parts of the United Kingdom.

When Militia is ordered out, Notice to be given to Men.

XLVIII. When the Militia of any Regiment shall be ordered to be embodied, the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiment shall forthwith give Notice to the Men, in like Manner as is directed in the Case of the Times of Training and Exercise; and Parochial Schoolmasters or Inspectors of the Poor shall, subject to like Penalty, affix such Notice in manner directed for such Occasion.

While any Part of the Militia shall continue embodied, Her Majesty may order any not embodied to be drawn out, to be mustered, trained, and exercised.

XLIX. If during such Time as any Part of the Militia which shall have been drawn out and embodied for Service shall continue embodied Her Majesty shall deem it expedient that the Militia of any County, or any Part thereof, which shall not at such Time be actually embodied for Service, should be drawn out, in order to be mustered, trained, and exercised for a limited Time, instead of being so embodied for Service, according to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to direct the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants of all or any of the said Counties to cause the said Militia not actually embodied, or any Part thereof, to be drawn out, in order to be mustered, trained, and exercised, in such Proportion and for such Time and at such Place or Places as shall be appointed, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, in manner as is herein-before directed for training and exercising the Disembodied Militia, and the same shall be mustered, trained, and exercised accordingly.

Billeting, &c. of Militia-men.

Justices, &c. may billet the Militia when called out to

L. It shall be lawful for all Justices of the Peace, and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, and Places, and they and each of them are and is respectively hereby required, to quarter and billet the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men serving in the Militia, at the Times when they shall be annual Exercise, and, when not called out, may order Quarters for the Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers.

be called out to annual Exercise, or be embodied in the same Way and Manner as Her Majesty's Regular Forces are so furnished and provided in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, upon Application made to any such Justices of the Peace or Magistrates by Her Majesty's Lieutenant, or by the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Battalion of Militia so called out to exercise or embodied as aforesaid, or of any Division or Detachment thereof; and when the Militia is not embodied nor called out to exercise as aforesaid, all Justices of the Peace and Magistrates aforesaid may and they and each of them are and is hereby respectively required to order and provide convenient Quarters in such Manner as aforesaid for the Sergeants, Corporals, and Drummers of the Permanent Staff of the Militia; and all Innkeepers and others who, according to the Provisions of the Mutiny Act, are liable in Scotland to have Soldiers billeted upon them, shall in like Manner be subject to have the Militia Non-commissioned Officers and Men in such Cases billeted upon them, and in default of their providing convenient Lodging as prescribed in the said Act shall be liable to the Penalties imposed upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets prescribed by the said Act.

Directing how Militia-men falling sick on the March are to be relieved.

LI. In case any Militia-man shall, on his March to the Place where he shall be ordered to attend for the annual Exercise, be disabled by Sickness or otherwise, it shall be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace of the County where such Man shall then be, by Warrant in Writing, to order the Inspector of the Poor to grant him such Relief as such Justice shall think reasonable, and upon such Warrant being produced to the Secretary-at-War he shall pay all such Expenses as shall be incurred pursuant to such Warrant, upon an Account thereof to be certified in Writing by such Justice of the Peace.

Regulation of Punishment of Militia during Exercise or when embodied.

Officers, &c. may be tried by a Court-martial for Offences committed;

LII. Every Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, and Private of the Militia shall, during the Period of his Regiment being assembled for Training and Exercise or being embodied, and if on permanent Pay shall at all Times be subject to any Act which shall be in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and to the Articles of War, and it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia to direct the holding of Courts-martial, as herein-after directed, for the Trial of any Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private of such Regiment or Battalion by either a General or Regimental Court-martial, for any Offence against the said Act or Articles of War committed during the Time such Person was subject thereto, although such Time shall then have elapsed, but so that no Punishment shall extend to the Loss of Life or Limb.

but Charges to be made out and delivered within Six Months after training or being disembodied;

LIII. Provided always, That no such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private shall be liable to be tried or punished by Court-martial for any such Offence committed during the Period of any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps being assembled for the Purpose of Training and Exercise or embodied, except for Desertion, unless the Charges against such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private shall have been made out and delivered within Six Months after the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps shall have been dismissed after training and exercising or disembodied.

Volunteers under Instruction in the Army to be under Mutiny Act.

LIV. Any Militia Volunteer attached for a Time for the Purpose of Instruction to any Regiment, Battalion, or Depôt of Her Majesty's Forces, or Permanent Staff of a Regiment of Militia, shall for such Time be deemed to be under the Operation of the Mutiny Act, and under the Command of the Officer commanding such Regiment, Battalion, Depôt, or Permanent Staff of a Regiment of Militia.

Constitution of Courts-martial.

General Courts-martial may be appointed.

LV. Whensoever in any of the said Cases it shall be necessary that a General Court-martial should be held for any such Trial, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to signify Her Pleasure to such and so many Lieutenants of Counties in Scotland as Her Majesty shall deem necessary, that Officers of their respective Counties will be required to assemble to form such Court, and every such Lieutenant shall thereupon give Orders to such Number of Officers as shall be required, who shall forthwith attend to form such Court; and all Officers who shall refuse or neglect to attend any such Courts-martial shall be liable to be tried by a General Court-martial, to be assembled according to the Regulations of this Act, for such Disobedience of Orders; and all Officers attending to form such Courts shall be entitled to Pay during such Attendance, and to Two Shillings for every Mile for going to such Court-martial at the Commencement thereof, and returning after the Conclusion of the Proceedings of the Court; and every General Court-martial so appointed shall be sworn and held in the same Manner, and shall have all such and the like Powers and Authorities, and shall be of the same Force and Effect, in all respects, whether the Militia from which the Officers thereof are assembled was then drawn out and embodied or not.

Pay and Allowance to Officers.

Regimental Courts-martial may be appointed.

LVI. For holding a Regimental Court-martial, in any of the said Cases for which such Court-martial shall be proper, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment or Battalion, whether it shall then be embodied or not, and in his Absence for the senior Field Officer, to appoint any Place which he shall think proper, within the County, City, or District to which such Regiment or Battalion shall belong, and to order any Officers of such Regiment or Battalion to attend and assist as Members of such Court-martial, who shall thereupon attend at the Time required, and assist accordingly, and and in default of such Attendance shall be liable to be tried by a General Court-martial, to be assembled pursuant to the Regulations of this Act, for such Disobedience of Orders; and the Officers who shall be Members of such Court-martial shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as Officers who shall be Members of any General Court-martial under the Authority of this Act: Provided always, that no Officer of any of Her Majesty's other Forces shall sit upon any Court-martial for the Trial of any Officer or Soldier of Militia: Provided further, that no Sentence of any Court-martial held as aforesaid on any Sergeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drum Major, or Drummer, or Private Man as aforesaid, shall be put in execution until it shall have been confirmed by the Colonel or other Commandant, or by the Field Officer by whose Order such Court-martial was assembled.

Non-commissioned Officers may be reduced to Privates for a certain Period, and if not then restored they shall be discharged.

LVII. Any Sergeant, Corporal, or Drummer of the Militia may, by Sentence of a Court-martial, be reduced to the Condition of a Private Militia Man, to serve as such during any Time not exceeding Fifteen Months, in case the Regiment or Battalion to which he belongs shall not be then embodied or called out into actual Service, and in case the Regiment or Battalion to which he belongs shall be then embodied or called out into actual Service, to serve as aforesaid until the disembodying of the said Regiment or Battalion, after which Time, or at the End of the said Fifteen Months, as the Case may be, if not regularly re-appointed to the Rank of a Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer, he shall be discharged from the Service.

Punishment of Desertion from Militia, when not embodied.

Men not appearing at the Time and Place of Exercise, or absenting themselves during that Time, if not taken till afterwards, shall forfeit 10*l.*, &c.;

LVIII. Every Militia-man (not labouring under any certified Infirmity or Incapacity) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised according to the Directions of this Act (Notice having been published and given as by this Act required), or who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Detachment or Division thereof, shall desert or absent himself during the Time of any such Exercise, shall be deemed a Deserter, and if not taken until after the Time of any such Exercise shall, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty shall not be immediately paid shall be committed to Prison, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Three Months, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

Penalties for fraudulent Re-enlistment.

LIX. Any Militia Volunteer who, before the Expiration of his Engagement as a Militia-man in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, enrols or offers to enrol himself in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, whether by the same or by different Names (save in the Way of lawful Renewal of his Engagement), shall, upon a Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace, incur a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of Payment shall be committed to Prison for any Time not exceeding Three Months, and shall also be liable to the Deduction out of the Bounty which he might otherwise have received in respect of his original Enlistment of a Sum equal to what he may have received upon his fraudulent Re-enlistment, and of such further Sum as the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps in which he may have originally enlisted shall think proper, or as the Secretary-at-War may from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the Expenses of his Attestation and Enrolment on such fraudulent Re-enlistment.

The Justice before whom a Militia-man is convicted of Enlistment in the Regular Forces, &c. to send Report to Secretary-at-War.

LX. The Justice before whom a Militia Volunteer shall be convicted of having enrolled or offered to enrol himself in another Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or more than once in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, shall send or cause to be sent to the Secretary-at-War a Report of such Conviction, stating the Name of such Volunteer, the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia to which he belongs, the Offence of which he has been convicted, and the Sentence or Decision of the Justice thereon, and, where such Volunteer shall be imprisoned in pursuance of such Conviction, the Period when the Imprisonment will expire; and for such Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more.

Power to discharge Men from the Militia who have enlisted in the Regular Forces.

LXI. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War at any Time to discharge any Militia Volunteer for Misconduct, Unfitness, or other Cause, upon such Conditions as he may from Time to Time direct, and such Volunteer shall have no Claim to future Pay or Bounty, or to release from future Attendance in the Militia any Volunteer who may have fraudulently enlisted into Her Majesty's Regular Forces or into the Forces of the East India Company, or who may have fraudulently entered into Her Majesty's Navy, and who has been sentenced to Imprisonment, or to Forfeiture for a Period not exceeding Eighteen Calendar Months of One Penny a Day from his Pay in such Forces; and any Man so released shall serve with the Force in which he may have enlisted or entered in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, with the like Liabilities in all respects as any Soldier or Seaman in such respective Force, and his Place in the Militia shall be supplied in like Manner as if his Term of Service as a Militia-man had expired by Efflux of Time.

Withholding Payment of Bounty from Men wrongfully absent from Training.

LXII. Any Bounty which, under the Regulations to be made under this Act, may be payable during or in respect of Attendance at Training and Exercise, shall be forfeited by any Man who wholly absents himself from such Training and Exercise without Leave lawfully granted, or Sickness certified according to such Regulations; and any such Bounty which would otherwise be payable to any Man who partially absents himself as aforesaid without such Leave, or Sickness certified as aforesaid, or who misconducts himself himself during the Training, shall be wholly withheld, or issued only in such Manner and in such Portions as the Secretary-at-War, upon the Report of the Commanding Officer, shall determine.

Drummers or Buglers offending in certain Cases, how to be dealt with.

LXIII. If any Drummer or Bugler of the Permanent Staff shall absent himself without Leave for a Period exceeding Five Days, and shall not account for such Absence to the Satisfaction of his Commanding Officer, and if any Drummer or Bugler of the Permanent Staff shall be guilty of any other Offence which the Commanding Officer may not think necessary to bring before a Court-martial, the Commanding Officer may, in addition to any other Punishment which he is authorized to award, order that such Drummer or Bugler be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding One hundred and sixty-eight Hours, with or without Hard Labour, or with or without Solitary Confinement, as the said Commanding Officer may think fit, and such Drummer or Bugler shall forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days of such Imprisonment; and any Drummer or Bugler who shall have absented himself as aforesaid may, in addition to or instead of such Imprisonment and Forfeiture or other Punishment which the Commanding Officer has Authority to inflict, be further deprived, by Order of his Commanding Officer, of his Pay for the Day or Days of such Absence: Provided that such Drummer or Bugler so ordered to suffer Imprisonment or Forfeiture of Pay shall, if he so request, be entitled to be tried by a Court-martial for his Offence, instead of submitting to such Imprisonment or Forfeitures.

In case of Discharge for Misconduct, the Cause to be certified on Certificate of Discharge.

LXIV. If any Person who shall have served in Her Majesty's Forces, and shall afterwards have been enrolled as a Non-commissioned Officer on the Permanent Staff of the Militia, shall be discharged from any Regiment or Corps for Misconduct, the Cause of his Discharge shall be certified by the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiments or Corps on the Back of the Certificate of his Discharge from Her Majesty's Army, and a Copy of the same forwarded to the Adjutant-General of Her Majesty's Forces, the Secretary of State for the Home Department, and the Secretary-at-War.

Provision for Apprehension of Militia-men not attending or absenting themselves during Training.

LXV. The Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall notify to the Secretary-at-War, and to the Constables or other Officers of the Counties, Parishes, and Places in which Militia-men reside who have not attended Training and Exercise, or who may have absented themselves during the Time of Training and Exercise of their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, the Names and Descriptions of all such Volunteers who have so absented themselves; and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Officer, or for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service or in the Militia, to apprehend or cause any such Volunteer to be apprehended, and to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace at any Time within the Period of his Engagement in the Militia, to be dealt with as herein-before mentioned, if the Battalion or Corps to which he belongs has ceased Training and Exercise, or to be committed to safe Custody until an Escort can be sent for him if such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps be then out for Training and Exercise; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, and the Secretary-at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to the Person or Persons by whom such Deserter was apprehended of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War may think fit.

Penalty for inducing Militia-men to absent themselves, or harbouring, &c. Militia-men absenting themselves.

LXVI. Any Person who, by Words or other Means, shall persuade any Militia-man improperly to absent himself from his Duty, and every Person who shall assist or procure any such Volunteer improperly to absent himself as aforesaid, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Punishment for Sale, &c. of Arms, &c.

Muskets to be marked, and Penalty for losing or neglecting to return Arms in good Order.

LXVII. All Muskets delivered for the Service of the Militia shall be marked distinctly in some visible Place with the Letter (M.), and the Name of the County to which they belong; and in case any Militia-man shall sell, pawn, or lose any of his Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Ammunition, or neglect or refuse to return the same in good Order to his Captain, or to the Person appointed to receive the same, every such Militia-man shall, on Conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, for every such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Three Pounds; and if such Militia-man shall not immediately pay such Penalty, shall be committed to Prison, to be kept to Hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Three Months, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

Penalty for buying Militia Arms, &c.

LXVIII. If any Person shall knowingly and wilfully buy, take in exchange, conceal, or otherwise receive any Militia Arms, Clothes, or Accoutrements, or any such Articles belonging to any Militia-man as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, according to the Custom of the Army, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by Deductions out of his Pay, or any public Stores or Ammunition whatever delivered for the Militia, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Person so offending shall for every such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of Payment shall be liable to Imprisonment for any Period not exceeding Six Months, or until he or she shall have paid the said Fine.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Enrolment in Militia not to cause Forfeiture

LXIX. No Man, by reason of his Enrolment or Service in the Militia or in the Naval Coast Volunteers, shall lose or forfeit, or be deemed to have lost or forfeited, any Interest he may possess or may have possessed sessed at the Time of his so being enrolled or serving, in any Friendly or Benefit Society, any Laws, Rules, or Regulations of such Society to the contrary notwithstanding; and in case any Dispute shall arise between any such Society and any such Man by reason of such Enrolment or Service, it shall be considered as being a Dispute directed by the Rules of such Society to be decided by Justices of the Peace, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Friendly Societies.

of any Interest in any Benefit Society.

LXX. If any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled as a Militia-man by virtue of this Act, such Enrolment shall not vacate or rescind the Contract or alter the Engagement between such Servant and his Master, Mistress, or Employer or Employers, unless the Militia of the County for which such Servant shall be enrolled shall be embodied or called out by Her Majesty, or be ordered so to be, in pursuance of this Act, or unless such Person so enrolled shall leave the Service of his Master, Mistress, or Employer or Employers, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised for the Period directed by this Act, and shall not return again to the same Service at the End of such Period, or as soon after as reasonably may be, allowing to his Master, Mistress, or Employer or Employers an Abatement from his Wages in proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his said Service; and in every such Case, where any Dispute shall arise between such Servant and his Master, Mistress, or Employer touching any Sum or Sums of Money due to such Servant for or on account of his Service performed before the Time of his Departure from Service, under the Conditions of the said Enrolment, or by being called out to join the Militia in which he shall have been so enrolled, or touching any Abatement to be made by such Servant by reason of his Absence for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff of the County, or any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County or Place where such Master, Mistress, or Employer is resident, to hear and determine the same in a summary Way where the Wages or Balance of Wages claimed shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, in like Manner as if the Sum claimed were within the Amount to which their Jurisdiction under the Acts for the Recovery of Small Debts respectively for the Time being extends, and to grant Warrant for the Recovery of the Sum decerned for by Poinding and Sale in common Form.

Enrolment of Servants shall not vacate their Contracts with their Masters, unless the Militia shall be embodied, &c.

Sheriff or Two Justices may settle Disputes touching Wages under 20*l.* under Small Debt Acts.

Recovery of Penalties, &c.

LXXI. All Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act imposed, the Manner of Recovery whereof is not by this Act particularly provided for, which shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recovered by Action at the Suit of Her Majesty's Advocate for Scotland in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, the Manner of Recovery whereof is not by this Act particularly provided for, which shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall, on Conviction of the Offence in any Action or Complaint at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the County where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time be, or at the Instance of any Party to whom the same or Part thereof is made payable, or the Performance of whose Duty under this Act may require the Enforcement of the Provisions in respect of the Breach of which such Penalty is imposed, with Concurrence of the Procurator Fiscal, before the Sheriff or any Two or more Justices of the Peace of such County, be levied by Poinding and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Effects, by Warrant under the Hands of such Sheriff or Justices, or by Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding Three Months.

How Penalties shall be recovered, and how applied, where not otherwise directed by this Act.

LXXII. No Conviction or Decree by the Sheriff or by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of this Act, shall be removable by Advocation or Suspension, or any other Process to any other Court, or be subject to any Sist of Execution.

No Conviction shall be removed out of the County.

LXXIII. One Half of every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed upon any Person duly convicted of buying, taking in exchange, concealing, or otherwise receiving, contrary to Law, any Militia Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries belonging to any Militia-man, or any public Stores or Ammunition for the Service of the Militia, and every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed upon any Person assisting, procuring, or persuading any Militia Volunteer improperly to absent himself from his Duty, or concealing, employing, or continuing to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the other Half, or where the Offence shall be proved by the Person who shall inform, then the whole of the Penalty shall be paid over and applied in such Manner as the Secretary-at-War shall direct; and every Justice who shall adjudge any such Penalty or Forfeiture shall, within Four Days at the furthest, report the same, and his Adjudication thereof to the Secretary-at-War.

Application of certain Penalties.

LXXIV. All Penalties imposed by this Act upon Militia Men (except the Deductions from Bounty, which shall be brought to Public Credit,) shall be paid to the Commanding Officers of the respective Regiments, Battalions, or other Bodies of Militia of the respective Counties, Ridings, or Places to which the Volunteer belongs, and shall be made and accounted for as Part of the Public Stock of such Regiment, Battalion, or other Body of Militia respectively.

Application of Penalties on Militia-men.

LXXV. In all Cases in the Execution of this Act when any Matter or Thing is directed to be inquired of or examined into before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, any such Justice or Justices of the Peace is and are hereby authorized to grant Warrant for the Citation of Witnesses, and to administer Oaths to Witnesses, with the same Powers as Justices of the Peace have under the Acts for the Recovery of Small Debts.

Justices may grant Warrants for the Citation of Witnesses.

LXXVI. The Provisions of Twopenny Acts to extend to County Lieutenants and Deputies.

LXXVI. The Provisions of any Acts passed for the rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in obedience to their Warrants, shall extend to all Her Majesty's Lieutenants and to all Deputy Lieutenants acting in the Execution of this Act, in like Manner and as fully and effectually as the same extend to Justices of the Peace acting in the Execution of their Office.

Limitation of Actions. Treble Expenses.

LXXVII. If any Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons for anything done in pursuance of this Act, such Action shall be commenced within Six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and if the Defender or Defenders shall be assoilzied in any such Action, the Defender or Defenders shall have Decree for Three Times his Expenses in such Action, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defender hath in other Cases to recover Expenses by the Law of Scotland.

CAP. CVII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Militia, and for raising a Volunteer Militia Force, in Ireland. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws relating to the Militia in Ireland, and to make 'Provision for raising a Militia Force in Ireland by Voluntary Enlistment:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Number of Militia to be raised.

I. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, to raise and from Time to Time to keep up in Ireland any Number not exceeding Thirty thousand Private Militia-men, to serve for the several and respective Counties for which Regiments or Battalions of Militia are under the Act of the Forty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty, required to be raised.

Quotas of Counties to be fixed by Order in Council.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant, with the Advice of the said Privy Council, forthwith after the passing of this Act, and afterwards from Time to Time as Occasion may appear to him to require, to ascertain and fix the Number of Militia-men who shall, until other Quotas shall be fixed in like Manner, serve for each County, and the Number so fixed as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the Lieutenant of such County from Time to Time, and Notice of the same shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, and the Number so from Time to Time appointed shall be the Quota of such County, until some other Quota is appointed in like Manner.

Lord Lieutenant may direct into what Regiments, &c. Militia shall be formed, and with what Officers and Staff.

III. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, by Order signified by his Chief or Under Secretary, from Time to Time to direct the Lieutenants of Counties in Ireland to form the Militia of their Counties into such Companies, Regiments, Battalions, or Corps as to the Lord Lieutenant may seem fit, and to direct what Number of Officers and of what respective Ranks shall be appointed thereto, and what shall constitute the Staff thereof; and where the Number of Militia-men required to be raised for any County appears to the Lord Lieutenant insufficient to be conveniently formed into a separate Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, to direct the Militia of such County to be united with the Militia of any County adjoining.

Lord Lieutenant may make Regulations as to Qualification for Service of Officers.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant from Time to Time to make Regulations limiting the Ages at which Persons may be appointed Officers of the several Ranks in the Militia, and for securing the Appointment of Persons as such Officers who are qualified to discharge the Duties of Officers of their respective Ranks, and also for that Purpose to prescribe by such Regulations any Conditions, as to Drill, Training, and Exercise, or otherwise, under or subject to which any such Appointment shall be made.

Provisions as to certain Property Qualifications repealed.

V. So much of any Act now in force as requires Property Qualifications in the Case of Persons to be appointed Officers in the Militia in Ireland shall, save as respects Appointments to the Rank of Captain or any higher Rank, be repealed.

Qualification of Deputy Lieutenant, Captain, or Officer of higher Rank.

VI. For the Purposes of the Qualification of any Captain or Officer of higher Rank in the Militia, it shall not be necessary that all or any Part of the Estate required to confer such Qualification be situate in Ireland, but such Estate may be situate in any Part of the United Kingdom, and a clear yearly Income arising from any Personal Estate within the United Kingdom, of or to which Personal Estate or the yearly Income thereof such Officer is possessed or entitled at Law or in Equity for his own Use and Benefit, in possession for his own Life, or for the Life of his Wife, or for some greater Estate or Interest, shall be deemed equivalent to an Estate in Lands of a yearly Value of the same Amount with such yearly Income, and such yearly Income from Personal Estate shall be admitted in whole or in part of any such Qualification accordingly.

Persons holding certain Military Ranks may be appointed Officers without Property Qualification.

VII. Any Person holding or having held the Rank of Captain or any higher Rank in Her Majesty's other Forces, or in the Forces of the East India Company, may, without any Property Qualification, be appointed a Captain or Major of the Militia; and any Person holding or having held the Rank of Major or any higher Rank in any of the said Forces may, without any Property Qualification, be appointed a Lieutenant-Colonel or Colonel of the Militia; and any Person who shall have been qualified to receive and shall have received a Commission of Major or Lieutenant-Colonel in the Militia shall be qualified to receive and hold a Commission of higher Rank in the Militia.

Power to Lord Lieutenant to appoint Adjutants, &c.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to appoint from Time to Time such Persons as to him may seem proper to be Adjutants, Quartermasters, Paymasters, Serjeants Major, and Serjeants of the Militia; and the Provisions of the Act of the Forty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and Twenty, applicable to Adjutants appointed by the Colonels as therein provided shall be applicable to Adjutants to be appointed as aforesaid, and any Person who shall actually have served Three Years in the Forces of the East India Company may be appointed an Adjutant; and the Corporals and Drummers of each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps shall be appointed from Time to Time by the Colonel or Commandant thereof: Provided always, that while any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia is drawn out and embodied, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Corporals and Drummers to be appointed by the Colonel.

Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to appoint from Time to Time the Serjeant Major and Serjeants of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, as Occasion may require, for supplying any Vacancy or Vacancies, or completing the full Number of such Serjeants.

Qualification of Surgeons in Militia same as in the Army.

IX. Any Person shall be qualified to serve in the Militia as Surgeon or Assistant Surgeon who shall possess a Diploma, Certificate, or Qualification such as shall be held to qualify such Person to act as Surgeon or Assistant Surgeon in the Army, anything in the said Act of the Forty-ninth of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Existing Officers who are qualified for Service may continue. Officers not so continued shall retain their Ranks.

X. All Officers now holding Commissions in the Regular Militia in Ireland may, subject to such Regulations as may hereafter be made by the Lord Lieutenant, continue to hold such Commissions in the Militia to be raised under this Act, and to rank in the Militia Service according to the Dates of the Commissions now held by them respectively; and all Officers now holding such Commissions as aforesaid who shall not be so continued under this Act shall notwithstanding continue to hold their present Titles and Ranks as Officers of the Militia; and nothing herein contained shall extend to deprive such Officers not so continued of any Allowances to which they may now be entitled in respect of having held Commissions in the Militia when the same was last disembodied, or otherwise in respect of past Services, or to affect the Provisions authorizing the Grant of any retired or other Allowances to such Officers in respect of having held Commissions or of past Services as aforesaid.

Militia Men to be raised by voluntary Enlistment.

XI. For the Purpose of raising the Number of Men required to be raised under this Act, the Lieutenants of the said several Counties shall, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, and in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five at such Time as the Lord Lieutenant shall, by Order made with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, appoint for that Purpose, direct the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties, without Delay, to proceed to raise and enrol Volunteers to serve for the Term of Five Years in the Militia of such Counties, not exceeding the Numbers of Men for the Time being authorized to be therein raised under this Act, and such Colonels or Commanding Officers, and the Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers of the Militia duly authorized by such Colonels or Commanding Officers, shall forthwith proceed to raise such Volunteers, being resident in the County in which such Men are directed to be raised, or in any County immediately adjoining thereto, and being able-bodied Men between such Ages and of such Height as shall be from Time to Time fixed by Regulations made by Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War, as herein provided, and for such Bounties or other Payments as shall be from Time to Time authorized by such Regulations; and the Deputy Lieutenants of Counties shall severally aid the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties in raising and enrolling Volunteers for such Militia in the several Parishes and Places where such Deputy Lieutenants may be resident, and otherwise as the Lieutenants of such Counties may from Time to Time direct; but no General or Sub-division Meeting shall be holden for that Purpose, unless such Meeting be convened pursuant to any special Order made in this Behalf by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Deputy Lieutenants to aid in raising Volunteers for the Militia.

How Number of Men to be raised.

XII. Provided always, That where the Number of Men for the Time being required to be raised under this Act for any County has not been raised by voluntary Enlistment, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, if it appear to him advisable so to do, by Order signed by his Chief or Under Secretary, to authorize and direct all or any Part of such Number of Men as shall be deficient to be raised by voluntary Enlistment in and for any County in which the full Quota may have been raised and kept up.

Secretary-at-War may make Regulations.

XIII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War from Time to Time to make Regulations as to the Amount of the Sums to be paid to Volunteers under this Act by way of Bounty or periodical Payment or Allowance in consideration of their enlisting in the Militia, such Bounty in no Case to exceed Six Pounds, and such periodical Payment or Allowance in no Case to exceed after the Rate of Two Shillings and Sixpence per Month during the Term of Service for which the Volunteer is enrolled, and as to the Time or respective Times, Conditions, and Manner of the Payment thereof, and as to the Ages between which Men may be received as such Volunteers, and as to the Height and for the Examination and Approval by Medical Men of all Men to be raised for the Militia under this Act, and as to all other Matters which, under the Provisions herein contained, are made subject to Regulations to be made by such Secretary-at-War; and all such Bounties shall be paid out of such Monies as shall be provided by Parliament in this Behalf.

Regulations to be laid before Parliament.

XIV. All Regulations made under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Twenty-one Days next after the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting then within Twenty-one Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Volunteers to be raised for supplying the Places of Men whose Time is about to expire, and for supplying Vacancies by Death, &c.

XV. The Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia, shall from Time to Time, and so long before the Expiration of the respective Terms of Service of the Militia-men belonging to their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps as shall be directed by Regulations to be made by the Secretary-at-War, raise and enrol or cause to be raised and enrolled Volunteers to supply the Places of such Militia-men; and shall from Time to Time, subject to any Regulations to be so made, raise and enrol or cause to be raised and enrolled Volunteers for supplying casual Vacancies by reason of Militia-men dying before the Expiration of their Term of Service, or being promoted to be Non-

Non-commissioned Officers or Drummers (except where they are so promoted in the Room of Non-commissioned Officers or Drummers reduced to the Ranks), or being discharged as unfit for Service, or in pursuance of the Sentence of a Court-martial, or having deserted.

Volunteers to be sworn and enrolled.

XVI. Every Volunteer so raised as aforesaid shall, when he has been examined and approved according to such Regulations as shall be made by the Secretary-at-War, take the following Oath:

'I A.B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Defence of the same during the Time of Five Years for which I am enrolled, unless I shall be sooner discharged:'

inserting therein the Name of the Sovereign for the Time being, which Oath shall and may be administered by any Justice of the Peace or Deputy Lieutenant for the County in which such Volunteer shall have been raised, or in which the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps for which he shall have been raised shall be at the Time of his joining the same; and every such Volunteer shall be enrolled in a Roll, to be prepared and kept by or under the Direction of the Colonel or Commanding Officer, to serve in the Militia for the County for which he is raised as a Militia-man, for the Space of Five Years.

Period of Training and Exercise.

XVII. The Period of Training and Exercise of the Militia in Ireland shall, save as herein-after provided, be Twenty-one Days in every Year; and such Militia or any Part thereof may be called out for Training and Exercise more than once in every or any Year, so as the whole Period of Training and Exercise of any Militia-man do not exceed Twenty-one Days in any Year, save as herein-after provided; and the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militia-men serving for each County shall be appointed, with the Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by the Lieutenant of such County.

Lord Lieutenant may, by Order in Council, cause Militia to be exercised out of their own Counties, &c.

XVIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant from Time to Time, where, with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, he may see fit, to order all or any Part of the Militia to be marched out of their own respective Counties into any Part of Ireland, for the Purpose of Training and Exercise, and also where, with such Advice as aforesaid, the Lord Lieutenant may see fit so to do, to extend or reduce the Period of Training and Exercise of all or any Part of the Militia, so as the whole Period of Training and Exercise in any Year shall not exceed Fifty-six Days nor be less than Three Days; and no fresh Notice shall be necessary where such Extension or Reduction is made during the Time of actual Training.

Time of Drill not to be reckoned.

XIX. In case any of the Commissioned Officers or Privates of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps shall previously to the assembling of the same for Training and Exercise, have been sent to their Head Quarters or attached to any Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces for Purposes of Instruction, the Time during which they shall have remained at their own Head Quarters or with the said Corps for Instruction as aforesaid shall not be reckoned as any Part of the Period during which any Commissioned Officers and Privates may be kept assembled for Training and Exercise as herein-before provided.

Lieutenant to provide Places for Exercise.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenants of the several Counties, with the Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, to take on Lease or Hire, for or during such Terms or Periods as they may think necessary, Pieces of Ground convenient for the Training and Exercise of the Militia of such Counties.

Notices of Times and Places of Exercise, and in case of embodying Militia, how to be given.

XXI. Notices to Men who are enrolled in the Militia to attend Training and Exercise, or where any Order is made for drawing out and embodying the Militia or any Part thereof, to attend at any Place in pursuance of such Order, shall be sent by the Order of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Men belong, by the Post to the Residences of the several Men as stated on their Attestations, or as subsequently notified by them; and Public Notices shall also be sent to the County Inspector or other Chief Officer of the Police of the County, or in the Dublin Metropolitan District to the Superintendent of Police, who shall cause the same to be affixed by the Constables of such County or District on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and Chapel in each Parish or Place in such County or District, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church; and if any Place have no Church or Chapel, then in such Manner as Public Notices are usually made known in such Places, and on the Doors or outer Walls as aforesaid of the Churches or Chapels of some Parish or Place adjoining; and such Notice so affixed as aforesaid shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding any Omission to send Notices by Post; and any such Man not appearing at the Time and Place appointed in any such Notice shall be subject to be punished and dealt with accordingly.

Lord Lieutenant may order increased Pay to Militia-men attached to the Artillery.

XXII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, if he think fit, to order and direct that any Militia-men who shall be attached to the Service of the Artillery, and shall do Duty as Artillery-men, shall receive increased Pay, not exceeding such and the like Pay, during the Time of their serving and doing Duty as Artillery-men as aforesaid, as any of the Men serving in the Royal Corps of Artillery are or may be entitled to, and it shall also be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to direct the same to be paid for such Periods, and under and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions, as he may from Time to Time deem proper and necessary.

Penalties for fraudulent Re enlistment.

XXIII. Any Militia Volunteer who, before the Expiration of his Engagement as a Militia-man in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, enrols or offers to enrol himself in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, whether of the Militia raised in Ireland or of the Militia raised in any other Part of the United Kingdom, or in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, whether by the same or by different Names (save in the Way of lawful Renewal of his Engagement), shall, upon Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of such Payment shall be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Months, and shall also be liable to the Deduction out of the Bounty which he might otherwise have received in respect of his original Enlistment of a Sum equal to what he may have received upon his fraudulent Re-enlistment, and of such further Sum as the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps in which he may have originally enlisted shall think proper, or as the Secretary-at-War may from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the Expenses of his Attestation and Enrolment on such fraudulent Re-enlistment.

The Justice before whom a Militia-man is convicted of Re-enlistment in the Militia to send Report of Conviction to Secretary-at-War.

XXIV. The Justice before whom a Militia Volunteer shall be convicted of having enrolled or offered to enrol himself in another Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or more than once in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, shall send or cause to be sent to the Secretary-at-War a Report of such Conviction, stating the Name of such Volunteer, the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia to which he belongs, the Offence of which he has been convicted, and the Sentence or Decision of the Justice thereon, and where such Volunteer shall be imprisoned in pursuance of such Conviction, the Period when the Imprisonment will expire; and for such Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings, and no more; and the Secretary-at-War may transmit to the Justice so convicting an Order for the Payment to any Person who has apprehended and procured the Conviction of such Offender of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as he shall think fit.

Power to discharge Men from the Militia who have enlisted in the Regular Forces.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War at any Time to discharge any Militia Volunteer for Misconduct, Unfitness, or other Cause, upon such Conditions as he may from Time to Time direct, and such Volunteer shall have no Claim to future Pay or Bounty, or to release from future Attendance in the Militia any Volunteer who may have fraudulently enlisted into Her Majesty's Regular Forces or into the Forces of the East India Company, or who may have fraudulently entered into Her Majesty's Navy, and who has been sentenced to Imprisonment, or to Forfeiture for a Period not exceeding Eighteen Calendar Months of One Penny a Day from his Pay in such Forces or Navy, and any Man so released shall serve with the Force which he may have enlisted into or entered in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, with the like Liabilities in all respects as any Soldier or Seaman in such respective Force, and his Place in the Militia shall be supplied in like Manner as if his Term of Service as a Militia-man had expired by Efflux of Time.

Provision for withholding Payment of Bounty from Men wrongfully absent from Training.

XXVI. Any Bounty which, under the Regulations made under this Act, may be payable during or in respect of Attendance at Training and Exercise shall be forfeited by any Man who wholly absents himself from such Training and Exercise without Leave lawfully granted, or Sickness, certified according to such Regulations; and any such Bounty which would otherwise be payable to any Man who partially absents himself as aforesaid without such Leave, or Sickness, certified as aforesaid, or who misconducts himself during the Training, shall be wholly withheld, or issued only in such Manner and in such Portions as the Secretary-at-War, upon the Report of the Commanding Officer, shall determine.

Enrolment in Militia not to cause Forfeiture of any Interest in any Benefit Society.

XXVII. No Man, by reason of his Enrolment or Service in the Militia, shall lose or forfeit, or be deemed to have lost or forfeited, any Interest he may possess, or may have possessed at the Time of his so being enrolled or serving, in any Friendly or Benefit Society, any Laws, Rules, or Regulations of such Society to the contrary notwithstanding; and in case any Dispute shall arise between any such Society and any such Man by reason of such Enrolment or Service, it shall be considered as being a Dispute directed by the Rules of such Society to be decided by Justices of the Peace, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Friendly Societies.

Punishment of Men not attending, or absenting themselves during Training, and not taken till after.

XXVIII. Every Militia-man raised under this Act (not labouring under any certified Infirmity or Incapacity) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised (Notice having been given as by this Act required), or who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Companies or any Detachment or Division thereof, deserts or absents himself during the Time of any such Exercise, shall be deemed a Deserter, and if not taken until after the Time of such Exercise such Deserter shall, upon Conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, be liable to forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty be not immediately paid the said Justice shall sentence such Militia-man to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Three Months, unless the said Penalty be sooner paid: Provided, that any Information may be laid against such Militia-man under this Section at any Time within the Period of his Engagement in the Militia.

Provision for Apprehension of Militia-men not attending or absenting themselves during Training.

XXIX. The Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall notify to the Secretary-at-War and to the Constables or other Officers of the Parishes and Places in which Militia-men reside who have not attended Training and Exercise, or who may have absented themselves during the Time of Training and Exercise of their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, the Names and Descriptions of all such Militia-men who have so absented themselves; and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Officer, or for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service or in the Militia, to apprehend or cause any such Militia-man to be apprehended, and to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace, at any Time within the Period of his Engagement in the Militia, to be dealt with as herein-before mentioned, if the Battalion or Corps to which he belongs has ceased Training and Exercise, or to be committed to safe Custody until an Escort can be sent for him, if such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps be then out for Training and Exercise; and such Justice shall transmit a Report, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, and the Secretary-at-War at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to the Person or Persons by whom such Militia-man was apprehended and secured of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War may think fit.

Penalty for inducing Militia-men to absent themselves, &c.

XXX. Any Person who by Words or other Means shall persuade any Militia-man improperly to absent himself from his Duty, and every Person who shall assist or procure any Militia-man improperly to absent himself as aforesaid, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any Militia-man, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for buying Arms or Militia Stores.

XXXI. The Forty-fifth Section of the Act of the Forty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty, shall be repealed, and if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully buy, take in exchange, conceal, or otherwise receive any Militia Arms, Clothes, or Accoutrements, or any such Articles belonging to a Militia-man as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries according to the Custom of the Army, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by Deductions out of his Pay, or any Public Stores or Ammunition delivered for the Militia, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of the other Acts in force relating to the Militia, the Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty be not immediately paid, and the Offender shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy the same, the Justice by whom such Offender was convicted shall commit him to the House of Correction or Common Gaol, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Six Months, unless the said Penalty be sooner paid.

Recovery of Penalties.

XXXII. All Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act imposed shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered in Ireland under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Quarter Sessions in Ireland with respect to summary Convictions and Orders. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 50.

Application of certain Penalties.

XXXIII. One Moiety of every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed under this Act upon any Person duly convicted of buying, taking in exchange, concealing, or otherwise receiving contrary to Law any Militia Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries belonging to any Militia-man, or any Public Stores or Ammunition for the Service of the Militia, and every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed under this Act upon any Person assisting, procuring, or persuading any Militia Volunteer improperly to absent himself from his Duty, or concealing, employing, or continuing to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the other Moiety, or where the Offence shall be proved by the Person who shall inform, then the whole of the Penalty, shall be paid over and applied in such Manner as the Secretary-at-War shall direct, anything in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and every Justice who shall adjudge any such Penalty or Forfeiture shall, within Four Days at the farthest, report the same and his Adjudication thereof to the Secretary-at-War.

Application of Penalties on Militia-men.

XXXIV. All Penalties imposed by this Act upon Militia-men (except the Deductions from Bounty, which shall be brought to Public Credit) shall be paid to the Commanding Officers of the respective Regiments, Battalions, or other Bodies of Militia of the respective Counties to which the Militia-man belongs, and shall be made and accounted for as Part of the Public Stock of such Regiment, Battalion, or other Body of Militia respectively.

Volunteers under Instruction to be under Mutiny Act.

XXXV. Any Militia Volunteer attached for a Time for the Purpose of Instruction to any Regiment, Battalion, or Depôt of Her Majesty's Forces shall for such Time be deemed to be under the Operation of the Mutiny Act, in the same Manner as any Soldier enlisted in such Regiment, Battalion, or Depôt.

The Provisions of 49 G. 3. c. 120. as amended to extend to this Act.

XXXVI. All the Provisions of the Act of the Forty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and Twenty, and of any Act amending the same, or otherwise applicable to the Militia of Ireland, not hereby repealed, shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, and so far as the same are not inconsistent herewith, extend and be applicable to the Militia to be raised under this Act, and to all the Purposes thereof: Provided always, that no general or other Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be held except when specially convened for such Purposes as are by this Act directed to be carried into effect by a General Meeting, or when convened under the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Notices of General and Subdivision Meetings to be sent to Deputy Lieutenants by Post.

XXXVII. Notices of the Days and Places of holding General Meetings of Lieutenancy shall be sent by the Post by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the several Deputy Lieutenants of the County Seven Days at the least before the Days appointed for holding such Meetings respectively; and any Notices of Subdivision Meetings required to be given to Deputy Lieutenants or others shall be sent by the Clerk of General Meetings by Post.

Expenses of House for depositing Arms and Stores of the Militia in Ireland to be

CAP. CVIII.

An Act to suspend the making of Lists and the Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to suspend for a further Period the Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom and Ballots for such Militia suspended.

I. All General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom, and all Proceedings relating to procuring any Returns, or preparing or making out Lists of such Militia or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of a Ballot, or relating to Balloting for any Militia-men or supplying any Vacancies in such Militia by Ballot, save such Proceedings as are or may be directed or authorized by or under the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty, and the Acts amending the same, shall cease and remain suspended until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Proceedings may be had during such Suspension by Order in Council.

II. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by any Order in Council to direct that any Proceedings shall be had at any Time before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid, either for the giving of Notices and making Returns and preparing Lists, and also for the proceeding to Ballot and enrol Men for the filling up Vacancies in the Militia, as Her Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order all such Proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the Provisions of the Acts in force in Scotland and Ireland respectively relating to the giving Notices for and Returns for Lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of Men to supply any Vacancies in the Militia, and holding General and Subdivision Meetings for such Purpose, at such Times respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any Directions given in pursuance thereof to Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several Counties, Shires, Cities, and Places in Scotland, or to the Governors and Deputy Governor of Counties and Places in Ireland; and all the Provisions of the several Acts in force in Scotland and Ireland respectively relating to the Militia shall, upon any such Order, and Direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full Force and be carried into execution at the Period specified in such Order or Direction as aforesaid, with all such Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, as fully as if such Periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such Militia.

Saving for certain Meetings relating to the Militia.

III. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the holding before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid of such General or other Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom as may be called under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Ireland under the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or of any Meeting which may be called for the Purpose of altering, enlarging, or providing any Place for the Reception of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores belonging to the Militia.

CAP. CIX.

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia; and to authorize the Employment of the Non-commissioned Officers. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the regular Militia, and of the Miners of Cornwall and Devon, when disembodied, in Great Britain and Ireland, and for making in certain Cases Allowances of Reduced Pay to Subaltern Officers and Surgeons Mates and Assistant Surgeons of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Devon and Cornwall, while disembodied, and Allowances to Adjutants, Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, and Serjeant Majors of the Regular Militia, who have been or may be reduced, and to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters disabled after long Service:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Secretary-at-War to issue the Money required for Pay of Regular Militia.

I. The Secretary-at-War for the Time being shall cause to be issued and paid the whole Sum required for the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland (when disembodied), in the Manner and for the several Uses herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) for the Pay of the said Regular Militia at the daily Rates following; (that is to say,)

Rates of Pay.

For each Adjutant of Infantry, Eight Shillings, and of Artillery, Nine Shillings:

For Militia Pay.

For each Serjeant Major of Infantry, where One is appointed in Corps consisting of Two or more Companies, One Shilling and Tenpence, and of Artillery, Three Shillings:

For each Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps whose Establishment exceeds Four Companies) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence; and to the Serjeant performing the Duty of both Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps consisting of Four Companies or less) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence:

For each Sergeant of Infantry, One Shilling and Sixpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Twopence:

For each Drummer, Trumpeter, or Bugler above Sixteen Years of Age, One Shilling, and under Sixteen Years of Age, Tenpence:

Rates of Pay when absent on Furlough.

Provided always, that when any Serjeant Major or Serjeant shall be absent on Furlough or Licence he shall during such Absence receive Sixpence per Diem less than the above-mentioned Rates respectively:

Clothing.

And also for the Clothing of the Regular Militia (when disembodied), in Cases in which Full Clothing shall be provided by the Colonel or Commandant, at the Rate of Five Pounds Twelve Shillings and One Penny for each Serjeant Major, Three Pounds for each Serjeant, and Two Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sevenpence for each Drummer, and so in proportion in the Cases in which only Part of the Clothing shall be provided by the Colonel or Commandant, together with the actual Expense of Package and Carriage, and such Charges for altering and fitting the Clothing as shall have been sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War: Provided always, that Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, and Drummers on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of England and Wales, and such Serjeant Majors and Serjeants as were serving on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Ireland and Scotland, on the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and shall be resident at Head Quarters, shall be entitled to be clothed once in Two Years; and that such as shall have been subsequently appointed to serve or promoted on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Ireland and Scotland shall be entitled to be clothed once in Four Years, unless a Militia Force be raised in Ireland and Scotland, and then the Disembodied Staff shall be entitled to be clothed once in Two Years:

Contingent Fund.

And also at Rates varying from Two Shillings to Sixpence per Annum for each Private Man for defraying the contingent Expenses of each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps when enrolled.

Adjutant, &c. to reside where the Secretary-at-War shall appoint.

II. Except when employed as herein-after provided, every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer on the Staff of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, shall reside in such Places as shall be sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War; and every such Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer shall forfeit his Pay for any Period during which he shall be absent, except when employed as herein-after provided, or when absent by Leave from the Colonel or Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, which Leave shall not, except in case of certified Sickness, extend beyond Three Calendar Months in One Year, nor to a greater Proportion than One Third of the Non-commissioned Officers at the same Time.

Adjutants and Non-commissioned Officers of Militia may be employed in their Counties.

III. Every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, and not called out for Training or Exercise, shall be liable to be employed within the County to which the Regiment, Battalion, or Company of the said Militia Staff belongs, under the Officers appointed to pay and superintend the Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, in such Manner as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may determine.

Adjutant to have Charge of the Arms and Clothing and to issue the Money for contingent Expenses on an Order signed by the Colonel.

Balance to form a Stock Purse.

IV. The Adjutant of each Regiment of Militia shall have the Charge and Care of the Arms, Accoutrements, Great Coats, Clothing, Necessaries, and other Stores thereof, under the Superintendence of the Colonel or Commandant, and shall, out of the Allowance directed by this Act to be issued and paid for defraying the contingent Expenses of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, from Time to Time issue and pay such Sums of Money as may be necessary for the Repair of Arms, and other usual contingent Expenses, upon an Order in Writing signed by the Colonel or other Commandant, and after Payment of such Sums as aforesaid, he shall Three Times in the Year make up Accounts of all such Money, and of the Expenditure thereof, showing the Balance remaining in his Hands (which said Balance shall form a Stock Purse for the Use of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps), and shall transmit the same to the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, to be by him examined, allowed, and signed; and the said Accounts, so allowed and signed, shall be the proper Vouchers and Acquittal of such Adjutant for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

In Absence of the Adjutant, the Serjeants to be under the Command of the Serjeant Major.

V. In the occasional and unavoidable Absence of the Adjutant from the City, Town, or Place where the Disembodied Staff is quartered, or during any Vacancy in the Appointment of Adjutant, the Serjeants shall be under the Command of the Serjeant Major, or of some Serjeant who shall be appointed by the said Adjutant, with the Approbation of the Colonel or other Commanding Officer, to act as Serjeant Major during the Absence of such Adjutant; and the said Serjeant Major or acting Serjeant Major shall render the same Returns and perform such other Acts as are by Law required from the Adjutant.

Which Declaration, so taken and subscribed, shall be produced to the Paymaster General of Her Majesty's Forces by the Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon claiming the Allowance.

X. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to place any such Lieutenant, Ensign, and Surgeon's Mate of the Militia of Great Britain, or Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia of Ireland, when unfit for further Duty, upon a retired Allowance equal to and instead of the Allowance granted on the disembodying of the Militia at the Termination of the last War; and all such Subalterns, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, to entitle them to the Receipt of such retired Allowance, shall make and subscribe the following Declaration; (videlicet,) Certain Officers unfit for Duty may be placed upon a retired Allowance, upon making Declaration.

'I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I formerly served as a in the Militia; that I am not in Holy Orders; and that from the Day of to the Day of I did not hold or enjoy any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under Her Majesty, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, besides my Allowance of per Diem as a of the said Militia, except my Half Pay or Civil Pension as a .' Form of Declaration.

XI. The Allowances granted to certain Paymasters, Surgeons, and Quartermasters of the Militia of Great Britain and Ireland, on their being reduced, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, shall be issued and paid under the Restrictions and in the Manner herein-after expressed, during the Continuance of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to place any such Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster, when unfit for further Duty, upon a retired Allowance equal to and instead of his reduced Allowance. Allowances to Officers reduced in 1829.

XII. Every Paymaster, Surgeon, and Quartermaster of Militia, who shall Claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle himself thereto, take and subscribe a Declaration before some One of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom, or Notary Public, or other Officer now by Law authorized to administer or receive such Declaration, or before some One of Her Majesty's Ministers, Secretaries of Embassy, of Legation, or Consuls abroad, in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say,) A Declaration to be taken by Officers claiming the said Allowances.

'I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I was serving as [Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster, as the Case may be] in the of Militia at the Reduction of the Staff of the said Militia in One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and that I was not in Holy Orders during any Part of the Period for which I now claim to receive an Allowance, that is to say, from the Day of One thousand eight hundred and to the Day of One thousand eight hundred and ; and that I did not hold or enjoy, nor did any Person for me hold or enjoy, during any Part of the said Period, any Place, Office, or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under the Crown or any other Government, besides the Allowance of a Day now claimed, except my Half Pay as a [of the Army or Navy or Marines, or of a Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, as the Case may be], and except my Pay and Allowances from the to the both Days inclusive, during which Period the Militia was assembled for Training and Exercise.' Form of Declaration.

Which Declaration, so taken and subscribed, shall be produced to the Paymaster General of Her Majesty's Forces by the Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster claiming the Allowance: Provided always, that any Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster receiving such Allowance, and being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or Navy or Marines, shall, notwithstanding such Militia Allowance, be entitled to receive such Half Pay or Allowance.

Out-Pension to Reduced Non-commissioned Officers, &c. not to be received while serving.

XIII. 'And whereas certain Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers of the Militia of the United 'Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland have, on the Reduction of the Establishment of the Disembodied 'Staff, been placed on the Out-Pension, although not unfit for further Service:' No Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer so placed on Pension shall be entitled to receive the said Pension for any Period during which he shall be receiving Pay in the Militia.

Subalterns, Mates, &c. to attend the Exercise, &c.

XIV. Every Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster on the reduced Allowance, and every Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia, who shall be entitled or claim to be entitled to any Allowances as aforesaid, shall regularly attend the Exercise and Training of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs during the whole of the Time it shall be assembled for that Purpose, and shall during the said Time punctually do and perform his Duty as a Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, on pain of forfeiting the said Allowance, as well as all Arrears of the said Allowance and of Pay, and a Certificate of his having so attended and performed his Duty, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he may belong, shall be transmitted to the Paymaster General by the Officer claiming the Allowance: Provided always, that in case any such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon claiming to be entitled to such Allowance shall by his Commanding Officer be permitted or suffered, for any special Cause or unavoidable Necessity, to be absent during the whole or any Part of such Exercise, for which Purpose it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer to grant such Leave of Absence, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, who may be so permitted to be absent, and have such Leave in Writing, to demand and receive the said Allowances and every Part thereof in like Manner as if he had attended during the whole of the said Exercise: Provided also, that the Reason for such Absence, as well as the Duration thereof, shall be carefully and truly specified in a Certificate (in lieu of that before mentioned) to be signed by the Commanding Officer, and to be furnished as soon as conveniently may be to the Paymaster General.

Commanding Officers may grant Leave of Absence.

If Regiment be not called out before Time fixed for Payment, the Allowance shall be paid, on making Declaration, without Certificate of Attendance.

XV. Provided always, in case any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall not, before the Time fixed for the Payment of the said Allowances, be called out for the Exercise and Training thereof, every Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon belonging to any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, and coming within the aforesaid Benefits of this Act, who shall have made and subscribed the Declaration herein-before mentioned before any Justice of the Peace or other Person as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Allowance as if he had regularly attended the Exercise and Training of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps during the whole of the Time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and as if a Certificate of such Attendance, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, had been furnished.

Allowances to be paid quarterly.

XVI. Upon such Declarations and Certificates as aforesaid, or where any Regiment of Militia shall not have been called out to their Exercise as aforesaid, upon the said Declarations being produced to the Paymaster General, the Paymaster General shall pay to the said Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons their respective Allowances above mentioned for the usual quarterly or other proper Periods, without any Deduction whatsoever, except Income Tax.

On Neglect of Attendance, Subalterns, &c. shall forfeit Allowance.

XVII. The Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons of Militia, entitled or claiming to be entitled to the aforesaid reduced or disembodied Allowances, shall at all Times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps to which they belong whenever the same shall be embodied and called out upon active Service; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon, on such Occasion, or on such other Occasions as may be required in pursuance of the Laws in force respecting the Militia when disembodied, every such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon shall, on such Neglect or Refusal being certified to the Secretary-at-War, and in respect of the Militia of Great Britain, to the Lord Lieutenant of the County, by the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon shall belong, forfeit his Claim to the said Allowance and every Part thereof, and shall also be considered as having resigned and vacated his Commission to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Allowance not to be paid while the Militia embodied.

XVIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle any Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon as aforesaid to any such Allowance as aforesaid or any Part thereof during the Time the Militia to which he belongs shall be embodied or assembled for Training and Exercise.

Act not to give Right to Allowances on future Disembodiment.

XIX. Nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to entitle any Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, now or hereafter serving in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia now or hereafter to be embodied, to any Allowance in respect of such Service upon the disembodying of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps.

Persons on Half Pay, or entitled to Allowance as having served

XX. Provided always, That any Person, being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or being entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces or Navy or Marines, and serving in the Militia, may receive the Pay and Allowances by this Act directed to be paid to the Field Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, Adjutants, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons, when assembled for annual Training; and the receiving any such Pay and Allowances by any such Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Quartermaster, Surgeon, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, shall not prevent such Person on Half Pay, or being entitled to any such Allowance, from receiving his Half Pay or such Allowance: Provided also, that such Person shall, in the Declaration to be taken for the Receipt of the Half Pay or such Allowance, declare that he has received or is entitled to such Militia Pay and Allowances, and shall specify the Militia Rank which entitles him to the same.

in the Army or Navy, empowered to receive Pay, &c. during Training.

XXI. Provided always, That no Adjutant, Quartermaster, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private Man in the Regular Militia, entitled to receive any Chelsea or Kilmainham Pension or Allowance on account of Service in the Regular Army, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the Regular Militia; nor shall any Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon forfeit or lose his Right to receive any such Chelsea or Kilmainham Pension or Allowance by reason of his receiving the Allowance by this Act granted to him when disembodied.

Adjutants, &c. Noncommissioned Officers, or Privates, not to lose Right to Chelsea or Kilmainham Pensions, &c.

XXII. There shall be granted for each Regiment of Regular Militia, when disembodied, a Sum of Money after the Rate of One Guinea for every One hundred Men of each such Regiment, for the Expense of necessary Medicines for the sick Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men of such Regiment, during the Period or Periods of Assembly for Exercise or Training, and also an Allowance of Twopence per Week, for each of the Non-commissioned Officers and their Families of each Regiment on the Disembodied Staff at Head Quarters, for the Expenses of necessary Medicines and Attendance given to the said Non-commissioned Officers and their Families while such Regiment is not called out for Training and Exercise.

Allowance to be made for Medicines.

XXIII. Every Adjutant of Regular Militia appointed as such before the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, who shall have served faithfully, either in Her Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Twenty Years in the whole, whereof Ten shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, and who shall be by Age or Infirmity rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Secretary-at-War a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon obtaining an Order from the Secretary-at-War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster General shall pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of Eight Shillings per Diem: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty or any other Government; and that no Person who before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine held any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under the Crown, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, shall receive any Part of the said Allowance for any Time during which he held such Civil Place or Employment, except in the Cases in which the Emoluments of such Civil Place or Employment shall not exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance, and unless in such excepted Cases the Royal Consent to the holding of such Civil Place or Employment shall have been signified through the Secretary-at-War; and that no Person appointed on or after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty nine to any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, shall receive any Part of the said Allowance for any Time during which he shall hold such Civil Place or Employment: Provided also, that any Adjutant appointed after the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, who shall have served faithfully, either in Her Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Thirty Years in the whole, whereof Fifteen shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, and who shall be by Age or Infirmity rendered unfit for further Service, shall, upon producing to the Secretary-at-War a Certificate of such Service of Thirty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon an Order from the Secretary-at-War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings a Day, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Conditions as the aforesaid Allowance of Eight Shillings: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay or Out-Pension by reason of receiving such Allowance of Eight Shillings or Six Shillings a Day as aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay or Out-Pension as well as such Allowance: Provided also, that in Cases of very long and meritorious Services it shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to extend to any Adjutants appointed between the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen and the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three the Terms, either in whole or in part, herein-before prescribed for the Retirement of Adjutants appointed before the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Adjutants appointed before 24th Dec. 1814 entitled to receive, after a Service of 20 Years, if unfit for further Service, an Allowance of 8s. per Day, provided they do not hold certain other Appointments.

Adjutant appointed since 24th Dec. 1814 entitled to receive, after Thirty Years Service, &c., an Allowance of 6s. per Day.

Right to Half Pay reserved.

Certain Terms extended to Adjutants in Cases of long and meritorious Services.

XXIV. 'And whereas certain Allowances have been granted in pursuance of former Acts to Adjutants, 'Surgeons, and Quartermasters of Regular Militia who have by Age or Infirmity been rendered unfit 'for further Service:' Such Allowances shall be issued and paid, during the Continuance of this Act, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions as the Allowances granted by this Act to Adjutants who shall by Age or Infirmity be rendered unfit for further Service: Provided always, that no Person receiving such Allowance shall by reason thereof forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled.

Reduced Adjutants to receive 4*s.* per Day till 31st July 1855.

XXV. In case any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall have already ceased and determined or been reduced in its Establishment, or shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment during the Continuance of this Act, the Sum of Four Shillings per Diem shall be paid to such Person as was or shall be actually serving as Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps at the Time of Reduction, from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, or from the Time such Regiment shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment, (as the Case may be,) to the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Conditions as the Allowances granted by this Act to Adjutants who shall by Age or Infirmity be rendered unfit for further Service: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay of the Navy, Army, Marines, or Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, by reason of receiving such Allowance as last aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Right to Half Pay reserved.

Adjutants and Serjeant Majors entitled to Allowance under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 44.

XXVI. 'And whereas certain Adjutants and Serjeant Majors are entitled to and have received 'certain Allowances in consequence of having been reduced under the Provisions of an Act passed in 'the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, which Allowances have 'been continued, and as to such Adjutants augmented to Four Shillings per Diem:' All such Adjutants and Serjeant Majors shall be entitled to receive and shall receive such Allowance from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four to the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Allowances granted to Adjutants who have been appointed since 24th Dec. 1814, &c. on Completion of certain Periods of Service.

XXVII. The following Allowances shall be granted and paid, under the Restrictions and Limitations herein-after expressed, to Adjutants of the Militia of Great Britain and Ireland who have been appointed since the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and who shall hereafter be appointed, on the Completion of the following Periods of Service in Her Majesty's Regular Forces and in the Militia, if unfit for the Performance of the Duties of their Commissions; (that is to say,)

To every Adjutant who shall have completed in the Service a Period of, (videlicet,)

Fifteen Years, of which Five Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Three Shillings per Diem:

Twenty Years, of which Seven Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Four Shillings per Diem:

Twenty-five Years, of which Ten Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Five Shillings per Diem:

Thirty Years, of which Fifteen Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Six Shillings per Diem:

No Adjutant whose Commission bears Date between 24th Dec. 1814 and 9th July 1823 excluded.

Provided always, that no such Adjutant whose Commission bears Date between the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen and the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three shall be excluded from the Operation of the Authority vested in the Secretary-at-War to determine certain Cases of Adjutants of long and meritorious Services; provided also, that such Adjutants shall retain any Right they may have to Half Pay or to Out Pension, notwithstanding the Grant of such retired Allowance as aforesaid; and all such Allowances shall be granted upon the Production to the Secretary-at-War of a Certificate of such Service and Disability; and the Paymaster General shall pay to such Adjutant the above Allowance, subject to the same Limitations and Restrictions in respect to the holding of any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under the Crown, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, as attach to other Adjutants to whom retired Allowances have been or shall be granted.

Right to Half Pay and Pension reserved.

Reduced Adjutants may take such Allowance with any Pay or other Allowance under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 44. and 26 G. 3. c. 107. Proviso.

XXVIII. Every reduced Adjutant entitled to any Allowance granted under the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, and continued by any subsequent Act or by this Act, may receive such Allowance, together with any Full Pay, Half Pay, or Allowance which was tenable together with such reduced Allowance under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall be entitled to receive any Allowance under this Act during the Time he shall hold any Military Office of Profit under Her Majesty, other than such as aforesaid, or under any other Government, or any Civil Office or Employment under Her Majesty, or any other Government, otherwise than according to the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Allowances granted to Adjutants on account of Age or Infirmity.

Restrictions as to Allowances to reduced Adjutants of the Local Militia.

XXIX. 'And whereas certain Allowances have been granted to reduced Adjutants of the Local 'Militia:' The said Allowances shall be issued and paid during the Continuance of this Act in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions as the Allowances of the Paymasters, Surgeons, and Quartermasters of the Regular Militia who were reduced in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine: Provided always, that in the Cases in which any such Local Militia Adjutants have been permitted to receive the said Allowances whilst holding any Civil Offices under the Crown, to which Offices

Offices they had been appointed previously to the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it shall be lawful to continue the Payment of the said Allowances under the same Regulations and Restrictions as those under which the Permission was originally granted.

Allowance to Clerks of General Meetings, &c.

XXX. Where the Militia is raised by Ballot in Great Britain, Allowances shall be made and issued to the Clerks of General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy and others mentioned in Schedule A. to this Act for their Trouble and Expenses in the Execution of the Laws relating to the Militia at the Rates mentioned in the same Schedule; and where the Militia is raised in the United Kingdom otherwise than by Ballot, Allowances shall be made and issued to the Clerks of General Meetings for their Trouble and Expenses in the Execution of such Laws at the Rates mentioned in the Schedule B. to this Act.

Manner of granting Allowances.

XXXI. The said Allowances shall be granted as follows; (videlicet,) the Account shall be certified by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or by Two or more Deputy Lieutenants acting for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or by the Lord Warden of the Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon, or by Two or more Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon; and the Clerks of General and Subdivision Meetings in Great Britain, and the Schoolmasters, Constables, and other Officers in Scotland, shall make a Declaration as to the Justness of the Accounts, in the following Terms respectively, before some Justice of the Peace; (videlicet,)

Clerks, &c. to make Declaration of the Justness of their Accounts.

Declaration of a Clerk of General or Subdivision Meetings.

'I do solemnly declare, That the preceding Account, so far as regards my 'Interest therein, is a just and true Account of Business performed by me for and in behalf of the 'public Service, according to the Manner therein set forth; and the Sums claimed as disbursed were 'actually paid by me.'

Declaration of a Schoolmaster, Constable, or other Officer in Scotland.

'I do solemnly declare, That I am the Parochial Schoolmaster [or Constable or 'other Officer] of the District of in the Subdivision of the 'County of ; and that the preceding Account is a just and true Account of Business 'actually performed by myself for and in behalf of the public Service, according to the Manner therein 'set forth; and that I was employed on such Business the full Time therein stated; and that the Sums 'claimed as disbursed were actually paid by me.'

And the said Accounts shall be transmitted to the Secretary-at-War, who is hereby empowered to issue the Allowances according to the Rates specified in the respective Tables to this Act annexed, or such Sums as he shall think reasonable and proper.

Deputy Lieutenants may require the Attendance of any Surgeon residing near the Place of Meeting for Appeals.

XXXII. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Deputy Lieutenants acting in any Subdivision of any 'County, Stewartry, City, or Place in Great Britain, and the Special Deputy Wardens acting in any 'Subdivision in the Stannaries of the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, should be assisted by the Advice 'of a Surgeon in deciding upon the Appeals of Persons claiming to be exempt from compulsory Service 'in the Militia by reason of bodily Infirmity, and upon the Fitness for Service of the Persons presenting 'themselves for Enrolment:' It shall be lawful for any Two Deputy Lieutenants and they are hereby empowered and required to summon, by Two Days previous Notice in Writing, any competent Surgeon residing at or nearest to the Place where any Meeting for Appeals or Enrolment shall be held, to attend at such Meeting; and every such Surgeon shall, before he begins any such Examination, make the following Declaration, which Declaration any Deputy Lieutenant is hereby authorized to administer; (videlicet,)

Declaration to be made by Surgeon.

'I do solemnly declare, That I will, to the best of my Ability, faithfully and 'truly report as to the Fitness for Service of the Man or Men about to be submitted to my Exami- 'nation, and that I will not receive from any of them any Fee or Reward whatever for any such 'Examination.'

Allowance to Surgeon.

And every such Surgeon shall receive for each Day's Attendance at such Meeting a Sum not less than Half a Guinea nor exceeding Two Guineas, according to the Extent of the Duty performed: Provided always, that the Accounts and Vouchers upon which the said Allowances shall be recommended by the Deputy Lieutenants of the respective Subdivisions shall be transmitted to the Secretary-at-War, with the Accounts of the Lieutenancy Clerks, for Examination and Payment.

Pay, &c., to be issued under Directions of the Secretary-at-War.

XXXIII. All Sums of Money granted for the Pay, Clothing, contingent and other Expenses, and for the Allowances to the Officers and Men of the Regular and Local Militia, when disembodied, shall be issued and paid under the Direction of the Secretary-at-War, by the Acceptance of Bills or otherwise, according to such Regulations as have been or shall be established on that Head.

Bills drawn for Pay, &c. may be on unstamped Paper.

XXXIV. All Bills, Drafts, and Orders drawn for Pay or Allowances under this Act may be drawn upon unstamped Paper; and no such Bill, Draft, or Order shall be void by reason of being drawn or written on unstamped Paper.

No Fee to be taken.

XXXV. No Fee or Gratuity whatsoever shall be given or paid for or upon account of any Warrant or Sum of Money which shall be issued in relation to or in pursuance of this Act.

XXXVI. All

All Things in this Act relating to Counties shall extend to Ridings, &c.

XXXVI. All Things in this Act contained relating to Counties, and to Regiments of Militia respectively, shall be construed to extend to all Ridings, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, and to all Battalions, Corps, and independent Companies respectively, and to the Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon.

Continuance of Act.

XXXVII. This Act shall take effect and continue in force from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

CAP. CX.

An Act to provide for the Repayment of Monies advanced from the Exchequer to the County of Mayo for public Purposes. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS under the Provisions of certain Acts of Parliament divers Sums of Money have been from Time to Time advanced by the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Erection and Maintenance of Public Works in the County of Mayo, and for other public Purposes in the said County, to be repaid by the said County or some Barony or Baronies thereof, and there is now due to the said Commissioners of the Treasury for Arrears on Foot of such Advances the Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling, the several Items whereof, and the Purposes for which the same respectively have been advanced, are set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed: And whereas owing to the general Distress of the said County and other Causes it has become difficult to collect the said Arrears out of the Lands now charged therewith, and in consequence of the Death or Absence from the Country of several of the Grand Jury Cess Collectors it has become impossible to procure from them Affidavits that the said Sums are so in arrear, and that the same cannot be levied from the Persons or out of the Lands originally chargeable with the same, and it is doubtful whether (without the Production to them of such Affidavits) it is competent to the Grand Jury of the said County to re-present the said Arrears: And whereas it is expedient to provide for the Repayment by Instalments to the said Commissioners of the Treasury of the said Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling, and to enable the Grand Jury of the said County to present the same:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Grand Jury of Mayo may present Sum to be levied by Instalments in Discharge of Debt and Interest.

I. Notwithstanding anything in the One hundred and forty-fifth Section of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and sixteen, contained, and without the Production to them of such Affidavits as are by the same Section required, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County of Mayo and they are hereby required, at the next Assizes after the passing of this Act, to present the said Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling to be levied off the said County (or the Barony or Baronies or other Denominations thereof off which the same was originally required by the Treasurer's Warrant to be collected), by Twenty equal half-yearly Instalments, or by such and so many half-yearly Instalments as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct, with Interest upon such Portion of the said Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling as now bears Interest, and shall from Time to Time remain unpaid, and at the Rate at which the same Interest is now payable.

Directing when and how Instalments are to be levied.

II. The said Instalments and such Interest as aforesaid shall be levied off the said County or the Baronies or other Denominations liable thereto half-yearly after each successive Assizes, until the whole shall be levied and collected, and the First Instalment thereof, with such Interest as aforesaid, shall be levied immediately after the Assizes which shall happen next after the passing of this Act; and the Treasurer for the Time being of the County of Mayo shall and he is hereby required to applot and insert in his Warrant for levying the Sums presented at the said next Assizes the Amount of such First Instalment and Interest, and in like Manner, without further Presentment or Authority in that Behalf, to applot and insert from Time to Time in his Warrant or Warrants for levying the Sums presented at each succeeding Assizes the Amount of the said Instalments respectively, with such Interest as aforesaid, according as the same Instalments and Interest respectively shall from Time to Time become leviable, until the whole Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling, with such Interest as aforesaid, shall be so raised and levied.

If Grand Jury neglect or refuse, the Court to have Power to order the Sum to be raised.

III. In case the Grand Jury of the said County of Mayo, at the Assizes next after the passing of this Act, shall neglect or refuse duly to present the said Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling, with the Interest and in the Manner by this Act provided, the Court shall have Power and is hereby required, before the finding of any of the other Presentments, to make an Order directing the said Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling, with with such Interest as aforesaid, to be raised and levied as if the same Sum and Interest had been so presented, and such Order shall have the Force and Effect of a Presentment; and the said Sum and Interest shall accordingly be inserted by the Instalments aforesaid in the Warrants of the Treasurer of the said County, and applotted and raised and levied and applied in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been duly presented by the said Grand Jury under the Provisions of this Act.

Instalments and Interest as aforesaid to be a Charge on the Rates, &c.

IV. Each such half-yearly Instalment and such Interest as aforesaid, according as the same shall from Time to Time become payable, shall be a Charge upon all Money, Rates, and Cesses whatsoever levied or collected for the Purposes of the said County or of the Baronies or other Denominations thereof upon which the same Instalments and Interest shall be applotted, in preference and priority to all other Liens, Charges, or Demands whatsoever upon the same County, Baronies, or other Denominations; and the Amount of such Instalments and Interest shall be paid by the Treasurer for the Time being of the said County, as and when the same shall become due, out of such Public Money, Rates, and Cesses as aforesaid as shall first come to his Hands, (so far as the same shall extend,) in priority and preference to any other Lien, Charge, or Demand whatsoever upon the same; and the said Treasurer shall pay over the said Amount to such Person and in such Manner as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall from Time to Time direct: Provided always, that such Presentment and Payments shall (except as to the Priority lastly herein-before given to them) be without Prejudice to the Repayment of all other Advances which have been heretofore made or which may be hereafter made to the said County by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and which are not comprehended in the aforesaid Sum of Nine thousand eight hundred and ninety-three Pounds One Shilling.

C A P. CXI.

An Act to continue and amend the Metropolitan Sewers Acts. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, "to consolidate and continue in force for Two Years, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Metropolitan Commissions of Sewers," and such Act has been amended by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-three, and has been further amended and has been continued by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-five, and an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-four, and an Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, and stood continued until the Seventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four: And whereas it is expedient to revive and continue the said Acts for such Period as herein mentioned, and to amend the same as herein provided:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

11 & 12 Vict. c. 112. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 93. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 75. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 64. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 125.

Metropolitan Sewers Acts continued till

I. The said first-mentioned Act, as amended by the other Acts herein-before mentioned and by this Act, shall be revived and continue in force until the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and and fifty-five, in like Manner as if the Time so limited had been the Time originally limited by the said firstly-mentioned Act for the Continuance thereof.

Pending Vacancy in Office, or during Absence of Chairman or Deputy Chairman, Commissioners present to appoint a Person to preside at Court.

II. In case of a Vacancy in the Office of Chairman or Deputy Chairman under the Provisions of the said Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-five, or in case of his or their Absence from any Court of Sewers, some other Commissioner shall be chosen, by the Majority of the Commissioners present, to preside at such Court; and in case there be an equal Number of Votes upon such Choice, then the Person proposed whose Name shall stand first in the Commission shall preside; and if there be an equal Division of Votes upon any Question, the Person so presiding at such Court shall, in addition to his own Vote as a Commissioner, have a Second or Casting Vote, as provided by the said firstly-mentioned Act; and the Person so chosen to preside shall have and perform all the Powers and Duties given to and required to be performed by the Chairman of the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, under the Provisions of the said Act passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-five.

Limit of Amount to be borrowed on Security of Rates, 600,000*l.*

III. 'And whereas by the Second Section of the said Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, 'Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, it is enacted, that the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds 'shall be the Limit and Extent of the Debt due and owing on the Security of the Rates authorized to be 'made as therein mentioned at any one and the same Period of Time: And whereas it is expedient to 'extend the said Limit:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds shall be the Limit and Extent of the Debt due and owing on the Security of the said Rates at any one and the same Period of Time; and that the said Second Section of the said last-mentioned Act shall be read and construed as if the Words "Six hundred thousand Pounds" had been inserted therein instead of the Words "Three hundred thousand Pounds" wherever such last-mentioned Words occur therein.

No Priority amongst Mortgagees or Annuitants, except with respect to existing Charges.

IV. All Persons to whom at the Time of the passing of this Act any Sums of Money are due and owing on the Security of the said Rates, whether in respect of any Mortgages made under the Powers of the said Acts or any of them, or in respect of any Securities made and entered into before the issuing of the First Commission under the first of such Acts, and all Persons to whom any Sums shall become due and owing in respect of any Mortgage of the said Rates made or to be made in pursuance of a certain Deed of Agreement bearing Date the Twentieth Day of February now last past, and made between the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers of the one Part, and Robert Hudson, Charles Bladen Carruthers, and William Beckwith Towse, Three of the Directors of the Rock Life Assurance Company, of the other Part, shall, in respect of such Debts and Securities, have Priority over and be entitled to be repaid the Sums so due and owing, or so to become due and owing to them, in preference to all other Mortgagees and Annuitants by whom Advances shall be made after the passing of this Act; and, subject to such Priority and Preference, every future Mortgagee or Annuitant shall be entitled to be repaid the Sums he shall advance, with Interest, or to be paid the Annuity which shall be granted to him, without any Preference over any other Mortgagee or Annuitant by reason of any Priority of Advance, or the Date of his Mortgage or other Security.

Securities to continue valid notwithstanding the Expiration of the Act or the Discontinuance of the Commission.

V. Notwithstanding the Expiration at any Time hereafter of the firstly herein-before recited Act, or of any Act or Provisions incorporated therewith, or in case at any Time hereafter no Commission of Sewers shall be in force under the said firstly-recited Act, all Mortgages and Annuities which at or immediately before the Time of the Expiration of the said firstly-recited Act, or of the Expiration or Determination of the Commission of Sewers which shall have been last in force thereunder (whichever of such Events shall first happen), shall be a Charge on all or any of the Rates authorized to be levied under the said firstly-recited Act and the Acts amending the same, shall continue valid and in full Force and to be a Charge on the Districts on which such Rates would have been authorized to be levied in case such Acts and Commission respectively had continued in force, and on the Property rateable thereto; and, unless Parliament otherwise provide, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall, with all convenient Speed after the Expiration of the said firstly-recited Act or the Expiration or Determination of such Commission, ascertain or cause to be ascertained the Liabilities of such Districts in respect of such Mortgages and Annuities, and where any such Mortgages or Annuities are charged on more than One District shall apportion or cause to be apportioned as between the respective Districts charged therewith the Liabilities under such Mortgages or Annuities, and shall certify the Amount of Charge to which each District is subject in respect of the Liabilities ascertained, or ascertained and apportioned as aforesaid, to the Clerk of the Peace for the County the Justices of which are herein-after authorized to make Rates in respect thereof upon each such District.

Quarter Sessions of the Metropolitan Counties to levy Rates required for such Securities.

VI. The Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex in Quarter Sessions assembled shall, as to the Parts charged by any such Mortgage or Annuity which may be situate on the North Side of the River Thames, and the Justices of the Peace for the County of Kent in Quarter Sessions assembled shall as to the Parts so charged within the Limits of the Sewerage Districts known as the Greenwich District and the Ravensbourne District, and the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey shall as to the Parts so charged which may be situate on the South Side of the River Thames, save and except the said Greenwich District and Ravensbourne District respectively, make, collect, demand, and levy, and exercise all and every the Powers and Authorities for and with reference to the making, demanding, collecting, and levying of all such Rates for the Payment of the Principal Money and Interest Interest and Annuities, or the apportioned Part thereof respectively, certified by the Commissioners of the Treasury as aforesaid to the Clerk of the Peace of such respective County, as the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers might or could have done in case the said firstly-recited Act and any Act or Provisions incorporated therewith had not expired and a Metropolitan Commission of Sewers were in force thereunder; and all Money raised by means of such Rates shall be paid over to such Person or in such Manner as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may appoint for the Purpose of being applied towards Payment of the Principal and Interest and Annuities or apportioned Part thereof respectively certified as aforesaid.

Separate Districts may be formed for Sewerage Purposes of Places where no Sewers Rate at present raised.

VII. 'Whereas the Area included within the Limits of the Commission under the said first-mentioned 'Act comprises several Parts and Places in which no Sewers Rates have been raised or levied by the 'Commissioners acting by virtue of any Commission issued under the said first-mentioned Act, and in 'which such Commissioners have either wholly or for the most part, in pursuance of the Discretion 'vested in them by such first-mentioned Act, forborne to exercise their Jurisdiction: And whereas it 'may be convenient to form some of such Parts or Places into separate Districts for Sewerage Purposes, 'under the Jurisdiction and Control of Sewerage Boards, to be constituted in manner herein-after 'mentioned:' Be it enacted, That from Time to Time, upon an Application in Writing signed by not less than Two Thirds in Number of the Inhabitants of any of such Parts and Places as aforesaid which it may be proposed to form into a separate District for Sewerage Purposes, as herein-after mentioned, rated to the Relief of the Poor, describing therein or upon a Plan annexed thereto the Limits of such proposed District, and its Fitness, in respect of Extent, Situation, Fall of the Ground, and other Circumstances, to be formed into a separate District for Sewerage Purposes, and also showing that the said Inhabitants, rated as aforesaid, are desirous of immediately providing Sewerage by means of a Sewers Rate to be raised in such proposed District, not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound in the Year on the net annual Value of the Property therein rateable to the Relief of the Poor, or (in case there shall be no Rate for the Relief of the Poor) upon an Estimate of the net annual Value of such Property by a competent Person in that Behalf, and showing that fit and proper Sewers for such District can be made and provided at a Cost which can or may be defrayed by means of such Sewers Rate, or by Monies borrowed on the Security thereof, and that the Sewerage of such District can be conveniently managed and conducted by a Sewerage Board, to be constituted as herein-after mentioned, the said Commissioners shall thereupon proceed to examine and consider the said Application, and if, on such Examination and Consideration, they shall be of opinion that the several Parts and Places in the said Application mentioned or referred to can be conveniently and properly excepted from their Jurisdiction, and, either alone or together with other contiguous Parts and Places, formed into a separate District for Sewerage Purposes, as herein-after mentioned, they shall and may order and decree accordingly, and thereupon the several Parts and Places described in such Order and Decree shall be excepted from the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, and become subject to the Jurisdiction and Control of a Sewerage Board, to be appointed in manner herein-after mentioned.

Inhabitants to elect Sewerage Board of such Districts.

VIII. When and as often as any such District shall have been excepted from the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Inhabitants thereof rated to the Relief of the Poor therein, at a Public Meeting to be convened in manner hereinafter directed, to elect from their Number Seven Persons, duly qualified, to be and be called the Sewerage Board of such District, which Board shall be authorized and empowered forthwith to execute and superintend the Execution of the Works necessary for the Sewerage of such District, of which Board not less than Five shall be a Quorum; and within One Calendar Month next after the Date of any such Order and Decree as aforesaid the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish or Parishes either wholly or partly situate within such District, or the major Part of them, shall and they are hereby required, by public Notice to be affixed on the Outside of the principal public Buildings within the District, to call a Meeting of the Persons so rated to the Relief of the Poor as aforesaid, to be holden at a convenient Time and Place therein, to be specified in such Notice, for the Purpose of electing Seven Persons to be and constitute the Sewerage Board for such District.

Mode of Elections.

IX. On the Day so appointed for such Election the Ratepayers then rated to the Relief of the Poor and having been so rated for Six Calendar Months next preceding the Day of such Election, desirous of voting, shall meet at the Time and Place appointed, and shall then and there elect a Chairman from among themselves to preside at such Meeting, and shall thereupon proceed to the Election of Seven Persons, qualified as herein-after mentioned, to be and constitute the Sewerage Board of such District; and such Election shall take place by open Voting, and shall be decided by a Majority of Votes; and in case of an Equality of Votes the Chairman shall have a Casting Vote; and the Chairman shall at such Meeting declare the Names of the Ratepayers who shall have been so elected, and a List of the Persons so elected shall be forthwith affixed on the Outside of the principal public Buildings in such District.

Qualification of Members.

X. The Members of every such Sewerage Board to be elected at each and every Election under this Act shall be Persons qualified by Law to be elected Members of the Board of Guardians of any Union wholly or partly within such District.

Members of Sewerage Board to con-

XV. Provided always, That this Act shall not be taken to abridge the Continuance of so much of the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, and of so much of the said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, as will not expire on or before the said Seventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

CAP. CXII.

An Act to afford greater Facilities for the Establishment of Institutions for the Promotion of Literature and Science and the Fine Arts, and to provide for their better Regulation.

[11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that greater Facilities should be afforded for procuring and settling 'Sites and Buildings in trust for Institutions established for the Promotion of Literature, Science, 'or the Fine Arts, or for the Diffusion of useful Knowledge, and that other Provisions should be made 'for improving the legal Condition of such Institutions:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Lands to be used as Sites for Institutions, &c.

I. Any Person in England, Wales, or Ireland, being seised in Fee Simple, Fee Tail, or for Life of and in any Manor or Lands of Freehold, Copyhold, or Customary Tenure, and having the present beneficial Interest therein, may grant, convey, or enfranchise, by way of Gift, Sale, or Exchange, in Fee Simple or for a Term of Years, any Quantity not exceeding One Acre of such Land, whether built upon or not, as a Site for any such Institution as herein-after described; provided, that no such Grant made by any Person seised only for Life of and in any such Manor or Lands shall be valid, unless, if there be any Person next entitled to the same in Remainder, in Fee Simple or Fee Tail, and if such Person be legally competent, he shall be a Party to and join in such Grant; provided also, that where any Portion of Waste or Commonable Land shall be gratuitously conveyed by any Lord of a Manor for any such Purpose as aforesaid, the Rights of all Commoners and others having Interest of a like Nature in the said Land shall be barred and divested by such Conveyance.

Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster empowered to grant Lands for the Site of an Institution.

II. The Chancellor and Council of Her Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being, by any Deed or Writing under the Hand and Seal of the Chancellor of the said Duchy for the Time being, attested by the Clerk of the Council of the said Duchy for the Time being, for and in the Name of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, may, if they see fit, grant, convey, or enfranchise, to or in favour of such Institution, any Land forming Part of the Possessions of the said Duchy, not exceeding in the whole One Acre in any One Parish, upon such Terms and Conditions as to the said Chancellor and Council shall seem meet; and where any Sum or Sums of Money shall be paid for the Purchase or Consideration for such Land so to be granted, conveyed, or enfranchised as aforesaid, the same shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General for the Time being of the said Duchy, or his Deputy, and shall be by him him paid, applied, and disposed of according to the Provisions and Regulations contained in an Act of the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Seventy-three, or any other Act or Acts now in force for that Purpose.

Officers of the Duchy of Cornwall empowered, upon sufficient Authority, to grant Land for the Site of an Institution.

III. Any Three or more of the Principal Officers of the Duchy of Cornwall, under the Authority of a Warrant issued for that Purpose under the Hands of any Three or more of the Special Commissioners for the Time being for managing the Affairs of the Duchy of Cornwall, or under the Hands of any Three or more of the Persons who may hereafter for the Time being have the immediate Management of the said Duchy, if the said Duchy shall be then vested in the Crown, or if the said Duchy shall be then vested in a Duke of Cornwall, then under the Hands of any Three or more of the Principal Officers of the said Duchy, or under the Hands of any Three or more of the Persons for the Time being having the immediate Management of the said Duchy, may, if they think fit, and are so authorized, by Deed grant, convey, or enfranchise to or in favour of any existing or intended Institution any Land forming Part of the Possessions of the said Duchy of Cornwall, not exceeding in the whole One Acre in any One Parish, upon such Terms and Conditions as to the said Special Commissioners or Principal Officers, or such other Person as aforesaid, shall seem meet.

If Lands cease to be used for the Purposes of the Act they shall revert.

IV. Provided, That upon any Land so granted by way of Gift as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, ceasing to be used for the Purposes of the Institution, the same shall thereupon immediately revert to and become again a Portion of the Estate or Manor or Possessions of the Duchy, as the Case may be, to all Intents and Purposes as fully as if this Act or any such Grant as aforesaid had not been passed or made, except that where the Institution shall be removed to another Site, the Land not originally Part of the Possessions of either of the Duchies aforesaid may be exchanged or sold for the Benefit of the said Institution, and the Money received for Equality of Exchange or on the Sale may be applied towards the Erection or Establishment of the Institution upon the new Site.

Persons not having legal Estates empowered to convey Lands for Purposes of this Act without the Concurrence of their Trustees.

V. Where any Person shall be equitably entitled to any Manor or Land, but the legal Estate therein shall be vested in some Trustee or Trustees, it shall be sufficient for such Person to convey the Land proposed to be granted for the Purpose of this Act, without the Trustee or Trustees being Party to the Conveyance thereof; and where it is deemed expedient to purchase for the purpose aforesaid any Land belonging to or vested in any Infant or Lunatic, such Land may be conveyed by the Guardian or Curator of such Infant or the Committee of such Lunatic respectively, who may receive the Purchase Money for the same, and give valid and sufficient Discharges to the Party paying such Purchase Money, who shall not be required to see to the Application thereof.

Corporation, Justices, Trustees, &c. to convey Lands for the Purposes of this Act.

VI. Any Corporation, Ecclesiastical or Lay, whether sole or aggregate, and any Officers, Justices of the Peace, Trustees, or Commissioners, holding Land for public, ecclesiastical, parochial, charitable, or other Purposes or Objects, may, subject to the Provisions herein-after mentioned, grant, convey, or enfranchise for the Purpose of this Act such Quantity of Land as aforesaid, in any Manner vested in such Corporation, Officers, Justices, Trustees, or Commissioners; provided, that no Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole, being below the Dignity of a Bishop, shall be authorized to make such Grant without the Consent in Writing of the Bishop of the Diocese to whose Jurisdiction the said Ecclesiastical Corporation shall be subject; provided also, that no Parochial Property shall be granted for such Purpose without the Consent of a Majority of the Ratepayers and Owners of Property in the Parish to which the same belongs, assembled at a Meeting to be convened according to the Mode pointed out in the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Conveyance of Workhouses and other Property of Parishes and of Incorporations or Unions of Parishes in England and Wales, and without the Consent of the Poor Law Board, to be testified by their Seal being affixed to the Deed of Conveyance, and of the Guardians of the Poor of the Union within which the said Parish may be comprised, or of the Guardians of the Poor of the said Parish where the Administration of the Relief of the Poor therein shall be subject to a Board of Guardians, testified by the Guardians of such Union or Parish being the Parties to convey the same; and that no Property held upon Trust for charitable Purposes shall be granted without the Consent of the Charity Commissioners.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 69.

How such Parties may convey.

VII. Where any Officers, Trustees, or Commissioners, other than Parochial Trustees, shall make any such Grant, it shall be sufficient if a Majority or Quorum authorized to act of such Officers, Trustees, or Commissioners, assembled at a Meeting duly convened, shall assent to such Grant, and shall execute the Deed of Conveyance, although they shall not constitute a Majority of the actual Body of such Officers, Trustees, or Commissioners; and the Justices of the Peace may give their Consent to the making any Grant of Land or Premises belonging to any County, Riding, or Division by Vote at their General Quarter Sessions, and may direct the same to be made in the Manner directed to be pursued on the Sale of the Sites of Gaols by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled An Act to authorize the Disposal of unnecessary Prisons in England.

7 G. 4. c. 18.

Where Part only of Lands subject to a Rent under Lease is conveyed, the Rent and Fine upon

VIII. If Part only of any Land held in Fee subject to a perpetual Rent, or comprised in a Lease for a Term of Years unexpired, shall be conveyed or agreed to be conveyed for the Purpose of this Act, the Rent payable in respect of the Lands subject thereto, and any Fines certain or fixed Sum of Money to be paid upon any Renewals of the Lease, or either of such Payments, may be apportioned between the Part of the said Land so conveyed or agreed to be conveyed and the Residue thereof, and such Apportionment may be settled by Agreement between the Parties following; that is to say, the Person for the Time being Renewal of Lease may be apportioned.

being entitled to the Rent where the Land is held in Fee or the Lessor or other the Owner subject to such Lease of the Lands comprised therein, the Person entitled to the Fee subject to the Rent, or the Lessee or other Party entitled to the Land by virtue of such Lease or any Assignment thereof for the Residue of the Term thereby created, and the Party to whom such Conveyance as aforesaid for the Purpose of this Act is made or agreed to be made; and when such Apportionment shall so be made it shall be binding on all Under-lessees and other Persons and Corporations whatsoever, whether Parties to the said Agreement or not.

Liabilities of Tenants, and Remedies of Landlords as to Lands not conveyed.

IX. In case of any such Apportionment as aforesaid, and after the Lands so conveyed or agreed to be conveyed as aforesaid shall have been conveyed, the Person entitled to the Fee or other Estate in the Lands subject to the Rent, the Lessee, and all Parties entitled under him to the Lands not included in such Conveyance, shall, as to all future accruing Rent, and all future Fines certain or fixed Sums of Money to be paid upon Renewals, be liable only to so much of the Rent or of such Fines or Sums of Money as shall be apportioned in respect of such last-mentioned Lands; and the Party entitled to the Rent charged or reserved shall have all the same Rights and Remedies for the Recovery of such Portion of the Rent as last aforesaid as previously to such Apportionment he had for the Recovery of the whole Rent charged or reserved; and all the Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements, except as to the Amount of Rent to be paid, and of the Fines or Sums of Money to be paid upon Renewals, in case of any Apportionment of the same respectively, shall remain in force with regard to that Part of the Land which shall not be so conveyed as aforesaid, in the same Manner as they would have done in case such Part only of the Land had been subject to the Rent or included in the Lease.

Sites may be granted for separate Institutions.

X. Any Person or Corporation may grant any Number of Sites for distinct and separate Institutions, although the aggregate Quantity of Land thereby granted by such Person or Corporation shall exceed the Extent of One Acre, provided that the Site of each Institution do not exceed that Extent.

Grants of Site may be made to Corporations or Trustees.

XI. Where the Institution shall not be incorporated, the Grant of any Land for the Purpose of such Institution, whether taking effect under the Authority of this Act, or any other Authority, may be made to any Corporation Sole or Aggregate, or to several Corporations Sole, or to any Trustees whatsoever, to be held by such Corporation or Corporations or Trustees for the Purpose of such Institution.

Incorporation of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 28.

XII. The Provisions of the Act of the Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter Twenty-eight, shall be applicable to the Conveyances of Lands in England, Wales, and Ireland made or to be made to Trustees, not being Corporations, for the Purposes of such Institutions.

Form of Grants, &c.

XIII. All Grants, Conveyances, and Assurances of any Site for an Institution under the Provisions of this Act may be made according to the Form following, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; (that is to say,)

'of of .'

And no Bargain and Sale or Livery of Seisin shall be requisite in any Conveyance intended to take effect under the Provisions of this Act, nor more than One Witness to the Execution by the conveying Party.

Death of Donor not to invalidate Grant.

XIV. Any Deed executed for the Purposes of any Institution to which this Act applies, without any valuable Consideration, shall continue valid, if otherwise lawful, although the Donor or Grantor shall die within Twelve Calendar Months from the Execution thereof.

Mode of conveying the Lord's Interest and that of the Copyholder in Copyhold Land.

XV. Where Land of Copyhold or Customary Tenure shall have been or shall be granted for the Purpose of such Institution, the Conveyance of the same by any Deed wherein the Copyholder shall grant and convey his Interest, and the Lord shall also grant and convey his Interest, shall be deemed to be valid and sufficient to vest the Freehold Interest in the Grantee or Grantees thereof without any Surrender or Admittance or Enrolment in the Lord's Court, but the Fees (if any) payable by the Custom of the Manor upon Enfranchisement shall be paid to the Steward.

Application of Purchase Money for Land sold by

XVI. Where any Land shall be sold by any Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole for the Purpose of this Act, and the Purchase Money to be paid shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, the same may be retained by the Party conveying for his own Benefit, but when it shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds it shall be applied for the Benefit of the said Corporation in such Manner as the Bishop in whose Diocese such Land shall be situated shall, by Writing under his Hand, to be registered in the Registry of his Diocese, direct and appoint; but no Person purchasing such Land for the Purpose aforesaid shall be required to see to the due Application of any such Purchase Money. any Ecclesiastical or Corporation Sole.

XVII. In Cases not otherwise provided for in this Act, the Clauses Sixty-nine, Seventy, Seventy-one, Seventy-two, Seventy-three, Seventy-four, and Seventy-eight of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, being the Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter Eighteen, shall apply in respect of the Application of the Purchase Money of all Sites purchased from incapacitated Persons, Corporations, and Trustees hereby empowered to sell, other than the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster and the Officers of the Duchy of Cornwall. Certain Clauses of the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. rendered applicable to this Act.

XVIII. If it shall be deemed advisable to sell any Land or Building not previously Part of the Possessions of the Duchy of Lancaster or Cornwall held in trust for any Institution, or to exchange the same for any other Site, the Trustees in whom the legal Estate in the said Land or Building shall be vested may, by the Direction or with the Consent of the governing Body of the said Institution, if any such there be, sell the said Land or Building, or Part thereof, or exchange the same for other Land or Building suitable to the Purposes of their Trust, and receive on any Exchange any Sum of Money by way of effecting an Equality, and apply the Money arising from such Sale or given on such Exchange in the Purchase of another Site, or in the Improvement of other Premises used or to be used for the Purposes of such Trust; and such Trustees may, with like Direction or Consent, let Portions of the Premises belonging to the Institution not required for the Purposes thereof, for such Term, and under such Covenants or Agreements, as shall be deemed by such governing Body to be expedient, and apply the Rents thereof to the Benefit of the Institution. Trustees may sell or exchange Lands or Buildings; or may let.

XIX. The Trustees of such Institution who, by reason of their being the legal Owner of the Building or Premises, shall become liable to the Payment of any Rate, Tax, Charge, Costs, or Expenses, shall be indemnified and kept harmless by the governing Body thereof from the same, and in default of such Indemnity shall be entitled to hold the said Building or Premises and other Property vested in them as a Security for their Reimbursement and Indemnification, and, if Necessity shall arise, may mortgage or sell the same, or Part thereof, free from the Trusts of the Institution, and apply the Amount obtained by such Mortgage or Sale to their Reimbursement, and the Balance (if any) to the Benefit of the Institution, subject to the Restrictions herein-before contained with regard to Lands given and Lands belonging to the Duchies aforesaid. Trustees to be indemnified from Charges; in default thereof empowered to mortgage or sell the Premises.

XX. Where any Institution shall be incorporated, and have no Provision applicable to the Personal Property of such Institution, and in all Cases where the Institution shall not be incorporated, the Money, Securities for Money, Goods, Chattels, and Personal Effects belonging to the said Institution, and not vested in Trustees, shall be deemed to be vested for the Time being in the governing Body of such Institution, and in all Proceedings, civil and criminal, may be described as the Monies, Securities, Goods, Chattels, and Effects of the governing Body of such Institution by their proper Title. Property of Institution, how to be vested.

XXI. Any Institution incorporated which shall not be entitled to sue and be sued by any corporate Name, and every Institution not incorporated, may sue or be sued in the Name of the President, Chairman, principal Secretary, or Clerk, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Institution, and, in default of such Determination, in the Name of such Person as shall be appointed by the governing Body for the Occasion; provided, that it shall be competent for any Person having a Claim or Demand against the Institution to sue the President or Chairman thereof, if, on Application to the governing Body, some other Officer or Person be not nominated to be the Defendant. How Suits by and against Institutions to be brought.

XXII. No Suit or Proceeding in any Civil Court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the Person by or against whom such Suit or Proceedings shall have been brought or continued dying or ceasing to fill the Character in the Name whereof he shall have sued or been sued, but the same Suit or Proceeding shall be continued in the Name of or against the Successor of such Person. Suits not to abate or discontinue.

XXIII. If a Judgment shall be recovered against the Person or Officer named on behalf of the Institution, such Judgment shall not be put in force against the Goods, Chattels, or Lands, or against the Body of such Person or Officer, but against the Property of the Institution, and a Writ of Revivor shall be issued setting forth the Judgment recovered, the fact of the Party against whom it shall have been recovered having sued or having been sued, as the Case may be, on behalf of the Institution only, and requiring to have the Judgment enforced against the Property of the Institution. How Judgment to be enforced against.

XXIV. In any Institution the governing Body, if not otherwise legally empowered to do so, may, at any Meeting specially convened according to its Regulations, make any Byelaw for the better Governance of the Institution, its Members or Officers, and for the Furtherance of its Purpose and Object, and may impose a reasonable pecuniary Penalty for the Breach thereof, which Penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any local Court of the District wherein the Defendant shall inhabit or the Institution shall be situated, as the governing Body thereof shall deem expedient: Provided always, that no pecuniary Penalty imposed by any Byelaw for the Breach thereof shall be recoverable unless the Byelaw shall have been confirmed by the Votes of Three Fifths of the Members present at a Meeting specially convened for the Purpose. Institution may make Byelaw to be enforce.

XXV. Any Member who may be in arrear of his Subscription according to the Rules of the Institution, or may be or shall possess himself of or detain any Property of the Institution in a Manner or for a Time contrary Members liable to be sued as Strangers.

contrary to such Rules, or shall injure or destroy the Property of the Institution, may be sued in the Manner herein-before provided; but if the Defendant shall be successful in any Action or other Proceeding at the Instance of the Institution, and shall be adjudged to recover his Costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose Name the Suit shall be brought, or from the Institution, and in the latter Case shall have Process against the Property of the said Institution in the Manner above described.

Members guilty of Offences punishable as Strangers.

XXVI. Any Member of the Institution who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle the Money, Securities for Money, Goods, and Chattels of the Institution, or wilfully and maliciously, or wilfully and unlawfully, destroy or injure the Property of such Institution, or shall forge any Deed, Bond, Security for Money, Receipt, or other Instrument, whereby the Funds of the Institution may be exposed to Loss, shall be subject to the same Prosecution, and if convicted shall be liable to be punished in like Manner, as any Person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like Offence.

Institutions enabled to alter, extend, or abridge their Purposes.

XXVII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing Body of any Institution (not having a Royal Charter, nor established by nor acting under any Act of Parliament), which has been established for any particular Purpose or Purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such Purpose, or to amalgamate such Institution, either wholly or partially, with any other Institution or Institutions, such governing Body may submit the Proposition to their Members in a written or printed Report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the Consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Institution; but no such Proposition shall be carried into effect unless such Report shall have been delivered or sent by Post to every Member Ten Days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing Body for the Consideration thereof, nor unless such Proposition shall have been agreed to by the Votes of Three Fifths of the Members present at such Meeting, and confirmed by the Votes of Three Fifths of the Members present at a Second Special Meeting convened by the governing Body at an Interval of One Month after the former Meeting.

Power to Board of Trade to suspend such Alteration, if applied to by Two Fifths Dissentients.

XXVIII. If any Members of the Institution, being not less than Two Fifths in Number, consider that the Proposition so carried is calculated to prove injurious to the Institution, they may, within Three Months after the Confirmation thereof, make Application in Writing to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations, who, at their Discretion, shall entertain the Application, and if, after due Inquiry, they shall decide that the Proposition is then calculated to prove injurious to the Institution, the same shall not be then carried into effect; but such Decision shall not prevent the Members of such Institution from reconsidering the same Proposition on a future Occasion.

Provision for the Dissolution of Institutions and Adjustment of their Affairs.

XXIX. Any Number not less than Three Fifths of the Members of any Institution may determine that it shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the Time then agreed upon, and all necessary Steps shall be taken for the Disposal and Settlement of the Property of the Institution, its Claims and Liabilities, according to the Rules of the said Institution applicable thereto, if any, and if not, then as the governing Body shall find expedient; provided, that in the event of any Dispute arising among the said governing Body or the Members of the Institution the Adjustment of its Affairs shall be referred to the Judge of the County Court of the District in which the principal Building of the Institution shall be situated, and he shall make such Order or Orders in the Matter as he shall deem requisite, or, if he find it necessary, shall direct that Proceedings shall be taken in the Court of Chancery for the Adjustment of the Affairs of the Institution.

Upon a Dissolution, no Member to receive Profit. Proviso for Joint Stock Companies.

XXX. If upon the Dissolution of any Institution there shall remain, after the Satisfaction of all its Debts and Liabilities, any Property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Institution or any of them, but shall be given to some other Institution, to be determined by the Members at the Time of the Dissolution, or in Default thereof by the Judge of the County Court aforesaid; provided, however, that this Clause shall not apply to any Institution which shall have been founded or established by the Contributions of Shareholders in the Nature of a Joint Stock Company.

Who is a Member.

XXXI. For the Purposes of this Act, a Member of an Institution shall be a Person who, having been admitted therein according to the Rules and Regulations thereof, shall have paid a Subscription, or shall have signed the Roll or List of Members thereof; but in all Proceedings under this Act no Person shall be entitled to vote or be counted as a Member whose current Subscription shall be in arrear at the Time.

The governing Body defined.

XXXII. The governing Body of the Institution shall be the Council, Directors, Committee, or other Body to whom, by Act of Parliament, Charter, or the Rules and Regulations of the Institution, the Management of its Affairs is entrusted; and if no such Body shall have been constituted on the Establishment of the Institution, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due Notice, to create for itself a governing Body to act for the Institution thenceforth.

To what Institutions the Act shall apply.

XXXIII. The Act shall apply to every Institution for the Time being established for the Promotion of Science, Literature, the Fine Arts, for Adult Instruction, the Diffusion of useful Knowledge, the Foundation or Maintenance of Libraries or Reading Rooms for general Use among the Members or open to the Public, of Public Museums and Galleries of Paintings and other Works of Art, Collections of Natural History, Mechanical and Philosophical Inventions, Instruments, or Designs; provided, that the Royal Royal Institution, and the London Institution for the Advancement of Literature and the Diffusion of useful Knowledge, shall be exempt from the Operation of this Act.

XXXIV. The Term "Parish" shall signify herein any Place separately maintaining its own Poor. Parish defined.

XXXV. In all Deeds, Documents, Proceedings, Suits, and Prosecutions this Act may be cited and described by the Name of "The Literary and Scientific Institutions Act, 1854." Short Title of the Act.

CAP. CXIII.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Administration of the Estates of deceased Persons. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Law whereunder the Real and Personal Assets of deceased 'Persons are administered should be amended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. When any Person shall, after the Thirty-first of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, die seised of or entitled to any Estate or Interest in any Land or other Hereditaments which shall at the Time of his Death be charged with the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money by way of Mortgage, and such Person shall not, by his Will or Deed or other Document, have signified any contrary or other Intention, the Heir or Devisee to whom such Land or Hereditaments shall descend or be devised shall not be entitled to have the Mortgage Debt discharged or satisfied out of the Personal Estate or any other Real Estate of such Person, but the Land or Hereditaments so charged shall, as between the different Persons claiming through or under the deceased Person, be primarily liable to the Payment of all Mortgage Debts with which the same shall be charged, every Part thereof, according to its Value, bearing a proportionate Part of the Mortgage Debts charged on the whole thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect or diminish any Right of the Mortgagee on such Lands or Hereditaments to obtain full Payment or Satisfaction of his Mortgage Debt either out of the Personal Estate of the Person so dying as aforesaid or otherwise: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Rights of any Person claiming under or by virtue of any Will, Deed, or Document already made or to be made before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. Heir or Devisee of Real Estate not to claim Payment of Mortgage out of Personal Assets. Not to affect Rights claimed under any Will, &c. before 1st Jan. 1855.

II. This Act shall not extend to Scotland. Extent of Act.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to extend the Rights enjoyed by the Graduates of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge in respect to the Practice of Physic to the Graduates of the University of London. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS a Body Politic and Corporate, by the Name of the University of London, has been 'constituted by the Royal Charter of Her present Majesty, with Power after Examination to con-'fer the several Degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Doctor of Medicine: And whereas it is expedient 'that such and the same Privileges relating to the Practice of Physic as are enjoyed by Graduates in 'Medicine of either of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, by virtue of their Degrees, or under 'any Authority or Licence now conferred upon them by either of the said last-mentioned Universities, 'should be enjoyed by the Graduates in Medicine of the University of London:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. Every Bachelor of Medicine and Doctor of Medicine of the said University of London shall by virtue of his Degree, and without the Necessity of undergoing any further Examination, or of obtaining any further Authority or Licence, be forthwith entitled to practise Physic, as fully, effectually, and extensively in all respects as any Bachelor of Medicine or Doctor of Medicine of either of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge is entitled to practise by virtue of his Degree or under any Power, Licence, or Authority now conferred by either of the said last-mentioned Universities: Provided always, that the Privileges hereby conferred shall not be construed so as to extend to the Practice of Surgery, Pharmacy, or Midwifery. Graduates of the University of London may practise in same Manner as in Universities of Oxford and Cambridge.

II. 'And whereas it is apprehended that divers Graduates in Medicine of the said University of London 'are or may become exposed to divers Forfeitures, Pains, or Penalties by reason of their having practised 'Physic in all or some or one of its Branches, or of their having done Acts as or under the Description of 'Physicians, or Practitioners of Physic, in all or some or one of its Branches, without any other Qualification 'for so doing than their having studied for and obtained the Medical Degrees of the last-mentioned Uni-'versity, and in particular it is apprehended that under the Act passed in the Session of Parliament 'held in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, 'and the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, any Graduate of the University of London practising as a Physician, 'if not otherwise answering to the Definition of a Physician set forth in the Interpretation Clauses to 'such Acts, who may have signed any Certificates under those Acts or either of them, in which he shall Graduates in Medicine of the University of London indemnified for having acted without having obtained Authority from Universities of Oxford or Cambridge.

'have been described as a Physician, is liable to be indicted for a Misdemeanor:' Be it enacted, That all such Graduates in Medicine of the said University of London who have so practised Physic, or have so done any such Act, or signed any such Certificate as aforesaid, shall be indemnified, freed, and discharged from all such Forfeitures, Pains, Penalties, and Disabilities as they would or might have been exempt from had they taken their several Degrees at or obtained Authority or Licence to practise from either of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and that all such Acts and Certificates heretofore done or signed by any Graduate in Medicine of the said University of London shall be deemed to all Intents and Purposes as valid and effectual as if this Act had passed previously to the doing or signing such Acts and Certificates respectively.

Short Title.

III. This Act may be cited as "The University of London Medical Graduates Act, 1854."

CAP. CXV.

An Act to amend the Law relative to the Removal of Prisoners in Custody.

[11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS by the several Acts of Parliament made and passed for regulating Gaols and Houses of Correction in England, Wales, and Ireland, and for the better ordering of Prisoners, Provision is made for the Custody and Treatment of Debtors as One of the Classes of Prisoners to be confined therein: And whereas in some Counties Prisoners for Debt and for Contempt of Court are confined in separate Prisons not being Gaols within the Meaning of the said Acts for regulating Gaols and Houses of Correction and for better ordering of Prisons, and Doubts have arisen whether such Prisoners for Debt and Contempt of Court may be lawfully removed to and confined in such last-mentioned Gaols, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the Powers given by Law for the Removal of Prisoners in Custody should be enlarged and rendered more generally applicable:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

If Common Gaol be adapted for Reception of Debtors as a Class, they may be removed thereto.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, when the Common Gaol for any County in England, Wales, or Ireland shall be adapted for Debtors as a Class of Prisoners to be confined therein, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff of such County, or any other Person having Custody of Persons for Debt within any County, to remove to such Common Gaol all Prisoners in his Custody for Debt or Contempt of Court from any Prison in which they may be confined, and such Common Gaol shall be deemed the legal Place of Custody for such Debtors, and no such Removal shall be deemed or taken to be an Escape.

No such Removal to take place till after Certificate by Inspector of Prisons.

II. Provided always, That no such Removal shall take place until One of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Prisons, acting for the County in which such Common Gaol is situate, on the Application of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for such County in Quarter Sessions assembled, shall have signed and transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace for the said County a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect in the Schedule to this Act annexed, nor until One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State or the Chief Secretary for Ireland shall, by Warrant under his Hand, direct and authorize such Removal.

After such Removal Debtors may be sent to such Gaol.

III. From and after such Removal as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff of the County to send to and confine in such Common Gaol all future Prisoners for Debt or for Contempt of Court, which Common Gaol shall be deemed the legal Place for their Confinement, any Local Act or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where Governor of Common Gaol appointed by other Authority than Sheriff it shall be lawful for him to give Security.

IV. 'And whereas in some Counties in England and Wales the Keeper or Governor of the Common Gaol is by Usage or under some legal Authority appointed by the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, and in Ireland by Boards of Superintendence and not by the Sheriff:' Be it enacted, That in all Cases in which the Keeper of any Common Gaol (in which Debtors are or under this Act may be confined) shall be appointed by any Authority other than that of the Sheriff, it shall and may be lawful for the Keeper so appointed to give Security by Bond or otherwise to the Sheriff for the Time being for the safe keeping of all such Debtors as may be placed in his Custody, and such Bond or other Security may be made and given to such Sheriff for the Time being, and shall and may be prosecuted by such Sheriff in case of Default of such Keeper.

Sheriff not relieved from present Obligations.

V. Provided nevertheless, That, except as aforesaid, nothing herein contained shall tend to relieve the Sheriff of any County from the Duty of keeping the Common Gaol in the same Manner as is now by Law required from him.

Present Powers for disposing of unnecessary Prisons not disturbed.

VI. All the Powers and Provisions of the several Acts of Parliament in force authorizing the Disposal of unnecessary Prisons shall and may be exercised and applied for the Sale and Disposition of any Prison rendered unnecessary by this Act having been carried into effect in any County, in the same Manner as if such last-mentioned Prison were a Gaol or Prison within the Words or Meaning of the said several Acts of Parliament or any of them.

Allowances to Keepers of Gaols to be continued where superseded by this Act.

VII. 'Whereas by the Act Fifty-five George the Third, Chapter Fifty, Section Two, the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions are authorized to make Allowances to certain Gaolers by way of Compensation for Fees abolished by that Act: And whereas by the Act Seventh and Eighth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-six, Section Seventy, it is enacted that every Keeper or other Officer of any Debtors

'Prison

'Prison whose Emoluments should be diminished by that Act might make Claim for Compensation, and 'the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were thereby authorized to award a gross or yearly 'Sum in respect thereof:' Be it enacted, That the Justices of the Peace assembled in Quarter Sessions may order and direct that the Allowance (or such Part thereof as they may think fit) hitherto made to the Keeper of any Gaol which may become unnecessary by virtue of the Provisions of this Act may be continued for and during the Life of such Keeper, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may continue the Allowance (or such Part thereof as they may think fit) hitherto made to the Keeper of any such Gaol for and during the Life of such Keeper.

SCHEDULE.

Form of Certificate.

I hereby certify, that I have inspected
The new Common Gaol
or
The Alterations and Additions made to the Common Gaol
} of the County of

and particularly that Portion of the Building which it is proposed to appropriate for the Custody of Debtors; and I further certify, that the same is in a fit and proper State for the Reception of such Prisoners as are or may be confined in Prison for Debt or Contempt of Court within the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff of the said County.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act to continue and amend an Act to facilitate the Management and Improvement of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter One 'hundred and four, was limited to Three Years from the End of the then Session of Parliament, 'and it is expedient to continue and amend the same Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The said Act, as amended by this Act, shall continue in force for Two Years from the End of the present Session of Parliament.

On Sale or Exchange of Part of Lands, &c. comprised in any Lease, Rent may be apportioned.

II. The Powers and Provisions contained in the Second Section of the said Act shall extend to all Cases in which, on the Sale, Exchange, or Enfranchisement, under the Authority of the said Act or of this Act, of a Part only of any Lands or other Hereditaments comprised in any Lease or Copy of Court Roll, the Church Estates Commissioners may deem it expedient to apportion the Rent reserved by or payable under the Lease or Grant to the Ecclesiastical Corporation by whom such Lease or Grant may have been made.

Trustees of Will or Settlement may raise Money for Enfranchisement.

III. In any Case in which the legal Estate and Interest under any Lease or Grant made by any such Ecclesiastical Corporation may be vested in any Person or Persons in trust for any other Person or Persons, according to the Limitations of any Will or Settlement, where such Will or Settlement contains a Direction or Power to such Trustees to raise Money for the Purpose of procuring a Renewal of such Lease or Grant, it shall be lawful for the same Trustees to raise Money for the Purpose of purchasing the Reversion of or otherwise enfranchising the Property comprised in such Lease or Grant, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions, mutatis mutandis, so far as the same may be applicable to the Case, as may be specified in such Will or Settlement with reference to the raising of Money for the Purpose of renewing such Lease or Grant.

Arbitrators may be named.

IV. In every Case where a Treaty shall have been entered into, under the Provisions of this Act or of the said recited Act, for the Sale, Purchase, or Exchange of any Episcopal or Capitular Estate in England, or of any Interest in such Estate, it shall be lawful, by the Consent of both Parties to such Treaty, and with the Approbation of the Church Estates Commissioners, to refer to Arbitration the Finding of the annual Value of such Estate, and of the Value of the Fee Simple thereof, or either of such Values, subject to the Exceptions and Reservations, if any, to be excepted and reserved thereout, and that such Finding shall be adopted in computing the Terms of such Sale, Purchase, or Exchange, regard being had, in the final Settlement of such Terms in every such Case, to the just and reasonable Claims of the present Holders of Land under Lease or otherwise, arising from the long-continued Practice of Renewal, and that in every such Case One Arbitrator shall be appointed by the Church Estates Commissioners, and One by the Lessee or intending Purchaser, and the Two Arbitrators so appointed shall, before they proceed in the Matter referred to them, appoint an Umpire or Third Arbitrator, and the Proceedings upon such Arbitration shall be conducted in like Manner, and subject to the same Rules and Enactments, as upon a Reference made by Consent upon a Rule of Court or Judge's Order: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the same Parties to appoint One and the same Person to act as sole sole Arbitrator; and in such Case the Valuations, Acts, and Award of such Arbitrator shall have the same Effect as Valuations, Acts, and Award of the Arbitrators and Umpire under the Provisions herein contained; and in every Case the Costs of such Arbitration and Award shall be in the Discretion of the said Arbitrators or Umpire, as the Case may be.

How Copyholder's Right of Renewal to be ascertained.

V. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in or to be implied from the said recited Act, or in the "Copyhold Act, 1852," or in an Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to explain and amend the Copyhold Acts, whenever a Right of Renewal of any Lands held for a Life or Lives or for Years by Copy of Court Roll from or under any Ecclesiastical Corporation shall be disputed by such Ecclesiastical Corporation or by the Church Estates Commissioners, or whenever the Person or Persons claiming to be interested in any such Lands shall be desirous of having the Right of Renewal decided by a competent Tribunal, then and in either of the said Cases it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to cause an Action to be brought in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law at Westminster, in which Action such Person or Persons shall be the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and the Church Estates Commissioners, together with the Ecclesiastical Corporation from or under whom such Copyhold or Customary Lands shall be held, shall be the Defendants, and in which Action the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall deliver a feigned Issue whereby such disputed Right may be tried, and shall proceed to a Trial at Law of such Issue at the Sittings after the Term or at the Assizes then next or next but one after such Action shall have been commenced, to be holden for the County within which the Lands, or the greater Part thereof, are situated, with Liberty, nevertheless, for the Court in which the same shall have been commenced, or any Judge of any One of Her Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, to extend the Time for going to Trial therein, or to direct the Trial to be in another County, if it shall seem fit to such Court or Judge so to do, and the Defendants in any such Action shall enter an Appearance thereto, and accept such Issue; but in case the Parties shall differ as to the Form of such Issue, or in case the Defendants shall fail to enter such Appearance or accept such Issue, then the same shall be settled under the Direction of the Court in which the Action shall be brought, or by any Judge of One of Her Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs may proceed thereon in like Manner as if the Defendants had appeared and accepted such Issue; and the Parties in such Action shall produce to each other, their respective Attornies or Counsel, at such Time as any Judge may order, before Trial, and also to the Court and Jury, upon the Trial of any such Issue, all Books, Deeds, Court Rolls, Papers, and Writings, Terriers, Maps, Plans, and Surveys, relating to the Matters in issue, in their respective Custody or Power; and it shall be lawful for the Judge by whom any such Action shall be tried, if he shall think fit, to direct the Jury to find a Verdict, subject to the Opinion of the Court upon a Special Case; and the Verdict which shall be given in any such Action, or the Judgment of the Court upon the Case subject to which the same may be given, shall be final and binding upon all Parties thereto, unless the Court wherein such Action shall be brought shall set aside such Verdict, and order a new Trial to be had therein, which it shall be lawful for the said Court to do if it shall see fit: Provided always, that after such Verdict given, and not set aside by the Court, or after such Decision of the Court, the said Ecclesiastical Corporation and the Church Estates Commissioners shall be bound by such Verdict or Decision; and the Costs of every Action, and of obtaining a Decision thereon, shall be in the Discretion of the Court in or by which the same shall be decided, which may order the same to be taxed by the proper Officer of the Court, and the like Execution may be had for the same as if such Costs had been recovered upon a Judgment of Record of the said Court: Provided also, that in every Case in which the Costs or any Part of the Costs of or incident to any Action to be brought under the Provisions of this Act shall become payable by the Defendant in such Action, it shall be lawful for the Church Estates Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to pay such Costs out of any surplus Monies coming or which have come or may come to their Hands in respect of the Estates of such Corporation, under the Provisions of the said recited Act or this Act.

Provision relating to Apportionment of Proceeds of Sales.

VI. The Provisions contained in the Sixth Section of the said Act, relative to the Investment and Application of the Monies which are to be paid into the Bank of England as thereby directed, shall be subject to the following Provisions; that is to say, the Provisions contained in the Eighth Section of the said Act which direct the Church Estates Commissioners to require certain Payments to be made to them by or on behalf of Persons being Ecclesiastical Corporations Sole or Members of the Ecclesiastical Corporation Aggregate shall be extended so as to authorize and require the same Commissioners to apportion every Sum of Money paid or to be paid into the Bank of England under the Provisions of the said Act or of this Act so as to set apart for the permanent Endowment of such Corporation Sole or Aggregate a Share of such Sum of Money sufficient to secure to such Corporation a permanent net Income equal to that which, if the said Act or this Act had not been passed, would have been received by such Corporation from the Property by the Enfranchisement whereof such Money was produced; and the Church Estates Commissioners shall pay over the Remainder of such Sum of Money to the Common Fund of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

Like Provision in respect of Purchases and Exchanges.

VII. The foregoing Provisions relative to the Apportionment of Monies between the Church Estates Commissioners and Ecclesiastical Corporations, and to the Application thereof, shall be construed to relate to all Lands and other Hereditaments, and to every Estate or Interest therein, which may have been or which may be acquired by any Ecclesiastical Corporation by Purchase or Exchange under the Provisions of of the said recited Act, so as to authorize the last-mentioned Commissioners to require the Payment to them by the Ecclesiastical Corporation primarily interested in such Lands or Hereditaments of a Sum of Money equivalent to the surplus Share thereof.

Provisions respecting local Claim on Tithes.

VIII. The Proviso contained in the First Section of the said recited Act, with reference to the Sale or Exchange of Tithes or Tithe Rentcharges, or Land or Hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of Tithes, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and all the Monies so paid or to be paid over to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under the foregoing Provision, which may have been produced by the Sale, Purchase, or Exchange of Tithes or Tithe Rentcharges, or Land or Hereditaments assigned or allotted in lieu of Tithes, which formed Part of the Endowment of any Ecclesiastical Corporation prior to the passing of the said Act, shall be subject to the Provisions relating to local Claims which are contained in the Sixty-seventh Section of the Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and thirteen; and in every Case in which any Money shall as aforesaid be paid over to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in respect of Surplus, the last-mentioned Commissioners shall, in the Annual Report to be next thereafter made by them to the Secretary of State, specify the Period at which, at the Time of the Settlement of the Terms of the Sale, Purchase, or Exchange in respect of which such Payment was made, it was estimated that any and every then subsisting Lease or Grant of the Tithes or Land thereby dealt with would have expired.

Reference to Arbitration to determine Value of Lands vested or to be vested in Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

IX. In all Dealings between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England as to Lands now vested or which shall hereafter become vested in them and the Holders of such Lands, it shall be lawful for the Parties to refer to Arbitration the Finding of the annual Value and of the Value of the Fee Simple thereof, subject to the Exceptions and Reservations, if any, to be excepted and reserved thereout, and such Finding shall be adopted in computing the Terms of the Sale, Purchase, or Exchange of such Lands or of any Interest therein, regard being had in the final Settlement of such Terms in every such Case to the just and reasonable Claims of such Holders of Land under Lease or otherwise arising from the long-continued Practice of Renewal, and the said last-mentioned Parties shall for the Purpose of such Arbitration be subject to the Provisions herein-before contained as to the Appointment of Arbitrators and the Payment of Costs.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners to state like Particulars as Church Estates Commissioners.

X. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England shall with reference to their Dealings with Lands vested in them state in their Reports the like Particulars which the Church Estates Commissioners are by the said recited Act required to state in their Reports with reference to Lands dealt with by them under the same Act.

Basis of Report of 1850 may be taken.

XI. In computing the due Regard to be paid to the just and reasonable Claims of the present Holders of Lands under Lease or otherwise arising from the long-continued Practice of Renewal, the Basis of Compensation may, at the Discretion and with the Approval of the Church Estates Commissioners, be that laid down by the Episcopal and Capitular Revenues Commissioners in their Report of One thousand eight hundred and fifty, or according to the Recommendations laid down in the Lords Report on the same Subject in One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

How Computations on the Duration of Lives are to be calculated.

XII. In all Computations in any way dependent on the Duration of Lives, the Expectation of Life shall not be calculated according to the Tables commonly known as the Northampton Tables, nor upon Tables less favourable to the Expectation of Life than the Life Tables which are appended to the Twelfth Annual Report of the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, nor than any Tables which may be from Time to Time issued by the same Authority.

Interpretation.

XIII. The Provisions contained in the Eleventh Section of the said Act with reference to the Interpretation of the Words and Expressions therein specified shall apply to the same Words and Expressions whenever they occur in this Act, and the said Act and this Act shall be read and construed together as One Act.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act to facilitate the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in the West Indies.

[11th August 1854.]

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being to appoint any Number of Persons, not exceeding Three, to be Commissioners under this Act during Her Majesty's Pleasure, and upon every Vacancy in the Office of any such Commissioner in like Manner to appoint some other Person to such Office; and the said Persons so to be from Time to Time appointed shall be Commissioners for the execution of this Act, and shall be styled "The Commissioners for Sale of Incumbered Estates in the West Indies."

Three Commissioners to be appointed under Sign Manual.

Style of Commissioners.

V. Of the above Commissioners One shall be styled "The Chief Commissioners," and the other or others shall be styled "The Assistant Commissioner or Commissioners."

Residence of Commissioners.

VI. The Chief Commissioner shall be a Barrister-at-Law of not less than Ten Years standing, and shall reside in England; the Assistant Commissioners shall from Time to Time be employed in the Execution of this Act in such Manner as the Chief Commissioner may direct.

Power to appoint Local Commissioners.

VII. For the Purpose of aiding in the Execution of this Act, the Governor or other Person administering the Government of any Colony may appoint to be Local Commissioners for such Colony during Pleasure any Number, not exceeding Three, of the following Persons; that is to say,

Any Vice-Chancellor, Chief Justice, Judge, Attorney General, Solicitor General, or other Legal or Public Officer holding any Office in the Colony in which such Appointment is made; or Any other Person usually resident in such Colony.

Commissioners to have a Common Seal.

VIII. The Commissioners shall cause to be made for their Commission such Seal or Seals as they may require, and shall cause to be sealed with One of such Seals, all Orders, Conveyances, and other Instruments, proceeding from the Commissioners in pursuance of this Act; and all such Orders, Conveyances, and other Instruments, or Copies thereof, purporting to be sealed with such Seal of the Commissioners, shall be received in Evidence, without any further Proof.

Power to appoint, &c. Secretary, &c.

IX. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time appoint and remove a Chief Secretary, and also such Assistant Secretaries, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers as they may deem necessary for the Purposes of this Act.

Duration of Office and Powers of Commissioners.

X. The Offices of the Commissioners, and all Powers, Rights, and Privileges pertaining thereto, shall continue and be in force only for a Period of Six Years next ensuing the Date at which this Act takes effect, and from thenceforth until the next Session of Parliament.

Commissioners not to sit in Parliament.

XI. No Commissioner shall during his Continuance in Office be capable of being elected or of sitting as a Member of the House of Commons.

Salaries of Commissioners, &c., and out of what Funds paid.

XII. There shall be paid out of Monies to be provided by Parliament,

To the Chief Commissioner, Two Assistant Commissioners, Chief Secretary, and to all such Assistant Secretaries, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers as may be appointed by the Chief Commissioner in England, such Salaries as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time recommend; so that the same do not exceed in the following Cases the Sums herein-after mentioned; that is to say,

In the Case of the Chief Commissioner, the Sum of Two thousand Pounds by the Year:

In the Case of each Assistant Commissioner, the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds by the Year:

The Salaries of the Local Commissioners, and of all such Assistant Secretaries, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers as may be appointed under this Act in any Colony, shall be paid out of Monies to be provided by the Colonies as herein-after mentioned.

Power of Commissioners to fix Scale of Fees.

XIII. The Commissioners may fix such Scale of Fees to be paid in respect of Proceedings under this Act, both in England and the Colonies, as they think fit, but all Fees to be paid in any Colony shall be subject to Disallowance or Alteration by the Legislature of such Colony.

XIV. All

XIV. All Expenses incidental to carrying this Act into execution, and not being such Salaries as aforesaid, or defrayed by Fees, shall be paid for if incurred in England, out of Monies to be provided for that Purpose by Parliament, and if incurred in any Colony, by Monies to be provided for that Purpose by the Legislature of such Colony in manner herein-after mentioned. Expenses of Act, how provided for.

XV. Every Commissioner and Local Commissioner appointed under this Act shall, before he enters upon the Execution of his Office, take the following Oath; that is to say, Oath of Commissioners.

'I A.B. do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, fulfil all the Powers and Duties of a Commissioner under an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act].'

And such Oath shall, in the Case of the Chief Commissioner and Assistant Commissioners, be taken before One of the Judges of Her Majesty's Superior Courts in England, and in the Case of any Local Commissioner be taken before the Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony for which he is appointed Commissioner.

XVI. The Appointment of every Commissioner and Local Commissioner shall be published as follows; that is to say, Publication of Appointment of Commissioners.

The Appointment of the Chief Commissioner and Assistant Commissioners, in the London Gazette:

The Appointment of any Local Commissioner, in the Newspaper of the Colony in which Government Notices are usually published:

And no Commissioner or Local Commissioner shall act until Publication as aforesaid has been made of his Appointment.

XVII. The Commissioners shall constitute One Court of Record, having, for the Purposes of this Act, and subject to the Provisions thereof, Jurisdiction throughout England and any Colony or Colonies within which this Act comes into operation; and all Proceedings, Inquiries, Suits, or Trials to be taken, made, or had under this Act, and all Investigations of any Matters or Things arising out of or incidental to any such Proceedings, Inquiries, Suits, or Trials, may, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, be at any Stage or at any Time transferred from England to any Colony, or from any Colony to England. Commissioners to be a Court of Record.

XVIII. All Acts, Matters, and Things which the Commissioners are by this Act empowered to do, and all the Powers and Authorities hereby given to them, may, under any Order of the Commissioners made for that Purpose, be done or exercised by the Person or Persons herein-after mentioned; that is to say, Powers of Commissioners, by whom to be exercised.

In England, by the Chief Commissioner, either alone or with One Assistant Commissioner:

In any Colony, by any Assistant Commissioner, either alone or jointly with the Local Commissioners of such Colony, or any One of them, or by the Local Commissioners or Commissioner of such Colony, or any Two of them, if more than Two.

XIX. The Commissioners shall frame, and cause to be printed and circulated or otherwise promulgated, as they see Occasion, Forms of Application and Directions indicating the Particulars of the Information to be furnished to the Commissioners when any Application is made to them under this Act, with reference to Title, Incumbrances, and the Circumstances of Land, and such other Information as in the Judgment of the Commissioners may assist them in forming an Opinion on such Application, and also such other Forms and Directions as the Commissioners may deem requisite or expedient for facilitating Proceedings under this Act. Commissioners to frame and promulgate Forms of Application, &c.

XX. The Commissioners shall, having regard to the Laws and Usages of each Colony in which the same are intended to take effect, frame Rules for the following Purposes; that is to say, Commissioners to make General Rules for regulating Proceedings under this Act.

For regulating the Course of Procedure under this Act; the several Powers and Duties of the Assistant and Local Commissioners; the Conduct of Proceedings in England and the Colonies; and the Transfer thereof from England to the Colonies, and from the Colonies to England:

For securing the prompt and due Distribution and Payment of the Monies received upon Sales under this Act amongst or for the Benefit of the Persons entitled thereto:

For the Protection, in respect of such Monies, of the Interests of Persons under Disability, and of future Interests:

For the Protection of the Interests of absent Parties, and of the Interest of Parties in Cases where the Proceedings are transferred from England to the Colonies, or vice versâ:

Generally for the due Execution of the Powers vested in the Commissioners under this Act, and for giving effect to the Provisions and Objects thereof:

And all Rules so made shall, unless disallowed in manner herein-after mentioned, have the same Force as if they had been enacted by Parliament.

XXI. All Rules made under the above Authority shall be laid before Her Majesty in Council, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to disallow the same, and any Rule so disallowed shall from the Date of its Disallowance be void, but all Matters and Things previously done in pursuance thereof shall have the same Validity as if no such Disallowance had taken place. Rules to be laid before Privy Council.

Constitution and Powers of Commissioners.

Power to Commissioners to summon Witnesses, &c.

XXII. The Commissioners shall have Power—

1. To require by Summons under their Seal the Attendance before them, at a Time and Place to be mentioned in such Summons, of all such Persons as they may think fit to examine in relation to any Question or Matter depending before them:
2. To require by a like Summons all such Persons to produce before them all Deeds, Books, Papers, Documents, and Writings relating to such Question or Matter:
3. To examine upon Oath, or in the Case of Persons allowed to make Affirmation or Declaration in lieu of an Oath, upon Affirmation or Declaration, (as the Case may require,) all Persons attending under such Summons, and all Persons attending voluntarily as Witnesses.

Power to Commissioners to proceed upon Affidavits, and to appoint Persons to take Affidavits and Examinations.

XXIII. The Commissioners may, in their Discretion, receive in Evidence Affidavits; and such Affidavits may be made in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions before any Person empowered by Law to take Affidavits, and in any other Part of the World before any Person authorized by Order under the Seal of the Commissioners to take Affidavits; and the Commissioners may by a like Order under their Seal authorize any Person in any Part of the World to examine, in such Manner as they think fit, any Witness or Witnesses in relation to any Application to or Matter pending before the Commissioners, and to administer Oaths, Affirmations, or Declarations for the Purpose of such Examination.

Power of Commissioners to direct Trials and Issues of Fact.

XXIV. The Commissioners in relation to any Matter or Question before them shall have Power—

To send Cases for the Opinion of any Court of Law or Equity sitting in England or in any Colony within their Jurisdiction:

To send Questions of Fact to be tried, in England by a Jury, or in any such Colony as aforesaid either by a Jury or in any other Manner in which Questions of Fact are usually tried in such Colony.

Power of Commissioners to enforce Orders.

XXV. In all Cases within their Jurisdiction the Commissioners shall, with respect to the following Matters, that is to say,

The enforcing the Attendance of Persons summoned to give Evidence,

The enforcing the Production of Deeds, Books, Papers, Documents, and Writings,

The punishing Persons refusing to give Evidence, or guilty of a Contempt,

The enforcing any Order whatever made by them under any of the Powers or Authorities of this Act,

Have in England all such Powers, Rights, and Privileges as are possessed by the High Court of Chancery for such or the like Purposes in relation to any Matter depending in such Court, and have in any Colony within their Jurisdiction all such Powers, Rights, and Privileges as are possessed by the Supreme Court of Judicature in such Colony for such or the like Purposes in relation to any Matter or Thing depending in such Court; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners in any such Colony as aforesaid, either to carry into effect such Powers, Rights, and Privileges by Officers appointed by themselves, or to request any such Court of Judicature as aforesaid, or any Officer thereof, to enforce any Orders made by them, and such Court or Officer shall thereupon enforce the same accordingly.

Sales by Commissioners, &c.

Sales by Commissioners, and Distribution of Purchase Monies.

Power of Commissioners to sell Land in Colonies, &c.

XXVI. Subject to the Restrictions herein-after mentioned, where any Land situate in a Colony within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners is subject to any Incumbrance, the Commissioners shall have Power to sell the same, or such Part thereof as they think fit, upon Application made to them in manner herein-after mentioned by the Owner of such Land or any Incumbrancer thereon.

Applications, when to be entertained.

XXVII. Where an Application for a Sale of any such Land as aforesaid has been made to any competent Tribunal in the Colony, and dismissed with Costs, no Application by the same Party for a Sale of the same Land or any Part thereof shall be entertained by the Commissioners unless it is shown that such Costs have been paid.

Application to be made by legal or beneficial Owners. When Incumbrance subject to Limitations, the First Person entitled, &c. to make Application.

XXVIII. Where any such Land as aforesaid is vested in any Person or Persons in trust for any Owner, an Application for the Sale thereof may be made by such Owner, either with or without the Concurrence of such Trustee or Trustees, or by such Trustee or Trustees with the Concurrence of such Owner.

XXIX. Where any Incumbrance is vested in a Trustee or Trustees, or settled on divers Persons in succession, the Commissioners may act on an Application made by such Trustee or Trustees, or by the First Person entitled to the Income of such Incumbrance, or by any other Person having, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, an Amount of Interest in the Incumbrance sufficient to justify his making an Application for a Sale.

Form of Application, and to whom to be made.

XXX. Every Application for a Sale of Land under this Act shall be in such Form as the Commissioners direct, and may, subject to any Rules, to be framed by the Commissioners, be made, at the Discretion of the Applicant, either to the Commissioners acting in England or in the Colony in which such Land is situate.

Duty of Commissioners on Application for Sale.

XXXI. The Commissioners shall, upon the Receipt of such Application as aforesaid, make such Inquiries as to the Circumstances of the Land in respect of which the same is made, and of the Parties interested therein, either as Incumbrancers, Owners, or otherwise, and direct such Notices to be given as they think necessary, to enable them to form a Judgment as to the Expediency of a Sale, and shall hear by themselves, their Counsel or Agents, any Persons interested in such Land who may apply to them to be heard, and shall, upon the Conclusion of such Inquiries, and after hearing such Parties, if any, as aforesaid, aforesaid, make such Order in the Premises as to the Allowance or Disallowance of a Sale of such Land as they think just.

Restrictions on Sale.

XXXII. No Sale shall be made by the Commissioners of any Land in the Cases following:

Where the Amount of yearly Interest on the Incumbrances attaching to the Land in respect of which any Application is made, and to any other Land subject to the same Incumbrances, does not exceed One Half of the net yearly Value of such Land, and other Land, if any, such yearly Value to be calculated on the average Profits or Income derived therefrom after deducting all necessary Outgoings during the preceding Seven Years, or during such other Period as the Commissioners may, having regard to any special Circumstances, think fit:

Where, for any Reason whatever, it appears to the Commissioners unjust or inexpedient that a Sale should be made.

Regard to be had to yearly Tenancies and other temporary Interests.

XXXIII. In making any Sale of Land under this Act, the Commissioners shall have regard to the Interests of any yearly Tenants or other Persons, not being Incumbrancers, who may be entitled for the Time being, by themselves or their Agents, to receive or retain the Produce of such Land or of any Part thereof, and they may, in their Discretion, deal with such Interests in such One of the Two following Ways as they think just; that is to say, they may either make the Sale subject to such Interests, or may cause such Interests to be valued at a gross Amount, and treat the Amount so valued as an Incumbrance, assigning thereto such Priority as they think fit.

Power to sell, subject to annual Sums, and also to Incumbrances, in certain Cases.

XXXIV. In Cases where any Land to be sold is subject—

To Dower or any Interests in the Nature of Dower,

To any annual or contingent Incumbrance,

To any Incumbrance under the Terms of which the Incumbrancer cannot be required to accept Payment of the Principal Money for a Term of Years yet to come,

The Commissioners shall deal with such Interests in One of the Two following Ways; that is to say, they shall either make the Sale subject to such Dower, Interests, or Incumbrances, or they may, with the Consent of the Parties entitled to such Dower, Interest, or Incumbrances, cause the same to be valued at a gross Amount, assigning thereto such Priority as they think just.

Sale by Commissioners.

XXXV. Every Sale of Land in pursuance of this Act shall be made, under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners, by Public Sale or Private Contract, together or in Parcels, at such Time and Place and generally in such Manner as the Commissioners think fit; and every Conveyance of Land so sold shall be made by the Commissioners under their Seal, and shall be signed by the Chief Commissioner, or such other Commissioner or Commissioners as the Chief Commissioner may direct, and the Execution by any other Party of such Conveyance shall be unnecessary; and such Conveyance shall express the Interests and Incumbrances (if any) subject to which the Sale is made, and may be in such Form as the Commissioners may by Order from Time to Time direct, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit.

Saving of certain Rights.

XXXVI. No Sale made by the Commissioners shall affect any of the following Rights or Payments;

Any Right of Common, Right of Way, or other Easement;

Any Tithes or like Ecclesiastical Dues;

Any Crown Rents or other like Sums payable at fixed Periods to Her Majesty or to the Government of the Colony;

Except in Cases where the Commissioners undertake to commute such Crown Rents or other like Sums as aforesaid, which they shall be at liberty to do, with the Sanction of the Legislature of such Colony, in Cases where they think it will be for the Benefit of the Parties interested in the Produce of such Sale, and if they do so they shall express in the Conveyance that the Land sold is discharged from such Crown Rents or other Sums, as the Case may be.

Payment of Purchase Money.

XXXVII. The Purchase Money on every Sale shall be paid, as the Commissioners may direct, either into the Bank of England, or into the Commissariat Chest of some Colony named by them, and be carried to an Account to be opened in the Name of the Commissioners to the Credit in each Case of the Land (describing the same by the Name of the Plantation or Estate to which it belongs, or by any other Name the Commissioners think fit); and upon Proof being made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, and in such Manner as they may direct, of any Monies so having been paid in, the Chief Commissioner, or such other Commissioner or Commissioners as the Chief Commissioner directs, shall endorse a Certificate on the Conveyance of such Payment; and any Purchaser who has paid any Money into the Bank or into such Commissariat Chest as aforesaid shall be discharged from all Liability in respect of the Application thereof, and such Endorsement shall be Evidence of such Payment; and in all Cases Her Majesty's Government shall guarantee the Safety of all Monies paid in pursuance of this Act into the Commissariat Chest of any Colony.

Effect of Conveyance.

XXXVIII. Every Conveyance made by the Commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall vest in the Purchaser the Land so sold, subject to such Rights and uncommuted Payments, if any, as are herein-before declared not to be affected by any Sale by the Commissioners, but discharged from all other Interests, Rights, Claims, and Incumbrances, except such as may, in pursuance of the Power herein-before given be expressed in the Conveyance to be subsisting on such Land, and no Conveyance made by the Commissioners shall be set aside on the Ground of their not having had Jurisdiction over the Subject Matter thereof.

Commissioners may order Delivery of Counterparts of Deeds, &c. to Purchaser.

XXXIX. The Commissioners shall have Power to order the Delivery to the Purchaser, or as he directs, of all Deeds and Documents of Title belonging or exclusively relating to the Land sold, which are in the Possession or Power of any of the Parties to their Order, and, on the Application of any Purchaser, to issue an Order for the Delivery to him of the Possession of the Land sold, or of such Part thereof as may not be in the Occupation of any Person subject to whose Interest the Sale was made.

Where an Incumbrancer purchases, Commissioners may authorize Payment into the Bank of Balance of Purchase Money, after retaining Amount of Incumbrance.

XL. Upon a Sale of Land under this Act an Incumbrancer or other interested Person (with the Exception of the Person upon whose Application the Sale was made), and with the Leave of the Commissioners such last-mentioned Person, may purchase such Land or any Part thereof; and if an Incumbrancer becomes a Purchaser he may, if the Commissioners think fit, retain out of the Purchase Money such Amount as would, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, be eventually payable thereout to him in respect of his Incumbrance, or any less Sum on account of such Amount, and pay the Residue only into the Bank or Commissariat Chest; and such Retainer shall be without Prejudice to the Power of the Commissioners to require such Purchaser to pay back into the Bank or Commissariat Chest the whole or any Part of the Amount so retained by him, in the event of their afterwards determining that he is not entitled to retain the same.

Application of Purchase Money.

XLI. The Commissioners shall apply the Money arising from any Sale made by them in satisfaction of the Payments herein-after mentioned according to the Order following; that is to say,

Firstly, in paying to Her Majesty or the Government of the Colony the Consideration for the Purchase of such Crown Rents or other like Sums, if any, as the Commissioners may have thought fit to commute in manner aforesaid:

Secondly, in paying all Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incidental to the Sale, including the Application for the same, or such of them as they think fit to allow:

Thirdly, in satisfying the Incumbrances affecting such Land according to their Priorities:

And lastly, in paying the Surplus to the Parties who were previously to the Sale entitled to such Land as Owners if such Parties had an absolute Interest therein, but if had not an absolute Interest, then the Commissioners shall lay out the same in manner herein-after mentioned:

And for the Purposes of this Act the Commissioner shall have Power, having due regard to the Laws and Customs of each Colony, to declare the Rights and Priorities of all Parties interested in such Land, whether as Owners, Incumbrancers, or otherwise howsoever.

Application of Money where Owner not absolutely entitled.

XLII. In Cases where the Parties who were previously to the Sale entitled to such Land as Owners had not an absolute Interest, such Surplus as aforesaid of the Purchase Money shall be settled to the same Uses, upon the same Trusts, and in the same Manner to and in which the Land sold stood settled, or such of them as may be capable of taking effect; and until such Money is so laid out it may be paid to Trustees to be appointed or approved by the Commissioners, for the Purpose of being so laid out as aforesaid, with such Power for the Investment thereof in Government or Colonial Stocks, Funds, or Securities in the meantime, and such Directions for the Payment of the Income of such Investment in the Manner in which the Rents of the Land to be purchased would be applicable, as the Commissioners think fit.

Appointment of new Trustees.

XLIII. In Cases where the Commissioners appoint or direct the Appointment of Trustees for any of the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to make or to direct to be made such Provision as they think fit for the Appointment of new Trustees, on any Event to be determined by the Commissioners.

Provision where a Part only of Land subject to an Incumbrance is sold.

XLIV. In Cases where a Part only of Land subject to any Incumbrance is sold, the Commissioners may charge the Part not sold with such Incumbrance, or an apportioned Part thereof, in exoneration of the Money arising from the Sale, and enable Persons to release the Money arising from the Part so sold from any Incumbrance, or to relinquish their Claim on such Money in respect thereof, without impairing such Incumbrance as to the remaining Part of the Land originally charged.

Provision for setting aside Monies to meet Incumbrances.

XLV. In Cases where it appears to the Commissioners unjust or inexpedient that a Valuation should be made of such Interests and Incumbrances as they are herein-before authorized to cause to be valued at a gross Sum, it shall be lawful for them to set aside and invest any Portion of the Money arising from any Sale in such Manner as they think fit to meet the Claims of any such interested Persons or Incumbrancers, and generally the Commissioners shall have Power to make all such Orders and give such Directions with respect to the Application of the Money arising from any Sale as they think best adapted to secure the just and convenient Distribution thereof amongst all interested Parties, according to their several Rights and Titles.

No Payment, not being in full, to affect Right of Incumbrancer for Balancee, &.

XLVI. No Payment under this Act towards the Discharge of any Incumbrance, not being a Payment in full, shall prejudice or affect any Right or Remedy of the Incumbrancer in respect of the Balance, otherwise than as against the Land sold; and no Payment under this Act in respect of any Incumbrance shall impair any Right or Equity of any Persons out of whose Land such Payment is made to be reimbursed or indemnified by any other Person or out of any other Land, except so far as the Commissioners order under any special Circumstances.

Purchase Money may be invested.

XLVII. The Commissioners may order any Purchase Money standing to their Account to be invested in their Name in such Government or Colonial Stocks, Funds, and Securities as they think fit, with Power so vary the same into or for others of a like Nature; and until such Stocks, Funds, and Securities are

Sales by Commissioners, and Distribution of Purchase Monies.

are sold by Order of the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, the Dividends thereof shall from Time to Time be applied, under the Order of the Commissioners, in like Manner as the Rents of the Land from the Sale of which the Money invested in such Stocks, Funds, or Securities has arisen would have been applicable.

Power to Commissioners to order Money to be paid into Court of Chancery.

XLVIII. In Cases where any Money arising from a Sale under this Act is not immediately distributable, or the Parties entitled thereto cannot be ascertained, or where from any other Cause the Commissioners think it expedient for the Protection of the Rights and Interests therein, the Commissioners may order such Money, or any Stocks, Funds, or Securities in which the same may be invested, to be transferred to the Account of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery in England, in the Matter of the Parties interested in the same, to be described in such Manner as the Commissioners direct, in trust to attend the Orders of such Court, or to be transferred to the Account of such Officer in any Colony, and be subject to the Jurisdiction of such Court as the Commissioners direct; and the Commissioners may by their Order declare the Trusts affecting such Money, Stocks, Funds, or Securities, so far as they have ascertained the same, or state (for the Information of any such Court as aforesaid) the Facts or Matters found by them in relation to the Rights and Interests therein; and the said Court of Chancery and any such Colonial Court as aforesaid may make such Orders with respect to any such Monies, Stocks, Funds, or Securities as aforesaid, or the Application thereof, as the Circumstances of the Case require.

Lands included in different Applications and different Interests in the same Land may be included in the same Sale.

XLIX. The Commissioners shall have the following additional Powers in respect of Sales of Land; that is to say,

Where separate Applications are made for Sales under this Act of different undivided Shares of any Land,

A Power, with the Consent of the Applicants, and such other Consents as the Commissioners think fit to require, to include in One Sale all such undivided Shares;

Where separate Applications are made for Sales under this Act of different Lands, but such Lands are intermixed, or otherwise adapted to be sold together,

A Power, with such Consent or Consents as aforesaid, to include in One Sale such different Lands;

Where an Application is made to the Commissioners for the Sale of any undivided Share in Lands, and the Owner of any other undivided Share or Shares, whether incumbered or not, in the same Land, is desirous of having the same sold at the same Time,

A Power, with such Consent or Consents as aforesaid, to include in One Sale all such Shares as aforesaid:

And all the Provisions of this Act applicable to any Land subject to any Incumbrance, and ordered to be sold under this Act, and to the Purchase Money arising from the Sale thereof, and to the Conveyance thereof, shall, so far as Circumstances admit, be applicable to any Land or Share in Land to be so included in the Sale; and in every such Case as aforesaid the Commissioners shall apportion the Purchase Money and Expenses as they see fit.

Provision for Persons under Disability.

L. A married Woman for the Time being entitled to receive the Income of Land for her separate Use, or having a Power of disposing of Land, either during her Lifetime or by Will, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed a Feme Sole; but in other Cases, where any Person who (if not under Disability) might have made any Application, given any Consent, done any Act, or been Party to any Proceeding under this Act, is a Minor, Idiot, Lunatic, or married Woman, the Guardian, Curator, Tutor, Committee of the Estate, or Husband respectively of such Person, or if there is none any Person appointed by the Commissioners, may make such Applications, give such Consents, do such Acts, and be Party to such Proceedings as such Persons respectively, if free from Disability, might have made, given, done, or been Party to, and shall otherwise represent such Persons for the Purposes of this Act.

Proceedings not to abate by Death, &c.

LI. Proceedings under this Act shall not abate or be suspended by any Death, or Transmission or Change of Interest, but in any such Case of Death or Transmission or Change of Interest it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where they see fit, to require Notices to be given to Persons becoming interested, or to make any Order for discontinuing, suspending, or carrying on the Proceedings, or otherwise in relation thereto, which to them appears just.

Costs.

LII. In every Proceeding under this Act the Commissioners shall have full Discretion as to the giving or withholding Costs and Expenses, and as to the Persons by whom and the Funds out of which the same are in the first instance or ultimately to be paid and borne; but, unless the Commissioners otherwise direct, the Costs of the Petitioner in respect of any Petition for Sale presented under this Act, and of the Proceedings thereunder, shall not be payable out of the Proceeds of the Sale, otherwise than in the same Order of Priority in which the Incumbrance of the Petitioner is payable.

Sales under this Act may be made notwithstanding Proceedings in any other Court.

LIII. In Cases where a competent Court has in the course of any Proceedings made an Order directing any Land to be sold, the Commissioners may sell the same, without further Inquiry; but in that Event, and also in any Case where any competent Court has made an Order in any Proceedings with respect to any Land, or the Rights of any Person interested therein, the Commissioners shall, on selling such Land, and in distributing the Monies arising from such Sale, have regard to the Orders made by such Court, and to any Inquiries or Proof made and taken in the course of such Proceedings, with Power, nevertheless, for the Commissioners, whenever it appears to them that there is any Error in such Order,

Sales by Commissioners, and Distribution of Purchase Monies.

Order, or any Defect in any such Inquiries or Proofs, to direct such Person as they think fit to apply to the Court in relation thereto, and such Court may make such Order concerning the Matter of such Application as it thinks fit; and the Commissioners may, out of any Monies arising from any Sale under this Act, where there have been any such Proceedings as aforesaid, provide for the Costs of such Application, and may, if they think fit, order all or any Part of the Purchase Money, after Payment thereout of such Costs and Expenses as may be payable under the Orders of the Commissioners, to be paid into the Court in which any such Proceedings have been instituted.

After Order by Commissioners for Sale, Proceedings for a Sale under Decree to be stayed, &c.

LIV. Where the Commissioners order the Sale of any Land in respect of which any Decree for Sale has been already made by a competent Court, or any Proceedings are pending, they shall, by Certificate under their Seal, notify to such Court the Order so made by them, and all Proceedings for or in relation to a Sale under the Decree of such Court shall be suspended; and upon the Completion of the Sale under such Order of the Commissioners any Receiver appointed by such Court shall cease to act as such Receiver with respect to the Land or Part thereof sold; and pending any Proceedings for a Sale under this Act it shall not be lawful for any Owner, Incumbrancer, or other Person interested in such Land to commence any Proceedings at Law or in Equity for Redemption, Foreclosure, or Sale.

Powers of Commissioners as to Partition, &c.

Powers of Commissioners as to Partition, Exchange, Division, and Allotment.

On Application for Sale of an undivided Share, or after Sale, Commissioners may, on Application of Party interested, and giving Notices and hearing Parties, make Order for Partition.

LV. Where an Application is made for a Sale under this Act of an undivided Share of any Land, or where any such undivided Share has been sold under this Act, and either before or after the Conveyance thereof, the Commissioners, on the Application of any Party interested in such undivided Share, or of the Purchaser, (as the Case may be,) and after causing to be given such Notices to the Owner or Owners of the other undivided Share or Shares of the same Land as they think fit, and hearing all such Parties interested in the respective Shares as may apply to them, and making such Inquiries as may enable them to make a just Partition, may, if they think fit, make an Order for the Partition of such Land; and in such Order, or in a Map or Plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the Part allotted in Severalty in respect of each of the undivided Shares in such Land; and the Part so allotted in Severalty in respect of each such undivided Share shall, without any Conveyance or other Assurance, enure to the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the undivided Share in respect of which the same is so allotted would have enured or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

On Application for Sale or after Sale Commissioners, on Application of Party interested, and with Consent, may make Order for Exchange.

LVI. Where an Application is made for a Sale under this Act of any Land, or where the same has been sold under this Act, if, either before or after the Conveyance thereof, Application is made to the Commissioners by any Party interested in such Land, or by the Purchaser, (as the Case may be,) for the Exchange of all or any Part of such Land, the Commissioners may make such Inquiries as they think fit for the Purpose of ascertaining whether such Exchange would be beneficial to the Persons interested in the respective Lands, and cause such Notices to be given to Parties interested in the respective Lands, as they may think fit; and if, after making such Inquiries, and hearing all such Parties interested in the respective Lands as may apply to them, the Commissioners are of opinion that such Exchange would be beneficial, and that the Terms therefore are just and reasonable, they may make an Order for such Exchange accordingly; and in such Order for Exchange, or in a Map or Plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the Lands given and taken in Exchange respectively under such Order; and the Land taken upon such Exchange under such Order shall, without any Conveyance or other Assurance, enure to the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the Land given on such Exchange would have enured or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

Partition may be made of Land where Shares are not subject to be sold under this Act.

LVII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in any Colony within which this Act may take effect, upon the Application of the Owners of any undivided Shares, (not subject to be sold under this Act, or as to which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act are pending,) to make such Inquiries as the Commissioners think fit for ascertaining whether a Partition would be beneficial to the Persons interested in such respective Shares; and in case the Commissioners are of opinion that the proposed Partition would be beneficial, and that the Terms thereof are just and reasonable, they shall make an Order under their Seal for such Partition accordingly; and in such Order, or in a Map or Plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the Part allotted in Severalty in respect of each such undivided Share; and the Part so allotted in Severalty in respect of each such undivided Share by such Order of Partition shall, without any Conveyance or other Assurance, enure to the same Uses, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the undivided Share in respect of which the same is so allotted would have enured or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

Exchanges may be made of Lands not subject to be sold under this Act.

LVIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in any Colony within which this Act may take effect, upon the Application of the Owners of Lands in any of the said Colonies not subject to be sold under this Act, or as to which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act are pending, to make or cause to be made such Inquiries as the Commissioners may think fit for ascertaining whether an Exchange would be beneficial to the Persons interested in the respective Lands; and in case the Commissioners are of opinion that the proposed Exchange would be beneficial, and that the Terms thereof are just and reasonable, they shall make an Order under their Seal for such Exchange accordingly; and in such Order for Exchange, or in a Map or Plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the Lands given and taken in Exchange respectively under such Order; and the Land taken upon such Exchange under such Order shall, without any Conveyance or other Assurance, enure to the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the Land given upon such Exchange would have enured or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

in

Powers of Commissioners as to Partition, &c.

LIX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in any Colony within which this Act may take effect, upon the Application of any Number of Persons who are separately Owners of Parcels of Land not subject to be sold under this Act, or as to which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act are pending, and which are so intermixed, or divided into Parcels of inconvenient Form or Quantity, that the same cannot be cultivated or occupied to the best Advantage, to make such Inquiries as the Commissioners think fit for ascertaining whether a Division would be beneficial to the Persons interested in such Lands; and in case the Commissioners are of opinion that a Division would be beneficial, they shall make an Order for the Division thereof accordingly, with a Map or Plan thereunto annexed, in which shall be specified as well the Parcels in which the several Persons on whose Application such Order has been made were respectively interested before such Division as the several Parcels allotted to them respectively by such Order; and the Parcels of Land taken under such Division shall enure to the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the several Lands which the Persons taking the same have relinquished on such Division would have enured or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

Division of intermixed Lands not subject to be sold under this Act.

LX. In the Case of Land in respect of which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act may be pending, no such Order of Partition, Exchange, or Division as aforesaid shall be made by the Commissioners until such Notices by Advertisement in such public Newspaper or Newspapers as the Commissioners direct have been given of such proposed Partition, Exchange, or Division, and Three Months have elapsed from the Publication of the last of such Advertisements; and if before the Expiration of such Three Months any Person entitled to any Estate in or any Incumbrance upon any Land included in such proposed Partition, Exchange, or Division gives Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of his Dissent from such proposed Partition, Exchange, or Division, the Commissioners shall not make an Order for the same unless such Dissent is withdrawn, or it is shown to the Commissioners that the Estate or Incumbrance of the Party so dissenting has ceased, or that such Estate or Incumbrance is not an Estate or Incumbrance in respect of which he is legally entitled to prevent such Partition, Exchange, or Division; but no such Order as aforesaid shall be in anywise liable to be impeached by reason of any Infirmity of Estate or Defect of Title of the Persons on whose Application the same has been made.

Notices of Partitions, Exchanges, and Divisions to be given.

Conveyances and Proceedings of Commissioners.

Conveyances and Proceedings of Commissioners.

LXI. Every Conveyance executed as required by this Act, and every Order for Partition, Exchange, or Division made by the Commissioners under their Seal, shall for all Purposes be conclusive Evidence that every Application, Proceeding, Consent, and Act whatsoever which ought to have been made, given, and done previously to the Execution of such Conveyance, or the making of such Order respectively, has been made, given, and done by the Persons authorized to make, give, and do the same; and no such Conveyance or Order shall be impeached by reason of any Informality therein.

Conveyance, &c. made by Commissioners conclusive.

LXII. The Commissioners shall not be subject to be restrained in the Execution of their Powers under this Act, nor shall any Person be restrained from making Application under this Act to the Commissioners, or doing any other Act, or giving any Consent under the Provisions of this Act, by Order of any Court of Justice, or by any other legal Process, nor shall the Commissioners be required by Writ of Mandamus, or any Writ of a like Nature, to do any Act or take any Proceeding under this Act, nor shall Proceedings before them be removable by Certiorari or other Writ of a like Nature.

Proceedings before Commissioners not to be restrained by Injunction, &c.

LXIII. The Commissioners shall not, nor shall any Person acting under their Authority, be liable to any Action, Suit, or Proceeding for or in respect of any Act or Matter bonâ fide done or omitted in the Exercise or supposed Exercise of the Powers of this Act.

Commissioners not liable in respect of Acts done bonâ fide.

LXIV. Every Person who, upon Examination before the Commissioners or any of them, or any Person appointed and authorized under this Act by the Commissioners to administer any Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration, shall wilfully give false Evidence, and every Person who shall wilfully swear, affirm, or declare falsely in any Affidavit authorized under this Act to be received in Evidence by the Commissioners, shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties of Perjury.

Penalty for false swearing.

Appeal.

Appeal.

LXV. The Commissioners may review, rescind, or vary any Order previously made by them; and it shall be lawful for any Person aggrieved by any Order of the Commissioners, with their Sanction, but not otherwise, to appeal to Her Majesty in Council, in such Manner, within such Time, and subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Limitations as Her Majesty may by Order in Council prescribe; and the Commissioners may, in their Discretion, give or refuse such Sanction, and annex thereto such Conditions, as to giving Security, or otherwise, as they shall think fit; but in all Cases where the Commissioners refuse their Sanction to any Appeal their Decision shall be final.

Orders may be reviewed by Commissioners; and Appeal to Privy Council.

Power to alter Provisions of Act.

Power to alter Provisions of Act.

Power of Commissioners to make Alteration.

LXVI. Wherever it appears to the Commissioners that by reason of the Prevalence in any Colony of Laws or Customs differing from those of England, or that by reason of any other Matter or Thing whatsoever it is expedient, with the view of carrying into execution the Purposes of this Act,

That there should be substituted for the Provisions of this Act or any of them other like Provisions accommodated to the Laws or Customs of such Colony; or

That further Provisions should be made for carrying into execution in such Colony the Orders of the Commissioners; for reconciling any Conflict between the Laws of England and such Colony; for declaring the Law with respect to any Matter or Thing; or otherwise for more effectually bringing this Act into operation within any Colony, or carrying into effect the Purposes thereof;

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, having due Regard to the Interests of Owners, Incumbrancers, and others, and to the Laws and Customs of the Colony, by Order under their Seal, to make any such Substitutions or Provisions as aforesaid, subject to the Restrictions following; namely, that such Substitutions or Provisions shall not be repugnant to the Spirit of this Act or to the general Law of England, and shall not affect the Constitution of the Commissioners as established by this Act; but no such Order shall be of any Force till the same has been confirmed by Order of Her Majesty in Council in manner herein-after mentioned.

Orders to be submitted to Legislature of Colony, and confirmed by Queen in Council.

LXVII. Before any such Order shall be capable of Confirmation, it shall for the Space of Thirty Days be submitted to the Legislature of the Colony within which the same is intended to operate; and if such Legislature, within such Period as aforesaid, express by Resolution their Disapproval thereof, such Order shall thereupon be void to all Intents; but if the Legislature, within the said Period, express by Resolution their Approval thereof, or come to no Resolution in respect thereof, the same shall thereupon be presented to Her Majesty for Confirmation, and, if so confirmed, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be proclaimed in the Colony, and upon such Proclamation being made shall have the same Force within such Colony as if the same had been enacted by Authority of Parliament.

Orders may be rescinded or altered.

LXVIII. Any Order so confirmed as aforesaid may from Time to Time be rescinded, amended, or altered, as Occasion may require, by other Orders, to be made by the Commissioners, and to be submitted to the Legislature of the Colony, and confirmed in like Manner.

Act, how to come into operation.

LXIX. Her Majesty may from Time to Time, by Order in Council, direct this Act to come into operation in any of the said scheduled Colonies, and thereupon, but not otherwise, the same shall have the Force of Law in such Colony or Colonies named in any such Order; but no such Order in Council shall be made in respect of any Colony until the Legislature of such Colony has presented an Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to issue such Order, and has also, to the Satisfaction of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, made Provision for the Payment of the Salaries of the Local Commissioners, and of all such Assistant Secretaries, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers as may be appointed under this Act in such Colony, and of such other Expenses of carrying this Act into execution as are herein-before directed to be provided for by the Legislature of the Colony.

CAP. CXVIII.

An Act to empower the Legislature of Canada to alter the Constitution of the Legislative Council for that Province, and for other Purposes. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, "to reunite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for "the Government of Canada," provides amongst other things for the Establishment of a Legislative Council in the Province of Canada, consisting of Members summoned thereto by the Governor, under the Authority of Her Majesty as therein specified: And whereas it is expedient that the Legislature of the said Province should be empowered to alter the Constitution of the said Legislative Council: And whereas the said Act requires Amendment in other respect:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to the Legislature of Canada to alter the Constitution of the Legislative Council.

I. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Canada, by any Act or Acts to be hereafter for that Purpose passed, to alter the Manner of composing the Legislative Council of the said Province, and to make it consist of such Number of Members appointed or to be appointed or elected by such Persons and in such Manner as to the said Legislature may seem fit, and to fix the Qualifications of the Persons capable of being so appointed or elected, and by such Act or Acts to make Provision, if they shall think fit, for the separate separate Dissolution by the Governor of the said Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly respectively, and for the Purposes aforesaid to vary and repeal in such Manner as to them may seem fit all or any of the Sections and Provisions of the said recited Act, and of any other Act of Parliament now in force which relate to the Constitution of the Legislative Council of Canada: Provided always, that any Bill or Bills which shall be passed by the present Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada for all or any of the Purposes aforesaid shall be reserved by the said Governor, unless he think fit to withhold Her Majesty's Assent thereto, for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure, and shall be subject to the Enactments of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, Section Thirty-nine, which relate to Bills so reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure.

Provisions of former Acts of Parliament to apply to the new Legislative Council.

II. As soon as the Constitution of the Legislative Council of the Province of Canada shall have been altered under such Act or Acts so assented to by Her Majesty as aforesaid, all Provisions of the said recited Acts of Parliament of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, and of any other Act of Parliament now in force relating to the Legislative Council of Canada, shall be held to apply to the Legislative Council so altered, except so far as such Provisions may have been varied or repealed by such Act or Acts of the Legislature of Canada so assented to as aforesaid.

Legislature of Canada may vary Acts constituting the new Legislative Council;

III. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Canada from Time to Time to vary and repeal all or any of the Provisions of the Act or Acts altering the Constitution of the said Legislative Council: Provided always, that any Bill for any such Purpose which shall vary the Qualification of Councillors, or the Duration of Office of such Councillors, or the Power of the Governor to dissolve the Council or Assembly, shall be reserved by the Governor for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure in manner aforesaid.

and to vary, &c. the Property Qualification of Members of Assembly.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Canada, by any Act or Acts reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure, and whereto Her Majesty shall have assented as herein-before provided, to vary or repeal any of the Provisions of the recited Act of Parliament of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty which relate to the Property Qualification of Members of the Legislative Assembly.

Proviso in Section 26. of 3 & 4 Vict. c. 35. repealed.

V. So much of the Twenty-sixth Section of the said recited Act of Parliament as provides that it shall not be lawful to present to the Governor of the Province of Canada for Her Majesty's Assent any Bill of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the said Province by which the Number of Representatives in the Legislative Assembly may be altered unless the Second and Third Reading of such Bill in the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly shall have been passed with the Concurrence of Two Thirds of the Members for the Time being of the said Legislative Council, and of Two Thirds of the Members for the Time being of the said Legislative Assembly respectively, and that the Assent of Her Majesty shall not be given to any such Bill unless Addresses shall have been presented by the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly respectively to the Governor stating that such Bill has been so passed, is hereby repealed.

Section 42. of 3 & 4 Vict. c. 35. repealed.

VI. The Forty-second Section of the said recited Act of Parliament, providing that in certain Cases Bills of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament of the United Kingdom, is hereby repealed; and, notwithstanding anything in the said Act of Parliament or in any other Act of Parliament contained, it shall be lawful for the Governor to declare that he assents in Her Majesty's Name to any Bill of the Legislature of Canada, or for Her Majesty to assent to any such Bill if reserved for the Signification of Her Pleasure thereon, although such Bill shall not have been laid before the said Houses of Parliament; and no Act heretofore passed or to be passed by the Legislature of Canada shall be held invalid or ineffectual by reason of the same not having been laid before the said Houses, or by reason of the Legislative Council and Assembly not having presented to the Governor such Address as by the said Act of Parliament is required.

Interpretation of Terms.

VII. That in this Act the Word "Governor" is to be understood as comprehending the Governor, and in his Absence the Lieutenant Governor, or Person authorized to execute the Office or the Functions of the Governor of Canada.

CAP. CXIX.

An Act for regulating Appointments to Offices in the Court of Bankruptcy, and for amending the Laws relating to Bankrupts. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS by reason of a Diminution of the Business of the Court of Bankruptcy Vacancies have not been filled up in the Offices of Commissioners for the Birmingham and the Bristol Districts respectively, and of a Registrar for the Bristol District, and in the present State of the Business of the Court it is not necessary that the same should be filled up: And whereas the Lord Chancellor ought to be empowered, in manner herein-after mentioned, to regulate the Amount of the Establishment of the Court of Bankruptcy on the Occurrence of future Vacancies, in proportion to the Amount of the Business of the Court for the Time being, as far as Circumstances will permit: And whereas, in some other Particulars, the Laws relating to Bankrupts and to the Court of Bankruptcy require Amendment:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Present Vacancies not to be filled up except upon Special Order of Lord Chancellor.

I. The Vacancies now existing in the Offices of Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy for the Birmingham and the Bristol Districts respectively, and of Registrar for the Bristol District, shall not, nor shall any of them, be filled up unless and until the Lord Chancellor shall, by Order, declare that, having regard to the State of the Business of the Court, he is of opinion that the said Vacancies, or such One or more of them as shall be mentioned in the Order, ought to be then filled up; and thereupon the said Vacancies, or such One or more of them as aforesaid, may be filled up, as if this Act had not been passed.

Lord Chancellor may declare future Vacancies not to be filled up except upon Special Order.

II. Upon any future Vacancy in the Office of Commissioner, by reason whereof there shall be One Commissioner only acting in the Birmingham, Bristol, Leeds, Liverpool, or Manchester District, and upon any future Vacancy in the Office of Registrar for any of the same Districts, the Lord Chancellor may, if, having regard to the then State of the Business of the Court, he shall so think fit, by Order declare that such One or more of the Vacancies aforesaid as shall be mentioned in the Order shall not be filled up until further Order, and thereupon the same shall not be filled up accordingly, unless and until the Lord Chancellor shall, by Order, declare that, having regard to the then State of the Business of the Court, he is of opinion that any such Vacancy as aforesaid ought to be then filled up, and thereupon the same may be filled up, as if this Act had not been passed or such first-mentioned Order had not been made.

Certain Provisions of 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 56. s. 9. repealed, and Registrars may be removed upon Certificate of the Lords Justices.

III. 'And whereas by Section Nine of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First 'and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-six, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful 'for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to remove any of the Registrars and Deputy Registrars of 'the Court of Bankruptcy upon a Certificate from the Court of Review or One of the Subdivision Courts, 'of some sufficient Reason to be named therein for such Removal:' Now be it enacted as follows:

The said Enactment shall be repealed; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to remove the Chief Registrar or any of the Registrars for the Time being of the said Court, acting either in London or in the Country, upon a Certificate from the Lords Justices for the Time being of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, of some sufficient Reason to be named therein for such Removal.

Power to appoint a Person to act as Registrar temporarily.

IV. Where, upon any Vacancy in the Office of Registrar for London or a Country District, it shall seem to the Lord Chancellor that it is necessary that some Person should be then appointed to attend upon and assist a Commissioner there acting, but that it is not expedient that a permanent Appointment to the Office of Registrar there should be then made, the Lord Chancellor may appoint a fit Person to act as Registrar in and for London or the Country District, as the Case may require, and in that Capacity to attend upon and assist a Commissioner there acting, until further Order.

Remuneration of a Person appointed to act under last preceding Section.

V. Every Person appointed to act under the last preceding Section may receive, from Time to Time, out of the Monies for the Time being standing to the Credit of the Chief Registrar's Account, such Sum or Sums by way of Remuneration for his Services in the Period during which he shall act, not exceeding in the whole the Amount to which he would have been entitled as Salary for the same Period under a permanent Appointment as Registrar to act in London or in a Country District, as the Case may be, together with such further Sum (if any) for his necessary and proper travelling Expenses, as the Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time order.

Power to appoint Substitute in case of Illness, &c. of Commissioner or Registrar.

VI. Where a Commissioner or Registrar, acting either in London or in a Country District, is temporarily hindered from discharging his Duty by Illness or unavoidable Absence, the Lord Chancellor may, if he shall so think fit, appoint a fit Person, who in the Case of a Commissioner shall be a Serjeant or Barrister-at-Law of at the least Seven Years standing at the Bar, to act in the Stead of such Commissioner or Registrar as aforesaid, during his Illness or unavoidable Absence.

Power to appoint Substitute in reasonable Absence of Country Commissioner or Registrar.

VII. Where a Commissioner or Registrar acting in a Country District is absent for any reasonable Cause, the Lord Chancellor may, if he shall so think fit, from Time to Time appoint a fit Person, who in the Case of a Commissioner shall be a Serjeant or Barrister-at-Law of at the least Seven Years standing at the Bar, to act in the Stead of such Commissioner or Registrar as aforesaid, during such Period or Periods as shall not exceed in the whole the Period of Two Calendar Months in any One Period of Twelve consecutive Calendar Months.

Substitute to have like Authority, &c.

VIII. Every Serjeant, Barrister, or other Person who shall under this Act act in the Stead of a Commissioner or Registrar, or in succession to a Registrar, but without a permanent Appointment as Registrar, may and shall, while his Appointment remains in force, have, discharge, and execute all the Jurisdiction, Rights, Powers, Duties, and Authorities belonging to the Office of the Commissioner or Registrar in whose Stead or in succession to whom he shall for the Time being act, with full Validity and Effect to all Intents and Purposes.

Appointments of Messengers and Ushers.

IX. No Vacancy in the Office of Messenger or of Usher shall be hereafter filled up without the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor first obtained.

Section 76. of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 122. and Secton 49. of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 96. repealed, and Salaries of Officers to commence from Appointment.

X. 'And whereas by Section Seventy-six of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 'Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-two, it is enacted, that a 'succeeding Judge, Commissioner, Registrar, and Deputy Registrar respectively shall be paid such pro- 'portionate Part of their respective Salaries as shall be accruing or shall accrue from the Day of the 'Resignation, Death, or Removal from Office of the preceding Judge, Commissioner, Registrar, or Deputy 'Registrar respectively; and by Section Forty-nine of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden 'in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, it is enacted, that the Successor 'of any Registrar or Deputy Registrar dying, resigning, or being removed shall be entitled to receive

'such Portion of his Salary as shall be accruing or shall accrue from the Day of such Death, Resignation, 'or Removal:' Now be it enacted as follows:

The said Enactments shall be repealed; and the Salaries of all Commissioners and other Officers of the Court of Bankruptcy to be hereafter appointed shall commence from the respective Times when they shall respectively be so appointed, and not from the Times when the respective Vacancies shall have occurred.

Remuneration of Official Assignees.

XI. The Lord Chancellor shall, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, with the Advice and Assistance of the said Lords Justices and of any Two or more of the Commissioners, by Order, direct according to what Scale or Rate, and in what Manner, and with reference to what Considerations, the Remuneration of an Official Assignee for his Services in respect of a Bankrupt's Estate shall be calculated and allowed; and as from the Day on which such Order as aforesaid shall take effect, the Section of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, numbered Forty-four, shall be repealed, and thenceforth the Court shall not order or allow any Sum to be paid out of a Bankrupt's Estate to the Official Assignee thereof, as a Remuneration for his Services, otherwise than in pursuance of and in accordance with the Provisions and Directions of such Order as aforesaid, or any Order amending or substituted for the same; and the Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time thereafter, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, by Order, regulate such Remuneration as aforesaid; and the Provisions and Directions respecting such Remuneration as aforesaid contained in the General Order of the Nineteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, numbered CXXX., shall remain in force and be observed until the same shall be abrogated or varied by any Order to be made under this Act.

Fees may be altered by Order of Lord Chancellor.

XII. The Lord Chancellor may, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, from Time to Time by Order vary or abolish the Fees by the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, made payable by Stamps, or any of them, or other the Fees for the Time being payable in relation to any of the Proceedings in Matters of Bankruptcy or Arrangement in the Court of Bankruptcy or the Court of Appeal in Chancery, and, if and when it shall seem necessary or expedient, fix and impose upon or in relation to such Proceedings as aforesaid, or any of them, other Fees, or Fees of an altered Amount, but not of an Amount higher than that by the last-mentioned Act prescribed, as far as regards any Fee or Stamp Duty thereby expressly made payable in respect of any Document therein specified; and the Provisions of the same Act respecting Stamps are hereby extended and applied to and in the Case of such Stamps as may be required by any Order to be made under this Act.

Per-centage paid to Chief Registrar's Account may be abolished or varied by Order.

XIII. The Lord Chancellor may, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, if it shall to him seem expedient, abolish such Per-centage as is by the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, (Section LIV.,) made payable to the Chief Registrar's Account, or reduce the lowest Rate thereof below One Eighth of a Pound per Centum, and again re-impose the said Per-centage, and from Time to Time regulate and vary the same, but so that the highest Rate thereof shall not ever exceed the highest Rate made payable by the said Act.

Power to fix Maximum payable for Fees.

XIV. The Lord Chancellor may, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, from Time to Time by Order fix a maximum Sum to be paid in any Matter of Bankruptcy or Arrangement in respect of the Fees, Stamp Duties, Per-centages, or other Charges for the Time being payable to or in aid of the Fund standing to the Credit of the Chief Registrar's Account, and raise or lower the same as may seem expedient; and when in any Matter the total Sum paid in respect of such Fees, Stamp Duties, Per-centages, or other Charges as aforesaid, shall amount to the maximum Sum for the Time being fixed (which shall be ascertained and certified in such Manner and by such Person as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, may by Order direct), then and in that Case there shall not be any further or other Fee, Stamp Duty, Per-centage, or Charge whatsoever paid or payable in relation to the same Matter, or any of the Proceedings taken or to be taken therein, to or in aid of the Fund standing to the Chief Registrar's Account.

Power to make General Orders.

XV. The Section of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, numbered VIII., is hereby repealed, but not so as to invalidate any Rule or Order already made thereunder; and the Lord Chancellor may, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, from Time to Time by Order vary or abrogate all or any of the Rules and Orders already made thereunder, or under any other Authority, and now in force, in relation to Matters of Bankruptcy or Arrangement, and may from Time to Time make and alter or revoke such Orders as may to him seem expedient for the better Execution of the last-mentioned Act and this Act, or either of them, or any other Act relating to Bankruptcy, and for the Regulation of the Practice in Matters of Bankruptcy and Arrangement, and the Form and Mode of Proceeding therein before and by the Court of Bankruptcy, and for the Regulation of the Duties of the several Officers of the Court of Bankruptcy, and the Fees, Costs, Charges, and Allowances, as well of Solicitors and of Messengers and Ushers, as also of Auctioneers, Appraisers, Brokers, Valuers, and Accountants employed by Assignees, Messengers, or Bankrupts, and for the Taxation thereof respectively.

Where Declarations of Insolvency to be filed.

XVI. Every Declaration of Insolvency to be filed on or after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, for the Purposes of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, under the Authority of that Act as altered by the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-seven, shall, in lieu of being in every Case filed in the Office of the Chief Registrar, be filed in the Court within the District whereof whereof the Trader filing the same shall have resided or carried on Business for Six Calendar Months next immediately preceding the Time of the filing thereof; and the same shall be filed, in the Case of the London District, in the Office of the Chief Registrar, and in the Case of the Country Districts with the respective Registrars thereof.

Filing in Country District Court effectual.

XVII. The filing of a Declaration of Insolvency with the Registrar of a Country District shall have the same Effect to all Intents and Purposes as the filing thereof in the Office of the Chief Registrar would now have.

Copies to be sent to Chief Registrar.

XVIII. The several Registrars acting in the Country shall transmit by Post Copies of all Declarations of Insolvency filed with them, immediately on the filing thereof respectively, to the Chief Registrar, who shall immediately on the Receipt thereof respectively cause the same to be entered in a proper Book to be kept by him for that Purpose.

Copy certified by Country Registrar to be Evidence.

XIX. A Copy of a Declaration of Insolvency purporting to be certified by a Registrar of a Country District as a true Copy of a Declaration filed in the Court for that District shall be received as Evidence of such Declaration as aforesaid having been filed.

Trader petitioning to show 150*l.* Assets.

XX. The Section of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, numbered XCIII., is hereby repealed as from the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; and on and after that Day any Trader liable to become bankrupt may petition for Adjudication of Bankruptcy against himself, but, unless he shall forthwith, after filing his Petition and before Adjudication of Bankruptcy thereunder, make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Court that his available Estate is sufficient to produce the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds at the least, his Petition shall be dismissed, and no further Petition shall Oe filed by him in the same District without the Leave of the Court first obtained, and the Adjudication on any further Petition shall be subject to the like Condition as aforesaid as to his available Estate.

Form of Petition of Trader.

XXI. The Form of Petition for Adjudication of Bankruptcy presented by a Trader himself which is specified in the Schedule (O.) to the last-mentioned Act annexed shall, on and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be altered by the Words "produce the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds at the least" being inserted therein, in lieu of the Words "pay his Creditors at least Five Shillings in the Pound."

Proofs of Assets to the Amount of 150*l.* to be sufficient.

XXII. Proof by a Trader petitioning as aforesaid of the Sufficiency of his available Estate to the Extent required by this Act shall have the same Force and Effect, to all Intents, and for all the Purposes of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, as Proof by him of the Sufficiency of his available Estate to the Extent required by that Act would now have for the same Purposes.

Messenger to follow Instructions of Official Assignee.

XXIII. After the Appointment of an Official Assignee to act in any Bankruptcy, and before the Choice of Assignees by the Creditors, the Messenger shall follow the Instructions of the Official Assignee, subject to the Directions and Control of the Court, with respect to the taking possession of any Part of the Bankrupt's Estate or Effects of which the Messenger shall not have then already taken possession, and the keeping possession of any Part thereof of which he shall then already have taken or shall at any Time thereafter take possession.

Extension of Time for disputing Adjudication.

XXIV. The Section of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1859, numbered CCXXXIII., limiting the Time within which a Person adjudged bankrupt may dispute the Adjudication, shall, in the Case of every Person who shall be adjudged bankrupt on and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be construed and acted upon for all Purposes whatsoever as if the Words "Two Calendar Months" were therein inserted, in lieu of the Words "Twenty-one Days."

Excepted Articles to be allowed to a Bankrupt.

XXV. Every Person who shall be adjudged bankrupt on or after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall be entitled to retain, for the Use of himself and his Family, under the Name of excepted Articles, such Articles of Household Furniture, and Tools, Implements of Trade, and other like Necessaries as he shall specify and select, not exceeding in the whole the Value of Twenty Pounds; and such excepted Articles shall not be subject to be sold or disposed of in the Bankruptcy, or to be taken in Execution at the Suit of any Creditor entitled to prove under the Bankruptcy; and in all Cases there shall be filed with the Proceedings in the Court an Inventory of such excepted Articles, with a Valuation of the same respectively, with a Certificate signed by the Appraiser or other Person making such Valuation attesting the Truth thereof, and stating when and where such Articles were seen and valued; and the reasonable Expenses and Charge of and for such Valuation, when taxed, shall be paid by the Official Assignee out of the Proceeds of the Estate of the Bankrupt, under the Order of the Commissioner.

An Inventory and Valuation of the Remainder of the Bankrupt's Furniture, &c. to be made, which shall not be sold without the Order of a Commissioner.

XXVI. Except where the Court shall otherwise order, an Inventory and Valuation of the Remainder of the Bankrupt's Household Furniture, Tools, and Implements of Trade shall be made and delivered to the Official Assignee; and where the Bankrupt shall, by Writing under his Hand, request the Assignees not to dispose of the same, such Household Furniture, Tools, or Implements of Trade shall not be disposed of by the Assignees without previous Order of the Commissioner; and the Commissioner may, upon the Application of the Bankrupt, postpone the Removal and Sale of the same for such Time as the Commissioner, in the Exercise of his Discretion, shall think fit, having regard to the probable Value of the other Property of the Bankrupt, and he may permit and suffer the same to remain in the Use and Occupation of the Bankrupt, upon such Terms and Conditions and with such Security as to the Commissioner missioner may seem proper, so as to protect the same from being made liable to or sold for the Payment of any Rent, Rates, or Taxes which might become due thereafter for or on account of any House or Premises wherein such Property may be placed, and from being made liable to be sold for the Payment of any Debt, Claim, or Demand whatsoever by reason of being in the Possession and Occupation of the Bankrupt; and the Commissioner may, at any Time when he shall think it necessary so to do, order the same to be taken by the Messenger or Assignee, and to be sold for the Benefit of the Creditors.

If the Bankrupt shall be entitled to any Allowance, his Household Furniture, &c. to be taken in lieu of Money.

XXVII. If the other Estate and Effects of the Bankrupt shall in the due Administration thereof pay to the Creditors such an Amount of Dividend as shall entitle the Bankrupt to an Allowance in Money, and the Household Furniture, Tools, and Implements of Trade so contained in the last-mentioned Inventory and Valuation shall not have been sold, the Bankrupt shall accept the same at the Valuation so originally put upon the same, or a sufficient Portion thereof, to be selected by him, with the Approbation of the Assignees, as and for his Allowance instead of Money; and such Articles of Household Furniture, Tools, and Implements of Trade so excepted shall be delivered to him, and shall thereupon, without any Deed of Assignment, revest in the Bankrupt as his own Property, and the Official Assignee shall sell for the Benefit of the Creditors such Portions of such Articles as the Bankrupt shall not be entitled to retain, and such Deduction may be made from his Allowance for any Diminution in Value in such Articles occasioned by his having continued to use them since the Bankruptcy as the Commissioner may think reasonable (to be either paid by the Bankrupt in Money or the Amount thereof in Value retained in Goods).

Construction. Short Title.

XXVIII. This Act shall be construed, together with the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, as One Act, and may be cited as "The Bankruptcy Act, 1854."

CAP. CXX.

An Act to repeal certain Acts and Parts of Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, and to continue certain Provisions in the said Acts. [11th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping are 'amended and consolidated, and it is expedient to repeal certain Acts and Parts of Acts relating 'to Merchant Shipping, and to make temporary Provisions with respect to certain of the Matters referred 'to in the said Acts:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

Short Title of Act.

1. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Merchant Shipping Repeal Act, 1854."

Interpretation of Terms.

2. In the Construction and for the Purposes of this Act the Interpretation of Terms contained in "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," shall be considered as incorporated with and forming Part of this Act.

Commencement of Act.

3. With the Exception of such Provisions of this Act as are herein-after expressly stated to be intended to come into operation immediately after the passing thereof, this Act shall come into operation at the same Time as the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Repeal of Acts mentioned in Schedule.

4. There shall be hereby repealed—

The several Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in the First Schedule hereto, to the Extent to which such Acts or Parts of Acts are therein expressed to be repealed, and all such Provisions of any other Acts or of any Charters, and all such Laws, Customs, and Rules as are inconsistent with the Provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854:

Provided that such Repeal shall not affect—

(1.) Any Provisions contained in the Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, as to Title, Application of Purchase Money, or borrowing Money, and having relation to the Power of purchasing Lighthouses given to the Trinity House by the same Act:

(2.) Any Security duly given before this Act comes into operation:

(3.) Any Thing duly done before this Act comes into operation:

(4.) Any Liability accruing before this Act comes into operation:

(5.) Any Penalty, Forfeiture, or other Punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any Offence committed before this Act comes into operation:

(6.) The Institution of any Investigation or legal Proceeding or any other Remedy for ascertaining, enforcing, or recovering any such Liability, Penalty, Forfeiture, or Punishment as aforesaid:

(7.) Any Appointment, Byelaw, Regulation, or Licence duly made or granted under any Enactment hereby repealed, and subsisting at the Time when this Act comes into operation; and the same shall continue in force, but shall be subject to such Provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, as are applicable thereto respectively.

Continuation of Local Marine Boards.

5. The Local Marine Boards, the Members of which have been appointed or elected under the Mercantile Marine Act, 1850, shall continue to act until the Fourth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, or until other Boards have been constituted in lieu thereof in pursuance of the Provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

6. The Construction of Sections 4 and 9 of the Pilotage Law Amendment Act, 1853.

6. The Fourth and Ninth Sections of "The Pilotage Law Amendment Act, 1853," shall be construed as if the Fifth Part of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," were therein referred to, in lieu of the Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five.

Expenses of Life Boats, &c. may be charged on Mercantile Marine Fund.

7. The Board of Trade may, out of the Mercantile Marine Fund, direct Payment to be made of such Expenses for establishing and maintaining on the Coasts of the United Kingdom proper Life Boats, with the necessary Crews and Equipments, and for affording Assistance towards the Preservation of Life and Property in Cases of Shipwreck and Distress at Sea, and for the granting Rewards for the Preservation of Life in such Cases, as it thinks fit; and this Section shall come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act.

8. Nothing in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or in this Act contained, shall operate to prevent the Exercise of the Powers contained in the Twelfth and Sixteenth Sections of the Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853, of paying the Debts, Liabilities, and Expenses therein mentioned out of the Mercantile Marine Fund: 'And whereas it was arranged that a Sum to be ascertained by the Calculation 'of Actuaries should before the said last-mentioned Act came into operation be paid by the Trinity 'House out of the Cash Balances then in their Hands for the Purpose of supplying a Deficiency in the 'Funds of the Cinque Ports Pilots, and of indemnifying the Funds of the Trinity House Pilots against 'any Loss consequent upon the Settlements to be made under the Pilotage Law Amendment Act, 1853: 'And whereas when the Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853, came into operation, the said 'Calculation was not completed:' Be it enacted, That such Payment may, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, be made by the Trinity House in the same Manner as Payment of the Debts, Liabilities, and Expenses referred to in the said Twelfth Section of the said last-mentioned Act; and this Section shall come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act.

Provision as to Wages, &c. received before 1852.

9. All Monies arising from any Wages and Effects of deceased Seamen or Apprentices to the Sea Service which were received before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two shall be applied in the same Manner as if the same had been received under the Provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

Receiver General to conform to Directions of Board of Trade.

10. The Receiver General of Droits of Admiralty shall, as to all Things to be done by him in virtue of his Office, conform to all lawful Directions given for that Purpose by the Board of Trade; and on a Vacancy occurring in his Office no Successor shall be appointed, but thereupon all Powers and Privileges vested in such Receiver General shall be transferred to the Board of Trade; and this Section shall come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act.

Powers of Board of Trade as to Appointment of Receivers.

11. Receivers appointed by the said Receiver General under the Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-nine, shall hold their Offices only during the Pleasure of the Board of Trade; and the Serjeants of the Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, their Deputies or other Officers, authorized to perform the Duties and to exercise the Powers within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports elsewhere performed and exercised by such Receivers as aforesaid, shall perform and exercise the same only during the Pleasure and subject to the Directions of the Board of Trade; and all such Receivers, Serjeants, Deputies, and other Officers as aforesaid shall possess in the several Districts within which they have hitherto exercised their Duties the same Powers, Rights, and Privileges, and perform the same Duties, as are by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, vested in and committed to the Receivers therein mentioned, save only that they shall not be entitled to take the Command in Cases of Ships or Boats stranded or in distress, unless authorized so to do by the Board of Trade.

Payment of Receivers.

12. There shall be payable to such Receivers, Serjeants, Deputies, and other Officers as aforesaid such Fees and other Remuneration as are by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, made payable to Receivers appointed thereunder, and Payment thereof shall be made by the same Persons and in the same Manner, and shall be capable of being enforced by the same Means, as Payment of the Fees or other Remuneration payable to the Receivers appointed under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," are payable or capable of being enforced, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit; and, save as aforesaid, and saving also any Expenses actually and properly incurred, no such Receiver, Serjeant, Deputy, or other Officer as aforesaid shall be entitled to demand or receive from any Person any Fees or other Sums in respect of any Services performed by him as Receiver; and this Section shall come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act.

Application of Fees.

13. All Fees or other Remuneration received by any such Receiver, Serjeant, Deputy, or other Officer as aforesaid may be applied by him to his own Use.

Ninth Part of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, to come into operation immediately.

14. The Provisions contained in the Ninth Part of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," shall come into operation at the same Time as if the same were herein repeated, and were hereby expressed to be intended to come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act; and the following Acts, that is to say, the Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Second, Chapter Fifteen, the Act of the Twenty-sixth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-six, and the Act of the Fifty-third Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and fifty-nine, shall be considered as repealed immediately after the passing of this Act.

Mode of Procedure, Criminal Cases.

15. All Criminal Proceedings under "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," "The Pilotage Law Amendment Act, 1853," "The Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853," or this Act, shall be carried on in the same Manner as similar Proceedings under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854;"

and

and all Rules of Law, Practice, and Evidence which are applicable to such last-mentioned Proceedings shall be applicable to Criminal Proceedings under this Act.

Penalty on Masters of Ships leaving certain Seamen in Distress in this Country.

16. If a Native of any Country in Asia, Africa, or of any of the Islands in the South Sea or the Pacific Ocean, or of any other Country not having any Consul in the United Kingdom, is brought to the United Kingdom in any Ship, British or Foreign, as a Seaman, and is left in the United Kingdom, and within Six Months of his being so left becomes chargeable upon the Poor Rate, or commits any Act by reason of the Committal whereof he is liable to be convicted as an idle and disorderly Person, or any other Act of Vagrancy, the Master or Owner of the said Ship, or in case of a Foreign Ship the Person who is Consignee of the Ship at the Time of the Seaman being so left as aforesaid, shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Thirty Pounds, unless he can show that the Person so left as aforesaid quitted the Ship without the Consent of the Master, or that due Means have been afforded by such Master, Owner, or Consignee, or One of them, to such Person, of returning to his Native Country, or to the Country in which he was shipped; and the Court inflicting such Penalty may order the whole or any Part of such Penalty to be applied towards the Relief or sending Home of such Person.

CAP. CXXII.

An Act for the further Alteration and Amendment of the Laws and Duties of Customs.

[12th August 1854.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. On and after the Eighth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in lieu and instead of all other Duties and Drawbacks of Customs, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon Goods imported into or exported from any Part of Great Britain and Ireland, the several Duties of Customs, and there shall be allowed the several Drawbacks, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Table (A.) to this Act annexed; and in lieu of all Duties of Customs now payable by Law upon the Importation of Goods into the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively set forth in Figures in Table (B.) to this Act annexed; and all the Goods described as free in the said Table (A.) shall be exempt from Duty on the Importation

Instead of all other Duties and Drawbacks there shall be paid and allowed the Duties and Drawbacks specified in Tables annexed. Duties in Table to be levied on Goods imported into Isle of Man.

Importation thereof into Great Britain and Ireland, and those described as free in the said Table (B.) shall be exempt from Duty on the Importation thereof into the Isle of Man.

Goods not reported may be detained.

II. Goods not duly reported may be detained by any Officer or Officers of Customs until the same are so reported, and the Cause of the Omission explained to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, who may thereupon restore the same on such Terms as they may deem proper; and such Goods may in the meantime, should the said Commissioners deem necessary, be removed to the Queen's Warehouse.

Extension of Time for perfecting Sight Entries.

III. The Time prescribed by the Sixty-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," for perfecting Entries by Bill of Sight, may be extended at the Discretion of the Commissioners of Customs.

Commissioners of Customs to permit special Entries.

IV. The Commissioners of Customs may permit the Entries of Goods in such Form and Manner and on such Conditions as they may direct to meet the Exigencies of any Case to which the general Laws and Regulations may not be strictly applicable.

As to Entries of Arms, &c.

V. On the Entry of Arms and Ammunition of War, whether for Home Use, Exportation, or in Transit, the Number of Articles of each Description, as denominated in Table (A.) to this Act, shall be stated in the Import, Export, or Transit Entry, as the Case may be.

Goods not worth the Duty, &c. in Warehouse may be destroyed.

VI. All Goods deposited in the Queen's Warehouse, and not duly cleared therefrom within Three Calendar Months, if the same cannot be sold for a Sum sufficient to pay the Duties and Charges if offered for Sale for Home Consumption, or the Charges if offered for Sale for Exportation, may be destroyed by Direction of the Commissioners of Customs.

The re-weighing, re-gauging, &c. of Goods on quintennial re-warehousing, may in certain Cases be dispensed with.

VII. On the re-warehousing in the Name of the Proprietor of Goods, either by himself or by the Warehousekeeper, after the Expiration of Five Years from the last preceding warehousing or re-warehousing thereof under Sections One hundred and three and One hundred and four of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," the Commissioners of Customs may (first being satisfied that the same are in the Warehouse, that the Packages are entire, and that there is no Ground to suspect that there is any undue Deficiency therein,) dispense with the re-weighing, re-gauging, or re-measuring and strict Examination thereof, if they be such as are liable on Delivery to the Payment of Duty according to the landing Weight, Measure, or Quantity thereof, and also, at the Request of the Warehousekeeper or Proprietor of the Warehouse, may (first being satisfied as aforesaid) dispense with the re-weighing, re-gauging, re-measuring, or strict Examination on such re-warehousing as aforesaid, of Goods being Wines or other Goods the Duties whereon are payable at the Delivery, Weight, Measure, or Quantity, and which may be liable to Injury by such re-weighing, re-guaging, re-measuring, or strict Examination; but in either of these Cases the Warehousekeeper or Proprietor of such Warehouse shall be liable at the Time of Delivery of such Goods to pay the Duties due on any Deficiency therein not allowed by Law which may then be found to exist, instead of being called upon to make good any Deficiencies which might have been found to exist had such re-weighing, re-gauging, re-measuring, or Examination been resorted to at the Time of such re-warehousing.

Ships with Cargo to clear.

VIII. If any Ship having Cargo on board shall depart from any Port without being duly cleared, the Master shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Tobacco may be legally imported in Packages of 80lbs. Weight.

IX. Nothing in the Customs Consolidation Act, 1853, shall extend to render any Ship of One hundred and twenty Tons Burden or upwards liable to Forfeiture on account of any Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff imported in such Ships into the United Kingdom in Packages each containing not less than Eighty Pounds net Weight of such Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff, nor to render any Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff liable to Forfeiture by reason of its being imported in such Packages, nor to render any such Ship or any Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff so imported liable to Forfeiture under the Two hundred and twelfth Section of the said Act.

Prohibited Goods not to be shipped from the Channel Islands to the United Kingdom.

X. If in the Channel Islands any Goods, the Importation whereof into the United Kingdom is prohibited or restricted, shall be shipped or brought to any Wharf, Quay, or other Place in or be waterborne to be shipped on board any Ship clearing or departing from those Islands to the United Kingdom, such Goods shall be forfeited, and any Person who shall so ship, bring, or waterbear to be shipped any such Goods, or be otherwise knowingly concerned therein, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds or Treble the Value of the Goods, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

Bay Islands to be on same Footing as the Bermudas.

XI. The Islands in the Bay of Honduras, called the Bay Islands, shall be deemed and taken to be excepted or excluded from the Operation of the One hundred and fifty-ninth Section of the "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," to the same Extent as the Bahamas or Bermuda Islands are thereby excepted or excluded.

British and Irish Spirits prohibited to be brought from the Isle of Man.

XII. British or Irish Spirits may be exported from Great Britain or Ireland to Parts beyond the Seas, or be removed to the Isle of Man, in Casks of the Content of Ten Gallons each at the least, but no British or Irish Spirits shall be removed or exported from the Isle of Man to any other Part of the United Kingdom, under pain of Forfeiture thereof.

Count for harbouring, &c. smuggled Goods.

XIII. The Words "otherwise dealing with certain prohibited, restricted, or uncustomed Goods" in Count Sixteen of Schedule B. to "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," shall be deemed to apply to and include the harbouring or having Possession, as the Case may be, of any such Goods, and it shall not be necessary to prove that the Party charged was concerned in the unshipping thereof.

XIV. The

When Defendant's Option may not be exercised.

XIV. The Option given to a Defendant by Section Two hundred and sixty-four of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," of removing any Proceedings against himself before any Justice to a Superior Court, shall be not exercised after the Commencement of the Trial thereof before such Justice.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 99. not to extend to Revenue Cases.

XV. The Second Section of the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-nine, shall not be deemed to apply to any Prosecution, Suit, or other Proceeding, in respect of any Offence, or for the Recovery of any Penalties or Forfeitures, under any Law now or hereafter to be made, relating to the Customs or Inland Revenue.

Provision as to Importation of Tobacco, &c. into Channel Islands.

XVI. Section One hundred and ninety-three of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," is hereby repealed, but no Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff shall be imported into the Channel Islands, nor be carried from any one of the said Islands to another of them, or from one Part of any of the said Islands to another Part of the same, unless in Ships of not less Burden than Fifty Tons, except from the United Kingdom in Ships of not less than Forty Tons Burden regularly trading from thence to those Islands, nor unless in Packages each containing not less than Eighty Pounds net Weight of such Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff, nor unless the Provisions in and under which the like Sort of Goods may be legally imported into the United Kingdom are complied with; and all Cigars, Tobacco, or Snuff imported into the said Islands, or carried, shipped, or removed, contrary hereto, or which shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat within One League of the Coasts thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the Ship or Boat.

When Exemption in 192. of "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," to apply.

XVII. The Exemption contained in the Proviso of Section One hundred and ninety-two of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," in respect of Spirits, shall only apply in Cases where such Spirits are shipped, removed, imported, exported, or carried Coastwise in Ships of not less Burden than Fifty Tons, as required by the foregoing Part of the said Section.

Declaratory Explanation of Term "Malt."

XVIII. Doubts having arisen as to the Meaning of the Prohibition in regard to Malt contained in the Forty-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," the Term Malt shall be deemed to include all Malt, whether in Grain or in the Form of concentrated Extract or Essence, but shall not include any of the fermented Liquors made from Malt now specified in the Tariff.

Dispensation of Shipping Documents Outwards.

XIX. So much of the One hundred and forty-second Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," as requires a Duplicate Bill of Lading on the Shipment of Goods, and, within Fourteen Days after Clearance of the Ship, a List of such Goods, with the Quantities and Values thereof, is hereby repealed, except as to Shipments at the Port of Liverpool, with respect to which so much only of the said Section as requires the Values of the Goods to be stated in such List is hereby repealed; but if the Exporter shall fail, either by himself or his Agent, to deliver to the Searcher a Shipping Bill, with Duplicates thereof where required, of the Goods exported by him as prescribed by the said Act, he shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Isle of Man to be deemed Part of United Kingdom.

XX. The Isle of Man shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the United Kingdom for the Purposes of this or any other Act relating to the Customs, save as to the Rates of Duties and Drawbacks charged or allowed.

Interpretation Clause.

XXI. When any of the Terms mentioned in the Three hundred and fifty-seventh Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," are used in this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the Terms so used shall have the same Interpretation and Meaning as are given to them in the said Section.

CAP. CXXIII.

An Act to render any Dealing with Securities issued during the present War between Russia and England by the Russian Government a Misdemeanor. [12th August 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent as much as possible the Russian Government from raising 'Funds for the Purpose of prosecuting the War which it at present carries on against this 'Country:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Prohibiting the Dealing in Russian Stocks, &c.

I. If, during the Continuance of Hostilities between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Russia, any Person within Her Majesty's Dominions, or any British Subject in any Foreign Country, shall wilfully or knowingly take, acquire, become possessed of, or interested in any Stocks, Funds, Scrip, Bonds, Debentures, or Securities for Money which, since the Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, have or hath been, or which, during the Continuance of Hostilities as aforesaid, shall be, created, entered into, or secured by or in the Name of the Government of Russia, or any Person or Persons on its Behalf, every Person so taking, acquiring, becoming possessed of or interested in any such Stocks, Funds, Scrip, Bonds, or Debentures as aforesaid shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and in Scotland of an Offence punishable with Fine or Imprisonment: Provided always, that the Provisions of this Act shall not extend to or include the Case of any such Person or Subject claiming an Interest in the Estate or Effects of any deceased Person, or the Case of any such Person or Subject taking the Estate or Effects of his Debtor in Execution, or the Case of any such Person or Subject claiming in any Country to be interested under any Bankruptcy, Insolvency, Sequestration, Cessio Bonorum, or Disposition of Property in trust for Creditors, but that in every such Case the British Subject may take and receive any Stocks, Funds, Scrip, Bond, or Debentures, or any Share, Legacy, Dividend, Debt, or Sum of Money due or belonging to him, which may arise from or be produced by the Sale or Proceeds of any such Stocks, Funds, Scrip, Bonds, or Debentures as aforesaid; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to include the Government Notes which are used as a circulating Medium in the Russian Dominions.

As to Trial of Offences committed beyond the Limits of the United Kingdom.

II. All Offences against this Act committed beyond the Limits of the United Kingdom may be inquired of, tried, determined, and dealt with as if the same had been respectively committed within the Body of the County of Middlesex.

This Act not to affect the Law of Treason.

III. Nothing herein contained shall have the Effect of reducing to a Misdemeanor any such Offence which if this Act had not been passed would amount to the Crime of High Treason, or be deemed in any Manner to alter or affect the Law relating to High Treason; but no Person indicted for a Misdemeanor under this Act shall be entitled to an Acquittal on the Ground that the Acts proved against him amount in Law to the Crime of High Treason.

As to Payment of Costs of Prosecution.

IV. On any Indictment for a Misdemeanor under this Act the Costs of the Prosecution shall be allowed as directed by the several Acts, Seventh George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, and Fourteenth and Fifteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty-five; and all the Provisions of the said Acts empowering Courts to order Payment of Costs and Expenses, and Compensation for Trouble and Loss of Time, in the Cases of the Misdemeanors in the said Acts mentioned, shall extend and be applicable to Indictments for Misdemeanor under this Act.

CAP. CXXIV.

An Act to settle the Contribution to be made by certain Baronies in Roscommon and Galway and the County of the Town of Galway to the Midland Great Western Railway of Ireland Company. [12th August 1854.]

12 & 13 Vict. c. 62.

'WHEREAS under the Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter 'Sixty-two, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were empowered to charge the Consolidated Fund and to direct the Issue thereout to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National 'Debt of a Sum not exceeding in the whole Five hundred thousand Pounds, and the last-mentioned 'Commissioners were thereby appointed Trustees for holding the Monies to be issued as aforesaid on a 'separate Account, under the Title of "The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt on '"account of the Public Works Loan Fund," and it was provided that the said Commissioners of the 'Treasury should, if they thought fit, require the Public Works Loan Commissioners to advance to the 'Midland Great Western Railway of Ireland Company any Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole 'Five hundred thousand Pounds, and the Repayment thereof, with Interest, as therein mentioned, not 'exceeding Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, should be secured by such Mortgages 'as therein-after mentioned, and the said Railway Company were authorized to borrow of the said 'Public Works Loan Commissioners any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum 'of Five hundred thousand Pounds, and to mortgage the Railways and Undertaking authorized by the 'Acts therein mentioned, and other the Effects of the Company; and it was by the said Act enacted, 'that if any Monies should be borrowed by the said Railway Company under the Provisions of that 'Act, then, so long as any Part whatever of the Principal Monies borrowed should remain unpaid, a 'Sum equal to One Pound Fifteen Shillings per Centum on the Sum or Sums originally borrowed should '(subject as therein-after mentioned) be paid half-yearly to the said Railway Company by the Baronies 'therein mentioned in the County of Roscommon, and by all the several Baronies and Half Baronies 'in the County of Galway, and by the County of the Town of Galway, all in that Part of the United 'Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, rateably and in the Proportions to be ascertained as therein-after mentioned; and it was thereby provided, that if, after the said Railway from 'Athlone to Galway should have been opened, there should be any Profit made by such Railway in any 'Half Year, then the Amount thereof should be deducted from the half-yearly Amount which would 'otherwise be payable by such Baronies and Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway, and 'if such Profit should equal or exceed the Amount so to be paid, then no such Payment should be 'made; and that the Commissioners of the Treasury, during such Period as any Principal or Interest 'Monies should remain unpaid in respect of the Securities to be given to the said Public Works Loan 'Commissioners, should appoint a fit Person or Persons, not exceeding Three, to audit the Accounts of 'the said Railway Company, and to make Certificates, in pursuance of the Directions therein-after contained; and that for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of net Profits (if any) of the whole or any 'Portion of the said Railway from Athlone to Galway, the said Railway Company should, from Time to 'Time and at all Times, so long as any Principal Monies should remain unpaid in respect of any Securities aforesaid, keep the Accounts of the Receipts and Expenditure relating to the whole or any Portion of 'the Railway between Athlone and Galway, and all Matters connected therewith, separate from all other 'Receipts and Expenditure by the said Railway Company; and that the said Company should, after any 'such Advances, and within One Calendar Month after the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day 'of December in every Year, render to the said Auditor or Auditors a distinct Account of all the Receipts 'and Expenditure for the then preceding Half Year of and relating to the said Railway from Athlone to 'Galway, and every Part thereof, which Account the said Auditor or Auditors should examine as 'therein is mentioned, and he or they should adjust and balance such Accounts relating to the said 'Railway from Athlone to Galway, and complete such Audit, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether 'during such preceding Half Year any Profit should have been made, and of preparing such Certificate 'as therein-after mentioned; and that such Auditor or Auditors should, on the Completion of every 'half-yearly Audit, and so long as any Monies advanced to the said Railway Company as aforesaid 'should remain unpaid, ascertain whether the said Railway Company had for the preceding Half 'Year made such half-yearly Payments as by virtue of the Security or Securities for any such Loan or 'Loans they should be liable to pay, and also, after the said Railway from Athlone to Galway, or any 'Part thereof, should have been completed and opened to the Public (from a Profit and Loss Account of 'the Income and Expenditure of the said Railway from Athlone to Galway), ascertain the Amount, if 'any, of Profit which should appear on such Account to have been made during such Half Year; and that 'when

'when such Auditor or Auditors should find that the said Railway Company had made such Payments as 'aforesaid for the preceding Half Year, and not before, then he or they should, by a Certificate under his 'or their Hand or Hands, certify the same, and also the Amount of Profit, if any, appearing on such 'Account as aforesaid; and (after deducting such Profit, if any, from the Amount of the said half-yearly 'Payments of One Pound Fifteen Shillings per Centum secured to be paid by such Baronies and Half 'Baronies and County of the Town of Galway as aforesaid,) the said Auditor or Auditors should in such 'Certificate state the Balance remaining to be paid to make up such half-yearly Payments of One Pound 'Fifteen Shillings per Centum as aforesaid, and the proportionate Part of such Balance which was to be 'raised in each such Barony and Half Barony and County of the Town of Galway, such proportionate 'Parts to be ascertained as in the said Act mentioned; and it was enacted, that in taking and keeping 'the aforesaid Account of Profit and Loss no Payment by the said Railway Company to the said Public 'Works Loan Commissioners, nor any Receipts by the said Railway Company in respect of such half-'yearly Payments of One Pound Fifteen Shillings per Centum, should be taken into account as Profit or 'Loss, but the same should solely contain the Amount of Income and Expenditure relating to the aforesaid 'Railway from Athlone to Galway, and when in any One Half Year the Amount of Profit should exceed 'the Sum which in case of no Profit would have been payable by such Baronies and Half Baronies and 'County of the Town of Galway, then, after deducting therefrom the Amount which would otherwise 'have been so payable, the Balance of any Profit remaining should be carried to the next half-yearly 'Account as Profit; and it was enacted, that the said Auditor or Auditors should, on the Request of the 'said Railway Company, and within One Calendar Month after the Date of every such Certificate, deliver 'the said Certificate and a Duplicate or Duplicates thereof to the said Company; and it was enacted, 'that the said Railway Company should from Time to Time deliver the said Certificate, or such 'Duplicate thereof as aforesaid, to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each County or County of a Town 'in which any such Barony or Half Barony or County of a Town as aforesaid should be situate, 'and that the Monies according to such Certificate to be raised and levied off such respective Baronies 'or Half Baronies in each of the said Counties, or off such County of a Town, should be raised and 'levied accordingly, as therein is mentioned, and paid to the said Railway Company, as therein is 'mentioned: And whereas the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds was, by Four Instalments of 'One hundred thousand Pounds each, and two of Fifty thousand Pounds each, by the Direction of 'the Commissioners of the Treasury advanced by the said Public Works Loan Commissioners to the 'said Railway Company, and the said Sums so advanced, with Interest thereon after the Rate of Three 'Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, were duly secured by certain Mortgage Securities, 'according to the Direction of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and such Principal Sums are 'still unpaid: And whereas the said Railway from Athlone to Galway has been completed and opened 'for the Use of the Public, and the whole of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds so 'borrowed, together with a considerable further Sum of Money raised by the said Company, was ex-'pended by the said Company in the Construction of the said Railway and the Works connected there-'with: And whereas Questions have arisen between the said Railway Company and the said Baronies or 'Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway, so as aforesaid, and in such Events as aforesaid, 'liable to contribute to the Payment of Monies equal to the aforesaid Interest on the said Sum of Five 'hundred thousand Pounds so borrowed as aforesaid, as to the actual Amount of Monies which the said 'Company were authorized to expend in the Construction of the said Line of Railway; and inasmuch as 'it is apprehended that certain of the said Monies so expended, though beneficial generally to the Public 'and to the said Railway Company, may not have been in all Cases expended on Works by which the 'said Baronies or Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway may be considered to derive direct 'Advantage, it is expedient, for preventing Litigation, and to ascertain and fix the precise Principal 'Sum in respect of which the said Baronies or Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway 'are to contribute such half-yearly Sum as aforesaid, in such Events as aforesaid, and therefore the said 'Railway Company have agreed that the Sum expended by the said Company shall for the Purposes 'aforesaid, as from the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be taken at the 'Sum of Four hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, instead of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand 'Pounds so borrowed as aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

The Sum of 470,000*l.* to be considered and taken as that in respect of which the said Baronies, &c. are to contribute.

I. The Principal Sum in respect of which the said Baronies or Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway are, under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said Act, liable to contribute as aforesaid, shall, as from the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be taken at the Sum of Four hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, and the said Sum of Four hundred and seventy thousand Pounds shall, as from the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be considered and taken by the Auditor or Auditors acting under the said Act as the Sum in respect of which the said Baronies or Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway are to contribute such half-yearly Payments of One Pound Fifteen Shillings per Centum as aforesaid, instead of the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds; and that when and as Four hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, Part of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds so borrowed as aforesaid, shall have been paid, no further Contributions shall shall be made by the said Baronies or Half Baronies and County of the Town of Galway: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to alter in any way the Liability of the said Railway Company to pay the whole or such Part of the Five hundred thousand Pounds advanced by the said Public Works Commissioners as shall remain unpaid, together with the Interest which shall from Time to Time accrue upon the same.

Nothing to alter Liability of Company to pay the Money advanced by Commissioners.

CAP. CXXV.

An Act for the further Amendment of the Process, Practice, and Mode of Pleading in and enlarging the Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, and of the Superior Courts of Common Law of the Counties Palatine of Lancaster and Durham.

[12th August 1854.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Judge may, by Consent, try Questions of Fact.

I. The Parties to any Cause may, by Consent in Writing, signed by them or their Attorneys, as the Case may be, leave the Decision of any Issue of Fact to the Court, provided that the Court, upon a Rule to show Cause, or a Judge on Summons, shall, in their or his Discretion, think fit to allow such Trial; or provided the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law at Westminster shall, in pursuance of the Power herein-after given to them, make any General Rule or Order dispensing with such Allowance, either in all Cases or in any particular Class or Classes of Cases to be defined in such Rule or Order; and such Issue of Fact may thereupon be tried and determined, and Damages assessed where necessary, in open Court, either in Term or Vacation, by any Judge who might otherwise have presided at the Trial thereof by Jury, either with or without the Assistance of any other Judge or Judges of the same Court, or included in the same Commission at the Assizes; and the Verdict of such Judge or Judges shall be of the same Effect as the Verdict of a Jury, save that it shall not be questioned upon the Ground of being against the Weight of Evidence; and the Proceedings upon and after such Trial, as to the Power of the Court or Judge, the Evidence, and otherwise, shall be the same as in the Case of Trial by Jury.

Two Judges may sit at same Time for Trial of Causes pending in the same Court.

II. It shall be lawful for any One of the Judges of any of the Superior Courts at Westminster, at the Request of the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron, to try the Causes entered for Trial at Nisi Prius in Westminster and London in either of the Courts, on the same Days on which the said Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron, or any other Judge of the same Court, shall be sitting to try Causes at those Places respectively, or at either of them, so that the Trial of Two Causes may be proceeded with at the same Time; and all Jurors, Witnesses, and other Persons who may have been summoned or required to attend at or for the Trial of any Cause before the said Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron, as the Case may be, shall give their Attendance at and for the Trial thereof before such other Judge as may be sitting to try the same by virtue of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Associates and other Officers of the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron, as the Case may be, to appoint from Time to Time fit and proper Persons, to be approved by the said Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron, to attend for them and on their Behalf respectively before such Judge; and the Trial of every Cause which shall be so had by virtue of this Act shall, if necessary, be entered of Record, as having been had before the Judge by whom such Cause in fact was tried.

Power to Court or Judge to direct Arbitration before Trial.

III. If it be made appear, at any Time after the issuing of the Writ, to the Satisfaction of the Court or a Judge, upon the Application of either Party, that the Matter in dispute consists wholly or in part of Matters of mere Account which cannot conveniently be tried in the ordinary Way, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge, upon such Application, if they or he think fit, to decide such Matter in a summary Manner, or to order that such Matter, either wholly or in part, be referred to an Arbitrator appointed by the Parties, or to an Officer of the Court, or, in Country Causes, to the Judge of any County Court, upon such Terms as to Costs and otherwise as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable; and the Decision or Order of such Court or Judge, or the Award or Certificate of such Referee, shall be enforceable by the same Process as the Finding of a Jury upon the Matter referred.

Special Case may be stated, and Question of Fact tried.

IV. If it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that the Allowance or Disallowance of any particular Item or Items in such Account depends upon a Question of Law fit to be decided by the Court, or upon a Question of Fact fit to be decided by a Jury, or by a Judge upon the Consent of both Parties as hereinbefore provided, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to direct a Case to be stated, or an Issue or Issues to be tried; and the Decision of the Court upon such Case, and the Finding of the Jury or Judge upon such Issue or Issues, shall be taken and acted upon by the Arbitrator as conclusive.

Arbitrator may state Special Case.

V. It shall be lawful for the Arbitrator upon any compulsory Reference under this Act, or upon any Reference by Consent of Parties where the Submission is or may be made a Rule or Order of any of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity at Westminster, if he shall think fit, and if it is not provided to the contrary, to state his Award, as to the whole or any Part thereof, in the Form of a Special Case for the Opinion of the Court, and when an Action is referred, Judgment, if so ordered, may be entered according to the Opinion of the Court.

VI. If

Power to Judge to direct Arbitration at Time of Trial, when Issues of Fact left to his Decision.

VI. If upon the Trial of any Issue of Fact by a Judge under this Act it shall appear to the Judge that the Questions arising thereon involvé Matter of Account which cannot conveniently be tried before him, it shall be lawful for him, at his Discretion, to order that such Matter of Account be referred to an Arbitrator appointed by the Parties, or to an Officer of the Court, or, in Country Causes, to a Judge of any County Court, upon such Terms as to Costs, and otherwise, as such Judge shall think reasonable; and the Award or Certificate of such Referee shall have the same Effect as herein-before provided as to the Award or Certificate of a Referee before Trial; and it shall be competent for the Judge to proceed to try and dispose of any other Matters in question, not referred, in like Manner as if no Reference had been made.

Proceedings before and Power of such Arbitrator.

VII. The Proceedings upon any such Arbitration as aforesaid shall, except otherwise directed hereby or by the Submission or Document authorizing the Reference, be conducted in like Manner, and subject to the same Rules and Enactments, as to the Power of the Arbitrator and of the Court, the Attendance of Witnesses, the Production of Documents, enforcing or setting aside the Award, and otherwise, as upon a Reference made by Consent under a Rule of Court or Judge's Order.

Power to send back to Arbitrator.

VIII. In any Case where Reference shall be made to Arbitration as aforesaid the Court or a Judge shall have Power at any Time, and from Time to Time, to remit the Matters referred, or any or either of them, to the Re-consideration and Re-determination of the said Arbitrator, upon such Terms, as to Costs and otherwise, as to the said Court or Judge may seem proper.

Application to set aside the Award.

IX. All Applications to set aside any Award made on a compulsory Reference under this Act shall and may be made within the First Seven Days of the Term next following the Publication of the Award to the Parties, whether made in Vacation or Term; and if no such Application is made, or if no Rule is granted thereon, or if any Rule granted thereon is afterwards discharged, such Award shall be final between the Parties.

Enforcing of Awards within Period for setting them aside.

X. Any Award made on a compulsory Reference under this Act may, by Authority of a Judge, on such Terms as to him may seem reasonable, be enforced at any Time after Seven Days from the Time of Publication, notwithstanding that the Time for moving to set it aside has not elapsed.

If Action commenced by One Party after all have agreed to Arbitration, Court or Judge may stay Proceedings.

XI. Whenever the Parties to any Deed or Instrument in Writing to be hereafter made or executed, or any of them, shall agree that any then existing or future Differences between them or any of them shall be referred to Arbitration, and any One or more of the Parties so agreeing, or any Person or Persons claiming through or under him or them, shall nevertheless commence any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against the other Party or Parties, or any of them, or against any Person or Persons claiming through or under him or them in respect of the Matters so agreed to be referred, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the Court in which Action or Suit is brought, or a Judge thereof, on Application by the Defendant or Defendants, or any of them, after Appearance and before Plea or Answer, upon being satisfied that no sufficient Reason exists why such Matters cannot be or ought not to be referred to Arbitration according to such Agreement as aforesaid, and that the Defendant was at the Time of the bringing of such Action or Suit and still is ready and willing to join and concur in all Acts necessary and proper for causing such Matters so to be decided by Arbitration, to make a Rule or Order staying all Proceedings in such Action or Suit, on such Terms as to Costs and otherwise as to such Court or Judge may seem fit: Provided always, that any such Rule or Order may at any Time afterwards be discharged or varied as Justice may require.

On Failure of Parties or Arbitrators, Judge may appoint single Arbitrator or Umpire.

XII. If in any Case of Arbitration the Document authorizing the Reference provide that the Reference shall be to a single Arbitrator, and all the Parties do not, after Differences have arisen, concur in the Appointment of an Arbitrator; or if any appointed Arbitrator refuse to act, or become incapable of acting, or die, and the Terms of such Document do not show that it was intended that such Vacancy should not be supplied, and the Parties do not concur in appointing a new one; or if, where the Parties or Two Arbitrators are at liberty to appoint an Umpire or Third Arbitrator, such Parties or Arbitrators do not appoint an Umpire or Third Arbitrator; or if any appointed Umpire or Third Arbitrator refuse to act, or become incapable of acting, or die, and the Terms of the Document authorizing the Reference do not show that it was intended that such a Vacancy should not be supplied, and the Parties or Arbitrators respectively do not appoint a new one; then in every such Instance any Party may serve the remaining Parties or the Arbitrators, as the Case may be, with a written Notice to appoint an Arbitrator, Umpire, or Third Arbitrator respectively; and if within Seven clear Days after such Notice shall have been served no Arbitrator, Umpire, or Third Arbitrator be appointed, it shall be lawful for any Judge of any of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity at Westminster, upon Summons to be taken out by the Party having served such Notice as aforesaid, to appoint an Arbitrator, Umpire, or Third Arbitrator, as the Case may be, and such Arbitrator, Umpire, and Third Arbitrator respectively shall have the like Power to act in the Reference and make an Award as if he had been appointed by Consent of all Parties.

When Reference is to Two Arbitrators and One Party fail to appoint, other Party

XIII. When the Reference is or is intended to be to Two Arbitrators, One appointed by each Party, it shall be lawful for either Party, in the Case of the Death, Refusal to act, or Incapacity of any Arbitrator appointed by him, to substitute a new Arbitrator, unless the Document authorizing the Reference show that it was intended that the Vacancy should not be supplied; and if on such a Reference One Party fail to appoint an Arbitrator, either originally or by way of Substitution as aforesaid, for Seven clear Days may appoint Arbitrator to act alone.

Days after the other Party shall have appointed an Arbitrator, and shall have served the Party so failing to appoint with Notice in Writing to make the Appointment, the Party who has appointed an Arbitrator may appoint such Arbitrator to act as sole Arbitrator in the Reference, and an Award made by him shall be binding on both Parties as if the Appointment had been by Consent; provided, however, that the Court or a Judge may revoke such Appointment, on such Terms as shall seem just.

Two Arbitrators may appoint Umpire.

XIV. When the Reference is to Two Arbitrators, and the Terms of the Document authorizing it do not show that it was intended that there should not be an Umpire, or provide otherwise for the Appointment of an Umpire, the Two Arbitrators may appoint an Umpire at any Time within the Period during which they have Power to make an Award, unless they be called upon by Notice as aforesaid to make the Appointment sooner.

Award to be made in Three Months, unless Parties or Court enlarge Time.

XV. The Arbitrator acting under any such Document or compulsory Order of Reference as aforesaid, or under any Order referring the Award back, shall make his Award under his Hand, and (unless such Document or Order respectively shall contain a different Limit of Time) within Three Months after he shall have been appointed, and shall have entered on the Reference, or shall have been called upon to act by a Notice in Writing from any Party, but the Parties may by Consent in Writing enlarge the Term for making the Award; and it shall be lawful for the Superior Court of which such Submission, Document, or Order is or may be made a Rule or Order, or for any Judge thereof, for good Cause to be stated in the Rule or Order for Enlargement, from Time to Time to enlarge the Term for making the Award; and if no Period be stated for the Enlargement in such Consent or Order for Enlargement, it shall be deemed to be an Enlargement for One Month; and in any Case where an Umpire shall have been appointed it shall be lawful for him to enter on the Reference in lieu of the Arbitrators, if the latter shall have allowed their Time or their extended Time to expire without making an Award, or shall have delivered to any Party or to the Umpire a Notice in Writing stating that they cannot agree.

Rule to deliver Possession of Land pursuant to Award to be enforced as a Judgment in Ejectment.

XVI. When any Award made on any such Submission, Document, or Order of Reference as aforesaid directs that Possession of any Lands or Tenements capable of being the Subject of an Action of Ejectment shall be delivered to any Party, either forthwith or at any future Time, or that any such Party is entitled to the Possession of any such Lands or Tenements, it shall be lawful for the Court of which the Document authorizing the Reference is or is made a Rule or Order to order any Party to the Reference who shall be in possession of any such Lands or Tenements, or any Person in possession of the same claiming under or put in possession by him since the making of the Document authorizing the Reference, to deliver Possession of the same to the Party entitled thereto, pursuant to the Award, and such Rule or Order to deliver Possession shall have the Effect of a Judgment in Ejectment against every such Party or Person named in it, and Execution may issue, and Possession shall be delivered by the Sheriff as on a Judgment in Ejectment.

Agreement or Submission in Writing may be made Rule of Court, unless a contrary Intention appear.

XVII. Every Agreement or Submission to Arbitration by Consent, whether by Deed or Instrument in Writing not under Seal, may be made a Rule of any One of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity at Westminster, on the Application of any Party thereto, unless such Agreement or Submission contain Words purporting that the Parties intend that it should not be made a Rule of Court; and if in any such Agreement or Submission it is provided that the same shall or may be made a Rule of One in particular of such Superior Courts, it may be made a Rule of that Court only; and if when there is no such Provision a Case be stated in the Award for the Opinion of One of the Superior Courts, and such Court be specified in the Award, and the Document authorizing the Reference have not, before the Publication of the Award to the Parties, been made a Rule of Court, such Document may be made a Rule only of the Court specified in the Award; and when in any Case the Document authorizing the Reference is or has been made a Rule or Order of any One of such Superior Courts, no other of such Courts shall have any Jurisdiction to entertain any Motion respecting the Arbitration or Award.

Speeches to the Jury.

XVIII. Upon the Trial of any Cause the Addresses to the Jury shall be regulated as follows: The Party who begins, or his Counsel, shall be allowed, in the event of his Opponent not announcing at the Close of the Case of the Party who begins his Intention to adduce Evidence, to address the Jury a Second Time at the Close of such Case, for the Purpose of summing up the Evidence; and the Party on the other Side, or his Counsel, shall be allowed to open the Case, and also to sum up the Evidence (if any); and the Right to reply shall be the same as at present.

Power to adjourn Trial.

XIX. It shall be lawful for the Court or Judge, at the Trial of any Cause, where they or he may deem it right for the Purposes of Justice, to order an Adjournment for such Time, and subject to such Terms and Conditions as to Costs, and otherwise, as they or he may think fit.

Affirmation instead of Oath in certain Cases.

XX. If any Person called as a Witness, or required or desiring to make an Affidavit or Deposition, shall refuse or be unwilling from alleged conscientious Motives to be sworn, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge or other presiding Officer, or Person qualified to take Affidavits or Depositions, upon being satisfied of the Sincerity of such Objection, to permit such Person, instead of being sworn, to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Words following; videlicet,

'I A.B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare, That the taking of any Oath is, according to my religious Belief, unlawful; and I do also solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare, &c.'

Which solemn Affirmation and Declaration shall be of the same Force and Effect as if such Person had taken an Oath in the usual Form.

XXI. If

XXI. If any Person making such solemn Affirmation or Declaration shall wilfully, falsely, and corruptly affirm or declare any Matter or Thing, which, if the same had been sworn in the usual Form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, every such Person so offending shall incur the same Penalties as by the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom are or may be enacted or provided against Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury. Persons making a false Affirmation be subject to the same Punishment as for Perjury.

XXII. A Party producing a Witness shall not be allowed to impeach his Credit by general Evidence of bad Character, but he may, in case the Witness shall in the Opinion of the Judge prove adverse, contradict him by other Evidence, or, by Leave of the Judge, prove that he has made at other Times a Statement inconsistent with his present Testimony; but before such last-mentioned Proof can be given, the Circumstances of the supposed Statement, sufficient to designate the particular Occasion, must be mentioned to the Witness, and he must be asked whether or not he has made such Statement. How far a Party may discredit his own Witness.

XXIII. If a Witness, upon Cross-examination as to a former Statement made by him relative to the Subject Matter of the Cause, and inconsistent with his present Testimony, does not distinctly admit that he has made such Statement, Proof may be given that he did in fact make it; but before such Proof can be given, the Circumstances of the supposed Statement, sufficient to designate the particular Occasion, must be mentioned to the Witness, and he must be asked whether or not he has made such Statement. Proof of contradictory Statements of adverse Witness.

XXIV. A Witness may be cross-examined as to previous Statements made by him in Writing, or reduced into Writing, relative to the Subject Matter of the Cause without such Writing being shown to him; but if it is intended to contradict such Witness by the Writing, his Attention must, before such contradictory Proof can be given, be called to those Parts of the Writing which are to be used for the Purpose of so contradicting him: Provided always, that it shall be competent for the Judge, at any Time during the Trial, to require the Production of the Writing for his Inspection, and he may thereupon make such Use of it for the Purposes of the Trial as he shall think fit. Cross-examination as to previous Statements in Writing.

XXV. A Witness in any Cause may be questioned as to whether he has been convicted of any Felony or Misdemeanor, and, upon being so questioned, if he either denies the Fact, or refuses to answer, it shall be lawful for the opposite Party to prove such Conviction; and a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only (omitting the formal Part) of the Indictment and Conviction for such Offence, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court, or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Court where the Offender was convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk or Officer (for which Certificate a Fee of Five Shillings and no more shall be demanded or taken), shall, upon Proof of the Identity of the Person, be sufficient Evidence of the said Conviction, without Proof of the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same. Proof of previous Conviction of a Witness may be given.

XXVI. It shall not be necessary to prove by the attesting Witness any Instrument to the Validity of which Attestation is not requisite; and such Instrument may be proved by Admission, or otherwise, as if there had been no attesting Witness thereto. Attesting Witness need not be called.

XXVII. Comparison of a disputed Writing with any Writing proved to the Satisfaction of the Judge to be genuine shall be permitted to be made by Witnesses; and such Writings, and the Evidence of Witnesses respecting the same, may be submitted to the Court and Jury as Evidence of the Genuineness, or otherwise, of the Writing in dispute. Comparison of disputed Writing.

XXVIII. Upon the Production of any Document as Evidence at the Trial of any Cause, it shall be the Duty of the Officer of the Court whose Duty it is to read such Document to call the Attention of the Judge to any Omission or Insufficiency of the Stamp; and the Document, if unstamped, or not sufficiently stamped, shall not be received in Evidence until the whole or (as the Case may be) the Deficiency of the Stamp Duty, and the Penalty required by Statute, together with the additional Penalty of One Pound, shall have been paid. Provision for stamping Documents at the Trial.

XXIX. Such Officer of the Court shall, upon Payment to him of the whole or (as the Case may be) of the Deficiency of the Stamp Duty payable upon or in respect of such Document, and of the Penalty required by Statute, and of the additional Penalty of One Pound, give a Receipt for the Amount of the Duty or Deficiency which the Judge shall determine to be payable, and also of the Penalty, and thereupon such Document shall be admissible in Evidence, saving all just Exceptions on other Grounds; and an Entry of the Fact of such Payment and of the Amount thereof shall be made in a Book kept by such Officer; and such Officer shall, at the End of each Sittings or Assizes (as the Case may be), duly make a Return to the Commissioners of the Inland Revenue of the Monies, if any, which he has so received by way of Duty or Penalty, distinguishing between such Monies, and stating the Name of the Cause and of the Parties from whom he received such Monies, and the Date, if any, and Description of the Document for the Purpose of identifying the same; and he shall pay over the said Monies to the Receiver General of the Inland Revenue, or to such Person as the said Commissioners shall appoint or authorize to receive the same; and in case such Officer shall neglect or refuse to furnish such Account, or to pay over any of the Monies so received by him as aforesaid, he shall be liable to be proceeded against in the Manner directed by the Eighth Section of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal certain Stamp Duties, and to grant others in lieu thereof, and to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties; and the said Commissioners shall, upon Request, and Production of the Receipt herein-before mentioned, cause such Documents to be stamped with the proper Stamp or Stamps in respect of the Sums so paid as aforesaid: Officer of the Court to receive the Duty and Penalty. 13 & 14 Vict. c. 97.

said: Provided always, that the aforesaid Enactment shall not extend to any Document which cannot now be stamped after the Execution thereof on Payment of the Duty and a Penalty.

Documents not liable to Stamp Duty.

XXX. No Document made or required under the Provisions of this Act shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

No new Trial for ruling as to Stamp.

XXXI. No new Trial shall be granted by reason of the ruling of any Judge that the Stamp upon any Document is sufficient, or that the Document does not require a Stamp.

Error may be brought on a Special Case.

XXXII. Error may be brought upon a Judgment upon a Special Case in the same Manner as upon a Judgment upon a Special Verdict, unless the Parties agree to the contrary; and the Proceedings for bringing a Special Case before the Court of Error shall, as nearly as may be, be the same as in the Case of a Special Verdict; and the Court of Error shall either affirm the Judgment or give the same Judgment as ought to have been given in the Court in which it was originally decided, the said Court of Error being required to draw any Inferences of Fact from the Facts stated in such Special Case which the Court where it was originally decided ought to have drawn.

Grounds to be stated in Rule for new Trial.

XXXIII. In every Rule Nisi for a new Trial or to enter a Verdict or Nonsuit, the Grounds upon which such Rule shall have been granted shall be shortly stated therein.

If Rule refused, Party may appeal.

XXXIV. In all Cases of Rules to enter a Verdict or Nonsuit upon a Point reserved at the Trial, if the Rule to show Cause be refused or granted and then discharged or made absolute, the Party decided against may appeal.

Appeal upon Rule discharged or absolute.

XXXV. In all Cases of Motions for a new Trial upon the Ground that the Judge has not ruled according to Law, if the Rule to show Cause be refused, or if granted be then discharged or made absolute, the Party decided against may appeal, provided any One of the Judges dissent from the Rule being refused, or, when granted, being discharged or made absolute, as the Case may be, or, provided the Court in its Discretion think fit that an Appeal should be allowed; provided that where the Application for a new Trial is upon Matter of Discretion only, as on the Ground that the Verdict was against the Weight of Evidence or otherwise, no such Appeal shall be allowed.

Courts of Error to be Courts of Appeal.

XXXVI. The Court of Error, the Exchequer Chamber, and the House of Lords shall be Courts of Appeal for the Purposes of this Act.

Notice of Appeal.

XXXVII. No Appeal shall be allowed unless Notice thereof be given in Writing to the opposite Party or his Attorney, and to One of the Masters of the Court, within Four Days after the Decision complained of, or such further Time as may be allowed by the Court or a Judge.

Bail.

XXXVIII. Notice of Appeal shall be a Stay of Execution, provided Bail to pay the Sum recovered and Costs, or to pay Costs where the Appellant was Plaintiff below, be given, in like Manner and to the same Amount as Bail in Error, within Eight Days after the Decision complained of, or before Execution delivered to the Sheriff.

Form of Appeal.

XXXIX. The Appeal herein-before mentioned shall be upon a Case to be stated by the Parties, (and in case of Difference, to be settled by the Court or a Judge of the Court appealed from,) in which Case shall be set forth so much of the Pleadings, Evidence, and the Ruling or Judgment objected to, as may be necessary to raise the Question for the Decision of the Court of Appeal.

Rule granted on Appeal, how disposed of.

XL. When the Appeal is from the Refusal of the Court below to grant a Rule to show Cause, and the Court of Appeal grant such Rule, such Rule shall be argued and disposed of in the Court of Appeal.

Judgment Court of Appeal.

XLI. The Court of Appeal shall give such Judgment as ought to have been given in the Court below; and all such further Proceedings may be taken thereupon as if the Judgment had been given by the Court in which the Record originated.

Powers of Court of Appeal as to Costs, &c.

XLII. The Court of Appeal shall have Power to adjudge Payment of Costs, and to order Restitution; and they shall have the same Powers as the Court of Error in respect of awarding Process and otherwise.

Error upon Award of Trial de novo.

XLIII. Upon an Award of a Trial de novo by any One of the Superior Courts or by the Court of Error, upon Matter appearing upon the Record, Error may at once be brought; and if the Judgment in such or any other Case be affirmed in Error, it shall be lawful for the Court of Error to adjudge Costs to the Defendant in Error.

Payment of Costs upon new Trial.

XLIV. When a new Trial is granted, on the Ground that the Verdict was against Evidence, the Costs of the First Trial shall abide the Event, unless the Court shall otherwise order.

Affidavits on new Matter.

XLV. Upon Motions founded upon Affidavits it shall be lawful for either Party, with Leave of the Court or a Judge, to make Affidavits in answer to the Affidavits of the opposite Party, upon any new Matter arising out of such Affidavits, subject to all such Rules as shall hereafter be made respecting such Affidavits.

Power to Court or Judge to direct oral Examinations of Witnesses.

XLVI. Upon the hearing of any Motion or Summons it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge, at their or his Discretion, and upon such Terms as they or he shall think reasonable, from Time to Time to order such Documents as they or he may think fit to be produced, and such Witnesses as they or he may think necessary to appear, and be examined viva voce, either before such Court or Judge, or before the Master, and upon hearing such Evidence, or reading the Report of such Master, to make such Rule or Order as may be just.

XLVII. The

Proceedings before and upon such Examination.

XLVII. The Court or Judge may by such Rule or Order, or any subsequent Rule or Order, command the Attendance of the Witnesses named therein, for the Purpose of being examined, or the Production of any Writings or other Documents to be mentioned in such Rule or Order; and such Rule or Order shall be proceeded upon in the same Manner, and shall have the same Force and Effect, as a Rule of the Court under an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable Courts of Law to order the Examination of Witnesses upon Interrogatories or otherwise; and it shall be lawful for the Court, or Judge, or Master to adjourn the Examination from Time to Time as Occasion may require; and the Proceedings upon such Examination shall be conducted, and the Depositions taken down, as nearly as may be, in the Mode now in use with respect to the vivâ voce Examination of Witnesses under the last-mentioned Act. 1 W. 4. c. 22.

Examination of Person who refuses to make an Affidavit.

XLVIII. Any Party to any Civil Action or other Civil Proceeding in any of the Superior Courts, requiring the Affidavit of a Person who refuses to make an Affidavit, may apply by Summons for an Order to such Person to appear and be examined upon Oath before a Judge or Master, to whom it may be most convenient to refer such Examination, as to the Matters concerning which he has refused to make an Affidavit; and a Judge may, if he think fit, make such Order for the Attendance of such Person before the Person therein appointed to take such Examination, for the Purpose of being examined as aforesaid, and for the Production of any Writings or Documents to be mentioned in such Order, and may therein impose such Terms as to such Examination, and the Costs of the Application and Proceedings thereon, as he shall think just.

Proceedings upon Order for Examination.

XLIX. Such Order shall be proceeded upon in like Manner as an Order made under the herein-before mentioned Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and the Examination thereon shall be conducted, and the Depositions taken down and returned, as nearly as may be, in the Mode now used on vivâ voce Examinations under the said Act of Parliament.

Discovery of Documents.

L. Upon the Application of either Party to any Cause or other Civil Proceeding in any of the Superior Courts, upon an Affidavit by such Party of his Belief that any Document, to the Production of which he is entitled for the Purpose of Discovery or otherwise, is in the Possession or Power of the opposite Party, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to order that the Party against whom such Application is made, or if such Party is a Body Corporate, that some Officer to be named of such Body Corporate, shall answer on Affidavit, stating what Documents he or they has or have in his or their Possession or Power relating to the Matters in dispute, or what he knows as to the Custody they or any of them are in, and whether he or they objects or object (and if so, on what Grounds,) to the Production of such as are in his or their Possession or Power; and upon such Affidavit being made the Court or Judge may make such further Order thereon as shall be just.

Power to deliver written Interrogatories to opposite Party.

LI. In all Causes in any of the Superior Courts, by Order of the Court or a Judge, the Plaintiff may, with the Declaration, and the Defendant may, with the Plea, or either of them by Leave of the Court or a Judge may, at any other Time, deliver to the opposite Party or his Attorney (provided such Party, if not a Body Corporate, would be liable to be called and examined as a Witness upon such Matter) Interrogatories in Writing upon any Matter as to which Discovery may be sought, and require such Party, or in the Case of a Body Corporate, any of the Officers of such Body Corporate, within Ten Days to answer the Questions in Writing by Affidavit, to be sworn and filed in the ordinary Way; and any Party or Officer omitting, without just Cause, sufficiently to answer all Questions as to which a Discovery may be sought within the above Time, or such extended Time as the Court or a Judge shall allow, shall be deemed to have committed a Contempt of the Court, and shall be liable to be proceeded against accordingly.

Affidavits by Party proposing to interrogate, and his Attorney.

LII. The Application for such Order shall be made upon an Affidavit of the Party proposing to interrogate, and his Attorney or Agent, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate, of their Attorney or Agent, stating that the Deponents or Deponent believe or believes that the Party proposing to interrogate, whether Plaintiff or Defendant, will derive material Benefit in the Cause from the Discovery which he seeks, that there is a good Cause of Action or Defence upon the Merits, and, if the Application be made on the Part of the Defendant, that the Discovery is not sought for the Purpose of Delay; provided that where it shall happen, from unavoidable Circumstances, that the Plaintiff or Defendant cannot join in such Affidavit, the Court or Judge may, if they or he think fit, upon Affidavit of such Circumstances by which the Party is prevented from so joining therein, allow and order that the Interrogatories may be delivered without such Affidavit.

Oral Examination of Parties, when to be allowed.

LIII. In Case of Omission, without just Cause, to answer sufficiently such written Interrogatories, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, at their or his Discretion, to direct an oral Examination of the interrogated Party, as to such Points as they or he may direct, before a Judge or Master; and the Court or Judge may by such Rule or Order, or any subsequent Rule or Order, command the Attendance of such Party or Parties before the Person appointed to take such Examination, for the Purpose of being orally examined as aforesaid, or the Production of any Writings or other Documents to be mentioned in such Rule or Order, and may impose therein such Terms as to such Examination, and the Costs of the Application, and of the Proceedings thereon, and otherwise, as to such Court or Judge shall seem just.

LIV. Such

Proceedings upon such Rule or Order.

LIV. Such Rule or Order shall have the same Force and Effect, and may be proceeded upon in like Manner, as an Order made under the said herein-before mentioned Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth.

Depositions upon such Examinations to be returned to Master's Office.

1 W. 4. c. 22.

LV. Whenever, by virtue of this Act, an Examination of any Witness or Witnesses has been taken before a Judge of One of the said Superior Courts, or before a Master, the Depositions taken down by such Examiner shall be returned to and kept in the Master's Office of the Court in which the Proceedings are pending; and Office Copies of such Depositions may be given out, and the Depositions may be otherwise used, in the same Manner as in the Case of Depositions taken under the herein-before mentioned Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth.

Examiner may make special Report to the Court.

LVI. It shall be lawful for every Judge or Master named in any such Rule or Order as aforesaid for taking Examinations under this Act, and he is hereby required to make, if need be, a special Report to the Court in which such Proceedings are pending, touching such Examination, and the Conduct or Absence of any Witness or other Person thereon or relating thereto; and the Court is hereby authorized to institute such Proceedings and make such Order and Orders upon such Report as Justice may require, and as may be instituted and made in any Case of Contempt of the Court.

Costs of Rule &c. to be in the Discretion of the Court.

LVII. The Costs of every Application for any Rule or Order to be made for the Examination of Witnesses by virtue of this Act, and of the Rule or Order and Proceedings thereon, shall be in the Discretion of the Court or Judge by whom such Rule or Order is made.

Inspection by Jury, of Parties, or Witnesses.

LVIII. Either Party shall be at liberty to apply to the Court or a Judge for a Rule or Order for the Inspection by the Jury, or by himself, or by his Witnesses, of any Real or Personal Property the Inspection of which may be material to the proper Determination of the Question in dispute; and it shall be lawful for the Court, or a Judge, if they or he think fit, to make such Rule or Order, upon such Terms as to Costs and otherwise as such Court or Judge may direct: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Provisions of the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," or any previous Act, as to obtaining a View by a Jury: Provided also, that all Rules and Regulations now in force and applicable to the Proceedings by View under the said last-mentioned Act shall be held to apply to Proceedings for Inspection by a Jury under the Provisions of this Act, or as near thereto as may be.

Rule or Order for summoning Jury.

LIX. The several Courts, or any Judge thereof, may make all such Rules or Orders upon the Sheriff or other Person as may be necessary to procure the Attendance of a Special or Common Jury for the Trial of any Cause or Matter depending in such Courts, at such Time and Place and in such Manner as they or he may think fit.

Examination of Judgment Debtor as to Debts due to him.

LX. It shall be lawful for any Creditor who has obtained a Judgment in any of the Superior Courts to apply to the Court or a Judge for a Rule or Order that the Judgment Debtor should be orally examined as to any and what Debts are owing to him before a Master of the Court, or such other Person as the Court or Judge shall appoint; and the Court or Judge may make such Rule or Order for the Examination of such Judgment Debtor, and for the Production of any Books or Documents, and the Examination shall be conducted in the same Manner as in the Case of an oral Examination of an opposite Party before a Master under this Act.

Judge may order an Attachment of Debts.

LXI. It shall be lawful for a Judge, upon the ex-parte Application of such Judgment Creditor, either before or after such oral Examination, and upon Affidavit by himself or his Attorney stating that Judgment has been recovered, and that it is still unsatisfied, and to what Amount, and that any other Person is indebted to the Judgment Debtor, and is within the Jurisdiction, to order that all Debts owing or accruing from such Third Person (herein-after called the Garnishee) to the Judgment Debtor shall be attached to answer the Judgment Debt; and by the same or any subsequent Order it may be ordered that the Garnishee shall appear before the Judge or a Master of the Court, as such Judge shall appoint, to show Cause why he should not pay the Judgment Creditor the Debt due from him to the Judgment Debtor, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the Judgment Debt.

Order for Attachment to bind Debts.

LXII. Service of an Order that Debts due or accruing to the Judgment Debtor shall be attached, or Notice thereof to the Garnishee, in such Manner as the Judge shall direct, shall bind such Debts in his Hands.

Proceedings to levy Amount due from Garnishee to Judgment Debtor.

LXIII. If the Garnishee does not forthwith pay into Court the Amount due from him to the Judgment Debtor or an Amount equal to the Judgment Debt, and does not dispute the Debt due or claimed to be due from him to the Judgment Debtor, or if he does not appear upon Summons, then the Judge may order Execution to issue, and it may be sued forth accordingly, without any previous Writ or Process, to levy the Amount due from such Garnishee towards Satisfaction of the Judgment Debt.

Judge may allow Judgment Creditor to sue Garnishee.

LXIV. If the Garnishee disputes his Liability, the Judge, instead of making an Order that Execution shall issue, may order that the Judgment Creditor shall be at liberty to proceed against the Garnishee by Writ, calling upon him to show Cause why there should not be Execution against him for the alleged Debt, or for the Amount due to the Judgment Debtor, if less than the Judgment Debt, and for Costs of Suit; and the Proceedings upon such Suit shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as upon a Writ of Revivor issued under "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852."

Garnishee discharged.

LXV. Payment made by or Execution levied upon the Garnishee under any such Proceeding as aforesaid shall be a valid Discharge to him as against the Judgment Debtor to the Amount paid or levied, although such Proceeding may be set aside or the Judgment reversed.

LXVI. In

LXVI. In each of the Superior Courts there shall be kept at the Master's Office a Debt Attachment Book, and in such Book Entries shall be made of the Attachment and Proceedings thereon, with Names, Dates, and Statements of the Amount recovered, and otherwise; and the Mode of keeping such Books shall be the same in all the Courts; and Copies of any Entries made therein may be taken by any Person, upon Application to any Master. Attachment Book to be kept by the Masters of each Court.

LXVII. The Costs of any Application for an Attachment of Debt under this Act, and of any Proceedings arising from or incidental to such Application, shall be in the Discretion of the Court or a Judge. Costs of Application.

LXVIII. The Plaintiff in any Action in any of the Superior Courts, except Replevin and Ejectment, may endorse upon the Writ and Copy to be served a Notice that the Plaintiff intends to claim a Writ of Mandamus, and the Plaintiff may thereupon claim in the Declaration, either together with any other Demand which may now be enforced in such Action, or separately, a Writ of Mandamus commanding the Defendant to fulfil any Duty in the Fulfilment of which the Plaintiff is personally interested. Action for Mandamus to enforce the Performance of Duties.

LXIX. The Declaration in such Action shall set forth sufficient Grounds upon which such Claim is founded, and shall set forth that the Plaintiff is personally interested therein, and that he sustains or may sustain Damage by the Nonperformance of such Duty, and that Performance thereof has been demanded by him, and refused or neglected. Declaration in Action for Mandamus.

LXX. The Pleadings and other Proceedings in any Action in which a Writ of Mandamus is claimed shall be the same in all respects, as nearly as may be, and Costs shall be recoverable by either Party, as in an ordinary Action for the Recovery of Damages. Proceedings upon Claim for Mandamus.

LXXI. In case Judgment shall be given to the Plaintiff that a Mandamus do issue, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Judgment is given, if it shall see fit, besides issuing Execution in the ordinary Way for the Costs and Damages, also to issue a peremptory Writ of Mandamus to the Defendant, commanding him forthwith to perform the Duty to be enforced. Judgment and Execution.

LXXII. The Writ need not recite the Declaration or other Proceedings, or the Matter therein stated, but shall simply command the Performance of the Duty, and in other respects shall be in the Form of an ordinary Writ of Execution, except that it shall be directed to the Party and not to the Sheriff, and may be issued in Term or Vacation, and returnable forthwith; and no Return thereto, except that of Compliance, shall be allowed, but Time to return it may, upon sufficient Grounds, be allowed by the Court or a Judge, either with or without Terms. Form of peremptory Writ.

LXXIII. The Writ of Mandamus so issued as aforesaid shall have the same Force and Effect as a peremptory Writ of Mandamus issued out of the Court of Queen's Bench, and in case of Disobedience may be enforced by Attachment. Effect of Writ of Mandamus, &c.

LXXIV. The Court may, upon Application by the Plaintiff, besides or instead of proceeding against the disobedient Party by Attachment, direct that the Act required to be done may be done by the Plaintiff, or some other Person appointed by the Court, at the Expense of the Defendant; and upon the Act being done, the Amount of such Expense may be ascertained by the Court, either by Writ of Inquiry or Reference to a Master, as the Court or a Judge may order; and the Court may order Payment of the Amount of such Expenses and Costs, and enforce Payment thereof by Execution. The Court may order the Act to be done at the Expense of the Defendant.

LXXV. Nothing herein contained shall take away the Jurisdiction of the Court of Queen's Bench to grant Writs of Mandamus; nor shall any Writ of Mandamus issued out of that Court be invalid by reason of the Right of the Prosecutor to proceed by Action for Mandamus under this Act. Prerogative Writ of Mandamus preserved.

LXXVI. Upon Application by Motion for any Writ of Mandamus in the Court of Queen's Bench, the Rule may in all Cases be absolute in the first instance, if the Court shall think fit; and the Writ may bear Teste on the Day of its issuing, and may be made returnable forthwith, whether in Term or in Vacation, but Time may be allowed to return it, by the Court or a Judge, either with or without Terms. Proceedings for Prerogative Writ of Mandamus, accelerated.

LXXVII. The Provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," and of this Act, so far as they are applicable, shall apply to the Pleadings and Proceedings upon a Prerogative Writ of Mandamus issued by the Court of Queen's Bench. Proceedings on Prerogative Writ of Mandamus.

LXXVIII. The Court or a Judge shall have Power, if they or he see fit so to do, upon the Application of the Plaintiff in any Action for the Detention of any Chattel, to order that Execution shall issue for the Return of the Chattel detained, without giving the Defendant the Option of retaining such Chattel upon paying the Value assessed, and that if the said Chattel cannot be found, and unless the Court or a Judge should otherwise order, the Sheriff shall distrain the Defendant by all his Lands and Chattels in the said Sheriff's Bailiwick, till the Defendant render such Chattel, or, at the Option of the Plaintiff, that he cause to be made of the Defendant's Goods the assessed Value of such Chattel; provided that the Plaintiff shall, either by the same or a separate Writ of Execution, be entitled to have made of the Defendant's Goods the Damages, Costs, and Interest in such Action. Specific Delivery of Chattels.

LXXIX. In all Cases of Breach of Contract or other Injury, where the Party injured is entitled to maintain and has brought an Action, he may, in like Case and Manner as herein-before provided with respect to Mandamus, claim a Writ of Injunction against the Repetition or Continuance of such Breach of Contract, or other Injury, or the Committal of any Breach of Contract or Injury of a like kind, arising out of the same Contract, or relating to the same Property or Right; and he may also in the same Action include a Claim for Damages or other Redress. Claim of Writ of Injunction.

LXXX. The Form of Writ of Summons and Endorsement thereon.

LXXX. The Writ of Summons in such Action shall be in the same Form as the Writ of Summons in any Personal Action, but on every such Writ and Copy thereof there shall be endorsed a Notice that in default of Appearance the Plaintiff may, besides proceeding to Judgment and Execution for Damages and Costs, apply for and obtain a Writ of Injunction.

Form of Proceedings and of Judgment.

LXXXI. The Proceedings in such Action shall be the same, as nearly as may be, and subject to the like Control, as the Proceedings in an Action to obtain a Mandamus under the Provisions herein-before contained; and in such Action Judgment may be given that the Writ of Injunction do or do not issue, as Justice may require; and in case of Disobedience such Writ of Injunction may be enforced by Attachment by the Court, or, when such Courts shall not be sitting, by a Judge.

Writ of Injunction may be applied for at any Stage of the Cause.

LXXXII. It shall be lawful for the Plaintiff at any Time after the Commencement of the Action, and whether before or after Judgment, to apply ex parte to the Court or a Judge for a Writ of Injunction to restrain the Defendant in such Action from the Repetition or Continuance of the wrongful Act or Breach of Contract complained of, or the Committal of any Breach of Contract or Injury of a like kind, arising out of the same Contract, or relating to the same Property or Right; and such Writ may be granted or denied by the Court or Judge upon such Terms as to the Duration of the Writ, keeping an Account, giving Security, or otherwise, as to such Court or Judge shall seem reasonable and just, and in case of Disobedience such Writ may be enforced by Attachment by the Court, or, when such Courts shall not be sitting, by a Judge: Provided always, that any Order for a Writ of Injunction made by a Judge, or any Writ issued by virtue thereof, may be discharged or varied or set aside by the Court, on Application made thereto by any Party dissatisfied with such Order.

Equitable Defence may be pleaded.

LXXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Defendant or Plaintiff in replevin in any Cause in any of the Superior Courts in which, if Judgment were obtained, he would be entitled to Relief against such Judgment on equitable Grounds, to plead the Facts which entitle him to such Relief by way of Defence, and the said Courts are hereby empowered to receive such Defence by way of Plea; provided that such Plea shall begin with the Words "For Defence on equitable Grounds," or Words to the like Effect.

Equitable Defence after Judgment.

LXXXIV. Any such Matter which, if it arose before or during the Time for pleading, would be an Answer to the Action by way of Plea, may, if it arise after the Lapse of the Period during which it could be pleaded, be set up by way of Auditâ querelâ.

Equitable Replication.

LXXXV. The Plaintiff may reply, in answer to any Plea of the Defendant, Facts which avoid such Plea upon equitable Grounds; provided that such Replication shall begin with the Words "For Replication on equitable Grounds," or Words to the like Effect.

Court or Judge may strike out equitable Plea or Replication.

LXXXVI. Provided always, that in case it shall appear to the Court, or any Judge thereof, that any such equitable Plea or equitable Replication cannot be dealt with by a Court of Law so as to do Justice between the Parties, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to order the same to be struck out on such Terms as to Costs and otherwise as to such Court or Judge may seem reasonable.

Actions on lost Instruments.

LXXXVII. In case of any Action founded upon a Bill of Exchange or other negotiable Instrument, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to order that the Loss of such Instrument shall not be set up, provided an Indemnity is given, to the Satisfaction of the Court or Judge, or a Master, against the Claims of any other Person upon such negotiable Instrument.

Jurisdiction under Shipowners Act.

53 G. 3. c. 159.

LXXXVIII. The Superior Courts or any Judge thereof may, upon summary Application, by Rule or Order, exercise such and the like Jurisdiction as may, under the Provisions of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to limit the Responsibility of Shipowners in certain Cases, be exercised by any Court of Equity.

False Evidence.

LXXXIX. Any Person who shall, upon any Examination upon Oath or Affirmation, or in any Affidavit in Proceedings under this Act, wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, or wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm anything which shall be false, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to the Penalties of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Execution to fix Bail.

XC. Writs of Execution to fix Bail may be tested and returnable in Vacation.

Scire facias on Judgment of Assets in futuro.

XCI. Proceedings against Executors upon a Judgment of Assets in futuro may be had and taken in the Manner provided by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," as to Writs of Revivor.

To compel Continuance or Abandonment of Action in case of Death.

XCII. Where an Action would, but for the Provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," have abated by reason of the Death of either Party, and in which the Proceedings may be revived and continued under that Act, the Defendant or Person against whom the Action may be so continued may apply by Summons to compel the Plaintiff, or Person entitled to proceed with the Action in the Room of the Plaintiff, to proceed according to the Provisions of the said Act within such Time as the Judge shall order; and in default of such Proceeding the Defendant or other Person against whom the Action may be so continued as aforesaid shall be entitled to enter a Suggestion of such Default, and of the representative Character of the Person by or against whom the Action may be proceeded with, as the Case may be, and to have Judgment for the Costs of the Action and Suggestion against the Plaintiff, or against the Person entitled to proceed in his Room, as the Case may be, and in the latter Case to be levied of the Goods of the Testator or Intestate.

Claimant in Second Ejectment for same

XCIII. If any Person shall bring an Action of Ejectment after a prior Action of Ejectment for the same Premises has been or shall have been unsuccessfully brought by such Person, or by any Person through through or under whom he claims against the same Defendant, or against any Person through or under whom he defends, the Court or a Judge may, if they or he think fit, on the Application of the Defendant at any Time after such Defendant has appeared to the Writ, order that the Plaintiff shall give to the Defendant Security for the Payment of the Defendant's Costs, and that all further Proceedings in the Cause shall be stayed until such Security be given, whether the prior Action has been or shall have been disposed of by Discontinuance, or by Nonsuit, or by Judgment for the Defendant. Premises against same Defendant may be ordered to give Security for Costs.

XCIV. No Writ of Execution issued before the Twenty-fourth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, if unexecuted, shall remain in force for more than Six Calendar Months after the Twenty-fourth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, unless the same be renewed as herein-after mentioned, but all such Writs may be renewed from Time to Time in the same Manner as Writs issued after the Twenty-fourth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two may now be renewed under the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," Section CXXIV. As to Writs of Execution issued before 24th October 1852.

XCV. The Superior Courts may appoint and hold Sittings either in Banc, or for the Trial of Issues in Fact by Judge or Jury, at any Time or Times, whether in Term or Vacation, not being between the Tenth of August and the Twenty-fourth of October. Courts may appoint Sittings.

XCVI. It shall be lawful for the Superior Courts of Common Law, and every Judge thereof, and any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, at all Times to amend all Defects and Errors in any Proceedings under the Provisions of this Act, whether there is anything in Writing to amend by or not, and whether the Defect or Error be that of the Party applying to amend or not; and all such Amendments may be made with or without Costs, and upon such Terms as to the Court or Judge may seem fit; and all such Amendments as may be necessary for the Purpose of determining in the existing Suit the real Question in controversy between the Parties shall be so made, if duly applied for. Amendments.

XCVII. It shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, from Time to Time to make all such General Rules and Orders for the effectual Execution of this Act, and of the Intention and Object hereof, and for fixing the Costs to be allowed for and in respect of the Matters herein contained, and the Performance thereof, as in their Judgment shall be necessary or proper, and for that Purpose to meet from Time to Time as Occasion may require: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the Authority or limit the Jurisdiction of the said Courts or of the Judges thereof to make Rules or Orders, or otherwise to regulate and dispose of the Business therein. General Rules may be made by the Judges.

XCVIII. Such new or altered Writs and Forms of Proceedings may be issued, entered, and taken, as may by the Judges of the said Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, be deemed necessary or expedient for giving Effect to the Provisions herein-before contained, and in such Forms as the Judges of such Courts respectively shall from Time to Time think fit to order; and such Writs and Proceedings shall be acted upon and enforced in such and the same Manner as Writs and Proceedings of the said Courts are now acted upon and enforced, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; and any existing Writ or Proceeding the Form of which shall be in any Manner altered in pursuance of this Act shall nevertheless be of the same Force and Virtue as if no Alteration had been made therein, except as far as the Effect thereof may be varied by this Act. New Forms of Writs and other Proceedings.

XCIX. In the Construction of this Act the Word "Court" shall be understood to mean any One of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster; and the Word "Judge" shall be understood to mean a Judge or Baron of any of the said Courts; and the Word "Master" shall be understood to mean a Master of any of the said Courts; and the Word "Action" shall be understood to mean any Personal Action in any of the said Courts. Interpretation of Terms.

C. All the Enactments and Provisions of this Act not relating exclusively to the Sittings for Trials of Causes or Issues in Fact at London or Westminster shall extend and apply to the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and the Court of Pleas at Durham, and Actions and Proceedings therein respectively, subject to the following Modifications: All the Powers given by this Act to the Judges of the said Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster to make General Rules and Orders shall and may be exercised by the respective Judges of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and Court of Pleas at Durham, being Judges of One of the said Common Law Courts at Westminster, or any Two of them respectively, with respect to the said Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and Court of Pleas at Durham respectively, and Matters and Proceedings therein within the Jurisdiction of the same Courts respectively; and all Powers under this Act exercisable by any One Judge of the Superior Courts at Westminster shall and may be exercisable by One Judge of the said Superior Courts of the said Counties Palatine, being also a Judge of One of the said Courts at Westminster, as to Matters and Proceedings in the said Superior Courts of the said Counties Palatine. Provisions relating to Superior Courts to apply to Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and Court of Pleas at Durham.

CI. Provided always, That all the Provisions of this Act applicable to Masters of the said Courts at Westminster shall apply to the respective Prothonotaries of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and Court of Pleas at Durham and their respective Deputies acting in the Execution of the Duties of such Offices, which acting Officers respectively may singly exercise with reference to Matters and Proceedings in the last-mentioned Courts respectively the Powers hereby given to the Masters of the Superior Courts at Westminster. Provisions as to Masters of Superior Courts to apply to Prothonotaries of Palatinate Courts.

CII. Provided

Court of Queen's Bench to be the Court of Appeal from Palatinate Courts.

CII. Provided also, as to Proceedings in Appeal, That the Court of Queen's Bench, being the Court of Error from the said Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and Court of Pleas at Durham respectively, shall also be the Court of Appeal from the said respective Courts for the Purposes of this Act in reference to Motions for New Trials, or to enter Verdicts or Nonsuits previously made to the Judges of the said respective Courts of Common Pleas at Lancaster and Court of Pleas at Durham respectively.

ss. 19 to 32 to apply to every Civil Court in England and Ireland.

CIII. The Enactments contained in Sections Nineteen, Twenty, Twenty-one, Twenty-two, Twenty-three, Twenty-four, Twenty-five, Twenty-six, Twenty-seven, and Twenty-eight, Twenty-nine, Thirty, Thirty-one, and Thirty-two of this Act shall apply and extend to every Court of Civil Judicature in England and Ireland.

Commencement of Act.

CIV. The Provisions of this Act shall come into operation on the Twenty-fourth Day of October in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Her Majesty may direct all or Part of this Act to extend to any Court of Record.

CV. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any Part of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and within One Month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette such Provisions and Rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and any such Order may be in like Manner from Time to Time altered and annulled; and in and by any such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any Powers or Duties incident to the Provisions applied under this Act, or the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, shall and may be exercised with respect to Matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any Orders or Regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the Provisions so applied.

Short Title of Act.

may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short Title.

I. That in citing this Act for any Purpose, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The New River Company's (Hertford Sewerage Diversion) Act, 1854."

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated.

II. That "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be incorporated with this Act.

10 & 11 Vict. c. 17. incorporated.

III. That the Second and Third Sections of "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," and also the Provisions and Clauses of that Act with respect to the "Construction of the Waterworks," with respect to the "Construction of Works for the Accommodation of Lands adjoining the Waterworks," with respect to the "breaking-up Streets for the Purpose of laying Pipes," with respect to the Provision for "guarding against fouling the Water of the Undertakers," and with respect to the "Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and of Penalties, and to the Determination of any other Matter referred to Justices," and with respect to Access to the Special Act, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall extend only to the several Works by this Act authorized to be made; and in construing those Sections of that Act in connexion with this Act, the Words "Waterworks" shall be deemed to include Sewers and Drains.

Power to make Works according to deposited Plan.

IV. 'Whereas a Plan and Section showing the Line and Levels of the Works herein-after particularly 'described, and a Book of Reference containing the Names of the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers, or 'reputed Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of the Lands and Streams in or through which the said Works 'are intended to be made or pass, have been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of 'Hertford:' Be it enacted, That, subject to the Provisions of this Act, the Company may from Time to Time make and maintain the several Works by this Act authorized, and herein-after particularly described, in the Line and in and through the Lands delineated in the Plan of such Works, and described in the Book of Reference relating thereto, and may enter upon, take, and use such of the Lands described or mentioned in the Plan of such Works, and in the said Book of Reference relating thereto, as shall be necessary for the Purposes thereof.

Works authorized as herein named.

V. That the Works by this Act authorized shall comprise the following:

First, a Sewer or Drain commencing in the Parish of Bengeo in the County of Hertford, at the Western End of the public Highway called Port Vale, and terminating in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Hertford, in the said County, at or near the East End of a Bridge over the River Beane called Cow Bridge:

Second, a Sewer or Drain commencing in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Hertford, in the public Highway called the North Road, near to Sele's Mill, and terminating in the said Parish by a Junction with the Sewer or Drain firstly herein-before described at the East End of Cow Bridge aforesaid:

Third, a Sewer or Drain commencing in the same Parish, in the public Highway called the Hertingfordbury Road, at or near the Cottager's Allotment Gardens there, and terminating in the same Parish by a Junction with the said firstly and secondly described Sewers or Drains at the East End of Cow Bridge aforesaid:

Fourth, a Sewer or Drain commencing in the same Parish by a Junction with the first, second, and third herein-before described Sewers or Drains at their Point of Junction at the East End of Cow Bridge aforesaid, and terminating in the Parish of Saint John, Hertford, by a Junction with the intended Sewer or Drain eighthly herein-after described, in the Road leading to the King's Meads, at or near the Hertford Station of the Eastern Counties Railway Company:

Fifth, a Pipe Track, Sewer or Drain commencing in the said Parish of Saint Andrew, Hertford, at the South End of the public Highway called Hartham Lane, and terminating in the Parish of Saint John, Hertford, by a Junction with the fourthly herein-before described Sewer or Drain in certain Lands called Hartham Mead:

Sixth, a Sewer or Drain in the said Parish of Saint John, Hertford, commencing on the Western Side of the Lee Navigation, at or near to Bull's Plain Bridge, and terminating in the same Parish by a Junction with the Drain or Sewer fourthly herein-before described, near the Bridge across the Dicker Mill Head Stream:

Seventh, a River Channel, and other Works connected therewith, on the River Beane, commencing in the said Parish of Saint Andrew, Hertford, at or near the Point of Junction of the said River Beane with the Back Stream from the Waste Gates of Sele's Mill, and terminating in the said Parish of Saint Andrew, Hertford, by a Junction with the River Beane at or near and on the South Side of Cow Bridge aforesaid, and to divert the Waters of the said River Beane and Stream into the said Channel:

Eighth, a Sewer or Drain commencing in the Parish of Brickendon, otherwise Liberty of Brickendon, in the Parish of All Saints, Hertford, in the County of Hertford, on the East Side of the River Lee, at or near a Garden now occupied by Josh. Sterry, and terminating in the said Parish of Saint John, Hertford, in the Road leading to King's Meads by a Junction with the Sewer or Drain fourthly herein-before described, at its Terminus at or near the Hertford Station of the Eastern Counties Railway Company:

Ninth, a Sewer or Drain commencing in the Parish of Saint John, Hertford, aforesaid, in the said Road leading to the said King's Meads at a Point where the said Sewers or Drains fourthly and eighthly herein-before described terminate and unite, and terminating in the Parish of Great Amwell in the County of Hertford, in Amwell Marsh, by a Junction with the River Lee Navigation at at or near the lower Side of Amwell Marsh Lock; which said intended Sewer or Drain will pass from, through, or into the several Parishes, Townships, and Extra-parochial and other Places of Saint John Hertford, Ware, Great Amwell, and Little Amwell, or some of them, all in the County of Hertford.

Company to prevent Impediments in River Beane.

VI. That in constructing any Sewer or other Work, under the Powers of this Act, in, across or under the River Beane, the Company shall so construct the same as not to lessen the present sectional Area of the said River; and no Part of the Top of any Sewer or Pipe which shall be laid in the Bed of the said River shall be higher than One hundred Feet Six Inches above the datum Line of the Sections deposited and referred to in this Act.

Power to make an Outfall to the ninthly-described Sewer into manifold Ditch, &c.

VII. Provided always, That the Company, if they think fit, may make the ninthly-described Sewer or Drain to terminate by an Outfall into such Part of the Manifold Ditch lying below the Tumbling Bay, now fixed and standing across that Ditch, as is within the Limits of Deviation marked on the Plans deposited for the Purposes of this Act, and may forbear to make such Part of that Sewer or Drain as would be between that Outfall into Manifold Ditch and the proposed Junction of that Sewer or Drain with the River Lee Navigation at or near the lower Side of Amwell Marsh Lock.

Company not to discharge Sewage Water into the River Lee until purified.

VIII. Provided always, That the Company shall not at any Time discharge or permit any Sewage or Sewage Water to flow from any of the Sewers or Drains by this Act authorized, immediately or mediately, into any Part of the River Lee or of the River Lee Navigation, until after it has been subjected to the Process of Purification known as Higg's Patent Process, intituled in the Letters Patent thereof "The Means of collecting the Contents of Sewers and Drains in Cities, Towns, and Villages, and for applying the same to agricultural and other useful Purposes," or some other Process which from Time to Time may be in use as the best then known practicable Process for the Purification thereof.

Board of Trade to decide as to Proceeding of Purification.

IX. That if any Question shall arise between the Company and any of the Parties interested in the Waters of the same River or Navigation as to the bonâ fide Compliance with this Provision, the Parties in difference or either of them may refer the Question to the Board of Trade, and that Board may make such Inquiries thereon as it thinks fit, and may declare what in its Opinion is the best then known practicable Process for such Purification; and every such Declaration, until it be superseded by a subsequent Declaration of the Board in the Premises, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be conclusive as to what is the best then known practicable Process for such Purification; and the Expenses from Time to Time incurred by the Board in the Premises shall be ascertained by the Board, and shall be paid by the Parties in difference, or One of them, as the Board directs.

Company to make Embankments, &c., for Construction and Maintenance of Works.

X. That it shall be lawful for the Company to make and maintain all necessary Tunnels, Pipe Tracks, Sluices, Embankments, Aqueducts, Channels of Communication, Filtering Beds, Tanks, Culverts, Engines, Drains, Flood Gates, and other Conveniences for the effectual Construction, Use, and Maintenance of the Works by this Act authorized, and to remove any of their existing Works which may interfere therewith.

Company may cross and divert Roads, &c.

XI. That, subject to the Provisions of the several Acts incorporated herewith, it shall be lawful for the Company to cross, divert, break up, or alter all such Turnpike and other Roads, Highways, Footways, Tunnels, Bridges, Streets, Tramroads, Rivers, Navigations, Streams, Brooks, Watercourses, Drains, Pipes, and Sewers within the Parishes or Places from, in, through, or into which any of the Works will pass or be made as may be necessary for effecting the Objects and Purposes of the intended Works by this Act authorized.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 20. as to Interference with Roads incorporated with this Act.

XII. That the Clauses of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," numbered 53, 54, 55, 56, and 57, relating to the Substitution of other Roads for Roads interfered with, and to the Restoration of Roads interfered with, shall be incorporated with this Act; and in construing those Clauses in connexion with this Act, the expression "the Company" shall mean the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, and the Expression "the Railway" shall mean the Works by this Act authorized to be constructed.

Stream at Amwell to be conveyed over certain Works.

XIII. That in constructing the Works aforesaid, where the same shall pass the Stream now flowing between the Fields numbered 29 and 30 on the said deposited Plans, in Great Amwell aforesaid, the said Stream shall not be in any Manner diverted, but shall be carried under or over the same Works.

Sewer in Ware District to be covered and kept in repair by Company.

XIV. That such Part of the said Sewer herein-before ninthly described as shall pass through or into the District of the Ware Local Board of Health, or any Part thereof, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be covered and not open, and shall, if made, at all Times be maintained and kept in good Repair, Order, and Condition by the Company; and the said Local Board shall have Power to make such Communication therewith as they may think fit for the Purposes of Sewerage.

As to Alteration of Gas and Water Pipes.

XV. That it shall be lawful for the Company, for the Purpose of constructing the Works herein-before mentioned within the Parishes and Places of Bengeo, Saint Andrew Hertford, Saint John Hertford, All Saints Hertford, and Brickendon, in the Town and County of Hertford, to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the Position of any of the Watercourses, Water Pipes, or Gas Pipes, belonging to any of the Houses adjoining or near to the Works, and within the Parishes and Places aforesaid, and also the Mains or Pipes laid down by any Corporation, Company, Society, or Persons who may furnish the Inhabitants of such Houses or Places with Water or Gas, and also to remove all other Obstructions to such Construction, so as the same be respectively done with as little Detriment and Inconvenience to such Corporation, Company, Society, Persons, or Inhabitants as the Circumstances will admit, and be done under the Superintendence and to the reasonable Satisfaction of the Parties to which such Water Pipes or Gas Pipes belong, and of the several Commissioners or Trustees or Persons having Control of the the Pavements, Sewers, Roads, Highways, Streets, Lanes, and other public Passages and Places within the Parish, District, or Place where such Mains, Pipes, or Obstructions shall be situate, or of their Surveyor, if they or he shall think fit to attend after receiving not less than Forty-eight Hours Notice for that Purpose.

Company not to disturb Pipes until they have laid down others.

XVI. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful for the Company to remove or displace any of the Mains or Pipes (other than private Service Pipes), Syphons, Plugs, or other Works belonging to such Corporation, Company, Society, or Persons, or to do anything to impede the Passage of Water or Gas into or through such Mains or Pipes, until good and sufficient Mains or Pipes, Syphons, Plugs, and all other Works necessary or proper for continuing the Supply of Water or Gas as sufficiently as the same was supplied by the Mains or Pipes proposed to be removed or displaced, shall at the Expense of the Company have been first made and laid down in lieu thereof, and be ready for Use in a Position as little varying from that of the Pipes or Mains proposed to be removed or displaced as may be consistent with the Construction of the said Works, and to the Satisfaction of the Surveyor and Engineer of such Corporation, Water or Gas Company or Society, or, in case of Disagreement between such Surveyor or Engineer and the Company, as a Justice shall direct.

Not to lay Pipes contrary to any Act.

XVII. That it shall not be lawful for the Company to lay down any such Pipes contrary to the Regulations of any Act of Parliament relating to such Corporation, Water or Gas Company or Society.

Company to make full Compensation for all Loss or Damage done.

XVIII. That the Company shall make good all Damage done to the Property of the Corporation, or Water or Gas Company or Society, by the Disturbance thereof, and shall make full Compensation to all Parties for any Loss or Damage which they may sustain by reason of any Interference with the Mains, Pipes, or Works of such Corporation, Water or Gas Company or Society, or with the private Service Pipes of any Person supplied by them with Water or Gas.

Lands of Eastern Counties Company not to be taken without Consent.

XIX. 'And whereas Part of the Works by this Act authorized as shown on the Plans so deposited as 'aforesaid may be constructed within the Line of the Fences of the Eastern Counties Railway:' Therefore, notwithstanding this Act or anything therein contained, the Company shall not enter upon, take, or use any Lands of the Eastern Counties Railway Company within the general Line of the Fences which guard that Railway without their previous Consent in Writing under the Hand of their Secretary.

Powers of Eastern Counties Railway Company.

XX. That the Eastern Counties Railway Company may make, and the Company may accept, a Grant in perpetuity, at an annual Rent, of a Right of making, maintaining, and using, according to the deposited Plans, the Works by this Act authorized to be made in the Lands of the Eastern Counties Railway Company, whether within or outside of such Fences, and any Agreement for such a Grant made between those Companies before or after the passing of this Act shall be binding on them respectively.

Recovery of Rent in arrear.

XXI. That the Rent reserved by any such Grant may be sued for and recovered by the Eastern Counties Railway Company in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

Control of the Surface to remain in the Eastern Counties Railway Company.

XXII. Provided always, That, notwithstanding anything in this Act or in any such Grant contained, the Eastern Counties Railway Company shall have the entire Control of the Surface of the Land comprised in any such Grant, subject to the Right granted, and may use the same for any Widening or Enlargement of their Railway or Works: Provided nevertheless, that they shall not, after the Execution of any such Grant, do anything which would deprive the Company of the Right of User granted to them, or which would prevent their having Access to any Works made in pursuance of this Act in Lands of the Eastern Counties Railway Company, for repairing or maintaining such Works.

Traffic on the Eastern Counties Railway not to be obstructed.

XXIII. That the Company shall not make any Work or do any Act by which the Traffic on the Eastern Counties Railway may be obstructed or impeded, and if the Company make any Work or do any Act having such Effect they shall for every such Offence pay to the Eastern Counties Railway Company Fifty Pounds, and also after Notice in Writing from the Superintendent, Servants, or Secretary of the same Company to remove such Obstruction, a further Sum of Fifty Pounds for every Hour during which such Obstruction continues, or during which such Traffic is impeded, and every such Penalty shall be recoverable, with Costs, in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

For the Protection of the Eastern Counties Railway.

XXIV. That this Act or anything therein contained shall not authorize any Disturbance of or Alteration in the Position or Level of the Rails on the Eastern Counties Railway, or any Part thereof, without the previous Consent in Writing of the Eastern Counties Railway Company under the Hand of their Secretary; and all Works made under this Act, so far as they may interfere with or affect the Eastern Counties Railway, or any of the Works or Property of the Eastern Counties Railway Company, shall be done, and any Pipes laid or Channels made under that Railway, or under any of the Lands of that Company, shall be laid or made under the Direction and to the reasonable Satisfaction of their Engineer, and according to Plans and Specifications approved by him previously to the Commencement of any such Works; and before entering upon any Land of that Company for the Purpose of executing any Work; under this Act, the Company or their Engineer shall give not less than Twenty-one clear Days Notice in Writing to the Secretary of that Railway Company of their Intention to commence such Work, and of the Mode in which the same is proposed to be done; and if any Dispute arise between the Engineer of the Company and the Engineer of the Eastern Counties Railway Company, as to the Manner of executing any Work affecting the Eastern Counties Railway, or the Lands of the Eastern Counties Railway Company, every such Dispute shall be determined by Arbitration in the Manner prescribed by the "Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," for the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration.

Provisions as to Repairs of Works of East-

XXV. That the Company shall not acquire any Right or Property in the Railway or in any of the Lands of the Eastern Counties Railway Company within the general Line of the Fences which guard that Railway, other than the Right, subject to the Provisions of this Act, of executing the several Works necessary necessary and proper for constructing and maintaining the Works by this Act authorized in the Lands of that Railway Company, and for repairing the same Works, and all such Repairs shall from Time to Time be done under the Superintendence and to the reasonable Satisfaction of the Engineer of that Railway Company, and the Company shall, on Demand, pay to that Railway Company all Expenses occasioned to or incurred by them, in case from the Necessity of the same they shall themselves make any such Repair for or by reason of the Maintenance or Repair on such Lands of such Works respectively, and the Eastern Counties Railway Company may sue for and recover the Amount of such Expenses in any Court of competent Jurisdiction; and if any Dispute arise between the Two Companies as to the Mode of making, repairing, or maintaining any such Work, every such Dispute shall be determined by Arbitration, in the Manner prescribed by the "Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," for the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration.

Eastern Counties Railway Company not to be liable for Damages.

XXVI. That the Eastern Counties Railway Company shall not, by reason of any such Lease or otherwise howsoever, be liable for any Damage occasioned to any Lands or to any Person by or in consequence of the Construction, Imperfection, or Failure of, or otherwise with respect to any of the Works by this Act authorized, but the Company shall be exclusively liable for all such Damage.

Saving Rights of Eastern Counties Railway Company.

XXVII. Provided always, That, except only as is by this Act expressly provided with reference to the Works under this Act authorized to be made, this Act or anything therein contained shall not take away, lessen, alter, or in any way prejudicially affect any of the Rights, Powers, Authorities, or Privileges of the Eastern Counties Railway Company.

Sewers to be used for the Drainage of Hertford.

XXVIII. That from and after the making and Completion of the several new Sewers and Drains herein-before described in the said Parishes or Places of Bengeo, Saint Andrew Hertford, Saint John Hertford, All Saints Hertford, and Brickendon, in the Town and County of Hertford, it shall be lawful for all Persons resident in the said several Parishes and Places to drain their Houses and Premises, and for all Surveyors and others having the Superintendence of the public Streets, Courts, Lanes, and Highways in the said several Parishes and Places, to drain the same by means of the Sewers and Drains by this Act authorized to be made, and from Time to Time to make such Openings and Communications into the said intended Sewers or Drains as shall be necessary for that Purpose; and such Openings and Communications may be made after Twenty-four Hours Notice to the Company, and shall be made under the Superintendence and to the Satisfaction of the Engineer or Agent of the Company.

Company may intercept Sewerage Water draining into River Lee from Town of Hertford.

XXIX. That from and after the making and Completion of the several new Sewers and Drains herein-before described in the several Parishes and Places in the Town and County of Hertford, it shall be lawful for the Company to enter upon any House, Buildings, and Premises to collect and intercept all Sewage Water from all Sewers or Drains leading from Houses, Streets, or other Premises in the said several Parishes or Places of Bengeo, Saint Andrew Hertford, Saint John Hertford, All Saints Hertford, and Brickendon, or any of them, and which now discharge into the River Lee or other Streams leading into the same, and to divert the said Sewage Water into the Sewers and Drains by this Act authorized to be made in the said several Parishes and Places, by means of proper and sufficient Culverts or Drains to be made by and at the Expense of the Company from the said existing Sewers of the said Houses, Streets, or other Premises, and the same shall be done by the Company accordingly, and such connecting Culverts or Drains shall thereafter be maintained by the Owners or Occupiers of the said Houses and other Premises, and the Surveyors in case of Streets.

Penalty for draining into River Lee.

XXX. That if any Person, after the Completion (so far as regards the Part passing by and furnishing an Outfall to his House, Buildings, or Premises) of the Sewers and Drains by this Act authorized to be made in the said several Parishes and Places of Bengeo, Saint Andrew Hertford, Saint John Hertford, All Saints Hertford, and Brickendon, in the Town and County of Hertford, shall make or carry any new Sewer or Drain from his House, Buildings, or Premises into or shall continue to use any Sewer or Drain now discharging its Waters into the said River Lee, from any Lands or Houses situate in the said Parishes or Places in the Town and County of Hertford, (after such last-mentioned Sewer or Drain shall have been rendered unnecessary by a proper and sufficient Sewer or Drain having been made by the Company in lieu thereof as aforesaid,) he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and the Company may remove, stop up, and abate any such Sewer or Drain as a Nuisance; and the Expense of such Removal, Stopping up, and Abatement, shall be paid by the Party causing such Nuisance, and may be recovered in the same Manner as Damages not specially provided for are by this Act and the Acts incorporated herewith directed to be recovered.

Saving Rights of Corporation of Hertford.

XXXI. That this Act or anything therein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to prejudice, diminish, or affect any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Hertford, but all the Rights, Powers, and Authorities vested in them shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if this Act had not been passed.

Powers for compulsory Purchase of Lands limited.

XXXII. That the Powers by this Act conferred on the Company for the compulsory Purchase of Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Two Years from the passing of this Act.

Period within which Works are to be completed.

XXXIII. That the Works hereby authorized may be completed on or before the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and on the Expiration of that Period the Powers by this Act granted to the Company for executing the Works or otherwise in relation thereto shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much of the Works as are then completed, and the necessary Repair and Maintenance of such Works.

XXXIV. That

Owners may grant Leases.

XXXIV. That all Persons by this Act empowered to convey Lands to the Company shall have full Power for the Purposes of this Act to grant to the Company any Lands and Streams, or the Right of User thereof, and to grant to the Company any Easement, Power, or Authority in or over such Lands or Streams in perpetuity in consideration of an annual Rent: Provided always, that in all such Grants, when made by any Corporation or by any Individual entitled to any Estate or Interest other than a Fee Simple for his own Benefit, there be reserved the best Rent or Remuneration that can reasonably be gotten for the Premises thereby granted, such Rent or Remuneration not being less than such as shall be determined according to the Provisions with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," by Two able practical Surveyors or their Umpire: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Company to purchase at any subsequent Period the Release or Discharge of such Rent or Remuneration, Covenants and Stipulations, reserved by and contained in any such Grant.

Defining Limits of recited Act.

XXXV. 'And whereas the Company claim to have the Power by Charter, and under the Provisions 'of the said first-recited Act, to supply with Water (amongst other Parishes and Places) the Parishes 'and Places of Saint John without the Borough of Hertford, Ware, Great Amwell, Little Amwell, Saint 'Margarets, Hoddesdon, Wormley, Broxbourne, Cheshunt, Enfield, Edmonton, and Tottenham, in the 'Counties of Hertford and Middlesex; but such Right has been questioned, and it is expedient that the 'Limits of the Liability of the Company to supply Water, and the Rights of the Public to demand the 'same, should be defined:' Be it therefore enacted, That for the Purposes of the said firstly-recited Act the Limits for the Supply of Water by the Company shall include and be deemed to include the Parishes and Places before named in this Section, and that Act shall be read and construed as if those Parishes and Places had been therein expressed to be included.

Power to borrow further Bond.

XXXVI. That, in addition to the several Sums of Money authorized to be raised by the said first-recited Act, it shall be lawful for the Company to borrow on Bond such further Sums of Money as shall from Time to Time, by any Order of a General Court of the Company, be authorized to be borrowed, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, and to secure the Repayment thereof, with Interest, by Bonds as herein-after provided.

Extending certain Provisions of first recited Act to this Act.

XXXVII. That the whole of the several Sections and Provisions of the said first-recited Act numbered respectively in the Copies thereof printed by the Printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26, such Sections and Provisions respectively relating "to the reborrowing of Money by the Company," "to the stamping of Bonds for securing Money," "to the Rights of Obligees in such Bonds," "to the Register of such Bonds," "to the Transfers of such Bonds," "to the Register of the Transfer of such Bonds," "to the Payment of Interest on Money borrowed on such Bonds," "to the Transfer of any Interest on such Bonds," "to the fixing of Periods for the Repayment of Money borrowed where no Period is fixed," and "to the Cessation of Interest after Notice to pay off such Bonds," and also the Schedules A. and B. annexed thereto, shall extend and apply to the several Objects and Purposes of this Act.

Application of Monies raised by Bond.

XXXVIII. That all Monies raised on Bond under the Powers of this Act shall be applicable only to the Purposes of the Undertaking and Works of the Company.

Power to apprehend Persons committing Offences named in Sect. 61 of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 17.

XXXIX. That it shall be lawful for any Constable or any Officer or Agent of the Company, and all Persons called by him to his Assistance, to seize and detain any Person who shall have committed any of the Offences enumerated in the Sixty-first Section of "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," and whose Name or Residence shall be unknown to such Constable, Officer, or Agent, and to convey him with all convenient Dispatch before some Justice, without any Warrant or other Authority than this Act, and such Justice shall proceed with all convenient Dispatch to the hearing and determining of the Complaint against such Offender.

Saving Rights of the Ware Local Board of Health.

XL. Provided always, That this Act or anything herein contained shall not take away, lessen, alter, abridge, or prejudice any of the Rights, Powers, Authorities, or Privileges of the Ware Local Board of Health, under "The Public Health Act, 1848," or any Act incorporated therewith.

Saving Rights of the Trustees of the River Lee.

XLI. That this Act or anything herein contained shall not take away, alter, abridge, lessen, or prejudicially affect any Property, Right, Remedy, Protection, Power, Authority, Privilege, Toll, Duty, Exemption, or Benefit vested in or now enjoyed or exercised by the Trustees of the River Lee; but all such Property, Rights, Remedies, Protection, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Tolls, Duties, Exemptions, or Benefit (except so far as the same are specially altered by this Act) shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be available for the Benefit of the said Trustees, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not passed.

Saving Rights of Board of Ordnance.

XLII. That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or affect any Right, Title, or Interest belonging to the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance.

Company not exempt from 15 & 16 Vict. c. 84.

XLIII. That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the Company from the Provisions of the "Metropolis Water Act, 1852."

Expenses of Act.

XLIV. That all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to the obtaining and passing of this Act shall be paid by the Company.

"The Company."

XLV. That in the Construction of this Act, and of the Acts incorporated herewith, the Expression "the Company" shall mean the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London.

Third. A Main, Pipe Track, or Channel of Communication commencing in the said Parish of Saint Mary Islington at or near a certain Road called the Back Road, leading from Newington Green to Kingsland Green, passing across the Inclosure called Kingsland Green, and terminating in the Parish of Hackney in the County of Middlesex by a Junction with the authorized Mains of the New River Company in the Kingsland Road at or near the Toll Bar Gate there:

Fourth. A Main, Pipe Track, or Channel of Communication commencing in the said Parish of Saint Mary Islington by a Junction with the authorized Reservoirs of the New River Company situate between Maiden Lane and the Junction Road, and terminating in the same Parish in the said Junction Road at or about Four hundred and eighty Yards North of the Toll Bar Gate on the said Road:

Fifth. A Main, Pipe Track, or Channel of Communication commencing in the said Parish of Saint Mary Islington in Maiden Lane at or near the End of Gloucester Road, and terminating in the said Parish in the Ramsbury Road about Two hundred and sixty Yards East of the Toll Bar Gate there:

Sixth. A Reservoir or Reservoirs, Filtering Beds, and other Works in certain Lands on each Side of the New River adjoining and abutting and on the West Side of the Green Lanes Road, nearly opposite to the Stoke Newington Reservoirs of the said New River Company, which said intended Reservoirs and Works will be wholly situate in the Parish of Hornsey in the said County of Middlesex:

Seventh. A Main, Pipe Track, or Channel of Communication commencing in the said Parish of Stoke Newington by a Junction with the authorized Works of the New River Company on the East Side of

of the Green Lanes Road, and to the South of the said Stoke Newington Reservoirs, terminating in the same Parish or the Parish of Hackney in the County of Middlesex in the Road to Stamford Hill where the Hackney Brook crosses the same:

Eighth. A Reservoir or Reservoirs, Filtering Beds, and Works in certain Lands situate at Wood Green, and lying on and between the New River and the Great Northern Railway, all in the Parish of Tottenham in the County of Middlesex:

Ninth. A Main or Pipe Track or Channel of Communication commencing in the Parish of Tottenham aforesaid from and out of the lastly before-described intended Reservoirs, and terminating in the Parish of Hornsey in the High Road near to where the same passes under the Great Northern Railway:

Tenth. A Reservoir or Reservoirs on the Summit Level of Hampstead Heath on the Plot of Ground Part of the said Hampstead Heath, and delineated on the said deposited Plans, which lies to the South of the Milestone there, also marked on the said deposited Plans, and is bounded by public Roads meeting at and running South and South-west from the said Milestone, and also marked on the said deposited Plans.

Company to make Embankments, &c., for Construction, &c. of Works.

VI. That it shall be lawful for the Company to make and maintain all necessary Tunnels, Pipe Tracks, Sluices, Embankments, Aqueducts, Channels of Communication, Filtering Beds, Tanks, Culverts, Engines, Drains, Flood Gates, and other Conveniences for the effectual Construction, Use, and Maintenance of the Works by this Act authorized, and to remove any of their existing Works which may interfere therewith.

Company may cross and divert Roads, &c.

VII. That, subject to the Provisions of the several Acts incorporated herewith, it shall be lawful for the Company to cross, divert, break up, or alter all such Turnpike and other Roads, Highways, Footways, Tunnels, Bridges, Streets, Tramroads, Rivers, Navigations, Streams, Brooks, Watercourses, Drains, Pipes, and Sewers within the Parishes or Places from, in, through, or into which any of the Works will pass or be made, as may be necessary for effecting the Objects and Purposes of the intended Works by this Act authorized.

Directions for laying Pipes under the Metropolis Roads.

VIII. 'And whereas the Lines of the intended Works by this Act authorized pass for a considerable 'Distance along or across the Public Roads under the Charge of the Commissioners of the Metropolis 'Turnpike Roads North of the Thames, which Public Roads are herein-after called the Metropolis Roads;' therefore, notwithstanding the Powers and Provisions in this Act contained, the Company shall not, either by themselves or by their Deputies, Officers, Agents, Servants, and Workmen, or by any of them, lay down or construct any Works in any Part of the Metropolis Roads, or of the Footpaths adjoining thereto, other than in such Part, Line, and Direction as shall be pointed out by the said Commissioners or by their general Surveyor for the Time being; and that wherever the Surface of the said Metropolis Roads shall be interfered with no greater Inclination than One Foot in Sixty Feet shall be made.

All Works connected with the Metropolis Roads to be under the Superintendence of the general Surveyor.

IX. That any Works connected with the Metropolis Roads shall not be in any Manner commenced under the Powers in this Act contained until the Expiration of Five Days after Notice in Writing of the Intention to commence such Works shall have been left at the Office of the said Commissioners, or shall have been delivered to the said general Surveyor; and the opening of the said Roads or any of them for the Purpose of laying down or constructing such Works, or for laying any Pipe, and the remaking of such Roads, and all other Works of every Description connected with the said Roads at any Time hereafter to be performed by the Company, or by any Person authorized by them, shall be carried on and executed under the Direction and Superintendence and to the Satisfaction of the said general Surveyor.

Company to make good Damage to the Roads.

X. That if in the laying down or Construction of the Works or any of them the Company shall do or cause any Injury or Damage to the said Metropolis Roads or any of them, or to any Brick or other Drain, Sewer, Cesspool, Water Channel, or other Convenience connected with the said Roads or any of them, and shall not forthwith proceed to repair and make good such Injury or Damage to the Satisfaction of the general Surveyor, or if by reason of the laying down or Construction of any of the Works hereby authorized or required to be constructed or performed by the Company any Alteration of the said Metropolis Roads or any of them, or of the Drains, Sewers, Cesspools, or Water Channels connected therewith, shall, in the Judgment of the said general Surveyor, be rendered necessary, then and in any of such Cases it shall be lawful for such general Surveyor to cause all such Repairs and Alterations to be made as he in his Discretion shall think fit; and all Costs and Expenses of such Repairs and Alterations shall be paid, on Demand, by the Company, or in default of Payment for Twenty-one Days after such Demand may be recovered by the said Commissioners from the Company, with full Costs of Suit, by Action in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Traffic not to be stopped during the Performance of the Works on the Roads.

XI. That the Company shall not at any Time during the Progress of laying down or constructing the Works hereby authorized, or of performing any other Works connected with the said Metropolis Roads, shut up or in any way impede the public Traffic along more than One Half in Width of any of the said Metropolis Roads at any one and the same Time, and if it should happen that the Half of the Road so left open should not be wide enough to allow Two Carriages to pass each other, then and in such Case not more than Fifty Yards in Length of the other Half of the Road shall be occupied by the Company's Works at the same Time, unless by special Permission of the said general Surveyor.

Precautions required to be taken during the Performance of the

XII. That the Company shall and they are hereby required, at their own Expense, to do and perform all such Acts and Things in the way of watching, lighting, and fencing, and all such other precautionary Measures during the Progress of laying down or constructing the Works hereby authorized, or of performing any other Works connected with the said Metropolis Roads under the Powers of this Act, as shall shall be necessary and requisite for the public Safety, Convenience, and Protection of the said Metropolis Roads and of the Travellers thereon; and the Company shall be answerable and amenable for all Accidents and Damage which may happen by reason or in consequence of any of the Works of the Company.

Regulating the Payments to be made for Damage done to the Roads.

XIII. And whereas much Injury will be caused to the said Metropolis Roads in consequence of such Works, notwithstanding that the said Roads may be remade immediately after the laying down or Construction of such Works, inasmuch as a Continuance of Labour and Material will be necessary for a considerable Space of Time to restore the said Roads to their previous State and Condition; therefore the Company shall and they are hereby required to pay, on Demand, to the said Commissioners such a Sum of Money not exceeding One Shilling for every Superficial Yard of the said Roads removed or disturbed by reason or in consequence of the said Works of the Company, and over and above all Costs of remaking or relaying the said Roads, and of Repairs and Alterations which may be incurred by the said Commissioners, as the said Commissioners shall deem proper to be paid for the continued Labour and Supply of Materials necessary to restore effectually the said Roads; and in default of Payment for Twenty-one Days after such Demand the same may be recovered by the said Commissioners from the Company, with full Costs of Suit, in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

Regulations of Railways Clauses Act applied to Interference with Roads.

XIV. That the Clauses of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," numbered 53, 54, 55, 56, and 57, relating to the Substitution of other Roads for Roads interfered with, and to the Restoration of Roads interfered with, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall apply to all Roads crossed, diverted, broken up, or altered under the Powers of this Act (except the Metropolis Roads, which are herein-before specially provided for); and in construing those Clauses in connexion with this Act the Expression "the Company" shall mean the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, and the Expression "the Railway" shall mean the Works by this Act authorized.

Power for Justices to order Repair of Reservoirs, and in certain Cases to direct the Water therein to be lowered.

XV. 'And whereas the Reservoirs intended to be constructed under the Powers of this Act are to be 'supplied by means of pumping only:' Be it enacted, That whenever it shall be represented to Two Justices by the Owners or Occupiers of any Dwelling House, Mill, Factory, or other Works situate below any such Reservoir as aforesaid, and so as to be in danger of being destroyed or injured by the Water of such Reservoir in case it should escape therefrom, that such Reservoir is in a dangerous State, such Justices shall forthwith make Inquiry into the Truth of such Representation, and if they shall be satisfied that such Reservoir is in a dangerous State they shall, by Writing under their Hands, order and require the Company, within a Time to be specified in such Writing, to put such Reservoir into a proper State of Repair, or construct such Works as may be necessary to remove the Danger; and in case the Company shall not, within the Time so limited, and to the Satisfaction of the Justices who shall have made such Order, or of any Two Justices, have repaired the said Reservoir or constructed the said Works, or in case, upon receiving such Representation as aforesaid, the Justices shall consider the Danger to be so eminent as not to admit of Delay, they may, if they shall think fit, by Writing under their Hands, order and direct the Officer in charge of such Reservoir to desist from pumping Water into such Reservoir until the Water in such Reservoir shall be reduced to such a Level as may be necessary to remove the Danger, and to keep the Water in such Reservoir at the reduced Level until the said Reservoir shall have been repaired, or such Works as aforesaid shall have been constructed, to the Satisfaction of the Justices who shall have made such Order, or any other Two Justices, and who shall signify their Satisfaction by Writing superseding such Order, or until such Order shall be superseded upon Appeal as herein-after mentioned, and such Order may be in the Form or to the Purport and Effect following; (that is to say,)

To A. B.

We, the undersigned, Two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the County of do hereby order and direct you to desist from pumping into a certain Reservoir known as the Reservoir until the Level of the Water therein be reduced by the Space of Feet or thereabouts, and to keep the same at that Level until you shall be further instructed by us, or by Two other Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said County, and in acting in obedience to the Premises this shall be your sufficient Warrant.

Given under our Hands this Day of One thousand eight hundred and

E. F.

And any Person who shall wilfully do any Act in contravention of such Order shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that, except when the Urgency of the Case will not admit of the Delay, the Justices, before making an Order to repair any such Reservoir, or to construct any Works as aforesaid, or to lower the Water in any such Reservoir, shall cause Notice to be given to the Clerk of the Company, and shall hear and consider any Evidence that may be tendered on behalf of the Company against the making of such Order: Provided also, that if the Company shall consider themselves aggrieved by any such Order they may appeal against the same to any Quarter Sessions, upon giving to the Justices who shall have made such Order Three Weeks Notice in Writing of the Grounds of such Appeal, and the Court of Quarter Sessions shall hear and determine such Appeal, and may either confirm or supersede the Order of the said Justices as they may think proper, but until such Order shall be superseded it shall continue in full Force; and all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of applying for, obtaining, and enforcing such Order shall be borne by the Company, unless the Justices making the Order shall direct such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, or a proportionate tionate Part of them, to be borne by the Parties applying for such Order, which they are hereby authorized to do, and the Costs of any such Appeal as aforesaid shall be in the Discretion of the said Court of Quarter Sessions.

Company not to be responsible for Consequences of such Order.

XVI. Provided always, That the Company shall not be liable to pay to any Persons any Damages, Penalties, Costs, Charges, or Expenses for or in respect of, or be answerable or accountable to any Persons for any Diminution or Cessation of the Supply of Water, or any other Breach or Nonperformance of their or any of their Duties, Liabilities, or Obligations under this Act or the said recited Acts, or any of them, which may be occasioned in or by or result from the Execution of any such Order as aforesaid, anything in this Act or the said recited Acts, or either of them, to the contrary notwithstanding.

For Protection of Great Northern Railway.

XVII. Provided always, That the Works authorized by this Act to be constructed in connexion with or affecting the Great Northern Railway shall be executed under the Superintendence and to the reasonable Satisfaction of the principal Engineer of the Great Northern Railway Company, but at the Cost of the New River Company; and if there shall arise any Differences between the Company and the said Railway Company as to the same, or as to the Nature or Extent of the Works necessary for the Protection of the said Railway, such Difference shall from Time to Time be settled by the principal Engineers of the said Companies, or if they cannot agree, then by some Engineer to be nominated by them: Provided also, that the Great Northern Railway Company shall not be liable for any Damage which may arise to the New River Company by reason of any accidental Failure of the Embankments or Earthworks of the said Railway.

XVIII. That the Powers by this Act conferred on the Company for the compulsory Purchase of Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Two Years from the passing of this Act.

Period within which Works are to be completed.

XIX. That the Works hereby authorized may be completed on or before the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and on the Expiration of that Period the Powers by this Act granted to the Company for executing the Works, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much of the Works as are then completed, and the necessary Repair and Maintenance of such Works.

Owners may grant Leases.

XX. That all Persons by this Act empowered to convey Lands to the Company shall have full Power, for the Purposes of this Act, to grant to the Company any Lands and Streams, or the Right of User thereof, and to grant to the Company any Easement, Power, or Authority in or over such Lands or Streams in perpetuity in consideration of an annual Rent: Provided always, that in all such Grants, when made by any Corporation, or by any Individual entitled to any Estate or Interest, other than a Fee Simple, for his own Benefit, there be reserved the best Rent or Remuneration that can reasonably be gotten for the Premises thereby granted, such Rent or Remuneration not being less than such as shall be determined according to the Provisions with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," by Two able practical Surveyors, or their Umpire: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Company to purchase at any subsequent Period the Release or Discharge of such Rent or Remuneration, Covenants and Stipulations, reserved by and contained in any such Grant.

Power to borrow Money for executing Works mentioned in this Act.

XXI. That, in addition to the several Sums of Money authorized to be raised by the said first-recited Act, it shall be lawful for the Company to borrow on Bond such further Sums of Money as shall from Time to Time, by any Order of a General Court of the Company, be authorized to be borrowed, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, and to secure the Repayment thereof, with Interest, by Bonds, as herein-after provided.

Extending certain Provisions of first-recited Act to this Act.

XXII. That the whole of the several Sections and Provisions of the said first-recited Act, numbered respectively in the Copies thereof printed by the Printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26, such Sections and Provisions respectively relating "to the re-borrowing of Money by the Company," "to the stamping of Bonds for securing Money," "to the Rights of Obligees in such Bonds," "to the Register of such Bonds," "to the Transfers of such Bonds," "to the Register of the Transfer of such Bonds," "to the Payment of Interest on Money borrowed on such Bonds," "to the Transfer of any Interest on such Bonds," "to the fixing of Periods for the Repayment of Money borrowed under such Bonds," "to the Repayment of Money borrowed where no Period is fixed," and "to the Cessation of Interest after Notice to pay off such Bonds," and also the Schedules A. and B. annexed thereto, shall extend and apply to the several Objects and Purposes of this Act.

Application of Monies raised by Bond.

XXIII. That all Monies raised on Bond under the Powers of this Act shall be applicable only to the Purposes of the Undertaking and Works of the Company.

Power to apprehend transient Offenders causing Waters of Company to be fouled.

XXIV. That it shall be lawful for any Constable, or any Officer or Agent of the Company, and all Persons called by him to his Assistance, to seize and detain any Person who shall have committed any of the Offences enumerated in the Sixty-first Section of "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," and whose Name or Residence shall be unknown to such Constable, Officer, or Agent, and to convey him with all convenient Despatch before some Justice, without any Warrant or other Authority than this Act; and such Justice shall proceed with all convenient Despatch to the hearing and determining of the Complaint against such Offender.

Saving Rights of Commissioners of Sewers.

XXV. That this Act, or anything therein contained, shall not take away, lessen, alter, or affect any of the Jurisdictions, Rights, Powers, and Authorities of any Commission of Sewers appointed by any Commission under the Great Seal, or under the Seal of the Duchy of Lancaster, or of the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London.

Cap. lxxxiv.

An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for more effectually constituting and regulating the Court of Record within the Borough of Manchester, and for extending the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and to extend the Powers and Jurisdiction of the said Court, and to simplify and otherwise improve its Practice and Proceedings; and for other Purposes. [3d July 1854.]

'WHEREAS Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, in pursuance of the Provisions contained in an 'Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Ma-'jesty King William the Fourth and in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen 'Victoria, intituled An Act to amend an Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England 7 W. 4. & 'and Wales, and by the Advice of Her Privy Council, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of 1 Vict. c. 78. 'the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing Date the Twenty-eighth Day of October 'One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, granted that the Inhabitants of the Borough of Man-'chester resident within the District comprised within the Boundaries of the Townships of Manchester, 'Chorlton-upon-Medlock, Hulme, Ardwick, Beswick, and Cheetham, in the County Palatine of Lancas-'ter, and their Successors, should be for ever thereafter a Body Politic and Corporate in Deed, Fact, and 'Name, and that the said Body Corporate should be called "The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of '"the Borough of Manchester in the County of Lancaster," and should have perpetual Succession and a 'Common Seal, and should be governed by a Council, to be elected in the Manner therein mentioned; 'and Her Majesty further granted that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and their Successors, 'from thenceforth for ever might have and hold within the Borough aforesaid a Court of Record for the 'Trial of Civil Actions before the Mayor of the said Borough for the Time being, in any convenient 'Place within the said Borough, on the Third Day in every Week, which Court should have Authority 'to try the Actions therein mentioned: And whereas, after the Incorporation of the said Borough, a 'separate Commission of the Peace was granted to the same, and a Person, being a Barrister of more 'than Five Years standing, was appointed Recorder of the Borough: And whereas by an Act, the 'Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-five, (Local and Personal,) the Jurisdiction 'of the said Court of Record for the Trial of Civil Actions in the Borough of Manchester was enlarged, 'and other Provisions were therein contained in respect of the same Court; and it was by the said Act 'enacted, that the Jurisdiction of the said Court should be co-extensive with the Borough of Manchester 'mentioned in the said Charter of Incorporation, and that the Recorder of the Borough should be the 'Judge of the said Court: And whereas Her said Majesty, by certain other Letters Patent under the 'Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing Date the Twenty-ninth Day 'of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, ordained, constituted, and appointed that the said 'Borough of Manchester should thenceforth be a City, and should be called and styled "The City of '"Manchester in the County of Lancaster," and that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the

'said Borough of Manchester should thenceforth be One Body Politic and Corporate by the Name and Style of "The Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Manchester in the County of Lancaster:" And whereas the said Court, as constituted and regulated by the said last-mentioned Act, has been found to be of great public Benefit and Utility: And whereas since the passing of the said last-mentioned Act "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," has been passed: And whereas the Provisions of the said Act, the Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-five, require to be altered and amended, and it is expedient that divers of the Provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," should, with all necessary Modifications, be extended to the Court, and it is also expedient that the Powers and Jurisdiction of the Court should be further extended, and the Efficiency of the Court further increased by the Procedure, Practice, and Mode of Pleading therein being made more simple, and for these Purposes that the Act the Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-five, should be repealed, and other Provisions should be enacted; but the same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

After passing of this Act, 8 & 9 Vict. c. 145. to be repealed.

I. That from the Time when this Act shall commence and take effect the said Act, the Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-five, shall be repealed, except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of giving effect to Actions and other Proceedings then pending, as herein-after mentioned.

Short Title.

II. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as "The Manchester Court of Record Procedure Act, 1854."

Title and Constitution of Court.

IV. The Court shall henceforth be called the Court of Record for the Trial of Civil Actions within the City of Manchester, and have Authority to commence and try all Personal Actions of every kind arising within its Jurisdiction as herein-after defined, and also all Actions of Ejectment between Landlord and Tenant wherein the annual Rent of the Premises of which Possession is sought to be recovered shall not exceed Fifty Pounds, and upon which no Fine shall have been reserved or made payable, and which Premises shall be situate within the said Jurisdiction: Provided always, that the Court shall not, except by Consent of the Parties, given and proved in manner herein-after mentioned, have Cognizance, except for the Purpose of staying Proceedings and of awarding Costs, as herein-after mentioned, of any Action in which the Debt or Damages sought to be recovered shall exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, or in which the Title to any corporeal or incorporeal Hereditaments, or to any Toll, Fair, Market, or Franchise, shall be in question, or in which the Validity of any Devise, Bequest, or Limitation under any Will or Settlement may be disputed, or for any malicious Prosecution, or for any Libel or Slander, or for Criminal Conversation; and in case it shall appear in the course of any Action in the Court, or shall be made to appear upon Oath to the Court, that the Debt or Damages sought to be recovered in any such

Action

Action exceeds the Sum of Fifty Pounds, or that any such Title as aforesaid is in question, or that the Validity of any Devise, Bequest, or Limitation under any Will or Settlement is in dispute in such Action, or that such Action is for any Libel, Slander, or Criminal Conversation, and that such Consent of the Parties had not been given and proved as after mentioned, then the Court shall order all Proceedings in such Action to be stayed, and it shall be in the Discretion of the Court to award and order Costs against the Party commencing the same; and every such Order for Costs shall be and have the Effect of a Rule of Court, and be enforced in like Manner as other Rules of the Court; provided also, that if both Parties shall agree, by a Memorandum in Writing, signed by them or their Attornies respectively, and filed with the Registrar at the Time of the issuing of the Summons in any Action, that the Court shall have complete Jurisdiction over and Power to try any of the Actions herein-before respectively mentioned, and the Jurisdiction as to which is herein-before made to depend on the Consent of the Parties, then and in such Case, but not otherwise, the Court shall have Jurisdiction as aforesaid, and Power to try any such Action.

Jurisdiction of Court.

V. The territorial Jurisdiction of the Court shall be co-extensive with the City of Manchester mentioned in the said Charter of Incorporation.

Recorder to be the Judge.

VI. The Recorder for the Time being of the City shall be the Judge of the Court.

Recorder may appoint a Deputy in certain Cases.

VII. In case of the Illness or unavoidable Absence of the Recorder, it shall be lawful for him, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to appoint from Time to Time any fit Person, being a Barrister-at-Law of Five Years Standing, to be his Deputy, and such Deputy, while acting under such Appointment, shall have the like Powers and perform the like Duties as the Recorder would have had and performed.

Remuneration to the Recorder.

VIII. There shall be paid by the Council, out of the General Fund of the Court, or out of the City Fund, to the Recorder, in addition to the Salary of Five hundred Pounds now paid to such Recorder, an additional yearly Salary of Three hundred Pounds, by equal half-yearly Payments, as a Remuneration for the additional Duties hereby directed to be executed by such Recorder.

Orders, &c., may be made by or before the Registrar in the Absence of the Recorder.

IX. All Rules, Motions, Orders, and all other Matters and Things (except the Trials of Issue of Law or of Fact) in any Way relating to the Business of the Court, may, subject to the Rules of Court, be made, sworn, or done either in Court or out of Court, before the Recorder or his Deputy, or in the Absence of the Recorder or his Deputy, by or before the Registrar of the Court or his Deputy, or before such other Person, being a Barrister-at-Law or Attorney of Five Years standing, as the Recorder shall appoint under his Hand and Seal.

Courts to be held Six Times yearly.

X. The Court shall be holden for the Trial of Issues of Law and of Facts Six Times at least in each Year, and One of such Courts shall be holden in every alternate Month in every Year, on Days for that Purpose to be appointed by the Recorder.

Time and Place for ordinary Business of Court.

XI. The Court shall be holden for all Purposes within the Competency of the Court, except the Trial of Issues of Law or of Fact, at such convenient Place within the City as the Council shall from Time to Time direct, and at such Times as the Recorder shall appoint, or as Her Majesty shall think fit to direct, but so that the Intervals between the holding of any Two such Courts shall in no Case be more than Seven Days.

Notice of holding Courts.

XII. Notice of the Days on which the Court will be holden for all Purposes within the Competency of the Court, except the Trials of Issues of Fact or of Law, shall be put up in some conspicuous Place in the Office of the Registrar, and no other Notice thereof shall be needed; and whenever the usual Days of holding the Court for the Purposes aforesaid shall be altered, Notice of such intended Alteration, and of the Time when it will take place, shall be put up in some conspicuous Place in the Registrar's Office Three Months at least before such Alteration shall take effect; and the Registrar shall give public Notice of the Time and Place of holding any Court for the Trial of Issues of Fact or of Law Ten Days at the least before the holding thereof.

Rules for regulating Court to be made and signed by Recorder, confirmed by Judges, and in accordance with this Act.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Recorder from Time to Time to make, alter, and revoke such Rules, for adapting, and, as so adapted, for applying to the Court, any Amendments or Alterations which at any Time hereafter shall be made in the Practice or Proceedings of the Superior Courts, whether the same Amendments or Alterations shall be made by Act of Parliament or Rule of Court, and also for appointing the Times of holding the Court, for regulating the Forms and Manner of Proceeding, and the Process, Appearance, Practice, and Pleadings in the Court, and for settling the reasonable Fees of the Attornies of the Court for Business transacted therein, as shall from Time to Time to him seem necessary and proper; provided always, that such Rules, and any Order for revoking or altering the same, shall be signed by the Recorder; and that no such Rules or Orders, except as herein-after mentioned, shall be of any Force until they shall have been allowed and confirmed by One of the Judges of any of the Superior Courts; provided also, that such Rules shall be in accordance with the Provisions of this Act.

Power to Council to appoint a Registrar, Officers of the Court, and Serjeant-at-Mace.

XIV. It shall be lawful for the Council from Time to Time to appoint a fit Person, being an Attorney of One of the Superior Courts, or who shall have duly served a Term of not less than Five Years under Articles of Clerkship to some Attorney of One of the Superior Courts, to be the Registrar of the Court, and to dismiss and remove such Registrar at their Discretion; and it shall also be lawful for the Council from Time to Time to appoint a fit and proper Person to be Serjeant-at-Mace of the City, who shall hold his Office during Pleasure, and shall execute all Process of Execution issuing out of the Court, and do all other Matters and Things with respect to the Court which a Sheriff of any County can or ought to do with respect to the Superior Courts, except so far as is inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act or the Acts herein referred to, and which said Serjeant-at-Mace shall have all the Powers and Authority for such Purposes which a Sheriff of a County now hath or shall hereafter have with respect to the Superior Superior Courts, and, except as aforesaid, shall be subject to the same Duties and Liabilities as a Sheriff of a County; and such Serjeant-at-Mace may appoint and take Security from Bailiffs and Officers, and make his Warrants to Bailiffs and Officers, who may execute the Process of the Court; and the Serjeant-at-Mace shall be responsible to all Parties having delivered Process to him, in all respects in which a Sheriff of a County is responsible for the Act, Omission, Negligence, Misconduct, Misfeasance, or Non-feasance of his Bailiff or Officer: Provided always, that neither the Registrar, nor the Serjeant-at-Mace, nor any Officer of the Court, shall, either by himself or his Partner or Clerk, practise as an Attorney in the Court, nor act as Agent for any other Attorney in the Court, nor be in any other Manner employed for any Party in any Proceedings in the Court.

Penalties on Registrar for acting improperly.

XV. Every Person who, being the Registrar of the Court, or the Partner of such Registrar, or other Person in the Service or Employment of such Registrar or his Partner, shall in any Manner, directly or indirectly, be engaged as Attorney or Agent for any Party in any Proceeding in the Court, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same in any of the Superior Courts by Action of Debt or on the Case.

Power to Council to appoint Clerks, Criers, &c.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Council from Time to Time to appoint and remove such Clerks, Criers, and other Persons as they shall from Time to Time consider necessary for carrying on the Business of the Court.

Registrar may appoint a Deputy.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the Registrar (with the Approbation of the Council) to appoint from Time to Time a Deputy, and to remove such Deputy at his Pleasure, and such Deputy, while acting under such Appointment, shall have the like Powers and Privileges, and be subject to the like Duties and Penalties for Misbehaviour, as if he were the Registrar of the Court; provided always, that the Persons who at the Time this Act shall come into operation shall respectively be the Registrar, Serjeant-at-Mace, Crier, Clerks, and Deputy Registrar, shall hold their respective Offices as if they had been appointed under the Provisions of this Act.

Registrar and Serjeant-at-Mace to give Security.

XVIII. The Registrar and also the Serjeant-at-Mace shall, when required by the Council, give to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City Security in such Manner and Form as the Council shall deem sufficient and direct to be given for the due Performance of the Duties of their respective Offices, and for the due Payment of all Monies received by them respectively.

Payment of Salaries to Deputy Judge, Registrar, Serjeant-at-Mace, &c.

XIX. It shall be lawful for the Council, if they shall so think fit, to direct the Payment to the Deputy appointed by the Recorder to hold the Court, as herein-before provided, of such Sum out of the General Fund of the Court or out of the City Fund as the Council shall think fit, and the Council may also direct the Payment of such Salaries or other Remuneration as they shall think fit to the Registrar of the Court, and to the Serjeant-at-Mace, and to such Clerks, Criers, and other Persons as may be appointed under the Powers contained in this Act, either out of the General Fund of the Court or out of the City Fund.

Attornies of Superior Courts may practise.

XX. Every Attorney of Her Majesty's Superior Courts shall, subject to the Rules of the Court, have full Liberty to practise as an Attorney in the Court.

Council to determine Fees payable to Registrar and Officers of the Court.

XXI. The Council shall and they are hereby required to make and settle a Table of the Fees to be taken by the Registrar and the Serjeant-at-Mace and the other Officers of the Court, if any; and such Table of Fees shall be submitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and when such Table of Fees shall have been confirmed and allowed by such Secretary of State, either as such Table shall have been submitted to him, or with such Alterations, Additions, or Abatements as he shall think proper, the Fees therein mentioned, and no other, may thenceforth be lawfully taken by the Person therein named to be entitled thereunto: the Table of Fees which shall be in existence at the Time this Act shall come into operation shall be and remain the Table of Fees under this Act until some Change shall be made therein under the Provisions of this Act.

Power to Council to alter Fees from Time to Time.

XXII. It shall be lawful for the Council, from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, to make a new Table of Fees, to be taken instead of the Fees contained in the Table of Fees which shall have been made as aforesaid, which new Table shall be confirmed and allowed in the Manner herein-before mentioned, otherwise the same shall be of no Validity.

Table of Fees to be hung up.

XXIII. The Registrar shall cause a true Copy of the Table of Fees in force for the Time being to be hung up in a conspicuous Part of the Court House, and in the Office of the Registrar.

Fees to be received by the Registrar, and carried to account of certain Fund.

XXIV. All Fees and Sums of Money by the Table of Fees for the Time being required to be paid by the Suitors in the Court, except the Bailiffs Fees, shall be paid and accounted for by the Officers or Persons receiving the same to the Registrar, who shall keep an Account of all Monies paid to and received by him, and shall carry the same to an Account to be entitled "The General Fund of the City Court of Record."

Registrar to render Account to Council or Treasurer, and pay over Monies as Council shall direct.

XXV. The Registrar shall from Time to Time, as often as he shall be required so to do by the Council or the Treasurer of the City, and in such Form as the Council or Treasurer shall require, deliver to them or him a full Account in Writing of the Fees received in the Court, and a like Account of all Fines levied by the Court, and of the Expense of levying the same, and a like Account of the Monies paid into and out of Court by Defendants and Plaintiffs under any Order of the Court, or under any Levy made under Process of the Court, and of the Balances then remaining in Court belonging to Plaintiffs or Defendants in the Court; and the Registrar shall pay over to the Treasurer of the City, quarterly, or oftener in every Year, by Order of the Council, the Monies remaining in his Hands over and above such Balance as he shall be allowed by Order of the Council to retain for the current Expenditure of the Court.

XXVI. The

Monies paid to Treasurer to be carried to account of "The General Fund of the City Court of Record."

XXVI. The Monies to be from Time to Time paid over by the Registrar to the Treasurer of the City shall be by such Treasurer carried to an Account to be entitled "The General Fund of the City Court of Record," and the Monies for the Time being constituting such Fund shall be invested in such Manner as the Council shall direct; and so much and such Part thereof as the Council shall require shall be applied in or towards paying the Expenses of establishing and carrying on the Court; and any other Portions of the said Monies may be from Time to Time carried to the General Account of the City, and be applicable and applied to the General Purposes of the City, as Part of the City Fund.

Expenses of the Court may be paid out of the City Fund.

XXVII. So much and such Part of the Expenses of establishing and carrying on the Court as the Council shall not think it expedient to pay out of the General Fund of the Court shall be paid by the Council out of the City Fund.

All Powers, &c. by Law vested in Inferior Courts of Record, in which a Barrister of Five Years standing presides as Judge, granted to the City Court of Manchester.

XXVIII. All Powers, Authorities, Jurisdiction, and Privileges which are now by virtue of any Public General Act of Parliament vested in and may be exercised by Inferior Courts of Record in which a Barrister of not less than Five Years standing presides as Judge, or which are vested in or may be exercised by the Judge or any Officer of such Inferior Court of Record, shall be, and the same Powers, Authorities, Jurisdictions, and Privileges are hereby granted to and vested in, and may henceforth, in addition to the other Powers and Authorities granted by this Act, be exercised by the Court and the Judge and Officers thereof respectively, except in so far as the same may be in anywise inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act; and all the Provisions contained in the said Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and in the several Acts passed for the Amendment thereof, and in the several Acts passed for the Administration of Justice in Boroughs, and for regulating the Proceedings in the Borough Courts of England and Wales, shall be applicable and applied to the Court, except in so far as the same may be in anywise inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

Process of Court to be under Seal.

XXIX. All Summonses and other Process issuing out of the Court shall be sealed or stamped with the Seal of the Court; and every Person who shall forge the Seal or any Process of the Court, or who shall serve or enforce any such forged Process, knowing the same to be forged, or who shall deliver or cause to be delivered to any Person any Paper falsely purporting to be a Copy of any Summons or other Process of the Court, knowing the same to be false, or who shall act or profess to act under any false Colour or Pretence of the Process of the Court, shall be guilty of Felony, and on Conviction be punished as on a Conviction for Simple Larceny.

No Privilege allowed.

XXX. No Privilege shall be allowed to any Person to exempt him from the Jurisdiction of the Court.

Plea in Abatement for Non-joinder.

XXXI. No Plea in Abatement for the Non-joinder of any Person as a Co-defendant shall be allowed in the Court, unless it shall be stated in such Plea that such Person is resident within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and unless the Place of Residence of such Person shall be stated with convenient Certainty in an Affidavit verifying such Plea.

Witnesses out of Jurisdiction may be served with Subpœna.

XXXII. Where any Subpœna ad testificandum, or any Process in the Nature thereof, shall be issued by either Party in any Suit depending in the Court, and the Party to whom the same shall be issued shall be residing out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, the Service of such Subpœna or other Process in any Part of England or Wales shall be as valid as if the same had been served within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and the Party at whose Instance such Subpœna or Process was issued shall have all the same Remedies against the Person or Persons named therein, in case of Non-attendance, as he would have had in case such Person or Persons were resident within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and had been duly served therein with such Subpœna or Process.

If Rules of Court cannot be enforced, they may be made Rules of one of the Superior Courts.

XXXIII. In case any Rule of the Court cannot be enforced by reason of the Non-residence of any Party within the Jurisdiction thereof, it shall be lawful, upon a Certificate of such Rule by the Judge or his Deputy, or by the Registrar or his Deputy, and an Affidavit that by reason of such Non-residence such Rule cannot be enforced as aforesaid, to make such Rule a Rule of any One of the Superior Courts, if such Superior Court, or any Judge thereof, either in Term or Vacation, shall think fit, whereupon such Rule shall be enforced in the same Manner as a Rule of such Superior Court may be enforced.

Causes not to be removed before Judgment, except by Judge's Order, or on Security.

XXXIV. No Cause depending in the Court, and within the Competency thereof, shall be removed by any Defendant, before Judgment therein, into any Superior Court, (except in pursuance of a Judge's Order, as herein-after mentioned,) unless the Defendant, with Two sufficient Sureties, such as the Registrar of the Court shall allow, shall first become bound by Recognizance to the Plaintiff in the Cause, as the Registrar shall direct, in a sufficient Sum for the Payment of the Debt or Damages and Costs, in case Judgment shall pass against the Defendant in the Superior Court, or in the Court, in case the Cause shall be brought back by Procedendo: Provided always, that any Judge of any of the Superior Courts may, in the Exercise of his Discretion, order a Writ of Certiorari to issue to remove any such Cause depending in the Court, into any of the Superior Courts, without such Surety as aforesaid, and that such Cause may be removed into such Superior Court accordingly.

Writs to remove Causes to be lodged within a Month after Declaration.

XXXV. No Cause depending in the Court shall be removed, before Judgment therein, into any Superior Court, unless the Writ for removing such Cause shall have been lodged with the proper Officer of the Court within One Calendar Month next after the filing of the Declaration, and giving Notice thereof, nor unless such Writ shall have been lodged with such Officer before such Action shall have been entered for Trial according to the Practice of the Court.

Penalty on Officers taking Fees besides those Fees allowed.

XXXVI. If any Officer of the Court shall exact, take, or accept any Fee or Reward whatsoever, other than and except such Fees as are or shall be appointed or allowed respectively by the Rules of the Court, for or on account of anything done or to be done by virtue of any Proceeding in or Process or Warrant issuing out of the Court, or on any account whatsoever relative to any Suit in the Court, every such Person

Person so offending shall, upon Proof thereof before the Court, or upon Verdict or Judgment being had against him in such Action, as next herein-after mentioned, be for ever incapable of serving or being employed in any Office in the Court, and shall also be liable for Damages, as herein provided; and a Copy of this Clause shall be attached to the Table of Fees hung up as required by this Act.

Limitation of Actions for Proceedings in Execution of this Act.

XXXVII. All Actions and Prosecutions to be commenced against any Person for anything done in pursuance of this Act shall be commenced within One Year after the Fact committed, and not afterwards or otherwise, and Notice in Writing of such Action and of the Cause thereof shall be given to the Defendant One Month at least before the Commencement of the Action; and no Plaintiff shall recover in any such Action if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action brought, or if, after Action brought, a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court, with Costs, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

Writs for Commencement of Actions.

XXXVIII. All the Provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," with respect to the Writs for the Commencement of Personal Actions (except so far as relates to the Teste thereof in the Name of a Judge), which are contained in the Sections numbered respectively Two, Three, Four, Five, Six, Seven, Eleven, Twelve, Thirteen, Fifteen, Sixteen, Seventeen, Twenty, and Twenty-five in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court, but the said Section Number Twelve shall be read as if the Words "according to the Provisions of the said Act of His late Majesty King William the Fourth" had not been used therein, and the said Section Number Twenty-five shall be read as if the Words "the Defendant resides within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and" had not been used therein; and all the said Sections shall be read as if the Word Registrar had been used therein instead of the Word Master.

Indorsement of Debt and Costs on Writ and Copy, with Notice that Proceedings will be stayed on Payment within Four Days.

XXXIX. Every Writ of Summons issued for the Recovery of any Debt, and every Copy of such Writ, shall be endorsed with the Amount of the Debt, and the Amount of what the Plaintiff's Attorney claims for Costs, and upon Payment thereof within Four Days after Service of such Writ to the Plaintiff or his Attorney, further Proceedings shall be stayed; and the Amount of the Plaintiff's Costs to be endorsed on the Writ of Summons shall be absolutely fixed by a Rule of the Court; and if any Overcharge be made by the Plaintiff's Attorney such Attorney shall pay the Costs of any Application made to the Court to reduce the Amount to the Sum fixed by the Rule of Court, and the Defendant shall be at liberty to make such Application at any Time either before or after such Payment: Provided always, that such Application shall be made before the Plaintiff shall have taken his next Step in the Cause; and such Endorsement to be made as aforesaid shall be written or printed in the following Form, or to the like Effect:

The Plaintiff claims Pounds for Debt, and Pounds for Costs, and if the Amount thereof be paid to the Plaintiff or to his Attorney within Four Days from the Service hereof, further Proceedings will be stayed.

Teste of Writs.

XL. Every Writ of Summons shall be tested in the Name of the Recorder, or, in case of a Vacancy in the Office of Recorder, in the Name of the Mayor.

Court may order that the Writ of Summons may be served in any Part of England or Wales.

XLI. The Court may, if it shall think fit, in any Case where it shall satisfactorily appear by Affidavit that the Cause of Action arises within the Jurisdiction of the Court, order that the Writ of Summons may be served in any Part of England or Wales, and the Service of any Writ in pursuance of such Order shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been served within the Jurisdiction of the Court; provided that a Copy of such Order shall be served at the Time of the Service of such Writ of Summons.

All further Proceedings to be had as usual.

XLII. In all Cases where an Order of the Court shall be made under the last preceding Section, all Proceedings in the Cause shall be had and taken as if the Defendant had been duly served with the Summons within the same Jurisdiction.

Proceedings to be stayed in certain Cases.

XLIII. A Defendant served with a Process in any Action in the Court may, at any Time before Declaration filed, apply to the Court to stay Proceedings, on his entering into such Confession, and undertaking for the giving of Judgment, as herein-after mentioned, and the Court on such Application may, in its Discretion, stay the Proceedings in such Action, on the Defendant entering into a Rule of the Court by which he shall confess the Debt so endorsed on the Writ, and by which he shall undertake and agree that Judgment shall pass against him on such Confession for the Debt endorsed on the Writ, and Costs, to be taxed, on Nonpayment by him of the Debt and Costs at such Period or Periods not exceeding Three Months in the whole, unless the Plaintiff shall consent to a longer Time, and by Instalments or otherwise as to the Court or Officer may seem proper under the particular Circumstances of the Case, and which Period or Periods, Instalment or Instalments, shall be specified in the said Rule, together with such Terms as the Court may think proper to impose on the Defendant on granting such Application; and if such Debt and Costs so endorsed as aforesaid, or such Instalments, or any of them, are not paid at the Time or any of the Times in such Rule specified, the Plaintiff may sign final Judgment on such Confession as aforesaid for the Debt so endorsed on the said Writ, with Costs of Suit, to be taxed, and may forthwith issue Execution for the whole of such Debt remaining due at the Time of issuing the same and Costs, as last aforesaid.

Proceedings on Defendant confessing Part of Debt.

XLIV. A Defendant may, on such Application as aforesaid, have Leave to confess in manner aforesaid any Part of the Debt endorsed on the said Writ, if such Part, on the Hearing of the Appplication, shall appear to be all that is bonâ fide due and owing to the Plaintiff; and the Court may make such Order or Rule and give such Time as aforesaid, and may in such Case award Costs, or not, in its Discretion; or if on such Application as last aforesaid the Parties shall not agree as to the Amount, but the Plaintiff

Plaintiff shall claim a further Sum than the Defendant is willing to confess, then the Defendant may in manner aforesaid confess the Sum which he is so willing to confess as aforesaid, and the Court may make such Order or Rule and give such Time as aforesaid with respect to the Sum which he shall so confess; and the same Proceedings, including the signing of Judgment on Confession, and issuing of Execution, shall take place on such Confession, with respect to the Sum so confessed, as in the Case where the whole Sum endorsed on the Writ is confessed as aforesaid; and the Plaintiff shall be allowed to declare for any further Amount, but shall in his Particulars of Demand give Credit for, and shall not on the Trial of the Cause be allowed to proceed for, any Part of the Sum so confessed as aforesaid.

Applications without Appearance.

XLV. All such Applications and Proceedings thereon may be made and take place without any Appearance being entered.

Mode of objecting to the Jurisdiction.

XLVI. No Defendant shall be permitted to object to the Jurisdiction of the Court in or by any Proceeding whatsoever, except by Plea, and if the Want of Jurisdiction be not pleaded the Court shall have Jurisdiction.

Appearances and Proceedings in default of Appearance.

XLVII. All the Provisions with respect to the Appearance of the Defendant, and Proceedings of the Plaintiff in default of Appearance, contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Twenty-six, Twenty-seven, Twenty-eight, Twenty-nine, Thirty, Thirty-one, Thirty-two, and Thirty-three in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, except such as relate to the Sum for Costs of a Judgment, to be fixed by the Judges and Master of the Superior Courts, shall extend and apply to the Court; and in reading the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," as so extended, the Expressions "Judge's Order," in the same Sections respectively, shall mean an Order of the Court as well as an Order of the Judge, and in reading the Twenty-eighth Section the Words "in the event of no Plea being delivered" shall be read as if the said Words had been "in the event of no Plea being filed," and Section numbered Thirty, as applied to the Court, shall be read as if the Words "Master's Office" had been Registrar's Office, and as if the Words "Pleadings and other" had not been used therein.

Costs of Judgment to be fixed by Registrar.

XLVIII. The Sum for Costs for which Judgment may be signed and Execution had under the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Sections respectively of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," shall be fixed by the Registrar, subject to the Approval of the Recorder and of One of the Masters of the Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 76. as to Joinder of Parties extended to the Court.

XLIX. All the Provisions with respect to the Joinder of Parties to Actions which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Thirty-four, Thirty-five, Thirty-six, Thirty-seven, Thirty-eight, Thirty-nine, and Forty, in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court.

And with respect to Joinder of Causes of Action:

Different Causes of Action may be joined; but separate Trials may be ordered.

L. Causes of Action, of whatever kind, except Ejectments, may be joined in the same Suit, provided they be by and against the same Parties and in the same Rights; but the Court shall have Power to prevent the Trial of different Causes of Action together, if such Trial would be inexpedient, and in such Case the Court may order separate Records to be made up and separate Trials to be had.

Questions by Consent without Pleading.

LI. All the Provisions with respect to the Determination of Questions raised by Consent of the Parties without Pleading which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Forty-two, Forty-three, Forty-four, Forty-five, Forty-six, Forty-seven, and Forty-eight, in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court, and in reading the Forty-second and Forty-sixth Sections of the said Act as so extended the Expression "Order of a Judge" in the same Sections respectively shall include an Order of the Court as well as an Order of the Judge.

A Special Case may be stated for One of the Courts at Westminster.

LII. The Parties in any Action may, after Issue joined, by Consent, and by Order of the Court, state the Facts of the Case in the Form of a Special Case, for the Opinion of any One of the Superior Courts, and may agree that a Judgment shall be entered in the Court for the Plaintiff or Defendant, as such Superior Court may think fit.

Special Case to be transmitted by the Registrar to the Rule Department.

LIII. The Registrar shall transmit such Special Case, under the Seal of the Court, to the Rule Department of the Master's Office of the Superior Court in which the Case is to be argued, and thereupon all such Proceedings shall be taken, and Rules and Regulations observed, in the Superior Court, as are usual with reference to Cases stated for the Opinion of such Superior Court in Actions therein pending.

When Judgment to be entered.

LIV. The Registrar, upon the Production of an Office Copy of the Rule of the Superior Court, made upon hearing the said Special Case, shall enter Judgment in the Court in conformity with the Decision of the Superior Court.

Pleadings in general.

LV. All the Provisions with respect to the Language and Form of Pleadings in general which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Forty-nine, Fifty, Fifty-two, Fifty-three, Fifty-four, Fifty-five, Fifty-six, and Fifty-seven in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court.

Objections by way of Special Demurrer taken away.

LVI. No Pleading shall be deemed insufficient for not containing an Averment that any Matter therein pleaded arose within the Jurisdiction of the Court, nor for any Defect which could heretofore only be objected to by Special Demurrer.

Declaration and Particulars of Demand.

LVII. All the Provisions with respect to the Time and Manner of declaring, and to Particulars of Demand, which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Fifty-eight, Fifty-nine, Sixty, and Sixty-one in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court, but the said Section Sixty-one shall only apply where the Actions therein mentioned shall be within the Cognizance of the Court.

Pleas and subsequent Pleadings.

LVIII. All the Provisions with respect to Pleas and subsequent Pleadings which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Sixty-two, Sixty-four, Sixty-five, Sixty-six, Sixty-seven, Sixty-eight, Seventy, Seventy-one, Seventy-three, Seventy-four, Seventy-five, Seventy-six, Seventy-seven, Seventy-eight, Seventy-nine, Eighty, Eighty-one, Eighty-three, Eighty-four, Eighty-five, Eighty-six, Eighty-seven, Eighty-eight, Eighty-nine, and Ninety, in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court, but the Word "delivered" in the said Eighty-ninth Section shall be read as if the same had been "filed."

Defendant to plead in Eight Days.

LIX. The Time for Pleading in Bar, unless extended by the Court, Judge, or Registrar, shall be Eight Days; and a Notice requiring the Defendant to plead in Eight Days, or otherwise Judgment, shall be served on the Defendant or his Attorney.

Pleas Puis darrein continuance, when and how to be pleaded.

LX. In Cases in which a Plea Puis darrein continuance has heretofore been pleadable in the Superior Courts, the same Defence may be pleaded in this Court, with an Allegation that the Matter arose after the last Pleading; but no such Plea shall be allowed unless accompanied by an Affidavit stating that the Matter thereof arose within Eight Days next before the pleading of such Plea, or unless the Court or Recorder shall otherwise order.

Money, how paid into Court.

LXI. Where Money is paid into Court, it shall be paid to the Registrar, who shall give a Receipt for it in the Margin of the Plea, which Receipt shall not be liable to any Stamp Duty, and the said Sum shall be paid out to the Plaintiff, or to his Attorney, on Demand.

Examples of Pleadings.

LXII. The Provisions with respect to the Statement of Causes of Action and Forms of Pleading contained in the Ninety-first Section and Schedule (B.) of the Queen's Printer's Copies of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," shall extend and apply to the Court.

Admission of Documents.

And with respect to the Admission, Production, and Inspection of Documents:

As to Admission Documents.

LXIII. All the Provisions with respect to the Admission of Documents which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and seventeen, One hundred and eighteen, and One hundred and nineteen, in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court.

Production and Inspection of Documents.

LXIV. In any Action or other legal Proceeding in the Court the Court or Judge may, on Application made for such Purpose by either of the Litigants, compel the opposite Party to allow the Party making the Application to inspect all Documents in the Custody or under the Control of such opposite Party, relating to such Action or other legal Proceeding, and, if necessary, to take examined Copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped, in all Cases in which, previous to the passing of this Act, a Discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other Proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the Instance of the Party so making Application as aforesaid to the Court or Recorder; but nothing in this Section contained shall apply to any Action for Criminal Conversation when cognizable by the Court, or to any Action for Breach of any Promise to marry.

Judgment by Default.

LXV. All the Provisions with respect to Judgment by Default, and the Mode of ascertaining the Amount to be recovered thereupon, which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Ninety-two, Ninety-three, Ninety-four, Ninety-five, and Ninety-six in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court.

Judgment for Default.

And with respect to Judgment for Default in not proceeding to Trial:

Proceeding where Plaintiff neglects to bring Issue on to be tried.

LXVI. Where any Issue is or shall be joined in any Cause, and the Plaintiff has neglected or shall neglect to bring such Issue on to be tried at or before the Second Court for the Trial of Issues next after Issue joined, whether the Plaintiff shall in the meantime have given Notice of Trial or not, the Defendant may give Ten Days Notice to the Plaintiff to bring the Issue on to be tried at the Court for the Trial of Issues next after the Expiration of the Notice; and if the Plaintiff afterwards neglect to give Notice of Trial for such Court, or to proceed to Trial in pursuance of the said Notice given by the Defendant, the Defendant may enter the Proceedings on Record, and suggest thereon that the Plaintiff has failed to proceed to Trial, although duly required so to do (which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue), and may sign Judgment for his Costs; provided that the Court shall have Power to extend the Time for proceeding to Trial, with or without Terms.

Defendant's Right to try upon Default of of the Plaintiff preserved.

LXVII. Nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of a Defendant to set down a Cause for Trial, after Default by the Plaintiff to proceed to Trial, according to the Course and Practice of the Court; and if Records are entered for Trial both by the Plaintiff and the Defendant, the Defendant's Record shall be treated as standing next in Order after the Plaintiff's Record in the List of Causes, and the Trial of the Cause shall take place accordingly.

Juries.

With respect to Juries:

Who to be Jurors. 6 G. 4. c. 50.

LXVIII. Every Person, being a Citizen of the City, (unless he shall be exempt or disqualified otherwise than in respect of Property from serving on Juries by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries, as the same Act has been altered by the Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations, herein-before referred to,) shall be qualified and liable to serve upon Juries for the Trial of all Issues of Fact joined in the Court.

Copy of the Citizens Roll to be delivered to Registrar.

LXIX. The Town Clerk of the City shall once in every Year, within Seven Days after the Citizens Roll shall have been made up, deliver a written or printed Copy of such Roll, signed by him, to the Registrar, without the Payment of any Fee for the same.

LXX. Previously

Registrar to summon Jury.

LXX. Previously to the holding of any Court for the Trial of Issues of Fact the Registrar shall cause to be summoned not less than Thirty-six nor more than Sixty Persons so qualified and liable as aforesaid to serve as Jurors at the holding of such Court; and such Summons shall be made by showing to the Person to be summoned, or in case he shall be absent from the usual Place of his Abode or Business, then by leaving with the Wife or Servant of such Person or with any Inmate at his usual Place of Abode or Business a Notice containing the Substance of such Summons; and the Registrar shall make out a Panel of the Persons so summoned, and such Panel shall contain therein the Christian Names and Surnames and Places of Abode and Descriptions of the several Persons therein named.

Fine on Jurors for Non-attendance.

LXXI. If any Person, having been duly summoned to attend on any Jury, whether common or special, shall not attend in pursuance of such Summons, or, being thrice called, shall not answer to his Name, or after his Appearance shall wilfully withdraw himself from the Presence of the Court, the Judge shall impose such Fine upon every Person so making default (unless some reasonable Excuse shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Judge) as the Judge shall think meet; and if any Person on whom such Fine shall be imposed shall refuse to pay the same to the Registrar, it shall be lawful for the Judge, then, or at the next or some subsequent Sitting of the Court, by an Order signed by the Registrar, to cause to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person on whom such Fine shall have been imposed every such Fine, and the reasonable Charges of every such Distress and Sale; and every Fine so received shall be paid to the Registrar, to be by him carried to the Account of the General Fund of the Court; provided nevertheless, that no Person shall be summoned to serve as a Juror at the Court oftener than once in One Year, unless every Person qualified and liable so to serve shall have been summoned once during that Year.

Members of the Council, &c. exempt from serving on Juries.

LXXII. Every Member of the Council, and every Justice, and the Treasurer and Town Clerk for the Time being of the City of Manchester, and the said Serjeant-at-Mace, and the Registrar, and all other Officers of the Court, shall be exempt and disqualified from serving on any Jury summoned for the Trial of Issues of Fact in the Court.

If a full Jury shall not appear, or are reduced by Challenges, Court may order Jury to be made from Persons present.

LXXIII. If a full Jury shall not appear before the Court, or if, after the Appearance of a full Jury, by Challenge of any of the Parties, the Jury is likely to remain untaken for Default of Jurors, the Court, upon Request made by the Parties, Plaintiff or Defendant, or their respective Attornies, shall command the Registrar to name and appoint, as often as need shall require, so many of such other Citizens then present as shall make up a full Jury; and the Registrar shall at such Command of the Court return such Citizens as shall be present or can be found to serve on such Jury, and shall add and annex their Names to the former Panel; and all and every the Parties aforesaid shall and may in each of the Cases aforesaid have their respective Challenges to the Jurors so newly added and annexed; and the Court shall proceed to the Trial of every such Issue with those Jurors who were before empannelled, together with the Talesman so newly added and annexed, as if all the said Jurors had been so returned upon the Writ or Precept awarded to try the Issue.

Power to Court to order a View, if thought necessary.

LXXIV. In any Case in which it shall appear to the Court proper and necessary that some of the Jurors who are to try any Issue joined in such Case should have a View of any Place which may be in question on the Trial of such Issue, in every such Case the Court may order a Rule to be drawn up containing the usual Terms, and also requiring, if such Court shall so think fit, the Party applying for the View to deposit in the Hands of the Registrar a Sum of Money to be named in the Rule, for Payment of the Expenses of the View; and all the Provisions with respect to a View contained in the Section of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and fourteen in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the same Act, shall extend and apply to the Court; and the said Section so applied shall be read as if the Word "Sheriff" therein had been "Registrar," and as if the Words "and shall also return "their Names to the Associate for the Purpose of their being called as Jurymen upon the Trial" had not been used therein.

Cross Judgments.

LXXV. If there shall be Cross Judgments between the Parties, Execution shall be taken out by that Party only who shall have obtained Judgment for the larger Sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller Sum, and Satisfaction for the Remainder shall be entered as well as Satisfaction on the Judgment for the smaller Sum, and if both Sums shall be equal Satisfaction shall be entered upon both Judgments.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 76. as to Executions extended to Court.

LXXVI. All the Provisions with respect to Executions which are contained in the Sections of "The "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and twenty-three and One hundred and twenty-six in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall extend and apply to the Court.

Provisions for issuing and renewing Writs of Execution, and for maintaining Precedence thereof.

LXXVII. All Writs of Execution shall be sealed by the Registrar, and directed to the Serjeant-at-Mace, or to any other Officer named in the Writ, and may be made returnable immediately after the Execution thereof, provided that a Writ of Execution issued after the Commencement of this Act, if unexecuted, shall not remain in force for more than the Time to be limited by a Rule of Court in that Behalf, unless renewed in the Manner herein-after provided; but such Writ may at any Time before its Expiration be renewed by the Party issuing it for the like Time from the Date of such Renewal, and so on from Time to Time during the Continuance of the renewed Writ, either by being marked with a Seal bearing the Date of the Day, Month, and Year of such Renewal, (such Seal to be provided and kept by the Registrar for such Purpose,) or by such Party giving or filing a written Notice of Renewal to or at the Office of the Serjeant-at-Mace, signed by the Party or his Attorney, and bearing the like Seal of the Court, which said Notice the said Serjeant-at-Mace is hereby required to file, and a Writ of Execution so renewed shall take effect and be entitled to Priority according to the Time of the original Delivery thereof.

Production of renewed Writ, Evidence of Renewal.

LXXVIII. The Production of a Writ of Execution, or of the Notice renewing the same, purporting to be marked with such Seal, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient Evidence of its having been so renewed.

Detention of Persons in Custody.

LXXIX. Any Person already in Custody in the Gaol of the City or in any Prison for the Reception of Debtors in the County of Lancaster may be charged and detained in Execution by an Order of the Court for that Purpose, made on Affidavit that a Judgment in the Court has been signed, and is not satisfied, and the Service of such Order upon the Keeper of such Prison for the Time being shall have the Effect of a Detainer for such unsatisfied Judgment.

Revival of Judgments.

And with respect to the Revival of Judgments:

Proceedings to revive.

LXXX. All the Provisions with respect to Proceedings for the Revival of Judgments, and other Proceedings by and against Persons not Parties to the Record, which are contained in the Sections of "The "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and twenty-eight, One hundred and twenty-nine, One hundred and thirty, One hundred and thirty-one, One hundred and thirty-two, One hundred and thirty-three, and One hundred and thirty- four in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act (except so much of the said One hundred and thirty-first Section as relates to the Venue in a Declaration upon a Writ of Revivor) shall extend and apply to the Court; but the said Section One hundred and thirty-two, as so applied, shall be read as if the Words "or for the Recovery of Land taken under an Elegit" had not been used therein.

Death, Marriage, and Bankruptcy.

LXXXI. All the Provisions with respect to the Effect of Death, Marriage, and Bankruptcy upon the Proceedings in an Action which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, "1852," numbered One hundred and thirty-five, One hundred and thirty-six, One hundred and thirty-seven, One hundred and thirty-eight, One hundred and thirty-nine, One hundred and forty, One hundred and forty-one, and One hundred and forty-two in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, except the Words "Two "Terms" in the said One hundred and thirty-ninth Section, shall extend and apply to the Court; and the said Section numbered One hundred and thirty-nine shall be read as if the Words "Three Months" had been used therein instead of the Words "Two Terms;" and the said Section One hundred and thirty-eight, as so applied, shall be read as if, instead of the Words "shall be served together," the Words "shall be filed "together" had been used; and the said Section One hundred and forty-two, as so applied, shall be read as if, instead of the Words "Judge's Order," the Words "Order of the Court or Recorder" had been used, and as if, instead of the Words "Judge may order," the Words "Court or Recorder may order," had been used therein.

Arrest of Judgment and Judgment non obstante veredicto.

LXXXII. All the Provisions with respect to the Proceedings upon Motions to arrest the Judgment and for Judgment non obstante veredicto, which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law "Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and forty-three, One hundred and forty-four, and One hundred and forty-five, (except such Part of the Section numbered One hundred and forty-three in the said Act as relates to a Motion in arrest of Judgment, pursuant to the First of William the Fourth, Chapter Seven,) shall extend and apply to the Court.

Judgment and Execution, &c.

And with respect to Judgment and Execution, and to granting new Trials, and entering Nonsuits and Verdicts:

When Costs may be taxed and Execution issued.

LXXXIII. The Costs may be taxed by the Registrar, and final Judgment signed and Execution issued on any Day subsequent to the Day on which the Issue may have been tried or the Inquiry executed; provided, that the Recorder or the Court may in either of such Cases order Proceedings to be stayed for such Time and on such Terms as he or it may deem fit.

Judge may hold Courts for Trial of Issues of Law only.

LXXXIV. The Judge may appoint and hold a Court for the Trial of Issues of Law only at any Place either within or out of the Jurisdiction, of which Court, and the Time and Place of holding the same, Ten Days previous Notice shall be given by the Registrar to the Parties or their Attornies, through the Post or otherwise.

Power to the Recorder, when out of the City, to hear Motions.

LXXXV. The Recorder may, at any Time within Twenty-one Days after the Trial of any Cause, and whether the Court be sitting or not, and either when within or when out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, hear and grant Applications for Rules to show Cause in arrest of Judgment, or for Judgment non obstante veredicto, or for a Repleader, or for granting new Trials, or for entering Nonsuits and Verdicts in Causes pending in the Court, to the same Extent, and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, and Manner of proceeding, as in the Superior Courts; and all Rules and Orders made by him upon the Hearing of such Motions out of Court shall be as valid and binding upon the Parties as if the same had been made during the sitting of the Court.

Rules to enter Verdict, &c. to be moved before any of the Courts of Westminster, by Leave.

LXXXVI. If upon the Trial of any Issue the Recorder shall grant Leave to the Plaintiff or Defendant to move in any One of the Superior Courts to set aside a Verdict or Nonsuit, and to enter a Verdict for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or to enter a Nonsuit, or to arrest the Judgment, or for Judgment non obstante veredicto, as the Case may be, or for a new Trial, the Party to whom such Leave may have been given may apply by Motion to such Superior Courts, within such Period of Time after the Trial as Motions of the like kind shall from Time to Time be permitted to be made in such Superior Court, for a Rule to show Cause why such Verdict or Nonsuit should not be set aside, and a Verdict entered for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or a Nonsuit entered, or the Judgment arrested, or Judgment non obstante veredicto entered, or why a new Trial should not be had, as the Case may be, in such Action, which Superior Court is hereby authorized and empowered to grant or refuse such Rule, which Rule, when granted, shall operate as a Stay of Proceedings until the Determination thereof, and afterwards to proceed to hear and determine the Merits thereof, and to make such Orders thereupon, and as to the Costs, as the same Court shall think proper; and in case such Court shall order a new Trial to be had in any such Action, the Party obtaining such Order shall deliver the same, or an Office Copy thereof, to the Registrar of the Court, and thereupon all the Proceedings on the former Verdict or Nonsuit shall cease, and the Action shall proceed to Trial, according to the Practice of the Court, in like manner as if no Trial had been had therein; or in case the Court before whom such Rule shall be heard shall order the same to be discharged, the Party obtaining any such Order may, upon delivering the same or an Office Copy thereof to the Registrar, be at liberty to proceed in any such Action as if no such Rule Nisi had been obtained; and if a Verdict be ordered to be entered for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or a Nonsuit be ordered, or Judgment be ordered to be arrested, or Judgment non obstante veredicto be ordered to be entered, as the Case may be, Judgment shall be entered accordingly: the Proceedings to set aside the Verdict and order a new Trial to be had, or to enter a Verdict for either Party, according to Leave reserved at the Trial, shall be the same as in ordinary Cases.

Power of granting new Trials.

LXXXVII. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Court or the Recorder from granting any new Trial, or setting aside any Nonsuit, or entering a Nonsuit, or altering a Verdict, as heretofore.

New Trials may be moved for in the Superior Courts, on certain Conditions.

LXXXVIII. It shall be lawful for any Party to any Suit in the Court, who shall be dissatisfied with any Verdict or Judgment given, or any Nonsuit entered against him, in any Action which shall have been tried in the Court, to apply, within One Month next after such Verdict or Judgment given or Nonsuit entered, to any of the Superior Courts, or to any Judge of any of the said Courts, for a Rule to show Cause why a new Trial of such Action should not be granted, or Nonsuit set aside and a new Trial granted, or a Verdict entered, or Judgment for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or a Nonsuit entered, as the Case may be, in the same Manner as is customary in Actions depending in the Superior Courts, and tried at Nisi Prius before any Judge of Assize, by virtue of any Record in any of the Superior Courts; and thereupon it shall be lawful for any of the Superior Courts, or any Judge of One of the Superior Courts, to grant such Rule, and to hear and determine the Merits of the same, in like Manner as in Actions depending in the Superior Courts, and tried as aforesaid; and in case any of the Superior Courts, or any Judge of One of the Superior Courts, shall make the Rule absolute, which they are severally empowered to do, upon such Terms as they shall respectively think reasonable, then, on Delivery of an Office Copy of such Rule by the Party who shall have obtained the same to the Registrar of the Court, all Proceedings upon the former Verdict, Judgment, or Nonsuit so obtained in the Court shall cease, and the said Action shall proceed anew to a Trial in the Court, or a Verdict or Judgment for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or a Nonsuit, shall be entered, according to the Tenor of such absolute Rule: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Party to move for any such Rule, nor shall any such Rule be of any Force, unless and until the Party intending to apply for such Rule shall become bound by Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Registrar, in such reasonable Sums as he shall deem sufficient for the Security of the Party against whom such Rule is to be applied for, that the Party intending to apply for such Rule will, in case such Rule is not granted, or in case it be granted, and not made absolute, pay the Debt, Damages, and Costs, or the Damages and Costs, or Costs, as the Case may be, adjudged or to be adjudged, and all Costs incurred by the other Party in showing Cause against the Rule; provided, that no Proceedings upon such Verdict, Judgment, or Nonsuit shall be stayed, where such Application is not made by Leave of the Judge, until such Security shall have been given, but the giving of such Security shall operate as a Stay of Proceedings until the Expiration of the said Month, and until the Decision of the Rule, in case such Rule to show Cause be granted within such Month; but when the Application shall be made by Leave of the Judge such Leave shall operate as a Stay of Proceedings for One Month.

Removal of Judgments in the Superior Courts.

LXXXIX. In all Cases where final Judgment shall be obtained in any Suit brought in the Court, and also in all Cases where any Rule or Order shall be made by the Judge for the Payment of any Sum of Money, or any Costs, Charges, or Expenses, it shall be lawful for any Judge of any of the Superior Courts, either in Term or Vacation, upon the Application of any Person entitled to the Benefit of such Judgment, Rule, or Order, and upon the Production of such Judgment or Order, under the Seal of the Court and Signature of the proper Officer, to direct such Judgment or Order to be removed into the Superior Court; and thereupon such Judgment, Rule, or Order shall be of the same Effect as a Judgment recovered in or a Rule or Order made by such Superior Court, and all Proceedings shall and may be immediately had and taken thereupon, or by reason or in consequence thereof, as if such Judgment so recovered or Rule or Order so made had been originally recovered in or made by the Superior Court, and all the reasonable Costs and Charges of such Application and Removal shall be recovered in like Manner as if the same were Part of such Judgment, Rule, or Order; provided always, that no Judgment, Rule, or Order so removed shall affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, any further than the same would have done if the same had remained a Judgment, Rule, or Order of the Court, unless and until a Writ of Execution thereon shall be actually put into the Hands of the Sheriff or other Officer appointed to execute the same.

Proceedings in Error.

And with respect to Proceedings in Error:

Provisions of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 76. as to Pro-

XC. All the Provisions with respect to Proceedings in Error which are contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and forty-six, One hundred and forty-seven, One hundred and forty-eight, One hundred and forty-nine, One hundred and fifty, One hundred and fifty-one, One hundred and fifty-two, One hundred and fifty-three, One hundred and fifty-four, One ceedings in Error extended to Court.

One hundred and fifty-five, One hundred and fifty-six, One hundred and fifty-seven, One hundred and fifty-eight, One hundred and fifty-nine, One hundred and sixty, One hundred and sixty-one, One hundred and sixty-two, One hundred and sixty-three, One hundred and sixty-four, One hundred and sixty-five, One hundred and sixty-six, and One hundred and sixty-seven in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act shall extend and apply to the Court: Provided always, that Error may be brought in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, and that it shall not be necessary to bring the Judgment Roll into the Superior Court in which Error shall be brought, as required and provided by the said Section numbered One hundred and fifty-five in the Queen's Printer's said Copies, but it shall be sufficient, in the Place thereof, to transmit to the Superior Court a Transcript of the Record of any Judgment or Proceeding in the Court on which Error is alleged, and that the Judgment of the Superior Court thereon shall be certified by the proper Officer of the Superior Court, or by Rule of Court, as the Superior Court may direct, and thereupon such Judgment shall be entered on the original Record in the Court, and such further Proceedings as may be necessary thereon shall be awarded by the Court, subject to the Right of either Party to allege Errors in the said Judgment in the Superior Court, and proceed thereon as provided by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," in the Case of Errors alleged in Actions depending in such Superior Court.

Proviso.

No Execution shall be stayed by Writ of Error, except on certain Conditions.

XCI. No Execution shall be stayed or delayed upon or by any Writ of Error or Supersedeas thereon to be sued for the reversing of any Judgment given in the Court, unless the Person or Persons in whose Name such Writ shall be brought shall become bound by Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Registrar, in such reasonable Sums and in such Manner as the Registrar shall deem sufficient, for the Security of the other Party, to prosecute the said Writ with Effect, and if the said Judgment be affirmed, or the said Writ be not proceeded in, to satisfy and pay the Amount of such Judgment, and all Costs and Damages sustained by the delaying of Execution, and all Costs of Error; provided always, that a Judge of any of the Superior Courts may order Execution to be stayed upon any such Judgment by a Writ of Error returnable in any Superior Court, without such Security as aforesaid.

Actions of Ejectment.

And with respect to the Action of Ejectment:

Certain Provisions of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 76. as to Ejectment extended to Court;

XCII. All the Provisions contained in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered One hundred and sixty-eight, One hundred and sixty-nine, One hundred and seventy, One hundred and seventy-one, One hundred and seventy-two, One hundred and seventy-four, One hundred and seventy-five, One hundred and seventy-six, One hundred and seventy-seven, One hundred and seventy-eight (except such Part thereof as relates to the Sheriff being directed to summon a Jury), One hundred and seventy-nine, One hundred and eighty, One hundred and eighty-one, One hundred and eighty-three, One hundred and eighty-four, One hundred and eighty-five, One hundred and eighty-six, One hundred and eighty-seven, One hundred and ninety, One hundred and ninety-one, One hundred and ninety-two, One hundred and ninety-three, One hundred and ninety-four, One hundred and ninety-five, One hundred and ninety-six, One hundred and ninety-seven, One hundred and ninety-eight, One hundred and ninety-nine, Two hundred, Two hundred and one, Two hundred and three, Two hundred and four, Two hundred and five, Two hundred and six, Two hundred and seven, Two hundred and eight, Two hundred and nine, Two hundred and ten, Two hundred and eleven, Two hundred and twelve, Two hundred and thirteen, Two hundred and fourteen, Two hundred and fifteen, Two hundred and sixteen, Two hundred and eighteen, and Two hundred and twenty-one in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, so far as such Provisions extend or are or may be applicable to an Action of Ejectment between Landlord and Tenant, shall extend and apply to the Court; but Sections One hundred and seventy-five and One hundred and seventy-nine respectively of "The Common Law Procedure Act," as applied to the Court, shall be read as if instead of the Word "Judge" the Expression "Recorder or "Court" had been used therein; and Section One hundred and seventy-eight, as so applied, shall be read as if instead of the Word "Sheriff" the Word "Registrar" had been used therein; and such Parts of the Provisions and Enactments contained in the before-mentioned Sections as relate to the Time within which Judgment may be signed and Execution issue shall not be so extended or applied, and in lieu thereof Judgment may be signed and Execution issue on any Day subsequent to the Day on which the Issue may come on to be tried, unless the Recorder or the Court shall order Proceedings to be stayed.

but certain Sections of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 76. to be read as herein stated.

Judgment for not proceeding to Trial after Notice.

XCIII. If, after Appearance entered, the Claimant, without going to Trial, allow the Time allowed for going to Trial by the Practice of the Court in ordinary Cases after Issue joined to elapse, the Defendant in Ejectment may give Ten Days Notice to the Claimant to proceed to Trial at the Court holden for the Trial of Issues next after the Expiration of the Notice; and if the Claimant afterwards neglect to give Notice of Trial for such Court, or to proceed to Trial, in pursuance of the said Notice given by the Defendant, and the Time for going to Trial shall not be extended by the Court, the Defendant may sign Judgment in the Form contained in the Schedule (A.) to "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," annexed, marked Number Nineteen, and recover the Costs of Defence.

Amendment of Proceedings by Recorder.

XCIV. 'And whereas the Power of Amendment now vested in the Court and the Recorder is insuffi-'cient to enable them to prevent the Failure of Justice by reason of Mistakes and Objections of Form:' Therefore be it enacted as follows: It shall be lawful for the Court and for the Recorder at all Times to amend all Defects and Errors in any Proceeding, whether there is anything in Writing to amend by or not, and whether the Defect or Error be that of the Party applying to amend or not; and all such Amendments may be made with or without Costs, or upon such Terms as to the Court or Recorder, as the

the Case may be, may seem fit; and all such Amendments as may be necessary for the Purpose of determining in the existing Suit the real Question in controversy between the Parties shall be so made.

General Rules may be made.

XCV. The Powers contained in and conferred by the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," numbered Two hundred and twenty-three, Two hundred and twenty-four, and Two hundred and twenty-five in the Queen's Printer's Copies of the said Act, shall and may be exercised, so far as they may apply to the Court, by the Recorder, with the Approbation of One of the Judges of the Superior Courts.

Rules of Superior Courts may be adopted.

XCVI. In any Case not expressly provided for herein, or by the Rules regulating the Practice of the Court, the general Principles of Practice in the Superior Courts shall and may be adopted and applied to Actions and Proceedings in the Court.

Affidavits.

And with respect to Affidavits:

Affidavits may be sworn out of Jurisdiction.

XCVII. In every Case in which, according to the Practice of the Court, any Affidavit may be filed, read, or used, the same Affidavit shall and may be sworn before the Court, or the Recorder, or the Registrar thereof, and if made by any Person residing or being at the Time Three Miles or more beyond the Limits of the said City, shall and may be sworn before any Judge of the Superior Courts, or before any Commissioner for taking Affidavits in any of such Courts.

Costs.

And with respect to Costs:

Plaintiff recovering not exceeding Forty Shillings to have no Costs.

XCVIII. If in any Action, not being an Action for malicious Prosecution, or for Libel, or for Slander, or for Criminal Conversation, or for Seduction, the Plaintiff shall recover a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, the Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover such Sum only, and no Costs, except in the Cases herein-after provided, and except in the Case of a Judgment by Default; and it shall not be necessary to enter any Suggestion on the Record to deprive such Plaintiff of Costs, nor shall any such Plaintiff be entitled to Costs by reason of any Privilege as Attorney or Officer of the Court, or otherwise.

Judge at Trial, or other presiding Officer, may certify, to entitle Plaintiff to Costs.

XCIX. If the Plaintiff shall in any Action, not being an Action for malicious Prosecution, or for Libel, or for Slander, or for Criminal Conversation, or for Seduction, recover a Sum not exceeding the Sum in that Behalf herein-before mentioned, by Verdict, and the Recorder shall certify on the Back of the Record that it appeared to him that there was a sufficient Reason for bringing the said Action in the Court, the Plaintiff shall in such Case have Judgment to recover his full Costs of Suit.

If the Court make an Order, Plaintiff to have Costs.

C. If the Plaintiff in any Action, not being an Action for malicious Prosecution, or for Libel, or for Slander, or for Criminal Conversation, or for Seduction, shall recover a Sum not exceeding the Sum in that Behalf before mentioned, where there is no Verdict, and shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Court, on Summons, that the Action was brought for a Cause for which no Plaint could have been entered in the County Court of Lancashire holden at Manchester, or that there was a sufficient Reason for bringing the Action in the Court, the Court may by Rule or Order direct that the Plaintiff shall recover his full Costs, and thereupon the Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover his Costs accordingly.

And with respect to Interpleader:

Interpleader by Defendant in Action.

CI. Upon Application made by or on behalf of any Defendant in any Action in the Court, such Application being made after Declaration, and before Plea, by Affidavit or otherwise, showing that such Defendant does not claim any Interest in the Subject Matter of the Suit, but that the Right thereto is claimed or supposed to belong to some Third Party who has sued or is expected to sue for the same, and that such Defendant does not in any Manner collude with such Third Party, but is ready to bring into Court or to pay or dispose of the Subject Matter of the Action, in such Manner as the Court may order or direct, it shall be lawful for the Registrar to issue a Summons calling upon such Third Party to appear in Court, and to state the Nature and Particulars of his Claim, and maintain or relinquish his Claim, which Summons may be served upon such Third Party in any Part of England or Wales; and upon such Summons the Court may hear the Allegations, as well of such Third Party as of the Plaintiff, and in the meantime to stay the Proceedings in such Action, and finally to order such Third Party to make himself Defendant in the same or some other Action, or to proceed to Trial on One or more Issue or Issues, and also to direct which of the Parties shall be Plaintiff or Defendant on such Trial, or, with the Consent of the Plaintiff and such Third Party, their Counsel or Attornies, to dispose of the Merits of their Claims, and determine the same in a summary Manner, and to make such Rules and Orders therein as to Costs and all other Matters as may appear to be just and reasonable.

Judgment and Decision final.

CII. The Judgment in any such Action or Issue as may be directed by the Court, and the Decision of the Court in a summary Manner, shall be final and conclusive against the Parties and all Person claiming by, from, or under them.

Claim of Party not appearing barred.

CIII. If such Third Party shall not appear upon such Summons, to maintain or relinquish his Claim, being duly served therewith, or shall neglect or refuse to comply with any Rule or Order to be made after Appearance, it shall be lawful for the Court to declare such Third Party, and all Persons claiming by, from, or under him, to be for ever barred from prosecuting his Claim against the original Defendant, his Executors or Administrators, saving nevertheless the Right or Claim of such Third Party against the Plaintiff, and thereupon to make such Order between such Defendant and the Plaintiff as to Costs and other Matters as may appear just and reasonable.

Serjeants-at-Mace.

And for Relief of the Serjeant-at-Mace:

For Relief of Serjeant-at-Mace in Exe-

CIV. When any Claim shall be made to or in respect of any Goods or Chattels taken or intended to be taken in Execution under the Process of the Court, or to or in respect of the Proceeds or Value thereof, by any Landlord for Rent, or by any Person, not being the Party against whom such Process has issued,

it

cution of Process against Goods.

it shall be lawful to and for the Registrar, upon Application of the Serjeant-at-Mace or any of his Officers, made before or after the Return of such Process, and as well before as after any Action brought against such Serjeant-at-Mace or any of his Officers, to issue a Summons calling before the Court, as well the Party issuing such Process as the Party making such Claim, and thereupon any Action which shall have been brought in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, or in the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster, or in any local or inferior Court of Record, in respect of such Claim, shall be stayed; and the Court in which such Action shall have been brought, or any Judge thereof, on Proof of the Issue of such Summons, and that the Goods and Chattels were so taken in Execution, may order the Party bringing such Action to pay the Costs of all Proceedings had upon such Action after the Issue of such Summons; and the Court shall thereupon exercise, for the Adjustment of such Claims, and the Relief and Protection of the Serjeant-at-Mace or any of his Officers, all or any of the Powers and Authorities herein-before contained, and make such Rules and Decisions as shall appear to be just, according to the Circumstances of the Case; and the Costs of all such Proceedings shall be in the Discretion of the Court; and the Serjeant-at-Mace or his Officers shall retain Possession of such Goods and Chattels so taken in possession as aforesaid, until the Court shall have so decided as aforesaid, or until it shall otherwise order, unless the Party claiming such Goods or Chattels shall deposit with the Serjeant-at-Mace the Amount in Money for which the same were taken or intended to be taken in Execution, and all Costs and Expenses of taking and keeping the same, and such Sum as the Court shall fix to answer the Costs of and incident to interpleading.

Rules, &c. may be entered of Record.

CV. All Orders, Rules, Matters, and Decisions to be made and done in pursuance of the before-mentioned Interpleader Provisions, except only the Affidavits to be filed, may, together with the Declaration in the Cause (if any), be entered of Record, with a Note in the Margin expressing the true Date of such Entry, to the end that the same may be Evidence in future Times, if required, and to secure and enforce the Payment of Costs directed by any such Rule or Order, and every such Rule or Order so entered shall have the Force and Effect of a Judgment, except only as to becoming a Charge on any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; and in case any Costs shall not be paid within Five Days after Notice of the Taxation and Amount thereof given to the Party ordered to pay the same, his Agent or Attorney, Execution may issue for the same by Fieri facias or Capias ad satisfaciendum, according to the Nature of the Case, together with the Costs of such Entry and of the Execution, and such Writ and Writs may bear Teste on the Day of issuing the same; and the Serjeant-at-Mace executing such Writ shall be entitled to the same Fees, and no more, as upon any similar Writ grounded upon a Judgment of the Court.

Attendance of Witnesses.

CVI. Any of the Parties to the Application or Hearing shall be at liberty to issue a Subpœna, and shall have the same Powers of compelling the Attendance of Witnesses to give Evidence on the Hearing of the said Summons as is contained in the Thirty-second Section of this Act, and shall have all the same Remedies against such Persons in case of Nonattendance as is therein also contained.

Powers of Superior Court or Judge to be exercised by Court.

CVII. All the Powers exerciseable by a Judge or any Number of Judges under any of the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," by this Act extended and applied to the Court, and which are not otherwise provided for by this Act, shall, as regards Matters to be done under the Authority of this Act, be exerciseable and exercised by the Court or Recorder.

Powers of Master of Superior Court to be exercised by Registrar.

CVIII. All the Powers exerciseable by a Master or any Number of Masters under any of the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," by this Act extended and applied to the Court, and which are not otherwise provided for by this Act, shall, as regards Matters to be done under the Authority of this Act, be exerciseable and exercised by the Registrar of the Court.

Powers of Master and Judge extended to Recorder and Registrar.

CIX. All the Powers exerciseable by a Master and Judge, or a Master and any Number of Judges, or any Number of Masters and a Judge, or any Number of Masters and any Number of Judges, under any of the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," by this Act extended and applied to the Court, and which are not otherwise provided for by this Act, shall, as regards Matters to be done under the Authority of this Act, be exerciseable and exercised by the Recorder and Registrar.

Forms referred to in the "Common Law Procedure Act" applied to this Act.

CX. All Forms referred to in the Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," extended and applied to this Act, may from Time to Time be modified and altered by the Recorder, by a Rule or Rules of Court, so as to adapt them to the Court; and no Rule made for this Purpose only shall require any Assent of a Judge of One of the Superior Courts or of any other Person, and the said Forms so modified and altered shall have the Effect as to all Proceedings in or by the Court which the said Forms in "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," have as to Proceedings in the Superior Courts.

Power to take Recognizances.

CXI. The Court or the Judge shall have Power to take any Recognizance which under the Provisions of this Act, or of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," by this Act extended to the Court, any Person may be required to make or enter into, or which under the same Provisions may lawfully be made or entered into; and any such Recognizance taken by the Court or Judge shall be good and valid.

Gaol for the Custody of Parties in Execution.

CXII. The Gaol of the City shall be the Gaol for the Custody of Persons in Execution under the Process of the Court, and to which the Serjeant-at-Mace of the said City may and shall take such Person so in Execution when he might or ought by Law to take them to Prison, and the Keeper of the said Gaol shall receive every such Person so brought to him; and the Serjeant-at-Mace, on delivering such Person to the said Keeper, shall be discharged from all Responsibility in reference to the Custody of such Person; and every such Keeper shall thereupon be responsible for the safe Custody of such Person, and liable for any Escape or Escapes, in like Manner as Sheriffs and Gaolers having the Custody of Persons in Execution are by Law responsible, but not otherwise; and no Party shall be liable, as for an Escape or otherwise, by reason of the Body of such Person so taken into Execution being carried out of the Jurisdiction to the said Prison for such Purpose as aforesaid, or being brought backwards and forwards into into and out of the Jurisdiction for any legal Purpose, in any Case where he would not have been so liable if the said Prison and the Road thereunto had been within the Jurisdiction of the Court.

Extent of Provisions as to Debtors in Execution.

CXIII. All the Provisions herein-before contained in reference to the Custody of the Bodies of Persons in Execution under Process of the Court, shall apply to Persons in Custody under any Order, Rule, Process, Attachment, or other Proceeding in the Court, in the same Manner in all respects as the same apply to Persons in Custody in Execution as aforesaid.

Persons committed under 8 & 9 Vict. c. 127. may be sent to City Gaol.

CXIV. All Persons committed to Custody by the Court or the Recorder under the Provisions of an Act, the Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty-seven, (Public General,) may be committed, if the Court or the Recorder shall think fit, to the Gaol of the City, anything in the last-mentioned Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Execution of Warrants of Commitment.

CXV. All Warrants of Commitment under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act may be executed anywhere in England or Wales, provided the same, if executed out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, shall be previously signed or endorsed in manner by the same Act provided.

Actions, &c. commenced when Act comes into operation not to abate.

CXVI. All Actions, Proceedings, Matters, and Things in or appertaining to the Court which shall be commenced or depending before or at the Time when this Act shall come into operation shall be continued in manner provided by the said Act, the Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-five, and as if the same were not repealed; and the Court, Recorder, Registrar, Serjeant-at-Mace, and all other Persons, shall, as to the same Actions, Proceedings, Matters, and Things, have and be under the same Powers, Provisions, and Liabilities as if this Act had not been passed.

Commencement of Act.

CXVII. This Act shall come into operation at the Expiration of Two Months after the passing thereof.

Costs of Act.

CXVIII. The Costs of and relating to the passing of this Act shall be paid out of the City Fund of the said City.

Anno Regni VICTORIÆ, Britanniarum Reginæ, Decimo Octavo & Decimo Nono.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Fourth Day of November, Anno Domini 1852, in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith: and from thence continued, by several Prorogations, to the Twelfth Day of December 1854; being the Third Session of the Sixteenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.'

CAP. I.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to accept the Services of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War. [23d December 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is important that effectual Measures should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War, and it is therefore expedient that Her Majesty should be empowered to accept any Offers of a Proportion of the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the Militia of the United Kingdom for such extended Service as herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Her Majesty to accept the voluntary Offers of the Militia to serve out of the United Kingdom.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to accept the Services, and to employ in any Parts or Places out of the United Kingdom, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in this Act, such Part of the Militia raised or to be raised in any Part of the United Kingdom, not exceeding in any Case Three Fourths of the actual Establishment of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of any such Militia, as may make a voluntary Offer, duly certified by their respective Commanding Officers, so to extend their Services, and as Her Majesty may think proper to permit to extend their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offers as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order signed by One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by his or their Chief Secretary, directed to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of such Militia, to propose to such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, or any Part or Parts thereof, to extend their Services to any Parts or Places out of the United Kingdom to be specified in such Order, under such Rules and Regulations as Her Majesty may think fit to appoint.

Power to allow Bounties to Persons making voluntary Offers.

II. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to direct that such Bounty as shall from Time to Time be fixed by the Secretary at War shall be allowed to every Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, and Private Man who shall make such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and every Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, and Private Man making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid shall take the following Oath; videlicet, Oath.

'I A.B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia for the Term of Five Years, in [this Blank to be filled up according to the Name of the Place or Places to which the Offer of the extended Service applies], unless I shall be sooner discharged.'

Enrolment

And every Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, and Private Man, making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid, and taking such Oath, shall be enrolled to serve in the Militia, according to the Terms of such Oath; and such several Enrolments shall take place, and such Oaths shall be administered, by the Officer commanding any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or by any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, at such Times, and under such Regulations as Her Majesty, by any Order to be signed by the Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or his or their Secretary, shall in that Behalf direct; and every Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, and Private Man so enrolled for extended Service in the Militia under the Provisions of this Act shall be entitled to his Discharge at the Expiration of the Period specified in such Oath, without regard to the Period for which he may have been enrolled to serve in the Militia under any other Act of Parliament.

Commanding Officers shall explain that Offer is voluntary.

III. No Person serving in the Militia shall be compelled to make such Offer, nor be engaged to serve out of the United Kingdom, except by his own Consent; and no Commanding Officer shall certify, according to this Act, any voluntary Offer, before he has explained to each Person offering to serve that the Offer is to be purely voluntary.

The Services of Three Field Officers may be accepted with 900 Men, Two Field Officers with 600 Men, and One with 300, &c., and Proportion of other Officers according to Establishment of Regiment.

IV. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to accept the Services of Three Field Officers of any Regiment of Militia, in which Nine hundred Private Men shall offer to extend their Services under this Act; and of Two Field Officers of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, in which Six hundred Private Men shall so offer to extend their Services; and of One Field Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, in which Three hundred Private Men, or any smaller Number not being less than Three Fourths of the Number of Private Men actually serving in such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, shall so offer to extend their Services; and in the Cases in which such Proportion of Field Officers of any Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia, from which such Numbers of Men respectively shall so volunteer as aforesaid, shall not offer to extend their Services with such Men, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to give the Rank of Field Officers to any Captains in such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia respectively, who may offer to extend their Services with such Men; and it shall also be lawful for Her Majesty to accept the Services of such Proportion of other Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Drummers, with any such Numbers of Private Men, as shall be allowed to such Numbers of Men respectively in the Establishment of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which they respectively belong.

Power to Her Majesty to form the Militia for extended Service into such Provisional Regiments or Battalions, and to appoint Field Officers to such Provisional Regiments.

V. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to form the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men who shall so extend their Services from the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia, into such Provisional Regiments or Battalions as may be deemed most expedient for Her Majesty's Service; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint any such Number of Officers of Her Regular Forces or Militia as Her Majesty may think fit to serve during any Period of extended Service of the Militia out of the United Kingdom as Field Officers in such Provisional Regiments or Battalions of Militia, in addition to the Officers of the Militia allowed to volunteer for extended Service, in proportion to the Number of Men who shall extend their Service; and all Persons so appointed to serve as Field Officers in any such Provisional Regiments or Battalions shall rank as Field Officers therein, in such Manner as Her Majesty shall direct.

Provisions for Cases where Field Officers volunteer and Militia Officers are appointed to higher Ranks.

VI. Provided always, That in every Case in which a Field Officer of Militia shall have volunteered for extended Service, the Officer having the chief Command in the Provisional Battalion shall be a Field Officer of Militia: Provided also, that all Officers of Militia appointed by Her Majesty to serve in any Provisional Battalion with higher Rank than that which they previously held in the Militia shall be deemed and taken to be Militia Officers of such higher Rank for the Purposes of this Act, and as such shall be capable of commanding such Provisional Battalion.

Rank of Militia Officers.

VII. Provided also, That no Officer of the Militia shall, while out of the United Kingdom upon any such extended Service, rank with the Officers of Her Majesty's Regular Forces higher than as a Lieutenant-Colonel of the Militia.

In case sufficient Officers do not volunteer, Her Majesty may appoint Officers.

VIII. In any Case in which the Number of Officers of each Rank so volunteering to extend their Services, and accepted by Her Majesty, shall not be in due Proportion to the Number of Men so volunteering, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint any fit Persons to be Officers in such Provisional Battalions of Militia, without regard to the Qualifications required by Law for such Officers in the Militia; but no Person so appointed by Her Majesty shall hold a Commission in any such Provisional Battalion of higher Rank than that of a Subaltern, unless he shall at the Time of such Appointment have been an Officer in Her Majesty's Regular Forces or Militia.

Her Majesty may supply Vacancies.

IX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to supply any Vacancies which may occur in Provisional Battalions of Militia in consequence of the Death, Resignation, or Dismissal of Officers appointed by Her under this Act; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the Appointment of Officers as by Law established in any Case of Vacancy which may occur in consequence of the Death, Resignation, or Dismissal of any Militia Officer who may have volunteered for extended Service.

Militia subject to Mutiny Act as Regulars, and Officers of Militia and Regular Forces to sit indiscriminately on Courts Martial.

X. All Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the Militia extending their Services under this Act shall, upon leaving the United Kingdom upon such extended Service, and during such Service until their Return to the United Kingdom, be subject to all the Laws in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, in like Manner in every respect as Her Majesty's Regular Forces; and all Officers of Her Majesty's Regular Forces shall be entitled to sit in any Court-martial upon the Trial of any Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private Man of the Militia, while so serving out of the United Kingdom under this Act; and all Officers of the Militia shall during such extended Service be entitled to sit in any Court-martial upon the Trial of any Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier of Her Majesty's Regular Forces.

To continue Militia, and remain

XI. Provided always, That all the Militia enrolled and formed for extended Service under this Act shall, notwithstanding such Extension of Service, remain subject to all the Provisions and Regulations in in force in relation to the Militia to which they shall respectively belong, except in such Cases as are in this Act particularly specified. subject to Militia Regulations.

XII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from Time to Time, to make such Regulations as Her Majesty may deem expedient for retaining, at the Expiration of any extended Service out of the United Kingdom, any Field Officers, Captains, or other Officers of Militia who have actually served upon any such extended Service in any higher Ranks than those in which they volunteered their Services, either as Supernumeraries or otherwise, upon the Establishment of the Militia to which they belonged, with the Rank in which they have so actually served, or upon such other Terms in respect to Rank and Service in the Militia as Her Majesty may think fit. Regulations may be made for retaining Officers on the Establishment of the Militia when extended Service expired.

XIII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to make such Regulations as Her Majesty may deem most expedient for the retaining upon the Establishment of the Militia to which they belong, as Supernumeraries or otherwise, any Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Drummers of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia who may not so volunteer to extend their Services, or may not be so employed upon such extended Service. Her Majesty may make Regulations for retaining Officers, &c. as Supernumeraries.

XIV. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Law respecting the Property Qualification of Captains in 'the Militia should be amended:' Be it enacted, That any Person who shall have served as a Subaltern in the Militia for Five consecutive Years may, without any Property Qualification, be appointed a Captain in the Militia, any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that such Five Years of Service of such Person as a Subaltern as aforesaid shall be the Five Years immediately preceding his Appointment to the Rank of Captain. Subalterns after 5 Years may be Captains without Qualifications.

XV. 'Whereas by the Fourth Section of the Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Queen 'Victoria, Chapter Thirteen, it is amongst other Things provided, that in the Case of drawing out and 'embodying the Militia in England, or any Part thereof, under the Authority of that Act, the Notices 'to the Militia Men to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in the Order of Her Majesty for drawing 'out and embodying the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which they belong, shall be sent by the Colonel 'or Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, by the Post, to the Residences of the 'several Men as stated on their Attestations, or as subsequently certified by them, and such Notices 'shall be sufficient in all respects: And whereas it has been found inconvenient to name in the Order of 'Her Majesty the precise Day and Place for the assembling of that Part of the Militia to which it 'refers:' Be it declared and enacted, That the Notices so sent and to be sent by the Post to the several Men, as by the said lastly above-recited Act is directed, are and shall be good and sufficient in all respects, if they specify the Day and Place which have actually been fixed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County or other Person acting in his Stead for the Meeting of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which they refer, whether such Day and Place be mentioned in Her Majesty's Order for drawing out and embodying the same or not. Notices sent by Post to be good.

XVI. The Provisions of this Act shall be construed to extend to the Regiment of Miners of Cornwall and Devon in like Manner and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as to any Regiment of Militia. Act to extend to the Miners of Cornwall and Devon.

CAP. II.

An Act to permit Foreigners to be enlisted and to serve as Officers and Soldiers in Her Majesty's Forces. [23d December 1854.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Her Majesty, during the Continuance of the War, should be enabled 'to enlist and employ Foreigners in Her Army:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to cause to be enlisted as Soldiers into Her Service Persons not being natural-born Subjects or entitled to the Privileges of natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty, who may voluntarily enter themselves for such Service, and to grant Commissions or Letters of Service to any such Persons to serve as Officers, the Persons so enlisted and commissioned to be formed into separate Regiments, Battalions, and Corps; and such Enlistment, Commission, and the Service thereunder, shall be as lawful as if such Persons were natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty. Foreigners may be enlisted, and Commissions granted to Foreigners, to be formed into separate Corps.

II. Provided always, That the Men serving under this Act shall not be employed in the United Kingdom except for the Purpose of being trained, arrayed, and formed into Regiments, Battalions, or Corps for Foreign Service, and except such Bodies of Reserve as may be kept in the United Kingdom, and which shall be kept and used solely for the Purpose of training and arraying Recruits and for supplying Vacancies in such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps; and the Men serving under this Act shall not be billeted or quartered on any Person or Persons; and that there shall not be within the United Kingdom more in the whole than Ten thousand Men serving under this Act at any One Time. Men not to be employed in United Kingdom, except for training, &c. Such Men not to be billeted, &c. Number of Men.

III. Every Person enlisted as a Soldier under the Authority of this Act shall be attested in such Manner as Her Majesty shall direct, and not otherwise; and all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Soldiers enlisting or commissioned under this Act shall take such Oath for their Fidelity during their Continuance in Her Majesty's Service as Her Majesty shall direct, and no other. Attestation on Enlistment and Oath.

Mutiny Act and Articles of War to apply to Foreigners serving under this Act.

IV. Subject to the Provisions herein contained, all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, or Private Soldiers serving under the Provisions of this Act, shall be subject to all the Provisions contained in any Act for the Time being in force "for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment "of the Army and their Quarters," and the Articles of War made in pursuance thereof, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces are subject to the same.

Officers when reduced not entitled to Half Pay, but Her Majesty may make Provision for such as are wounded, &c.

V. No Officer serving under this Act, when reduced, shall be entitled to receive Half Pay; provided nevertheless, that when any such Officer shall be rendered incapable of Military Service by Wounds or Infirmities contracted while discharging his Military Duty during the Period of his continuing to serve as such Officer under the Provisions of this Act, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to make such Provision, out of any Funds to be voted by Parliament for that Purpose, for such Officer as She shall think proper and necessary, so that such Provision shall in no Case exceed the Half Pay of the Rank in the British Service similar to that which such Officer shall have held at the Time of his becoming so incapable as aforesaid.

Continuance of this Act.

VI. This Act shall continue in force during the present War, and until One Year after the Ratification of a definitive Treaty of Peace.

CAP. III.

An Act to carry into effect a Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America.

[19th February 1855.]

'WHEREAS a Treaty was, on the Fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, 'concluded between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and 'Ireland and the United States of America, whereby it was agreed as follows:

'ARTICLE I.—It is agreed by the High Contracting Parties that, in addition to the Liberty 'secured to the United States Fishermen by the above-mentioned Convention of October 20, 1818, 'of taking, curing, and drying Fish on certain Coasts of the British North American Colonies therein 'defined, the Inhabitants of the United States shall have, in common with the Subjects of Her Bri'tannic Majesty, the Liberty to take Fish of every Kind, except Shell Fish, on the Sea Coasts and 'Shores and in the Bays, Harbours, and Creeks of Canada, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince 'Edward's Island, and of the several Islands thereunto adjacent, without being restricted to any 'distance from the Shore, with Permission to land upon the Coasts and Shores of those Colonies and 'the Islands thereof, and also upon the Magdalon Islands, for the Purpose of drying their Nets and 'curing their Fish; provided that in so doing they do not interfere with the Rights of private Pro'perty or with British Fishermen in the peaceable Use of any Part of the said Coast in their Occupancy 'for the same Purpose.

'It is understood that the above-mentioned Liberty applies solely to the Sea Fishery, and that the 'Salmon and Shad Fisheries, and all Fisheries in Rivers and the Mouths of Rivers, are hereby 'reserved exclusively for British Fishermen.

'And it is further agreed that, in order to prevent or settle any Disputes as to the Places to which 'the Reservation of exclusive Right to British Fishermen contained in this Article and that of 'Fishermen of the United States contained in the next succeeding Article apply, each of the High 'Contracting Parties, on the Application of either to the other, shall, within Six Months thereafter, 'appoint a Commissioner. The said Commissioners, before proceeding to any Business, shall make 'and subscribe a solemn Declaration that they will impartially and carefully examine and decide, to 'the best of their Judgment and according to Justice and Equity, without Fear, Favour, or Affection 'to their own Country, upon all such Places as are intended to be reserved and excluded from the 'common Liberty of fishing under this and the next succeeding Article; and such Declaration shall 'be entered on the Record of their Proceedings. The Commissioners shall name some Third 'Person to act as an Arbitrator or Umpire in any Case or Cases on which they may themselves 'differ in Opinion. If they should not be able to agree upon the Name of such Third Person, they 'shall each name a Person, and it shall be determined by Lot which of the Two Persons so named 'shall be the Arbitrator or Umpire in Cases of Difference or Disagreement between the Commis'sioners. The Person so to be chosen to be Arbitrator or Umpire shall, before proceeding to act 'as such in any Case, make and subscribe a solemn Declaration in a Form similar to that which 'shall already have been made and subscribed by the Commissioners, which shall be entered on the 'Record of their Proceedings. In the event of the Death, Absence, or Incapacity of either of the 'Commissioners or of the Arbitrator or Umpire, or of their or his omitting, declining, or ceasing to 'act as such Commissioner, Arbitrator, or Umpire, another and different Person shall be appointed 'or named as aforesaid to act as such Commissioner, Arbitrator, or Umpire, in the Place and Stead 'of the Person so originally appointed or named as aforesaid, and shall make and subscribe such 'Declaration as aforesaid.

'Such Commissioners shall proceed to examine the Coasts of the North American Provinces and 'of the United States embraced within the Provisions of the First and Second Articles of this 'Treaty,

'Treaty, and shall designate the Places reserved by the said Articles from the common Right of 'fishing therein.

'The Decision of the Commissioners and of the Arbitrator or Umpire shall be given in Writing 'in each Case, and shall be signed by them respectively.

'The High Contracting Parties hereby solemnly engage to consider the Decision of the Commis- 'sioners conjointly or of the Arbitrator or Umpire, as the Case may be, as absolutely final and 'conclusive in each Case decided upon by them or him respectively.

'ARTICLE II.—It is agreed by the High Contracting Parties that British Subjects shall have, in 'common with the Citizens of the United States, the Liberty to take Fish of every Kind, except 'Shell Fish, on the Eastern Sea Coasts and Shores of the United States North of the 36th Parallel 'of North Latitude, and on the Shores of the several Islands thereunto adjacent, and in the Bays, 'Harbours, and Creeks of the said Sea Coasts and Shores of the United States and of the said 'Islands without being restricted to any Distance from the Shore, with Permission to land upon the 'said Coasts of the United States and of the Islands aforesaid for the Purpose of drying their Nets 'and curing their Fish; provided, that in so doing they do not interfere with the Rights of private 'Property, or with the Fishermen of the United States in the peaceable Use of any Part of the said 'Coasts in their Occupancy for the same Purpose.

'It is understood that the above-mentioned Liberty applies solely to the Sea Fishery, and that 'Salmon and Shad Fisheries, and all Fisheries in Rivers and Mouths of Rivers, are hereby reserved 'exclusively for Fishermen of the United States.

'ARTICLE III.—It is agreed that the Articles enumerated in the Schedule hereunto annexed, 'being the Growth and Produce of the aforesaid British Colonies, or of the United States, shall be 'admitted into each Country respectively free of Duty:

'Schedule.

'Grain, Flour, and Bread-stuffs of all Kinds.
'Animals of all Kinds.
'Fresh, smoked, and salted Meats.
'Cotton Wool, Seeds, and Vegetables.
'Undried Fruits, dried Fruits.
'Fish of all Kinds.
'Products of Fish and of all other Creatures living in the Water.
'Poultry.
'Eggs.
'Hides, Furs, Skins, or Tails undressed.
'Stone or Marble in its crude or unwrought State.
'Slate.
'Butter, Cheese, Tallow.
'Lard, Horns, Manures.
'Ores of Metals of all Kinds.
'Coal.
'Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Ashes.
'Timber and Lumber of all Kinds, round, hewed, and sawed, unmanufactured in whole or 'in part.
'Firewood.
'Plants, Shrubs, and Trees.
'Pelts, Wool.
'Fish Oil.
'Rice, Broom Corn, and Bark.
'Gypsum, ground or unground.
'Hewn or wrought or unwrought Burr or Grindstones.
'Dye Stuffs.
'Flax, Hemp, and Tow unmanufactured.
'Unmanufactured Tobacco.
'Rags.

'ARTICLE IV.—It is agreed that the Citizens and Inhabitants of the United States shall have the 'Right to navigate the River St. Lawrence, and the Canals in Canada, used as the Means of com- 'municating between the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean, with their Vessels, Boats, and Crafts, 'as fully and freely as the Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, subject only to the same Tolls and 'other Assessments as now are or may hereafter be exacted of Her Majesty's said Subjects; it being 'understood, however, that the British Government retains the Right of suspending this Privilege, 'on giving due Notice thereof to the Government of the United States.

'It is further agreed, that if at any Time the British Government should exercise the said 'reserved Right, the Government of the United States shall have the Right of suspending, if it 'think

'think fit, the Operation of Article III. of the present Treaty, in so far as the Province of Canada 'is affected thereby, for so long as the Suspension of the free Navigation of the River St. Lawrence 'or the Canals may continue.

'It is further agreed, that British Subjects shall have the Right freely to navigate Lake Michigan 'with their Vessels, Boats, and Crafts, so long as the Privilege of navigating the River St. Law- 'rence, secured to American Citizens by the above Clause of the present Article, shall continue; 'and the Government of the United States further engages to urge upon the State Governments to 'secure to the Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty the Use of the several State Canals on Terms of 'Equality with the Inhabitants of the United States.

'And it is further agreed, that no Export Duty or other Duty shall be levied on Lumber or Timber 'of any Kind cut on that Portion of the American Territory in the State of Maine watered by the 'River St. John and its Tributaries, and floated down that River to the Sea, when the same is 'shipped to the United States from the Province of New Brunswick.

'ARTICLE V.—The present Treaty shall take effect as soon as the Laws required to carry it into 'operation shall have been passed by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and by the Provin- 'cial Parliaments of those of the British North American Colonies which are affected by this Treaty 'on the one hand, and by the Congress of the United States on the other. Such Assent having been 'given, the Treaty shall remain in force for Ten Years from the Date at which it may come into 'operation, and further until the Expiration of Twelve Months after either of the High Contracting 'Parties shall give Notice to the other of its Wish to terminate the same; each of the High Con- 'tracting Parties being at liberty to give such Notice to the other at the End of the said Term of 'Ten Years, or at any Time afterwards.

'It is clearly understood, however, that this Stipulation is not intended to affect the Reservation 'made by Article IV. of the present Treaty with regard to the Right of temporarily suspending 'the Operation of Articles III. and IV. thereof.

'ARTICLE VI.—And it is hereby further agreed, that the Provisions and Stipulations of the fore- 'going Articles shall extend to the Island of Newfoundland, so far as they are applicable to that 'Colony. But if the Imperial Parliament, the Provincial Parliament of Newfoundland, or the Con- 'gress of the United States, shall not embrace, in their Laws enacted for carrying this Treaty into 'effect, the Colony of Newfoundland, then this Article shall be of no Effect; but the Omission to 'make Provision by Law to give it Effect, by either of the Legislative Bodies aforesaid, shall not 'in any way impair the remaining Articles of this Treaty.

'And whereas the said Treaty was ratified between Her said Majesty and the United States, and such 'Ratification was exchanged on the Ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four: 'And whereas in pursuance of the said Treaty the Senate and House of Representatives of the United 'States of America in Congress assembled have passed an Act entitled "An Act to carry into effect a 'Treaty between the United States and Great Britain," signed on the Fifth Day of June One thousand 'eight hundred and fifty-four, which Act was approved on the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight 'hundred and fifty-four, by which Act it is among other Things provided, that whenever the President of 'the United States shall receive satisfactory Evidence that the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, and 'the Provincial Parliaments of Canada, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward's Island have 'passed Laws on their Part to give full Effect to the Provisions of the said Treaty, the said President is 'thereby authorized to issue his Proclamation declaring that he has such Evidence, and thereupon the 'Provisions of the said Treaty shall go into effect, and be observed on the Part of the United States: 'And whereas the Legislatures of the Colonies aforesaid have respectively passed Laws to carry the said 'Treaty into operation; namely, an Act passed by the Legislature of Canada, intituled "An Act for 'giving Effect on the Part of this Province to a certain Treaty between Her Majesty and the United 'States of America;" an Act passed by the Legislature of Nova Scotia, intituled "An Act for giving 'Effect on the Part of the Province of Nova Scotia to a certain Treaty between Her Majesty and the 'United States of America;" an Act passed by the Legislature of New Brunswick, intituled "An Act 'for giving Effect on the Part of the Province of New Brunswick to a certain Treaty between Her 'Majesty and the United States of America;" and an Act passed by the Legislature of Prince Edward 'Island, intituled "An Act to authorize Free Trade with the United States of America under a Treaty 'between Great Britain and the United States of America:" And whereas it is expedient that effectual 'Provision should be made by Parliament for carrying into operation the said Treaty:' Be it there- fore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Acts at variance with the said Treaty suspended.

I. All Acts of Parliament and Laws which operate to prevent the Provisions of the said Treaty from taking full Effect shall, so far as they so operate, be suspended and of no Effect during the Continuance of the said Treaty.

When Act to come into operation.

II. This Act shall come into operation in each of the said Colonies of Canada, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island as soon as the same shall have been received and proclaimed by the Officer administering the Government of such Colony.

III. Whenever

III. Whenever the necessary Laws shall have been passed by the Legislature of Newfoundland, and approved by Her Majesty, for giving Effect to the Provisions and Stipulations of the said Treaty as it respects that Colony, it shall be lawful for the Officer administering the Government of Newfoundland by his Proclamation to declare that, after a Time fixed in such Proclamation for that Purpose, the Provisions and Stipulations mentioned or referred to in the Sixth Article of the said Treaty shall extend to the said Island of Newfoundland so far as they are applicable to that Colony, and thereupon from the Time so fixed the said Provisions and Stipulations shall be so extended and have full Effect accordingly, any Act of Parliament, Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provision for Extension of the Treaty to Newfoundland.

CAP. IV.

An Act to amend the Act for limiting the Time of Service in the Army.

[27th February 1855.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her 'Majesty, Chapter Thirty-seven, "for limiting the Time of Service in the Army," it was 'enacted, that no Person should be enlisted to serve Her Majesty, or in the Forces of the East India 'Company, as a Soldier, for a longer Term than Ten Years in the Infantry or Twelve Years in the 'Cavalry or Artillery, or other Ordnance Corps, to be reckoned from the Day on which the Recruit 'should have been attested, if he should have stated himself to be then of the Age of Eighteen Years, or 'if not, then from the Day on which he would complete the Age of Eighteen Years, to be reckoned 'according to the Age stated in his Attestation: And it was thereby also enacted, that any Soldier at any 'Time during the last Six Months of the Term of limited Service for which he should have been first 'engaged, or after the Completion of such Term, might, if approved by his Commanding Officer or other 'competent military Authority as a fit Person to continue in Her Majesty's Service or in the Service of 'the East India Company as a Soldier, be re-engaged to serve for the further Term of Eleven Years in 'the Infantry and Twelve Years in the Cavalry or Artillery, or other Ordnance Corps; and that any 'Soldier who should be ordered on Foreign Service, and who was within Three Years of the Expiration 'of his First Engagement, should be at liberty, with the Approbation of his Commanding Officer, to 're-engage before he embarked for such Foreign Service for such Period as should complete a total 'Service of Twenty-one Years in the Infantry or Twenty-four Years in the Cavalry or Artillery: And 'whereas by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, 'Chapter Seventy-three, "to limit the Enlistment in the Artillery and other Ordnance Corps," it was 'enacted, that during the last Six Months of the Term of limited Service for which a Soldier should 'have first engaged to serve in the Artillery or other Ordnance Corps, or after the Completion of such 'Term, he might, if approved by his Commanding Officer or other competent military Authority as a fit 'Person to continue in Her Majesty's Service as a Soldier, be re-engaged to serve for the further Term 'of Nine Years: And whereas by reason of Directions contained in Schedules to the said first-recited 'Act, for filling up Blanks in the Forms of Questions to be put to Recruits on enlisting, it is appre-'hended that it may not be lawful to enlist Persons to serve as Soldiers for lesser Terms than the said 'Terms of Ten Years and Twelve Years respectively: And whereas it is expedient that Her Majesty 'should be enabled to permit Enlistment for such lesser Terms, and to authorize Soldiers to re-engage 'for any Terms within the Limits of Service prescribed by the said Acts:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

10 & 11 Vict. c. 37.

12 & 13 Vict. c. 73.

I. For Three Years after the passing of this Act any Person may be enlisted to serve Her Majesty, or in the Forces of the East India Company, as a Soldier, for any such Term, not exceeding Ten Years in the Infantry or Twelve Years in the Cavalry or Artillery, or other Ordnance Corps (to be reckoned as provided in the said first-mentioned Act), as may be authorized by any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council in this Behalf; and any Soldier may, subject to such Approbation as in the said Acts mentioned, re-engage for such Term as may by such Order or Orders in Council be authorized; provided the Term for which he is so engaged, with the Term of his Service under his First Enlistment, do not exceed the Period of Twenty-one Years in the Infantry or Artillery, or other Ordnance Corps, or Twenty-four Years in the Cavalry; and the Forms of Questions on Enlistment in Schedule A. to the said first-mentioned Act, and the Form of Declaration in Schedule B. to such Act, may, when the Occasion requires, be filled up with such Term or Number of Years as may be authorized by such Order or Orders, instead of the Term or Number of Years mentioned in the Directions contained in such Schedules.

Power to Her Majesty, by Order in Council, for Three Years after passing of Act, to lessen Terms for Enlistment and Re-engagement of Soldiers.

II. The said Acts of the Tenth and Eleventh Years and Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty and this Act shall be read and construed together as One Act.

Recited Acts and this Act to be read as One.

CAP. X.

An Act to enable a Third Principal Secretary and a Third Under Secretary of State to sit in the House of Commons. [16th March 1855.]

6 Anne, c. 7. 22 G. 3. c. 82.

'WHEREAS under the Provisions of an Act of the Sixth Year of Queen Anne, Chapter Seven, and of an Act of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-two, not more than Two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State are capable of sitting as Members of the House of Commons at the same Time, and by reason of the said Act of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third, and of an Act of the Fifteenth Year of King George the Second, Chapter Twenty-two, Doubts are entertained whether more than Two of the Under Secretaries to the Principal Secretaries of State are capable of sitting as such Members: And whereas it would be for the Advantage of the Public Service that Three of such Principal Secretaries and Three of such Under Secretaries should be capable of sitting at the same Time in the House of Commons:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Three of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, and any Three of the Under Secretaries for the Time being to Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may sit and vote as Members of the House of Commons, anything in the said Acts or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; but not more than Three such Principal Secretaries and not more than Three such Under Secretaries shall sit as Members of the House of Commons at the same Time.

15 G. 2. c. 22.

Power to any Three of the Principal Secretaries and any Three of the Under Secretaries of State to sit in the House of Commons.

CAP. XI.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. [16th March 1855.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates and the Parts here inserted, as 17 & 18 Vict. c. 4.]

'WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: 'And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament that a Body of 'Forces should be continued for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of 'Her Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole 'Number of such Forces should consist of One hundred and ninety-three thousand five hundred and 'ninety-five Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Terri- 'torial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and 'Companies recruiting for those Regiments: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, 'or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in 'any other Manner than by Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws 'of this Realm, yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned Forces in 'their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, 'or shall desert Her Majesty's Service, or be guilty of Crimes and Offences to the Prejudice of good 'Order and Military Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual 'Forms of the Law will allow:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That— Numbers, 193,565 Men.

XVI. After a Prisoner has been found guilty of any Charge or Charges, the Court before which any such Prisoner shall have been tried may, before passing Sentence on such Prisoner, and for the Purpose only of affixing Punishment, receive in Evidence against him any previous Convictions by Courts-martial, and in like Manner and for the like Purpose the Court shall receive in Evidence any previous Conviction of such Prisoner by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, where the Offence charged in the Indictment, so far as the Charge of which he was convicted, was of a felonious, fraudulent, or unnatural Nature; and in the Case of Convictions by Courts-martial, duly confirmed, the Court-martial Book or the Regimental or Company's Defaulters Book, and when none of those Books can conveniently be produced, a Certificate, which shall purport to contain a Copy of the Entry of such Convictions in such Books, or any of them, and which shall be signed by the Adjutant, or other Officer having the Custody of the Court-martial Book or of the Defaulters Book of the Regiment or Company to which the Prisoner belongs, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in any such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender; and in the Case of a Conviction by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, any Certificate transmitted as herein-after provided to the Officer commanding a Regiment by the Clerk of any such Court or other Officer having Custody of the Records of such Court, or the Deputy of such Clerk, containing the Substance and Effect of any Indictment, omitting the formal Part, together with the Judgment of the Court thereon, and purporting to be signed by such Clerk or other Officer, or by the Deputy of such Clerk, or if such Certificate cannot conveniently be obtained, a Copy thereof, duly certified by the Officer producing it, shall be sufficient Evidence of such last-mentioned Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such last-mentioned Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender: Provided always, that before any such Evidence shall be received, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the said Prisoner had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence against him; provided also, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence of which he shall have been so found guilty. Previous Convictions to be put in Evidence.

XXI. Whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to Penal Servitude, or to be transported as a Felon for Life, or for a certain Term of Years, not less than Fourteen, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court- Commutation of Death for Transportation.

Court-martial or Detachment General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, or if out of Her Majesty's Dominions (the Ionian Islands excepted) for the Officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's Forces there serving, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be kept to Penal Servitude or to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, not less than Fourteen, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, or out of Her Majesty's Dominions (the Ionian Islands excepted), to the Officers commanding as aforesaid.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

XXVIII. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service or might accrue from future Service, or to Forfeiture of the Annuity and Medal which may have been granted for former meritorious Service, or of the Gratuity and Medal awarded for former good Conduct, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion or for disgraceful Conduct,—

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Soldier, whether at the Instance of such other Soldier or not, or of causing himself to be maimed or mutilated by any other Person, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Soldier unfit for Service:

In tampering with his Eyes with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for the Service:

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In stealing any Money or Goods, the Property of a Comrade, of a Military Officer, or of any Military or Regimental Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen:

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent:

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him:

Or in committing any other Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of or with Intent to injure any Person, Civil or Military:

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

Forfeiture of Pay for Drunkenness on Duty.

XXXI. A General, District, or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Soldier for being drunk on Duty under Arms, and any Court-martial may sentence any Soldier for being drunk when on any Duty not under Arms or for Duty or on Parade or on the Line of March, to be deprived of a Penny a Day of his Pay for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award.

Stoppages.

XXXIII. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any Loss or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein-before specified:

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Horse, Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or making away with or pawning any Medal for Service in the Field or for general good Conduct which may have been granted him by Order of Her Majesty, or by Order of the East India Company, or any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Horse, Clothing, Instruments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries of any Officer or Soldier, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss or Destruction of any Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Soldier may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Mutiny.

XXXVI. A General, Garrison, or District Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of Solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and when the Imprisonment awarded shall extend beyond Three Months, the Court-martial shall imperatively order that the Solitary Confinement shall not exceed Seven Days in any One Month of the whole Imprisonment awarded, with Intervals between the Periods of Solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and any Regimental or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Soldier may be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of Solitary Confinement; provided that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison, or District, or Regimental or Detachment, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, or when any Sentence of Corporal Punishment shall have been commuted to such Imprisonment only, the Periods shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days. Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XLV. Every Soldier shall be liable to be tried and punished for Desertion from any Corps into which he may have unlawfully enlisted, although he may of right belong to another Corps and be a Deserter therefrom, and whether such Soldier shall be tried for deserting from the Corps to which he may of right belong, or for deserting from the Corps into which he may have unlawfully enlisted, or for any other Desertion, every Desertion previous or subsequent to that for which he may at the Time be taking his Trial may, if duly stated in the Charges, be given in Evidence against him on such Trial. Trials for Desertion after subsequent Re-enlistment.

LII. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Service as a Soldier, or serving as a Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer on the permanent Staff of the Disembodied Militia, shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony or of Misdemeanor, other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money, or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at the least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit, when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Facts sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Soldier or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable by any Process whatever to appear before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Writ, Summons, Warrant, Order, Judgment, Execution, or any Process whatsoever issued by or by the Authority of any Court of Law, or any Magistrate, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or any other Authority whatsoever, for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for leaving or having left his Family or any Part thereof chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Place, or to the Common Fund of any Union, any Relation or Child which such Soldier or Person might, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be compellable by Law to relieve or maintain, or for neglecting to pay to the Mother of any Bastard Child, or to any Person who may have been appointed to have the Custody of such Child, any Sum to be paid in pursuance of an Order on that Behalf, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour, except in the Case of an Apprentice, or of an indentured Labourer, as herein-after described; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, on account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Soldier or other Person as aforesaid is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void, to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Soldier or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Soldier out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Soldier, or left at his last Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body; provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, or to indentured Labourers, as herein-after prescribed. Soldiers liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only for Felony, Misdemeanor, or for Debts amounting to 30*l.* and upwards. Soldiers not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for Debts under 30*l.*, or for not maintaining their Families, or for Breach of Contract.

LVI. Any Recruit appearing as aforesaid before such Justice shall be at liberty to declare his Dissent to such enlisting, and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings as Smart Money, together with the full Amount of any Pay which shall have been paid to such Recruit subsequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, shall be forthwith discharged and set at liberty in the Presence of such Justice; but if such Person shall refuse or neglect, within Dissent and Relief from Enlistment.

within the Space of Twenty-four Hours after so declaring his Dissent, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he had given his Assent thereto before the said Justice: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Person belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Justice, upon Proof to his Satisfaction, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that the Recruit could not procure any Person belonging to such Party to go with him before the Justice; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice, and after deducting One Shilling as the Fee to his Clerk for reporting the Payment to the Secretary-at-War and Inspecting Field Officer of the District, shall be paid to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same; and no Recruit who has been actually, though erroneously, discharged by the Justice before the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours after the Time of his Enlistment, shall be liable on that Account to be proceeded against as having deserted from Her Majesty's Service; and the Justice who shall discharge any Recruit shall in every Case give a Certificate thereof, signed with his Hand, to the Recruit, specifying the Cause thereof.

Offences connected with Enlistment.

LVII. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before such Justice, or shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, or in the Service of the East India Company, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted, or that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were not taken down in Writing: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War, in order that in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall have enlisted into and been attested for Her Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmity concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, may be transferred to any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion or Company, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as Her Majesty may allow in that Behalf, instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, anything in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them upon being attested to have concealed his having been a Soldier and discharged, or to have concealed his having been discharged upon any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any such Infirmity, or to have designedly made any false Representation, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law in force may be inflicted upon Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned, with Hard Labour, in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed, before the Justice, at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money or Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or into the Service of the East India Company, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any attested Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished or prosecuted, tried and convicted, for any such Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate then signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Ordnance, Navy, or Marines, or to the Forces of the East India Company, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary-at-War by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled as a Volunteer under the Act Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, or any subsequent Acts, to serve in the Militia, who at the Time of offering to enlist into Her Majesty's Forces, Army, Ordnance, or Marines, or into the Forces of the East India Company, or to enter into Her Majesty's Navy, shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve in the Militia, and who shall not have completed his Engagement by Attestation or by being entered on the Books of the Navy, shall, upon Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace in the United Kingdom, either upon the Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Fourteen Days; and any Man enrolled as aforesaid who may have denied or shall hereafter deny, or who may have confessed or shall hereafter confess, to the Justice before whom he shall have been or shall be attested for the Army, Ordnance, or Marine Forces, or for the Forces of the East India Company, or who may have denied or shall hereafter deny, or who may have confessed or shall hereafter confess, on the Completion of his Engagement to enter the Navy, that he belongs to the Militia, shall not be liable to Imprisonment for such Offence, but shall, upon Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, or before a Regimental or Naval Court of Inquiry, either upon his own Confession or upon the Oath of One Witness, forfeit all Militia Bounty which would have become payable to him during the Period of his belonging to Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or to the Forces of the East India Company, or to the Royal Navy, if he had not therein enlisted or entered, and be subjected to a Stoppage of One Penny a Day from his Pay for Eighteen Calendar Months, to be applied as the Secretary-at-War shall direct; or if enrolled in the Militia as a balloted Man or Substitute shall, if convicted before any One Justice as aforesaid, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable; and such Person, whether he shall have been enrolled as a Volunteer or as a balloted Man or Substitute, shall, from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, belong as a Soldier to the Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces into which he shall have so enlisted, or to the Navy into which he shall have entered: Provided always, that every such Person so enlisted shall be liable to serve within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces, in which he has so enlisted, during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, or if he had entered the Navy to the Rules and Regulations by which that Force is governed, and liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Corps in which he shall have so enlisted, or from the Navy, if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in such Corps, or in the Navy, as aforesaid.

Claims of Masters to Apprentices.

LXII. No Master shall be entitled to claim an Apprentice or an indentured Labourer as aforesaid who shall enlist as a Soldier in Her Majesty's or the East India Company's Service, or shall be serving in the Embodied Militia, unless he shall, within One Calendar Month after such Apprentice or indentured Labourer shall have left his Service, go before some Justice, and take the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and produce the Certificate of such Justice of his having taken such Oath, which Certificate such Justice is required to give in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and unless such Apprentice shall have been bound, if in England, for the full Term of Seven Years, not having been above the Age of Fourteen when so bound, and if in Ireland or in the British Isles, for the full Term of Five Years at the least, not having been above the Age of Sixteen when so bound, and if in Scotland, for the full Term at least of Four Years, by a regular Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship, duly extended, signed, and tested, and binding on both Parties by the Law of Scotland, prior to the Period of Enlistment, and unless such Contract or Indenture in Scotland shall, within Three Months after the Commencement of the Apprenticeship, and before the Period of Enlistment, have been produced to a Justice of the Peace of the County in Scotland wherein the Parties reside, and there shall have been endorsed endorsed thereon by such Justice a Certificate or Declaration signed by him, specifying the Date when and the Person by whom such Contract or Indenture shall have been so produced, which Certificate or Declaration such Justice of the Peace is hereby required to endorse and sign, and unless such Apprentice shall, when claimed by such Master, be under Twenty-one Years of Age: Provided always, that any Master of an Apprentice indentured for the Sea Service, or of any indentured Labourer in Her Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad, shall be entitled to claim and recover him in the Form and Manner above directed, notwithstanding such Apprentice or indentured Labourer may have been bound for a less Term than Seven, Five, or Four Years as aforesaid: Provided also, that any Master who shall give up the Indentures of his Apprentice or of his Labourer as aforesaid within One Month after the enlisting of such Apprentice or indentured Labourer shall be entitled to receive to his own Use so much of the Bounty payable to such Recruit, after deducting therefrom Two Guineas to provide him with Necessaries, as shall not have been paid to such Recruit before Notice given of his being an Apprentice or an indentured Labourer.

How and where Troops may be billeted.

LXIX. It shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Soldiers in Her Majesty's Service, and Out-Pensioners when assembled as a local Force by competent Authority, and Persons receiving Pay in Her Majesty's Army, and the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Bât and Baggage Horses belonging to any of Her Majesty's other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by Her Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided); and they shall be received by the Occupiers of such Houses in which they are so allowed to be billeted, and be furnished by such Victuallers with proper Accommodation in such Houses, or if any Victualler shall not have sufficient Accommodation in the House upon which a Soldier is billeted, then in some good and sufficient Quarters to be provided by such Victualler in the immediate Neighbourhood, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates herein-after provided; and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route; and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in One and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and in no other Case whatsoever shall there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in no Case shall a Man and his Horse be billeted at a greater Distance from each other than One hundred Yards; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice then to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other Persons, as they shall see Cause; and when any of Her Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act who shall have no Stables, then and in such Case, upon the written Requisition of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Troop, or Detachment, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them; and upon Complaint being made by the Person or Persons to whose House or Stables the said Men and Horses shall have been so removed to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Men or Horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such Justices to order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Person relieved to the Persons receiving such Men and Horses, or to be applied in furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and Commanding Officers may exchange any Man or Horse billeted in any Place, with another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, at the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Billets, to extend any Routes or enlarge the Districts within which Billets shall be required, in such Manner as shall appear to be most convenient to the Troops; provided that, to prevent or punish all

Abuses

Abuses in billeting Soldiers, it shall be lawful for any Justice within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered by such Constables, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, stating the Street or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Sign, if any, belonging to those Houses; and it shall be lawful for Constables to billet Officers and Soldiers in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh: Provided that no Officer or Soldier shall be billeted in England in any private Houses, or in any Canteen held or occupied under the Authority of the Ordnance Department, or upon Persons who keep Taverns only, being Vintners of the City of London admitted to their Freedom of the said Company in right of Patrimony or Apprenticeship, notwithstanding such Persons who keep such Taverns only have taken out Victualling Licences, nor in the Houses of any Distiller kept for distilling Brandy and Strong Waters, nor in the House of any Storekeeper whose principal Dealing shall be more in other Goods and Merchandise than in Brandy and Strong Waters, so as such Distillers and Shopkeepers do not permit tippling in such Houses, nor in the House of Residence in any Part of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Consul duly accredited as such. Exemptions from Billets.

LXXII. The Innholder or other Person on whom any Soldier is billeted in England shall, if required by such Soldier, furnish him for every Day of the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days when halted at the intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of the Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper, and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Tenpence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Soldiers may be billeted in England, except when on the March and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Soldiers with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the Sum of One Penny Halfpenny per Diem for each Soldier; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Forces shall be billeted in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ninepence per Diem for each Horse; and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Person, for Horses billeted by virtue of this Act, shall be the rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses on which they are billeted, the Sum of Fourpence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay for any Officers or Soldiers shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any such Officer shall not pay the same as aforesaid, then, upon Complaint, and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses before Two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place where such Quarters were situated, sitting in Quarter or Petty Sessions, the Secretary-at-War is hereby required (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing,) to give Orders to the Regimental Agent to pay the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officers; and in case of any Soldier being suddenly ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the Sums due for the Lodging of the Men and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall, before his Departure, make up the Account with every Person upon whom such Soldier may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof; which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, who is hereby required to make immediate Payment thereof, and to charge the same to the Account of such Officer. Allowance to Innkeepers.

LXXIX. All Her Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniform, Dress or Undress, and their Horses and Baggage, (but not when passing in any hired or private Vehicle,) and all Recruits, marching by Route, and all Prisoners under Military Escort, and all Enrolled Pensioners in Uniform when called out for Training or in aid of the Civil Power, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when conveying Persons or Baggage going thereto or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike or other Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act or Ordinance, Order or Direction of any Colonial Legislature or other Authority in any of Her Majesty's Colonies; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Stores along any Canal from Payment of Tolls, Tolls.

Tolls, in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in Cases of Emergency as herein-before enacted.

Penalties upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets and Carriages.

XCIII. If any Constable or other Person who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any Officers or Soldiers in any Part of the United Kingdom shall presume to billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof; or shall neglect or refuse to billet any Officer or Soldier on Duty, when thereunto required, in such Manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Troops; or shall receive, demand, or agree for any Money or Reward whatsoever, in order to excuse any Person from receiving such Officer or Soldier; or shall quarter any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants of any Officers or Soldiers, in any such Houses, against the Consent of the Occupiers; or shall neglect or refuse to execute such Warrants of the Justices as shall be directed to him for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels, or shall demand more than the legal Rates for the same; or if any Person ordered by any Constable in manner herein-before directed to provide Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall refuse or neglect to provide the same according to the Orders of such Constable, or shall do any Act or Thing by which the Execution of any Warrants for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall be hindered; or if any Constable shall neglect to deliver in to the Justices at Quarter Sessions Lists of Officers and Soldiers of the Foot Guards quartered according to the Provisions of this Act, or shall cause to be delivered defective Lists of the same; or if any Person liable by this Act to have any Officer or Soldier quartered upon him shall refuse to receive and to afford proper Accommodation or Diet in the House in which such Officer or Soldier is quartered, and to furnish the several Things directed to be furnished to Officers and Soldiers, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Stables, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw, for each Horse, at the Rate established by this Act, and in such Quantities as shall be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding Twelve Pounds of Hay and Six Pounds of Straw per Diem for each Horse; or if any Innkeeper or Victualler not having good and sufficient Stables shall refuse to pay over to the Person or Persons who may provide Stabling such Allowance by way of Compensation as shall be directed by any Justice of the Peace, or shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Soldier on the March in lieu of furnishing in Kind the Diet and Small Beer to which such Soldier is entitled; or if any Toll Collector shall demand and receive Toll from any of Her Majesty's Officers or Soldiers, they being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniform, Dress or Undress, or for their Horses, or from any Recruits marching by Route, or from any Prisoners under Military Escort, or from any Enrolled Pensioners in Uniform, when called out for Training or in aid of the Civil Power, or for any Carriages or Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when conveying Persons or Baggage or returning therefrom, every such Constable, Victualler, Toll Keeper, or other Person respectively shall forfeit for every such Offence, Neglect, or Refusal any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings; and if any Person shall personate or represent himself to be a Soldier, or a Recruit, with the view of fraudulently obtaining a Billet, or Money in lieu thereof, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings.

Mode of recording a Soldier's Settlement.

XCIX. Any Justice in the United Kingdom within whose Jurisdiction any Soldier in the Regular Army, or on the permanent Staff of the Militia, having a Wife or Child, shall be billeted, may summon such Soldier before him in the Place where he is billeted, (which Summons he is hereby directed to obey,) and take his Examination in Writing, upon Oath, touching the Place of his last legal Settlement in England, and such Justice shall give an attested Copy of such Examination to the Person examined, to be by him delivered to his Commanding Officer, to be produced when required; which said Examination and such attested Copy shall be at any Time admitted in Evidence as to such last legal Settlement before any Justice or at any General or Quarter Sessions, although such Soldier be dead or absent from the Kingdom; provided that in case any Soldier shall be again summoned to make Oath as aforesaid, then, on such Examination or such attested Copy thereof being produced by him or by any other Person on his Behalf, such Soldier shall not be obliged to take any other Oath with regard to his legal Settlement, but shall leave a Copy of such Examination, or a Copy of such attested Copy of Examination, if required; provided also, that when no such Examination shall have been required, the Statement made on Oath by the Recruit on his Attestation of his Place of Birth shall be taken to be his last Place of Settlement until legally disproved.

Administration of Oaths.

CIII. All Oaths and Declarations which are authorized and required by this Act may be administered (unless where otherwise provided) by any Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate acting as such; and any Person taking a false Oath or Declaration in any Case wherein an Oath or Declaration is required to be taken by this Act shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or of making a false Declaration, and being thereof duly convicted shall be liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Laws in force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to; and every Commissioned Officer convicted before a General Court-martial of Perjury shall be cashiered, and every Soldier or other Person amenable to the Provisions of this Act found guilty thereof by a General or other Court-martial shall be punished at the Discretion of such Court.

Perjury.

CAP. XII.

An Act for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore.

[16th March 1855.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates and the Parts here inserted, as 17 & 18 Vict. c. 6.]

Previous Convictions to be put in Evidence.

XVIII. After a Prisoner has been found guilty of any Charge or Charges the Court before which any such Prisoner shall have been tried may, before passing Sentence on such Prisoner, and for the Purpose only of affixing Punishment, receive in Evidence against him any previous Convictions by Courts-martial; and in like Manner and for the like Purpose the Court shall receive in Evidence any previous Conviction of such Prisoner by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, where the Offence charged in the Indictment, so far as the Charge of which he was convicted, was of a felonious, fraudulent, or unnatural Nature; and in the Case of Convictions by Courts-martial, duly confirmed, the Court-martial Book or the Divisional or Company's Defaulters Book, and when none of those Books can conveniently be produced, a Certificate, which shall purport to contain a Copy of the Entry of such Convictions in such Books or any of them, and which shall be signed by the Adjutant or other Officer having the Custody of the Court-martial Book or of the Defaulters Book of the Division or Company to which the Prisoner belongs, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in any such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender; and in the Case of a Conviction by a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, any Certificate transmitted as herein provided to the Officer commanding by the Clerk of any such Court or other Officer having Custody of the Records of such Courts, or the Deputy of such Clerk, containing the Substance and Effect of any Indictment, omitting the formal Part, together with the Judgment of the Court thereon, and purporting to be signed by such Clerk or other Officer, or by the Deputy of such Clerk, or if such Certificate cannot conveniently be obtained, a Copy thereof duly certified by the Officer producing it, shall be sufficient Evidence of such last-mentioned Conviction; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such last-mentioned Certificate, nor, if the Court be satisfied from all the Circumstances of the Case that the Prisoner under Trial is the Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proofs of the Identity of the Person of the Offender: Provided always, that before any such Evidence shall be received it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the said Prisoner had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence against him; and provided also, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence of which he shall have been so found guilty.

Commutation of Death for Transportation.

XXIII. Whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Marine shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to Penal Servitude or to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years not less than Fourteen Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial or by a Detachment General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, or if out of Her Majesty's Dominions (the Ionian Islands excepted) for the Officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's Forces there serving, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be kept to Penal Servitude or to be transported as a Felon either for Life or for a certain Term of Years not less than Fourteen, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, or out of Her Majesty's Dominions (the Ionian Islands excepted), to the Officers commanding as aforesaid.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

XXXI. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service, or might accrue from future Service, or to Forfeiture of any Annuity and Medal which may have been granted for former meritorious Service, or of the Gratuity and Medal awarded for former good Conduct, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion, or for disgraceful Conduct,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Marine, whether at the Instance of such other Marine or not, or of causing himself to be maimed or mutilated by any other Person, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Marine unfit for Service:

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In tampering with his Eyes, with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for the Service:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In stealing any Money or Goods the Property of a Comrade, of a Marine Officer, or of any Marine Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen:

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent:

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him:

Or in committing any other Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of, or with Intent to injure, any Person, Civil, Marine, or Military:

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

Forfeiture of Pay for Drunkenness on Duty.

XXXV. A General, District, or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Marine for being drunk on Duty under Arms, and any Court-martial may sentence any Marine for being drunk when on or for Duty not under Arms, or on Parade, or on the Line of March, to be deprived of a Penny a Day of his Pay for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award.

Stoppages.

XXXVI. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein specified:

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or making away with or pawning any Medal for Service or for general good Conduct which may have been granted to him by Order of Her Majesty or by Order of the East India Company, or any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries of any Officer or Marine, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing or repairing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Disposal, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his messing and washing, so much only of the Pay of the Marine may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XXXIX. A General or District or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of Solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and when the Imprisonment awarded shall extend beyond Three Months, the Court-martial shall imperatively order that the Solitary Confinement shall not exceed Seven Days in any One Month of the whole Imprisonment awarded with Intervals between the Periods of Solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and any Divisional or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Marine may be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of Solitary Confinement: Provided always, that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison, or District, or Divisional or Detachment, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, or when any Sentence of Corporal Punishment shall have been commuted to Imprisonment only, the Period shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days.

Custody of Prisoners under Military Sentence in Common Gaols.

XLIII. Every Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison, or of any Gaol or House of Correction in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, shall receive into his Custody any Military Offender under Sentence of Imprisonment by a General or other Court-martial, upon Delivery to him of an Order in Writing in that Behalf from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or from the Officer commanding the Division or Detachment to which the Offender belongs or did last belong or is attached, which Order shall specify the Period of Imprisonment or Remainder of Imprisonment which the Offender is to undergo, and the Day and Hour of the Day on which he is to be released or be otherwise disposed of; and such Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or or Keeper shall keep such Offender in a proper Place of Confinement, with or without Hard Labour, and with or without Solitary Confinement, according to the Sentence of the Court, and during the Time specified in the said Order, or until he be discharged or delivered over to Military Custody before the Expiration of that Time, under an Order duly made for that Purpose; and whenever Marines are called out in aid of the Civil Power, or are stationed in Billets, or are on the Line of March, every Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison, Gaol, House of Correction, Lock-up House, or other Place of Confinement, shall receive into his Custody any Marine for a Period not exceeding Seven Days, upon Delivery to him of an Order in Writing in that Behalf from the Officer commanding such Marine; and any Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison, Gaol, House of Correction, Lock-up House, or other Place of Confinement, who shall refuse to receive and to confine, or to discharge or deliver over, any Marine Offender in the Manner herein prescribed, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Marines liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only for Felony and certain Misdemeanors, or for Debts amounting to 30*l.* and upwards; but not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not maintaining their Families or for Breach of Contract.

LVI. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as a Marine shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony, or on account of Misdemeanor other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money, or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at the least over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit, when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Fact sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Marine or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable by any Process whatever to appear before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatsoever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Writ, Summons, Order, Warrant, Judgment, Execution, or any Process whatever issued by or by the Authority of any Court of Law, or any Magistrate, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or any other Authority whatsoever, for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for leaving or having left his Family or any Part thereof chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Place, or to the Common Fund of any Union, any Relation or Child which such Marine or Person might, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be compellable by Law to relieve or maintain, or for neglecting to pay to the Mother of any Bastard Child, or to any Person who may have been appointed to have the Custody of such Child, any Sum to be paid in pursuance of an Order in that Behalf, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, an account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Marine is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Marine or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Marine, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Marine out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Marine or left at his last Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body: Provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, as herein prescribed.

Offences connected with Enlistment.

LXI. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before such Justice, or shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Private in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted, or that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were not taken down in Writing: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he shall be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, Division, District, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have concealed his belonging or having belonged to any Regiment, or to the Marines, Ordnance, or Navy, or the Forces of the East India Company, and discharged, or to have deserted therefrom, or to have concealed his having been discharged on any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any Infirmity, or designedly made any false Representation at or previously to the Time of receiving Enlisting Money or upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law may be inflicted on Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned with Hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Session holden in the 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 29. Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 9 G. 4. c. 55. intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilt of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any attested Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished, or prosecuted, tried, and convicted, for any such Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Navy or Marine or Ordnance, or to the Forces of the East India Company, or that he designedly made any false Representation of any Particular contained in the said Oaths and Certificates or either of them before the Justice at the Time of the Attestation of the Person being prosecuted, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled as a Volunteer under the Act Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, or any subsequent Acts, to serve in the Militia, who at the Time of offering to enlist into Her Majesty's Forces, Army, Ordnance, or Marines, or into the Forces of the East India Company, or to enter into Her Majesty's Navy, shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve in the Militia, and who shall not have completed his Engagement by Attestation or by being entered on the Books of the Navy, shall upon Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace in the United Kingdom, either upon the Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Fourteen Days; and any Man enrolled as aforesaid who may have denied or shall hereafter deny, or who may have confessed or shall hereafter confess, to the Justice before whom he shall have been or shall be attested for the Army, Ordnance, or Marine Forces, or for the Forces of the East India Company, or who may have denied or shall hereafter deny, or who may have confessed or shall hereafter confess, on the Completion of his Engagement to enter the Navy, that he belongs to the Militia, shall not be liable to Imprisonment for such Offence, but shall, upon Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the United Kingdom, or before a Divisional or Naval Court of Inquiry, either upon his own Confession or upon the Oath of One Witness, forfeit all Militia Bounty which would have become payable to him during the Period of his belonging to Her Majesty's Forces, Army, Ordnance, or Marines, or to the Forces of the East India Company, or to the Royal Navy, if he had not therein enlisted or entered, and be subjected to a Stoppage of One Penny a Day from his Pay for Eighteen Calendar Months, to be applied as the Secretary of the Admiralty shall direct, or if enrolled in the Militia as a balloted Man or a Substitute shall, if convicted before any One Justice as aforesaid, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise for and during any

any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable, and such Person, whether he shall have been enrolled as a Volunteer or as a balloted Man or Substitute, shall from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end be and serve as a Marine of the Division of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces into which he has so enlisted or in the Navy into which he shall have entered: Provided also, that every such Person so enlisted shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces in which he has so enlisted during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, or if he had entered the Navy, to the Law, Rules, Regulations, and Customs by which the Navy is governed, and be liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Marines or from the Navy if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in the Marines or in the Navy as aforesaid.

Allowance to Innkeepers.

LXX. The Innholder or other Person on whom any Marine is billeted in England shall, if required by such Marine, furnish him for every Day on the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days, when halted at any intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of the Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previously to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper, and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Tenpence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Marines may be billeted in England, except when on the March, and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Marines with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof such a Sum as the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being shall at any Time or Times direct, but not less than the Sum of a Halfpenny per Diem for each Marine; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces shall be billeted, in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ninepence per Diem for each Horse, and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Persons for Horses billeted by virtue of this Act shall be the Rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses in which they are billeted, the Sum of Fourpence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay and Subsistence of the Officers and Men shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons on whom such Men are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any such Officer shall not pay the same as aforesaid, then, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses before Two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place where such Quarters were situate, sitting in Quarter or Petty Sessions, the Secretary of the Admiralty is hereby required, upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath shall be made of the Sum due to Complainant, to order Payment of the Amount which shall be charged against such Officer, and in case of any Marines being suddenly ordered to march, and of the Commanding Officer not being enabled to make immediate Payment of the Sums due on account of Billets, every such Officer shall before his Departure make up the Account with every Person upon whom any such Marines may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof; which Account and Certificate, on being transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty, shall be immediately paid, and charged to the Officer's Account.

Exemption from Tolls.

LXXVI. All Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, and their Horses and Baggage, (but not when passing in any private or hired Vehicle,) and all Recruits marching by Route, and all Prisoners under Military Escort, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when employed in conveying Persons or Baggage going thereto or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from the Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike or other Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act or Ordinance, Order or Direction, of any Colonial Legislature or other Authority in any of Her Majesty's Colonies; and if any Toll Collector shall demand or receive Toll from any Marine Officer or Marine who shall be in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, or for their Horses, and who by this Act is exempted from Payment thereof, or from any Recruits marching by Route, or from any Prisoners under Military Escort, or for any Carriages or Horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, when conveying Persons or Baggage, or returning therefrom, every such Collector shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or or Stores along any Canal from Payment of Tolls in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in Cases of Emergency as herein mentioned; and that when any Officers or Marines on Service shall have Occasion in the March by Route to pass regular Ferries in Scotland, the Officer commanding shall be at liberty to pass over with his Marines as Passengers, paying for himself and each Marine One Half only of the ordinary Rate payable by Passengers, or he shall be at liberty to hire the Ferry Boat for himself and his Party, debarring all others for that Time, and shall in such Case pay only Half the ordinary Rate for such Boat.

Penalties upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets and Carriages.

LXXIX. If any Constable or other Person who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any Officers or Marines in any Part of the United Kingdom shall presume to billet any such Officer or Marine in any House not within the Meaning of this Act without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof; or shall neglect or refuse to billet any Officer or Marine on Duty when thereunto required, in such Manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Marines; or shall receive, demand, or agree for any Money or Reward whatsoever, in order to excuse any Person from receiving any such Officer or Marine; or shall quarter any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants of any Officer or Marine in any such Houses against the Consent of the Occupiers; or shall neglect or refuse to execute such Warrants of the Justices as shall be directed to him for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels, or shall demand more than the legal Rates for the same; or if any Person ordered by any Constable in manner herein-before directed to provide Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall refuse or neglect to provide the same according to the Orders of such Constable, or shall demand more than the legal Rates for the same, or shall do any Act or Thing by which the Execution of any Warrants for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall be hindered; or if any Person liable by this Act to have any Officer or Marine quartered on him shall refuse to receive any such Officer or Marine, or to afford him proper Accommodation or Diet in the House of such Person in which he is quartered, or to furnish the several Things directed to be furnished to Officers and Marines, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Stables, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw for each Horse at the Rate established by this Act, and in such Quantities as shall be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding Eighteen Pounds of Hay and Six Pounds of Straw per Diem for each Horse, or shall pay any Sum of Money to any Marine on the March in lieu of furnishing in Kind the Diet and Small Beer to which such Marine is entitled; such Constable, Victualler, and other Person respectively shall forfeit for every Offence, Neglect, or Refusal any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings; and if any Person shall personate or represent himself to be a Marine or Marine Recruit with the view of fraudulently obtaining a Billet or Money in lieu thereof, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings.

Penalty for purchasing Clothes, &c. from any Marine.

LXXXII. Any Person who shall detain, buy, or exchange, or otherwise receive from any Marine or Marine Deserter, or any other Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, or shall solicit or entice any Marine or Marine Deserter, or shall be employed by any Marine or Marine Deserter, knowing him to be such, to sell any Arms, Ammunition, Marine Clothes, or Military Furniture, or any other Articles which, according to the Custom of the Marine Corps, are generally deemed Regimental or Divisional Necessaries, or any Provisions, Sheets, or other Articles used in Barracks or provided under Barrack Regulations, whether on shore or afloat, and whether the Marine or Marine Deserter or other Person be or be not borne on the Books of any One of Her Majesty's Ships, or be or be not embarked, or who shall have in his or her Possession or Keeping any Arms, Ammunition, Marine Clothes, or Military Furniture, or any other Articles which, according to the Custom of the Marine Corps, are generally deemed Regimental or Divisional Necessaries, or any Provisions, Sheets, or other Articles used in Barracks or provided under Barrack Regulations, and shall not give a satisfactory Account how he or she came by the same, or shall change or cause the Colour or Mark of any such Clothes, Appointments, Necessaries, Sheets, or other Articles to be changed or defaced, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, together with Treble the Value of all or any of the several Articles of which such Offender shall so become possessed; and if any Person having been so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any such Offence, and shall be convicted thereof by One or more Justices of the Peace, every such Offender shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds but not less than Five Pounds, and the Treble Value of all or any of the several Articles of which such Offender shall have so become possessed, and shall, in addition to such Forfeiture, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to Hard Labour, for such Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months as the convicting Justice or Justices shall think fit; and upon any Information against any Person for a Second or any subsequent Offence, a Copy of the Conviction, certified by the proper Officer having the Care or Custody of such Conviction, or any Copy of the same proved to be a true Copy, shall be sufficient Evidence to prove a Conviction for the former Offence; and if any credible Person shall prove, on Oath before a Justice of the Peace or Person exercising like Authority according to the Laws of that Part of Her Majesty's Dominions in which the Offence shall be committed, a reasonable Cause to suspect that any Person has in his or her Possession or on his or her Premises any Property of the Description herein-before described, on or with respect to which any such Offence shall have been committed, the Justice may and he is hereby required to grant a Warrant to search for such Property as in the Case of stolen Goods; and if upon Search any such Property

Property shall be found the same shall and may be seized by the Officer charged with the Execution of such Warrant, who shall bring the Offender in whose Possession the same shall be found before such Justice, to be dealt with according to Law.

Recovery of Penalties.

LXXXVI. All Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture not exceeding Twenty Pounds, over and above any Forfeiture of Value or Treble Value, is by this Act imposed, shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and Forfeiture of Value and Treble Value, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders: Provided always, that in all Cases in which there shall not be sufficient Goods whereon any Penalty or Forfeiture or Treble Value can be levied, the Offender may be committed and imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months; which said recited Act shall be used and applied in Scotland and in Ireland for the Recovery of all such Penalties and Forfeitures or Treble Value as fully to all Intents as if the said recited Act had extended to Scotland and Ireland, anything in the said recited Act, or in an Act passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Acts regulating the Proceedings at Petty Sessions, and the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Quarter Sessions, in Ireland, to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such Offences committed in the British Isles, or in any of Her Majesty's Dominions other than the United Kingdom, may be determined, and the Penalties and Forfeitures of Value or Treble Value recovered, before any Justices of the Peace or Persons exercising like Authority, according to the Laws of Her Majesty's Dominions in which the Offence shall be committed or the Offender may at any Time happen to be, and for default of Payment the Offender shall be punished as if the Offence had been committed in the United Kingdom; and all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed exceeding Twenty Pounds shall be recovered by Action in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other Court in the United Kingdom, and may be recovered in the British Isles, or in any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, in any of the Royal or Superior Courts of such Isles or other Parts of Her Majesty's Dominions.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 93.

Mode of recording a Marine's Settlement.

LXXXIX. Any Justice in the United Kingdom, within whose Jurisdiction any Marine shall be quartered on shore, may summon such Marine before him, which Summons such Marine is hereby required to obey, and take his Examination in Writing upon Oath touching the Place of his last legal Settlement in England; and such Justice shall give an attested Copy of such Examination to the Person so examined, to be by him delivered to his Commanding Officer to be produced when required; which said Examination and such attested Copy shall be at any Time admitted in Evidence as to such legal Settlement before any Justice or at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, although such Marine be dead or absent from the Kingdom: Provided always, that in Case any Marine shall be again summoned to make Oath as aforesaid, then, on such Examination or such attested Copy being produced, such Marine shall not be obliged to make any other or further Oath with regard to his legal Settlement, but shall leave with such Justice a Copy of such Examination or a Copy of such attested Copy of Examination, if required: Provided also, that when no such Examination shall have been required, the Statement made on Oath by the Recruit on his Attestation of his Place of Birth shall be taken to be his last Place of Settlement until legally disproved.

Administration of Oaths.

XC. All Oaths and Declarations which are authorized or required by this Act may be administered (unless where otherwise provided) by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate acting as such; and that any Person giving false Evidence or taking a false Oath or Declaration in any Case wherein an Oath or Declaration is authorized or required to be taken by this Act, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and shall be liable to such Pains and Penalties as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are or may be subject and liable to; and every Commissioned Officer convicted before a General Court-martial of Perjury shall be cashiered, and every Marine or other Person amenable to the Provisions of this Act found guilty thereof by a General or other Court-martial shall be punished at the Discretion of such Court.

Perjury.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to explain and amend the Lunacy Regulation Act, 1853. [26th April 1855.]

WHEREAS by the Section numbered CXXIX. of an Act passed in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Proceedings ‘ under Commissions of Lunacy, and the Consolidation and Amendment of the Acts respecting Lunatics so ‘ found by Inquisition, and their Estates, it was enacted, that where a Lunatic is seised or possessed of or ‘ entitle to Land in Fee or in Tail, or to Leasehold Land for an absolute Interest, and it appears to the ‘ Lord C ancellor, intrusted as in the said Act mentioned, to be for his Benefit that a Lease or Under- ‘ lease should be made thereof for Terms of Years, for encouraging the Erection of Buildings thereon, or ‘ for repairing Buildings actually being thereon, or otherwise improving the same, or for Farming or other ‘ Purposes,

'Purposes, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of 'the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as aforesaid, make such Leases of the Land or any Part thereof, according 'to the Lunatic's Estate and Interest therein, and to the Nature of the Tenure thereof, for such Term or 'Terms of Years, and subject to such Rents and Covenants, as the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as afore- 'said, shall order: And whereas it has been considered that the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as aforesaid, 'cannot by Force of the said Enactment empower the Committee of a Lunatic Tenant in Tail to grant 'Leases as extensively as was intended by the said Enactment, which will bind his Issue in Tail and the 'Remaindermen: And whereas it is expedient to explain and enlarge the Power of the Lord Chancellor, 'intrusted as aforesaid, in the Matter aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Lord Chancellor, in Matters of Lunacy, enabled to empower Committees of Estates to grant Leases binding on Issue or Remaindermen.

I. Where a Lunatic is seised of or entitled to Land in Tail, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as aforesaid, to be for his Benefit, the Committee of the Estate may in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as aforesaid, make any such Leases of the Land or any Part thereof as in the said Section of the said Act are mentioned, and every such Lease shall be good and effectual in Law against the Lunatic and his Heirs, and all Persons claiming the Lands entailed by force of any Estate Tail which shall be vested in such Lunatic, and also against all Persons, including the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, whose Estates are to take effect after the Determination of or in remainder or reversion expectant upon such Estate Tail, according to such Estate as is comprised and specified in every such Lease, in like Manner as the same would have been good and effectual in Law if the Lunatic at the Time of the making of such Leases had been lawfully seised of the same Lands comprised in such Lease of a pure Estate in Fee Simple to his own Use, and had been of sound Mind, and not the Subject of a Commission of Lunacy, and had himself granted such Lease; and every Person to whom from Time to Time the Reversion expectant upon the Lease shall belong after the Death of the Lunatic shall and may have such and the like Remedies and Advantages, to all Intents and Purposes, against the Lessee, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, as the Lunatic or his Committee would or might have had against him or them: And the Powers given by Sections numbered CXXX. and CXXXI. of the said recited Act shall and are to operate as extensively as the Power given by the said Section CXXIX. of the said Act as explained and enlarged by this Act.

Interpretation.

II. Where any of the Expressions in this Act are used in the said recited Act they shall receive the same Interpretation in this Act as by the said recited Act is imposed upon them.

CAP. XIV.

An Act to authorize the Inclosure of certain Lands in pursuance of a Report of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales. [26th April 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales have, in pursuance of "The Acts 'for the Inclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land," issued their Provisional Orders for 'and concerning the proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, and have in their Tenth 'Annual General Report certified their Opinion that such Inclosures would be expedient; but the same 'cannot be proceeded with without the previous Authority of Parliament:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Inclosures may be proceeded with.

I. That the said several proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act be proceeded with.

CAP. XV.

An Act for the better Protection of Purchasers against Judgments, Crown Debts, Cases of Lis pendens, and Life Annuities or Rentcharges. [26th April 1855.]

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the Session of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for abolishing Arrest on Mesne Process in Civil Actions, except in certain Cases, for extending the Remedies of Creditors against the Property of Debtors, and for amending the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England; and another Act in the Session of the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Protection of Purchasers against Judgments, Crown Debts, Lis pendens, and Fiats in Bankruptcy; and another Act in the Session of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for further amending the Act for abolishing Arrest on Mesne Process in Civil Actions: And whereas the Provisions of the said Acts respecting Judgments, Decrees, Orders, and Rules, and Lis pendens, ought to include and be applicable to the Counties Palatine of Lancaster and Durham, and the Common Law and Equity Courts thereof respectively: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Practice and Proceedings of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, by force whereof the said Provisions do to some Extent include and are applicable to the County Palatine of Lancaster, as far as regards the Court of Chancery thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1 & 2 Vict. c. 110.

2 & 3 Vict. c. 11.

3 & 4 Vict. c. 82.

13 & 14 Vict. c. 43. s. 24.

Certain Judgments of Common Law Palatinate Courts not to affect Lands, &c. unless registered within limited Time.

I. Any Judgment of the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster, or of the Court of Pleas of the County Palatine of Durham, obtained before the coming into operation of the said Act of the Session of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty, and not already registered in the said Courts respectively under the Provisions of the same Act, and which shall not be registered in the said Courts respectively under the same Provisions as amended by this Act, on or before the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall not after that Day affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the said Counties Palatine respectively as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, unless and until such Memorandum or Minute of such Judgment as is in the said Act prescribed shall be left with the Prothonotary of the Court in which the Judgment has been obtained, who shall forthwith enter the same in manner by the same Act as amended by this Act directed in regard to Judgments thereby authorized to be registered, and shall be entitled for every such Entry to the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence; and the Provision for Re-registration, toties quoties, herein-after mentioned, as explained by this Act, is hereby extended and applied, mutatis mutandis, to Judgments registered under this present Provision.

Fee for Entry of Judgments.

Certain Provisions of 1 & 2 Vict. c. 110. extended to Common Law Palatinate Courts, and to Equity Court of Durham.

II. And be it declared and enacted as follows: The Provisions contained in the Sections of the said Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty numbered respectively XVIII., XIX., and XX., giving to certain Rules of Courts of Common Law, and Decrees and Orders of Courts of Equity, the Effect of Judgments in the Superior Courts of Common Law, and constituting the Persons therein mentioned Judgment Creditors, and giving to Courts of Equity the Powers by the same Act given to the Judges of the said Superior Courts, and giving to the Persons so constituted Judgment Creditors as aforesaid such Remedies as are therein mentioned, and authorizing the Registration of such Decrees, Orders, and Rules as aforesaid, and providing for the Writs to be sued out of Courts of Equity, shall extend and are applicable, mutatis mutandis, to the said Counties Palatine and the Courts of Common Law thereof respectively, and to the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Durham, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, to the end that the same Law in the respects aforesaid may apply to the Courts of the said Counties Palatine, and the Decrees, Orders, Judgments, and Rules thereof, so far as relates to Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments within the Jurisdiction of such Courts respectively, tively, as under the previous Statutes amended by this Act, will regulate the Operation of Judgments in the Superior Courts of Common Law: But no Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule of any Court shall bind Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the said Counties Palatine respectively, as against Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, unless and until such Memorandum or Minute thereof as hereinbefore is mentioned shall be left with the Prothonotary of the Palatine Court in which are situated the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments intended to be charged thereby.

2 & 3 Vict. c. 11. ss. 2, 4, 5, & 7, and 3 & 4 Vict. c. 82. s. 2. extended to Common Law and Equity Courts of Counties Palatine.

III. The Provisions contained in the Sections of the said Act of the Second and Third of Her Majesty numbered respectively III., IV., V., and VII., and in the Section of the said Act of the Third and Fourth of Her Majesty numbered II., respecting the Particulars to be inserted in the Register by the Master, and respecting the Re-registration of Judgments, Decrees, or Orders, and Rules, and respecting the Registration and Re-registration of Lis pendens, and respecting the Protection of Purchasers, Mortgagees, and Creditors, as explained or amended by this Act, shall extend and are applicable, mutatis mutandis, to the Counties Palatine and the Courts of Common Law and Courts of Chancery thereof respectively, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions.

No Judgment, &c. registered under 3 & 4 Vict. c. 82. to affect Lands, &c. as to Purchasers, &c. until registered.

IV. 'And whereas the Protection afforded to Purchasers, Mortgagees, and Creditors, by the said Act 'of the Third and Fourth of Her Majesty, against Judgments, Decrees, Orders, or Rules not duly 'registered, any Notice thereof notwithstanding, is confined to Judgments, Decrees, Orders, or Rules 'binding by virtue of the said Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty: And whereas the 'Docket or Register previously in use has been closed, and the said Provision ought not to be so 'restricted:' Be it therefore enacted, That no Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule which might be registered under the said Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty shall affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, at Law or in Equity, as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, unless and until such a Memorandum or Minute as in the said Act in that Behalf mentioned shall have been left with the proper Officer of the proper Court, any Notice of any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule to any such Purchaser, Mortgagee, or Creditor in anywise notwithstanding.

Purchasers protected against Judgments not re-registered.

V. 'And whereas it is expedient that certain Doubts which have arisen upon some of the Provisions 'for the Protection of Purchasers against Judgments in the said Acts contained should be removed:' Be it therefore declared and enacted as follows: The Provision contained in the Section numbered II. of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty extends and shall be deemed to extend as well to the Act therein referred to as to the Section numbered IV. of the said Act of the Second and Third of Her Majesty, as explained by this Act, so that Notice of any Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, not duly re-registered, shall not avail against Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, as to Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments.

Provision for Re-registration explained.

VI. Where by the said Act of the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty Re-registry of Judgments, Decrees, Orders, or Rules is required within such Period of Five Years as is therein mentioned, in order to bind Purchasers, Mortgagees, and Creditors, it shall be deemed sufficient to bind such Purchasers, Mortgagees, and Creditors if such a Memorandum or Minute as was required in the first instance is again left with the Senior Master of the Common Pleas within Five Years before the Execution of the Conveyance, Settlement, Mortgage, Lease, or other Deed or Instrument vesting or transferring the legal or equitable Right, Title, Estate, or Interest, in or to any such Purchaser or Mortgagee for valuable Consideration, or as to Creditors within Five Years before the Right of such Creditors accrued, as directed by the said last-mentioned Act, although more than Five Years shall have expired by Effluxion of Time since the last previous Registration before such last-mentioned Memorandum or Minute was left, and so toties quoties upon every Re-registry.

Judgments of Inferior Courts, when removed, shall be registered.

VII. Where by the Section numbered XXII. of the said Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty Power is given to remove Judgments, Rules, or Orders obtained in or made by certain Inferior Courts into the said Superior Courts, or into the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster, as the Case may be, no such Judgment, Rule, or Order which has already been or hereafter shall be so removed shall bind any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, unless and until after such Removal it shall be registered, and, if necessary, re-registered, in like Manner as in order to bind such Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors it must have been if originally entered up in One of the said Superior Courts, or in the said Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster, as the Case may be; but from and after the passing of this Act every such Judgment, Rule, or Order so registered, and where necessary re-registered, shall be binding in like Manner, but not further or otherwise, as other Judgments, Rules, or Orders of the said Superior Courts or of the said Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster respectively, and the Proviso at the End of the said Section XXII. restricting the Operation of the same is hereby repealed.

Extinguished Judgments not revived.

VIII. Nothing herein contained shall extend to revive or restore any Judgment which shall be extinguished or barred, or to affect or prejudice any such Judgment, or any Decree, Order, or Rule, as between the Parties thereto, or their Representatives, or those deriving as Volunteers under them.

Duties of Prothonotary.

IX. For the Purposes of any Registration or Re-registration to be made in pursuance of this Act in either of the said Counties Palatine, all such Acts and Things as under the Provisions of the said several Acts of the Reign of Her Majesty ought to be done by or left with the Senior Master of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster shall be done by or left with the Prothonotary or Deputy Prothonotary of the the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster, or of the Court of Pleas of the County Palatine of Durham, as the Case may require, or such other Officer (if any) of the same Courts respectively as may for the Time being have been appointed by the same Courts respectively, for the Purpose of entering the Judgments thereof respectively, under the Provisions of the said Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty; and the said Prothonotary, Deputy Prothonotary, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, for the Duties to be performed on every Registration, and the Sum of One Shilling only for Re-registration; and all Persons shall be at liberty to search all or any of the Books kept in pursuance of any of the foregoing Provisions of this Act in each Court, for the Sum of One Shilling.

Fees for Registration and Searches.

X. 'And whereas by the Section numbered CXXIII. of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, 'when any Person admits (in manner therein mentioned) that he is indebted to a Bankrupt, it is enacted 'that every Order of the Court of Bankruptcy for the Payment by such Person of the Amount so 'admitted, and Costs (if any), shall have the Effect of a Judgment in the said Superior Courts, and may 'be enforced accordingly, and by the Section numbered CCXLIX. of the same Act it is enacted that the 'said Court may in all Matters before it award Costs, and that the like Remedies may be had upon an 'Order of the said Court for Costs as upon a Rule of any of the said Superior Courts for Costs, but the 'said Act does not direct the Registration of any such Order as aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted as follows: No such Order of the Court of Bankruptcy for Payment of Money or of Costs as aforesaid shall affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, unless and until it shall be registered, and if necessary re-registered, in like Manner as in order to bind such Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, it must have been if it had originally been a Judgment or Rule obtained or entered up in One of the said Superior Courts or in the said Palatine Courts respectively, any Notice of any such Order to any such Purchaser, Mortgagee, or Creditor in anywise notwithstanding.

No Order of Court of Bankruptcy to affect Lands, &c. until registered.

XI. 'And whereas great Delay and Expense are occasioned upon Purchases and Mortgages of Lands 'in consequence of Judgments against Mortgagees and Crown Debts and Liabilities to the Crown of 'Mortgagees continuing to bind Lands, although the Mortgagees have been bonâ fide paid off, and the 'Lands have been actually conveyed to Purchasers, or to other Mortgagees:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted as follows: Where any legal or equitable Estate or Interest or any disposing Power in or over any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall, under any Conveyance or other Instrument executed after the passing of this Act, become vested in any Person as a Purchaser or Mortgagee for valuable Consideration, such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall not be taken in execution under any Writ of Elegit, or other Writ of Execution, to be sued upon any Judgment, or any Decree, Order, or Rule, against any Mortgagee or Mortgagees thereof, who shall have been paid off prior to or at the Time of the Execution of such Conveyance, nor shall any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, or the Money thereby secured, be a Charge upon such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so vested in Purchasers or Mortgagees, nor shall such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so vested in Purchasers or Mortgagees be extended or taken in execution, or rendered liable under any Writ of Extent or Writ of Execution or other Process issued by or on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in respect of any Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance obtained against or entered into by, or Inquisition found against, or Obligation or Specialty made by, or Acceptance of Office by any Mortgagee or Mortgagees, whereby he or they hath or have become or shall become a Debtor or Accountant, or Debtors or Accountants to the Crown, where such Mortgagee or Mortgagees shall have been paid off prior to or at the Time of the Execution of such Conveyance as aforesaid.

Legal Estate vested in Purchaser or Mortgagee not to be taken in execution.

XII. 'And whereas by reason of the Repeal in the last Session of Parliament of the Act of the Fifty-'third Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and forty-one, requiring the Enrolment of 'Life Annuities or Rentcharges, Purchasers are no longer enabled to ascertain by Search what Life 'Annuities or Rentcharges may have been granted by their Vendors or others:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid as follows: Any Annuity or Rentcharge granted after the passing of this Act, otherwise than by Marriage Settlement, for One or more Life or Lives, or for any Term of Years or greater Estate determinable on One or more Life or Lives, shall not affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, unless and until a Memorandum or Minute containing the Name, and the usual or last known Place of Abode, and the Title, Trade, or Profession of the Person whose Estate is intended to be affected thereby, and the Date of the Deed, Bond, Instrument, or Assurance whereby the Annuity or Rentcharge is granted, and the annual Sum or Sums to be paid, shall be left with the Senior Master of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, who shall forthwith enter the Particulars aforesaid in a Book in alphabetical Order by the Name of the Person whose Estate is intended to be affected by the Annuity or Rentcharge, together with the Year and the Day of the Month when every such Memorandum or Minute is so left with him, and he shall be entitled for every such Entry to the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and all Persons shall be at liberty to search the same Book, together with the other Books or Registers in the Office, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling.

Life Annuities and Rentcharges not to affect Lands as to Purchasers, &c. until Memorandum left with Senior Master.

XIII. The Searches of the several Registers, by the said recited Acts or by this Act authorized to be made for the Sum of One Shilling, may be made by the Parties themselves, under proper Regulations in the Searches may be made by Parties themselves.

the Office, and the Sum of One Shilling only shall be payable on One Search, although more Names than One shall be searched for where such Names relate to the same Purchase, Mortgage, or other Transaction.

Annuities, &c. excepted from Act.

XIV. The Provisions of this Act shall not extend to require the Registry of Annuities or Rentcharges given by Will.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to authorize the letting Parts of the Royal Forests of Dean and Woolmer, and certain other Parts of the Hereditary Possessions of the Crown. [26th April 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Powers of leasing given by an Act of Parliament passed in the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, are by such Act declared not to extend to 'the leasing of any Part of the Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases in England, and by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-six, the 'Powers of leasing given by the said Act of the Tenth George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, were extended 'to certain Parts of the New Forest, and it is expedient that such Powers of leasing should be extended 'to Parts of the Royal Forests of Dean and Woolmer, and certain other Parts of the Hereditary Possessions of the Crown:' Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Powers of leasing given by the 10 G. 4. c. 50. extended to certain Parts of the Royal Forests of Dean and Woolmer.

I. The Powers of leasing given by the said Act of the Tenth George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, shall henceforth extend to enable the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on behalf of Her Majesty, to lease all or any Parts of the Royal Forest of Dean in the County of Gloucester, and of the Royal Forest of Woolmer in the County of Southampton, the Soil and Freehold of which now are or hereafter may be permanently vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, discharged of all Common and other Rights of the Subject in and over the same: Provided always, that such Power shall not extend to any Portion of the Land of the said Forests for the Time being inclosed under the Authority of any Acts or Act for the Growth of Timber or other Trees.

Power of leasing extended to certain other Parts of the Hereditary Possessions of the Crown.

II. The Powers of leasing herein-before given shall extend to all Hereditaments which were or are Part of the several Royal Forests, or late Royal Forests, mentioned in the Acts set forth in the Schedule to this Act, and which now are or hereafter may be permanently vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, discharged of all Common or other Rights of the Subject in and over the same, and which Hereditaments may not for the Time being be appropriated by or on behalf of the Crown for the Growth of Timber, or, if so appropriated, the said Powers shall also extend to any Rights of Sporting or other Rights which may in the Judgment of the said Commissioners be properly exercised over the same Hereditaments.

By whom Powers hereby given may be exercised.

III. The Powers hereby given may be exercised by the Commissioner or Commissioners or other Officer or Officers for the Time being of Her Majesty to or in whom the Management of the said Forests of Dean and Woolmer and other the Hereditaments hereby authorized to be leased is now or may hereafter be assigned or vested.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to carry into effect a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of Sardinia. [26th April 1855.]

'WHEREAS a Military Convention having been concluded on the Twenty-sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, between Her Majesty and the Emperor of the 'French and the King of Sardinia, whereby the King of Sardinia agreed to furnish and keep up by 'the

'the necessary Reinforcements an Army of Fifteen thousand Men for the present War, a Convention 'supplementary to the said Military Convention was on the said Twenty-sixth Day of January One 'thousand eight hundred and fifty-five concluded between Her Majesty and the King of Sardinia, 'whereby it was agreed as follows:

'ARTICLE I.—Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland 'undertakes to recommend to Her Parliament to enable Her to advance by way of Loan to His 'Majesty the King of Sardinia the Sum of One million Pounds Sterling, of which Sum Five 'hundred thousand Pounds Sterling shall be paid by Her Majesty as soon as possible after the 'Assent of Her Parliament shall have been given, and the remaining Five hundred thousand Pounds 'at the Expiration of Six Months after Payment of the First Sum; and Her Britannic Majesty 'engages further to recommend to Her Parliament to enable Her, if the War should not have been 'brought to a Close at the Expiration of Twelve Months after Payment of the First Instalment of 'the above-mentioned Loan, to advance to His Majesty the King of Sardinia in the same Propor- 'tions a like Sum of One million Pounds Sterling.

'ARTICLE II.—The Interest to be paid upon the said Loan or Loans by the Sardinian Govern- 'ment shall be at the Rate of Four per Cent. per Annum, of which One per Cent. per Annum shall 'be for a Sinking Fund:

'The said Interest shall be calculated from the Days on which the Payments on account of the 'Loan or Loans shall be made, and shall be payable half-yearly, the First Payment to be made 'within Fifteen Days after the Expiration of Six Months from the Payment of the First Instalment 'of the Loan, and so on successively.

'ARTICLE III.—Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland 'will undertake gratuitously the Transport of the Sardinian Troops.

'And whereas the said Supplementary Convention has been ratified between Her Majesty and the 'King of Sardinia: And whereas, in pursuance of Her Majesty's gracious Recommendation in this 'Behalf, it is expedient that Her Majesty should be enabled to carry into effect the said Supplementary 'Convention with the King of Sardinia:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Treasury to direct Sums required for the Loan or Loans to Sardinia to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their Hands, to direct and cause to be issued to Her Majesty's Paymaster-General from Time to Time out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of the growing Produce thereof, such Sums of Money as shall be required for the Advance to His Majesty the King of Sardinia of the said Loan of One million Pounds Sterling, and (if the War shall not have been brought to a Close as in the said Supplementary Convention mentioned) of the said further Loan of One million Pounds Sterling, by the several Instalments and at the Times provided by the said Supplementary Convention, conformably to Her Majesty's Engagements in this Behalf.

Sums repaid as Interest, &c. to go to Consolidated Fund.

II. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause such Sums as shall be from Time to Time paid by the Sardinian Government as Interest and Sinking Fund in respect of the said Loan or Loans to be carried to and form Part of the said Consolidated Fund.

Annual Account to be laid before Parliament.

III. The said Commissioners of the Treasury shall cause to be prepared, and shall lay before both Houses of Parliament within Twenty Days after the First Meeting of Parliament after the First Day of January in every Year, an Account, up to the Thirty-first Day of December then next preceding, of the total Sums which shall from Time to Time have been issued by virtue of this Act in respect of the said Loan or Loans, and also of the Sums from Time to Time received from the Sardinian Government for Interest and Sinking Fund in respect thereof, and such Account shall specify how much of such Loan or Loans has been discharged, and how much remains to be discharged.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for raising the Sum of Sixteen Millions by way of Annuities. [5th May 1855.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great 'Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, being desirous to raise the necessary Supplies 'which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this Session of Parliament, have resolved, that 'the Sum of Sixteen Millions be raised by Annuities in manner herein-after mentioned;' and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Contributors entitled to 100*l.* in the Three per Cent. Consols, and to an

I. Every Contributor towards raising the said Sum of Sixteen Millions shall for every One hundred Pounds contributed and paid be entitled to the Principal Sum of One hundred Pounds in Consolidated Annuities, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to commence from the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and shall also be entitled to a further Annuity of Fourteen Shillings and Annuity of 14*s.* 6*d.* for 30 Years.

and Sixpence for a Term of Thirty Years, to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Contributors who have made Deposits to pay the Remainder of Subscriptions by Instalments.

II. 'And whereas, pursuant to and upon the Terms and Conditions expressed in the said Resolution, 'several Persons have, in Books opened at the Bank of England for that Purpose, subscribed 'together the whole of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions to be raised by Annuities, and made Deposits 'of Ten Pounds per Centum on the respective Sums by them so subscribed to the said Sum of Sixteen 'Millions to be raised by Annuities with the Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of 'England:'

It shall and may be lawful to and for such Contributors who have made such Deposits with the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England (which Cashier or Cashiers is and are hereby appointed the Receiver and Receivers of such Contributions, without any other Warrant to be had in that Behalf,) to advance and pay unto the said Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England the several Remainders of the Sums by them respectively subscribed towards the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, at or before the respective Days and Times and in the Proportions herein-after limited and appointed in that Behalf; (that is to say,) the further Sum of Fifteen Pounds per Centum on or before the Twenty-second Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on or before the Nineteenth Day of June then next following; the further Sum of Fifteen Pounds per Centum on or before the Seventeenth Day of July then next following; the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on or before the Twenty-first Day of August then next following; the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on or before the Eighteenth Day of September then next following; the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on or before the Sixteenth Day of October then next following; the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on or before the Twentieth Day of November then next following; and the remaining Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on or before the Eighteenth Day of December then next following.

Power to Guardians, &c. to subscribe for Infants.

III. It shall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Trustee having the Disposition of the Money of any Infant to contribute and pay for or towards advancing the said Sum of Sixteen Millions to be raised by Annuities in manner aforesaid, and such Infant, upon the Payment of such Sum or Sums subscribed by such Guardian or Trustee, shall become a Contributor within the Meaning of this Act, and be entitled to have and receive the Annuities, Advantages, and Payments in respect thereof, in such and the like Manner as any other Contributor; and the said Guardian and Trustee as to the said Sum or Sums so advanced is hereby discharged, so as the Name of such Infant be expressed in the Receipt or Receipts for such Money.

Contributors entitled to certain Annuities payable half-yearly.

IV. The several Subscribers or Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, shall be entitled, for every One hundred Pounds by him, her, or them respectively advanced and paid, to an Annuity after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to commence from the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, until Redemption by Parliament in manner herein-after mentioned, and also to an Annuity of Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence for the Term of Thirty Years from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and no longer, which said respective Annuities shall be payable and paid half-yearly by even and equal Portions; that is to say, the said Annuity after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum on the Fifth Day of July and the Fifth Day of January in every Year, and the said Annuity of Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence on the Fifth Day of April and Tenth Day of October in every Year, the first Payment of each of the said Annuities to be due on the Days herein-after appointed for that Purpose.

Time at which Stock may be transferred.

V. As soon as any Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall, after Payment of the Deposit of Ten per Centum, have made Payment of any subsequent Instalment payable by them respectively on the Day specified in this Act towards the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, such Contributors may have a proportional Amount of Stock in Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, and of the said Terminable Annuity in respect of such Instalment, forthwith placed in the Books of the Bank of England to the Credit of such respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns; and on Payment of the last Instalment, such Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall have a proportional Amount of like Stock and of the said Terminable Annuity placed to their respective Credits, corresponding, at the Rate aforesaid, to the aggregate Amount of the Deposit and of such last Instalment; and the Persons to whose Credit such Consolidated Annuities and Terminable Annuity, or such proportional Parts thereof, shall be so placed, their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall and may have Power to assign and transfer the same, or any Part, Share, or Proportion thereof, to any other Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, whatsoever, in the Books of the Bank of England; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, to prepare proper Books for the Purpose of entering the Names of all such Contributors, and of placing to their Credit the Principal Sums so paid by them respectively; and such Stock shall carry the Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be payable under this Act, until Redemption thereof in such Manner as is herein-after mentioned, and, together with the said Terminable Annuities created under this Act, shall be transferable as this Act directs, and not otherwise.

VI. All

Contributors may anticipate Payments.

VI. All and every such Contributor or Contributors, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, who shall pay into the Hands of the said Cashier or Cashiers the whole of his, her, or their Contribution Money, or any Part thereof, in anticipation of the said Instalments or any of them, shall be entitled to have forthwith inscribed into his, her, or their Names the whole or such proportional Amount of the said Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, and of the said Terminable Annuity; but Discount shall not be allowed on any such Payment in anticipation of any of the said Instalments.

Commencement of Dividends.

VII. The First Half Year's Payment of the said Annuity after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum shall be due on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five on all Sums of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities written into the Books of the Bank of England, under the Authority of this Act, not later than the preceding Twenty-fifth Day of June, and the First Half Year's Payment of the said Terminable Annuity shall be due on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five in respect of every such Terminable Annuity written into the Books of the Bank of England not later than the Twenty-fifth Day of September preceding; and in respect of all Sums of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities written into the said Books as aforesaid after the said Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five One Year's Annuity shall be due on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and in respect of every such Terminable Annuity so written in after the Twenty-fifth Day of September One Year's Annuity shall be due on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Annuities payable and transferable at the Bank.

VIII. All the Annuities aforesaid shall be payable and paid and be transferable at the Bank of England; and the Three per Centum Annuities aforesaid shall be subject to such Redemption as is herein-after mentioned.

Annuities in respect of 16,000,000*l.* to be paid out of Consolidated Fund;

IX. So much Money shall from Time to Time be set apart and issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to the said Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as shall be sufficient to satisfy and pay the respective Annuities to be created in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, together with the Charges attending the same.

and shall be charged upon the said Fund.

X. All the said Annuities, Interest, and Dividends which shall become payable in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions shall be charged and chargeable upon, and are hereby charged upon and made payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Bank to appoint a Cashier and an Accountant General, and the Treasury to order Money to be issued to the Cashier for Payment of Annuities.

XI. For the more easy and sure Payment of all the Annuities established by this Act, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall from Time to Time, until all the said Annuities shall be redeemed, or shall cease, appoint and employ One or more sufficient Person or Persons within their Office in the City of London to be their Chief or First Cashier or Cashiers, and One other sufficient Person within the same Office to be their Accountant General; and so much of the Monies by this Act appropriated for the Purpose as shall be sufficient from Time to Time to answer the said Annuities and other Payments herein directed to be made out of the said Monies, in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, shall, by Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, without any further Warrant to be sued for, had, or obtained in that Behalf, from Time to Time, at the respective Days of Payment in this Act appointed for Payment thereof, be issued and paid at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the said First or Chief Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for the Time being, by way of Imprest and upon Account for the Payment of the Annuities in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions payable by virtue of this Act; and such Cashier or Cashiers, to whom the said Money shall from Time to Time be issued, shall from Time to Time, without Delay, pay the same accordingly, and render his or their Accounts thereof according to the due Course of the Exchequer; and the said Accountant General for the Time being shall, from Time to Time, inspect and examine all Receipts and Payments of the said Cashier or Cashiers, and the Vouchers relating thereto, in order to prevent any Fraud, Negligence, or Delay.

Cashier to give Receipt for Subscriptions, which may be assigned before 18th December 1855.

Cashier to give Security for paying the Money he receives into the Exchequer.

XII. The Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England who shall have received or shall receive any Part of the said Contributions towards the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, shall give a Receipt or Receipts in Writing to every such Contributor for all such Sums; and the Receipts so to be given shall be assignable at any Time before the Eighteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and no longer: Provided always, that such Cashier or Cashiers shall give Security to the good liking of any Two or more of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for duly answering and paying into the Receipt of the Exchequer as after mentioned, for the Public Use, all the Monies which he or they has or have already received, and shall hereafter receive from Time to Time, of and for the whole of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, and for accounting duly for the same, and for Performance of the Trust hereby in him or them reposed, and shall from Time to Time pay all such Monies as soon as he or they shall receive the same, or any Part thereof, or within Five Days afterwards at the farthest, into, and shall account for the same in the Exchequer, according to the due Course thereof, deducting thereout such Sums as shall have been paid by him or them in pursuance of this Act, for which Sums so paid Allowance shall be made in his or their Accounts.

A Book to be kept in Accountant General's Office for

XIII. In the Office of the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being a Book or Books shall be provided and kept, in which the Names of the Contributors shall be fairly entered; which Book or Books the said respective Contributors, their respective Executors, entering Contributors Names, and a Duplicate to be sent to Exchequer.

Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall and may from Time to Time, and at all seasonable Times, resort to and inspect without any Fee or Charge; and the said Accountant General shall, on or before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, transmit an attested Duplicate, fairly written on Paper, of the said Book or Books into the Office of the Receipt of the Exchequer, there to remain for ever.

Subscriptions paid in Part and not completed, forfeited.

XIV. In case any such Contributors who have already deposited with or shall hereafter pay to the said Cashier or Cashiers any Sum or Sums of Money at the Time and in the Manner herein-before mentioned, in Part of the Sum or Sums so by them respectively subscribed, or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall not advance and pay to the said Cashier or Cashiers the Residue of the Sum or Sums so subscribed at the Times and in the Manner before mentioned, then and in every such Case the aforesaid Deposit of Ten Pounds per Centum shall be forfeited for the Benefit of the Public, and all Right and Title to the said Ten Pounds per Centum Deposit, and to the Annuities in respect thereof, shall be extinguished; anything in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Annuities to be deemed Personal Estate.

XV. All Persons and Corporations who shall be entitled to any of the Annuities hereby granted in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, and all Persons and Corporations lawfully claiming under them, shall be possessed thereof as of a Personal Estate, which shall not be descendible to Heirs, nor liable to any Foreign Attachment by the Custom of London, or otherwise; any Law, Statute, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Power to Treasury to apply the Money paid into the Exchequer.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to issue and apply from Time to Time all such Sums of Money as have been or shall be so paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer by the said Cashier or Cashiers, in respect of the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, to such Services as are now charged on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or shall be charged thereon by any Act that may be passed hereafter.

Accountant General to keep Books for entering Transfers.

XVII. Books shall be constantly kept by the said Accountant General for the Time being, wherein all Assignments or Transfers of all Sums of Stock in the Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuities created under this Act, and of the said Terminable Annuities, shall be entered and registered, which Entry shall be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers, or if such Parties be absent, by their respective Attorney or Attornies thereunto lawfully authorized in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to be attested by Two or more credible Witnesses; and the several Persons to whom such Transfers shall be made may respectively underwrite their Acceptance thereof, and no other Method of assigning and transferring the said Stock or Annuities, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, shall be good or available in Law; and no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be charged on any of the said Transfers, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Transfers not liable to Stamp Duties.

Treasury to defray Incidents.

XVIII. Out of the Monies arising from the Contributions towards raising the said Sum of Sixteen Millions by Annuities, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall have Power to discharge all such incident Charges as shall necessarily attend the Execution of this Act, in such Manner as to them shall seem just and reasonable.

Allowance for the Expense of Management.

XIX. It shall be lawful to and for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to retain out of the said Contributions at the Rate of Three hundred Pounds for every Million thereof as an Allowance for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Cashier or Cashiers employed in receiving, paying, and accounting for the same; and also for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Accountant General for performing the Trust reposed in him by this Act, which Allowance, in respect of the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Cashier or Cashiers and Accountant General of the said Governor and Company, shall be for the Use of the said Governor and Company, and at their Disposal only.

Three per Cent. Annuities created by this Act to be added to the Joint Stock of the Three per Cent. Consols.

XX. All the Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum to which any Person or Persons shall become entitled by virtue of this Act, in respect of any Sum advanced or contributed towards the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, shall be added to the Joint Stock of Annuities transferable at the Bank of England, into which the several Sums carrying an Interest after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum were by several Acts made in the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirty-second, and Thirty-third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and by several subsequent Acts consolidated, and shall be deemed Part of the said Joint Stock of Annuities; subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament in such Manner and upon such Notice as in the said Act made in the Twenty-fifth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign is directed in respect of the several and respective Annuities redeemable by virtue of the said Act; and all and every Person and Persons and Corporation whatsoever, in proportion to the Money to which he, she, or they shall become entitled as aforesaid by virtue of this Act, shall have and be deemed to have a proportional Interest and Share in the said Joint Stock of Annuities at the Rates aforesaid.

Terminable Annuities created by this Act may be transferred to

XXI. The Terminable Annuities granted under the Provisions of this Act shall and may be transferred to and from the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and vice versâ, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums in the like Annuities written into the Books of the said respective Banks, in like Manner and under the same Regulations as any other Annuities for Terms of Years or Capital Stock are permitted to be be so transferred under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to permit the mutual Transfer of Capital in certain Public Stocks or Funds transferable at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, and an Act of the Sixth Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the Assimilation of the Currency and Monies of Account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. and from England and Ireland. 5 G. 4. c. 53. 6 G. 4. c. 79.

XXII. For the Purpose of the Extinction of a Portion of the Funded Debt of Great Britain and Ireland equal to the Amount to be added to the said Joint Stock as aforesaid, there shall be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of the growing Produce thereof, to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the financial Year commencing on the First Day of April which shall first happen Twelve Months after the Ratification of a definitive Treaty of Peace with Russia, and in every subsequent Year until such Portion of the said Funded Debt is extinguished by means of the Monies to be issued to the said Commissioners under this Enactment, the Sum of One million Pounds: Provided that in case, in the last Year in which such Sum would be payable, the Sum necessary for purchasing the remaining Portion of the said Portion of such Funded Debt be less than One million Pounds, then so much only of such Sum as may be necessary for that Purpose shall be issued and paid as aforesaid; and the Sums so to be issued and paid to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall be applied by them from Time to Time in the Purchase of such Funded Debt, in the Manner directed by the Acts for the Reduction of the National Debt, until by means of such Sums a Sum of Sixteen million Pounds of such Funded Debt has been extinguished and cancelled, and all such Funded Debt purchased by the said Commissioners under the Authority of this Act shall from Time to Time be forthwith cancelled and extinguished, and all Dividends in respect thereof shall cease to be payable; and for the Purposes of the Acts for the Reduction of the National Debts, the Sums to be issued and paid to the said Commissioners as aforesaid shall be deemed Part of the Expenditure of the United Kingdom. Sinking Fund.

XXIII. If any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or shall willingly act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Receipt or Receipts for the whole or any Part or Parts of the said Contributions towards the said Sum of Sixteen Millions, either with or without the Name or Names of any Person or Persons being inserted therein, as the Contributor or Contributors thereto, or Payer or Payers thereof, or of any Part or Parts thereof, or shall alter any Number, Figure, or Word therein, or utter or publish as true any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Receipt or Receipts, with Intent to defraud the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every such Person or Persons so forging or counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited, or willingly acting or assisting in the forging or counterfeiting, or altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall, at the Discretion of the Court, be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for Life or for any Term not less than Fourteen Years, or to be kept in Penal Servitude for Life or for any Term not less than Four Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Four Years nor less than Two Years. Persons counterfeiting Receipts for Contributions, &c. guilty of Felony.

XXIV. The said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, notwithstanding the Redemption of all or any of their own Funds, in pursuance of the Acts for establishing the same or any of them, shall continue a Corporation for the Purposes of this Act until the Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuities by this Act granted shall be redeemed by Parliament as aforesaid, and the Terminable Annuities by this Act granted shall cease; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Member thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by reason of their doing any Matter or Thing in pursuance of this Act. Bank to continue a Corporation till the Annuities hereby granted shall be redeemed or shall cease.

XXV. No Fee, Reward, or Gratuity whatsoever shall be demanded or taken of any of Her Majesty's Subjects for receiving or paying the said Subscription or Contribution Monies or any of them, or for any Receipt concerning the same, or for paying the said Annuities or any of them, or for any Transfer of any Sum, great or small, to be made in pursuance of this Act, upon pain that any Officer or Person offending by taking or demanding any such Fee, Reward, or Gratuity shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds to the Party aggrieved, with full Costs of Suit, to be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law at Westminster. No Fee to be taken for receiving Contributions or paying or transferring Annuities, on Penalty of 20*l*.

XXVI. If any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted for anything done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence, in his, her, or their Defence or Defences; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his, her, or their Action or Prosecution, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have full Costs awarded to him, her, or them, against any such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs. Persons sued may plead the General Issue.

CAP. XIX.

An Act to remove Doubts as to the Commissions of Officers of Militia in Ireland who have omitted to deliver unto the Clerk of the Peace Descriptions of their Qualifications, and to indemnify them against the Consequences of such Omission, and to amend the Law relating to the Militia in Ireland. [25th May 1855.]

49 G. 3. c. 120.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Forty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty, it was enacted, that no Person should thereafter be appointed to any Commission in 'the Militia of Ireland who should require a Qualification in respect of Property by virtue of the said 'Act until he should have delivered unto the Clerk of the Peace of the County or City for which he 'should be appointed, or, in the Absence of such Clerk of the Peace, to his Deputy, a specific Descrip-'tion in Writing signed by himself of his Qualification, stating the Particulars of such Qualification; 'and that no Commission to be granted by virtue of the said Act should be valid unless it was declared 'in such Commission that the Officer to whom such Commission was given had delivered in his Qualifi-'cation as directed: And whereas Persons have in many Instances been appointed to and have acted 'under Commissions in the Militia in Ireland requiring Qualifications in respect of Property, without 'having previously delivered the Particulars of their Qualifications, as required by the said Act: And 'whereas Doubts have been raised as to the Validity of such Commissions, and of the Acts done by the 'Persons thereby appointed:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Officers of Militia acting under certain Commissions indemnified, on depositing their Qualifications within Three Months.

I. Every Person who before the passing of this Act hath been appointed an Officer in the Militia of Ireland by any such Commission, and who was at the Time of the issuing of such Commission seised or possessed of the necessary Qualification, or who has since acquired and now is seised or possessed of the necessary Qualification, and has since the issuing of such Commission delivered or shall within Three Months after the passing of this Act deliver to such Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy of such County or City the specific Description of his Qualification which he possessed when such Commission was issued, or which he may now possess, shall be indemnified, freed, and discharged from and against all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred or to be incurred for or by reason of previous Neglect or Omission to deliver in such Qualification at the Time required by Law, or for or by reason of his having executed any of the Powers by the said Act directed to be exercised by Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, Majors, Captains, Lieutenants, or Ensigns without being qualified as required by the said recited Act, or without having delivered in such specific Description of his Qualification; and every such Person is and shall be deemed and adjudged to be and to have been duly qualified to hold such Commission according to the said Act of the Forty-ninth of George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty, or any Act now in force relating to such Qualification; and all Acts done or to be done by any such Person, or by Authority derived from him, under such Commission, are and shall be of the same Force and Validity as the same or any of them would have been if such specific Description of such Qualification in respect of Property had been duly delivered as directed by the said Act, and all the Provisions relating thereto had been complied with.

Proviso for Officers below the Rank of Captain commissioned when Property Qualification was required.

II. Provided always, That it shall not be necessary for any Officer now holding a Commission in any Regiment of Militia in Ireland under the Rank of Captain to deliver in such Qualification to the Clerk of the Peace, although his Commission may have been issued when the Law required him to be qualified in respect of Property; and notwithstanding any such Neglect as aforesaid on the Part of such Officer under the Rank of Captain to deliver in such Qualification at or previous to the Time of issuing such Commission, his Commission shall to all Intents and Purposes be and be deemed to have been as valid, and all Acts done thereunder of the same Force and Effect, and such Officer shall be freed from all Penalties and Forfeitures, as fully as if no such Neglect or Omission had happened.

Not to indemnify Persons against whom final Judgment has been obtained, &c.

III. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend to indemnify any Person against whom final Judgment shall have been given for any Penalty before the passing of this Act, or to exempt any Person holding a Commission of Captain or any higher Rank in the said Militia from the Penalties to which he shall or may be subject for acting as such Captain or Officer of higher Rank in the said Militia, without being possessed of the Property Qualification required by Law.

Lieutenants of Counties and Colonels to send with the Certificates of Appointments of Officers the Description of their Qualifications.

IV. Every Lieutenant of a County in Ireland or Colonel commanding a Battalion of Militia in Ireland, as the Case may be, who after the passing of this Act appoints any Person to be an Officer of the Militia of any Rank whereunto a Qualification in respect of Property is now required, shall, before transmitting the Name of such Officer to the Lord Lieutenant for Approval, require from the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy a Certificate that the necessary Description in Writing of Qualification has been lodged with him by such Officer, and when he transmits for Approval to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being the Name and Rank of the Officer so to be appointed shall state to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being that he has received from the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy such Certificate.

V. In

V. In case any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding shall be instituted to recover any Penalty imposed by the Nineteenth Section of the said recited Act, the Defendant in such Action, Suit, or other Proceeding shall be entitled, at any Time before pleading or filing his Defence, to require the Plaintiff to give Security for Costs, and to have the Proceedings stayed until such Security for Costs shall have been given. In Actions under 49 G. 3. c. 120. s. 19. Security for Costs to be given.

VI. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Forty-ninth of George the Third, Chapter One hundred 'and twenty, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, 'from Time to Time, as He or they shall think fit, to signify His or their Pleasure to the Colonel or other 'Commanding Officer of any such Regiment or Battalion of Militia to displace all or any Officers or 'Officer of Militia serving under him in such Regiment or Battalion: And whereas under the said Act 'the Colonels of Militia in Ireland were appointed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or 'Governors of Ireland, and the Power of Removal was vested in such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief 'Governor or Governors: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the First and Second Years 'of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventeen, the Power of appointing the Colonels of Militia was 'transferred from the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors to the Lieutenants of 'Counties, and the Power of appointing inferior Officers was transferred from the Colonels to such 'Lieutenants of Counties, subject to a Proviso, saving to Colonels of Militia acting under Commissions 'granted before the passing of the said Act of their Power to appoint Lieutenant Colonels and other 'Officers of their Regiments and Battalions; but no Provision was made as to the displacing of the 'Officers of the Militia corresponding with the Alteration in the Powers of appointing them:' It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, from Time to Time as they respectively may think fit, to signify Her, their, or his Pleasure to the Lieutenant of any County or Place to displace all or any of the Officers in the Militia of such County or Place, and thereupon such Officers shall be displaced, and others shall be appointed in their Stead. Her Majesty or Lord Lieutenant of Ireland may direct Lieutenants of Counties to displace Officers of Militia.

VII. The Thirty-second Section of the Militia (Ireland) Act, 1854, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and all Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is by the said Act imposed shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered in Ireland under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851." Recovery of Penalties. 17 & 18 Vict. c. 107. s. 32. repealed.

VIII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Forty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One 'hundred and twenty, it is provided that no such Appointment of an Adjutant of Militia to the Brevet 'Rank of Captain as therein mentioned shall be valid, unless in the Instrument granting the same it be 'specified in what Regiment or Battalion, and whether of the Militia or of Her Majesty's other Forces, 'such Adjutant hath served, and what was or were the Date or Dates of his Commission or Commis-'sions: And whereas it is expedient that Adjutants who have served as Non-commissioned Officers in 'Her Majesty's Regular Forces should be eligible to the Brevet Rank of Captain, although they may 'not have held any Commissions:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Adjutant of any Regiment or Corps of Militia in Ireland who shall have served as a Non-commissioned Officer in Her Majesty's Regular Forces, and whose whole Service shall amount to Five Years, to be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County to which such Regiment or Corps belongs (or by the Colonel thereof appointed previously to the Twenty-third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one), with the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to the Brevet Rank of Captain, notwithstanding that he may not have held any Commission other than his Commission as an Adjutant of Militia. Adjutants of Militia Regiments who have served as Non-commissioned Officers to be eligible to Brevet Rank of Captain.

CAP. XX.

An Act for granting to Her Majesty an increased Rate of Duty on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices. [25th May 1855.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great 'Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the Supplies to defray the Expenses 'of the just and necessary War in which Your Majesty is engaged, have freely and voluntarily resolved 'to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Rate and Duty herein-after mentioned;' and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same as follows:

I. From and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, there shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid yearly unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in addition to the Rates and Duties chargeable under the Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, Additional Rate of 2*d.* in the Pound on Income Tax to be charged from 5th April 1855.

Parliament, Chapter Twenty-four, for and in respect of all Property, Profits, and Gains chargeable under the several Acts in force relating to the Income Tax, either by Assessment or under any Contract of Composition or otherwise, the additional Rate and Duty of Twopence for every Twenty Shillings of the annual Value or Amount of all such Property, Profits, and Gains respectively.

All Relief, Abatement, and Deduction to be proportionate to the increased Rate of Duty granted by this Act.

II. Provided always, That where under the said several Acts in force any less Rate or Duty than One Shilling and Twopence for every Twenty Shillings of the annual Value or Amount of any Property, Profits, or Gains is now chargeable, or any Relief, or Abatement, or Deduction is directed to be given, made, or allowed after any Rate in such Act or Acts specified, then and in every such Case such Rate of Duty, Relief, Abatement, and Deduction to be charged, given, made, and allowed respectively under this Act and the several Acts aforesaid shall bear the same Proportion to One Shilling and Fourpence for every Twenty Shillings as the Rate of Duty, Relief, Abatement, and Reduction respectively, now chargeable or directed to be given, made, or allowed as aforesaid, in the like Cases respectively bears to One Shilling and Twopence for every Twenty Shillings: Provided nevertheless, that any Person entitled to Relief under the said Acts and this Act, on the Ground that his total Income, although amounting to One hundred Pounds or upwards, is less than One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year, shall be relieved from so much of the Duties assessed upon or paid by him under or by virtue of the said several Acts and this Act as shall exceed the Rate of Elevenpence Halfpenny for every Twenty Shillings of his Profits or Gains.

Duty to be assessed and raised under the Provisions of recited Acts.

III. The said Duty hereby granted shall be assessed, raised, levied, and collected under the Regulations and Provisions of the several Acts now in force relating to the Income Tax; and all Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in or enacted by the said several Acts, and in force with respect to the Duties granted by the said first-mentioned Act, shall (so far as the same are or may be applicable consistently with the express Provisions of this Act) respectively be duly observed, applied, and put in execution for assessing, raising, levying, collecting, receiving, accounting for, and securing the said Duty hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted, mutatis mutandis, in the Body of this Act, with reference to the said Rate and Duty hereby granted.

Continuance of Duties.

IV. The Duties by this Act and the said Act of the last Session of Parliament respectively granted shall continue in force during the present War and until the Sixth Day of April which shall first happen after the Expiration of One Year from the Ratification of a definitive Treaty of Peace, and no longer: Provided always, that if the Period limited by this Act for the Continuance of the said Duties shall expire before the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty, then, on and from and after the Expiration of the said Period, the several Rates and Duties granted by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Thirty-four, shall revive, and be payable during so much of the respective Terms limited by the said last-mentioned Act as shall be then unexpired.

Continuance of Act for Recovery of Arrears of Duty, &c.

V. Provided always, That the said Rates and Duties shall not cease at the Time herein-before appointed in that Behalf with respect to any Assessment which ought before then to have been made, but which shall not have been made and completed, nor with respect to any Duty which shall have been assessed and shall then remain unpaid, nor with respect to any Penalty before then incurred, nor with respect to any Deduction of the said Duty or any Portion thereof authorized by Law to be made out of any Rent, Interest, or other annual Payment, nor with respect to any Penalty for refusing to allow any such Deduction, although such Refusal may be after the Time appointed as aforesaid, nor with respect to the Assessment of the Interest on Exchequer Bills becoming due in the Month of June next after the Time appointed for the ceasing of the said Duty, but all the Powers and Provisions of this Act, and of the several Acts herein mentioned or referred to, shall continue in force for making and completing all such Assessments as aforesaid, and for levying and recovering the Duties so assessed or to be assessed, and all Arrears of such Duties, and also for re-assessing the same in default of Payment, and for making and allowing such Deduction as aforesaid, and for the suing for, adjudging, and recovering any Penalty which shall have been or may be incurred.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for granting certain additional Rates and Duties of Excise. [25th May 1855.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of 'Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the Supplies to defray the 'Expenses of the just and necessary War in which Your Majesty is engaged, have freely and volun-'tarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several additional Rates and Duties of Excise 'herein respectively mentioned;' and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of

of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Grant of Duties of Excise as in Schedule A.

I. There shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon the several Goods and Commodities mentioned and described in the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and additional Duties of Excise as they are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedule ; and there shall be made, allowed, and paid for or in respect of the Goods and Commodities mentioned and described in the Schedule marked (B.) hereunto annexed, the several Allowances and Drawbacks of Excise as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said last-mentioned Schedule ; and the said Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks respectively shall commence and take effect on the respective Days mentioned in the said Schedules respectively.

Allowance and Drawbacks as in Schedule (B.)

Drawback on Spirit Mixtures to cease, except as to Made Wines.

II. Provided always, That no Drawback of Excise shall be allowed or paid for or upon any of the Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, or Commodities described in the Schedule (B.) annexed to the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Twenty-seven, which on or after the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five shall be removed from England or Scotland to Ireland, except upon Made Wines ; and that for and upon every Gallon of all Made Wines which shall be so removed as aforesaid, there shall be allowed and paid the countervailing Drawback of Twopence Three Farthings, and no more.

Duties, &c. to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be collected and paid under the Provisions of Acts relating to Excise.

III. The said several Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise by this Act granted and imposed and allowed respectively shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, applied, and allowed respectively, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, by which other Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise upon or in respect of Goods or Commodities of the same Sorts or Kinds respectively, are or may be respectively charged, raised, levied, collected, recovered, allowed, paid, and applied ; and all Acts relating to the Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise respectively, and all Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties for any Offence against or in breach of any Act or Acts for securing the Duties of Excise or any of them, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Provisions, Powers, and Directions contained in such Acts, shall and are hereby directed and declared (except as altered by this Act) to extend to and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in execution for and in respect of the said Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks hereby granted, imposed, and allowed respectively, in as full and ample a Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, and Directions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks hereby respectively granted, imposed, and allowed as aforesaid.

Where Contracts have been made before the additional Duties to be added to the Price of the Articles contracted for.

IV. ' And whereas Contracts or Agreements may have been made for the Sale or Delivery of some ' of the Goods or Commodities on which increased or additional Duties of Excise are by this Act granted ' and imposed, which Contracts or Agreements may have been made with no reference to such additional ' Duties, and thereby the several Contractors may be materially affected :' For Remedy thereof, be it enacted, That every Person who shall have made or entered into any such Contract or Agreement shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered in the Case of any such Contract or Agreement to add so much Money as will be equivalent to the increased or additional Duty hereby granted on any such Goods or Commodities respectively to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid and to sue for and recover the same accordingly.

British Duty to be paid on Spirits from Duty-free Warehouse in Ireland.

V. Upon the Delivery of any Spirits from a Duty-free Warehouse in Ireland for Consumption in England or Scotland, the full Amount of the Duty chargeable on Spirits distilled in England or Scotland for Consumption there shall be paid on such Spirits in Ireland previously to the Removal thereof from such Warehouse, anything in the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Spirits may be sent out or warehoused at Proof Strength or within Six Tenths thereof.

VI. Notwithstanding anything contained in any former Act to the contrary, it shall be lawful to send out or remove from any Distillery, either for Consumption or into any Warehouse, Spirits of the Degree of Strength denominated Proof Strength, or within Six Tenths of One per Centum over or under such Strength, as well as of the respective Strengths specified and allowed by any former Act, but under and subject, nevertheless, to all such Rules and Regulations as are contained in any former Act with respect to Spirits of any other specified Strength.

Distillers in England and Ireland to be entitled to Allowance on Spirits distilled from Malt for Home Consumption as well as for Exportation.

VII. Every licensed Distiller in England and Ireland respectively shall be entitled to the Allowance by this Act granted in respect of Spirits distilled from Malt only, whether for Consumption in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or for Exportation or Use as Ships Stores ; and all Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act mentioned or referred to in the Thirteenth Section of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and twenty-two, or contained in any other Act or Acts in force in relation to the making or Use of Malt for the Distillation of Spirits from Malt only, or in relation to the Distillation of such Spirits in Scotland, or the warehousing or Removal thereof, either for Exportation or for Use as Ships Stores, or for Home Consumption, or in relation to the granting or Payment of the said Allowance in respect of Spirits distilled in Scotland, or for the preventing of Frauds in in claiming the same, shall be observed, applied, and enforced with respect to the making and Use of Malt for Distillation, and the distilling of Spirits from Malt only in England and Ireland respectively, and the said Allowance granted thereon, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been repeated and re-enacted, mutatis mutandis, in this Act, with reference to the said Allowance by this Act granted.

Repeal of certain Provisions of Acts requiring Repayment of Malt Allowance on Spirits for Consumption in England or Ireland, &c.

VIII. So much and such Part or Parts of the several Acts in force as is and are herein-after in this Clause mentioned or referred to shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed; (that is to say,)

So much of any Act as enacts or requires that upon the Removal to England or Ireland for Consumption there of Spirits distilled in Scotland from Malt only, or that on the Delivery for Consumption in England or Ireland of Spirits from Malt only, One Half or any other Portion of the Allowance granted thereon in respect of the Malt used in the Distillation thereof shall be repaid, and so much of any Act as prohibits or restrains the Removal otherwise than by Sea from England to Scotland, or from Scotland to England, of any British Spirits, whether compounded, medicated, or otherwise, or any Spirit Mixtures or Preparations, or any Made Wines:

And the same shall be deemed to have been repealed on and from and after the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Distillers may remove Duty-paid Spirits between England and Scotland.

IX. From and immediately after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for Distillers in England and Scotland respectively to remove from their respective Stores Spirits on which the full Duties of Excise chargeable by Law shall have been paid from England to Scotland, or from Scotland to England, in like Manner as such Spirits may now be removed, and under and subject to the like Rules and Regulations as the same are now subject and liable to on the Removal thereof to and from and between Places both of which are situated in one and the same Part of Great Britain.

Duty-paid Spirits may be removed from the Stocks of Rectifiers and Dealers between England and Scotland.

X. And on and from and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five Spirits on which the full Duties of Excise chargeable by Law shall have been paid may lawfully be removed from the respective Stocks of Rectifiers, Compounders, Dealers, and Retailers of Spirits, in England and Scotland respectively, to and from and between the said respective Parts of Great Britain, in like Manner as such Spirits may now be removed, and under and subject to the like Rules and Regulations as the same are now subject and liable to on the Removal thereof from any such last-mentioned Stocks to and from and between Places both of which are situated in one and the same Part of Great Britain.

Allowance on the Cistern or Couch Gauges of Malt-making for distilling Purposes to be 17 per Cent.

XI. In respect of all Corn or Grain in process of making into Malt, to be used in the Distillation of Spirits made from Malt only, the Allowance to be made upon the Gauges of such Corn or Grain during the Time that the same shall be in the Cistern or in the Couch Frame, whilst directed by Law to be deemed and gauged as in Couch, shall be after the Rate of Seventeen Bushels only for every One hundred Bushels of the whole Quantity of the Corn or Grain so found by such Gauge, anything in the Ninth Section of the Act passed in the First Year of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Forty-nine, notwithstanding.

Commissioners may revoke the Licence of a Maltster for Distillery Purposes, or a Distiller from Malt, on a Second Conviction.

XII. If any Maltster or Maker of Malt to be used in distilling Spirits from Malt only, or if any Distiller having given Notice of his Intention to distil Spirits from Malt only, shall at any Time hereafter be convicted of any of the several Offences specified in the Seventy-third Section of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-two, or in the Ninety-second Section of the Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Fourth, Chapter Ninety-four, or in the Ninth Section of the Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-nine, and if such Maltster or Distiller shall afterwards be again convicted either of the same Offence or any other of the several Offences aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and they are hereby empowered, to revoke and annul the Licence granted to such Maltster or Distiller, and to refuse to grant to him any further Licence as a Maltster or Distiller, and also to refuse to grant any such Licence to any other Person to exercise such Trade or Business at the same Premises where the Offence was committed in respect of which such Second Conviction as aforesaid was made.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to alter in certain respects the Law of Intestate Moveable Succession in Scotland.

[25th May 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

The Issue of a predeceasing Next of Kin shall come in the Place of their Parent in the Succession to an Intestate.

I. In all Cases of Intestate Moveable Succession in Scotland accruing after the passing of this Act, where any Person who, had he survived the Intestate, would have been among his Next of Kin, shall have predeceased such Intestate, the lawful Child or Children of such Person so predeceasing shall come in the Place of such Person, and the Issue of any such Child or Children, or of any Descendant of such Child or Children, who may in like Manner have predeceased the Intestate, shall come in the Place of his or their Parent predeceasing, and shall respectively have Right to the Share of the Moveable Estate of the Intestate to which the Parent of such Child or Children or of such Issue, if he had survived the Intestate, would have been entitled: Provided always, that no Representation shall be admitted among Collaterals after Brothers and Sisters Descendants, and that the surviving Next of Kin of the Intestate claiming the Office of Executor shall have exclusive Right thereto, in preference to the Children or other Descendants of any predeceasing Next of Kin, but that such Children or Descendants shall be entitled to Confirmation when no Next of Kin shall compete for said Office.

Issue of predeceasing Heir succeeding to the Intestate's Heritage may collate, but other Issue not excluded by his not collating, &c.

II. Where the Person predeceasing would have been the Heir in Heritage of an Intestate leaving Heritable as well as Moveable Estate had he survived such Intestate, his Child, being the Heir in Heritage of such Intestate, shall be entitled to collate the Heritage to the Effect of claiming for himself alone, if there be no other Issue of the Predeceaser, or for himself and the other Issue of the Predeceaser, if there be such other Issue, the Share of the Moveable Estate of the Intestate which might have been claimed by the Predeceaser upon Collation if he had survived the Intestate; and Daughters of the Predeceaser, being Heirs Portioners of the Intestate, shall be entitled to collate to the like Effect; and where, in the Case aforesaid, the Heir shall not collate, his Brothers and Sisters, and their Descendants in their Place, shall have Right to a Share of the Moveable Estate equal in Amount to the Excess in Value over the Value of the Heritage of such Share of the whole Estate, Heritable and Moveable, as their predeceasing Parent had he survived the Intestate would have taken on Collation.

Extent of Father's Succession.

III. Where any Person dying intestate shall predecease his Father without leaving Issue, his Father shall have Right to One Half of his Moveable Estate, in preference to any Brothers or Sisters or their Descendants who may have survived such Intestate.

Extent of Mother's Succession.

IV. Where an Intestate dying without leaving Issue whose Father has predeceased him shall be survived by his Mother, she shall have Right to One Third of his Moveable Estate, in preference to his Brothers and Sisters or their Descendants, or other Next of Kin of such Intestate.

Succession by Brothers and Sisters uterine.

V. Where an Intestate dying without leaving Issue, whose Father and Mother have both predeceased him, shall not leave any Brother or Sister german or consanguinean, nor any Descendant of a Brother or Sister german or consanguinean, but shall leave Brothers and Sisters uterine, or a Brother or Sister uterine, uterine, or any Descendant of a Brother or Sister uterine, such Brothers and Sisters uterine and such Descendants in place of their predeceasing Parent shall have Right to One Half of his Moveable Estate.

Representatives of Wife to have no Claim, &c.

VI. Where a Wife shall predecease her Husband, the Next of Kin, Executors, or other Representatives of such Wife, whether testate or intestate, shall have no Right to any Share of the Goods in Communion, nor shall any Legacy or Bequest or Testamentary Disposition thereof by such Wife affect or attach to the said Goods or any Portion thereof.

Dissolution of Marriage not to affect Rights, &c.

VII. Where a Marriage shall be dissolved before the Lapse of a Year and Day from its Date, by the Death of One of the Spouses, the whole Rights of the Survivor and of the Representatives of the Predeceaser shall be the same as if the Marriage had subsisted for the Period aforesaid.

Part of Act of Scotch Parliament, 1617, c. 14. repealed.

VIII. So much of an Act of the Parliament of Scotland passed in the Year One thousand six hundred and seventeen, and intituled Anent Executors, as allows Executors nominate to retain to their own Use a Third of the Dead's Part in accounting for the Moveable Estate of the Deceased, is hereby repealed, and Executors nominate shall, as such, have no Right to any Part of the said Estate.

Interpretation of Terms.

IX. The Words "Intestate Succession" shall mean and include Succession in Cases of partial as well as of total Intestacy; "Intestate" shall mean and include every Person deceased who has left undisposed of by Will the whole or any Portion of the Moveable Estate on which he might, if not subject to Incapacity, have tested; "Moveable Estate" shall mean and include the whole free Moveable Estate on which the Deceased, if not subject to Incapacity, might have tested, undisposed of by Will, and any Portion thereof so undisposed of.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act to amend an Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, for amending the Representation of the People in Scotland, in so far as relates to the Procedure in County Elections in that Country. [25th May 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Time between the Receipt of the Writ by the Sheriff and the Day of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Counties in Scotland should be shortened:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Sheriff to endorse Day on which he received Writ and announce Time for Election. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 65.

I. Each Sheriff to whom any Writ for the Election of a Member to serve for any County or combined Counties in Scotland (except Orkney and Shetland) shall be directed, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Representation of the People in Scotland, shall endorse on the Writ the Day on which he received it, and shall within Two Days thereafter announce a Day for the Election, which Day shall be not less than Six nor more than Twelve Days in Counties or combined Counties after the Day on which the Writ was received, and shall give due Intimation thereof as is provided in the said Act.

Proviso as to Orkney and Shetland.

II. In the Case of Orkney and Shetland the Provisions of the said Act, in so far as they relate to the fixing and Announcement of the Day of Election, and the Interval to elapse between the Receipt of the Writ and the Day of Election, shall remain in full Force and Effect, anything in this Act contained notwithstanding.

Provisions of recited Act so far as inconsistent with this Act repealed.

III. In all Cases in which the Provisions of the said Act shall be inconsistent with this Act, and in as far as shall be necessary to give Effect to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, but no further, the said Act shall be and the same is to such Extent hereby repealed; and the said Act shall in all other respects remain in full Force and Effect, and be as good and effectual to carry this Act into execution, as if the same were herein repeated and re-enacted.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to allow Affirmations or Declarations to be made instead of Oaths in certain Cases in Scotland. [25th May 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Affirmation instead of Oath to be allowed in certain Cases.

I. If any Person called as a Witness in any Court of Civil Judicature in Scotland, or required or desiring to make an Affidavit or Deposition, shall refuse or be unwilling from alleged conscientious Motives to be sworn, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge or other presiding Officer or Person qualified to take Affidavits or Depositions, on being satisfied of the Sincerity of such Objection, to permit such Person instead of being sworn to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Words following, videlicet,

'I A.B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare that the taking of any Oath is, according to my Religious Belief, unlawful; and I do solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare,' &c.

Which

Which solemn Affirmation and Declaration shall be of the same Force and Effect as if such Person had taken an Oath in the usual Form, and shall in like Manner infer the Pains of Perjury in case of Falsehood.

Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct Provisions of this Act to be applied to all Courts in Scotland.

II. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any Part of the Provisions of this Act shall apply to all or any Court or Courts in Scotland; and such Order shall be notified by the Secretary of State to the Clerk or other Officer of the Court or Courts therein named respectively, and shall be published in the Edinburgh Gazette; and within One Month after such Order shall have been so notified and published, such Provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order; and any such Order may be in like Manner from Time to Time altered and annulled.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to continue an Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, for enabling the Judges of the Courts of Common Law at Westminster to alter the Forms of Pleading. [25th May 1855.]

13 & 14 Vict. c. 16.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty Queen 'Victoria, intituled An Act to enable the Judges of the Courts of Common Law at Westminster to 'alter the Forms of Pleading, Powers were given to the Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law 'at Westminster, within Five Years from the passing of that Act, to make such Alterations in the Mode 'of Pleading in the said Courts, and in the Mode of entering and transcribing Pleadings, Judgments, 'and other Proceedings in Actions at Law, and in the Time and Manner of objecting to Errors in 'Pleadings and other Proceedings, and in the Mode of verifying Pleas and obtaining final Judgment, 'without Trial in certain Cases, and such Regulations as to the Payment of Costs, and otherwise for 'carrying into effect the said Alterations, as to them may seem expedient: And whereas the said 'Powers so by the said Act conferred are about to expire, and it is desirable that the same should be 'further prolonged:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Powers conferred by the said herein-before recited Act on the Judges of the said Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster shall be continued for a Period of Five Years from the passing of this Act, subject always to the Provisions and Conditions in the said recited Act contained as to any Rules, Orders, and Regulations which may be made by the said Judges under and by virtue of the said Powers.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties on Newspapers, and to provide for the Transmission by Post of printed periodical Publications. [15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties on Newspapers, and 'to provide for the Transmission by Post of printed periodical Publications:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Not to be compulsory to print Newspapers on Stamps.

I. From and after Fourteen Days after the passing of this Act it shall not be compulsory (except for the Purpose of free Transmission by the Post) to print any Newspaper on Paper stamped for denoting the Duties imposed by Law on Newspapers, and no Person shall be subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for printing, publishing, selling, or having in his Possession any unstamped Newspaper.

Periodical Publications printed on Stamps to be transmitted by Post free of Postage.

II. Every periodical Publication herein-after mentioned which shall be printed within the United Kingdom on Paper stamped for denoting the Rate of Duty now imposed by Law on Newspapers shall be entitled to the like Privileges of Transmission and Re-transmission by the Post between Places in the United Kingdom, either Postage-free or otherwise, on the same Terms and Conditions and under and subject to the like Rules and Regulations as Newspapers duly stamped are now entitled and subject to under any Act or Acts in force, but under and subject nevertheless to the Terms and Conditions in this Act contained.

Periodical Publications entitled to free Transmission by Post to be printed under certain Limitations and Conditions specified.

III. Every periodical Publication to be entitled to any such Privilege as aforesaid shall be printed and published at Intervals not exceeding Thirty-one Days between any Two consecutive Parts or Numbers of such Publication, and shall be subject to the same Limitations and Restrictions with respect to the Number of Sheets or Pieces of Paper whereon the same shall be printed, and with respect to the Superficies or Dimensions of the Letter-press thereof, as by any Act or Acts now in force are enacted or imposed with respect to Newspapers and Supplements thereto; and every such periodical Publication shall be entitled to such Privilege only on the Terms and Conditions following; (that is to say,) One of the Sheets or Pieces of Paper on which the same shall be printed shall be stamped with an appropriated Die, denoting the Stamp Duty imposed by Law on a Newspaper printed on the like Number of Sheets or Pieces of Paper and of the like Dimensions with respect to the Superficies of the Letter-press thereof; and on the Top of every Page of such Publication there shall be printed the Title thereof, and the Date of publishing the same; and such periodical Publication at the Time when the same shall be posted shall be folded in such Manner that the whole of the Stamp denoting the said Duty shall be exposed to view, and be distinctly visible on the Outside thereof; also such periodical Publication shall not be printed on Pasteboard or Cardboard, or on Two or more Pieces or Thicknesses of Paper pasted together, nor shall any Pasteboard, Cardboard, or such pasted Paper be transmitted by Post with any such periodical Publication either as a Back or Cover thereto, or otherwise.

or

Paper to be stamped for such periodical Publications at the Request of the Proprietor or Printer.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Printer of any such periodical Publication to send to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or to such Officer as they shall appoint or direct in that Behalf, any Quantity of Paper to be stamped with an appropriated Die, to be provided in the Manner directed by the Third Section of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, for denoting the Rate of Stamp Duty chargeable on Newspapers; and upon Payment to the proper Officer of the full Amount of the Stamps required to be impressed on such Paper, the said Commissioners or their proper Officer shall cause the same to be stamped accordingly: Provided always, that there shall be allowed in Ireland, in respect of such appropriated Stamps as aforesaid for any periodical Publication which shall be printed and published only in Ireland, the same Rate of Discount as by the said last-mentioned Act is directed to be allowed on the Purchase of Stamps for the printing of Newspapers in Ireland.

Discount to be allowed on Stamps in Ireland.

Periodicals to be posted within 15 Days after being published.

V. Every periodical Publication, posted in the United Kingdom, to be entitled to the Privilege of Transmission by the Post between Places in the United Kingdom, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be put into a Post Office within Fifteen Days next after the Day on which the same shall be published; the Day of Publication to be determined by the Date of such Publication.

Questions as to periodical Publications, how determined.

VI. In all Cases in which a Question shall arise whether a printed Paper is entitled to the Privilege of a periodical Publication, so far as respects the Transmission thereof by the Post under the Provisions of this Act, the Question shall be referred to the Determination of the Postmaster General, whose Decision, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall be final.

Newspapers may be registered at the General Post Office to entitle the same to the Privilege of Transmission abroad under Treaties with Foreign Powers.

VII. 'And whereas certain Treaties and Arrangements have been made and entered into, and other 'Treaties and Arrangements may hereafter be entered into, by and between Her Majesty's Government 'and certain Foreign and Colonial Governments, for regulating the Transmission of British Newspapers 'abroad; and it is expedient to make Provision for enabling Her Majesty's Postmaster General to secure 'for such Newspapers respectively the Privileges and Advantages of such Treaties and Arrangements:' Be it therefore enacted, That, upon the Postmaster General being satisfied that any printed Publication is a Newspaper, or entitled to the Privileges of a Newspaper, within the Meaning of such Treaties and Arrangements as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Printer of such Newspaper or Publication, if he shall think fit, to register the same at the General Post Office in London, in such Form and with such Particulars relating to the same, and subject to the Payment of such Fees, not exceeding Five Shillings respectively, as well on Registration as afterwards periodically for being continued on the Register, as the Postmaster General, with Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, shall from Time to Time direct or require in that Behalf; and thereupon such Newspaper or Publication, being printed on Paper duly stamped with an appropriated Die under the Provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to all the Privileges and Advantages secured to Newspapers by any such Treaties and Arrangements as aforesaid.

Transmission by Post of printed Papers to Foreign Countries.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their Hands, to allow any printed Newspaper (British, Colonial, or Foreign) to be transmitted by the Post between Places in the United Kingdom and Her Majesty's Colonies or Foreign Countries, or between any Ports or Places beyond the Sea (whether through the United Kingdom or not), either free of Postage or subject to such Rates of Postage not exceeding Twopence for each Newspaper, irrespective of any Foreign or Colonial Postage, as the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Postmaster General with their Consent, shall from Time to Time think fit; and as a Condition to any British Newspaper being transmitted by the Post to any Place out of the United Kingdom, the same shall be printed on Paper duly stamped with an appropriated Die under the Provisions of this Act, and the said last-mentioned Commissioners or the Postmaster General may require such Newspaper to be registered at the General Post Office in London in such Form and with such Particulars and subject to the Payment of such Fees as in the last preceding Section mentioned.

Power to the Postmaster General, with Consent of Treasury, to make Regulations for carrying the Act into effect.

IX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Postmaster General, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any Time or Times hereafter to make and issue such Orders, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions as he shall deem to be necessary or expedient for the Purpose of regulating the Receipt, Transmission, and Delivery by Post of periodical Publications under the Provisions of this Act, or for preventing or detecting Frauds or Abuses in relation thereto, and for giving Effect to the Purposes of this Act; and it shall also be lawful for the said Postmaster General, with the like Consent, from Time to Time to rescind or revoke all or any such Orders, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to make and issue any new ones in lieu thereof.

X. All

X. All periodical Publications sent by Post otherwise than in conformity with the Terms, Conditions, and Regulations established by or under the Authority of this Act may be detained by the Postmaster General, and any Officer of the Post Office; and after being opened, the same shall be either returned to the Senders thereof or forwarded to the Place of their Destination charged with the like Rates of Postage as if the same were Letters transmitted by the Post: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their Hands, to authorize Her Majesty's Postmaster General to charge in any such Case any such less Rate of Postage as to him shall seem fit. Periodical Publications sent by Post not in conformity with this Act to be charged Letter Rates of Postage.

XI. Any printed Copy of the London Gazette in which any Warrant or Order issued or made under or by virtue of this Act, or purporting so to be, shall be published, shall be admitted as Evidence by all Courts, Judges, Justices, and others, of such Warrant or Order, and of the due making and issuing thereof, and of the Contents thereof, without any further or other Proof of such Warrant or Order, or of the Matters therein contained. London Gazette to be Evidence of the issuing of Warrants or Orders.

XII. The Term "periodical Publication" used in this Act shall be construed to mean and include a Newspaper as defined by the Acts in force relating to the Stamp Duties on Newspapers, and every printed literary Work or Paper, printed and published periodically, or in Parts or Numbers, at Intervals not exceeding Thirty-one Days between any Two consecutive Papers, Parts, or Numbers of such literary Work or Paper; and for all the Purposes of this Act the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and the Isle of Man shall respectively be deemed to be Part of the United Kingdom. Interpretation of Terms.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to provide that the Property or Income Tax payable in respect of the Income from Ecclesiastical Property in Ireland shall be a Deduction in estimating the Value of such Property for the Purpose of Taxation by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. [15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter and amend the Laws relating to the Temporalities of the Church in Ireland, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners therein directed to be appointed were authorized and empowered to make a Valuation of all Ecclesiastical Property, subject to the Deductions therein set forth, and to take, levy, and receive therefrom a yearly Tax, Rate, or Assessment, computed and imposed upon such Valuation according to a Scale, and for the Purposes recited in the said Act: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices, and by Two other Acts passed in the Seventeenth Year of Her present Majesty's Reign, Chapter Ten and Chapter Twenty-four, for granting to Her Majesty additional and increased Duties on such Profits, Ecclesiastical Property, together with other Property in Ireland theretofore exempt, was rendered liable to the Duties therein enacted: And whereas it is expedient and just that the Amount payable as Property or Income Tax under the said Acts should be allowed as a Deduction by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, together with the Deductions authorized to be made under the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-seven, in forming their Valuations for the Tax, Rate, or Assessment therein directed to be levied:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in and from the Valuation made or to be made of any Ecclesiastical Property for the Purpose of imposing the Rate, Tax, or Assessment required by the said Act, in addition to the Charges specified as Deductions in the said Act, to deduct also such Amount or Sum as the said Commissioners shall ascertain as proper to be deducted from such Valuation for or on account of any Property or Income Tax paid or payable or deducted in respect of such Ecclesiastical Property.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 37.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 34.

17 & 18 Vict. cc. 10. 24.

Property or Income Tax to be a Deduction in estimating the Value of Ecclesiastical Property in Ireland for the Purpose of Taxation by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act to make further Provision for the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Scotland. [15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act passed in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the better Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Scotland:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

17 & 18 Vict. c. 80.

I. It shall be lawful for the Sheriff if he shall think it expedient, upon a joint Application of the Parochial Board of any Parish and of the Town Council of any Burgh situated within such Parish, or upon the Application of the Registrar General, to unite such Burgh or any Portion thereof to any Landward Portion of such Parish, and also to regulate any Questions which may arise as to the Assessment to Landward and Burghal Parts of Parishes may be united.

to be levied upon such Burghs or Portions of Burghs, and upon such Landward Portions of such Parishes respectively.

Registrar General may apply for Dismissal of incompetent Registrars.

II. If any Parochial Board shall neglect or refuse to apply, under the Authority of the Fifteenth Section of the recited Act, to the Sheriff for the Removal of any incompetent Registrar, after being thereto required by the Registrar General, it shall be lawful for the Registrar General himself to apply to the Sheriff, and such and the like Procedure in all respects shall in such Case be had and take place as if the Application had been made by the Parochial Board.

Examination of Registers by Sheriff repealed, and Examiners appointed.

III. So much of the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Sections of the recited Act as requires the Examination of the Registers and the Authentication thereof by the Sheriff shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and no Penalty or Breach of Duty or other Consequence shall be deemed to be incurred or to arise from the Non-authentication heretofore of any of the said Registers or Duplicate Registers which shall have been sanctioned or acquiesced in by the Registrar General or the Sheriff, anything in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for the Registrar General, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, from Time to Time to divide Scotland into such Districts as he may think fit, and with such Approbation to appoint for each District a fit and competent Person to be the Examiner thereof, who shall be paid such annual Allowance as shall be fixed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, in such and the like Manner as the Expenses specified in the Fifth Section of the said Act are directed to be paid; and it shall be the Duty of such Examiners, at such Time or Times as shall be fixed by the Registrar General, to proceed to their respective Districts, and there, in such Manner as shall be prescribed by the Registrar General, carefully to examine and compare, along with the several Registrars within their respective Districts, the Registers and Duplicate Registers of such several Registrars, and authenticate and docquet the same, and all Alterations and Additions thereon or thereto, in such Form and Manner as the Registrar General shall direct; and it shall be lawful for the Registrar General, with the Approbation of the Secretary of State for the Home Department, to frame all such Rules and Regulations as shall be necessary and expedient for such Purposes in the Manner, as far as may be, directed by the Fifty-third Section of the said Act or otherwise; and it shall in like Manner be the Duty of such Examiners respectively to aid, under the Direction of the Sheriff within their respective Districts, in executing and carrying into effect the Purposes of the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Fifty-third, and Fifty-fourth Sections of the said Act.

Where Registration District consists of Two Parishes.

IV. Where a Registration District, consisting of Portions of Two or more Parishes, has been erected by the Sheriff under the Provisions of the said recited Act, the Powers thereby and by this Act conferred on Parochial Boards, and the Duties imposed upon such Boards, shall respectively belong to and be discharged by the qualified Heritors of such Registration District, and all Meetings of such Heritors shall be called by the Registrar, or, in case of Vacancy in the Office of Registrar, by the Heritor of Lands of the highest Valuation therein; and at such Meetings the Heritor of the highest Valuation present shall preside, and shall be entitled to a casting as well as to a deliberative Vote, and Assessments under the said recited Act shall be laid on according to the Manner thereby prescribed for the Case of Parishes in which there is no Assessment for the Poor.

Decrees of Court fixing Status of Parties to be noted in Register.

V. In every Case in which the Status of any Person shall be altered by a Decree of any competent Court, the Clerk to the Process shall forthwith report such Decree to the Registrar General; and it shall be lawful for the Registrar General, and he is hereby required, to take all Measures necessary for having the Entries in the Duplicate Registers affected by such Decree rectified, by causing the Date of the Decree and the Import thereof to be noted upon the Margin of both Duplicates opposite to such Entries, as the Registrar General shall think fit and direct.

Register of corrected Entries to be kept in Duplicate.

VI. In reference to the Sixty-third Section of the recited Act, the Register of corrected Entries shall be kept in Duplicate; and One of the Duplicates shall be annually transmitted to the Registrar General along with the Duplicate Registers directed by the Fifty-third Section of the said Act to be annually so transmitted.

Penalties recovered to be paid into Exchequer.

VII. The Penalties imposed by the said Act, and by the Sixty-fifth Section thereof directed to be recovered by Prosecution by the Procurator Fiscal, and when recovered to go to the Registrar General, shall instead be paid to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and the Expense of all such Prosecutions, where not recovered from the Parties, shall be charged and paid in Exchequer, and the Recovery of such Penalties shall be a Part of the ordinary Duties of the Procurator Fiscal.

Sheriff Clerks to act in execution of Acts.

VIII. It shall in all Cases be lawful for the Sheriff Clerks in the several Counties, and they are hereby required, to act in aid of the Sheriff in the Execution of the Powers, Provisions, and Duties of the recited Act and of this Act, in all respects as the Sheriffs may direct.

Appointments to be exempt from Stamp Duty.

IX. The Appointments of the Examiners, and the other Clerks and Officers to be appointed under this Act, shall, in like Manner as the Appointments mentioned in the Sixteenth Section of the recited Act, be exempt from all Stamp Duties.

Act to be construed with recited Act.

X. This Act shall be deemed a Part of the recited Act, and shall be construed therewith as if the said Acts formed One Act.

CAP. XXX.

An Act to empower the Commissioners of Sewers to expend on House Drainage a certain Sum out of the Monies borrowed by them on the Security of the Rates, and also to give to the said Commissioners certain other Powers for the same Purpose. [15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is of urgent Importance to the Health of the Metropolis that Powers of House Cleansing, Drainage, and Improvement should be forthwith actively exercised by the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, for the Purpose of executing in Houses which may appear exposed to the Ravages of Zymotic Diseases such palliative and preventive Works, either temporary or permanent, as the Time admits of, to obviate the Outbreak and Spread of such Epidemic Disorders:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Commissioners may carry on Works, at Expense of Owners, &c.

I. That the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers be and they are hereby empowered to carry on forthwith such Works as aforesaid, and they are hereby authorized to employ on such Works a Sum not exceeding Twenty-five thousand Pounds out of the Monies in their Hands borrowed on the Security of the Rates, charging the Cost of such Works in each Case upon the Owner or Occupier, as herein-after provided.

Commissioners may simultaneously execute Works of Improvement common to several Messuages, and divide the Expense among the Owners or Occupiers.

II. To facilitate the Execution of such Works in Cases where it shall appear to the Commissioners, on the Presentment of One of their Engineers, that it is requisite or proper to execute such Works or any of them in several Messuages, Tenements, or Premises situate in the same Road, Street, or Place, or in contiguous or neighbouring Streets, Roads, or Places, as combined Works, or Works of Improvement common to several Messuages, Tenements, or Premises, and for that Purpose to construct, perform, or execute any Sewers, Drains, Waterclosets, Apparatus, or other Works of Improvement, whether temporary or permanent, simultaneously or in combination or conjunction, and that such Works can be executed for such a Sum as the Commissioners shall deem reasonable and proper in that Behalf, it shall be lawful in all such Cases for the Commissioners to give Notice to the Owners or Occupiers of such Messuages, Tenements, and Premises of their Intention to execute such Works, and to charge them or some of them with the Expenses thereof; and the Commissioners shall appoint a Time and Place for receiving Objections in Writing, which any Party interested in such Messuages, Tenements, or Premises, or any of them, may desire to offer, and at the appointed Time and Place the Commissioners shall receive and consider such Objections, if any, and may execute, abandon, or alter such intended Works, and if they shall execute such Works shall ascertain the Expenses incurred thereby, and shall divide such Expenses among the Owners or Occupiers of such Premises respectively, in such Proportions as they may deem equitable and reasonable; and the Amount imposed upon any such Owner or Occupier shall be paid by an Improvement Rate upon such Premises, or as Charges for Default, as the Commissioners shall in that Behalf direct and decree.

This Act and 11 & 12 Vict. c. 112. to be construed as One.

III. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with "The Metropolitan Sewers Act, 1848," and shall be construed and taken as if this Act and "The Metropolitan Sewers Act, 1848," were One Act.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act to confirm the Incorporation of the Borough of Brighton. [15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS since the passing of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, a Charter of Incorporation has been granted to the Borough of Brighton in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, and of the Acts afterwards passed for amending the said Act: And whereas Doubts have arisen respecting the Validity of the said Charter, and the Right of the Mayor of the said Borough of Brighton to be the Returning Officer at the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Brighton; and it is expedient that such Doubts be removed:' Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76

Charter of Incorporation confirmed.

I. That the said Charter of Incorporation, and also the Grant of separate Courts of Sessions of the Peace, issued and granted to the said Borough, and all Acts and Proceedings done or had in pursuance thereof before the passing of this Act, shall be deemed good and lawful from the Time of the Grants, Acts, and Proceedings respectively.

The Mayor to be the Returning Officer.

II. The Mayor of Brighton shall be the Returning Officer for the Borough of Brighton at all Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Brighton: Provided, that in case the Mayor shall, at the Time when he shall be required to perform the Duties of such Returning Officer, be dead, absent, or otherwise incapable of acting, or in case there shall be no Mayor, the Town Council of Brighton shall forthwith elect One of the Aldermen to be the Returning Officer for the Borough in the Place of the Mayor being so dead, absent, or otherwise incapable of acting.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act to amend and extend the Jurisdiction of the Stannary Court. [15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is desirable to explain and amend the Acts heretofore passed for the Administration of Justice in the Stannaries, and to make the Jurisdiction and Process of the Court of the Vice-Warden more efficient, and to regulate Appeals from the Vice-Warden:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Process in case of Mines of mixed Minerals.

I. Where any Mine or Sett within the Stannaries shall be worked by the same Adventurers not only for metallic Minerals within the Jurisdiction of the Court, but also for non-metallic Minerals found in the same Mine or Sett, or intermixed with metallic Minerals, the entire Mine and Works and Products thereof shall be taken to be within the Cognizance of the Vice-Warden as if the same had wholly consisted of metallic Minerals, and the Process of the Court shall extend to and be exercised over the same, and all the Machinery and Materials thereon, as in the Case of Mines of metallic Minerals, and the Mineral called Plumbago or Black Lead is hereby declared to be a metallic Mineral.

Interpretation of Terms.

II. The Words "Mine" and "Mineral" and "Miner," when used in this Act, or in any Pleadings, Process, or Proceedings in the said Court, shall, unless otherwise explained or qualified, be respectively presumed and taken to mean a metallic Mine or Mineral within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and a Miner in some Mine, Work, or Adventure within the same Jurisdiction, and having Privilege to sue or be sued in the said Court; and the Words "County Court" shall in this Act mean any Court established under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, and also the Court held under the Provisions of "The London (City) Small Debts Extension Act, 1852."

As to Suits by Pursers, &c. for Contribution against non-resident Shareholders.

III. In Suits on the Equity Side of the Court of the Vice-Warden, prosecuted according to Custom by the Purser or other principal Agent of the Adventurers in a Mine in the Stannaries against an Adventurer or his personal Representatives for Contribution to Calls or to the Expenses of working such Mine or Adventure, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden, upon Special Application in that Behalf, to order that Service of Process on the Defendant in any Part of England or Wales to compel Appearance and Answer shall be sufficient Service, although he may not then be personally within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and upon Proof of such Service and the Default of the Defendant to appear and answer the Petition within the Time prefixed by the Summons, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to enter an Appearance for the Defendant, and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had in the Suit, and such Orders and Decree made, as if the Process had been duly served on the Defendant within the Jurisdiction of the Court; and if upon Sale of the Shares or Interest of the Defendant in the Mine or Adventure according to Custom the Proceeds of the Sale shall be insufficient to satisfy the Debt of the Defendant, Costs of Suit, and Expenses of Sale, it shall be lawful to levy the same or the Residue thereof in the Manner herein-after provided for enforcing Decrees and Orders on the Equity Side of the Court; and after Appearance so entered, all Notices, Orders, Summonses, Warrants, and other Process in the Suit shall be deemed to be well served if served on the Defendant wheresoever he shall then be in England or Wales.

Plaintiff may join several Adventurers in One Petition, &c.

IV. In all such Suits against Adventurers for Contribution, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to join several Adventurers in One Petition for Recovery of their several Contributions, and for the Court to make One Decree for Payment and One Order for Sale of Shares, and to enforce Payment by separate Process of Execution against each Defendant, if need be; and where the Defendants or any of them shall put in separate Answers, it shall be lawful for the Court to direct that all or any of the Matters in issue be heard and tried at the same Time; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge or affect the Right of the Plaintiff in such a Suit, as now exercised, to proceed against Adventurers residing or being out of the Jurisdiction of the Court upon a Service on the Mine itself, substituted by Order of the Vice-Warden for personal Service; but in such Case the Plaintiff shall not be entitled to any other or further Remedy for Recovery of the Arrears of Contribution in the Vice-Warden's Court from a Defendant so served than he had before the passing of this Act.

As to Suits by Creditors for Payment of Debts of Adventurers in a Mine.

V. In Suits on the Equity Side of the said Court by Creditors prosecuted according to Custom against the Purser or other principal Agent of the Adventurers, or against one or more of the Adventurers in a Mine in the Stannaries, to enforce Payment of their Demands by Sale of the Ores, Machinery, Materials, and Effects for the Time being belonging to the Adventurers, and being upon or about the Mine or fraudulently removed therefrom, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden, upon special Application in that Behalf, to order that Service of Process on the Defendant in any Part of England or Wales to compel Appearance and Answer shall be sufficient Service, although he may not then be personally within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and upon Proof of such Service and of the Default of the Defendant to appear and answer the Petition within the Time prefixed by the Court, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to enter an Appearance for the Defendant, and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had in the Suit, and such Decrees and Orders made, as if the Process had been duly served on the Defendant within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and any Adventurer shall, upon Application to the Vice-Warden or Registrar

Registrar, be let in to defend the Suit, either separately or jointly with the other Defendant, within Twenty Days after the filing of the Petition, or within such other Time as the Vice-Warden shall allow; and where several Creditors of the same Adventurers shall sue separately for Payment and Sale, the Vice-Warden shall have Power to consolidate the Suits in such Way as shall seem to him necessary or expedient for the convenient Trial of the Matters in issue in the said Causes and for the saving of Expense to the Suitors; and all further Notices, Orders, Summonses, Warrants, and other Process in the Cause or consolidated Causes shall be deemed to be well served if served on the Defendant in any Part of England or Wales; and if upon Sale of the Ores, Machinery, Materials, and Effects in any such Suit the Proceeds of the Sale shall be found insufficient to satisfy the Debts of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs and of the other Creditors who shall be admitted according to Custom to prove their Debts before the Registrar of the Court and the Costs of Suit and Expenses of Sale, it shall be lawful for the Registrar, at the Instance of the Plaintiff in the Suit or of any Creditor so admitted to Proof, and by Permission of the Vice-Warden on an Application by the Plaintiff or Creditor stating the Amount of Debts remaining unsatisfied and the Number of Adventurers, whether within or out of the Jurisdiction, so far as they can be ascertained by the Applicant, to proceed to apportion the Amount of Debts, Costs, and Expenses remaining unsatisfied rateably among all the Adventurers or Persons liable to contribute to the Payment of the said Debts, whether they be within the Jurisdiction or elsewhere, according to the Number of Shares or the Interest of each in the said Mine or Adventure; and it shall be competent for the Registrar to call for, and by Summons and Attachment within the Stannaries or Subpœna under the Seal of the Court to enforce, Production before him of the Cost Book or Books, Lists of Shareholders, Accounts, Bills, Resolutions of the Adventurers or Committees thereof, and all other Books, Papers, and Documents of the Adventurers relating to the Mine or the Management thereof, and by like Summons and Attachment or Subpœna to call before him and to examine the Purser, Managers, or other principal Agents of the Adventurers, whether the several Documents above-mentioned or the Persons so called before him be within the Stannaries or elsewhere in any Part of England or Wales, and to make a List of all the Persons so liable to contribute at the Time of filing the Petition or their personal Representatives, with the Amount apportioned upon each; and when the Registrar shall have made such List and Apportionment, a Copy of the List shall be sent to the Account House of the Mine, or the principal Office or Place of Business of the Adventurers, and Notice shall be served on each Person named in the List of the Sum charged upon him, and a reasonable Time, to be fixed by the Registrar according to the Circumstances of each Case, shall be allowed to him to dispute the Apportionment before the Registrar, who shall hear and determine all Objections thereto; and when the List shall have been finally settled by the Registrar, he shall report thereon generally to the Vice-Warden, and if the Report shall be confirmed upon Exception or otherwise there shall be a Decree for Payment in conformity with the said Report, and the several Sums so apportioned and charged upon each Contributory shall in and by the said Decree be made payable to the Registrar, who shall forthwith demand Payment thereof, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Plaintiff or Creditor, at whose Instance the Apportionment shall have been made and Decree obtained, after such Demand and a Refusal of Payment, to proceed to levy from each Contributory in the said List the Sum therein charged upon him in the Manner herein-after provided for enforcing Decrees and Orders on the Equity Side of the said Court, and for this Purpose the said Plaintiff or Creditor shall be deemed to be a Party entitled to the Benefit of the said Decree within the Intent and Meaning of the said Provision, and the Sums received or levied shall be forthwith paid over by him to the Registrar, who shall deduct therefrom and allow to the Party who shall have so received or levied the same his reasonable Costs and Expenses in and about the said Apportionment and obtaining the said Decree and levying the Monies so payable under it, and shall distribute the Residue rateably among the several Creditors in the Proportion of the Debts remaining due to them respectively: Provided always, that all Notices and Demands required by this Act to be served on or made upon Adventurers and other Persons named in the Registrar's List as Contributories shall be deemed to be sufficiently served if sent by Post prepaid, addressed to the Party at his last known Address; unless the Registrar shall order that the same shall be served in some other Way, in which Case Service shall not be sufficient unless it be in conformity with such Order.

As to Suits for Account between Adventurers.

VI. In Suits on the Equity Side of the said Court for an Account as between Adventurers in Mines in the Stannaries, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon special Application in that Behalf, to order that Service of Process in any part of England and Wales to compel Appearance and Answer shall be good Service on any Adventurers or their personal Representatives, or others who may be necessary Parties to such Suit, although they may not then be personally within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and upon Proof of such Service, and of the Default of any Person so served to appear and answer the Petition within the Time prefixed by the Summons, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to enter Appearances for the Persons so served, and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had in the Suit, and such Orders or Decrees made, as if the Process had been duly served within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and the Orders and Decrees so made shall be binding on all Adventurers and others so served; and if the final Decree shall be for Payment of Money or Costs, Payment thereof shall be enforced in the Manner herein-after provided; and after Appearance so entered all Notices, Orders, Summonses, Warrants, and other Process in the Suit shall be deemed to be well served if served in any Part of England or Wales; and in all such Suits where any Adventurer holding a Share in a Mine or Adventure cannot be found, or is deceased and no one can be found who has administered to his Estate and Effects, then it shall be sufficient by Leave of the Court to substitute for regular Service a Service on the Mine in the usual Way, or at the principal Office or House of Business of the Adventurers, whether within the Stannaries or elsewhere in England or Wales, and Notice of such substituted Service shall be addressed by Post to the last known Address of the said Adventurer, except in case of his Decease, and thereupon Decrees or Orders of the Court in the Suit shall be binding on such Adventurer or his Representatives, and those claiming under him, as in case of regular Service.

Process in Suits against non-resident Defendants.

VII. In Suits commenced on the Equity Side of the said Court for Causes relating to Mines and Minerals in the Stannaries, or to Shares, Interests, or Adventures therein, whereof the said Court has cognizance, in which it may be necessary or expedient to sue or to join as Defendant a Person holding or claiming to hold any Share or Interest in an Adventure in Mines or Minerals worked within the Stannaries, or being an Agent of the said Adventurers, who cannot be found within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and in all Cases where any Person who shall have commenced any Suit or entered an Appearance in any Suit in the said Court, or shall have come in as Creditor, Claimant, or Purchaser, or otherwise submitted to the Jurisdiction thereof, cannot, by reason of his Person or Goods being out of the said Jurisdiction, be made amenable to the Process of the Court; and in all Cases where any Party to such Suit shall have died or become bankrupt or insolvent, and his personal Representatives or Assignees, or any of them, who may be necessary Parties to the Continuance of the Suit, shall be out of the said Jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon special Application in that Behalf, to order that Service of any Notice, Order, Summons, Warrant, or other Process shall be deemed good Service on any such Person, Representative, or Assignee respectively in any Part of England or Wales, and, if need be, to order an Appearance to be entered for the Person served; and thereupon it shall be lawful to take such Proceedings and to make such Order or Decree as if the Service had been made within the said Jurisdiction.

Service of Process out of Stannaries.

VIII. Where Service of Notices, Orders, Summonses, Warrants, or other Process in Causes pending in the Vice-Warden's Court may, under this Act or otherwise, lawfully be made in a Place out of the Jurisdiction of the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, or for Parties to Suits therein, to send the same to the High Bailiff of the County Court in the District of which such Place may be, together with the lawful Fees payable in like Cases for Service of similar Process in the County Court, and thereupon the High Bailiff shall serve or cause to be served the same, as if it had been issued out of a County Court, and such Service shall or may be proved as in case of County Court Process.

With respect to the Execution of Judgments and Decrees of the Court of the Vice-Warden, be it enacted as follows:

As to Execution of Judgments and Decrees of the Court of the Vice-Warden.

Where such Judgments cannot be conveniently enforced, Superior Courts may issue Process for Recovery of Amounts due on the same.

IX. In Actions commenced therein on the Common Law Side of the Court, where Judgment shall have been duly recovered in a Cause whereof the said Court has cognizance, but which cannot be conveniently or effectually enforced by the ordinary Process of that Court within the Jurisdiction thereof, it shall be lawful for any One of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, or for any Judge thereof, upon Application of the Party entitled to the Benefit of such Judgment, and Production of a Certificate from the Registrar of the Court of the Vice-Warden under the Seal of the Court of the Judgment so recovered, and a satisfactory Affidavit of the Ground of the Application, to cause Process to issue and Proceedings to be taken for the Recovery of the Amount due on the Judgment, including the Costs of the Certificate and of the Application, in the same Manner as upon a like Judgment recovered in an Action commenced in the Superior Court; and it shall not be necessary for this Purpose, or for any other Purpose, that the Record of any Judgment in the Vice-Warden's Court shall be engrossed on Parchment or enrolled; and where the Debt or Damages recovered by Judgment of the Court of the Vice-Warden, or sought to be recovered in Actions commenced either by Writ, Plaint, or other legal Procedure, according to the Practice of the said Court, shall not exceed Fifty Pounds, and the Judgment of the Court cannot be conveniently or effectually enforced within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, it shall be lawful for the Party entitled to the Benefit of the Judgment to sue out a Writ of Execution, and to send the same to the Clerk of any County Court within the District of which the Judgment Debtor or his Goods and Chattels shall then be or be believed to be, with a Warrant thereto annexed, under the Hand of the Registrar and Seal of the Court of the Vice-Warden, requiring Execution of the same, and with the Fees lawfully payable in like Cases for Execution of such a Writ in the County Court; and thereupon the said Clerk shall cause the same to be executed by the High Bailiff of the County Court in due Course of Law, as if the same had been issued by the Court of which he is High Bailiff, and the said Bailiff shall have the same Powers and Protection as if he were executing the Process of such County Court, and shall make his Return to the Clerk of the said Court, and pay over to him the Amount levied, if any; and the Clerk shall forthwith certify the said Return, and remit the Amount so paid, less the Costs of making such Levy according to the Practice of the County Courts, to the Party prosecuting the Writ; and the Judge of the said County Court shall have and exercise the same Power and Authority over the Clerk and High Bailiff, and shall have Power to adjudicate upon Summons of Interpleader in case of adverse Claims to Goods taken in Execution, as if the Execution had been under the Warrant of his own Court.

X. All

Execution of Decrees, &c. in Equity Suits in or out of Stannaries.

X. All Decrees and Orders made in Causes on the Equity Side of the Court of the Vice-Warden, whereof the said Court has cognizance, for Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, Costs, Charges, or Expenses, shall and may be enforced by a Writ or Writs of Fieri facias or Capias, within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the said Court, which Writs shall be in the Form, as near as may be, of the like Writs issued to enforce Decrees or Orders for Payment of Money made by the High Court of Chancery, and be executed in like Manner by the Bailiffs of the Vice-Warden's Court; and where any Decrees or Orders, whether for Payment of Money or otherwise, cannot be conveniently or effectually enforced by the ordinary Process of the Court of the Vice-Warden within the Jurisdiction thereof, it shall be lawful for the High Court of Chancery, or for any Judge thereof, sitting in Court or at Chambers, upon the Application of a Party entitled to the Benefit of such Decree or Order, and Production of a Certificate from the Registrar of the Court of the Vice-Warden under the Seal of the Court of the said Decree or Order, or of such Part thereof as cannot be so enforced as aforesaid, and a satisfactory Affidavit of the Ground of the Application, to make the said Decree or Order, or so much thereof as cannot be enforced, a Decree or Order of the High Court of Chancery; and thereupon such Decree or Order, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, shall and may be enforced by such Proceedings and Writs as would or might have been taken or issued if the same had been originally made by the High Court of Chancery, and all the reasonable Costs of and consequent upon such Certificate and Application shall and may be recovered as if the same had been and were Part of such Decree or Order; and where the said Decree or Order of the Vice-Warden is for Payment of a Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Fifty Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Party entitled to the Benefit of the said Decree or Order to enforce Payment thereof in the Manner herein-before provided in the Case of a Judgment on the Common Law Side of the Court for Recovery of a Debt or Damages not exceeding the said Sum of Fifty Pounds: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall affect or prejudice the Power of the Vice-Warden to enforce Decrees or Orders by Process of Attachment within the Jurisdiction of his Court where the same may be now lawfully exercised, or to order the Sale of Shares or Interests in Mines or Adventures in Cases wherein such Sale may now be made by Order of the said Court.

Interpleader in Equity.

XI. When any Claim is made to or in respect of any Goods and Chattels, or the Proceeds or Value thereof, sold or intended to be sold under a customary Decree of Sale in a Mining Creditor's Suit by any Landlord for Rent or other distrainable Demand, or by any other Person not being a Party to the Suit, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to call upon the Claimant by Rule or Order of the Court to appear in Person or by his Attorney or Agent in support of the same either before the Vice-Warden himself or before the Registrar, and to state the Nature and Particulars of his Claim, who shall thereupon hear the Allegations and receive the Proofs offered as well by the Claimant as by the Plaintiff in the Suit, and, if the Claimant and Plaintiff shall agree on the Facts of the Case, shall then adjudicate upon the Claim; and if the said Parties shall not so agree, then the disputed Facts shall be ascertained by an Action or Issue to be tried in the Vice-Warden's Court, in such Form as the Vice-Warden shall direct, and the Vice-Warden shall then adjudicate upon the Claim; or the Vice-Warden or Registrar shall have Power, with the Consent of the Parties so before him, their Counsel, Attornies, or Agents, to adjudicate upon and dispose of the Claim in a summary Manner: Provided that in all Cases, except in case of summary Adjudication by Consent, it shall be competent for the Registrar, at the Request of the said Parties, or either of them, to refer the Decision of the Case to the Vice-Warden; and the Vice-Warden shall in all Cases of such Interpleader make such other Rules and Orders in the Matter of the said Claim or Adjudication as between the said Parties in respect thereof, or of the Costs of the Proceedings, as to him shall seem fit and reasonable.

Adjudication to be final.

XII. The Adjudication of such Claim, either upon hearing or in default of the Appearance of the Claimant, shall be final and conclusive between the said Parties and all Persons claiming by, from, or under them; and the Adjudication, and all Rules and Orders made thereupon, shall have the Force and Effect of Judgments or Decrees of the Court, and be enforced accordingly.

Upon Application by Registrar, &c. Action may be stayed.

XIII. In Cases of Interpleader either on the Common Law or Equity Side of the Court, upon Application by the Registrar, Bailiff, or other Officer of the Court, or of the Plaintiff in the original Suit, and Certificate by the Registrar of the Proceedings in the Court of the Vice-Warden, and Proof of the Service on such Claimant of the Rule or Order calling upon him to appear in support of his Claim, any Action that shall have been or shall be brought in any Superior or Inferior Court in respect of such Claim against any Officer of the Court or Person acting under his Direction, or against the Plaintiff in the original Suit, may be stayed by the said Court, or any Judge thereof, who shall have Power to make such Rules and Orders touching the Costs of the Action so stayed as shall seem fit and reasonable.

Freehold, &c. not to be adjudicated upon without Consent.

XIV. Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize the Vice-Warden or Registrar to adjudicate upon any Claim, either on the Common Law or Equity Side of the Court, touching the Freehold or Inheritance of any Person, except by Consent of the Parties before the Court, and as between and against themselves and those claiming under them.

Ejectment in the Stannaries.

XV. It shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to entertain Jurisdiction in Suits for Recovery of the Possession of Mines within the Stannaries, and of Buildings, Machinery, Works, and Waters annexed thereto and occupied therewith, on the Ground of Breach of Condition, Determination of the Sett or Lease, or other lawful or customary Cause of Forfeiture, and also to prohibit the working of any Mine in in a Manner contrary to Custom or Covenant by Injunction in Cases and under Circumstances in which the High Court of Chancery or the Courts of Common Law at Westminster may now by Law enjoin; and the Suit for Recovery of Possession shall be by Action of Ejectment on the Common Law Side of the Court, according to the Forms and Procedure established by the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, so far as they are or can be made applicable to the Vice-Warden's Court; and it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to cause all necessary Writs to be served on the Persons in possession or entitled to defend, wheresoever they may then be in England or Wales, and to adopt any of the General Rules and Orders of the said Superior Courts promulgated from Time to Time and applicable to the Action of Ejectment with such Variations as the Nature and Constitution of the Court shall render necessary; and all Constables and Peace Officers within their several Jurisdictions shall be aiding the Bailiffs of the Court in the Execution of the Writ or Writs awarded for Recovery of the Possession and Costs, and in enforcing Process of Attachment in the Case of Breach of Injunction; provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize the Vice-Warden to entertain any Question touching the Freehold or Inheritance of any Person except by such Consent and as between and against such Parties as aforesaid.

Summary Suits for small Debts extended to Torts.

XVI. 'Whereas Actions for Debts not exceeding Fifty Pounds are now prosecuted summarily, and 'tried by Five Jurors only on the Common Law Side of the said Court, and it is expedient that the like 'Process and Trial be extended to other Actions, whether for Debt or Damages:' Be it therefore enacted, That all or any Actions for Debts or Damages not exceeding Fifty Pounds, whether founded on Tort or Contract, for Causes within the Jurisdiction and Cognizance of the said Court, shall be prosecuted in a summary Way by Plaint, and tried by a Jury of Five Jurors, as is now used in Actions for small Debts in the said Court, except in Cases where the Vice-Warden shall permit or direct such Action to be by Writ of Summons; and for the Purpose of improving the Procedure in such Actions by Plaint, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to make and enforce Rules and Forms for Procedure, Practice, Pleading, and Taxation of Costs, and to adopt all or any of the Rules and Forms now or hereafter legally in force and use in the County Courts, with such Alterations as may be necessary to adapt them to the Jurisdiction of the Vice-Warden's Court.

Removal of certain Causes from the County Court.

XVII. Where any Cause touching the Usage or Customs of Mining or of Miners, or the Principles and Incidents of Cost Book Partnership or of Cost Book Mines, or the Privileges and Franchises of Tinners or Miners, or the Effect and Operation of Setts or Licences to mine or Contracts for the Sale or Transfer of Shares in Mines, or the Custom of Tin Bounds or the Nature and Incidents thereof, shall be pending before One of the Judges of the County Courts within the Stannaries, the said Judge shall, at the Request of either Party, have Power to remit the said Cause for Trial or Hearing before the Court of the Vice-Warden, who shall thereupon have all the same Powers and Jurisdiction with respect to the Cause as if it had been commenced by Plaint in the Court of the Vice-Warden, subject to the like Appeal as in other Causes so commenced.

Pleading to Jurisdiction.

XVIII. Demurrers for Matter of Form only shall not be permitted in the Court of the Vice-Warden, and on the Equity Side of the said Court no Demurrers or Pleas shall be permitted except Demurrers for that the Suit or Subject thereof is not within the Cognizance or Jurisdiction of the said Court; and if the Objection of Want of Jurisdiction shall not be raised by Demurrer or Plea within Ten Days after Appearance in a Suit on the Equity Side, or within Ten Days after Notice of Declaration or Service of a Copy of Plaint on the Common Law Side, no Question as to the Jurisdiction of the Court shall thereafter be raised, except in Cases where the Want of Jurisdiction will disable the Court from doing full and substantial Justice between the Parties to the Suit; and the Mode of filing or serving Demurrers or Pleas to the Jurisdiction shall be regulated by General Rules and Orders made as herein-after provided, and so much of Section Thirteen of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and six, as relates to Pleas and Demurrers to the Jurisdiction, and so much of the Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of Charles the First, Chapter Fifteen, as relates to the Form and Manner of objecting to the Jurisdiction of the Stannary Courts, or is at variance with this Act, shall be and is hereby repealed, except as to Suits commenced before the passing of this Act.

Power of Registrar on Interlocutory Applications.

XIX. The Registrar of the Court of the Vice-Warden shall have Power at all Times before Hearing or Trial, either on the Common Law or Equity Side of the said Court, to make Orders for amending the Proceedings or Pleadings upon Terms or unconditionally, to hear and determine Applications for further Time, Objections for Defect of Form, or on the Ground of Uncertainty, Obscurity, Prolixity, or Multifariousness, and to make Rules and Orders in all such other interlocutory Matters as shall be submitted or referred to him by Consent of Parties, or which he may be directed or empowered to hear and determine or deal with, by any General Rules or Orders made under the Authority of this Act; and the said several Matters shall be heard and determined ore tenus in a summary Way, subject however to Appeal by Motion to the Vice-Warden, either ore tenus or on a written Statement agreed upon by the Parties or drawn up by the Registrar and submitted to the Vice-Warden.

Power for Vice-Warden, with Consent of Parties, to refer Cases to Arbitration.

XX. The Vice-Warden shall have Power, with the Consent of the Parties to any Suit, their Counsel, Attornies, or Solicitors at Law or in Equity, to order the same, with or without other Matters in dispute, to be referred to Arbitration, or to act as such Arbitrator himself, at the Request of the said Parties, in such Manner and on such Terms and Conditions as he shall think fit, with all the usual Powers of Arbitrators, Arbitrators, under References by Order of the Superior Courts; and such Reference shall not be revocable by either Party except by Consent of the Court; and the Vice-Warden shall have Power to set aside the Award for Cause shown, or to refer the Case back again to the Arbitrator, and the final Award made in pursuance of such Reference shall, on the Motion of either Party, be entered as the Decree or Order of the Court, or Judgment shall be entered in pursuance of such Award, as the Case may be, and the Decree, Order, or Judgment so entered shall thereupon be enforced as if the same had been made or entered in the ordinary Course of Procedure at Law or in Equity, as the Case may be.

Vice-Warden may hold his Court at any Place within Stannaries.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden, at the Request of one or some of the Parties to a Suit, and subject to such Terms as to Costs or otherwise as he may think fit and reasonable, to adjourn or hold his Court to or at any Place within the Stannaries for the Purpose of hearing Witnesses or taking Evidence; and in such Cases it shall not be necessary for the Registrar or Secretary of the Vice-Warden or Prothonotary of the Court to be in attendance at the Sittings of the Vice-Warden at such Place.

Production of Lists of Shareholders in Mines.

XXII. In all Cases of Mines in the Stannaries worked by Partnerships or Companies of Adventurers professing to adopt or to be constituted on the Cost Book System or Principle, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden, upon Application of any Adventurer or Shareholder in the Mine or Creditor of the Adventurers, founded on sufficient Grounds verified by Affidavit, although no Suit be pending touching the said Mine or Adventurers, to compel Production by Rule or Order of a List or Lists of all Adventurers or Shareholders for the Time being by the Purser or other principal Agent or Manager, Clerk, or Secretary of the Mine, and whether such Person be then within the Jurisdiction of the Court or elsewhere, for Inspection of the Applicant; and if such List shall not be produced, showing truly the Name, Address, and Number of Shares of each and every Adventurer or Shareholder, and the Time when each became an Adventurer or Shareholder, so far as the same are known or can be ascertained, then it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden at his Discretion, after Fourteen Days previous Notice of his Intention served on the Person so ordered to produce, and also affixed to the Account House of the Mine, or left at the principal Office or House of Business of the Adventurers within the Stannaries or elsewhere, to declare that the Partnership or Company is not carried on or constituted on the Cost Book System or Principle; and the said Partnership or Company shall thereupon no longer be deemed or taken to be for any Purpose a Partnership, Association, or Company within the Exemption of Mining Partnerships contained in the Act passed in the present Reign, entitled An Act for the Registration, Incorporation, and Regulation of Joint Stock Companies, or within the conditional Exemption contained in the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Act, 1849; and in all Cases of like Mines and Partnerships, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden, upon Application of any Adventurer or Shareholder founded on sufficient Grounds and Affidavit, and although no Suit be then pending, to make a Rule or Order for Production of the Cost Books of the Mine, List of Adventurers, and such other Books and Documents relating to the Mine and Management thereof as the Vice-Warden shall think proper, for Inspection of such Applicant, and to enforce such Rule or Order by Attachment within the Stannaries, or by causing the same to be made a Rule or Order of one of the Superior Courts at Westminster under the Statute in such Case made and provided.

7 & 8 Vict. c. 110.

Power to make or adopt Rules, Orders, and Practice of Superior Courts of Law or Equity.

XXIII. 'Whereas the Power of the Vice-Warden to make General Rules or Orders of Court is 'insufficient, and it is doubtful whether it extends to the Adoption of Improvements in the Procedure of 'the Superior Courts recently made by Parliament, or of Rules and Orders made from Time to Time by 'the Superior Courts by the Authority of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to make from Time to Time new Rules and Orders touching the Procedure, Practice, Pleadings, Regulation of Court Fees, and Taxation of Costs, both on the Common Law and Equity Side of the said Court, and all other Business of the said Court, and to prescribe Forms for carrying into effect such new Rules and Orders, and also existing Rules and Orders not varied or repealed, and also to adopt all or any of the Provisions contained in the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-six, and in the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, and in the Common Law Procedure Act, 1854, and all or any of the Rules and Orders from Time to Time made and promulgated by the Superior Courts by and under the Authority of the said Acts or otherwise, with such Modifications as may be necessary to adapt them to the Jurisdiction of the Vice-Warden's Court; provided that no such Rules, Orders, Forms, or Provisions shall be made, prescribed, or adopted without the Consent and Approval of One of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster in the Case of Rules, Forms, and Provisions applicable to the Common Law Side of the said Court, or of the Lord Chancellor or One of the Judges of the High Court of Chancery in the Case of Orders, Forms, and Provisions applicable to the Equity Side of the said Court; provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge or restrain any existing Power of the Vice-Warden to make Rules or Orders in Cases not requiring the Consent or Approval of any Judge of the Superior Courts.

Provision for Illness or accidental Absence of Vice-Warden.

XXIV. When the Vice-Warden shall be prevented by Illness or Accident from attending and sitting on the Day appointed for such Sitting, it shall not be necessary to send any Statement to the Lord Warden of the Cause of his Non-attendance or of the Adjournment of the Court, unless the Vice-Warden shall be, or it shall appear to him probable that he will be, thereby prevented from sitting within the Period

Period required by Law; and if, for the Reason aforesaid, it shall be necessary to appoint a Deputy, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to appoint such Deputy, qualified as now required by Law, for the then next Sittings only, provided the Cause alleged in such Statement be allowed by the Lord Warden to be sufficient and the Person so named as Deputy be approved by him; and whenever it may be desirable to alter the Time fixed for holding the Court, it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to accelerate or postpone the holding thereof, provided that such Alteration be duly notified and published in the usual Way, and the holding be not postponed beyond the Third Calendar Month next after the Calendar Month in which the last preceding Sittings were held, and no Irregularity in the Time of holding any Court or Sitting shall vitiate or avoid the Proceedings at such Court or Sitting.

Allowances to be made on auditing the Registrar's Accounts.

XXV. 'And, because Doubts may arise as to the Allowance of certain Disbursements and Payment of 'Arrears of Salaries on the auditing of the Registrar's Accounts,' be it enacted, That upon such Audit there shall be allowed annually, in respect of the Expenses of advertising and holding Courts in Cornwall, summoning Jurors, enforcing Payment of Assessments, lighting, warming, cleaning, watching, and keeping the Court and Offices there, providing Furniture, Books, Stationery, and Printing, and such additional Accommodation or occasional Assistance in the Office as the Vice-Warden shall consider reasonable or necessary, a Sum not exceeding the Sum of One hundred and Twenty Pounds; provided that if hereafter the Expenses of the Sittings and Court shall become larger by reason of increased Business, more frequent Sittings, or other Causes, it shall be competent for the Council of the Prince of Wales, or Special Commissioners for managing the Affairs of the Duchy for the Time being, to authorize a larger Allowance, not exceeding in the whole Two Third Parts of the Fees of Court that shall come into the Hands of the Registrar during each Year: 'And whereas it has happened, and may again happen, 'that the Monies arising from Fees and Assessments, and available for the Payment of the official Salaries 'charged on them, have been, or may be insufficient to pay the current Salaries when the same become 'due:' Therefore, when the Registrar shall account to the Vice-Warden for such Monies, there shall be allowed to him thereout not only the Portion of Salaries due in respect of the Half Year then last past but also all or any Arrears of Salaries remaining unpaid on preceding Accounts.

Regulation of Appeals.

XXVI. The Provisions contained in the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and six, and in the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-eight, touching Appeals to the Lord Warden, shall be repealed, and henceforth from all Decrees and Orders of the Vice-Warden on the Equity Side of his Court, and from all Judgments of the Vice-Warden on the Common Law Side thereof, there shall lie an Appeal to the Lord Warden, who shall have Power to affirm, vary, or reverse the Decree, Order, or Judgment wholly or in part, or to dismiss the Appeal, or to direct a Re-hearing or a new Trial in the Court below, and to make such Order or Orders touching the Costs in the Cause as to him shall seem fit, and the Decree, Order, or Judgment of the Lord Warden on such Appeal shall be remitted to the Vice-Warden, to be by him carried into effect and enforced, if need be, according to the Course and Practice of the Court; and upon hearing such Appeal it shall not be competent for the Parties to produce fresh Evidence in the Cause, or to call upon the Lord Warden to hear any Witnesses in the Cause, unless he shall in his Discretion think fit to do so; but the Decree, Order, or Judgment of the Lord Warden may proceed on the State of Facts appearing on the Notes of the Trial below certified by the Vice-Warden or agreed upon by the Parties; and the Vice-Warden shall certify such Notes accordingly, and transmit to the Lord Warden a Record of the Proceedings in his Court, and all Documents and Papers in the Cause in the Custody of the Court; and the Parties before the Lord Warden shall produce all the Documents and Papers produced on the Trial below: On the Hearing and Decision of the Appeal the Lord Warden shall be assisted by Two or more Assessors, who shall be Members of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council or Judges of the High Court of Chancery or Courts of Common Law at Westminster; and the Decree, Order, or Judgment of the Lord Warden in the Court of Appeal so constituted shall be subject to a final Appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, who shall have Power to hear and determine the same: And it shall be lawful for the Lord Warden to remit a Cause pending before him on Appeal at once for the Determination of the said Judicial Committee, without pronouncing any previous Judgment thereon: Provided that no Appeal shall be allowed in any Case where the Debt or Damages sought to be recovered shall not exceed Twenty Pounds and where no Question of Jurisdiction or of the Custom of Mining or Miners shall have arisen in the Court below, nor shall any Appeal operate to stay Proceeding or be allowed, unless the Party appellant shall notify in Writing to the Registrar, within Thirty Days after Notice of the Decree, Order, or Judgment appealed against, his Intention to prosecute an Appeal, and shall then give or offer to give Security by Bond to the Registrar to prosecute the same within a Time prefixed by the Court, and to abide by and perform the final Order and Award of the Court of Appeal, which Bond shall not require to be stamped; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Warden, with the Approval of Two or more Members of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council or Judges of the High Court of Chancery or of the Superior Courts of Common Law, from Time to Time, to make any General Rules and Orders for regulating the Practice, Fees, and Costs on Appeals pending before him, not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

XXVII. The

As to levying and Application of Fines.

XXVII. The Penalties incurred by the Head Manager of any Mine by reason of his Omission to make such Returns of Metals and Minerals, or the Value thereof, or such Payments in respect thereof as he is now required by Law to make, shall be assessed and imposed by the Vice-Warden; and such Penalties and all Fines and Penalties lawfully imposed and levied by Authority of the Vice-Warden for any Default or Non-attendance of Jurors, Misdemeanor of Bailiffs or other Officers, Contempt of Court, or other Cause whatsoever, shall be paid to the Registrar of the Court, and form Part of the Fund for Payment of Expenses and Salaries, and such Fines and Penalties shall be levied within the Stannaries by Fieri facias issued by Order of the Vice-Warden, on Complaint of the Registrar, and Summons, and Hearing in a summary Way; and if the Offender be not found within the Stannaries, shall be levied on like Summons and Hearing, or Default of Appearance, in the Manner herein-before provided for enforcing Execution of Judgments on the Common Law Side of the Court.

Punishment of Frauds by Miners in Devonshire.

XXVIII. 'And whereas by the Tenth Section of an Act passed in the Parliament holden in the 'Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-eight, it was enacted, that 'certain Frauds committed by Workmen in Mines in the County of Cornwall should be deemed Felonies, 'and should be punished as in Cases of Simple Larceny: And whereas it is desirable that that Enact-'ment should be extended to the County of Devon:' Be it therefore enacted, That for the Prosecution and Punishment of Frauds in Mines by idle and dishonest Workmen removing or concealing Ore for the Purpose of obtaining more Wages than are of Right due to them, and thereby defrauding the Adventurers in or Proprietors of such Mines, or the honest and industrious Workmen therein, if any Person or Persons employed in or about any Mine within the County of Devon shall take, remove, or conceal the Ore of any Metal, or any Lapis Calaminaris, Manganese, Mundick, or other Mineral found or being in such Mine, with Intent to defraud the Proprietor or Proprietors of or Adventurer or Adventurers in such Mine, or any One or more of them respectively, or any Workman or Miner employed therein, then and in every such Case respectively such Person or Persons so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as in the Case of Simple Larceny.

Vice-Warden to be qualified to act as a Justice of the Peace in the County.

XXIX. The Vice-Warden of the Stannaries for the Time being whose Name shall or may be inserted in any Commission of the Peace for the County of Cornwall shall be qualified to act in the Execution of the Office of Justice of the Peace for the said County, although he may not have such Qualification by Estate or Interest in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as is now enjoined by Law in the Case of other like Justices; provided that he be not disqualified to act for any other Cause or upon any other Occasion than in respect of the Want of such Estate or Interest.

Parts of Acts repealed.

XXX. The following Parts and Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and six, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; that is to say, Sections Five, Eleven, and Fourteen, and so much of Section Seven as relates to Appeals, and the Words "Nisi prius" shall be considered as struck and omitted out of Section Eight: The following Parts and Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-eight, shall also be and the same are hereby repealed; that is to say, Sections Three, Four, and Nine, and the Proviso in Section Two; but no Acts done or Rules or Orders made by Authority of the Provisions so repealed shall be thereby affected or made void.

Law Clerk of the Duchy of Cornwall to act as Attorney or Solicitor in all Courts.

XXXI. 'Whereas it will be convenient that the Office of the Duchy of Cornwall should be put on the 'same Footing as certain Public Offices in the Transaction of Law Business:' Be it enacted, That whenever any Person shall be appointed by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or other the Personage for the Time being entitled to the Possessions of the Duchy of Cornwall, to act as Attorney or Solicitor in the Affairs of the said Duchy, it shall be lawful for such Person to act and practise as such Attorney or Solicitor in such Affairs in all and every Court, Jurisdiction, and Place in any and every Part of the United Kingdom, any Statute, Order, Rule, Usage, or Custom relating to Attornies or Solicitors, or the Admission, Inrolment, or Practice of Attornies or Solicitors, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon to be united as to Jurisdiction.

XXXII. 'And whereas it has been represented that the Adventurers, Miners, and others interested 'in Mines in the County of Devon would be benefited by the Extension of the Stannary Court Jurisdiction 'into that County, and are willing to be contributory to the Expenses of such Extension, in the Manner 'herein-after provided:' Be it therefore enacted as follows:—The Jurisdiction of the Court of the Vice-Warden shall henceforth be extended and exercised over the County of Devon, and over the Mines and Miners therein, and the Process of the said Court, both at Common Law and in Equity, shall run in and be executory throughout the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, and the Forms and Customs of Procedure as now lawfully used and exercised in the Stannaries of Cornwall (subject nevertheless to such Amendments or Provisions as are contained in or may be authorized by this Act, and to all other lawful Rules and Orders of the Court,) shall henceforth be adopted, used, and enforced in and throughout the Stannaries and County of Devon, and the Stannaries of the said Two Counties shall be and become, for the Purposes of Stannary Jurisdiction, One entire District, and the present and all future Vice-Wardens of the Stannaries shall be Vice-Wardens of the Stannaries of and for both Counties, and shall have therein all the like Powers, Privileges, Authority, and Jurisdiction over and in respect of Mines and Miners, and Causes touching the same, in Devon as in Cornwall, and all Miners and others interested in Mines in Devon shall have the Privilege to sue and be sued at Law and in Equity in the Court of the Vice-Warden, and be amenable to the said Court and Vice-Warden, as well by reason of the Person as of the Cause, in like Cases and for like Causes in and for which the Miners and others interested in Mines in Cornwall now have such Privilege or are amenable to the said Court and Vice-Warden: Provided always, that the Common Law Jurisdiction of the Vice-Warden in respect of Causes of Action arising in Devon shall not extend to or be exercised in the County of Devon or to or over Miners therein, except in Causes and in respect of Matters relating to Mines or the Products thereof or Work connected therewith, or to the Working or Management thereof, or the Supply of Materials, Money, or Necessaries, or Performance of Work and Labour to, for, or in respect of such Mines or Works, or relating to the Customs of Mining or Miners, or to Shares or Interests in any Mine or Adventure in Mines.

The Vice-Warden to sit in Devonshire when sufficient Funds shall be provided for such Sitting.

XXXIII. 'And whereas it will be convenient that Provision should be made for periodical Sittings 'of the Court in Devonshire as well as in Cornwall:' Be it enacted, That if and when it shall appear to the Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or the Special Commissioners for managing the Affairs of the Duchy for the Time being, that the Revenue annually arising from the Assessment hereinafter authorized on Mines in Devonshire will amount to the Sum of Three hundred and twenty Pounds at the least, over and above the Expense of Collection, the said Council or Commissioners shall have Power to direct that Sittings be held by the Vice-Warden in Devonshire, and thereupon the Vice-Warden shall so sit, either by Adjournment from Truro or otherwise, at least Four Times in each Year, as he has heretofore been accustomed to do in Cornwall, and he shall hold his Sittings either at Plymouth, Devonport, or Stonehouse, in the said County, as to him shall seem fit, subject to the Power of Adjournment in certain Cases, as herein-before provided, and for that Purpose shall have Authority to use and occupy the Public Halls of the said Boroughs, or some other convenient Building provided for such Sittings, at such convenient Times and in such Way as may not interfere with other necessary public Business usually transacted therein, and in that event the said Council or Commissioners shall direct in what Manner, and on what Conditions, Terms, and Tenure, Monies arising from such Assessment, or any Part thereof, shall be appropriated, either among the present Officers of the Court and their Successors, or to the Deputies who (with the Assent and Approval of the Vice-Warden) may be employed by such Officers to execute their Duties or any Part of their Duties, when the Court shall be sitting in Devonshire, or to new or additional Officers and Clerks, or towards the general Expenses of the Court, so as best to secure the due Performance of the additional Duties and increased Business occasioned by the Extension of the Jurisdiction, and to indemnify the present Officers of the Court for any Expenses to which they may be put by Attendance elsewhere than at Truro, and Payment shall be made according to such Appropriation, and it shall be competent for the Council or Commissioners, at the Recommendation of the Vice-Warden, to vary such Appropriation, having due Regard to the Exigencies of Business in the said Court, and the Amount of Funds applicable to the Expenses thereof.

Collector in Devonshire.

XXXIV. There shall be a Collector of the Assessments in the County of Devon, to be appointed by the Vice-Warden, with like Duties and Liabilities as in Cornwall, who shall receive for such Collection, out of the Monies so collected, an annual Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds, and shall hold his Office at Will, and it shall be lawful for the Vice-Warden to appoint the same Person to be Collector in both Counties, and to appoint Bailiffs for Service and Execution of Process throughout the whole District of both Stannaries.

Jurors to be qualified as at Assizes.

XXXV. All Jury Trials, whether in Actions, Suits, or Plaints, on the Common Law Side of the Court, arising in the County of Devon, or in Issues from the Equity Side, shall be by Persons qualified to serve as Jurors before the Justices of Assize and Nisi Prius in the said County; and for making out Lists of such Jurors, and summoning them, the Vice-Warden shall have and execute the like Powers as in Cornwall; and the Persons so qualified to serve shall be liable to challenge, and amenable to the Process of the said Court, and enjoy the same Exemptions in respect of their Attendance and Service as in the Stannaries of Cornwall: Provided nevertheless, that until the Vice-Warden shall receive the Directions of the said Council or Commissioners, as above provided, to hold Sittings in the County of Devon, it shall not be obligatory on him to hold any Sittings there, nor shall it be obligatory on Persons qualified to serve as Jurors in the Vice-Warden's Court in Devonshire to give their Attendance as such at any Court held by him in that County or elsewhere, nor shall any Cause arising in Devonshire, and pending before any County Court Judge there, be remitted for Trial or Hearing before the Vice-Warden, as herein-before provided; and in the meantime the said Council or Commissioners shall direct in what Manner and in what Proportions the Revenue arising from Fees and Assessments in respect of Causes and Mines in the County of Devon shall be applied towards Court or Office Expenses, or Payment of the present or additional Official Salaries.

No Sittings in Devon till Duchy Council or Commissioners shall direct.

Assessment of Mines and Minerals in Devon.

XXXVI. And for the Purpose of providing for the Expenses attendant upon the Extension of the Jurisdiction of the Court into Devon, there shall be an Assessment of a Farthing in the Pound on the Value of all Metals and Minerals in that County, as in Cornwall, and all the Enactments contained in this and any other Act of Parliament for obtaining and enforcing Returns, and levying and collecting the said Assessment, in Cornwall, shall be taken to apply to the like Assessment in Devon, and the Collector thereof shall account for all Monies received by him as in Cornwall, and such Assessment shall begin begin at the passing of this Act, and be collected for the First Time at the End of Three Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act; provided, that whenever it shall appear to the Vice-Warden, on auditing the Registrar's Accounts, that there is a Balance in hand sufficient to meet all authorized Payments for the next Half Year, the like Notice thereof and Suspension of Assessment shall take place as in the Assessment in Cornwall; and the Registrar of the Court shall keep a separate Account of all Fees and Monies coming into his Hands in respect of Causes and Matters arising in the County of Devon, and in respect of the Assessment of Metals and Minerals in that County, and shall render Accounts to the Vice-Warden as in Cornwall, and shall be allowed in his half-yearly Account, as well the additional Salaries and Sums lawfully chargeable thereon, as herein-before provided, as the reasonable and needful Expenses of advertising and holding Courts and summoning Jurors in the County of Devon (if any be held), and of lighting, warming, cleaning, watching, and keeping the Court, and an Office there (if any), and other like petty Expenses, as allowed in the County of Cornwall, and the Amounts so audited shall be filed, and be open for Inspection, as is now used in the said Court.

Commitment of Prisoners in Devonshire.

XXXVII. Persons committed to Prison by the Vice-Warden in respect of Causes or Contempts in the County of Devon shall be committed and taken either to the County Gaol at Exeter or the Borough Gaol of Plymouth or Devonport, as shall appear to the Vice-Warden most expedient in each Case, and shall be received, dealt with, maintained, supported, and provided for as if they had been committed to those Prisons by like Process out of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity at Westminster, or by any Court of Civil Jurisdiction held in or for the Borough of Plymouth or Devonport.

Provision for the eventual Establishment of a separate Court in Devonshire.

XXXVIII. Whenever it shall hereafter appear that a sufficient Fund shall be provided in the Stannaries of Devon for the Establishment of a permanent separate Court and a separate Office and Officers in and for a Vice-Warden's Court in the County of Devon, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, issued at the Instance of the said Council of His Royal Highness, or the Special Commissioners, as aforesaid, to direct that such Court and Office shall be erected and established on the Model of the Vice-Warden's Court as now constituted in Cornwall, and to declare that all Provisions of the present Act, and of the several Acts for the Establishment of the said Court in Cornwall, so far as they shall be applicable to such new Court in the County of Devon, shall be deemed and taken to be in force in the last-mentioned County, and to assign Salaries to the several Officers of the said Court, not exceeding the Salaries appointed before or at the passing of this Act for the like Officers in the County of Cornwall, and to declare what Proportion of the Salary now payable to the Vice-Warden of the Stannaries shall thenceforth be contributed out of the Revenue arising in the County of Devon if the same Vice-Warden shall be appointed for both Courts, and to make such other Regulations as shall be necessary or expedient for effectually establishing and providing for such separate Court and Office; and thereupon, on the Promulgation of the said Order in Council, the said separate Court and Office shall be and become permanently established in the County of Devon, as fully and effectually as if the same had been established and confirmed by Act of Parliament; and all Provisions made by this Act, or by the Council of His Royal Highness, or the said Special Commissioners, under the Authority of this Act, for the Extension of the Jurisdiction of the present Court into the County of Devon, shall cease, save only that the Process of the Court in each County in Causes arising in that County shall be executory and executed in and throughout both Counties.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to prevent Doubts as to the Validity of certain Proceedings in the House of Commons.

[15th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS the House of Commons on the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, Her Majesty having previously signified Her Consent that the House might do therein as they should think fit, resolved as follows: "That whenever the House shall be informed of "the unavoidable Absence of Mr. Speaker, the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means do "take the Chair for that Day only, and in the event of Mr. Speaker's Absence continuing for more "than One Day do, if the House shall think fit and shall so order it, take the Chair in like Manner on "any subsequent Day during such Absence:" And whereas on the Fourth Day of this present Month of June, Mr. Speaker being unavoidably absent by reason of Indisposition, the Right Honourable Henry FitzRoy, being the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, took the Chair in pursuance of the said Resolutions: And whereas the House on the same Day further resolved as follows; viz.: "That in the event of Mr. Speaker's Absence continuing for more than this Day, Mr. FitzRoy do take "the Chair on each subsequent Day during the present Week:" And whereas the said Right Honourable Henry FitzRoy did, in consequence of the continued Absence of Mr. Speaker, on each subsequent Day during the said Week take the Chair, and perform therein certain Duties appertaining to the Office of Speaker: And whereas Doubts may arise as to the Validity of Acts done or Proceedings taken by or in the House during the Time aforesaid in relation to certain Matters regulated by Statute:'

For Removal of Doubts as to the Validity of

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Acts and Proceedings which according to the Provisions of any Statute are required certain Proceedings in the House of Commons during the Absence of Mr. Speaker.

required to be done or taken in the House of Commons with their Speaker in the Chair, and which have been done or taken by or in the House while the said Right Honourable Henry FitzRoy was in the Chair as aforesaid, shall be and shall be deemed to have been as valid and effectual for all Purposes as if Mr. Speaker himself had been in the Chair during the Time when such Acts and Proceedings respectively were done and taken.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act to provide for the Education of Children in the Receipt of Out-door Relief. [26th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Means should be taken to provide Education for the young 'Children of poor Persons who are relieved out of the Workhouse:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,— Guardians may grant Relief to enable poor Persons to educate their Children.

I. That the Guardians of any Union or any Parish in England wherein the Relief to the Poor is administered by a Board of Guardians may, if they deem proper, grant Relief for the Purpose of enabling any poor Person lawfully relieved out of the Workhouse to provide Education for any Child of such Person between the Ages of Four and Sixteen in any School to be approved of by the said Guardians, for such Time and under such Conditions as the said Guardians shall see fit.

Poor Law Board may regulate Proceedings, &c.

II. Provided, That the Poor Law Board may at any Time issue their Order to regulate the Proceedings of the Guardians with reference to the Mode, Time, or Place in or at which such Relief shall be given or such Education received.

Education not a Condition of Relief.

III. Provided also, That it shall not be lawful for the Guardians to impose as a Condition of Relief that such Education shall be given to any Child of the Person requiring Relief.

Cost of Relief how to be charged.

IV. The Cost of the Relief so given for the Education of any such Child shall be charged to the same Account as the other Relief granted by the said Guardians to the same poor Person, and may be given by the said Guardians and recovered by them as a Loan, under the same Circumstances and in like Manner as such other Relief.

Orphans and deserted Children may be relieved.

V. In the Case of any Child of such Age as aforesaid relieved out of the Workhouse, which Child has been deserted by its Parents or surviving Parent, or both whose Parents are dead, it shall be lawful for such Guardians in their Discretion, and with the like Power of Regulation on the Part of the Poor Law Board as aforesaid, to grant Relief for the Purpose of providing Education for such Child in any such School as aforesaid.

Act to be construed with 5 W. 4. c. 76.

VI. The Words used in this Act shall be construed in like Manner as the Words contained in the Act of the Fifth of William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, and the several Acts incorporated therewith.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to continue the Act for extending for a limited Time the Provision for Abatement of Income Tax in respect of Insurance on Lives. [26th June 1855.]

16 & 17 Vict. c. 91.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seven-'teenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to extend for a limited Time 'the Provision for Abatement of Income Tax in respect of Insurance on Lives, which Act was limited to 'continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four: And whereas 'by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament the said first-mentioned Act was continued until 'the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five: And whereas it is expedient to 'extend the Benefit of the recited Provisions to Persons insuring or contracting with such Friendly 'Societies as herein-after mentioned, and to continue the said first-recited Act for such Period as herein-'after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Persons insured with Friendly Societies to be entitled to Benefits of recited Acts.

I. Any Person or Persons who shall have made any such Insurance or contracted for any such Deferred Annuity as in the said recited Acts mentioned, in or with any Friendly Society legally established under any Act of Parliament relating to Friendly Societies, shall be entitled to all the Benefits and Advantages conferred by the said recited Acts; provided that the Premiums payable in respect of such Insurances shall not be made for shorter Periods than Three Months.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 91. to continue in force and be applicable to Duties granted by 17 & 18 Vict. c. 24. and 18 & 19 Vict. c. 20.

II. The said Act shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and shall be applicable, with respect to the Rate of Duty of One Shilling and Twopence for every Twenty Shillings granted by the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Twenty-four, and to the additional Rate of Duty of Twopence for every Twenty Shillings granted by the Act of the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Twenty, in like Manner as to the Rate or Duty of Sevenpence for every Twenty Shillings granted by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-four.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to repeal the Stamp Duties payable on Matriculation and Degrees in the University of Oxford. [26th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament (Chapter Eighty-one) "to make "further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Oxford, of the "Colleges therein, and of the College of Saint Mary Winchester," it was enacted, that the Stamp Duties then payable on Matriculations and Degrees should be abolished so soon as Provision should have been made by the University, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in lieu of the Monies theretofore voted annually by Parliament: And whereas by a Statute of the said University, adopted by Convocation on the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, Provision has been made for the Payment out of the University Chest of the Salaries and Allowances to certain Professors of the said University, mentioned in the Schedule to this Act (being the same Salaries and Allowances as were theretofore annually voted by Parliament to the same Professors), and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are satisfied that such Statute is a due Provision in lieu of the Monies theretofore voted annually by Parliament, as intended by said Act:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 17 & 18 Vict. c. 81.

I. All Stamp Duties payable under the Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and eighty-four, or under any other Act of Parliament, on the Admission or Matriculation of any Person in the said University of Oxford, and on the Admission of any Person to any Degree in the said University (whether conferred in the ordinary Course of the University or otherwise), or for the Registry or Entry of any such Admission, shall from and after the said Thirty-first Day of May cease to be payable. Stamp Duties on Matriculation and Degrees in Oxford repealed.

II. No Salary or Allowance payable under the said Statute of the said University to any Professor mentioned in the Schedule to this Act shall be discontinued or reduced without the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury. Salaries payable under University Statute not to be discontinued without Consent of Treasury.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to apply the Sum of Ten Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. [26th June 1855.]

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act to allow Spirit of Wine to be used Duty-free in the Arts and Manufactures of the United Kingdom. [26th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, with a view to promote the Advancement of the Arts and Manufactures of the United Kingdom, to allow Spirit of Wine to be used Duty-free in the various Processes thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to permit and authorize any Distiller or Rectifier of Spirits, or other Person specially licensed in that Behalf, to mix, under the Conditions and Regulations herein-after mentioned, Spirit of Wine of not less Degree of Strength than Fifty per Cent. over Proof, and in a Quantity of not less than Four hundred and fifty Gallons at One Time, with not less than One Ninth of its Bulk Measure of Wood Naphtha or Methylic Alcohol, or to mix Spirit of Wine of such other Degree of Strength and in such other Quantity or Proportion with Wood Naphtha or Methylic Alcohol, or with such other Article or Substance as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time approve, order, and direct, and as to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners shall render such Spirit unfit for Use as a Beverage, and incapable of being converted to that Purpose, and thereupon such Mixture shall be allowed Duty-free for Use in such Branches of the Arts and Manufactures of the United Kingdom as the said Commissioners shall sanction or approve in that Behalf, or if such Mixture shall be made A Mixture of Spirit of Wine and Methylic Alcohol may be allowed Duty-free for Use in the Arts or Manufactures.

made by a Rectifier with Duty-paid Spirit of Wine, he shall be allowed a Drawback of the Duty on such Spirit of Wine at the Rate chargeable on Spirits of the like Strength distilled in that Part of the United Kingdom where such Mixture shall be made.

The Mixture to be termed Methylated Spirit.

II. The said Mixture of Spirit of Wine with Wood Naphtha or Methylic Alcohol shall be denominated Methylated Spirit, and the Mixture of Spirit of Wine with any other Substance appointed or approved by the said Commissioners for the Purpose aforesaid shall be designated by such Term as they shall from Time to Time direct; and wherever in this Act the Term Methylated Spirit is used the same shall be deemed to include any and every such other Mixture as last mentioned, and the several Provisions of this Act shall be deemed to apply to any and every such last-mentioned Mixture as if the Term by which the said Commissioners shall direct the same to be designated had been substituted in this Act for and in lieu of the Term Methylated Spirit.

Persons (other than Distillers or Rectifiers) authorized to make Methylated Spirit to pay for a Licence for that Purpose.

III. Every Person who shall be authorized by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to make or mix Methylated Spirit (other than a Distiller or Rectifier of Spirits) shall take out a Licence for that Purpose, and shall pay the Sum of Ten Pounds and Ten Shillings for the Duty thereon; and such Licence and Payment of Duty thereon shall be renewed annually on the First Day of October in every Year, so long as such Person shall continue to be authorized as aforesaid to make or mix Methylated Spirit; and every such Licence shall be granted and renewed in like Manner as other Excise Licences are granted and renewed, and under and subject to the Provisions and Regulations of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-one.

Places of mixing to be approved and entered, and Removal of Articles for mixing, &c. to be made under Regulations of Commissioners.

IV. The mixing of Spirit of Wine with Wood Naphtha or Methylic Alcohol or any such Article or Substance as aforesaid shall be made only in such Warehouses, Buildings, and Rooms as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time approve, and of which the Distiller or Rectifier or Person specially licensed as aforesaid, proposing to make such Mixture, shall specially make Entry for that Purpose with the proper Officer of Excise; and the Removal of such Spirit of Wine, and of any such Article or Substance as aforesaid, to any such entered Place of mixing, and the Time and Mode of mixing the same, and the Sale, Delivery, and Removal of the Methylated Spirit therefrom, shall be under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, and with and under such Securities, as the said Commissioners may from Time to Time make, direct, or require in that Behalf.

Wood Naphtha, &c. to be inspected by Officer before mixing, &c.

V. All Wood Naphtha or Methylic Alcohol, or other such Article or Substance as aforesaid, to be mixed with such Spirit of Wine, shall before the mixing thereof be examined by and subject to the Approval of an Officer of Excise appointed in that Behalf; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, if they shall think fit, to provide the Wood Naphtha, Methylic Alcohol, or other such Article or Substance, as aforesaid, for and at the Expense of the Person proposing to make such Mixture.

Commissioners may provide Warehouses, &c. for mixing and storing Methylated Spirit.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, if they shall think fit, to provide Warehouses for the making, mixing, and storing of Methylated Spirit, and also to provide Workmen requisite in that Behalf, and to charge in respect of all Methylated Spirit made, mixed, or stored in any such Warehouse the Rate of One Penny per Gallon per Month, and the like Rate for any fractional Part of a Month, as a Compensation for Warehouse Rent and such Labour as aforesaid.

A Stock Account to be kept of Methylated Spirit in the Possession of every Maker.

VII. The proper Officer of Excise shall keep a Stock Account, by Way of Debtor and Creditor, of all Methylated Spirit made by every Maker of such Spirit, and shall in such Account debit the Stock with the Quantity of such Spirit from Time to Time made or added thereto, and shall credit the same with the Quantity from Time to Time duly and legally sent out therefrom; and in the keeping and taking of every such Account all such Methylated Spirit shall be calculated to Proof Gallons and Fractions thereof, and for this Purpose the Strength of such Methylated Spirit as indicated by Sykes's Hydrometer shall be deemed to be the true Strength thereof; and if at any Time the Quantity of Methylated Spirit found in the Stock or Possession of any such Maker shall exceed by a greater Rate than One per Centum the Quantity thereof which by the Stock Account so kept by such Officer ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Maker, computing such Rate of One per Centum on the Quantity of Methylated Spirit formed by the Balance left on the last Stock-taking and the Quantity thereof since made and duly added to such Stock, all such excess Quantity of Methylated Spirit shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise; and if at any Time the Quantity of Methylated Spirit found in the Stock or Possession of any such Maker shall be deficient by a greater Rate than Two per Centum, calculated as aforesaid, of the Quantity thereof which by such Stock Account ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Maker, he shall be charged with and shall pay for all such deficient Quantity the Rate of Duty chargeable upon Spirits distilled in that Part of the United Kingdom where such Stock shall be kept.

Excess of Stock to be forfeited, and Deficiency to be charged with Duty.

Methylated Spirit to be delivered only from an entered Place and with Permit.

Penalty of 50*l.*, and Forfeiture of the Spirit.

VIII. No Methylated Spirit shall be sold, sent out, or delivered from any Place other than a Warehouse, Building, or Store-room approved and duly entered as aforesaid for the mixing or storing of such Spirit, or otherwise than in Vessels containing not less than Ten Gallons, each distinctly labelled with the Words "Methylated Spirit," and accompanied by a proper Permit or other such Document as the said Commissioners may order or direct to be used to accompany such Spirit on the Removal thereof; and if any Person shall unlawfully or improperly sell, send out, deliver, or remove any Methylated Spirit, contrary to any of the Provisions of this Act, or the Regulations of the said Commissioners to be made in this Behalf, he shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and such Methylated Spirit shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

IX. The Spirit of Wine.

Persons to be authorized by the Commissioners to receive Duty-free Methylated Spirit for Use in the Arts or Manufactures.

IX. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall, by themselves or their Officers, license or authorize such Persons as the said Commissioners shall think fit to receive Methylated Spirit Duty-free, to be used in the several Branches of the Arts or Manufactures carried on by them respectively, and shall provide and deliver to such Persons Forms of Requisition to be used by them in procuring Methylated Spirit from the Makers thereof, and Counterfoils of such Requisitions to be filled up and retained by such licensed or authorized Persons for the Inspection of the Officers of Excise; and every such Requisition shall be accompanied by a Certificate signed by an Officer of Excise to be authorized by the said Commissioners in that Behalf, certifying that the Applicant is a Person so licensed or authorized as aforesaid; and no Methylated Spirit shall be sold or delivered to any Person except upon his delivering to the Maker thereof a Requisition for the same in such Form as shall be supplied to him for that Purpose, together with such Certificate as aforesaid.

Persons authorized to receive Duty-free Methylated Spirit to give Security for the proper Use of it in their Manufactures.

X. Every Person who may be licensed or authorized as aforesaid to receive Duty-free Methylated Spirit under the Provisions of this Act shall enter into a Bond to Her Majesty, with Sureties to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and in such Sum and with a Condition in such Form as they shall think fit, as a Security that such licensed or authorized Person will use such Methylated Spirit wholly in the Art or Manufacture specified in such Condition which such Person carries on, and that he will not use the same or any Portion of it for any other Purpose, or sell or dispose of it in any other Manner, and further, that such licensed or authorized Person will with respect to all such Methylated Spirit observe, comply with, and fulfil all the Provisions, Terms, and Conditions of this Act, and the Rules and Regulations which the said Commissioners shall make and issue under the Authority hereof.

Enactments in former Acts as to Permits and Certificates to be applied to Permits, Certificates, &c. under this Act.

XI. All Permits, Certificates, Forms of Requisition, and other Documents to be used under the Provisions of this Act shall be provided in the Manner directed by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixteen, as to Permits, and by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one, as to Certificates, Forms of Requisition, and other such Documents as aforesaid; and all Clauses, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in or enacted by the said several Acts in relation to Permits and Certificates respectively shall be applied and enforced with respect to the Permits, Certificates, Forms of Requisition, and other Documents to be used under the Provisions of this Act, for the Purpose of preventing, detecting, and punishing all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences committed in relation to such last-mentioned Permits and Certificates, and to such Forms of Requisition and other Documents respectively, and for all other Purposes incident to the Use thereof.

Persons ordering Methylated Spirit to fill up Requisition and Counterfoil, and produce the latter to Officer when required.

XII. Every Person so licensed or authorized as aforesaid to receive Methylated Spirit shall, on ordering the same from the Maker thereof, correctly fill up the Form of Requisition with the proper Quantity to be ordered and other Particulars which may be required by any Regulation of the said Commissioners to be inserted in such Requisition; and he shall also correctly fill up the Counterfoil of such Requisition with all such Particulars as aforesaid, and retain such Counterfoil, and produce and deliver the same to any Officer of Excise who may require to inspect the same, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds for any Neglect, Omission, or Refusal in respect of any Matter or Thing in this Clause enjoined or required to be done.

Officers of Excise may enter Premises where Methylated Spirit is used, and inspect and take Samples.

XIII. It shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise, in the Daytime, to enter and inspect the Premises where Methylated Spirit is or may be used by any Person licensed or authorized as aforesaid to use the same; and it shall also be lawful for any such Officer to inspect, examine, and take Samples from all such Methylated Spirit as he may there find, paying a reasonable Compensation for such Samples; and if any Person shall refuse to allow such Officer to enter any such Premises, or to make such Inspection or Examination, or to take any such Sample as aforesaid, such Person so refusing shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Commissioners may revoke Authority to make or use Methylated Spirit, &c.

XIV. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, if they shall think fit, at any Time, to revoke their Licence or Authority granted to any Person to make or to receive or use Duty-free Methylated Spirit, under the Provisions of this Act, and also to revoke their Approval of any Warehouse, Building, or Room as a Place for mixing, making, or storing any such Spirit.

Makers not to supply Methylated Spirit to Persons whose Authority to use the same is revoked.

XV. Provided always, That no Maker of Methylated Spirit shall sell, supply, or deliver any such Spirit to any Person respecting whom Notice in Writing shall have been given to such Maker by any Supervisor or other Superior Officer of Excise, that the Licence or Authority granted to such Person to receive or use Methylated Spirit has been revoked, or that such Person is otherwise disqualified to receive or use such Spirit, notwithstanding that such Person may produce and deliver to such Maker of Methylated Spirit a proper Form of Requisition for such Spirit, accompanied by such Certificate as herein-before mentioned; and if any Maker of Methylated Spirit shall sell, supply, or deliver any such Spirit to or for the Use of any Person respecting whom he shall have received any such Notice as aforesaid, such Maker shall be charged with and shall pay for and upon such Spirit the Rate of Duty chargeable upon Spirits distilled in that Part of the United Kingdom where he shall make Methylated Spirit.

Methylated Spirit in the Possession of an unauthorized

XVI. No Person, other than a Distiller or Rectifier or licensed Person authorized respectively to make Methylated Spirit, or a Person licensed or authorized, under the Provisions of this Act, to receive and use Methylated Spirit, shall have any such Spirit in his Possession; and if any Methylated Spirit shall be Commencement of Act.

XVII. This Act shall commence and take effect on the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to facilitate Grants of Lands and Tenements for the Purpose of Religious Worship and other Purposes connected therewith. [26th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS many Congregations of Persons not belonging to the Established Church in Ireland 'have been and are in many Cases prevented from erecting suitable Buildings for Religious 'Worship, and for the Residence of their Clergymen, Ministers, and Pastors, and Schoolhouses for the 'Education of their Children, and from providing suitable Burial Grounds, by the Difficulty of 'obtaining Leases of Land of sufficient Duration for such Purposes, and in many Cases have been 'obliged to use for the Purposes aforesaid Lands granted or demised for Terms of short or uncertain 'Duration, and it is expedient that Tenants for Life and other Persons having limited Interests in Lands 'should be enabled for the Purposes aforesaid to make Grants or Leases for any Period not exceeding 'the Estate or Interest out of which such limited Interest is created, and to accept Surrenders of and 'convert into Leases for such extended Period any Leases of short or uncertain Duration already made 'for such Purposes or any of them:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Interpretation of Terms.

I. In the Construction of this Act the Words "Grantor" or "Lessor" shall extend to a Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, making Grants or Leases:

The Word "Lessee" shall include the personal Representatives of any Lessee and his lawful Assigns:

The Word "Person" shall include any Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate:

The Expression "Perpetual Interest" shall comprehend, in addition to any greater Interest, any Estate for One or more than One Life, with or without a Term for Years, or for Years, whether absolute or determinable on One or more than One Life, with a Covenant or Agreement by a Party competent thereto for perpetual Renewal:

The Expression "Successors in Estate" shall extend to and include the Persons entitled for the Time being after the Lessor to the actual Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the Lands comprised in the Lease, under the same Title, Settlement, or Will with the Lessor, or under the Exercise of any Power affecting such Title or continued in such Settlement or Will, and who but for the making of the said Lease would be entitled to Possession of the Lands, or to the Possession subject to any other existing Lease or Tenancy:

The Word "entitled" shall mean entitled either legally or equitably:

The Word "Settlement" shall include every Assurance or connected Set or Series of Assurances, whether by Deed, Will, Private Act of Parliament, or otherwise, by which Lands are or shall be limited in a Course of Settlement, or agreed so to be.

Short Title.

II. In citing this Act in any Instrument, Document, Proceeding, or Act of Parliament, it shall be sufficient Designation to use the Expression "The Leasing Powers Act for Religious Worship in (Ireland), 1855."

With respect to the Persons hereby empowered to make Leases:

Power to make Leases of Land of not more than Five Acres for religious Purposes.

III. Every Person herein-after described entitled in possession to any Estate or Interest herein-after named in Lands in Ireland, or to the Receipt of any Rents and Profits thereof, whether or not such Estate shall be subject to any Mortgage or other Incumbrance (provided the Incumbrancer shall not be in possession), shall have Power to make Leases of any Part of the said Lands, (other than the Mansion House and Demesne Lands or Parks, Plantations, Gardens, Orchards, or Pleasure Grounds and Appurtenances belonging to or usually occupied with such Mansion House,) and not exceeding in the whole Five Acres, for the Purposes and Periods of Time, and subject to the Rents, Rights of Apportionment of Rent, Covenants, and Conditions herein stated; (that is to say,)

(1.) Her Majesty the Queen and Her Successors; the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods and Forests in respect of Lands situate in the Kingdom of Ireland:

(2.) Tenants in Fee Simple or Fee Farm or seised of any other perpetual Estate subject to any Mortgage or Incumbrance:

(3.) Tenants in Tail or Quasi-Entail of an Estate of Inheritance or perpetual Interest:

(4.) Tenants for the Term of their own Lives, not being Jointresses, or for the Life or Lives of any other Person or Persons, or for so many Years as they may live, or any partial Owner, for an unexpired Term of Years not being less than Sixty Years in its Inception, and whether absolute or determinable on a Life created out of an Estate of Inheritance or perpetual Interest by any Settlement, and not in consideration of or subject to any Rent reserved thereby:

(5.) Married Women entitled to any Estate specified in Numbers (2.), (3.), or (4.) for their separate Use, and whether restrained or not from Anticipation:

(6.) Tenants by the Courtesy of England:

(7.) Husbands seised in right of their Wives, or by Entireties with their Wives, provided that the Wife is entitled to any such Estate as is specified in Number (2.), but whether subject to any Incumbrance or not, or in Numbers (3.) or (4.), and shall be a consenting and executing Party to the Lease, not being under Age:

(9.) Corporations Lay, Eleemosynary, and Collegiate, whether aggregate or sole: Provided, that no Lease made by any Municipal Corporation or Board of Guardians of the Poor shall be valid without the Licence in Writing in the Case of a Municipal Corporation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and in the Case of such Board of Guardians of the Poor of the Poor Law Commissioners for Ireland, such Licence to be written on or annexed to the said Lease:

(10.) Trustees and Feoffees of Charitable Uses of a public Nature, and seised or possessed of an Estate in Fee Simple, Fee Farm, or other perpetual Interest:

(11.) Trustees under any Will or Settlement entitled in Fee Simple or for a perpetual Interest or to any Estate specified in Number (4.), and having a Power to sell the same: Provided, however, that when such Power is to be exercised with the Consent of any Person no such Lease shall be valid without such Consent.

And with respect to Cases of Disability of Parties otherwise entitled to make Leases:

In Cases of Disability of Parties, Guardians, &c. may make Leases.

IV. In case any Person (not being a Trustee or Feoffee of charitable Uses of a public Nature) who would be entitled to make Leases under this Act or otherwise shall happen to be under any of the following Disabilities or Incapacities, the Power shall be exercised in his or her Name and on his or her Behalf in the following Manner: If under the Age of Twenty-one Years, by his or her Guardian appointed by Will or Settlement, or by the Court of Chancery; and if such Person have no Guardian, it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery in Ireland, on Petition in a summary Way, to appoint a Guardian of such Person under Age, for the Purpose of executing any Lease under this Act, in the Manner aforesaid, and to change him from Time to Time, and the Power shall be executed by the Guardian so appointed: If lunatic or idiot, or non compos mentis, by the Committee of the Estate; and if there shall be no Committee of the Estate, or no Inquisition finding such Person idiot or lunatic, it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery in Ireland, by Petition in a summary Way, to appoint a Guardian of such Person, for the Purpose of executing any Lease under this Act, and to change such Guardian from Time to Time, and the Power shall be executed as aforesaid by the Guardian so appointed: Provided always, that no Lease made under this Act of the Estate of any Person under Age or of unsound Mind or non compos mentis shall be valid without the Consent of the Court of Chancery, to be obtained in a summary Manner by Petition to the said Court of Chancery by any Party interested thereon.

The Purposes and Periods of Time for which Leases may be made under this Act shall be as follows:

Forms of Leases under this Act.

V. A Lease made by a Person empowered by this Act may be made of any Quantity of Land, not exceeding in the whole Five Acres, for a Site for a Place of Worship for such Congregation, and for the Residence of their Clergymen, Ministers, or Pastors, and for the Erection of a School or Schools and School Accommodation in connexion therewith, and for a Burial Ground for the Interment of its deceased Members, or for any One or more of such Purposes, and such Leases may be made in Fee Farm, or for any Term not exceeding Nine hundred and ninety-nine Years.

Provisions as to Leases made previous to the Act.

VI. Where any Lease or Grant shall have been made before the passing of this Act for any of the Purposes aforesaid, and for a Period less than the Term for which a Lease may be made under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Person enabled to make a Lease of such Land under this Act to accept a Surrender of such existing Lease or Grant, and make a new Lease under this Act of the same Land, or of the same Land and any other Land in conjunction therewith, provided that the entire Quantity comprised in such new Lease shall not exceed Five Acres.

Rent reserved in any Lease to be the best improved Rent.

VII. The Rent reserved in any Lease made under this Act shall be the best improved Rent that at the Time of making such Lease can be obtained or reasonably expected from a solvent Tenant without Fine or Consideration of any Kind: Provided always, that in case of the Surrender of an existing Lease, and the Grant of a new Lease, of the same Land, under Section Six, the Value of any Buildings, Erections, or Improvements on said Lands theretofore made for any of the Purposes aforesaid shall not be taken into account in estimating the Rent to be reserved in such new Lease.

Conditions, &c. of Leases to be specified.

VIII. Every Lease made under this Act shall specify the Purposes for which it shall be made, and shall imply the following Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements on the Part of the Lessee, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, with the Lessor, his Executors, Administrators, and Successors in Estate, and the same shall be as effectual and binding as if they were expressly inserted in such Lease:

That the Lessee shall pay, when due, the Rent reserved, and all Taxes and Impositions payable by the Tenant:

That the Lessee shall repair, maintain, and keep the demised Premises during the Term in good and substantial Repair, with all Buildings, Fixtures, and Improvements:

That the demised Premises shall be applied for no other Purposes than those expressed in the Lease, or of the like Nature, and in default thereof it shall be lawful for the Lessor and his Successors in Estate to re-enter:

That in case the said Lands shall not be used for any of the Purposes expressed in said Lease for a Period of Three Years, it shall be lawful for the Lessor and his Successors in Estate to re-enter:

That it shall be lawful for the Landlord and his Agent at all reasonable Times to enter on and inspect the Premises:

Also to re-enter in case of any unlawful Assignment or Subletting.

Reserved Rent, &c. to enure to proper Owner.

IX. The Rents reserved and the Covenants and Conditions contained or implied in any Lease made under this Act shall enure to the Persons who for the Time being would, if such Lease had not been made, be entitled to the actual Possession of the Lands comprised in the said Lease, or to the Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof, according to their Estates and Interests therein.

Lease to be by Indenture.

X. Every Lease made under this Act shall be by Indenture sealed and delivered by or on behalf of the Lessor in the Presence of One or more than One Witness, and a Counterpart of every such Lease shall be executed by the Lessee thereof.

And with respect to the Force and Efficacy of Leases to be made pursuant to this Act, be it enacted as follows:

Lease to be binding on Lessor, his Heirs and Successors in Estate.

XI. Every Lease made pursuant to the Provisions of this Act shall be valid and effectual to bind the Lessor, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Assigns, and Successors in Estate, and all Persons whomsoever deriving under the same Title or Settlement as that under which the Lessor derives, and notwithstanding any Entail, Law, or Custom to the contrary, and whether there be any leasing Power annexed or belonging to the Estate of such Lessor, but so as not to prejudice or interfere with any other Power of leasing to him belonging.

Informality in Proceedings not to affect the Lease.

XII. Where any Lease made in the intended Exercise of any supposed leasing Power conferred by this or any other Act of Parliament, or by any Settlement, shall be invalid by reason of the Lessor not having at the Time Power to make such Lease, and the Estate of such Lessor in the Lands comprised in such Lease shall have continued or shall have accrued and continued until after such Lease might have been lawfully granted, such Lease shall take effect out of such Estate, and be as valid as if it had been granted at such last-mentioned Time, provided such Lease had not been then already surrendered or relinquished.

Lease, in virtue of Power, valid though not expressed.

XIII. Where any Lease shall be made by a Lessor having a Power of leasing the Lands comprised in such Lease, and such Lease cannot take effect or have Continuance independently of such leasing Power, every such Lease shall take effect and be as valid as if the same were intended and had been expressed to have been granted in exercise of the said Power, although such Power be not referred to.

CAP. XL.

An Act for further promoting the Establishment of free Public Libraries and Museums in Ireland. [26th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present 'Majesty, Chapter One hundred and one, and to give greater Facilities for the Establishment in 'Ireland of free Public Libraries and Museums or Schools of Science and Art:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

16 & 17 Vict. c. 101. and Sec. 99. of 17 & 18 Vict. c. 103. repealed.

I. The said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and one, and Section Ninety-nine of the Towns Improvement Act (Ireland), 1854, are hereby repealed; but such Repeal shall not invalidate or affect anything already done in pursuance of either of such Acts; and all Public Libraries and Museums established in Ireland under either of those Acts shall be considered as having been established under this Act.

Lands, &c. may be appropriated, purchased, or rented for the Purposes of this Act.

IX. The Council or Board of any Borough and the Town Commissioners of any Town respectively may from Time to Time, with the Approval of Her Majesty's Treasury, appropriate for the Purposes of this Act any Lands vested, as the Case may be, in a Borough in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and in a Town in the Town Commissioners, and may also, with such Approval, purchase or rent any Lands or any suitable Buildings, and the Council or Board and Town Commissioners respectively may, upon any Lands so appropriated, purchased, or rented respectively, erect any Buildings suitable for Public Libraries or Museums or Schools of Science and Art, or both, and may apply, take down, alter, and extend any Buildings for such Purposes, and rebuild, repair, and improve the same respectively, and fit up, furnish, and supply the same respectively with all requisite Furniture, Fittings, and Conveniences.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18 incorporated.

X. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall be incorporated with this Act; but the Council or Board, and Commissioners respectively shall not purchase or take any Lands otherwise than by Agreement.

Lands, &c. may be sold or exchanged.

XI. The Council or Board and Commissioners aforesaid respectively may, with the like Approval as is required for the Purchase of Lands, sell any Lands vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or Board, or Town Commissioners respectively, for the Purposes of this Act, or exchange the same for any Lands better adapted for the Purposes; and the Monies to arise from such Sale, or to be received for Equality of Exchange, or a sufficient Part thereof, shall be applied in or towards the Purchase of other Lands better adapted for such Purposes.

General Management to be vested in Council or Board, or Town Commissioners.

XII. The general Management, Regulation, and Control of such Libraries and Museums or Schools of Science and Art shall be, as to any Borough, vested in and exercised by the Council or Board, and as to any Town, in and by the Town Commissioners, or such Committee as they respectively may from Time to Time appoint, who may from Time to Time purchase and provide the necessary Fuel, Lighting, and other similar Matters, Books, Newspapers, Maps, and Specimens of Art and Science, for the Use of the Library or Museum, and cause the same to be bound or repaired, when necessary, and appoint salaried Officers and Servants, and dismiss the same, and make Rules and Regulations for the Safety and Use of the Libraries and Museums or Schools of Science and Art, and for the Admission of Visitors.

In whom Property of Library, &c. to be vested.

XIII. The Lands and Buildings so to be appropriated, purchased, or rented as aforesaid, and all other Real and Personal Property whatever presented to or purchased for any Library or Museum or School of Science and Art established under this Act, shall be vested, in the Case of a Borough, in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and in the Case of a Town in the Town Commissioners.

In case First Meeting decide not to adopt Act.

XIV. If any Meeting called as herein-before provided to consider as to the Adoption of this Act for any Borough or Town shall determine against such Adoption, no Meeting for a similar Purpose shall be held for the Space of One Year at least from the Time of holding the previous Meeting.

Museums to be free.

XV. The Admission to all Libraries and Museums established under this Act shall be open to the Public free of all Charge.

This Act to be incorporated with Local Acts in force in Borough or Town.

XVI. Upon the coming into operation of this Act in any Borough it shall, as regards such Borough, be incorporated with the said Act of the Third and Fourth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and eight, and upon the coming into operation of this Act in any Town it shall, as regards such Town, be incorporated with the Act or Acts in force therein relating to the Powers and Duties of the Town Commissioners.

CAP. XLI.

An Act for abolishing the Jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts of England and Wales in Suits for Defamation. [26th June 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts in Suits for Defamation has ceased to be 'the Means of enforcing the Spiritual Discipline of the Church, and has become grievous and 'oppressive to the Subjects of this Realm:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Jurisdiction of Ecclesiastical Courts in Suits for Defamation abolished.

I. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Court in England or Wales to entertain or adjudicate upon any Suit for or Cause of Defamation, any Statute, Law, Canon, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons in Custody for Defamation under Order of Ecclesiastical Courts to be discharged, but such Order not to be made until Costs are paid, or One Month's Imprisonment suffered.

II. In the Case of every Person committed to Gaol before the passing of this Act under any Writ De contumace capiendo, issued in consequence of any Proceedings before any Ecclesiastical Court, in any Cause or Suit for Defamation of Character, the Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court before whom such Proceedings shall have been had shall make an Order upon the Officer in whose Custody such Person is for discharging such Person out of Custody, and such Officer shall, on the Receipt of such Order, forthwith discharge such Person; and it shall not be necessary for such Person to take any Oath of future Obedience to his or her Ordinary: Provided always, that such Order shall not be made unless the Costs lawfully incurred in any such Suit shall have been previously paid into the Registry of such Ecclesiastical Court, or unless the Person against whom such Costs shall have been decreed shall have already suffered Imprisonment for One Month in consequence of Nonpayment thereof.

CAP. XLII.

An Act to enable British Diplomatic and Consular Agents abroad to administer Oaths and do Notarial Acts. [2d July 1855.]

6 G. 4. c. 87.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-seven, 'Powers are given to British Consuls General and Consuls to administer Oaths and do Notarial 'Acts in the Foreign Places to which they are appointed; and it is expedient that the like Powers 'should be given to Ambassadors and other Diplomatic Agents and to Vice-Consuls and Consular 'Agents abroad:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. From

Oaths may be administered by Ambassadors and other British Ministers abroad.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for every British Ambassador, Envoy, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, or Secretary of Embassy or of Legation exercising his Functions in any Foreign Country, and for every British Vice-Consul, Acting Consul, Pro-Consul, or Consular Agent (as well as every Consul General or Consul) exercising his Functions in any Foreign Place, whenever he shall be thereto required, and whenever he shall see necessary, to administer in such Foreign Country or Place any Oath or to take any Affidavit or Affirmation from any Person whomsoever, and also to do and perform in such Foreign Country or Place all and every Notarial Acts or Act which any Notary Public could or might be required and is by Law empowered to do within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every such Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation, and every such Notarial Act, administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done by or before such Ambassador, Envoy, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Vice-Consul, Acting Consul, Pro-Consul, or Consular Agent, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, and shall be of like Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation, or Notarial Act, respectively, had been administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done before any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or before any other legal or competent Authority of the like Nature.

Affidavits taken before Ambassadors, &c. abroad may be used in Courts in the United Kingdom.

II. Affidavits and Affirmations so taken as aforesaid under the said Act of King George the Fourth or this Act shall and may be received, read, and made use of in and before any Court of Law or Equity, or other Judicature whatever in any Part of the United Kingdom, and the Judges and Officers thereof, in or in relation to any Action, Suit, Cause, Matter, or Proceeding in or before any such Court or Judicature, in like Manner, and shall be of the same Force and Effect, as Affidavits and Affirmations taken in or before such Court or Judicature, or by any Person duly commissioned or authorized by such Court or Judicature to take such Affidavits or Affirmations, and shall be filed and dealt with accordingly.

Documents to be Evidence without Proof of Seal or Signature of Ambassador or other official Person.

III. Any Document purporting to have affixed, impressed, or subscribed thereon or thereto the Seal and Signature of any British Ambassador, Envoy, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, Acting Consul, Pro-Consul, or Consular Agent, in testimony of any such Oath, Affidavit, Affirmation, or Act having been administered, sworn, affirmed, had, or done by or before him, shall be admitted in Evidence, without Proof of any such Seal and Signature being the Seal and Signature of the Person whose Seal and Signature the same purport to be, or of the official Character of such Person.

Persons swearing or affirming falsely guilty of Perjury.

IV. Any Person knowingly and wilfully making any false Oath, Affidavit, or Affirmation before any Person having Authority to administer such Oath or take such Affidavit or Affirmation under the said Act of King George the Fourth or this Act, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and such Offender may be charged, proceeded against, tried, and dealt with in any County or Place in the United Kingdom in the same Manner in all respects as if the Offence had been committed in such County or Place.

Persons forging Seal or Signature guilty of Felony.

V. If any Person shall forge any such Seal or Signature as aforesaid, or shall tender in Evidence any such Document as aforesaid with a false or counterfeit Seal or Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall upon Conviction be liable to Penal Servitude for the Term of Four Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years nor less than One Year; and whenever any such Document has been admitted in Evidence by virtue of this Act, the Court or the Person who has admitted the same may, at the Request of any Party against whom the same is so admitted in Evidence, direct that the same shall be impounded and be kept in the Custody of some Officer of the Court or other proper Person for such Period, and subject to such Conditions, as to the said Court or Person shall seem meet; and every Person charged with committing any Felony under this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in the County, District, or Place in which he may be apprehended or be in Custody; and every Accessory before or after the Fact to any such Offence may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence laid and charged to have been committed, in any County, District, or Place in which the principal Offender may be tried.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act to enable Infants, with the Approbation of the Court of Chancery, to make binding Settlements of their Real and Personal Estate on Marriage. [2d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS great Inconveniences and Disadvantages arise in consequence of Persons who marry during Minority being incapable of making binding Settlements of their Property:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Infants may, with Approbation of Court of Chancery, make

I. From and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for every Infant upon or in contemplation of his or her Marriage, with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery, to make a valid and binding Settlement or Contract for a Settlement of all or any Part of his or her Property, or Property over which he or valid Settlements or Contracts for Settlements of their Estate upon Marriage.

or she has any Power of Appointment, whether Real or Personal, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy; and every Conveyance, Appointment, and Assignment of such Real or Personal Estate, or Contract to make a Conveyance, Appointment, or Assignment thereof, executed by such Infant, with the Approbation of the said Court, for the Purpose of giving Effect to such Settlement, shall be as valid and effectual as if the Person executing the same were of the full Age of Twenty-one Years: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not extend to Powers of which it is expressly declared that they shall not be exercised by an Infant.

In case Infant die under Age, Appointment, &c. to be void.

II. Provided always, That in case any Appointment under a Power of Appointment, or any disentailing Assurance, shall have been executed by any Infant Tenant in Tail under the Provisions of this Act, and such Infant shall afterwards die under Age, such Appointment or disentailing Assurance shall thereupon become absolutely void.

The Sanction of the Court of Chancery to be given upon Petition.

III. The Sanction of the Court of Chancery to any such Settlement or Contract for a Settlement may be given, upon Petition presented by the Infant or his or her Guardian, in a summary Way, without the Institution of a Suit; and if there be no Guardian, the Court may require a Guardian to be appointed or not, as it shall think fit; and the Court also may, if it shall think fit, require that any Persons interested or appearing to be interested in the Property should be served with Notice of such Petition.

Not to apply to Males under 20, or Females under 17 Years of Age.

IV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall apply to any Male Infant under the Age of Twenty Years, or to any Female Infant under the Age of Seventeen Years.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to amend an Act of last Session, to provide for the Establishment of a National Gallery of Paintings, Sculpture, and the Fine Arts, for the Care of a Public Library, and the Erection of a Public Museum, in Dublin. [2d July 1855.]

17 & 18 Vict. c. 99.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, to provide, amongst other things, for the Establishment of a National Gallery of Paintings, Sculpture, and the Fine Arts in Ireland, and it is expedient to amend the said Act as herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Donors of 10*l.* to vote at Election of Governors.

I. So much of the Twelfth Section of the said recited Act as enables Persons who shall have made a Donation to the Governors and Guardians of the National Gallery of Ireland, for the Purposes of their Trust, of not less than Two Guineas in Money, to vote at the Election and Nomination of Persons to fill Vacancies in such Governors and Guardians, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and the Privilege of voting at such Election and Nomination shall extend and apply only to every Donor of Money to the said Governors and Guardians of a Sum not less than Ten Pounds in Money: Provided always, that the Provisions of the said Act for the Election and Nomination of Governors and Guardians of the said Gallery shall not hereby be affected (except as herein-after mentioned), further or otherwise than by substituting Donors of not less than Ten Pounds in Money for Donors of not less than Two Guineas in Money, as aforesaid.

Donors of 10*l.* to any Fund transferred to Governors of National Gallery to vote at Election of Governors.

II. Every Person who shall have been a Subscriber of a Sum not less than Ten Pounds in Money to any Fund raised by public Subscription, and appropriated for the Purposes of the said National Gallery by the Subscribers to such Fund or the Trustees thereof (by and with the Consent of the Governors and Guardians of the said Gallery, or of the Building Trustees created by the said Act of last Session for the Purposes of their Trust respectively), shall be deemed a Donor of the like Sum to the Governors and Guardians of the National Gallery of Ireland, and shall be entitled to vote and take part at such Elections of Governors and Guardians to the said Gallery, as in the said Act and herein-before mentioned.

Joint Donors entitled to vote at Elections of Governors, &c.

III. In every Case where a Subscription exceeding Ten Pounds in Money to the said Governors and Guardians, or to any Fund appropriated as aforesaid, shall have been or shall hereafter be made jointly by Two or more Donors, each of such joint Donors shall be entitled to vote at such Elections of Governors and Guardians, as herein-before mentioned, in case the Amount of such joint Subscription when divided by the Number of such joint Donors shall give a net Subscription of Ten Pounds or upwards for each of such Donors, but not otherwise.

Five to be a Quorum of the Board of Governors, &c.

IV. At all Meetings of the Body Corporate of the Governors and Guardians of the said National Gallery Five shall be a Quorum for the Transaction of Business: Provided nevertheless, that no Painting, Statue, or other Work of Art shall be purchased for the said Gallery, or out of the Funds of the said Body Corporate, unless such Purchase shall be authorized by a Resolution of the said Governors and Guardians passed at a Meeting at which at least Nine Members of the said Body Corporate shall be present.

Power to Public Bodies to deposit Works of Art in the National Gallery of Ireland.

V. It shall be lawful for the Governors, Directors, or Trustees of every public Institution, and for the Governing Body of every Corporation, having or which shall have or be possessed, in trust or otherwise, of any Statue, Painting, or other Work of Art, and they and every of them are hereby empowered, by and with the Consent of the said Governors and Guardians of the National Gallery of Ireland, from Time to Time to deposit the same in the Custody and Charge of the last-mentioned Governors and Guardians, for Exhibition, for and during such Time and Times, and subject to such Conditions for securing

securing the proper Care and Preservation of such Works of Art, as may be agreed upon; and it shall be lawful for the said Governors and Guardians of the National Gallery of Ireland, out of the Funds of the said Body Corporate, from Time to Time to expend such Sums of Money as they may think proper in defraying the Expense of the Transmission to and from their Gallery and of the Insurance of any Works of Art as may from Time to Time be lent to or deposited with the said Governors and Guardians by any public Bodies, Trustees, or private Individuals.

17 & 18 Vict. c. 99. s. 11. repealed as far as regards Number of outgoing Governors.

VI. The Eleventh Section of the said Act of last Session shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and each of the Governors and Guardians of the National Gallery of Ireland, save and except the First Five of them mentioned in the Seventh Section of the said Act, shall continue to hold Office, subject to the Provisions of the said Act, for the Term of Five Years at a Time from the Time of his becoming such Governor and Guardian, and not longer, but at the Expiration of such Five Years he shall be eligible to be re-appointed or re-elected as such Governor and Guardian.

This Act and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 99. as One. Short Title.

VII. This Act shall be construed with the said Act of last Session as One Act; and in all Acts, Deeds, Documents, Proceedings, Suits, and Prosecutions this Act and the said Act of last Session may be cited and described by the Name of "The National Gallery of Ireland Acts, 1854–55."

CAP. XLV.

An Act for further assimilating the Practice in the County Palatine of Lancaster to that of other Counties with respect to the Trial of Issues from the Superior Courts at Westminster. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS by the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, Section One hundred and three, it was enacted, that Records of the Superior Courts at Common Law should be brought to Trial and entered and disposed of in the Counties Palatine in the same Manner as in other Counties: And whereas it was provided by the Fifth Section of the Twenty-fourth Chapter of an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, that Justices of Assize to be made and assigned within the County Palatine of Lancaster should be made and ordained by Commission under the King's usual Seal of Lancaster, and in pursuance of the said Proviso One Chief Justice and One other Justice, being respectively Judges of the Superior Courts at Westminster, have been from Time to Time constituted and ordained, by Grants contained in separate Letters Patent under the Seal of the County Palatine of Lancaster: And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for assimilating the Practice of the said County Palatine of Lancaster to that of other Counties, with respect to the Trial of Issues from the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster:' Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, hereafter to issue Commissions of Assize under the Seal of the County Palatine of Lancaster directed to the Judges appointed for the Time being to the respective Offices of Chief Justice and Justice of Common Pleas within the said County Palatine of Lancaster, and to such of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, Serjeants and Barristers-at-Law, having Patents of Precedence, or Precedence within the Bar, of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and other Serjeants-at-Law to be from Time to Time selected for that Purpose, authorizing and commanding them to take all the Assizes, Juries, and Certificates, before whatever Justices arraigned, in the said County of Lancaster, in like Manner and with the like Effect as such Commissions are issued into other Counties, together with the like Writs or Commissions of Association, and other Writs and Proceedings, as in other Counties, and that every Person so authorized shall have the like Power to be and act as a Judge or Commissioner of Assize for the Trial of Issues from the Superior Courts of Law at Westminster and other Issues in the said County Palatine of Lancaster as any Person so authorized has in any other County, and shall also be deemed to be authorized by such Commission, and shall thereby have full Authority to act as a Judge for the Trial of any Issues of Fact in any Causes depending in the said Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster: Provided, and it is declared, that nothing herein contained shall deprive the Chief Justice or Justice appointed or so ordained as aforesaid by Grant contained in Letters Patent of any Authority or Jurisdiction to try Issues from the Superior Courts at Westminster and other Issues in the said County Palatine of Lancaster, and that all Trials of such Issues heretofore had or to be had before such Chief Justice or Justice constituted or ordained as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been and to be tried by competent Authority, and that the acting Prothonotary for the Time being of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster shall continue to officiate as Associate in the said County Palatine of Lancaster, as heretofore, and shall accordingly be named in such Commissions of Association and other Writs and Proceedings.

Her Majesty may issue Commissions to Chief Justice, &c. of Common Pleas in the County Palatine of Lancaster, &c. authorizing them to take all the Assizes, Juries, &c. in the said County in like Manner as in other Counties.

CAP. XLVI.

An Act for disafforesting the Forest of Woolmer. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Queen's most Excellent Majesty in right of Her Crown is seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of and in Woolmer Forest in the County of Southampton, and of and in the Soil thereof, and the Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood standing and growing thereon,

'thereon, subject to divers Claims of Rights of Common and other Rights and Interests of Her Majesty 'and of divers of Her Majesty's Subjects in and over the same or some Portions thereof: And whereas 'by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late 52 G. 3. c. 71. 'Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better Cultivation of Navy Timber in the 'Forest of Woolmer in the County of Southampton, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His 'Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time to inclose, sever, and improve, within and out 'of the Waste Lands of the said Forest, any Quantity of the said Lands not exceeding in the whole 'Two thousand Acres, to be inclosed and held in Severalty at One and the same Time, and that such 'Inclosure should remain in Severalty in the actual Possession of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, 'freed and discharged of and from all manner of Rights, Titles, Pretences, and Privileges or Claims 'whatsoever, (other than and except as therein stated,) during the Period of the same remaining so 'inclosed for the Growth and Preservation of Timber, and until the same or any Part thereof should 'be laid open, under the Provisions of the now reciting Act: And whereas, in pursuance of the Powers 'in the said Act contained, certain Parts of the Waste Lands of the said Forest, containing in all One 'thousand seven hundred Acres or thereabouts, were inclosed for the Purposes of the said Act, and 'continue inclosed: And whereas the Lands in the said Forest might be made more valuable and pro- 'ductive if the said Forest were disafforested: And whereas Her Majesty has been graciously pleased 'to signify Her Consent that the said Forest should be disafforested, and that the Officers of Her 'Majesty of or for the said Forest should be discharged, and that such Allotment should be made to 'Her Majesty in respect of Her Estate, Rights, and Interests in and over the said Forest, and that 'such Compensation should be made to the Officers of the said Forest, as herein-after provided:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Recited Act (in part) repealed.

I. So much of the said recited Act as is inconsistent with any Part of this Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Appointment of Commissioners for ascertaining Boundaries of the Forest, and for carrying this Act into execution.

II. The Provisions of this Act shall be carried into execution by Commissioners to be appointed as herein-after mentioned; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Boundaries of the said Forest, the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution shall be Three in Number, One of whom shall be appointed in Writing by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, One other shall be appointed by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales for the Time being, and the Third shall be appointed by the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench for the Time being; and for carrying all the other Requirements of this Act into execution there shall be but One Commissioner, to be appointed as aforesaid, who shall be the Commissioner appointed by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales; and so often as any Vacancy shall occur, by Death, Resignation, or Incapacity, a new Commissioner shall be appointed, in like Manner as the Commissioner whose Vacancy is to be supplied was appointed; and all such Commissioners, or such sole Commissioner, when appointed respectively, shall be the Commissioners or the sole Commissioner for carrying this Act into execution respectively, and all Acts and Powers to be performed by or given to the said Three Commissioners under the Provisions herein contained may be performed or exercised by any Two of such Three Commissioners.

Commissioners to make and subscribe Declaration before entering upon Execution of Office.

III. Every Commissioner shall, before he enters upon the Execution of his Office, make and subscribe the following Declaration before One of the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas, or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer; that is to say,

'I DO solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my 'Skill and Judgment, execute the Powers and Duties of a Commissioner under an Act passed in 'the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act," &c. [here set forth 'the Title of this Act].'

And every such Declaration shall, when made and perfected, be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Inrolments.

Commissioners to employ Surveyor, &c.

IV. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and sole Commissioner from Time to Time to employ a Land Surveyor and Valuer in such Manner as they respectively shall think necessary.

Land Surveyor and Valuer to make and subscribe Declaration of Fidelity.

V. Every Land Surveyor and Valuer so to be employed shall, before entering upon the Duties of his Office, make and subscribe, before the Commissioners of this Act, or before One of such Commissioners, (who are hereby severally authorized to administer or receive the same,) the Declaration following:

'I DO solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my 'Skill and Judgment, perform all the Duties which may devolve upon me as a Land Surveyor and Valuer in the Matter of an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act," &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act].'

And every such Declaration shall, when made and perfected, be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Inrolments.

VI. The

The Commissioners of Woods to pay the Commissioners of this Act the Expenses incurred in the Performance of their Duties.

VI. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, pay and allow to the Commissioners and sole Commissioner of this Act such Sum not exceeding the Sum of Seven hundred and fifty Pounds as shall be thought sufficient and in proportion to the Time and Labour which may be bestowed by them respectively in carrying this Act into execution (such Proportion, in the event of any Difference of Opinion with regard thereto, to be conclusively determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury), and shall also allow to the said Commissioners and sole Commissioner of this Act respectively all Costs and Expenses of employing any such Land Surveyor and Valuer as aforesaid, and all other reasonable Expenses incurred by them respectively in the Performance of their respective Duties under this Act.

Boundaries of Forest, when ascertained by Commissioners, to be true Boundaries for Purposes of Act.

VII. The said Three Commissioners of this Act shall forthwith proceed to ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest, and to determine all Claims relating thereto, and for that Purpose shall or may make use of any existing Maps, Plans, or Surveys, at their Discretion; and the said Commissioners shall by their Award in Writing, executed in Duplicate within One Year from the passing of this Act, certify and determine the Boundaries of the said Forest, and the Boundaries as ascertained and determined by the said Commissioners shall be held to be the true Boundaries of the said Forest for all the Purposes of this Act.

All Lodges and Lands held therewith, and all Inclosures made under Authority of 52 G. 3. c. 71. to be vested in Her Majesty.

VIII. So soon as the Boundaries of the said Forest shall have been ascertained as aforesaid, all and every Parts and Part of the said Forest of which Her Majesty is seised in right of Her Crown, discharged of all Common and other Rights, and also all and every the Lodges and Lands inclosed and held therewith by the Keepers or other Officers of Her Majesty (being certain Parts of the said Forest of which Her Majesty is also seised in right of Her Crown, to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, discharged of all Common and other Rights), and also all the said Pieces of Land, amounting in the whole to One thousand seven hundred Acres, so inclosed under the Authority of the said recited Act, shall become and be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part and Parcel of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of Her Crown, freed and discharged from all Rights of Common and other Rights, and from all Claims and Demands whatsoever.

Allotment to Her Majesty in satisfaction of Her Rights.

IX. The said sole Commissioner shall thereupon proceed to set out and allot to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, such Part or Parts of the remaining Part of the said Forest as, with the said Pieces of Land amounting together to One thousand seven hundred Acres, and so inclosed as aforesaid, he shall think a full, fair, and sufficient Compensation to Her Majesty for all Her forestal and other Rights in and over the said Forest, and also for all the Rights which Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, is or may be entitled to exercise and enjoy in and over the said Forest or any Part or Parts thereof, under the Authority of the said recited Act, or otherwise howsoever; and such Allotment or Allotments, when made, shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in Her and their Demesne as of Fee and as Part and Parcel of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of Her Crown, freed and discharged from all Rights and Claims of Common and all other Rights and Claims whatsoever.

Allotment to be made where most convenient to other Crown Lands.

X. In making such Allotment or Allotments as aforesaid, the said sole Commissioner shall and he is hereby required to set out and allot such Part or Parts of the said Forest as shall be conveniently situated for Occupation with the said Pieces of Land amounting to One thousand seven hundred Acres, hereby vested in Severalty in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as aforesaid.

On the making of Award, Forest to be disafforested.

XI. On the making of such Award by the sole Commissioner as herein-after directed, the said Forest of Woolmer shall be for ever disafforested, and the Residue of the said Forest shall thereupon become and be the Property of the several Persons entitled to Rights of Common in and over the said Forest, as they are now entitled to the same, freed and discharged of and from all Right of Soil or other Right or Claim of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in, to, or over the said Residue of the said Forest.

Commissioners of Woods to produce Evidence in support of the Rights of the Crown.

XII. And for enabling the said sole Commissioner to make his Award, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Woods, on behalf of Her Majesty, to produce and give to and before the said sole Commissioner Evidence in support of Her Majesty's Rights or any of them, and of the Value thereof; and it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who, in the Opinion of the said sole Commissioner, shall be interested in the Premises, to appear before the said sole Commissioner, and to adduce such Evidence as in the Opinion of the said sole Commissioner shall be admissible, for the Purpose of controverting any Statement or Evidence made or offered to the said sole Commissioner in support of the Claims or Rights of Her Majesty, or of the Value thereof respectively.

Award of Commissioner to be made within Two Years.

XIII. The said sole Commissioner shall make his Award in Writing within Two Years from the passing of this Act; and such Award shall be executed in Duplicate, and One Part (together with One Part of the Award determining the Boundaries of the said Forest) shall be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Inrolments, and the other Part thereof (together with the other Part of the said Award determining the Boundaries) shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Southampton, there to remain, and to be examined by all Persons, at all reasonable Times, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Examination.

Powers of Commissioners of Woods over Lodges, &c.

XIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Woods to exercise all the same Powers over and in respect of the Lands, Lodges, and other the Hereditaments respectively hereby vested in or to be allotted to Her Majesty as aforesaid as they are or at any Time hereafter shall be by Law enabled to exercise over and in respect of other Lands of Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases.

Commissioner may make Roads proper for Enjoyment of Forest over any Part of Forest, &c.

XV. The sole Commissioner of this Act may, if he shall think fit, set out and allot such Roads and Ways through and over the said Forest as he shall consider proper and necessary, and, with the Consent of the Owners, through and over any inclosed Lands adjoining thereto, as the said Commissioner shall think fit, and may agree to make Compensation to such Owners or Owner for making such Roads or Ways over such adjoining Lands; and such Roads shall become and be public Highways, and be kept and maintained as such, without any Notice or other Proceeding whatsoever; and, after setting out the same, all other Roads or Ways over the said Forest shall be shut up and discontinued.

The Expenses of such Roads to be defrayed by the Sale of Parts of the Forest.

XVI. The sole Commissioner of this Act shall cause such of the said Roads to be made as he in his sole Discretion shall think necessary, and shall for the Purpose of defraying the Expenses thereof, and also for the Purpose of making such Compensation (if any) as he may agree to give to any such Owner or Owners of the adjoining inclosed Lands as aforesaid, sell so much of the Waste Lands of the said Forest not hereby vested or directed to be vested in Her Majesty as he shall find necessary for these Purposes, for which Purposes his Conveyance shall vest an indefeasible Estate of Inheritance in Fee Simple in the Purchaser or Purchasers, and the Receipt of the said Commissioner shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Purchase Money; and if there shall be any Surplus of any Monies which arose from any such Sale after answering the aforesaid Purposes, the said Commissioner shall apply the same towards defraying any of the Expenses by this Act directed to be paid.

After Award, all Letters Patent, &c. to cease, and Compensation made therefor out of the Land Revenues of the Crown.

XVII. Immediately after the Award of such sole Commissioner shall have been made as herein-before directed all and every Letters Patent, Grants, Appointments, and Warrants of any Offices, Bailiwicks, Walks, or Lodges in or for the said Forest of Woolmer, and all Salaries, Gratuities, and Fees lawfully payable or allowed in respect of the same, shall thenceforth cease, and Compensation shall be made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods out of the Land Revenues of the Crown to the several Officers of the said Forest of Woolmer (whether holding Lodges and Land within the said Forest by virtue of the several Offices, or not), in consideration of the Cessation of the said several Offices, and on their relinquishing and giving up the Possession of the said Lodges and Land respectively, and all Claim and Interest therein or thereto under any Grant, Letters Patent, Appointment, or Warrant as aforesaid, which Compensation shall in every distinct and separate Case be referred to and ascertained by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or by such Person as they shall for that Purpose appoint, on the Part of Her Majesty, and by such indifferent Person as shall be appointed on the Part of each and every Officer of the said Forest interested or concerned in the Premises, and which said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or other the Person or Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, are hereby empowered to send for Persons and Papers, and to examine the Parties and Witnesses upon Oath, if necessary (which Oath any One of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Person or Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, is hereby authorized and empowered to administer); provided that, in case any Difference of Opinion shall arise on any Matter or Question touching or concerning such Compensation, then the said Referees shall from Time to Time forthwith appoint any proper and competent Person or Persons to act as an Umpire or Umpires concerning the Premises, to whom all and every such Differences shall be referred, and whose Judgment shall be binding to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Provision as to Costs.

XVIII. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses herein-before directed to be defrayed out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and all other Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by the Commissioners of Woods in and about the Execution of this Act, shall be borne and paid by them as Part of the Costs of Management of the Land Revenues of Her Majesty.

Commissioners may, if they think fit, examine Witnesses upon Declaration.

XIX. The Commissioners or sole Commissioner of this Act may examine upon Declaration all such Persons as they or he may think fit, who attend before them or him for the Purpose of giving Evidence upon any Matter or Proceeding under the Authority of this Act, and for that Purpose may administer or receive Declarations, which Declarations may be in the following Form:

'I A.B. do solemnly declare, That the Evidence I shall give before you touching the Matter in question shall be the Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth.'

Persons giving false Evidence guilty of Misdemeanor.

XX. If any Person, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully give false Evidence, or shall make or subscribe a false Declaration for the Purposes of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in the Cinque Ports. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it would conduce to the better Administration of Justice in the Cinque Ports if the 'Jurisdiction and Authority of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Constable of Dover 'Castle in relation to Civil Suits and Proceedings were abolished; and it is expedient that the Parishes 'or Places of Saint John the Baptist (called Margate), Saint Peter the Apostle, Birchington, Acol other- 'wise the Ville of Wood, Beakesbourne, and Grange otherwise Grench which are Members or Liberties 'of Dover, or some other of the said Cinque Ports, should be severed therefrom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Jurisdiction of Lord Warden in Civil Proceedings abolished.

I. From and after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five all Jurisdiction and Authority of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Constable of Dover Castle in or in relation to the Administration of Justice in Actions, Suits, or other Civil Proceedings at Law or in Equity, or the Execution of Judgments, Writs, and Process therein or connected therewith, shall cease and determine: Provided always, that the said Lord Warden and Constable shall have and retain Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority to execute all Writs of Fieri facias directed to and received by him on or before the said Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not passed.

Writs and Judgments to be directed and executed in the Cinque Ports as in other Places.

II. From and after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five Her Majesty's Writs in or in relation to all Actions, Suits, and Civil Proceedings shall be directed and obeyed, and the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity, and of the Judges thereof, and the Judgments and Process thereof in relation to such Actions, Suits, and Proceedings, shall extend and be exercised and executed in respect of, over, and within the Cinque Ports, the Two ancient Towns of Winchelsea and Rye, and their several Members and Liberties, in like Manner and to the same Extent to and for all Intents and Purposes as such Writs, Jurisdiction, Judgments, and Process respectively are now directed, obeyed, exercised, and executed in respect of, over, and within other Places in England; and the Sheriff and other Ministers of Counties shall, in the Execution of such Judgments, Writs, and Process, and for all other Purposes of Civil Justice, have such and the like Powers and Authorities within the Cinque Ports, the said Two ancient Towns, and their several Members and Liberties, as they respectively have in other Parts of their Counties.

On Petition of Inhabitants of Parishes within the Thanet Division, Her Majesty may order such Parishes to be Part of said County;

III. If the Persons rated to the Relief of the Poor within the District or Division called the Thanet Division of Dover, which comprises the Parishes or Places of Saint John the Baptist (called Margate), Saint Peter the Apostle, Birchington, Acol otherwise the Ville of Wood, or within the Parishes of Beakesbourne and Grange otherwise Grench, or the Persons so rated within any One or more of such Parishes or Places, shall petition Her Majesty, stating that the Justices of the County of Kent, at their Annual General Session, or at any Adjournment thereof, have resolved that the Parishes or Places aforesaid or any One or more of them may be permitted to belong to the County of Kent, on Payment by the said Parishes or Places to the County of a Sum of Money to be named in such Resolution, in respect of the Expenditure made by the said Justices in Gaols, Houses of Correction, Courts of Justice, Lunatic Asylums, and other Buildings, and praying that the Parishes or Places aforesaid or any One or more of them may be deemed to be Part of the said County, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She shall think fit, by the Advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Parishes or Places or such One or more of them as shall so petition shall, from a Date to be fixed in such Order, be deemed to be Part of the said County; and from and after that Period the Justices for the Time being assigned to keep the Peace in and for such County shall exercise the Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in and for the Parishes or Places named in such Order as fully as by Law they and each of them can or ought to do in and for other Places in such County.

and County Justices to have Jurisdiction.

Justices of Kent empowered to levy County Rates in the Parishes and Places which may be severed from Dover.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Justices of the said County of Kent at their Annual General Session, or at any Adjournment thereof to be holden after such Order, to levy and raise upon and from the rateable Property of the Inhabitants of the Parishes or Places comprised in the said Order the Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in such Resolution, by such annual or other Instalments as may in such Resolution have been stipulated and agreed by fair and equal Rates in the Nature of County Rates to be paid to the Treasurer of the said County, and applied in aid of the County Rate, and the said Justices of the said County shall have the same Powers and Remedies for making, levying, and recovering the said Rates as they now or for the Time being may by Law have for making, levying, and recovering the County Rates from Parishes lying partly within the Jurisdiction of the Justices of the said County, subject to all Rights and Remedies of Appeal and otherwise to which County Rates are or may be liable.

51 G. 3. c. 36. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. s. 135. and Section 11. and Part of Section 10. of

V. From and after the Day fixed in such Order, or from and after the granting of a Charter of Incorporation to the said Parishes or Places or any One of them, or any Part or Parts thereof, the Act of the Fifty-first Year of King George the Third, Chapter Thirty-six, and Section One hundred and thirty-five of the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 105. repealed as to Places severed from Dover.

Chapter Seventy-six, and Section Eleven of the Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and Five, and so much of Section Ten of the same Act as enacts that the Noncorporate Members and Liberties of the Towns and Ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and ancient Town of Rye, shall and may be chargeable and charged by the Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden for the same respectively with a due Proportion of the Expenses of such Towns and Ports and ancient Town respectively, and the Noncorporate Members and Liberties thereof, to the Payment of which Expenses Rates in the Nature of County Rates are applicable, and that the same shall and may be assessed and levied in the Manner in which Rates of that Description were assessed and levied before the passing of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, and that a due Proportion of Inhabitant Householders to serve as Grand Jurors and Jurors at the Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said Towns and Ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and of the said ancient Town of Rye, shall be summoned by the Clerks of the Peace of the said Towns and Ports and ancient Town from the Noncorporate Members and Liberties thereof respectively, and that the Attendance of such Jurors shall be enforced and their Defaults punished in the Manner by the said last-mentioned Act directed with respect to Jurors in Boroughs, shall be repealed so far as the same concern or affect the Parishes or Places named in such Order, or in case of a Charter of Incorporation the Part thereof comprised in such Charter, and from and after the Day fixed in such Order, or from and after the Date of such Charter of Incorporation, no Court of Sessions to be holden for the Town and Port of Dover, nor any Justices thereof, shall have any Jurisdiction or Authority over or in respect of the Parishes or Places comprised in the said Order, or the District comprised in any such Charter, as the Case may be, and no such Parish, Place, or District shall be liable to any Rate, Cess, or Impost to which the same or the Inhabitants thereof would but for this Act be liable as such Member or Liberty, save as herein-after otherwise provided; provided always, that all Persons who have exercised the Office of Mayor, Aldermen, or Guardians of the Poor in the said Cinque Ports, or any of them, shall be eligible for Re-election, and if elected shall have all the Powers they previously possessed.

Places severed from Dover to continue liable to existing Debt.

VI. 'And whereas the said Parishes or Places are now liable to contribute towards the Payment of 'Monies which have been borrowed on the Security of the Rates raised within the said Town and Port 'and the Limbs and Precincts of the same, under the Description of Rates in the Nature of County Rates, 'and the Interest of such Monies: And whereas Parts of the Monies so borrowed have been from Time 'to Time paid off, and the Council of the said Town and Port have from Time to Time determined what 'Portion of such Monies shall be paid off in each Year, and reported to the Recorder of Dover the rate-'able Proportion of such Sum and Interest to be assessed and levied upon each of the said Places, and 'the same has been assessed and levied accordingly:' The said Parishes of Saint John the Baptist (called Margate), Saint Peter the Apostle and Birchington, and Acol otherwise the Ville of Wood, shall, notwithstanding any such Order or Charter, continue liable to contribute towards the Satisfaction or Payment of the Debt now charged upon the said Rates; and it shall be lawful for the Council of Dover, and they are hereby required, to declare and determine from Time to Time what Portion of such Debt shall be paid off during any One Year, and to report to the Recorder of Dover the Sum required to be raised in such Year for paying off such Portion of the said Debt, and the Interest due in such Year in respect of such Debt; and the said Recorder from Time to Time, at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said Borough of Dover which shall be held next after any such Report of the said Council, shall have been made to him as aforesaid, shall ascertain the proportionate Part of such Sum which will be required to be paid by each of the Places severed from Dover by such Order or Charter as aforesaid, such proportionate Part to be ascertained and regulated by the respective rateable Values of all the Places jointly liable to the said Debt, and shall make a Rate in the Nature of a County Rate upon each of the said Places, severed as aforesaid, sufficient to raise such proportionate Part as aforesaid, with the Costs and Expenses of collecting, levying, and enforcing Payment thereof; and it shall be lawful for the Overseers or other Persons charged with the Collection of Rates made for the Relief of the Poor in each such Place, and they are hereby required to pay to the Treasurer of Dover the Amount to which the same shall be so rated, by and out of the Monies from Time to Time raised upon such Place by any Rate or Rates made for the Relief of the Poor of such Place; and on Nonpayment thereof to the said Treasurer within Thirty Days after Delivery to such Overseers or other Persons as aforesaid of a Copy of the Rate so to be made by the said Recorder as aforesaid, the same shall be recoverable, by the Warrant of any Two Justices of the Peace for the said County of Kent, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, in like Manner in every respect as any Rate in the Nature of a County Rate may be recovered and enforced by virtue of any Law now in force.

Saving as to Persons committed or held to Bail in Places separate from Dover.

VII. This Act shall not extend to deprive the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of Dover of Jurisdiction in the Case of any Person who before such Order or Charter as aforesaid may have been committed or holden to Bail for Trial at such Court of General or Quarter Sessions from any Place severed from Dover by this Act, but all Proceedings upon and in relation to such Trial, or preliminary thereto or consequent thereupon, or otherwise consequent upon such Committal or Holding to Bail, shall be continued or had in like Manner in all respects as if such Order or Charter had not been made or obtained; and all Expenses incurred by the Town and Port of Dover in any such Case (the Amount of such such Expenses to be ascertained and determined from Time to Time by the Recorder of Dover) shall be added to the Amount to be raised under the Provision herein-before contained by Rates to be levied upon the Place from which the Person may have been committed or holden to Bail.

Compensations.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to award to any Persons who may sustain by reason of the passing of this Act, or of any such Order or Charter, any Loss of Fees, Emoluments, or Advantages accruing from Offices holden by them such Compensation as, having regard to the Tenure and Nature of such respective Offices, such Commissioners deem just and proper; and all Compensation so to be awarded, except such as may be awarded in respect of any such Loss occasioned by the Severance from Dover of the Places severed from that Town and Port by such Order or Charter, shall be paid out of such Monies as shall be provided by Parliament for this Purpose; and all Compensation so to be awarded in respect of any Loss occasioned by such Order or Charter shall be certified by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to the Recorder of Dover, and shall be levied rateably upon the Places to which such Order or Charter shall relate by means of an Addition to the Rates to be made on the said Places for the Payment of the said Debt; and in case any such Compensation as last aforesaid shall continue payable after such Debt is paid off, Rates shall nevertheless continue to be made and levied in like Manner for the Payment of such Compensation until the same is fully paid, and such Compensation shall be paid thereout by the Treasurer of Dover to the Persons entitled thereto.

Prisoners in Gaol of Dover Castle to be removed to County Gaol.

IX. Every Person who on the said Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five may be in the Custody of the said Lord Warden, under or by virtue of any Jurisdiction or Authority hereby abolished, shall, as soon as conveniently may be thereafter, without Writ of Habeas corpus or other Writ for that Purpose be removed by the Gaoler or Keeper of the Gaol in Dover Castle to the Common Gaol of the County in which he may have been arrested under the Writ or other Process for his Arrest and Imprisonment, and shall be by such Gaoler or Keeper delivered into the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of such Common Goal, together with the Writ or other Process by virtue of which such Person was arrested and imprisoned, and all Writs or other Process lodged with such first-mentioned Gaoler or Keeper by virtue of which such Person is or might be detained in the Custody of the said Lord Warden; and the Gaoler or Keeper of the said Common Gaol shall give a Receipt in Writing for every Person so removed to such Common Gaol; and the reasonable Expenses of such Removal shall be paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and all Persons who may be in the lawful Custody of the said Lord Warden on the said Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five shall, until removed as aforesaid, and for and during the Time of such Removal, notwithstanding anything herein-before contained, be to all Intents and Purposes deemed and considered to be in the proper legal Custody, unless and until they respectively be sooner discharged in due Course of Law; and all Persons so removed shall, after being delivered into the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Common Gaol of such County as aforesaid, be deemed to be in the legal Custody of the Sheriff and of such Gaoler or Keeper, in like Manner as if all such Writs and Process as aforesaid had been originally directed to and to be executed by such Sheriff.

Saving Rights of Lord Warden, &c.

X. Nothing in this Act shall affect any Jurisdiction, Power, or Authority of the said Lord Warden, or of any of the Officers of the Cinque Ports or other Persons, under any Act relating to the Adjustment of Salvage, or any Jurisdiction, Power, or Authority of the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or of any of the Officers of such Court, or the Rights of the said Lord Warden to or in respect of Flotsam, Jetsam, and Lagan.

CAP. L.

An Act to amend the Provisions of the Court of Exchequer (Ireland) Act, 1850. [16th July 1855.]

13 & 14 Vict. c. 51.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Transfer of the Equitable Jurisdiction of the Court of Exchequer to the Court of Chancery in Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, that on the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty the Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland as a Court of Equity should be transferred to the Court of Chancery in Ireland: And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Powers of the said Court of Chancery with respect to Monies since directed by Parliament to be paid into the Bank of Ireland as Compensation to the Credit of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

I. That

Power to pass certain Monies into the Bank of Ireland to the Credit of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery.

I. That where by any Act heretofore passed, whether Public General or Local and Personal, any Amount or Sum of Money is authorized or required to be paid into the Bank in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, as Compensation, under any such Act or any Act incorporated therewith, it shall be lawful to pay such Money into the Bank of Ireland in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, to be placed to his Account there, and to be dealt with in like Manner as authorized by the recited Act with respect to Accounts transferred thereunder from the Court of Exchequer in Ireland to the Court of Chancery, and as fully and in all respects, and with like Powers in relation thereto, as if the said Court of Chancery had in any such Public General or Local and Personal Act as aforesaid been named therein instead of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

Monies already paid into the Court of Chancery to be dealt with by that Court.

II. Where any Amount or Sum of Money so authorized or required to be paid into the Bank in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, as Compensation, under any such Act, has already been paid into the Bank in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, such Payment shall be deemed to have been a good Payment, and shall be deemed to have had and shall have the same Effect, and the Court of Chancery shall have the like Powers in relation thereto, as if the said Court of Chancery had been named in such Act instead of the Court of Exchequer, and as well with respect to any Right, Interest, or Claim of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as of all other Bodies and Persons whatsoever.

V. The said Company shall, with the Approval of the said Commissioners, as soon as may be after the Discontinuance of the said College, sell and dispose thereof and of all Lands and Hereditaments attached thereto, or, with the like Approval, may, at any Time after the passing of this Act, contract for the Sale and Disposal of the said Premises from the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and the Proceeds of such Sale shall be received and held by the said Company in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use of the Government of India.

VI. At

VI. At any Time within Six Months before the closing of the said College, it shall be lawful for the said Company to take into consideration the Claims of the Officers and Servants of the said College whose Interests may be prejudicially affected by the Abolition of the said College, and, under the Control of the said Commissioners, to grant such Compensations, Superannuations, or Allowances as shall appear reasonable, the Charge whereof shall be defrayed by the said Company out of the Revenues of India. As to Compensations to Officers, &c.

CAP. LIV.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill, as amended, of the Legislature of New South Wales, "to confer a Constitution on New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her "Majesty." [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Legislative Council of the Colony of New South Wales, constituted and assembled 'by virtue of and under the Authority of an Act of Parliament passed in the Fourteenth Year of 'Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian 'Colonies, did, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, pass a Bill, intituled An Act to 'confer a Constitution on New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty; of which Bill, 'amended as herein-after provided, a Copy is contained in Schedule (A.) to this present Act annexed: 'And whereas the said Bill was presented for Her Majesty's Assent to the then Governor of the said 'Colony of New South Wales, and the said Governor did thereupon declare that he reserved the said 'Bill for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon: And whereas it is by the said reserved 'Bill provided, that the Provisions thereof shall have no Force or Effect until so much and such Parts 'of certain Acts of Parliament in the said Bill specified as relate to the said Colony, and are repugnant 'to the said reserved Bill, shall have been repealed, and the entire Management and Control of the Waste 'Land belonging to the Crown in the said Colony, and also the Appropriation of the gross Proceeds of 'the Sales of any such Lands, and of all other Proceeds and Revenues of the same, from whatever Source 'arising within the said Colony, including all Royalties, Mines, and Minerals, shall be vested in the 'Legislature of the said Colony: And whereas it is not competent to Her Majesty to assent to the said 'reserved Bill without the Authority of Parliament for that Purpose: And whereas it is expedient that 'Her Majesty should be authorized to assent to the said reserved Bill, amended by the Omission of certain 'Provisions thereof, respecting the Assent of the Governor to the Bills which may be passed by the 'Legislative Councils and Assemblies of the said Colony, and Her Majesty's Power to disallow the same, 'and respecting the Boundaries of the Australian Colonies, and that so much and such Parts as aforesaid 'of the said specified Acts of Parliament should thereupon be repealed, and that the entire Management 'and Control of the said Waste Lands and Proceeds should be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony: 'And whereas a Copy of the said Bill, as amended as aforesaid, is set forth in the Schedule (1.) to this 'Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 13 & 14 Vict. c. 59.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to assent to the said reserved Bill, as amended as aforesaid, and contained in Schedule (1.) to this present Act annexed, anything in the said specified Acts of Parliament, or any other Act, Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. Power to Her Majesty to assent to Bill in Schedule (1.)

II. From the Day of the Proclamation of this Act in the said Colony of New South Wales (the said reserved Bill, as amended as aforesaid, having been previously assented to by Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid,) so much and such Parts of the several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the Schedule (2.) of this Act as severally relate to the said Colony of New South Wales, and are repugnant to the said reserved Bill, amended as aforesaid, shall be repealed; and the entire Management and Control of the Waste Lands belonging to the Crown in the said Colony, and also the Appropriation of the gross Proceeds of the Sales of any such Lands, and of all other Proceeds and Revenues of the same, from whatever Source, arising within the said Colony, including all Royalties, Mines, and Minerals, shall be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony: Provided, that so much of the Acts of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, and Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-six, mentioned in the said Schedule, as relates to the Constitution, Appointment, and Powers of the Legislative Council of the said Colony of New South Wales shall continue in force until the First Writs shall have issued for the Election of Members to serve in the House of Assembly, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said reserved Bill, amended and assented to as aforesaid, but no longer: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect any Contract or to prevent the Fulfilment of any Promise or Engagement made by or on behalf of Her Majesty, with respect to any Lands situate in the said Colony, in Cases where such Contracts, Promises, or Engagements shall have been lawfully made before the Time at which this Act shall take effect within the said Colony, nor to disturb or in any way interfere with or prejudice any vested or other Rights which have accrued or belong to the licensed Occupants or Lessees of any Crown Lands within or without the settled Districts, under and by virtue of the Provisions of any of the Acts of Parliament so repealed as aforesaid, or of any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council issued in pursuance thereof. So much of the Acts in Schedule (2.) to this Act as relates to the Colony of New South Wales repealed.

III. The

Provisions of former Acts respecting the Allowance and Disallowance of Bills preserved.

III. The Provisions of the before-mentioned Act of the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, and of the Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-six, intituled An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, which relate to the giving and withholding of Her Majesty's Assent to Bills, and the Reservation of Bills for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon, and the Instructions to be conveyed to Governors for their Guidance in relation to the Matters aforesaid, and the Disallowance of Bills by Her Majesty, shall apply to Bills to be passed by the Legislative Council and Assembly constituted under the said reserved Bill and this Act, and by any other Legislative Body or Bodies which may at any Time hereafter be substituted for the present Legislative Council and Assembly.

Power to repeal and alter the Provisions of the reserved Bill.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of New South Wales to make Laws altering or repealing all or any of the Provisions of the said reserved Bill, in the same Manner as any other Laws for the good Government of the said Colony, subject, however, to the Conditions imposed by the said reserved Bill on the Alteration of the Provisions thereof in certain Particulars, until and unless the said Conditions shall be repealed or altered by the Authority of the said Legislature.

Boundaries of the Colonies of New South Wales and Victoria along the River Murray defined.

V. 'And whereas by the before-mentioned Act of the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter 'Fifty-nine, it is amongst other things enacted, that the Territories therein described as bounded on the 'North and North-east by a straight Line drawn from Cape Howe to the nearest Source of the River 'Murray, and thence by the Course of that River to the Eastern Boundary of the Colony of South 'Australia, should be erected into a separate Colony to be known and designated as the Colony of 'Victoria: And whereas Doubts have been entertained as to the true Meaning of the said Description 'of the Boundary of the said Colony:' It is hereby declared and enacted, That the whole Watercourse of the said River Murray, from its Source therein described to the Eastern Boundary of the Colony of South Australia, is and shall be within the Territory of New South Wales: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Legislatures and for the proper Officers of Customs of both the said Colonies of New South Wales and Victoria to make Regulations for the levying of Customs Duties on Articles imported into the said Two Colonies respectively by way of the River Murray, and for the Punishment of Offences against the Customs Laws of the said Two Colonies respectively committed on the said River, and for the Regulation of the Navigation of the said River by Vessels belonging to the said Two Colonies respectively: Provided also, that it shall be competent for the Legislatures of the said Two Colonies, by Laws passed in Concurrence with each other, to define in any different Manner the Boundary Line of the said Two Colonies along the Course of the River Murray, and to alter the other Provisions of this Section.

Provision for the Separation of Portions of the Territory of New South Wales.

VI. If Her Majesty shall at any Time exercise the Power given to Her by the said reserved Bill of altering the Northern Boundary of New South Wales, and if She shall in the Exercise of such Power separate from the said Colony any entire Electoral Districts, the Electoral Districts so separated shall cease to return Members to the Assembly of New South Wales; and if She shall, in the Exercise of such Power as aforesaid, separate from the said Colony any Portions of Electoral Districts, the remaining Portions not separated shall continue to return to the said Assembly the same Number of Members as if no such Separation had taken place, until the Legislature of New South Wales shall otherwise provide; and the said Assembly shall retain, so far as concerns the Colony of New South Wales as constituted after such Separation, all the Powers and Functions vested in it, though it may not thereafter consist of the same Number of Members as before.

Portions so separated may be erected into separate Colonies.

VII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent to be from Time to Time issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to erect into a separate Colony or Colonies any Territories which may be separated from New South Wales by such Alteration as aforesaid of the Northern Boundary thereof; and in and by such Letters Patent or by Order in Council to make Provision for the Government of any such Colony, and for the Establishment of a Legislature therein, in manner as nearly resembling the Form of Government and Legislature which shall be at such Time established in New South Wales as the Circumstances of such Colony will allow; and full Power shall be given in and by such Letters Patent or Order in Council to the Legislature of the said Colony to make further Provision in that Behalf.

Commencement of the Act.

VIII. This Act shall be proclaimed in New South Wales by the Governor thereof, within One Month after a Copy thereof shall have been received by such Governor, and this Act and the said reserved Bill, as amended as aforesaid (such Bill being first assented to by Her Majesty in Council), shall take effect in the said Colony from the Day of such Proclamation.

Interpretation of Terms.

IX. In the Construction of this Act the Term "Governor" shall mean the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government of New South Wales; and the Word "Legislature" shall include as well the Legislature to be constituted under the said reserved Bill and this Act, as any future Legislature which may be established in the said Colony under the Powers in the said reserved Bill and this Act contained.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

SCHEDULE (1.)

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

By His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitzroy, Knight Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Governor General of all Her Majesty's Australian Possessions, and Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same, with the Advice and Consent of the Legislative Council.

No. XLI.

An Act to confer a Constitution on New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty.

Recital of 32d Clause of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 39.

WHEREAS by the Thirty-second Clause of the Imperial Act passed in the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better "Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," it was among other things enacted, that, notwithstanding anything therein-before contained, it should be lawful for the Governor and Legislative Council of this Colony, from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts, to alter the Provisions or Laws for the Time being in force under the said Imperial Act or otherwise, concerning the Election of the Elective Members of such Legislative Council, and the Qualification of Electors and Elective Members, or to establish in the said Colony, instead of the Legislative Council, a Council and a House of Representatives, or other separate Legislative Houses, to consist of such Members, to be appointed or elected by such Person and in such Manner, as by such Act or Acts should be determined, and to vest in such Council and House of Representatives, or other separate Legislative Houses, the Powers and Functions of the Legislative Council for which the same may be substituted: And whereas it is expedient that the Powers vested by the said Act in the said Governor and Legislative Council should be exercised, and that a Legislative Council and a Legislative Assembly, as constituted by this Act, should be substituted for the present Legislative Council, with the increased Powers and Functions herein-after contained: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the Advice and Consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Parliament of New South Wales. General Powers of the Parliament. Assent to Bills. Taxation and Appropriation Bills to originate in Assembly.

I. There shall be, in place of the Legislative Council now subsisting, One Legislative Council and One Legislative Assembly, to be severally constituted and composed in the Manner herein-after prescribed; and within the said Colony of New South Wales Her Majesty shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the said Council and Assembly, to make Laws for the Peace, Welfare, and good Government of the said Colony in all Cases whatsoever: Provided, that all Bills for appropriating any Part of the Public Revenue, for imposing any new Rate, Tax, or Impost, subject always to the Limitation contained in Clause Sixty-two of this Act, shall originate in the Legislative Assembly of the said Colony.

Appointment of Legislative Councillors.

II. For the Purpose of composing the Legislative Council of New South Wales, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, before the Time to be appointed for the First Meeting of the said Legislative Council and Assembly, by an Instrument under the Sign Manual, to authorize the Governor, with the Advice of the Executive Council, in Her Majesty's Name, by an Instrument or Instruments under the Great Seal of the said Colony, to summon to the said Legislative Council of the said Colony such Persons, being not fewer than Twenty-one, as the said Governor and Executive Council shall think fit; and it shall also be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to authorize the Governor in like Manner to summon to the said Legislative Council such other Person or Persons as the said Governor and Executive Council shall think fit, and every Person who shall be so summoned shall thereby become a Member of the Legislative Council of the said Colony: Provided always, that no Person shall be summoned to the said Legislative Council who shall not be of the full Age of Twenty-one Years, and a natural-born Subject of Her Majesty, or naturalized by an Act of the Imperial Parliament, or by an Act of the Legislature of the said Colony: Provided also, that not less than Four Fifths of the Members so summoned to the Legislative Council shall consist of Persons not holding any Office of Emolument under the Crown, except Officers of Her Majesty's Sea and Land Forces on Full or Half Pay, or retired Officers on Pensions.

Tenure of Office of Councillors.

III. The Members of the First Legislative Council of the said Colony who shall be so summoned by the Governor, with the Advice of the Executive Council, shall hold their respective Seats therein for Five Years from the Date of the First Summonses to the said Legislative Council; but all future Members of the said Legislative Council who shall be summoned thereto, after the Expiration of the said Five Years, by the Governor, with the Advice of the Executive Council as aforesaid, shall hold their Seats therein for the Term of their natural Lives, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisions herein-after contained for vacating the same, and for altering and amending the future Constitution of the said Colony as established by this Act.

Resignation of Councillors.

IV. It shall be lawful for any Member of the Legislative Council to resign his Seat therein by a Letter to the Governor, and upon the Receipt of any such Letter by the Governor the Seat of such Legislative Councillor shall become vacant.

Vacating Seat by Absence.

V. If any Legislative Councillor shall, for Two successive Sessions of the Legislature of the said Colony, fail to give his Attendance in the said Legislative Council, without the Permission of Her Majesty or of the Governor of the Colony, signified by the said Governor to the Legislative Council, or shall take any Oath or make any Declaration or Acknowledgment of Allegiance, Obedience, or Adherence to any Foreign Prince or Power, or shall do, concur in, or adopt any Act whereby he may become a Subject or Citizen of any Foreign State or Power, or whereby he may become entitled to the Rights, Privileges, or Immunities of a Subject or Citizen of any Foreign State or Power, or shall become bankrupt, or take the Benefit of any Law relating to Insolvent Debtors, or become a Public Contractor or Defaulter, or be attainted of Treason, or be convicted of Felony or of any infamous Crime, his Seat in such Council shall thereby become vacant.

Trial of Questions of Vacancy.

VI. Any Question which shall arise respecting any Vacancy in the Legislative Council, on occasion of any of the Matters aforesaid, shall be referred by the Governor to the said Legislative Council, to be by the said Legislative Council heard and determined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful either for the Person respecting whose Seat such Question shall have arisen, or for Her Majesty's Attorney General for the said Colony, on Her Majesty's Behalf, to appeal from the Determination of the said Council in such Case to Her Majesty, and that the Judgment of Her Majesty, given with the Advice of Her Privy Council, thereon shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes.

Appointment of President.

VII. The Governor of the Colony shall have Power and Authority from Time to Time, by an Instrument under the Great Seal of the said Colony, to appoint One Member of the said Legislative Council to be President thereof, and to remove him and appoint another in his Stead; and it shall be at all Times lawful for the said President to take part in any Debate or Discussion which may arise in the said Legislative Council.

President may take part in Debates.

Quorum, Division, Casting Vote.

VIII. The Presence of at least One Third of the Members of the said Legislative Council, exclusive of the President, shall be necessary to constitute a Quorum for the Despatch of Business; and all Questions which shall arise in the said Legislative Council shall be decided by a Majority of Votes of the Members present, other than the President, and when the Votes shall be equal the President shall have the Casting Vote: Provided always, that if the whole Number of Members constituting the said Legislative Council shall not be exactly divisible by Three, the Quorum of the said Legislative Council shall consist of such whole Number as is next greater than One Third of the Members of the said Legislative Council.

Convoking Assembly.

IX. For the Purpose of constituting the Legislative Assembly of the said Colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor thereof, within the Time herein-after mentioned, and thereafter from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, in Her Majesty's Name, by an Instrument or Instruments under the Great Seal of the said Colony, to summon and call together a Legislative Assembly in and for the said Colony.

Number of Members of Assembly.

X. The Legislative Assembly shall for the present consist of Fifty-four Members, to be elected by the Inhabitants of the said Colony, having any of the Qualifications mentioned in the next succeeding Clause of this Act.

Qualification of Electors.

XI. The Qualifications for Electors of the Legislative Assembly shall be as follows:—Every Man of the Age of Twenty-one Years, being a natural-born or naturalized Subject of Her Majesty, or legally made a Denizen of New South Wales, and having a Freehold Estate in possession, situate in the District for which his Vote is to be given, of the clear Value of One hundred Pounds Sterling Money, above all Charges and Incumbrances in any Way affecting the same, of or to which he has been seised or entitled, either at Law or in Equity, for at least Six Calendar Months next before the last Registration of Electors, or being a Householder within such District, occupying any House, Warehouse, Countinghouse, Office, Shop, or other Building, of the clear annual Value of Ten Pounds Sterling Money, and having occupied the same for Six Calendar Months next before such Registration as aforesaid, or having a Leasehold Estate in possession, situate within such District, of the Value of Ten Pounds Sterling Money per Annum, held upon a Lease which at the Time of such Registration has not less than Three Years to run, or having a Leasehold Estate so situate and of such Value as aforesaid, of which he has been in possession for Three Years or upwards next before such Registration, or holding at the Time of such Registration a Licence from the Government to depasture Lands within the District for which his Vote is to be given, or having a Salary of One hundred Pounds a Year, and having enjoyed the same for Six Calendar Months next before such Registration, or being the Occupant of any Room or Lodging, and paying for his Board and Lodging Forty Pounds a Year, or for his Lodging only at the Rate of Ten Pounds a Year, and having occupied the same Room or Lodging for Six Calendar Months next before such Registration as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote at the Election of a Member of the Legislative Assembly: Provided always, that no Man shall be entitled to vote who has been attainted or convicted of Treason, Felony, or other infamous Offence in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, unless he have received a free or conditional Pardon for such Offence, or have undergone the Sentence passed on him for such Offence; and provided also, that no Man shall be entitled to vote unless at the Time of such Registration of Electors he shall have paid up all Rates and Taxes which shall have become payable by him as Owner or Leaseholder in respect of such Estate, or as Occupier in respect of such Occupancy, or as the Holder of a Licence in respect of such Licence, except such as shall have become payable during Three Calendar Months next before such Registration.

XII. Where

When joint Owners and Occupiers shall be entitled to be registered as Voters and to vote.

XII. Where any Premises are jointly owned, occupied, or held on Lease within the Meaning of the last preceding Clause, by more Persons than One, each of such joint Owners, Occupiers, or Leaseholders shall be entitled to be registered as a Voter and to vote in respect of the said Premises in case the Value of his individual Interest therein, separately considered, would, under the first Four Provisions of the said last preceding Section, entitle such Owner, Occupier, or Leaseholder to be registered as a Voter and to vote.

Division of the Colony into Electoral Districts, and the Number of Members to be returned by each.

XIII. Until further Provision shall be made by the Legislature of the said Colony all the Provisions contained in "The Electoral Act of 1851," passed by the late Legislative Council in the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, numbered Forty-seven, except so much of the First Clause thereof as relates to the Number and Constitution of the present Legislative Council, and so much of the Third and other Clauses thereof as is repugnant to this Act, shall be in force and apply to the Election of Members to serve in the Legislative Assembly constituted under this Act, except as follows:

Electoral Districts.

The Electoral Districts of East Camden and West Camden shall each return Two Members instead of One Member to serve in the said Legislative Assembly; the Electoral District of the united Counties of Cook and Westmoreland shall return Two Members; the Counties of Murray, Saint Vincent, Roxburgh, and Wellington shall each form an Electoral District, and each return One Member; the County of Cumberland shall be divided into Two Ridings, to be called the North and South Ridings, the North Riding commencing where the great Western Road crosses Johnstone's Creek, and bounded on the South by the Centre of that Road, bearing westerly to where it crosses the Southern Boundary of the Electoral District of Parramatta, near Beckett's Bridge, thence by Part of the Southern, by the Eastern, Northern, and Western Boundaries of the said Electoral District to the great Western Road near the Toll Bar, thence again by the Centre of that Road, bearing westerly to Emu Ferry on the Nepean River; on the West and North by the Nepean and Hawkesbury Rivers to Broken Bay, and on the East by the Sea Coast and the Southern Shores of Port Jackson to Johnstone's Creek, and by Johnstone's Creek to the Point of Commencement, exclusive of the Hamlets of Saint Leonard's and Balmain, and also excluding so much of the Cumberland Boroughs as is embraced by the Towns of Windsor and Richmond, and also so much of the Borough of Penrith as is situated on the North Side of the Western Road, and the South Riding, commencing where the great Western Road crosses Johnstone's Creek, and bounded on the North by the Centre of that Road, bearing westerly to where it crosses the Southern Boundary of the Electoral District of the Town of Parramatta near Beckett's Bridge, thence by Part of the Southern Boundary of the said Electoral District, bearing westerly to the great Western Road near the Toll Bar, thence again by the Centre of that Road, bearing westerly to Emu Ferry on the Nepean River; on the West by that River upwards to the Confluence of the Cataract River; on the South by that River upwards to its Source, and thence by a Line bearing East Twenty Degrees South to the Coast at Bulli, being the Southern Boundary of the County of Cumberland; on the East by the Sea Coast to Port Jackson, and again on the North by the Southern Shores of Port Jackson to Johnstone's Creek, and by Johnstone's Creek to the Point of Commencement, exclusive of the City of Sydney and the Hamlets of Paddington, Surry Hills, Redfern, Chippendale, O'Connell Town, Camperdown, and Glebe, and also excluding so much of the Cumberland Boroughs as is embraced by the Towns of Liverpool and Campbell Town, and also so much of the Borough of Penrith as is situated on the South Side of the Western Road; and each of the said Ridings shall return Two Members; the united Counties of Northumberland and Hunter shall return Three Members instead of Two; the County of Durham shall return Three Members instead of Two; the City of Sydney shall return Four Members instead of Three; the Sydney Hamlets, the Town of Parramatta, the Northumberland Boroughs, and the Stanley Boroughs, shall each return Two Members instead of One Member; the Electoral Districts of the pastoral Districts of the Murrumbidgee, of the Lachlan and Lower Darling, of Liverpool Plains and the Gwydir, and of New England and the M'Leay, shall each return Two Members instead of One Member to serve in the said Legislative Assembly as aforesaid.

Electoral Lists.

XIV. The new Classes of Electors entitled to vote by this Act at the Election of Members of the Legislative Assembly shall be inserted in the Electoral Lists appointed to be made by "The Electoral Act of 1851," in the Electoral Districts in which they shall be respectively resident; and all such Lists shall specify the Christian and Surnames of all such Electors, the Nature of the Qualification, and the Place where they respectively reside; and all such Lists shall be signed, delivered, printed, and hung up for public Inspection by the Persons and in the Way in the said Act prescribed, and shall be subject to the like Claims and Notice from any Person whose Name shall have been omitted therein, and to the like Objections and Notice as to the Names of any Person inserted therein, and to the like Modes of altering, amending, or continuing any such Lists as are in these said several respects provided for in the said Electoral Act of 1851, as nearly as may be consistently with the Rights of such new Electors.

Power to alter System of Representation.

XV. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of the Colony, by any Act or Acts to be hereafter passed to alter the Divisions and Extent of the several Counties, Districts, Cities, Towns, Boroughs, and Hamlets which shall be represented in the Legislative Assembly, and to establish new and other Divisions of the same, and to alter the Apportionment of Representatives to be chosen by the said Counties, Districts, Cities, Towns, Boroughs, and Hamlets respectively, and to alter the Number of Representatives to be chosen in and for the Colony and in and for the several Electoral Districts in the same, and to alter and regulate the Appointment of Returning Officers, and make such new and other Provision as they may deem expedient for the issuing and Return of Writs for the Election of Members to serve in the said Legislative Assembly and the Time and Place of holding such Elections: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to present to the Governor of the Colony, for Her Majesty's Assent, any Bill by which the Number or Apportionment of Representatives in the Legislative Assembly may be altered, unless the Second and Third Readings of such Bill in the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly respectively shall have been passed with the Concurrence of a Majority of the Members for the Time being of the said Legislative Council and of Two Thirds of the Members for the Time being of the said Legislative Assembly; and the Assent of Her Majesty shall not be given to any such Bill unless an Address shall have been presented by the Legislative Assembly to the Governor stating that such Bill has been so passed.

Qualification of Members of Assembly.

XVI. Any Person absolutely free (except as is herein-after excepted) who shall be qualified and registered as a Voter in and for any Electoral District within the said Colony, shall be qualified to be elected a Member of the Legislative Assembly for any Electoral District within the said Colony.

Members of Legislative Council incapable of being Members of Legislative Assembly.

XVII. No Person being a Member of the Legislative Council shall be capable of being elected, or of sitting or voting as a Member of the Legislative Assembly.

Disqualifying Clause of Members of Assembly.

XVIII. Any Person holding any Office of Profit under the Crown, or having a Pension from the Crown during Pleasure or for Term of Years, shall be incapable of being elected, or of sitting or voting as a Member of the Legislative Assembly, unless he be One of the following official Members of the Government, that is to say, the Colonial Secretary, Colonial Treasurer, Auditor General, Attorney General, and Solicitor General, or One of such additional Officers, not being more than Five, as the Governor, with the Advice of the Executive Council, may from Time to Time, by a Notice in the Government Gazette, declare capable of being elected a Member of the said Assembly.

Further disqualifying Clause of Members of Assembly.

Pensions of Officers of the Navy and Army.

XIX. If any Member of the said Assembly shall accept of any Office of Profit or Pension from the Crown during Pleasure or for Term of Years, his Election shall be thereupon and is hereby declared to be void, and a Writ shall forthwith issue for a new Election: Provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any Person in receipt only of Pay, Half Pay, or a Pension as an Officer in Her Majesty's Navy or Army, or who shall receive any new or other Commission in the Navy or Army respectively, or any Increase of Pay on such Commission, or to any of the official Members of the Government, or other Officers referred to in the last preceding Clause of this Act who may accept any other Office.

Disqualifying Ministers of Religion.

XX. No Person shall be capable of being elected a Member to serve in the said Assembly, and of sitting and voting therein, who shall be a Minister of the Church of England, or a Minister, Priest, or Ecclesiastic, either according to the Rites of the Church of Rome, or under any other Form or Profession of Religious Faith or Worship.

Duration of Assembly.

XXI. Every Legislative Assembly of the said Colony hereafter to be summoned and chosen shall continue for Five Years from the Day of the Return of the Writs for choosing the same, and no longer; subject, nevertheless, to be sooner prorogued or dissolved by the Governor of the said Colony.

Election of the Speaker.

XXII. The Members of the Legislative Assembly shall, upon the first assembling after every General Election, proceed forthwith to elect One of their Number to be Speaker; and in case of his Death, Resignation, or Removal by a Vote of the said Legislative Assembly, the said Members shall forthwith proceed to elect another of such Members to be such Speaker; and the Speaker so elected shall preside at all Meetings of the said Legislative Assembly, except as may be provided by the Standing Rules and Orders herein-after authorized to be made.

Quorum, Division, Casting Vote.

XXIII. The Presence of at least Twenty Members of the Legislative Assembly, exclusive of the Speaker, shall be necessary to constitute a Meeting of the said Legislative Assembly for the Despatch of Business; and all Questions (except as herein is excepted) which shall arise in the said Assembly shall be decided by the Majority of Votes of such Members as shall be present other than the Speaker, and when the Votes shall be equal the Speaker shall have the Casting Vote.

Assembly may proceed to Business, although Writs not exceeding Five shall not have been returned.

XXIV. Upon any General Election, the Legislative Assembly shall be competent to proceed to the Despatch of Business at the Time appointed by the Governor for that Purpose, notwithstanding that any of the Writs of Election (not exceeding Five) shall not have been returned, or that in any of the Electoral Districts the Electors shall have failed to elect a Member to serve in the said Assembly.

Resignation of Seats in the Assembly.

XXV. It shall be lawful for any Member of the Assembly, by Writing under his Hand, addressed to the Speaker of the said House, to resign his Seat therein, and upon the Receipt of such Resignation by the Speaker the Seat of such Member shall become vacant.

Vacating Seats of Members of Assembly in certain Cases.

XXVI. If any Member of the Assembly shall for One whole Session of the Legislature, without the Permission of the Assembly, entered upon its Journals, fail to give his Attendance in the said House, or shall take any Oath or make Declaration or Acknowledgment of Allegiance, Obedience, or Adherence to any Foreign Prince or Power, or do or concur in or adopt any Act whereby he may become a Subject or Citizen of any Foreign State or Power, or become entitled to the Rights, Privileges, or Immunities of a Subject of any Foreign State or Power, or shall become bankrupt or an Insolvent Debtor within the Meaning of the Laws in force within the said Colony relating to Bankrupts or Insolvent Debtors, or shall become a Public Defaulter, or be attainted of Treason, or be convicted of Felony or any infamous Crime, his Seat in such Assembly shall thereby become vacant.

to

Election to take place on Vacancies.

XXVII. When and so often as a Vacancy shall occur as aforesaid, upon a Resolution by the Assembly declaring such Vacancy and the Causes thereof, the Speaker shall cause a Writ to be issued for supplying such Vacancy: Provided, that the Speaker may issue such Writ without such preceding Resolution when the Assembly is not in Session.

Disqualifying Contractors and Persons interested in Contracts from being Members of either House.

XXVIII. Any Person who shall directly or indirectly, himself, or by any Person whatsoever in trust for him, or for his Use or Benefit, or on his Account, undertake, execute, hold, or enjoy, in the whole or in part, any Contract or Agreement for or on account of the Public Service, shall be incapable of being summoned or elected, or of sitting or voting, as a Member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly during the Time he shall execute, hold, or enjoy any such Contract, or any Part or Share thereof, or any Benefit or Emolument arising from the same; and if any Person, being a Member of such Council or Assembly, shall enter into any such Contract or Agreement, or having entered into it shall continue to hold it, his Seat shall be declared by the said Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, as the Case may require, to be void, and thereupon the same shall become and be void accordingly: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Contract or Agreement made, entered into, or accepted by any Incorporated Company, or any Trading Company, consisting of more than Twenty Persons, where such Contract or Agreement shall be made, entered into, or accepted for the general Benefit of such Incorporated or Trading Company.

Proviso exempting from Disqualification Members of Companies exceeding Twenty in Number.

Election of disqualified Persons void.

XXIX. If any Person by this Act disabled or declared to be incapable to sit or vote in the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly shall nevertheless be summoned to the said Council, or elected and returned as a Member to serve in the said Assembly for any Electoral District, such Summons, or Election and Return, shall and may be declared by the said Council and Assembly, as the Case may require, to be void, and thereupon the same shall become and be void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and if any Person, under any of the Disqualifications mentioned in the last preceding Section, shall, whilst so disqualified, presume to sit or vote as a Member of the said Council or Assembly, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by any Person who shall sue for the same in the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Penalty on their sitting or voting.

Place and Time of holding Parliament.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Governor of the Colony for the Time being to fix such Place or Places within any Part of the Colony, and such Times for holding the First and every other Session of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the said Colony, as he may think fit, such Times and Places to be afterwards changed or varied as the Governor may judge advisable and most consistent with general Convenience and the public Welfare, giving sufficient Notice thereof; and also to prorogue the said Legislative Council and Assembly from Time to Time, and to dissolve the said Assembly by Proclamation or otherwise, whenever he shall deem it expedient.

One Session of Parliament to be held in each Year.

XXXI. There shall be a Session of the Legislative Council and Assembly once at least in every Year, so that a Period of Twelve Calendar Months shall not intervene between the last Sitting of the Legislative Council and Assembly in One Session and the First Sitting of the Legislative Council and Assembly in the next Session.

First calling together of Parliament.

XXXII. The Legislative Council and Assembly shall be called together for the First Time at some Period not later than Six Calendar Months next after the Proclamation of this Act by the Governor of the said Colony.

No Member to sit or vote until he has taken the following Oath of Allegiance.

XXXIII. No Member either of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly shall be permitted to sit or vote therein until he shall have taken and subscribed the following Oath before the Governor of the Colony, or before some Person or Persons authorized by such Governor to administer such Oath:

'I A.B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to Her Majesty 'Queen Victoria, as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of 'this Colony of New South Wales, dependent on and belonging to the said United Kingdom. So help 'me GOD.'

And whensoever the Demise of Her present Majesty (whom may God long preserve) or of any of Her Successors to the Crown of the said United Kingdom shall be notified by the Governor of the Colony to the said Council and Assembly respectively, the Members of the said Council and Assembly shall, before they shall be permitted to sit and vote therein, take and subscribe the like Oath of Allegiance to the Successor for the Time being to the said Crown.

Affirmation may be made instead of Oath.

XXXIV. Provided that every Person authorized by Law to make an Affirmation instead of taking an Oath may make such Affirmation in every Case in which an Oath is herein-before required to be taken.

XXXV. The Standing Rules and Orders to be made.

XXXV. The said Legislative Council and Assembly in the First Session of each respectively, and from Time to Time afterwards as there may be occasion, shall prepare and adopt such Standing Rules and Orders as shall appear to the said Council and Assembly respectively best adapted for the orderly Conduct of such Council and Assembly respectively, and for the Manner in which such Council and Assembly shall be presided over in case of the Absence of the President or the Speaker, and for the Mode in which such Council and Assembly shall confer, correspond, and communicate with each other relative to Votes or Bills passed by or pending in such Council and Assembly respectively, and for the Manner in which Notices of Bills, Resolutions, and other Business intended to be submitted to such Council and Assembly respectively at any Session thereof may be published for general Information, and for the proper passing, entitling, and numbering of the Bills to be introduced into and passed by the said Council and Assembly, and for the proper Presentation of the same to the Governor for the Time being for Her Majesty's Assent; all of which Rules and Orders shall, by such Council and Assembly respectively, be laid before the Governor, and, being by him approved, shall become binding and of force.

Legislature, as constructed by this Act, empowered to alter any of its Provisions.

XXXVI. Notwithstanding anything herein-before contained, the Legislature of the said Colony, as constituted by this Act, shall have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts, to alter the Provisions or Laws for the Time being in force under this Act or otherwise, concerning the Legislative Council, and to provide for the Nomination or Election of another Legislative Council, to consist respectively of such Members to be appointed or elected respectively by such Person or Persons, and in such Manner, as by such Act or Acts shall be determined: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to present to the Governor of the said Colony, for Her Majesty's Assent, any Bill by which any such Alteration in the Constitution of the said Colony may be made, unless the Second and Third Readings of such Bill shall have been passed with the Concurrence of Two Thirds of the Members for the Time being of the said Legislative Council and of the said Legislative Assembly respectively: Provided also, that every Bill which shall be so passed for any of such Purposes shall be reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon, and a Copy of such Bill shall be laid before both Houses of the Imperial Parliament for the Period of Thirty Days at the least before Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon shall be signified.

Appointment to Offices under the Government of the Colony to be vested in the Governor.

XXXVII. The Appointment to all Public Offices under the Government of the Colony hereafter to become vacant or to be created, whether such Offices be salaried or not, shall be vested in the Governor, with the Advice of the Executive Council, with the Exception of the Appointments of the Officers liable to retire from Office on political Grounds as herein-after mentioned, which Appointments shall be vested in the Governor alone: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not extend to minor Appointments, which by Act of the Legislature, or by Order of the Governor and Executive Council, may be vested in Heads of Departments, or other Officers or Persons within the Colony.

Judges continued in the Enjoyment of their Offices during their good Behaviour notwithstanding any Demise of the Crown; but they may be removed by the Crown on the Address of Parliament. Their Salaries secured during the Continuance of their Commissions.

XXXVIII. The Commissions of the present Judges of the Supreme Court of the said Colony, and of all future Judges thereof, shall be, continue, and remain in full force during their good Behaviour, notwithstanding the Demise of Her Majesty (whom may God long preserve), or of Her Heirs and Successors, any Law, Usage, or Practice to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful, nevertheless, for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, to remove any such Judge or Judges upon the Address of both Houses of the Legislature of this Colony.

XL. Such Salaries as are settled upon the Judges for the Time being by Act of Parliament or otherwise, and also such Salaries as shall or may be in future granted by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or otherwise, to any future Judge or Judges of the said Supreme Court, shall in all Time coming be paid and payable to every such Judge and Judges for the Time being, so long as the Patents or Commissions of them or any of them respectively shall continue and remain in force.

Existing Law saved.

XLI. All Laws, Statutes, and Ordinances which at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be in force within the said Colony shall remain and continue to be of the same Force, Authority, and Effect as if this Act had not been made, except in so far as the same are repealed or varied by this Act, or in so far as the same shall or may hereafter, by virtue and under the Authority of this Act, be repealed or varied by any Act or Acts of the Legislature of the said Colony.

Courts of Justice, Commissions, Officers, &c.

XLII. All the Courts of Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction within the said Colony, and all Charters, legal Commissions, Powers and Authorities, and all Officers, judicial, administrative, or ministerial, within the said Colony respectively, except in so far as the same may be abolished, altered, or varied by or may be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, or shall be abolished, altered, or varied by any Act or Acts of the Legislature of the Colony, or other competent Authority, shall continue to subsist in the same Form and with the same Effect as if this Act had not been made.

Legislature empowered to make Laws regulating Sale and other Disposal of Waste Lands.

XLIII. Subject to the Provisions herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Legislature of this Colony to make Laws for regulating the Sale, Letting, Disposal, and Occupation of the Waste Lands of the Crown within the said Colony.

Duties not to be levied on Supplies for Troops, nor any Duties

XLIV. It shall not be lawful for the Legislature of the Colony to levy any Duty upon Articles imported bonâ fide for the Supply of Her Majesty's Land or Sea Forces, nor to levy any Duty, impose any Prohibition or Restriction, or grant any Exemption from any Drawback or other Privilege upon upon the Importation or Exportation of any Articles, nor to enforce any Dues or Charges upon Shipping, contrary to or at variance with any Treaty or Treaties concluded by Her Majesty with any Foreign Power. Inconsistent with Treaties.

XLV. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding any Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament now in force to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Legislature of the Colony to impose and levy such Duties of Customs, as to them may seem fit, on the Importation into the Colony of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandise whatsoever, whether the Produce of or exported from the United Kingdom or any of the Colonies or Dependencies of the United Kingdom, or any Foreign Country: Provided always, that no new Duty shall be so imposed upon the Importation into the said Colony of any Article the Produce or Manufacture of or imported from any particular Country or Place which shall not be equally imposed on the Importation into the said Colony of the like Article the Produce or Manufacture of or exported from all other Countries and Places whatsoever. Customs Duties may be imposed, not differential, though contrary to existing Acts of Parliament.

XLVI. For the Purpose of this Act, the Boundaries of the Colony of New South Wales shall, except as herein-after excepted, comprise all that Portion of Her Majesty's Territory of Australia or New Holland lying between the One hundred and twenty-ninth and One hundred and fifty-fourth Degrees of East Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Greenwich, and Northward of the Fortieth Degree of South Latitude, including all the Islands adjacent in the Pacific Ocean within the Latitude aforesaid, and also including Lord Howe Island, being in or about the Latitude of Thirty-one Degrees Thirty Minutes South and the One hundred and fifty-ninth Degree of East Longitude, reckoning from the said Meridian of Greenwich, save and except the Territories comprised within the Boundaries of the Province of South Australia and the Colony of Victoria, as at present established: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent Her Majesty from altering the Boundary of the Colony of New South Wales on the North in such Manner as to Her Majesty may seem fit, nor from detaching from the said Colony that Portion of the same which lies between the Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree of East Longitude, reckoning from the said Meridian of Greenwich. Boundaries of the Colony.

And whereas the Legislative Council of New South Wales, constituted under the Imperial Act passed in the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," are desirous that Her Majesty should owe to the spontaneous Liberality of Her People in this Colony such Grant by way of Civil List, in lieu of the Provision contained in the Schedule to that Act, as shall be sufficient to give Stability and Security to the Civil Institutions of the Colony, and to provide for the adequate Remuneration of able and efficient Officers in the executive, judicial, and other Departments of Her Majesty's Colonial Service, the granting of which Civil List belongs constitutionally only to Her Majesty's faithful People through their Representatives in the said Legislative Council; and Her Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Members of the said Legislative Council in Council assembled, being desirous that a certain competent Revenue for the Purpose may be settled upon Her Majesty, (to whom may God grant a long and happy Reign,) as a Testimony of their unfeigned Affection to Her Majesty's Person and Government, have accordingly freely resolved, in lieu of the aforesaid statutable Provision for the like Purpose, to grant to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, a certain Revenue payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Colony:' Be it therefore enacted as follows: Preamble to Civil List Clauses.

XLVII. All Taxes, Imposts, Rates, and Duties, and all territorial, casual, and other Revenues of the Crown (including Royalties) from whatever Source arising within this Colony, and over which the present or future Legislature has or may have Power of Appropriation, shall form One Consolidated Revenue Fund, to be appropriated for the Public Service of this Colony in the Manner and subject to the Charges herein-after mentioned. All Duties and Revenues to form Consolidated Revenue Fund.

XLVIII. The Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Colony shall be permanently charged with all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incident to the Collection, Management, and Receipt thereof, such Costs, Charges, and Expenses being subject nevertheless to be reviewed and audited in such Manner as shall be directed by any Act of the Legislature. Such Fund permanently charged with Expenses of Collection.

XLIX. There shall be payable in every Year to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Colony, the several Sums, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Sixty-four thousand and three hundred Pounds, for defraying the Expense of the several Services and Purposes named in the Schedules A. B. and C. to this Act annexed, the said several Sums to be issued by the Colonial Treasurer in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants as shall be from Time to Time directed under the Hand of the Governor; and the said Treasurer shall account to Her Majesty for the same through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in such Manner and Form as Her Majesty shall be graciously pleased to direct. Civil List of 64,300*l.* payable to Her Majesty.

L. The said several Sums mentioned in Schedules A. B. and C. shall be accepted and taken by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by way of Civil List, instead of all territorial, casual, and other Revenues Civil List to be accompanied by Surrender of all Revenues of the Crown.

Revenues of the Crown (including all Royalties) from whatever Source arising within the said Colony, and to the Disposal of which the Crown may be entitled either absolutely or conditionally, or otherwise howsoever.

Pensions payable to Judges of Supreme Court. Pensions payable to certain Officers liable to Removal from Office on political Grounds. Provisoes in reference to Judges and such Officers.

LI. Not more than Four thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds in each Year shall be payable for Pensions to the Judges of the Supreme Court out of the Sum set apart for Pensions in the said Schedule B.; and not more than Five thousand nine hundred Pounds in each Year shall be payable by way of Pension or Retiring Allowance for the present Incumbents of any Office or Department mentioned in the said Schedule B. who, on political Grounds, may retire or be released from any such Office or Department: Provided always, that Pensions shall be demandable by such Judges, to the Amount of Seven Tenths of their actual Salaries, on permanent Disability or Infirmity, or after Fifteen Years Service as such Judge in this Colony; and that so far as the present Judges are concerned, every Three Years Service in any judicial Office in this Colony, other than the Office of a Judge of the Supreme Court, shall be equivalent to One Year's Service as such Judge of the Supreme Court; provided also, that the Officers so liable to retire or be released shall be the Attorney General, and Solicitor General, the Colonial Secretary, Colonial Treasurer, and Auditor General; and upon the Retirement or Release from Office of any of the present Officers, they shall be entitled by way of Pension or Retiring Allowance to the full Amount of the Salaries respectively received by them at the Time of the passing of this Act: Provided also, that if after the Assignment of any such Pension or Retiring Allowance any of such Judges or Officers shall accept any new Appointment under the Crown, then and in every such Case the Pension or Retiring Allowance of any such Judge or Officer shall merge or be reduced pro tanto during the Tenure of such Appointment, according as the Salary or Emoluments of any such new Appointment are of greater or less Amount than the Pension or Retiring Allowance of such Judge or Officer.

Superannuation Pensions to certain other Officers not liable to Removal upon political Grounds. To be regulated by Superannuation Act, 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 24.

LII. Not more than Three thousand five hundred Pounds in each Year shall be payable for Pensions to superannuated Officers: Provided always, that the Amount of all such Pensions for such superannuated Officers shall be according to the several Scales and Rates fixed by the Superannuation Act of the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Session of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and that a List of all Pensions granted under this Act, and of the Persons to whom the same shall have been granted, shall be laid in every Year before both Houses of the Legislature of the Colony.

Consolidated Revenue to be appropriated by Act of the Legislature. Debenture or any other Charges on Consolidated Revenue Fund not to be affected by such Consolidation.

LIII. After and subject to the Payments to be made under the Provisions herein-before contained, all the Consolidated Revenue Fund herein-before mentioned shall be subject to be appropriated to such specific Purposes as by any Act of the Legislature of the Colony shall be prescribed in that Behalf: Provided, that the Consolidation of the Revenues of this Colony shall not affect the Payment of the annual Interest, or the Principal Sums mentioned in any outstanding Debentures or other Charge upon the territorial Revenue as such Interest, Principal, or other Charge severally becomes due, nor shall such Consolidation affect the Payment of any Sum or Sums heretofore charged upon the Taxes, Duties, Rates, and Imposts now raised, levied, and collected, or to be raised levied, and collected, to and for the Use of this Colony, for such Time as shall have been appointed by any Acts of the said Legislature by which any such Charge was authorized.

No Money Vote or Bill lawful unless recommended by Governor.

LIV. It shall not be lawful for the Legislative Assembly to originate or pass any Vote, Resolution, or Bill, for the Appropriation of any Part of the said Consolidated Revenue Fund, or of any other Tax or Impost, to any Purpose which shall not have been first recommended by a Message of the Governor to the said Legislative Assembly during the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, or Bill shall be passed.

No Part of Public Revenue to be issued except on Warrants from Governor.

LV. No Part of Her Majesty's Revenue in the said Colony, arising from any of the Sources aforesaid, shall be issued, or shall be made issuable, except in pursuance of Warrants under the Hand of the Governor of the Colony directed to the Public Treasurer thereof.

Proclamation and Commencement of Act.

LVI. This Act shall be proclaimed in New South Wales by the Governor thereof within One Calendar Month after official Information of the Royal Assent thereto shall have been received by such Governor, and shall take effect within the said Colony from the Day of the Proclamation thereof.

Interpretation of Term "Governor."

LVII. In the Construction of this Act, the Term "Governor" shall mean the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government of the Colony of New South Wales.

Provisions of this Act to have no Force until so much of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 59; and so much also of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 76.; 5 & 6 Vict. c. 36.; and of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 72.; 7 & 8 Vict. c. 74.;

LVIII. The foregoing Provisions of this Act shall have no Force or Effect until so much and such Parts of the Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the better Government of "the Australian Colonies," and the First, Second, and Third Parts of the Schedule A. therein referred to; and of another Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act "for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land;" and of another Act passed in the said Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Sale of Waste "Land belonging to the Crown in the Australian Colonies;" and of another Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to clear up Doubts as to the Regulation and Audit of "the Customs of New South Wales;" and of another Act passed in the same Year, intituled "An Act

" to explain and amend the Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land ;" and of another Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled " An Act to provide for the Administration of Justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's " Land, and for the more effectual Government thereof, and for other Purposes relating thereto ;" and of another Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled " An Act to " amend an Act for regulating the Sale of Waste Land belonging to the Crown in the Australian " Colonies, and to make further Provision for the Management thereof," as severally relate to the Colony of New South Wales, and as are repugnant to this Act, shall have been repealed ; and the entire Management and Control of the Waste Lands belonging to the Crown in the said Colony of New South Wales, and also the Appropriation of the gross Proceeds of the Sales of any such Lands, and of all other Proceeds and Revenues of the same, from whatever Source arising within the said Colony, including all Royalties, Mines, and Minerals, shall be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony : Provided, that nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect any Contract, or to prevent the Fulfilment of any Promise or Engagement made by or on behalf of Her Majesty, with respect to any Lands situate within the said Colony, in Cases where such Contracts, Promises, or Engagements shall have been lawfully made before the Time at which this Act shall take effect within this Colony, nor to disturb or in any way interfere with or prejudice any vested or other Rights which have accrued or belong to the licensed Occupants or Lessees of any Crown Lands within or without the settled Districts, under and by virtue of the aforesaid Act of the Parliament passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, or of any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council issued in pursuance thereof.

9 Geo. 4. c. 83.; and 9 & 10 Vict. c. 104.; as relates to this Colony, and is repugnant to reserved Bills, be repealed.

And the entire Management of Crown Lands and all Revenues thence arising be vested in the Local Legislature.

This Provision not to affect any previous Contracts of Her Majesty respecting any such Lands, nor any vested Rights which have arisen under 9 & 10 Vict. c. 104. nor any vested Right or Interest which has accrued under any Order of Council issued by Her Majesty in Council in pursuance thereof.

Passed the Legislative Council, this Twenty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

CHARLES NICHOLSON, Speaker.
W. MACPHERSON, Clerk of the Council.

In the Name and on the Behalf of Her Majesty, I reserve this Bill for the Signification thereon of Her Majesty's Pleasure.

CHAS. A. FITZROY,
Governor General.

CAP. LV.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill, as amended, of the Legislature of Victoria, to establish a Constitution in and for the Colony of Victoria. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Legislative Council of the Colony of Victoria, constituted and assembled by virtue 'of and under the Authority of an Act of Parliament passed in the Fourteenth Year of Her 13 & 14 Vict. c. 59. 'Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian 'Colonies, did, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, pass a Bill, intituled An Act to 'establish a Constitution in and for the Colony of Victoria: And whereas the said Bill was presented 'for Her Majesty's Assent to the then Lieutenant Governor of Victoria, and the said Lieutenant 'Governor did thereupon declare that he reserved the said Bill for the Signification of Her Majesty's 'Pleasure thereon: And whereas it is by the said reserved Bill provided, that the Provisions thereof 'shall have no Force or Effect until so much and such Parts of certain Acts of Parliament in the said 'Bill specified as severally relate to the said Colony, and are repugnant to the said reserved Bill, shall 'have

'have been repealed, and the entire Management and Control of the Waste Lands belonging to the 'Crown in the said Colony, and of the Proceeds thereof, including all Royalties, Mines, and Minerals, 'shall be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony: And whereas it is not competent to Her Majesty 'to assent to the said reserved Bill without the Authority of Parliament for that Purpose: And whereas 'it is expedient that Her Majesty should be authorized to assent to the said reserved Bill, amended by 'the Omission of certain Provisions thereof, respecting the Assent of the Governor to the Bills which 'may be passed by the Legislative Councils and Assemblies of the said Colony, and Her Majesty's Power 'to disallow the same, and respecting the Boundaries of the Australian Colonies, and that so much and 'such Parts as aforesaid of the said specified Acts of Parliament, and of certain other Acts of Parlia-'ment herein-after mentioned, should thereupon be repealed, and that the entire Management and Control 'of the said Waste Lands and Proceeds should be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony: And 'whereas a Copy of the said Bill, as amended as aforesaid, is set forth in the Schedule (1.) to this Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Her Majesty to assent to Bills in Schedule.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to assent to the said reserved Bill, so amended as aforesaid, and contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, anything in the said specified Acts of Parliament, or any other Act, Law, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

So much of the Acts in Schedule (2.) to this Act as relates to the Colony of Victoria repealed.

II. From the Day of the Proclamation of this Act in the said Colony of Victoria (the said reserved Bill, amended as aforesaid, having been previously assented to by Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid,) so much and such Parts of the several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the Schedule (2.) to this Act as severally relate to the said Colony of Victoria, and are repugnant to the said reserved Bill, amended as aforesaid, shall be repealed, and the entire Management and Control of the Waste Lands belonging to the Crown in the said Colony of Victoria, and of the Proceeds thereof, including all Royalties, Mines, and Minerals, shall be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony: Provided, that so much of the Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, mentioned in the said Schedules, as relates to the Constitution, Appointment, and Powers of the Legislative Council of the said Colony of Victoria, shall continue in force until the First Writs shall have issued for the Election of Members to serve in the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in pursuance to the Provisions of the said reserved Bill, amended and assented to as aforesaid, but no longer: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the Fulfilment of any Contract, Promise, or Engagement made by or on behalf of Her Majesty with respect to any Lands situate within the said Colony in any Cases where such Contract, Promise, or Engagement shall have been lawfully made before the Time at which this Act shall take effect within the said Colony.

Provisions of former Acts respecting the Allowance and Disallowance of Bills preserved.

III. The Provisions of the said Act of the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, and of the Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-six, "for the Government "of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land," which relate to the giving and withholding of Her Majesty's Assent to Bills, and the Reservation of Bills for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon, and the Instructions to be conveyed to Governors for their Guidance in relation to the Matters aforesaid, and the Disallowance of Bills by Her Majesty, shall apply to Bills to be passed by the Legislative Council and Assembly constituted under the said reserved Bill and this Act, and by any other Legislative Body or Bodies which may at any Time hereafter be substituted for the present Legislative Council and Assembly.

Power to repeal and alter the Provisions of the reserved Bill.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Victoria to make Laws altering or repealing all or any of the Provisions of the said reserved Bill, in the same Manner as any other Laws for the good Government of the said Colony, subject, however, to the Conditions imposed by the said reserved Bill on the Alteration of the Provisions thereof in certain Particulars until and unless the said Conditions shall be repealed or altered by the Authority of the said Legislature.

Commencement of the Act.

V. This Act shall be proclaimed in Victoria by the Governor thereof within One Month after a Copy thereof shall have been received by such Governor, and this Act and the said reserved Bill, as amended as aforesaid, (such Bill being first assented to by Her Majesty in Council,) shall take effect in the said Colony from the Day of such Proclamation.

Interpretation of Terms.

VI. In the Construction of this Act the Term "Governor" shall mean the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government, and the Word "Legislature" shall include as well the Legislature to be constituted under the said reserved Bill and this Act, as any future Legislature which may be established in the said Colony under the Powers in the said reserved Bill and this Act contained.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

SCHEDULE (1.)

An Act to establish a Constitution in and for the Colony of Victoria.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," it was amongst other things enacted, that, notwithstanding anything therein-before contained, it should be lawful for the Governor and Legislative Council of the Colony of Victoria, after the Establishment therein of a Legislative Council under the said Act, from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts, to alter the Provisions or Laws for the Time being in force under the said Act, or otherwise concerning the Election of the Elective Members of such Legislative Council, the Qualification of Electors and Elective Members, or to establish in the said Colony, instead of the Legislative Council, a Council and a House of Representatives, or other separate Legislative Houses, to consist respectively of such Members to be appointed or elected respectively by such Persons and in such Manner as by such Act or Acts should be determined, and to vest in such Council and House of Representatives, or other separate Legislative Houses, the Powers and Functions of the Legislative Council for which the same might be substituted: And whereas it is expedient to establish in the said Colony separate Legislative Houses, and to vest in them as well the Powers and Functions of the Legislative Council now subsisting as the other and additional Powers and Functions herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor of the said Colony of Victoria, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Separate Legislative House established.

I. There shall be established in Victoria, instead of the Legislative Council now subsisting, One Legislative Council and One Legislative Assembly, to be severally constituted in the Manner herein-after provided; and Her Majesty shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the said Council and Assembly, to make Laws in and for Victoria, in all Cases whatsoever.

Legislative Council constituted.

II. The Legislative Council of Victoria shall consist of Thirty Members, to be elected as herein-after provided; and for the Purpose of returning such Members the said Colony shall be divided into Six Electoral Provinces, the Boundaries whereof, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be taken to be those set forth in the Schedule marked E. hereunto annexed, and each such Province shall return an equal Number of Members.

Retirement of Members in rotation.

III. At the First Election of the Members of the said Council held after this Act shall have come into operation, each Province shall return the Number of Members assigned thereto in the said Schedule, and at the Expiration of Two Years from the Date of such First Election, and thenceforward at the Expiration of every succeeding Period of Two Years, One of the Members returned for each of the said Electoral Provinces respectively shall retire from the said Council, and those shall so retire who shall have been for the longest Time Members thereof without Re-election: Provided that any Member elected in the Place of a Member dying, resigning, or retiring, otherwise than by Rotation, shall hold his Seat only so long as the Member in whose Place he has been elected would have been entitled to have held the same; provided further, that of Members elected for any Province at the First Election as aforesaid, the Member who may at his Election have received the least Number of Votes shall first so retire, and in case of an Equality of Votes, or of no Polling having taken place at such Election, it shall be decided by Lot which Member shall so retire; provided also, that any Member so retiring shall, if otherwise qualified, be capable of being re-elected.

Qualification of Members.

IV. No Person shall be capable of being elected a Member of the Legislative Council who shall not be of the full Age of Thirty Years, and a natural-born Subject of the Queen, and who shall not for One Year previous to such Election have been legally or equitably seised of or entitled to an Estate of Freehold in possession, for his own Use and Benefit, in Lands and Tenements in the said Colony of Victoria of the Value of Five thousand Pounds Sterling Money, or of the annual Value of Five hundred Pounds Sterling Money, above all Charges and Incumbrances affecting the same respectively: Provided that no Judge of any Court of the said Colony appointed during good Behaviour, nor any Minister of any Religious Denomination, whatever may be his Title, Rank, or Designation, shall be capable of being elected a Member of the Legislative Council; provided further, that no Person who shall have been attainted of any Treason, or convicted of any Felony or infamous Offence, within any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, shall be capable of being elected a Member of the Legislative Council.

Qualification of Electors.

V. Every Man of the Age of Twenty-one Years, being a natural-born Subject of Her Majesty, or being a naturalized Subject, or a legally-made Denizen of Victoria (such Naturalization or Denization having been made Three Years previous to the Date of the last Registration of Electors made in pursuance of the Provisions hereof,) and having resided in Victoria for any One Year previous to such Registration, who shall have a Freehold Estate in possession, for his own Use and Benefit, in Lands and Tenements, situate within the Electoral Province for which his Vote is to be given of the clear Value of One thousand Pounds Sterling Money, or of the clear annual Value of One hundred Pounds Sterling Money, above all Charges and Incumbrances affecting the same respectively, or shall have a Leasehold Estate in possession, situated as aforesaid, held upon a Lease whereby a Rent of One hundred Pounds or upwards shall be reserved, or of the clear annual Value of One hundred Pounds above all Charges and Outgoings, every such Lease having been granted for a Period of not less than Five Years, or who shall be resident within the Electoral Province for which his Vote is to be given, and be a Graduate of any University in the British Dominions, or a Barrister or Solicitor on the Roll of the Supreme Court of Victoria, or a legally qualified Medical Practitioner, or an officiating Minister, or an Officer or retired Officer of Her Majesty's Land or Sea Forces, except on actual Service, shall, being duly registered, be entitled to vote at the Election of a Member or Members of the Legislative Council: Provided, that no

Person

Person shall be entitled to be registered as such Elector for any Province in respect of any such Estate, Occupation, or Qualification as aforesaid, unless he shall have been seised or possessed of or occupied or held the same respectively for the Period of Twelve Calendar Months at least previous to such Registration as aforesaid; provided also, that no Person shall be entitled to be registered as aforesaid who shall have been attainted or convicted of Treason, Felony, or other infamous Offence, in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, unless he shall have received a free Pardon, or have undergone the Sentence passed on him for such Offence; provided also, that no Man shall be entitled to be registered in respect of any such Estate or Occupation as aforesaid unless at the Time of such Registration of Electors he shall have paid up all Rates and Taxes which shall have become payable by him as Owner or Leaseholder in respect of such Estate, or as Occupier in respect of such Occupation, except such as shall have become payable during Three Calendar Months next before such Registration; provided further, that no Person who shall attain the Age of Twenty-one Years after the Expiration of Two Years from the passing hereof shall be entitled to be registered as aforesaid unless he shall be able to read and write.

Election of President.

VI. The Legislative Council shall, at its First Meeting, and before proceeding to the Despatch of any other Business, elect One Member of the said Council to be the President thereof; and as often as the Place of the said President shall become vacant by Death, Resignation, or Removal by a Vote of the Council or by Disallowance as herein-after mentioned, or otherwise, shall forthwith proceed to elect some other Member to be the President thereof, and the President so elected shall preside at the Meetings of the Council: Provided, that it shall be lawful for the Governor to disallow the Choice of any such President, and upon such Disallowance being signified by the Governor to the Council the Place of such President shall become vacant.

Declaration by Members.

VII. Every Member of the Legislative Council, before he shall sit or vote in the Council, after the Election of a President, shall make and subscribe a Declaration in Writing under his Hand, and deliver the same to the Clerk of the Council at the Place where and while the Council is sitting, with the President in the Chair, which Declaration shall be in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked A.; and the said Declaration shall be filed and kept by the Clerk with the other Records of the Office; and every Member who shall sit or vote in the Council, after the Election of a President, before making such Declaration as aforesaid, shall be liable for every Day on which he shall so offend to pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, to be recovered by any Person who shall sue for the same in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

Resignation of Members.

VIII. It shall be lawful for any Member to resign his Seat in the Legislative Council by a Letter addressed to the Governor, and from the Time when the same shall have been received by the Governor the Seat of such Member shall become vacant.

Quorum of Legislative Council.

IX. The Legislative Council shall not be competent to the Despatch of Business unless there be present, exclusive of the President, One Third at least of the Members of the said Council, or if the whole Number of Members thereof shall not be exactly divisible by Three, then such integral Number as is next greater than One Third of the Members of the said Council; and all Questions, save as herein excepted, which shall arise in the Council, shall be decided by a Majority of the Members present, other than the President, and when the Votes shall be equal the President shall have the Casting Vote.

Legislative Assembly, how constituted.

X. The Legislative Assembly of Victoria shall consist of Sixty Members, to be elected as herein-after provided; and for the Purpose of returning such Members the said Colony shall be divided into Thirty-seven Electoral Districts, the Boundaries whereof shall for the Purposes of this Act be those set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked F., each of which Districts shall return the Number of Members assigned thereto in the said Schedule.

Qualification of Members.

XI. No Person shall be capable of being elected a Member of the Assembly who shall not be of the full Age of Twenty-one Years, or who shall not be a natural-born Subject of the Queen, or have been naturalized by Law for the Space of Five Years, and been resident in Victoria for the Space of Two Years previous to such Election, and who shall not be legally or equitably seised of or entitled to an Estate of Freehold in possession, for his own Use and Benefit, in Lands and Tenements in Victoria of the Value of Two thousand Pounds Sterling Money, or of the annual Value of Two hundred Pounds Sterling Money above all Charges and Incumbrances affecting the same: Provided, that no Person shall be capable of being elected a Member to serve in the Assembly who shall be a Judge of any Court of the said Colony appointed during good Behaviour, or a Minister of any Religious Denomination, whatever may be his Title, Rank, or Designation; provided further, that no Person who shall have been attainted of any Treason, or convicted of any Felony or infamous Crime, in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, shall be capable of being elected a Member of the said Assembly.

Qualification of Electors.

XII. marked C.; and every Person authorized by Law to make an Affirmation instead of making an Oath may make such Affirmation in every Case in which an Oath is herein required to be taken.

False Declaration.

XXXIII. If any Member either of the Council or Assembly shall knowingly and wilfully make a false Declaration respecting his Qualification as aforesaid, such Person shall be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties as by Law are incurred by Persons guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Standing Rules and Orders.

XXXIV. The Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, in the First Session of each respectively, and from Time to Time afterwards as there shall be Occasion, shall prepare and adopt Standing Rules and Orders for providing for the Manner in which such Council and Assembly shall be presided over in case of the Absence of the President or Speaker respectively, and for the Mode in which such Council and Assembly shall communicate, and for the proper passing, intituling, and numbering of the Bills to be introduced into and passed by the said Council and Assembly, and for the proper Presentation of the same to the Governor for Her Majesty's Assent, and for the Consideration of all Amendments proposed to be made by the Governor, as herein mentioned, and for the due Publication of all proposed Proceedings in such Council and Assembly, and generally for the Conduct of all Business and Proceedings in the said Council and Assembly severally and collectively, all which Rules and Orders shall by such Council and Assembly respectively be laid before the Governor, and being by him approved shall become binding and of Force; and until such Standing Rules and Orders shall be adopted, Resort shall be had to the Rules, Forms, and Usages of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be followed, so far as the same may be applicable to the Proceedings of the said Council and Assembly respectively: Provided, that no Standing Rule or Order which shall affect the Communication between the said Council and Assembly, or the Proceedings of the said Council and Assembly collectively, shall be of any Force unless the same shall have been adopted both by the said Council and Assembly.

Privileges of Legislature.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Victoria, by any Act or Acts to define the Privileges, Immunities, and Powers to be held, enjoyed, and exercised by the Council and Assembly, and by the Members thereof respectively: Provided, that no such Privileges, Immunities, or Powers shall exceed those now held, enjoyed, and exercised by the Commons House of Parliament or the Members thereof.

Governor's Message.

XXXVI. It shall be lawful for the Governor to transmit by Message to the Council or Assembly for their Consideration any Amendment which he shall desire to be made in any Bill presented to him for Her Majesty's Assent; and all such Amendments shall be taken into consideration in such convenient Manner as shall by the Rules and Orders aforesaid be in that Behalf provided.

Appointment to Public Offices.

XXXVII. The Appointment to Public Offices under the Government of Victoria, hereafter to become vacant or to be created, whether such Offices be salaried or not, shall be vested in the Governor, with the Advice of the Executive Council, with the Exception of the Appointments of the Officers liable to retire from Office on political Grounds, which Appointments shall be vested in the Governor alone.

Commissions of Judges.

XXXVIII. The Commissions of the present Judges of the Supreme Court and all future Judges thereof shall be, continue, and remain in full Force during their good Behaviour, notwithstanding the Demise of Her Majesty or of Her Heirs and Successors, any Law, Usage, or Practice to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that it may be lawful for the Governor to remove any such Judge or Judges, upon the Address of both Houses of the Legislature.

Salaries of Judges.

XXXIX. Such Salaries as are settled upon the Judges for the Time being by Act of Parliament or otherwise, and all such Salaries as shall or may be in future granted by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or otherwise, to any future Judges of the said Supreme Court, shall in all Time coming be paid and payable to every such Judge for the Time being so long as his Patent or Commission shall continue and remain in force.

Existing Laws.

XL. All Laws and Statutes which at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be in force within Victoria shall remain and continue to be of the same Force, Authority, and Effect as if this Act had not been made, except in so far as the same are repealed or varied by this Act, or in so far as the same shall or may hereafter, by virtue and under the Authority of this Act, be repealed or varied by any Act or Acts of the Legislature of Victoria.

Existing Courts and Offices.

XLI. All the Courts of Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction within Victoria, and all Charters, legal Commissions, Powers, and Authorities, and all Offices, judicial, administrative, or ministerial, therein respectively, except in so far as the same may be abolished, altered, or varied by or may be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, or shall be abolished, altered, or varied by any Act or Acts of the Legislature, shall continue to subsist in the same Form and with the same Effect as if this Act had not been made.

Certain Duties may not be levied.

XLII. It shall not be lawful for the Legislature of Victoria to levy any Duty on Articles imported bonâ fide for the Supply of Her Majesty's Land or Sea Forces, nor to levy any Duty, impose any Prohibition or Restriction, or grant any Exemption, Bounty, Drawback, or other Privilege upon the Importation or Exportation of any Articles, nor to impose or enforce any Dues or Charges upon Shipping, contrary to or at variance with any Treaty or Treaties concluded by Her Majesty with any Foreign Power.

Powers to levy Duties of Customs.

XLIII. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding any Act of Parliament now in force to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Legislature to impose and levy such Duties of Customs as to them may seem fit on the Exportation from or Importation into Victoria of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandise

Merchandise whatsoever, whether the Produce of or imported from the United Kingdom, or any of the Colonies or Dependencies of the United Kingdom, or any Foreign Country: Provided always, that no new Duty shall be so imposed upon the Importation into Victoria of any Article the Produce or Manufacture of or imported from any particular Country or Place which shall not be equally imposed on the Importation into Victoria of the like Article the Produce or Manufacture of or imported from all other Countries and Places whatsoever. Proviso.

XLIV. All Taxes, Imposts, Rates, and Duties, and all territorial, casual, and other Revenues of the Crown, (including Royalties,) from whatever Source arising, within the Colony of Victoria, or over which the present or any future Legislature has or may have Power of Appropriation, shall form One Consolidated Revenue, to be appropriated for the Public Service of the Colony of Victoria, in the Manner and subject to the Charges herein-after mentioned. Consolidated Revenues.

XLV. The Consolidated Revenue of Victoria shall be permanently charged with all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incident to the Collection, Management, and Receipt thereof, such Costs, Charges, and Expenses being subject, nevertheless, to be reviewed and audited in such Manner as shall be directed by any Act of the Legislature. Charges of Collection and Management.

XLVI. There shall be payable in every Year to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, out of the Consolidated Revenue of Victoria, the several Sums not exceeding in the whole One hundred and twelve thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, for defraying the Expense of the several Services and Purposes named in the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Parts of the Schedule to this Act annexed marked D., and the said Sums shall be issued by the Treasury of Victoria in discharge of such Warrants as shall be from Time to Time directed to him under the Hand of the Governor, and the said Treasurer shall account to Her Majesty for the same through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in such Manner and Form as Her Majesty shall be graciously pleased to direct; and Accounts in detail of the Expenditure of the several Sums expended under the Authority of this Act shall be laid before the Legislative Houses of Victoria within Thirty Days from the Beginning of the Session next after the Termination of the Year in which such Expenditure shall have been made. Civil List.

XLVII. The said several Sums mentioned in the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Parts of the said Schedule D. shall be accepted and taken by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by way of Civil List, instead of all territorial, casual, and other Revenues of the Crown (including all Royalties), from whatever Source arising, within Victoria, and to the Disposal of which the Crown may be entitled, either absolutely or conditionally, or otherwise howsoever. Civil List to be in lieu of Crown Revenues.

XLVIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor to abolish any of the Offices named in the Third and Fourth Parts of the said Schedule, or to apply the Sums thereby appropriated to such other Purposes connected with the Administration of the Government of Victoria as to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall seem fit. Governor may abolish certain Offices.

XLIX. Not more than Four thousand Pounds shall be payable at the same Time for Pensions to the Judges of the Supreme Court out of the Sums set apart for such Pensions in the Fifth Part of the said Schedule: Provided, that all such Pensions shall be granted in accordance with Regulations to be framed by the Governor and Executive Council, so that the same shall, as far as may be, accord with the Act of the Imperial Parliament regulating the Pensions of the Judges of the United Kingdom. Pensions to Judges.

L. Not more than Five thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds shall be payable in the whole by way of Pension or Retiring Allowance to the Persons holding any of the Offices mentioned in the Sixth Part of the said Schedule D. at the Time of this Act coming into operation, who on political Grounds may retire or be released from any such Office, or whose Office may be abolished after the Time aforesaid; and upon the Retirement or Release from Office of any of such Persons mentioned in the said Sixth Part, or the Abolition of any such Office, he shall be entitled by way of Pension or Retiring Allowance to Three Fourths of the Salary granted to him, in accordance with the Appropriation Act for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, if he shall have held any Office for Ten Years and upwards, and Two Thirds of such Salaries if he shall have held Office for a less Period: Provided, that, if after the Assignment of any such Pension or Retiring Allowance any such Officer shall accept any new Appointment under the Crown within Victoria or elsewhere, his Pension or Retiring Allowance shall during the Tenure of such Appointment merge or be reduced pro tanto according as the Salary or Emoluments of any such new Appointment are in Amount equal to or less than the Pension or Retiring Allowance of such Officer. Pensions to present Incumbents of Office. Proviso.

LI. Not more than Four thousand Pounds shall be payable in the whole by way of Pensions or Retiring Allowance to the Persons who may, after the Time this Act shall come into operation, accept any of the Offices mentioned in the said Schedule D., Part 3., and who on political Grounds may retire or be released from any such Office: Provided, that no Person shall be entitled to receive any Pension or Retiring Allowance both under this and the preceding Clause: Provided, that the Amount of all such Pensions and Retiring Allowances shall be granted in accordance with Regulations to be framed by the Governor and Executive Council, so that the same shall, so far as may be, accord with the Provisions of the Act of the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Session of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, Pensions to responsible Officers.

" and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to " Persons in respect to their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service :" Provided also, that if after the Assignment of any such Pension or Retiring Allowance to any Person he shall accept any new Appointment under the Crown, either in Victoria or elsewhere, the Pension or Retiring Allowance of such Officer shall, during the Tenure of such Appointment, merge or be reduced pro tanto according as the Salary or Emolument of any such new Appointment is in Amount equal to or less than the Pension or Retiring Allowance of such Officer : Provided further, that if any such Officer shall be absent from the Colony for more than Two Years, unless he shall be of the full Age of Sixty Years, his Pension shall cease and determine : Provided lastly, that the Amount accumulating from any unexpended or unappropriated Parts of the said Sums mentioned in the Fifth and Seventh Parts of the said Schedule D. shall in no case exceed the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds on each, and that any Balance above that Amount on either of the said Fifth or Seventh Parts shall revert to the Consolidated Revenue of Victoria.

List of Pensions, &c.

LII. A List of all Pensions granted under this Act, and of the Persons to whom the same shall have been granted, shall be laid in every Year before both Legislative Houses of the said Colony.

Money for Purposes of Religion.

LIII. For the Advancement of the Christian Religion in Victoria, the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds shall be reserved on the Eighth Part of the said Schedule to promote the Erection of Buildings for Public Worship, and the Maintenance of Ministers of Religion ; and such Sum shall be apportioned to each Denomination according to the relative Proportion of the Members of such Denomination by the last Census ; every such Apportionment to be made under Regulations to be framed by the Governor and Executive Council, and submitted to both the Legislative Houses : Provided, that no Monies exceeding in the aggregate the Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds shall be issued in any One Year in aid of the Stipends of Ministers of Religion.

Waste Lands of the Crown.

LIV. Subject to the Provisions herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Legislature of Victoria to make Laws for regulating the Sale, Letting, Disposal, and Occupation of the Waste Lands of the Crown within the said Colony, and of all Mines and Minerals therein.

Power to appropriate Consolidated Revenue.

LV. After and subject to the Payments to be made under the Provisions herein-before contained, and to any Pensions now payable and received under the Act firstly herein-before recited, and the Schedule thereunto annexed marked B., all the Consolidated Revenue arising from Taxes, Duties, Rates, and Imposts levied by virtue of any Act of the Legislature, and from the Disposal of the Waste Lands of the Crown under any such Act made in pursuance of the Authority herein contained, shall be subject to be appropriated to such specific Purposes as by any Act of the said Legislature shall be provided in that Behalf : Provided, that the Consolidation of the Revenues shall not affect the Payment of the annual Interest or the Principal Sums mentioned in any outstanding Debentures or other Charge upon the territorial Revenue as such Interest, Principal, or other Charge severally becomes due, nor shall such Consolidation affect the Payment of any Sums heretofore charged upon the Taxes, Duties, Rates, and Imposts now raised, levied, and collected, or to be raised, levied, and collected, to and for the Use of the Colony, for such Time as shall have been appointed by any Acts of the Legislature by which any such Charge was authorized.

Appropriation Bills.

LVI. All Bills for appropriating any Part of the Revenue of Victoria, and for imposing any Duty, Rate, Tax, Rent, Return, or Impost, shall originate in the Assembly, and may be rejected but not altered by the Council.

Appropriation to be in pursuance of Message.

LVII. It shall not be lawful for the Legislative Assembly to originate or pass any Vote, Resolution, or Bill, for the Appropriation of any Part of the said Consolidated Revenue Fund, or of any other Duty, Rate, Tax, Rent, Return, or Impost, for any Purpose which shall not have been first recommended by a Message of the Governor to the Legislative Assembly during the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, or Bill shall be passed.

Warrants for Issue of Money.

LVIII. No Part of Her Majesty's Revenue in Victoria, arising from any of the Sources aforesaid shall be issued, or shall be made issuable, except in pursuance of Warrants under the Hand of the Governor, directed to the Public Treasurer thereof.

Proclamation of this Act.

LIX. This Act shall be proclaimed in Victoria within Three Months after official Information of the Royal Assent thereto shall have been received by the Governor thereof, and, save as herein expressly provided, shall take effect in Victoria from the Day of such Proclamation.

Power for Legislature to alter this Act.

LX. The Legislature of Victoria, as constituted by this Act, shall have full Power and Authority from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts, to repeal, alter, or vary all or any of the Provisions of this Act, and to substitute others in lieu thereof : Provided, that it shall not be lawful to present to the Governor of said Colony for Her Majesty's Assent any Bill by which an Alteration in the Constitution of the said Legislative Council, or Legislative Assembly, or in the said Schedule hereunto annexed marked D., may be made, unless the Second and Third Readings of such Bill shall have been passed with the Concurrence of an absolute Majority of the whole Number of the Members of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly respectively : Provided also, that every Bill which shall be so passed shall be reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon.

Power to alter Electoral Act.

LXI. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, it shall be lawful for the said Legislature from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts, to alter the Qualifications of Electors and Members of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly respectively, and to establish new Electoral Provinces or Districts, and and from Time to Time to vary or alter any Electoral Province or District, and to appoint, alter, or increase the Number of Members of the Legislative Houses to be chosen by any Electoral Province or District, and to increase the whole Number of Members of the said Legislative Houses, and to alter and regulate the Appointment of Returning Officers, and to make Provision in such Manner as they may deem expedient for the Issue and Return of Writs for the Election of Members to serve in the said Legislative Houses respectively, and the Time, Place, and Manner of holding such Elections respectively.

Interpretation Clause.

LXII. In the Construction of the Provisions of this Act the Term "Governor" shall mean the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government of the Colony of Victoria; the Word "Victoria" shall mean the Colony of Victoria; the Words "officiating Minister" shall be taken to mean any Minister of Religion authorized according to the Forms and Usages of any Church, Religious Society or Denomination, to officiate and officiating in any Building registered according to the Law now in force in the said Colony as a Place of Public Worship; the Word "occupy" shall include the Occupation of or mining in any Lands, or the Right, Power, or Authority to enter on any Lands for the Purpose of mining therein; the Word "Council" shall mean the Legislative Council of the said Colony of Victoria; and the Word "Assembly" shall mean the Legislative Assembly of the said Colony.

This Act not to be in force until the Repeal of the Acts herein mentioned.

LXIII. The foregoing Provisions of this Act shall have no Force or Effect until so much and such Parts of the Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to provide for the "Administration of Justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and for the more effectual "Government thereof, and for other Purposes relating thereto;" and of another Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Sale of "Waste Land belonging to the Crown in the Australian Colonies;" and of another Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Government of New "South Wales and Van Diemen's Land;" and of another Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to clear up Doubts as to the Regulation and "Audit of the Accounts of the Customs in New South Wales;" and of another passed in the same Years, intituled "An Act to explain and amend the Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van "Diemen's Land;" and of another Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for regulating the Sale of Waste Land belonging "to the Crown in the Australian Colonies, and to make further Provision for the Management thereof;" and of another Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," and the First, Second, and Third Parts of the Schedule B. therein referred to, as severally relate to the Colony of Victoria, and are repugnant to this Act, shall have been repealed, and the entire Management and Control of the Waste Lands belonging to the Crown in the said Colony, and of the Proceeds thereof, including all Royalties, Mines, and Minerals, shall be vested in the Legislature of the said Colony: Provided, that so much of the said last-mentioned Act as relates to the Constitution, Appointment, and Powers of the Legislative Council of the said Colony of Victoria shall continue in force until the First Writs shall have issued for the Election of Members to serve in the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in pursuance to the Provisions hereof, but no longer: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the Fulfilment of any Contract, Promise, or Engagement made by or on Behalf of Her Majesty, with respect to any Lands situate within the said Colony, in any Cases where such Contract, Promise, or Engagement shall have been lawfully made before the Time at which this Act shall take effect within the said Colony.

CAP. LVI.

An Act to repeal the Acts of Parliament now in force respecting the Disposal of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Her Majesty's Australian Colonies, and to make other Provision in lieu thereof. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Acts for regulating the Sale and other Disposal of the Waste Lands belonging to the Crown in the Australian Colonies should be repealed, and that other Provision should be made with respect to the Subject Matter of the said Acts:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The Waste Lands (Australia) Acts Repeal.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 36. and 9 & 10 Vict. c. 104. repealed.

I. The Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, intituled An Act for regulating the Sale of Waste Land belonging to the Crown in the Australian Colonies, and the Act of the Tenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and four, intituled An Act to amend an Act for regulating the Sale of Waste Land belonging to the Crown in the Australian Colonies, and to make further Provision for the Management thereof, are hereby repealed.

Periods at which this Act is to take effect in the Australian Colonies respectively.

II. The Repeal of the said Acts, and the other Provisions of this Act, shall take effect in the Colonies of New South Wales and Victoria at the Date of the Proclamation in those Colonies respectively of certain Acts passed in this Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill, as amended, of the Legislature of New South Wales, "to confer a Constitution on New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty," and An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill, as amended, of the Legislature of Victoria, to establish a Constitution in and for the Colony of Victoria, and in Van Diemen's Land from the Date of the Proclamation of this Act by the Governor, which Proclamation shall take place within One Month after a Copy thereof shall be received by such Governor, and in South Australia from the Date of the Proclamation in that Colony of the Assent of Her Majesty to any Bill which may be passed by the Legislature of the said Colony, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty, and intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies, establishing a Legislative Council and Assembly within the said Colony, in lieu of the present Legislative Council.

13 & 14 Vict. c. 59.

Powers of repealed Acts continued for certain Purposes.

III. The Powers vested by the said Acts hereby repealed in Her Majesty, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners respectively, shall continue so far as regards the Appropriation and Application of Monies which may be received from the said Colonies respectively under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said Acts or either of them.

Power to amend or repeal Orders in Council.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of any Colony in which the Repeal of the said Act of the Tenth Year of Her Majesty shall have taken effect to repeal, alter, or amend any Order in Council made under Authority of the said Act, and affecting such Colony; but subject, nevertheless, so far as respects the Colonies of New South Wales and Victoria respectively, to the Provisions in the said Acts of this Session for the Preservation and enabling the Fulfilment of Contracts, Promises, and Engagements made by or on behalf of Her Majesty with respect to Lands situate in such respective Colonies, and, until so repealed, and subject to any such Alteration or Amendment, every such Order in Council shall have the same Force and Effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Legislature of Van Diemen's Land, and of South Australia when Constitution altered, may dispose of Waste Land, notwithstanding 5 & 6 Vict. c. 76. and 13 & 14 Vict. c. 59.

Power for Her Majesty by Order in Council to separate Norfolk Island from Van Diemen's Land.

V. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Van Diemen's Land and for the Legislature of South Australia after such Change in the Constitution thereof as aforesaid, by any Act or Acts to be passed from Time to Time in the same Manner and under the same Conditions as are or may be by Law required in respect of other Acts of the said Legislatures respectively, to regulate the Sale and other Disposal of the Waste Lands of the Crown in the said Two last-mentioned Colonies respectively, and the Disposal of the Proceeds arising therefrom for the Public Service of the said Colonies, any Provisions of an Act of Parliament of the Sixth Year of Her said Majesty, intituled An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, or of an Act of the Fourteenth Year of Her said Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies, or of any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty at any Time by Order in Council to separate Norfolk Island from the Colony of Van Diemen's Land, and to make such Provision for the Government of Norfolk Island as may seem expedient: Provided also, that nothing herein contained, nor any Act to be passed as aforesaid by either of the said Legislatures, shall affect or be construed to affect any Contract, or extend to prevent the Fulfilment of any Promise or Engagement made by or on behalf of Her Majesty with respect to any Lands situate in either of the said Colonies of Van Diemen's Land and South Australia, where such Contract, Promise, or Engagement shall have been lawfully made before the Time when this Act shall take effect in such respective Colony.

Existing Regulations maintained in force until altered.

VI. All Regulations respecting the Sale or other Disposal of the Waste Lands of the Crown, made under the Authority of the said recited Acts or either of them, which shall be legally in force in New South Wales, Victoria, Van Diemen's Land, or South Australia, at the Date when the present Act shall take effect in the said Colonies respectively, shall remain in force in each of the said Colonies respectively until the Legislature of such Colony shall otherwise provide.

Regulation of Disposal of Waste Land in Western Australia.

VII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Instructions under Her Signet and Sign Manual, or through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, to regulate the Sale, Letting, Disposal, and Occupation of Waste Lands of the Crown in Western Australia, and the Disposal of the Proceeds arising therefrom, until Parliament shall otherwise provide.

Past Appropriations to be valid.

VIII. No Appropriation which has been or shall be made of the Proceeds of the Sale or Disposal of the Waste Lands of the Crown in either of the said Colonies shall be deemed invalid by reason of its not having been made in accordance with the Provisions of the said Acts of Parliament hereby repealed.

As to the Term "Governor."

IX. In the Construction of this Act the Term "Governor" shall mean the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government of any Colony.

CAP.

CAP. LVII.

An Act further to amend the Laws relating to the Militia in England. [16th July 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Secretary of State may enlarge Time for Appointment of Persons to apportion Contribution between County and Borough, and for making Award.

I. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, if he see fit, upon the Memorial of the Justices of the Peace of any County at their General or Quarter Sessions assembled or of the Council of any Borough, to enlarge the Time within which such Justices or Council are required respectively to appoint Two Justices and Two Members of Council under Section Twelve of the Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, and where Justices and Members of Council have been duly appointed under such Act or within any enlarged Time granted under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, if he see fit, upon the like Memorials of the Justices of the County at their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, and of the Council of the Borough, on behalf of which County and Borough respectively Justices and Members of Council have been appointed, to enlarge the Time within which they are required to make their Award under the said Act.

Where the Poor Rate in the County and Borough is not assessed upon a uniform Principle, the Proportions of Contribution may be adjusted without regard to the Poor Rate Valuation.

II. Where it appears to the Justices and Members of Council appointed under the Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, or under such Act as amended by this Act, for the Purpose of determining and awarding the respective Proportions in which any County and Borough shall contribute to the Expenditure in the said Act mentioned, or to any Arbitrator duly appointed for the like Purpose, that the respective annual Values of the Property rateable to the Relief of the Poor as rated thereto in the County and Borough are not ascertained upon a uniform Principle of Valuation, so as to constitute a fair Basis upon which to calculate the Proportions in which the County and Borough should contribute as aforesaid, such Justices and Members of Council or Arbitrator (as the Case may be) may determine and award such respective Proportions according to what may appear to them or him to be the actual annual Values at which the Property rateable in the County and Borough respectively to the Relief of the Poor ought to be rated thereto, but without regard to the respective Values at which such Property is in fact so rated; and in determining such Proportions as aforesaid the Value of the Property in Extra-parochial Places as well in Boroughs as in Counties, as such Property if rateable to the Relief of the Poor would be rated thereto, shall be taken into account as if the same had been actually rateable to such Relief.

Boroughs situate in more than One County to contribute to each in proportion to the rateable Value of the Part within the same.

III. When any Borough is situate in more than One County, such Borough shall be liable to contribute to the Expenditure aforesaid in each such County, and the Proportions which such Borough shall contribute to such Expenditure in each such County shall be determined and awarded by Justices appointed for the County and Members of Council appointed for the Borough, or by an Arbitrator, in like Manner as in the Case of a Borough wholly within the County, but the Proportion to be contributed by the Borough shall be determined and awarded with reference to the Value of the Property rated to the Relief of the Poor within that Part only of the Borough which is situate in the County by which the Expenditure is incurred, and the Contributions so awarded shall be raised and paid in like Manner as if the whole Borough were within the County; but in case a Borough Rate be made for raising any such Contribution, or repaying any Money borrowed for the Purpose of such Contribution, or paying any Interest on any such Money or any Expenses incident to borrowing the same, such Rate shall be raised in that Part only of the Borough which is in the County to which the Contribution is required to be made: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not apply to the City or County of the City of Bristol, but the said City and County shall contribute to the Expenditure aforesaid in the County of Gloucester, as if wholly situate in such County: Provided also, that this Enactment shall not affect the Provision in Section Twenty-five of the Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, concerning the City of Lincoln and Borough of Stamford.

Foregoing Provisions to extend to Franchises.

IV. The foregoing Provisions concerning Boroughs shall apply to all Franchises, Liberties, and Places not being by Law liable to the Payment of County Rates made for the County at large, and the Expressions "Borough," "Council," "Members of Council," and "Borough Rate," shall respectively be construed as including any such Franchise, Liberty, or Place, the Justices, Mayor, or Municipal Officer authorized under Section Twenty-nine of the Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, to appoint Two Justices or Persons to act on behalf of such Franchise, Liberty, or Place, the Justices or Persons so appointed, and the Liberty Rate or other local Rate in the Nature of a County Rate leviable in such Franchise, Liberty, or Place.

In the County of Lincoln Storehouses to be provided by the Gaol Sessions.

V. 'And whereas by reason of there being no General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the County of Lincoln at large it is expedient that further Provision be made for executing the Militia Law 'Amendment Act, 1854, within the said County:' In the County of Lincoln all things directed by the Second and Third Sections of the Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, to be done by Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall be done by Justices for the several Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven, and Holland in the said County of Lincoln, or any of them, assembled in Court of Gaol Sessions held in and for the said County; and all other things directed by the said Act to be done by the Justices of Counties in Quarter Sessions assembled shall and may be done by the Justices of the said several Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven, and Holland in the said County of Lincoln in their respective Quarter Sessions assembled; and the said Court of Gaol Sessions shall take into consideration any Representations already made to the Quarter Sessions for the said several Divisions of the Insecurity or Insufficiency of any Storehouse in use for the Service of any Militia of the said County, and also any Representation made to such Court under the said Militia Law Amendment Act as amended by this Act, and do all necessary Acts for providing the requisite Premises for the Service of the Militia of the said County; and the Expenses to be incurred by such Court under this Act shall be raised and paid in such and the like Manner as other Monies required for the general Purposes of the said Court of Gaol Sessions; and any Money arising from the Sale and Disposition, under the Order of the said Court of Gaol Sessions, of any Place which may have been provided for keeping the Stores of the Militia of the said County, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the said Court, and be applied for defraying the Expenses of the Execution by the said Court of the said Militia Law Amendment Act, and this Act; and the Surplus, if any, of such Monies shall be applied in aid of the County Rates raised in such several Divisions, in the Proportions in which they are required to contribute to the Expenditure herein-before mentioned: Provided always, that no Order or Resolution shall be made or entered into by the said Court of Gaol Sessions, under the Authority of the said Militia Law Amendment Act or this Act, concerning the Purchase of Land as a Site for Militia Storehouses, or the providing, building, enlarging, altering, or disposing of the same, unless Notice thereof shall be given by an Advertisement to be inserted in some public Newspaper most generally circulated in the said County of Lincoln in each of the Two Weeks immediately preceding the Day appointed for holding such Gaol Sessions, stating the Day, Hour, and Place appointed for holding such Meeting, and the Nature of the Business intended to be then taken into consideration.

As to Expenses of Militia Acts in Sussex.

VI. The Expenses payable or to be paid for the Purposes of the said Militia Amendment Act, 1854, and this Act, shall, in the County of Sussex, be borne and paid by the Eastern and Western Divisions thereof, in equal Moieties.

The Word "Borough" to include any City or Town named in Schedules (A.) and (B.) of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. although such should be a County of itself.

VII. In the Construction of the Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, and of this Act, the Word "Borough" shall mean any City, Borough, Port, or Town Corporate named in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, "to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," or to which the Powers and Provisions of that Act have been or may be extended, notwithstanding any such City, Borough, or Town may be a County of itself; and the Powers and Provisions of the said Militia Law Amendment Act, 1854, and this Act, applicable to Boroughs locally situate in Counties shall extend to every such City, Borough, or Town being a County of itself which in Section Nineteen of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, is for the Purposes of that Enactment united with or named in connexion with a County or Riding, in like Manner as if locally situate in the County or Riding in connexion with which it is named.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act to better enable the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster to sell and purchase Land on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of the said Duchy of Lancaster. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster should be 'better enabled to sell Land belonging to the said Duchy which in the Judgment of the said 'Chancellor and Council shall be deemed not convenient to be held with other Possessions of the said 'Duchy, and to purchase Land which in the like Judgment shall be deemed convenient to be held with 'other Possessions of the said Duchy:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Chancellor and Council of Duchy of Lancaster enabled to sell and convey Land.

I. The Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being may from Time to Time contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for the Sale of and may absolutely make Sale and dispose of, for such Sum or Sums of Money as to the said Chancellor and Council shall appear a sufficient Consideration for the same, any Land belonging to Her said Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in right of the said Duchy, which in the Judgment of the said Chancellor and Council shall not be deemed convenient to be held with other Possessions of the said Duchy; and upon Payment of the Purchase Monies as herein-after provided the said Chancellor and Council may grant and assure to the Purchaser or Purchasers, under the Seal of the said Duchy, in the Name of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, the Land agreed to be sold; and every such Grant or Assurance may be according to the Form marked X. set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in any other Form which may be deemed more convenient; and every such Grant or Assurance being enrolled in the Court of the Duchy Chamber of Lancaster within Six Calendar Months from the Date thereof, shall be valid and sufficient to pass all the Right and Interest of Her said Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in and to the Land to which such Grant or Assurance shall relate, anything contained in the Act of Parliament passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, Chapter Seven, or in any other Act, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. The

Purchase Monies for Land sold to be paid to Receiver General of Duchy, and invested or applied as herein mentioned.

II. The Purchase Monies for Land sold by the said Chancellor and Council, under the Authority of this Act, shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Revenues of the said Duchy, or of his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, and Receipts shall be given by him or them for the same, and the same either shall and may be invested in the Purchase of Bank Annuities, according to the Powers and Provisoes contained or referred to in the Act of Parliament passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Seventy-three, with respect to the Purchase Money to be paid for Property belonging to the Crown within the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy, under the therein-recited Acts, or the same or any Part thereof may, either without any previous Investment or after such, and either alone or together with any other Monies or Funds for the Time being belonging to the said Duchy of Lancaster, be laid out, according to the Provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Ninety-seven, or in the Purchase of Land under the Authority of this Act, as herein-after provided; and the said Chancellor and Council shall for the Purposes of this Act have and be entitled to all such Powers and Provisions in reference to the Monies invested in Bank Annuities under this Act as under or by virtue of the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third they are entitled to concerning any Sums or Funds of or belonging to the said Duchy of Lancaster in the same Act particularly mentioned or referred to.

Power to Chancellor to contract and agree for Purchase of Land, and convey the same to the Use of Her Majesty.

III. The said Chancellor and Council may from Time to Time contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for the Purchase of and may purchase any Land which in the Judgment of the said Chancellor and Council shall be deemed convenient to be held with any Possession of the said Duchy, and the Land so agreed to be purchased shall be conveyed and assured to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in right of the said Duchy of Lancaster, and shall vest in Her said Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in the same Right, and as fully and effectually, and be held with the like Incidents, as other Land belonging to the said Duchy; and every such Conveyance may be in the Form marked Y. in the said Schedule, or in any other Form which may be deemed more convenient.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated.

IV. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be incorporated with this Act; but the said Chancellor and Council shall not purchase any Land otherwise than by Agreement.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to facilitate Inquiries of Commissioners of Endowed Schools in Ireland.

[23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS Her Majesty has been graciously pleased, on the Address of the Commons in Parliament assembled, to issue Her Majesty's Commission, dated the Fourteenth Day of November in the Eighteenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, to Charles William Fitzgerald Esquire (commonly called Marquis of Kildare), Charles Graves Doctor of Divinity, Robert Andrews Doctor of Laws, One of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, Henry George Hughes Esquire, One of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, and Archibald John Stephens Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, and thereby authorized and appointed them Her Majesty's Commissioners to inquire into the Endowments, Funds, and actual

'Condition of all Schools endowed for the Purposes of Education in Ireland, and the Nature and Extent 'of the Instruction given in such Schools, and to report their Opinions thereon; and for the Assistance 'of the said Commissioners, William Neilson Handcock Esquire was appointed Secretary to the said 'Commission: And whereas Difficulties have been encountered in the Prosecution of the said Inquiries, 'and it is expedient that the said Commissioners should have Authority conferred upon them, as herein-'after expressed, to carry out the Objects of the said Commission, and that One or more Assistant 'Commissioners should be appointed to act under the said Commissioners and in their Aid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

Construction of Terms.

I. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions shall, if not inconsistent with the Context, have the Meaning herein-after assigned to them; (that is to say,)

The Word "Commissioners" shall mean the said Commissioners named in the said Commission, or any Three of them;

"Endowed Schools" or "Schools" shall mean and include all Schools of Royal Foundation in Ireland, the Schools on the Foundation of Erasmus Smith, the Charter Schools and Diocesan Schools, and all Schools endowed on charitable or public Foundations in Ireland;

"Endowments" shall mean and include the Estates, Lands, Funds, and annual or other Income given, granted, or applied for the Establishment or Support of such Schools, or for the Purposes of Education therein;

And "Lord Lieutenant" shall mean the Chief Governor or Chief Governors of Ireland for the Time being.

Commissioners to meet and to inquire into the Endowments and State of all Schools, &c.

II. The Commissioners, so soon as conveniently may be, shall meet from Time to Time at some convenient Place, and examine and inquire into the State, Condition, and Management of all Endowed Schools in Ireland, and the Nature and Extent of the Instruction given therein, and also into the Nature, Amount, and annual or other Value of the Endowments of such Schools respectively, and the annual Income derived from such Endowments, and how the same has been applied, and into such other Matters connected with such Schools, and the System of Education pursued therein, as to the Commissioners shall seem expedient.

Power to Commissioners to repair to Schools, examine Witnesses, and call for Documents.

III. The Commissioners, or any One or more of them, may repair to any School or to any other Place, and there to summon and examine, on Oath or otherwise, all and every Person or Persons touching any Matters which they are empowered or directed by this Act to examine or inquire into, and to call for Vouchers, Books, Deeds, Evidences, Maps, and all other Documents, and to examine and inquire into all Matters which to the Commissioners shall seem necessary and proper; and the Commissioners are hereby respectively empowered to administer an Oath to any Person who shall be so examined by or before them.

Penalty on Persons refusing to attend to be examined or to produce Documents.

IV. If any Person having Charge of any Document relating to any of the aforesaid Endowed Schools, or holding any Situation in connexion therewith, or having the Disposition, Control, or Management of any Money, Lands, or other Property for the Establishment or Support of any such Schools or the Purposes of Education therein, shall be summoned to appear before the Commissioners or any One or more of them, for the Purpose of being examined, or to produce any Documents before them, shall refuse to appear or to be examined by the Commissioners or any Three of them, or shall refuse to answer such Questions as shall be propounded by the Commissioners, or any of them, touching any Matter or Thing which they are empowered or directed by this Act to examine into, or shall refuse or neglect to attend before such Commissioners from Day to Day, when required so to do, or to produce such Records, Deeds, Parchments, Books, Papers, or Writings, or any of them, without good and sufficient Cause, to be allowed by the Commissioners, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Refusal, Neglect, or Omission, to be recovered by Action in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, or by Civil Bill in the Court of any Assistant Barrister, by any Person who shall sue for the same.

Power to Commissioners to make Report to Her Majesty, and suggest Plans of Improvement of Schools.

V. The Commissioners may from Time to Time, as often as they shall think proper, and as often as they shall be required so to do by the Lord Lieutenant, make a Report in Writing under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Three of them, to Her Majesty of all Matters arising upon such Examinations and Inquiries which shall appear to the Commissioners necessary or proper so to be reported, and shall in like Manner report and suggest to Her Majesty such Plans for the Improvement of Education in such Schools and the better Management of their Endowments, and for the better regulating, managing, and governing such Schools, and for the general Promotion, in connexion with said Schools, of Academical Education in Ireland, as shall appear to the Commissioners to be expedient and practicable.

Appointment of Assistant Commissioners.

VI. The Lord Lieutenant may, on the Requisition of the Commissioners, appoint One or more but not exceeding Four Assistants to the Commissioners, to be called Assistant Commissioners; and the Commissioners may from Time to Time remove such Assistant Commissioners, and the Lord Lieutenant may, on the Requisition of the Commissioners, appoint others in their Place; and the Remuneration to be paid to such Assistant Commissioners, in addition to their travelling Expenses, shall be such Sum as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall appoint, not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for for each Assistant Commissioner, to be paid out of such Aids or Supplies as may be from Time to Time provided and appropriated by Parliament for the Purpose.

Duties of Assistant Commissioners.

VII. It shall be the Duty of the Assistant Commissioners to act in aid of the Commissioners, and under their Directions, in execution of the Objects of this Act, and for that Purpose to visit and inspect such of the Endowed Schools in Ireland as the Commissioners shall direct, and to examine into the Endowments and State and Condition of such Schools, and to report thereon to the Commissioners; and such Assistant Commissioners shall have and enjoy the same Rights and Powers as the Commissioners or any of them might or would have had if they had visited the Schools in Person.

This Act not to affect Powers of Commissioners.

VIII. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to abridge, lessen, or affect the Powers of the Commissioners under and by virtue of Her Majesty's said Commission.

CAP. LX.

An Act for excepting Gold Wedding Rings from the Operation of the Act of the last Session relating to the Standard of Gold and Silver Wares, and from the Exemptions contained in other Acts relating to Gold Wares. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty the now Queen, intituled An Act for allowing Gold Wares to be manufactured at a lower Standard than that now allowed by Law, and to amend the Law relating to the assaying of Gold and Silver Wares, whereby it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if any of the Gold Wares which by any Statute now in force are not liable to be assayed and marked shall nevertheless be assayed and marked as of One of the Standards authorized by Law, such Wares shall not by reason thereof be chargeable with the Duty now levied on Gold Plate: And whereas by certain Statutes now in force no Gold Rings, except Mourning Rings, are liable to be assayed and marked, but Gold Wedding Rings have nevertheless been assayed and marked: And whereas it is expedient that Gold Wedding Rings should be made liable to the Provisions of the Statutes now in force relating to the assaying and marking of Gold Plate:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 17 & 18 Vict. c. 96.

Gold Wedding Rings to be assayed and marked.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, Gold Wedding Rings shall be assayed and marked in like Manner as Gold Plate not exempted is required by the Statutes now in force to be assayed and marked, and all the Provisions of the Statutes relating to the Manufacture or Sale of Gold Plate shall apply to Gold Wedding Rings, anything therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sect. 3. of 17 & 18 Vict. c. 96. repealed.

II. The Third Section of the Act passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, herein recited, is hereby repealed so far as the same might affect Gold Wedding Rings.

Certain Companies, &c. authorized to assay and mark Gold Wares indemnified.

III. 'And whereas since the coming into operation of the said recited Act certain of the Companies and Corporations authorized to assay and mark Gold Wares have assayed and marked divers Gold Rings of the Standards required by Law before the passing of the said recited Act, and have upon such assaying and marking by their Officers and Servants demanded and received, for the Use of Her Majesty, the same Duty as was payable to Her Majesty in respect of the like Gold Rings when assayed and marked before the passing of the said recited Act: And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether such Demands and Receipts of such Duty were lawful:' Be it enacted, That all such Demands and Receipts of such Duty shall be deemed and taken to have been lawful, notwithstanding the said recited Act, and that none of the said Companies or Corporations, or of their Officers or Servants, shall be liable to any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding by reason or on account of any such Demand or Receipt as aforesaid.

CAP. LXI.

An Act to authorize the Inclosure of certain Lands in pursuance of a Special Report of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales have, in pursuance of "The Acts for the Inclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land," issued their Provisional Orders for and concerning the proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, and the requisite Consents thereto have been given since the Date of their Tenth Annual General Report: And whereas the said Commissioners have by a Special Report certified their Opinion that such proposed Inclosures would be expedient; but the same cannot be proceeded with without the previous Authority of Parliament:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Inclosures may be proceeded with.

I. That the said several proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act be proceeded with.

Short Title.

II. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use, either the Expression "The Second Annual Inclosure Act, 1855," or "The Acts for the Inclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land."

CAP. LXII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Eighteenth Year of Her Majesty, to amend the Laws for the better Prevention of the Sale of Spirits by unlicensed Persons and for the Suppression of illicit Distillation in Ireland. [23d July 1855.]

17 & 18 Vict. c. 89.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-nine, entitled An Act to amend the Laws for the better Prevention of the Sale of Spirits by unlicensed Persons and for the Suppression of illicit Distillation in Ireland, and it is expedient to amend the same:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Justices refusing Certificate for Renewal of Licence to sell Beer, &c. to make Entry of Order as required by 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 68.

I. If any Person shall apply for and be refused the Certificate in the said Act mentioned, to entitle such Person to obtain a Renewal of a Licence to sell Beer, Cider, or Spirituous Liquors in Ireland, the Justices at Petty Sessions, or the Divisional Justices, as the Case may be, shall, in the event of thereupon refusing such Application, make an Order accordingly, and cause an Entry thereof to be made by the Clerk, together with the Grounds of Refusal, in like Manner as the Justices assembled at Quarter Sessions are required to do by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Sale of Wine, Spirits, Beer, and Cider by Retail in Ireland.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to Quarter Sessions.

II. In case any Person shall feel aggrieved by such Order of Refusal it shall be lawful for such Person to appeal against the same to the Quarter Sessions of the Division within which such Person shall reside, or if in the Dublin Metropolitan Police District to the Recorder of the City of Dublin at the next Quarter Sessions after such Order, but in case there shall not be Fifteen clear Days between the making of the Order and such next Quarter Sessions, then to the Quarter Sessions next following in such Division or City, as the Case may be; and in such Appeal the Party opposing such Application shall be Respondent, and no other Ground for refusing such Certificate shall be entered upon except such as shall be stated in such Order of Refusal; and such Appeal shall be subject to the like Incidents, and be heard and dealt with by the Court of Quarter Sessions or Recorder in like Manner, as an Appeal from an Order of the Justices at Petty Sessions under the "Petty Sessions, Ireland, Act, 1851," save that that the Recognizance to be entered into shall be in the Form to this Act annexed: Provided always, that upon such Person having lodged such Appeal, and entered into the Recognizance, as directed by this Act, the Licence affected by such Order shall remain in full Force and Effect, unless and until such Court of Quarter Sessions or Recorder shall confirm the said Order of Refusal; and such Appeal shall not be dismissed upon any Point of Form: Provided, that, notwithstanding anything herein contained, any Licence may be withdrawn or annulled under the Provisions of any Act or Acts now in force, other than the said first-mentioned Act.

CAP. LXIII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Friendly Societies. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it would conduce to the Improvement of the Law relating to Friendly Societies if the several Statutes relating thereto were consolidated, and certain Additions and Alterations were made therein:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

Acts or Parts of Acts set forth in First Schedule repealed.

I. That there shall be hereby repealed the several Acts or Parts of Acts set forth in the First Schedule hereto, save and except as to any Offences committed, or Penalties or Liabilities incurred, or Bond or Security given, or Proceedings taken, under the same, before the Commencement of this Act.

Societies under former Acts to continue.

II. Provided nevertheless, That, notwithstanding the Repeal of the said several Statutes, every Friendly Society now subsisting, which heretofore had been formed and established under the said Acts or any of them, shall still be deemed to be and shall continue to be a subsisting Society, as fully as if this Act had not been made, unless and until such Society shall be dissolved, or united with some other Society as herein-after mentioned.

Their Rules to continue in force, and Enrolments to be sent to Registrar.

III. Provided also, That the Rules of every such subsisting Society hitherto formed and established, which have been hitherto confirmed, registered, or certified under the said Acts or any of them, shall be deemed valid and in force until the same shall be altered or rescinded as herein-after mentioned; and all Transcripts of any of such Rules which are now filed with the Rolls of the Sessions of the Peace of any County, Riding or Division, City or Borough, Liberty or Place, shall be taken off the File, and shall be transmitted, on or before the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, to the Registrar under this Act, to be by him kept in such Manner as shall be directed from Time to Time by One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State in that Behalf.

All Contracts, Bonds, &c. to continue in force.

IV. Provided also, That all Contracts and Engagements by or with any of the said Societies now valid and in force, and all Bonds and Securities heretofore given by any Trustee, Treasurer, or other Officer of any such Society, shall continue and be valid and in force notwithstanding the Repeal of the said Acts.

Their Exemptions, Powers, and Privileges under this Act.

V. All such subsisting Societies, whose Rules have heretofore been confirmed, registered, or certified under the said Acts or any of them, shall, so long as they shall not hereafter effect an Assurance to any Member thereof, or other Person, of any Sum exceeding Two hundred Pounds, or of any Annuity exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, enjoy all the Exemptions and Privileges by this Act conferred on Societies to be established under the Provisions of this Act, as fully as if they had been registered and certified under this Act as herein-after mentioned.

VI. For

Registrars.

Registrars, how and by whom appointed.

VI. For the Purposes of this Act, there shall be Three Registrars of Friendly Societies, One for England, One for Scotland, and One for Ireland, who shall hold their respective Offices during the Pleasure of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any One of them, the said Commissioners shall appoint another, being a Barrister in England or Ireland, and in Scotland an Advocate, of not less than Seven Years standing, to the said Office.

Their Salaries.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to pay to the present Registrar for England a Salary equal to that which has been paid to him yearly in each of the Three last Years, not exceeding One thousand Pounds per Annum, and to pay to any Registrar hereafter to be appointed for England a Salary not exceeding Eight hundred Pounds a Year, and to pay to the Registrars for Scotland and Ireland respectively a Salary such as the said Commissioners shall direct not exceeding One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year, every such Salary to be paid by Four equal quarterly Payments; and any of the said Registrars who shall be appointed, or who shall die, resign, or be removed from his Office, in the Interval between Two quarterly Days of Payment, shall be entitled to a proportionate Part of his Salary, and such Salaries and proportionate Parts of Salaries shall be paid out of such Monies as shall be provided by Parliament for that Purpose.

Their Expenses of Office, &c.

VIII. The said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall, out of such Monies as may be provided by Parliament for the Purpose, pay to the said Registrars respectively such Sum as will defray the Expenses allowed by the said Commissioners from Time to Time for Office Rent, Salaries of Clerks, Stationery, Computation of Tables, and for such other Expenses as may be incurred by them respectively.

Societies, how and for what Purpose formed.

IX. It shall be lawful for any Number of Persons to form and establish a Friendly Society, under the Provisions of this Act, for the Purpose of raising by voluntary Subscriptions of the Members thereof, with or without the Aid of Donations, a Fund for any of the following Objects; (that is to say,)

For Payments on Death.

1. For insuring a Sum of Money to be paid on the Birth of a Member's Child, or on the Death of a Member, or for the Funeral Expenses of the Wife or Child of a Member:

For Relief in Sickness, &c.

2. For the Relief or Maintenance of the Members, their Husbands, Wives, Children, Brothers or Sisters, Nephews or Nieces, in old Age, Sickness, or Widowhood, or the Endowment of Members or Nominees of Members at any Age:

For other Purpose authorized by Secretary of State, &c.

3. For any Purpose which shall be authorized by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Scotland by the Lord Advocate, as a Purpose to which the Powers and Facilities of this Act ought to be extended:

Provided, that no Member shall subscribe or contract for an Annuity exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, or a Sum payable on Death, or on any other Contingency, exceeding Two hundred Pounds:

And if such Persons so intending to form and establish such Society shall transmit Rules for the Government, Guidance, and Regulation of the same, to the Registrar aforesaid, and shall obtain his Certificate that the same are in conformity with Law as herein-after mentioned, then the said Society shall be deemed to be fully formed and established from the Date of the said Certificate.

No Money to be paid on the Death of a Child without a Copy of Entry of the Registrar of Deaths.

X. In any Society in which a Sum of Money may be insured payable on the Death of a Child under Ten Years of Age, it shall not be lawful to pay any Sum for the Funeral Expenses of such Child, except upon Production of a Copy of the Entry in the Register of Deaths, signed by the Registrar of the District in which the Child shall have died; and if such Entry shall not state that the Cause of Death has been certified by a qualified Medical Practitioner, or by a Coroner, a Certificate signed by a qualified Medical Practitioner, stating the probable Cause of Death, shall be required, and it shall not be lawful in that Case to pay any Sum without such Certificate; and no Trustee or Officer of any Society, upon an Insurance of a Sum payable for the Funeral Expenses of any such Child, made after the passing of this Act, shall knowingly pay a Sum which shall raise the whole Amount receivable from One or more than One Society for the Funeral Expenses of a Child under the Age of Five Years to a Sum exceeding Six Pounds, or of a Child between Five and Ten Years to a Sum exceeding Ten Pounds; and any such Trustee or Officer who shall make any such Payment otherwise than as aforesaid, or who shall pay any Sum without endorsing the Amount which he shall pay on the Back or at the Foot of the Copy of Entry signed by the said Registrar, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence, upon Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the County or Borough in which such Death shall have taken place: The said Registrar shall be entitled to receive, upon Delivery of such Copy of Entry, for the Purpose of receiving Money from a Friendly Society, a Fee of One Shilling, and it shall not be lawful for him to deliver more than One such Copy for such Purpose, except by the Order of a Justice of the Peace.

Benevolent Societies, in what Case entitled to the Benefits of this Act.

XI. 'And whereas many Provident, Benevolent, and Charitable Institutions and Societies are formed 'and may be formed for the Purpose of relieving the physical Wants and Necessities of Persons in poor 'Circumstances, or for improving the Dwellings of the Labouring Classes, or for granting Pensions, or 'for providing Habitations for the Members or other Persons elected by them, and it is expedient to 'afford Protection to the Funds thereof:' Be it enacted, That if Two Copies of the Rules of any such Institution or Society, and from Time to Time the like Copies of any Alterations or Amendments made in the same, signed by Three Members and the Secretary thereof, shall be transmitted to the Registrar aforesaid, such Registrar shall, if he shall find that the same are not repugnant to Law, give a Certificate to that that Effect; and thereupon the following Sections of this Act, that is to say, the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, and Twenty-second, Fortieth, Forty-first, Forty-second, and Forty-third, shall extend and be applicable to the said Institution and Society, as fully as if the same were a Society established under this Act.

Statutes as to unlawful Oaths not to extend to Societies under this Act or any repealed Acts.

XII. The Act of the Thirty-ninth of George the Third, Chapter Seventy-nine, and the Act of the Fifty-seventh of George the Third, Chapter Nineteen, and also the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-eight, relating to unlawful Oaths in Ireland, shall not extend to any Society established under this Act or any of the Acts hereby repealed, or to any Meeting of the Members or Officers thereof in which Society or at which Meeting no Business whatever is transacted other than that which directly and immediately relates to the Objects of the Society as declared in the Rules thereof, and set forth in the certified Copy thereof: Provided, that the Trustees or other Officers of the Society, when required under the Hands of Two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, shall give full Information to such Justices of the Nature, Objects, Proceedings, and Practices of such Society, and in default thereof the Provisions of the Acts herein recited shall be in force in respect of such Society.

Societies, how dissolved.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Members of any Society heretofore formed and established, or hereafter to be formed and established, at some Meeting thereof to be specially called in that Behalf, to dissolve or determine the same by Consent: Provided that no Society established under this or any Act relating to Friendly Societies shall be dissolved or determined without obtaining the Votes of Consent of Five Sixths in Value of the then existing Members thereof, including the honorary Members, if any, to be ascertained in manner herein-after mentioned, nor without the Consent of all Persons, if any, then receiving or then entitled to receive any Relief, Annuity, or other Benefit from the Funds thereof, to be testified under their Hands individually and respectively, unless the Claim of every such Person be first duly satisfied, or adequate Provision made for satisfying such Claim; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Votes of such Five Sixths in Value of the Numbers as aforesaid, every Member shall be entitled to One Vote, and an additional Vote for every Five Years that he may have been a Member, but no One Member shall have more than Five Votes in the whole; and the intended Appropriation or Division of the Funds or other Property shall be fairly and distinctly stated in the Agreement for Dissolution prior to such Consent being given; and the Agreement for such Dissolution, duly signed as aforesaid, accompanied with a statutory Declaration by One of the Trustees, or by Three Members and the Secretary, taken before a Justice of the Peace, that the Provisions of this Act have been complied with, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Registrar, to be by him deposited with the Rules of the Society, and such Agreement shall thereupon be an effectual Discharge at Law and in Equity to the Trustees, Treasurers, and other Officers of such Society, and shall operate as a Release from all the Members of the Society to such Trustees, Treasurers, and other Officers; and it shall not be lawful in any Society to direct a Division or Appropriation of any Part of the Stock thereof, except for the Purpose of carrying into effect the general Interests and Objects declared in the Rules as originally certified, unless the Claim of every Member is first duly satisfied, or adequate Provision be made for satisfying such Claims; and in case any Member of such Society shall be dissatisfied with such Provision, it shall be lawful for him or her to apply to the Judge of the County Court of the District within which the usual Place of Business of the Society is situated for Relief or other Order; and the said Judge shall have the same Powers to entertain such Application, and to make such Order or Direction in relation thereto, as he may think the Justice of the Case may require, as herein-after is enacted in regard to the Settlement of Disputes; and in the event of the Dissolution or Determination of any Society, or the Division or Appropriation of the Funds thereof, except in the Way herein-before provided, any Trustee or other Officer or Person aiding or abetting therein shall, on Conviction thereof by Two Justices, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, as to such Justices shall seem meet.

Societies may unite with others, or One Society may transfer its Engagements to another.

XIV. It shall be lawful for any Two or more Societies established under this or any of the Acts hereby repealed to unite and become incorporated in One Society, with or without any Dissolution or Division of the Funds of such Societies or either of them; or a Society formed and established under this Act or any of the said repealed Acts may be allowed to transfer its Engagements to any other Friendly Society, if any other such Society shall undertake to fulfil the Engagements of such Society, upon such Terms as shall be agreed upon by the major Part of the Trustees, and also of the Committee of Management of both Societies, or the Majority of the Members of each of such Societies at a General Meeting convened for the Purpose.

Minors may be elected as Members.

XV. A Person under the Age of Twenty-one may be elected or admitted as a Member of any Society established under this Act or any of the Acts hereby repealed, the Rules of which do not prohibit such Election, and may and he is hereby empowered to execute all necessary Instruments and to give all necessary Acquittances: Provided always, that during his Nonage he shall not be competent to hold any Office of Director, Trustee, Treasurer, or Manager of such Society.

Buildings for the Purpose may be purchased or leased.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Trustee or Trustees for the Time being of any Friendly Society formed and established under this Act or under any of the Acts hereby repealed, with the Consent of a Majority of the Members thereof present at a Special or General Meeting of the Society, to purchase, build, hire, or or take upon Lease any Building for the Purpose of holding such Meetings, and to adapt and furnish the same, and to purchase or hold upon Lease any Land not exceeding One Acre for the said Purpose of erecting thereon a Building for holding the Meetings of the Society, and such Trustee or Trustees shall thereupon hold the same in trust for the Use of such Society; and, with the like Consent as aforesaid, such Trustee or Trustees may mortgage, sell, exchange, or let such Building or any Part thereof; and the Receipt in Writing of such Trustee, or One of such Trustees for the Time being, shall be a legal Discharge for the Money arising from such Mortgage, Sale, Exchange, or Letting; and no Mortgagee, Purchaser, Tenant, or Assignee shall be bound to inquire into or ascertain or prove the Consent aforesaid, to verify his Title: Provided always, that any Building purchased or appropriated for the Purpose aforesaid already belonging to or in the Possession of any Friendly Society heretofore formed and established under the said repealed Acts or any of them may be holden and dealt with as if it had been acquired under this Act; and the Land or Buildings which may be vested in the Treasurer, Trustee, or other Officer thereof for the Time being shall thereupon vest in the Trustee or Trustees for the Time being of such Society, for the same Estate and Interest as the said Treasurer, Trustee, or other Officer may have therein, without any Conveyance or Assignment whatever: Provided nevertheless, that all Money spent in purchasing, building, hiring, or taking upon Lease any Building for the Purpose of holding such Meetings, and in adapting and furnishing the same, be raised according to the Rules of the Society on such Behalf inserted; and this Section shall apply to any Society registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852, and to any Building or Land to be purchased, built, hired, or taken on Lease for the Purposes of the Labour, Trade, or Handicraft of such Society, in all respects as hereby enacted with regard to any Building or Land for the holding the Meetings of any Friendly Society.

Trustees, how appointed.

XVII. Every Friendly Society established under this Act shall, at some Meeting of its Members, and by a Resolution of a Majority of the Members then present, nominate and appoint One or more Person or Persons to be Trustee or Trustees for the said Society, and the like in the Case of any Vacancy in the said Office; and a Copy of the Resolution so appointing such Person or Persons to the Office of Trustee, and signed by such Trustee or Trustees and by the Secretary of the said Society, shall be sent to the Registrar, to be by him deposited with the Rules of the said Society in his Custody: Provided always, that where no Trustee shall have been appointed in any Society established under any One of the Acts hereby repealed, the Treasurer thereof, or other Person who has Custody of the Monies of such Society, shall be taken to be a Trustee, within the Meaning of this Act.

Property of the Society vested in them.

XVIII. All Real and Personal Estate whatsoever belonging to any such Society established under this Act or any of the Acts hereby repealed shall be vested in such Trustee or Trustees for the Time being, for the Use and Benefit of such Society and the Members thereof, and the Real or Personal Estate of any Branch of a Society shall be vested in the Trustees of such Branch, and be under the Control of such Trustee or Trustees, their respective Executors or Administrators, according to their respective Claims and Interest, and upon the Death or Removal of any such Trustee or Trustees the same shall vest in the succeeding Trustee or Trustees for the same Estate and Interest as the former Trustee or Trustees had therein, and subject to the same Trusts, without any Conveyance or Assignment whatsoever, save and except in the Case of Stocks and Securities in the Public Funds of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be transferred into the Name or Names of such new Trustee or Trustees; and in all Actions or Suits or Indictments, or summary Proceedings before Magistrates, touching or concerning any such Property, the same shall be stated to be the Property of the Person or Persons for the Time being holding the said Office of Trustee, in his or their proper Name or Names, as Trustees of such Society, without any further Description.

Actions, &c. by or against them.

XIX. The Trustee or Trustees of any such Society are hereby authorized to bring or defend, or cause to be brought or defended, any Action, Suit, or Prosecution in any Court of Law or Equity, touching or concerning the Property, Right, or Claim to Property of the Society for which he or they are such Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid; and such Trustee or Trustees shall and may, in all Cases concerning the Real or Personal Property of such Society, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any Court of Law or Equity, in his or their proper Name or Names, as Trustee or Trustees of such Society, without other Description; and no such Action, Suit, or Prosecution shall be discontinued or shall abate by the Death of such Person, or his Removal from the Office of Trustee, but the same shall and may be proceeded in by or against the succeeding Trustee or Trustees as if such Death or Removal had not taken place; and such succeeding Trustee or Trustees shall pay or receive the like Costs as if the Action or Suit or Prosecution had been commenced in his or their Name or Names, for the Benefit of or to be reimbursed from the Funds of such Society.

Limitation of his Responsibility.

XX. Provided nevertheless, That no Trustee or Trustees of any such Society shall be liable to make good any Deficiency which may arise or happen in the Funds of such Society, but shall be liable only for the Monies which shall be actually received by him on account of such Society.

Treasurer to give Security.

XXI. The Treasurer of every such Society, and every Treasurer hereafter appointed in any Society established under any of the repealed Acts, or any other Officer who is required by the Rules to give Security, shall, before he take upon himself the Execution of his Office, become bound, with One sufficient Surety, in a Bond according to the Form set forth in the Third Schedule to this Act, or give the Security of a Guarantee Society established in London, in such penal Sum as the Society or the Committee mittee of Management shall direct and appoint, conditioned for his just and faithful Execution of his said Office of Treasurer, and for rendering a just and true Account of all Monies received or paid by him on account of the said Society at such Times as the Rules of the said Society shall direct and appoint, and at such Times as he shall be required so to do by the Trustee or Trustees of the said Society, or by a Majority of the said Committee of Management, or by a Majority of the Members present at any Meeting of such Society; and every such Bond shall be given to the Trustee or Trustees of the said Society for the Time being; and if the same shall at any Time become forfeited, it shall be lawful for such Trustee or Trustees for the Time being to sue upon such Bond for the Use of such Society; and in Scotland such Bond shall have the same Force and Effect as a Bond there in use duly attested and completed, and containing a Clause of Registration for Execution as well as for Preservation in the Books of Council and Session and other Judges Books competent, and shall be registered in such Books accordingly, with a view to Diligence.

Treasurer to account.

XXII. Every such Treasurer or other Officer, whether appointed before or after the passing of this Act, at such Times as by the Rules of such Society he should render such Account as aforesaid, or upon being required so to do by the Trustee or Trustees of such Society, or by a Majority of the said Committee of Management, or by a Majority of the Members present at a Meeting of the said Society as aforesaid, within Seven Days after such Requisition shall render to the Trustee or Trustees of the Society, or to the said Committee of Management, or to the Members of such Society at a Meeting of the Society, a just and true Account of all Monies received and paid by him since he last rendered the like Account, and of the Balance then remaining in his Hands, and of all Bonds or Securities of such Society, which Account the said Trustee or Trustees or Committee of Management shall cause to be audited by some fit and proper Person or Persons by them to be appointed; and such Treasurer, if thereunto required, upon the said Account being audited, shall forthwith hand over to the said Trustee or Trustees the Balance which on such Audit shall appear to be due from him, and shall also, if required, hand over to such Trustee or Trustees all Securities and Effects, Books, Papers, and Property of the said Society in his Hands or Custody; and if he fail to do so the Trustee or Trustees of the said Society may sue upon the Bond aforesaid, or may sue such Treasurer in the County Court of the District, or in any of the Superior Courts of Common Law, or in any other Court having Jurisdiction, for the Balance appearing to have been due from him upon the Account last rendered by him, and for all the Monies since received by him on account of the said Society, and for the Securities and Effects, Books, Papers, and Property in his Hands or Custody, leaving him to set off in such Action the Sums, if any, which he may have since paid on account of the said Society; and in such Action the said Trustee or Trustees shall be entitled to recover their full Costs of Suit, to be taxed as between Attorney and Client.

Property how recovered, if the Officer die, or become bankrupt or insolvent.

XXIII. If any Person already appointed or employed or hereafter to be appointed or employed to or in any Office in any Friendly Society established under this Act or under any of the Acts hereby repealed, whether such Appointment or Employment was before or after the legal Establishment of such Society, and having in his Hands or Possession, by virtue of his Office, any Monies or Property whatsoever of such Society, or any Deeds or Securities belonging to such Society, shall die, or become bankrupt or insolvent, or have any Execution or Attachment or other Process issued against him or any Part of his Property, or shall have any Action or Diligence raised against his Lands, Goods, Chattels, or Effects, or Property or other Estate, heritable or moveable, or shall make any Assignment, Disposition, Assignation, or other Conveyance for the Benefit of his Creditors, the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assignees of every such Officer, and every other Person having or claiming Right to the Property of such Officer, and the Sheriff or other Person executing such Process, and the Party using such Action or Diligence respectively, shall, upon Demand in Writing made by the Treasurer or by the Trustee or any Two of the Trustees of such Society, or any Person appointed at some Meeting of the Society to make such Demand, deliver and pay over all such Monies, Property, Deeds, and Securities belonging to such Society to such Person as such Treasurer or Trustees shall appoint, and shall pay, out of the Estate, Assets, or Effects, heritable or moveable, of such Officer, all Sums of Money due which such Officer shall have received, before any other of his Debts are paid, and before any other Claims upon him shall be satisfied, and before the Money directed to be levied by such Process as aforesaid, or which may be recovered or recoverable under such Diligence, is paid over to the Party issuing such Process or using such Diligence; and all such Assets, Lands, Goods, Chattels, Property, Estates, and Effects shall be bound to the Payment, Discharge, and Satisfaction of such Claims.

Punishment of Fraud in withholding Money, &c.

XXIV. If any Officer, Member, or other Person, being or representing himself to be a Member of such Society, or the Nominee, Executor, Administrator, or Assignee of a Member thereof, or any Person whatsoever, by false Representation or Imposition, shall obtain Possession of any Monies, Securities, Books, Papers, or other Effects of such Society, or having the same in his Possession shall withhold or misapply the same, or shall wilfully apply any Part of the same to Purposes other than those expressed or directed in the Rules of such Society, or any Part thereof, it shall be lawful in England for any Justice of the Peace acting in the County or Borough in which the Place of Business of such Society shall be situated, upon Complaint made by any Person on behalf of such Society, to summon the Person against whom such Complaint is made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and any Two Justices present at the Time and Place mentioned in such Summons shall proceed to hear and determine mine the said Complaint, in manner directed by the Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three; and in Scotland every such Offence may be prosecuted by summary Complaint at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the County, or of the Society, with his Concurrence, before the Sheriff; and if the said Justices or Sheriffs respectively shall determine the said Complaint to be proved against such Person, they shall adjudge and order him to deliver up all such Monies, Securities, Books, Papers, or other Effects to the Society, or to repay the Amount of Money applied improperly, and to pay, if they think fit, a further Sum of Money not exceeding Twenty Pounds, together with Costs not exceeding Twenty Shillings; and, in default of such Delivery of Effects, or Repayment of such Amount of Money, or Payment of such Penalty and Costs aforesaid, the said Justices or Sheriffs may order the said Person so convicted to be imprisoned in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Months: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Society, or in Scotland Her Majesty's Advocate, from proceeding by Indictment against the said Party: Provided also, that no Person shall be proceeded against by Indictment if a Conviction shall have been previously obtained for the same Offence under the Provisions of this Act.

Rules to be made.

XXV. Before any Friendly Society shall be established under this Act, the Persons intending to establish the same shall agree upon and frame a Set of Rules for the Regulation, Government, and Management of such Society; and in such Rules they may, amongst other things, make Provision for appointing a General Committee of Management of such Society, and delegating to such Committee all or any of the Powers given by this Act to the Members of Friendly Societies formed or established under or by virtue of the same; and such Rules shall set forth,

1. The Name of the Society and Place of Meeting for the Business of the Society:
2. The whole of the Objects for which the Society is to be established, the Purposes for which the Funds thereof shall be applicable, and the Conditions under which any Member may become entitled to any Benefit assured thereby, and the Fines and Forfeitures to be imposed on any Member of such Society:
3. The Manner of making, altering, amending, and rescinding Rules:
4. A Provision for the Appointment and Removal of a General Committee of Management, of a Trustee or Trustees, Treasurer, and other Officers:
5. A Provision for the Investment of the Funds, and for an annual or periodical Audit of Accounts:
6. The Manner in which Disputes between the Society and any of its Members, or any Person claiming by or through any Member, or under the Rules, shall be settled:

And the Rules of every such Society shall provide that all Monies received or paid on account of each and every particular Fund or Benefit assured to the Members thereof, their Husbands, Wives, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Sisters, Nephews or Nieces, for which a separate Table of Contributions payable shall have been adopted, shall be entered in a separate Account, distinct from the Monies received and paid on account of any other Benefit or Fund, and also that a Contribution shall be made to defray the necessary Expenses of Management, and a separate Account shall be kept of such Contributions and Expenses.

Copies to be sent to the Registrar, and his Certificate obtained.

XXVI. Two printed or written Copies of such Rules, signed by Three of the intended Members and the Secretary or other Officer, shall be transmitted to the Registrar aforesaid, and the said Registrar shall advise with the Secretary or other Officer, if required, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether the said Rules are calculated to carry into effect the Intentions and Object of the Persons who desire to form such Society, and if the Registrar shall find that such Rules are in conformity with Law and with the Provisions of this Act, he shall give a Certificate in the Form set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act, and shall return One of the said Copies to the said Society, and shall keep the other in such Manner as shall from Time to Time be directed by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and for which Certificate no Fee shall be payable to the said Registrar; and all Rules, when so certified as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members of the said Society: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the said Registrar to grant any such Certificate to a Society assuring to any Member thereof a certain Annuity or certain Superannuation, deferred or immediate, unless the Tables of Contributions payable for such kind of Assurance shall have been certified under the Hand of the Actuary to the Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt, or by an Actuary of some Life Assurance Company established in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, who shall have exercised the Profession of Actuary for at least Five Years, and such Certificate be transmitted to the Registrar, together with the Copies of the Rules aforesaid.

Actuary's Certificate to be sent with the Copies in case of Tables of Annuities.

Rules may be altered, amended, rescinded, or new Rules made.

XXVII. After the Rules of a Friendly Society shall have been so certified by the Registrar as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Society, by Resolution at a Meeting specially called for that Purpose, to alter, amend, or rescind the same or any of them, or to make new Rules; and it shall be lawful for any Friendly Society formed and established under any of the Acts hereby repealed to alter, amend, or rescind the Rules by which their Society is governed, regulated, or managed, or to make new Rules: Provided always, that Two Copies of the proposed Alterations or Amendments, and of such new Rules, signed by Three Members of such Society, and the Secretary or other Officer, shall be transmitted to the said Registrar, to One of which shall be attached a Declaration by the Secretary or One of the Officers

Officers of such Society, that in making the same the Rules of such Society respecting the making, altering, amending, and rescinding Rules, or the Directions of the Act under which such Society was established, have been duly complied with; and if the said Registrar shall find that such Alterations, Amendments, or new Rules are in conformity with Law, he shall give to the Society a Certificate in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act, and return One of the Copies to the Society, and shall keep the other, with the Rules of such Society, in his Custody, and for which Certificate no Fee shall be payable to the said Registrar, and as against such Member or Person such Certificate shall be conclusive of the Validity thereof; and all Rules, Alterations, and Amendments, when so certified as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members of the said Society, and all Persons claiming on account of a Member or under the said Rules; but unless and until the same shall be so certified as aforesaid such Rules, Alterations, and Amendments shall have no Force or Validity whatsoever.

When Place of Meeting altered, Notice to be sent to Registrar.

XXVIII. Whenever any Friendly Society established under this Act or under any of the Acts hereby repealed shall change its Place of Business, Notice of such Change, under the Hands of Two of the Trustees or Three Members and Secretary or other Officer, shall, within Fourteen Days thereafter, be sent to the said Registrar.

Circulating false Copies of Rules, &c. a Misdemeanor.

XXIX. If any Person shall give to any Member of a Friendly Society established under this Act or under any of the said repealed Acts, or to any Person intending or applying to become a Member of such Society, a Copy of any Rules, or of any Alterations or Amendments of the same, other than those respectively which have been enrolled with any Clerk of the Peace or certified by the Registrar, with a Copy of his Certificate appended thereto, under colour that the same are binding upon the Members of such Society, or shall make any Alterations in or Addition to any of the Rules or Tables of such Society after they shall have been respectively enrolled or certified by the Registrar, and shall circulate the same, purporting that they have been duly enrolled or certified under this or any of the said repealed Acts, when they have not been so duly enrolled or certified, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Rules, how received in Evidence.

XXX. All Rules and Tables of any Society established under this Act or any of the said repealed Acts, and all Alterations and Amendments thereof, and all Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom, and all Writings and Documents relating to a Friendly Society, and purporting to be signed by the Registrar, shall, in the Absence of any Evidence to the contrary, be received in all Courts of Law and Equity, and elsewhere without Proof of the Signature thereto.

On Death of Member, Sum under 50*l.* may be paid without Administration.

XXXI. When, on the Death of any Member of a Society established under this Act or any of the said repealed Acts, a Sum of Money not exceeding Fifty Pounds shall become payable, the same shall be paid by the Trustees of such Society to the Person directed by the Rules thereof, or nominated by the Deceased, in Writing deposited with the Secretary (such Person being the Husband, Wife, Father, Mother, Child, Brother or Sister, Nephew or Niece of such Member); and in case there shall be no such Direction or Nomination, or the Person so nominated shall have died before the deceased Member, or in case the Member shall have revoked such Nomination, then such Sum shall be paid to the Person who shall appear to the said Trustees to be entitled under the Statute of Distributions to receive the same, without taking out Letters of Administration in England or Ireland, and without Confirmation in Scotland: Provided, that wherever the Trustee or Trustees of any such Society, after the Decease of any Member thereof, shall have paid and divided any such Sum of Money to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall at the Time of such Payment appear to such Trustee or Trustees to be entitled to the Effects of any deceased Member who has died intestate, without having appointed any Nominee as aforesaid, the Payment of any such Sum shall be valid and effectual with respect to any Demand from any other Person or Persons as next of Kin of such deceased Member, or as the lawful Representative or Representatives of such Member, against the Funds of such Society or against the Trustees thereof; but nevertheless such next of Kin or Representative shall have his or her lawful Remedy for such Money so paid as aforesaid against the Person or Persons who shall have received the same.

Indemnity to Trustees.

Funds, how invested.

XXXII. The Trustee or Trustees of every Friendly Society established under this Act or any of the said repealed Acts shall from Time to Time, with the Consent of the Committee of Management of such Society, or of a Majority of the Members of such Society present at a General or Special Meeting thereof, or in accordance with the Rules of such Society, invest the Funds of such Society, or any Part thereof, to any Amount, in any Savings Bank, or in the Public Funds, or with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, as herein-after mentioned, or in such other Security as the Rule of such Society may direct, not being the Purchase of House or Land, (save and except the Purchase of Buildings wherein to hold the Meetings or transact the Business of such Society, as herein-before mentioned,) and not being the Purchase of Shares in any Joint Stock Company or other Company, with or without Charter of Incorporation, and not being personal Security, except in the Case of a Member of One full Year's Standing at least, and in respect of a Sum not exceeding One Half the Amount of his Assurance on Life, such Member providing the written Security of himself and Two satisfactory Sureties for Repayment, and in case of such Member's Death before Repayment the Amount of such Advance, with Interest, may be deducted from the Sum so assured, without Prejudice in the meantime to the Operation of such Security.

XXXIII. Every

Funds may be invested with the Commissioners of the National Debt.

XXXIII. Every Friendly Society established under this Act which does not assure the Payment in any Event of a Sum exceeding Two hundred Pounds, or an Annuity exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, may pay any Sum of Money not less than Fifty Pounds into the Bank of England or Ireland, to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, upon the Declaration of the Trustee or of the Trustees, or any Two or more of them, that such Monies belong exclusively to the said Society; and the Cashier of the Bank of England is hereby required to receive all such Monies, and to place the same to the Account raised in the Name of the said Commissioners in the Book of the Bank, named "The Fund for Friendly Societies;" and if such Declaration shall not be true, then and in every such Case the Sum of Money so paid in on such Declaration shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners, and shall be applied by them in the Manner directed by any Act or Acts for the Time being in force relating to Savings Banks with respect to the Account of such Banks; and the Regulation of Receipts, Certificates, or Orders concerning Saving Banks shall be deemed applicable to Monies paid in as aforesaid under the Authority of this Act, as if the same had been herein repeated; and every such Society, on paying Money directly into the Bank as aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive Receipts bearing Interest at the Rate of Twopence per Centum per Diem: Provided, that every Society which shall deposit any Part of its Funds in any Savings Bank, or with the Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt, shall furnish to the said Commissioners from Time to Time such Accounts as they may require in reference to the Funds so deposited.

What Interest old Societies shall have.

XXXIV. Every Society already established under any of the Acts hereby repealed, which shall have heretofore invested any Part of its Funds with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, shall be entitled to pay into the Bank of England or Ireland in Sums of not less than Fifty Pounds, Money received from Members on account of Assurances made before the passing of this Act, and to receive Receipts for the same bearing Interest at such Rate or Rates as such Society has hitherto been entitled to receive on account of such Assurances; that is to say, for Money invested with the Commissioners by any Society legally established before the Twenty-eighth Day of July in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, on account of any Assurance made before the Fifteenth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty, Threepence per Centum per Diem; and on account of any Assurance effected after that Day, Twopence per Centum per Diem; and for Money invested with the Commissioners by any Society established between the Twenty-eighth Day of July in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight and the Fifteenth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty, on account of Assurances made before the Fifteenth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty, Twopence Halfpenny per Centum per Diem; and on account of any Assurance effected after that Day, Twopence per Centum per Diem; and for Money invested with the Commissioners by any Society established since the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty, the Sum of Twopence per Centum per Diem: Provided that the Trustees of every Society which shall have invested or shall invest any Part of its Funds with the said Commissioners shall furnish from Time to Time such Accounts and Returns as the said Commissioners shall require, and shall satisfy the said Commissioners that they are legally entitled to receive such Interest as aforesaid, and to make such further Investment.

Re-depositing of Money withdrawn.

XXXV. Where any Friendly Society shall withdraw Money invested by them with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, such Society shall not be entitled to make any further Deposit with the said Commissioners without the Consent of the said Commissioners, or of the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller under them.

Transfer of Stock.

XXXVI. Whenever it shall happen that any Person, being or having been a Trustee of any Society established under this Act or any Act hereby repealed, and whether he shall have been appointed before or after the legal Establishment thereof, in whose Name any Part of the several Stocks, Annuities, and Funds belonging to any such Society, transferable at the Bank of England or Ireland, or in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Ireland, or in any Savings Bank, is or shall be standing, shall be out of England or Ireland or Scotland respectively, or shall have been removed from his Office of Trustee, or shall be a Bankrupt, Insolvent, or Lunatic, or it shall be unknown whether such Trustee is living or dead, it shall be lawful for the Registrar, after receiving an Application in Writing from the Secretary of the Society and Three Members thereof, and upon Proof satisfactory to such Registrar, to direct the Accountant General or other proper Officer for the Time being of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Ireland, or of any Savings Bank, to transfer in the Books of the said Company or of the said Savings Bank such Stocks, Annuities, or Funds, standing as aforesaid, into the Name of the Trustee who shall be newly appointed, and to pay to him from Time to Time the Dividends thereof; and if One of Two or more such Trustees shall die, or be removed from his Office of Trustee, or become bankrupt or insolvent, it shall be lawful for the Registrar, on the like Application, to direct that the other or others of the Trustees shall transfer such Stock, Annuities, or Funds into the Name of such Person as may have been appointed in his Stead, jointly with the continuing Trustee or Trustees.

Power of Attorney, &c. not liable to Stamp Duty.

XXXVII. No Copy of Rules, nor Power, Warrant, or Letter of Attorney granted by any Person as Trustee of any Society established under this Act or any of the Acts hereby repealed, for the Transfer of any Share in the Public Funds standing in the Name of such Trustee, nor any Order or Receipt for Money

Money contributed to or received from the Funds of any such Society, by any Person liable or entitled to pay or receive the same by virtue of the Rules thereof or of this Act, nor any Bond to be given to or on account of any such Society, or by the Treasurer or any Officer thereof, nor any Draft or Order, nor any Form of Policy, nor any Appointment of any Agent, nor any Certificate or other Instrument for the Revocation of any such Appointment, nor any other Document whatever required or authorized by or in pursuance of this Act or the Rules of any Society, shall be liable to Stamp Duty: Provided, that no Exemption from any of the Duties granted by any Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties shall be deemed to extend to any Society which shall assure the Payment of Money exceeding Two hundred Pounds, or which shall assure the Payment of any Money on the Death of a Member to any Person, except Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Member, or the Husband, Wife, Father, Mother, Child, Brother, Sister, Nephew, or Niece of such Member.

XXXVIII. If any Person shall become a Member of more than One Society, whereby certain Benefits shall accrue on account of the same Kind of Assurance from more than One Society, it shall not be lawful for him, or for any Person entitled through or under him or by reason of his Membership, or for any Number of such Persons in the aggregate, to receive more than Two hundred Pounds, or, in the Case of Annuities, Thirty Pounds a Year, from such Societies collectively; and in any Case where a Person shall so as aforesaid be a Member of more than One Society, and he, or any other Person or Persons, shall be entitled to any Benefit in gross or by way of Annuity from any such Society, he, or (as the Circumstances may require) every such other Person, shall, before he shall receive any such Benefit from any of such Societies, make and sign a Declaration that the total Value of all Benefits accruing or which shall have accrued in respect of any One Kind of Assurance does not exceed the Value of Two hundred Pounds, or, in the Case of Annuities, Thirty Pounds a Year; and it shall be lawful for any Society to require any Member or any other Person who shall be entitled to any such Benefit, before he shall receive the same, to make and sign a Declaration to the same Effect, or that such Member was not, when the Benefit accrued, a Member of any other Association; and if any Person shall knowingly make any false or fraudulent Declaration in any such Case he shall be guilty of Misdemeanor.

No Member to receive more than 200*l.* or 30*l.* a Year from any Number of Societies.

XXXIX. The Trustees of any Friendly Society may, out of the Funds thereof, subscribe to any Hospital, Infirmary, Charitable or other Provident Institution, such annual or other Sum as may be agreed upon by the Committee of Management, or by a Majority of the Members at a Meeting called for that Purpose, in consideration of any Member of such Society, his Wife, Child, or other Person nominated, being eligible to receive the Benefits of such Hospital or other Institution, according to the Rules thereof.

Trustees may subscribe to a Hospital or Provident Institution.

XL. Every Dispute between any Member or Members of any Society established under this Act or any of the Acts hereby repealed, or any Person claiming through or under a Member, or under the Rules of such Society, and the Trustee, Treasurer, or other Officer, or the Committee thereof, shall be decided in manner directed by the Rules of such Society, and the Decision so made shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties, without Appeal: Provided that where the Rules of any Society established under any of the Acts hereby repealed shall have directed Disputes to be referred to Justices, such Disputes shall, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, be referred to and decided by the County Court as herein-after mentioned.

As to the Determination of Disputes according to the Rules.

XLI. In all Friendly Societies established under this Act or any of the said repealed Acts, all Applications for the Removal of any Trustee, or for any other Relief, Order, or Direction, or for the Settlement of Disputes that may arise or may have arisen in any Society the Rules of which do not prescribe any other Mode of settling such Disputes, or to enforce the Decision of any Arbitrators, or to hear or determine any Dispute, if no Arbitrator shall have been appointed or if no Decision shall be made by the said Arbitrators within Forty Days after Application has been made by the Member or Person claiming through or under a Member or under the Rules of the Society, shall be made to the County Court of the District within which the usual or principal Place of Business of the Society shall be situate; and such Court shall, upon the Application of any Person interested in the Matter, entertain such Application, and give such Relief, and make such Orders and Directions in relation to the Matter of such Application, as herein-after mentioned, or as may now be given or made by the Court of Chancery in respect either of its ordinary or its special or statutory Jurisdiction; and the Decision of such County Court upon and in relation to such Application as aforesaid shall not be subject to any Appeal: Provided always, that in Scotland the Sheriff within his County, and in Ireland the Assistant Barrister within his District, shall have the same Jurisdiction as is hereby given to the Judge of a County Court.

In what Cases by the County Court.

XLII. In all Cases where the Order of such County Court shall be for the Payment of Money, the same may be enforced in the same Manner as the ordinary Judgments of such Court are enforced; but where the Order of the said Court shall be for the doing of some Act, not being for the Payment of Money, it shall be lawful for the Judge of such County Court in his said Order to order the Party to do such Act, or that in default of his doing it he shall pay a certain Sum of Money; and in case he refuse or neglect to do the Act required, upon Demand in that Behalf, the Sum of Money or Penalty in the said Order may then be recovered in the same Manner as a Judgment for Debt or Damages in such Court; and it shall not be lawful to remove the same by Certiorari or other Writ or Process to any Superior Court of Record.

Order of County Court, how enforced.

XLIII. Provided, however, That the Lord Chancellor may make such Orders for regulating the Proceedings by and before the Judges of County Courts under this Act as he may think fit; and in Scotland

Lord Chancellor may make Orders for regulating the Proceedings in this respect.

Scotland the Court of Session shall have the like Power by Act of Sederunt as regards Proceedings before Sheriffs under this Act; and, subject to such Orders and Acts of Sederunt respectively, such Judges and Sheriffs may regulate the Proceedings before them respectively so as to render them as summary and inexpensive as conveniently may be.

In the Case of Societies whose Rules are not certified, Disputes between the Society and its own Members to be settled as in Cases of certified Societies.

XLIV. In the Case of any Friendly Society established for any of the Purposes mentioned in Section IX. of this Act, or for any Purpose which is not illegal, having written or printed Rules, whose Rules have not been certified by the Registrar, provided a Copy of such Rules shall have been deposited with the Registrar, every Dispute between any Member or Members of such Society, and the Trustees, Treasurer, or other Officer, or the Committee of such Society, shall be decided in manner herein-before provided with respect to Disputes, and the Decision thereof, in the Case of Societies to be established under this Act, and the Sections in this Act provided for such Decision, and also the Section in this Act which enacts a Punishment in case of Fraud or Imposition by an Officer, Member, or Person, shall be applicable to such uncertified Societies: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to confer on any such Society whose Rules shall not have been certified by the Registrar, or any of the Members or Officers of such Society, any of the Powers, Exemptions, or Facilities of this Act, save and except as in and by this Section is expressly provided.

Returns to the Registrar, when and how to be made.

XLV. The Trustees of Friendly Societies established under this Act or under any of the repealed Acts, or the Officer thereof appointed to prepare Returns, shall, once in every Year, in the Months of January, February, or March, transmit to the Registrar a General Statement of the Funds and Effects of such Society during the past Twelve Months, or a Copy of the last annual Report of such Society, and shall also, within Three Months after the Expiration of the Month of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and so again within Three Months after the Expiration of every Five Years succeeding, transmit to the said Registrar a Return of the Rate or Amount of Sickness and Mortality experienced by such Society within the preceding Five Years, in such Form as shall be prepared by the said Registrar, and an Abstract of the same shall be laid before Parliament; and the Registrar shall also lay before Parliament every Year a Report of his Proceedings, in his Office of Registrar, and of the principal Matters transacted by Friendly Societies which have come under his Cognizance during the past Year.

Certain Societies established for granting annual Payments to Nominees before the Year 1850 to have Privileges of this Act.

XLVI. 'And whereas under the Provisions of the Acts hereby repealed, or some of them, certain 'Associations or Societies have been formed in England and Ireland for the provident and charitable 'Purpose of securing annual Payments to the Nominees of the Members thereof, contingent upon the 'Death of such Members, and have invested their Funds in the Manner provided by such Acts, and 'Doubts may arise whether such Associations or Societies will be entitled to the Exemptions and 'Privileges by this Act conferred in the event of such annual Payments amounting in the aggregate 'to more than Thirty Pounds; and it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and to give Protection to 'such Associations or Societies, and to the Funds thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That notwithstanding anything in this Act contained to the contrary, all such Associations or Societies as were founded and subsisting under the Provisions of the said Acts previously to the Fifteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty, shall enjoy the Exemptions and Privileges by this Act conferred on Societies to be established under the Provisions of this Act as fully as if they had been registered and certified under this Act, and notwithstanding that the contingent annual Payments to which the Nominees of the present or future Members of such Associations or Societies may become entitled shall exceed in the aggregate the Sum of Thirty Pounds.

Extra Contribution may be demanded of a Member serving in the Militia.

XLVII. In any Case where the Rules of any Society already enrolled or certified have provided that a Member shall be deprived of any Benefit by reason of his Enrolment or Service in the Militia, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of such Society to require of any Member a Contribution exceeding the Rate of Contribution hitherto payable by such Member, to an Amount not exceeding One Tenth of such Rate, during the Time such Member shall be serving out of the United Kingdom, or to suspend all Claim of such Member to any Benefits of such Society, and all Claim of the Society to any Contributions payable by such Member, during the Time he may be serving in the Militia out of the United Kingdom, provided that such Suspension shall cease so soon as the said Member shall return to the United Kingdom, and he shall thereupon be replaced on the same Footing as before he went abroad with the Regiment to which he belongs.

Act to apply to Societies constituted under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852.

XLVIII. All the Provisions of this Act shall apply to all Societies constituted under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852, in the same Manner as the Laws in force relating to Friendly Societies at the Date of the passing of the said Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852, are by the said last-mentioned Act directed to apply to Societies constituted thereunder; and the Limitation herein-before contained of the Amount of Annuities and Sums payable on the Death of any Person, or on any other Contingency, in the Case of Societies established under this Act, shall apply to all Societies constituted under the said Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852.

Interpretation of "Society."

XLIX. The Word "Society" shall extend to and include every Branch of a Society, by whatever Name it may be designated.

Extent of Act.

L. This Act shall extend to Great Britain and Ireland, and the Channel Isles, and the Isle of Man.

Commencement of Act.

LI. This Act shall commence and take effect from the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

An Act to settle Annuities on Emily Harriet Lady Raglan and Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan, and the next surviving Heir Male of his Body, in consideration of the eminent Services of the late Field Marshal Lord Raglan. [23d July 1855.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS Your Majesty, by Your most gracious Message, hath been pleased to signify that Your 'Majesty, taking into consideration the great and brilliant Services performed by the late Fitzroy 'James Henry Lord Raglan, Field Marshal in Your Majesty's Army, and Commander-in-Chief of Your 'Majesty's Forces at the Seat of War in the East, in the course of the Hostilities which have taken place 'in the Crimea, and being desirous, in recognition of these and his other distinguished Merits, to confer 'some signal Mark of Your Favour upon his Widow Emily Harriet Lady Raglan, upon his Son and

'Successor

'Successor to the Title Richard Henry Lord Raglan, and the next surviving Heir Male of the Body of 'the said Richard Henry Lord Raglan, "recommended to Your faithful Commons the Adoption of such '"Measures as might be necessary for the Accomplishment of that Purpose:"' Therefore we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, duly considering Your Majesty's gracious Intention, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

An Annuity of 1,000*l.* to be paid to Lady Raglan, and an Annuity of 2,000*l.* to Lord Raglan and his next Heir Male.

I. An Annuity of One thousand Pounds shall be paid to Emily Harriet Lady Raglan, Widow of the late Fitzroy James Henry Lord Raglan, for her natural Life, and an Annuity of Two thousand Pounds shall be paid to Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan for his natural Life, and after his Decease to the next surviving Heir Male of the Body of the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan who may succeed to the Title of Lord Raglan, for the natural Life of such Successor; and the said Annuities shall be deemed to have commenced and taken effect upon the Second Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and the First Payment of a proportionate Part thereof respectively for the Period from such Commencement thereof to the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five shall be made on the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and the said Annuities respectively shall thereafter be paid quarterly on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in every Year; and such Annuities respectively shall be payable out of and charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums of Money as have been directed to be paid out of the same by former Acts of Parliament, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall hereafter be charged upon and payable out of the said Fund,) and the Receipts of the said Emily Harriet Lady Raglan (as to the said Annuity of One thousand Pounds), and of the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan and the next surviving Heir Male of the Body of the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan on whom the Title shall descend (as to the said Annuity of Two thousand Pounds), or of such other Person as shall be duly authorized and appointed by the Person for the Time being entitled to such respective Annuity to receive the same, shall be good and sufficient Discharges for the Payments thereof; the said Annuities to be free and clear from all Taxes, Rates, and Assessments, and all other Charges whatsoever, except Income Tax.

Treasury to direct Payment of the Annuity.

II. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, to direct the Payment of the said Annuities according to the Provision herein-before contained.

Annuity of 2,000*l.* not to be aliened or incumbered.

III. The said Annuity of Two thousand Pounds shall be vested in the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan and the next surviving Heir Male of the Body of the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan to whom the said Title of Lord Raglan shall descend, and shall not be aliened, charged, or incumbered by the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan for any greater or larger Estate or Time than during the natural Life of the Person so aliening, conveying, disposing, charging, or incumbering the same, so as to prevent the same from descending to the next surviving Heir Male of the Body of the said Richard Henry Fitzroy Lord Raglan to whom the said Title of Lord Raglan shall descend according to the Limitation aforesaid.

CAP. LXV.

An Act to amend the Dublin Carriage Acts. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS Doubts have arisen with respect to the Construction of the Dublin Carriage Act, 1853, 'and the Dublin Amended Carriage Act, 1854, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and to 'amend the said Acts:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, Enactments of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 112. and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 45. to apply to Cabriolets.

I. That all the Enactments contained in the Dublin Carriage Act, 1853, and the Dublin Amended Carriage Act, 1854, save in reference to the Sums directed to be paid for Licences and as annual Rents, in anywise relating to the Carriages therein designated as Hackney Carriages, or to the Persons therein designated and referred to as the Proprietors or Drivers thereof, shall be deemed and taken to apply to and include as well the Carriages by the said last-mentioned Act designated as Cabriolets, and the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, as the Carriages thereby designated as Hackney Carriages, and the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, anything in the said last-mentioned Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Acts construed together.

II. The said Acts and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

Short Title.

III. In citing this Act in any other Act of Parliament, legal Instrument, or Proceeding whatever, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Dublin Amended Carriage Act, 1855."

CAP. LXVI.

An Act to render valid certain Marriages in Christ Church in the Chapelry of Todmorden and Parish of Rochdale, in the Counties of Lancaster and York. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Church called Christ Church in the Chapelry of Todmorden and Parish of Rochdale in the Counties of Lancaster and York was erected and built some Time in or about the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and was duly consecrated for the Performance of Divine Service therein: And whereas divers Marriages have been solemnized in the said Church by the Minister thereof and by other Clergymen, under the Opinion that according to the Terms of the Sentence of Consecration of the said Church, or otherwise, Marriages might be lawfully solemnized therein, and Entries of the said Marriages so solemnized have been from Time to Time made in Register Books kept at the said Church, in compliance with the Provisions concerning Registry of Marriages: And whereas it is expedient, under the Circumstances aforesaid, to confirm the Marriages so as aforesaid solemnized in the said Church:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Marriages solemnized in Christ Church, Todmorden, declared valid.

I. All Marriages heretofore solemnized in the said Church, and the Publication of Banns in such Church previous to any such Marriage, shall be and be deemed to have been as good, valid, and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if such Marriages had been solemnized and such Publication of Banns had taken place in the Parish Church of Rochdale, or in the Church of the ancient Chapelry of Todmorden.

Indemnification of Ministers.

II. No Minister who has solemnized any of the said Marriages shall be liable to any Ecclesiastical Censures, or to any other Proceedings or Penalties whatsoever, by reason of his having so as aforesaid solemnized the same respectively.

Registers to be Evidence.

III. The Registers of the Marriages so solemnized as aforesaid, or Copies of such Registers, shall be received in all Courts of Law and Equity as Evidence of such Marriages respectively, in the same Manner as Registers of Marriages in Parish Churches, or Copies thereof, are by Law receivable in Evidence.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act to facilitate the Remedies on Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes by the Prevention of frivolous or fictitious Defences to Actions thereon. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS bonâ fide Holders of dishonoured Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes are often unjustly delayed and put to unnecessary Expense in recovering the Amount thereof by reason of frivolous or fictitious Defences to Actions thereon, and it is expedient that greater Facilities than now exist should be given for the Recovery of Money due on such Bills and Notes:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, as follows:

From Oct. 24, 1855, all Actions upon Bills of Exchange, &c. may be by Writ of Summons as Form in Schedule A.

Plaintiff, on filing Affidavit of personal Service, may at once sign final Judgment as Form in Schedule B.

I. From and after the Twenty-fourth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, all Actions upon Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes commenced within Six Months after the same shall have become due and payable may be by Writ of Summons in the special Form contained in Schedule A. to this Act annexed, and indorsed as therein mentioned; and it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff, on filing an Affidavit of personal Service of such Writ within the Jurisdiction of the Court, or an Order for Leave to proceed, as provided by the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, and a Copy of the Writ of Summons and the Indorsements thereon, in case the Defendant shall not have obtained Leave to appear and have appeared to such Writ according to the Exigency thereof, at once to sign final Judgment in the Form contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed (on which Judgment no Proceeding in Error shall lie) for any Sum not exceeding the Sum indorsed on the Writ, together with Interest, at the Rate specified (if any), to the Date of the Judgment, and a Sum for Costs to be fixed by the Masters of the Superior Courts or any Three of them, subject to the Approval of the Judges thereof or any Eight of them (of whom the Lord Chief Justices and the Lord Chief Baron shall be Three), unless the Plaintiff claim more than such fixed Sum, in which Case the Costs shall be taxed in the ordinary Way, and the Plaintiff may upon such Judgment issue Execution forthwith.

Defendant showing a Defence upon the Merits to have Leave to appear.

II. A Judge of any of the said Courts shall, upon Application within the Period of Twelve Days from such Service, give Leave to appear to such Writ, and to defend the Action, on the Defendant paying into Court the Sum indorsed on the Writ, or upon Affidavits satisfactory to the Judge, which disclose a legal or equitable Defence, or such Facts as would make it incumbent on the Holder to prove Consideration, or such other Facts as the Judge may deem sufficient to support the Application, and on such Terms as to Security or otherwise as to the Judge may seem fit.

CAP. LXVIII.

An Act to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in Scotland. [23d July 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited as the "Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855."

Parochial Board to carry into execution this Act.

II. In the Execution of this Act in Parishes not within the Limits, prescribed or established under the Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Valuation of Lands and Heritages in Scotland, of any Burgh sending or contributing to send a Member to Parliament, "Parochial Board" shall be held to signify the Parochial Board for the Management of the Poor, where such Parishes are not combined for such Management, and where such Parishes are so combined the Parochial Board under this Act shall signify and be composed of such Members of the combined Board as are assessed for Relief of the Poor either in respect of Occupancy or Ownership within each Parish respectively; and the Manner of holding and of transacting Business at Meetings of such Parochial Boards under this Act shall be similar to the Manner in use in respect of the Management of the Poor; and in Parishes within the aforesaid Limits of any Burgh aforesaid the Town Council of the Burgh shall be held to be the Parochial Board of such Parish under this Act: Provided always, that where, within the aforesaid Limits of any Burgh aforesaid, there is included a Burgh of Regality, the Magistrates of such Burgh of Regality shall, notwithstanding anything herein-before enacted, be held to be the Parochial Board of any Parish within, or forming Part of such Burgh of Regality.

Provision as to Parishes partly burghal.

III. Where any Parish is partly within and partly without the Limits of such Burgh aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff of the County within which such Parish or the greater Part thereof is situated, on Application to him by any Two Members of the Parochial Board of such Parish, or by any Ten Persons assessed for Relief of the Poor within such Parish, or by any Two or more Householders residing within One hundred Yards of any Burial Ground or proposed Burial Ground within such Parish, and on giving Notice by Advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and such Newspapers of local Circulation as he may deem fitting, and hearing any Parties having Interest, to determine whether such Parish shall be held to be a Parish within or without the Limits of the said Burgh for the Purposes of this Act, and an Interlocutor so determining shall receive Effect and be as valid as if the same was set forth in this Act; and it shall not be competent to make any new Application to the Sheriff for his Determination in respect to such Parish till after the Lapse of Five Years from the Date of his last Determination respecting the same.

Proceedings on Complaints of

IV. It shall be lawful for any Two Members of the Parochial Board of any Parish in Scotland, or for any Ten Persons assessed for Relief of the Poor within such Parish, or for any Two Householders residing residing within One hundred Yards of any Burial Ground or proposed Burial Ground, to present a Petition to the Sheriff of the County within which such Burial Ground or proposed Burial Ground is situated, setting forth that a Burial Ground within such Parish or such Distance is or would be dangerous to Health, or offensive or contrary to Decency, and the Sheriff shall thereupon fix a Day, being not less than Ten nor more than Twenty Days after such Petition is presented, for inquiring into the Allegations contained therein, and shall appoint Intimation thereof to be made by Advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and in such Newspapers of local Circulation as he shall deem fitting, and on hearing the Petition shall permit all Parties whom he shall judge to have an Interest to appear and be heard in such Manner as he shall deem fitting, and if on such Hearing he shall be of opinion that any of the aforesaid Allegations are true, he shall pronounce an Interlocutor to such Effect, and shall transmit a Copy thereof to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Provided that it shall not be competent to present any such Petition to the Sheriff, except with Concurrence of the Procurator Fiscal, till after the Lapse of Five Years from the Date of any Petition to the like Effect having been dismissed.

Danger to Health.

V. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from Time to Time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of One of Her Principal Secretaries of State that a Copy of such Interlocutor of a Sheriff has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain Limits specified in such Order, save with the previous Approval of One of such Secretaries of State, or (as the Case may require) that after a Time mentioned in the Order Burials within certain Limits, or in certain Burial Grounds or Places of Burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any Exceptions or Qualifications mentioned in such Order, and such Order in Council shall thereupon have like Force and Effect as if the same were embodied in this Act: Provided always, that Notice of such Representation, and of the Time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh and the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situated; and the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the Doors of the Church of or on some other conspicuous Places within the Parishes affected by such Representation, One Month before such Representation is so considered.

On Representation of Secretary of State, Her Majesty in Council may restrain the opening of new Burial Grounds, and order Discontinuance of Burials in specified Places.

VI. Every Person who shall after the Time mentioned in such Order in Council bury any Body, or in anywise act or assist in or permit the Burial of any Body, in any way contrary to such Order, shall be liable for each such Offence to be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding Two Calendar Months, or to pay a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalties.

VII. No such Order in Council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any Burial Ground of the People called Quakers, or of the Persons of the Jewish Persuasion, used solely for the Burial of the Bodies of such People and Persons respectively, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such Order, or shall be deemed to extend to any Non-parochial Burial Ground, being the Property of any private Person, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such Order.

Order not to extend to Burial Grounds of Quakers or Jews, unless expressly included

VIII. Provided always, That, notwithstanding any such Order in Council, where at the Time of the passing of this Act any Person shall be entitled to any Right of Interment in or under any Church or Chapel or within any Churchyard or Burial Ground affected by such Order, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time, on Application being made to him, and on being satisfied that the Exercise of such Right will not be injurious to Health, to grant Licence for the Exercise of such Right during such Time and subject to such Conditions and Restrictions as such Secretary of State may think fit, but such Licence shall be revocable at any Time, and shall not give to the Holder of such Right, or to any other Party, any other Power than he would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Saving of certain Rights to bury in Vaults, &c.

IX. Although no Burial Ground in the Parish has been closed by Order in Council, the Inspector of the Poor of any Parish not within Burgh, and the Town Clerk in the Case of any Parish within Burgh, shall be bound, upon the Requisition in Writing of Ten or more Persons assessed for Relief of the Poor of the Parish, or upon the Requisition in Writing of any Two or more Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish, to convene a Special Meeting of the Parochial Board of such Parish, for the Purpose of determining whether a Burial Ground shall be provided under this Act for the Parish; and if a Majority of such Meeting of the Parochial Board shall resolve that a Burial Ground shall be provided under this Act for the Parish, such new Burial Ground shall be provided in the same Manner as if an old Burial Ground had been closed by Order in Council.

Upon Requisition of Ratepayers, &c. Meeting of Parochial Board to be convened, to determine whether Burial Ground shall be provided.

X. Whenever any Burial Ground shall have been closed by Order in Council, the Parochial Board shall forthwith proceed to provide a suitable and convenient Burial Ground for the Parish, and to make Arrangements for facilitating Interments therein; and in the event of a suitable Burial Ground not being provided by the Parochial Board within Six Months after such Order or Requisition as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Board, or for any Ten or more Persons assessed for Relief of the Poor in the Parish, or any Two or more Members of the Parochial Board, to apply by summary Petition to the Sheriff to have a suitable Portion of Land designated for the Purpose of a Burial Ground; and the Sheriff shall examine such Witnesses and make such Inquiry as he shall think proper, and shall keep a Note of such Evidence as may be adduced, and, if he thinks fit, shall thereupon proceed to designate and set apart such Portion as he may deem necessary of any Lands in such Parish suitable for the Purpose, not not being Part of any Policy, Pleasure Ground, or Garden attached to any Dwelling House: Provided always, that due Intimation shall have been given of not less than Ten Days to the Owner of such Lands, that he may be heard for his Interest before such Designation is actually made, subject always to an Appeal to any of the Lords Ordinary of the Court of Session, whose Decision shall be final, such Appeal always being presented within Fourteen Days of the Date of the Sheriff's Judgment; and provided also, that no Land shall be so designated nearer than One hundred Yards to any Dwelling House without the Consent in Writing of the Owner of such Dwelling House; and on such Land being so designated the Parochial Board shall proceed to acquire the same in manner herein-after provided.

When Burial Grounds are closed by Order in Council, Board to provide suitable Burial Grounds, &c.

Consent of Owners of Houses to new Burial Grounds, where necessary.

XI. Any Burial Ground may be provided under this Act either within or without the Limits of the Parish for which the same is provided; but no Ground not already used as or appropriated for a Cemetery shall be appropriated as a Burial Ground, or as an Addition to a Burial Ground, under this Act, nearer than One hundred Yards to any Dwelling House, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner, Lessee, and Occupier of such Dwelling House.

Board may purchase Land for Cemeteries, or contract with Cemetery Companies.

XII. For the providing such Burial Ground, it shall be lawful for the Parochial Board of the Parish to contract for and purchase or take any Lands and Buildings thereon for the Purpose of forming a Burial Ground, or for making Additions to any Burial Ground to be formed or purchased under this Act, as such Board may think fit, or to purchase from any Company or Persons entitled thereto any Cemetery or Cemeteries, or Part or Parts thereof, subject to the Rights in Vaults and Graves and other subsisting Rights which may have been previously granted therein: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Board, in lieu of providing any such Burial Ground, to contract with any such Company or Persons entitled as aforesaid for the Interment in such Cemetery or Cemeteries, and either in any allotted Part of such Cemetery or Cemeteries or otherwise, and upon such Terms as the Parochial Board may think fit, of the Bodies of Persons who would have had Rights of Interment in the Burial Grounds of such Parish.

Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 19. incorporated with this Act.

XIII. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," except the Provisions of that Act "with respect to the Provisions to be made for affording Access to the Special Act by all Parties "interested," shall be incorporated with this Act; and, for the Purposes of this Act, the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," shall mean any Parochial Board under this Act: Provided always, that the Provisions in the said Act "with respect to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement" shall have Effect only in respect of such Lands as the Sheriff of the County shall have designated as fitting for a Burial Ground in manner aforesaid: Provided further, that the Provisions in the said Act "with "respect to Lands acquired by the Promoters of the Undertaking under the Provisions of this or the "Special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, but which shall not be required for the Purposes "thereof," shall be held to apply only to such Lands or Portions thereof in which no Burial shall have taken place, and such Provisions shall not be restricted in operation to any fixed Period after the Purchase of such Lands.

Parochial Boards may concur in providing a Burial Ground for the common Use of their Parishes.

XIV. The Parochial Boards of any Parishes which shall have respectively resolved to provide Burial Grounds under this Act may concur in providing One Burial Ground for the common Use of such Parishes, in such Manner, not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, as they shall mutually agree on, and may agree as to the Proportions in which the Expenses of such Burial Ground shall be borne by such Parishes; and the Proportion of each of such Parishes of such Expenses shall be raised by Assessments in manner after mentioned; and, according and subject to the Terms which shall have been so agreed on, the Parochial Boards for such Parishes respectively shall, for the Purpose of providing and managing such One Burial Ground, and taking and holding Land for the same, act as One joint Board for all such Parishes, and may have a joint Office, Clerk, and Offices, and all the Provisions of this Act shall apply to such joint Board accordingly.

Burial Ground to be the Burial Ground of the Parish or Parishes for which it is provided.

XV. When any Burial Ground shall have been provided in Terms of this Act, such Burial Ground shall, from and after such Time as the Sheriff of the County shall appoint, be deemed the Burial Ground, or Part thereof, of the Parish for which the same is provided; and where the same is provided for Two or more Parishes such Burial Ground shall be in Law as if such Parishes were One Parish, and as if such Burial Ground were the Burial Ground of such One Parish; and the Parishioners and Inhabitants of such Parish, or of each of such Parishes, shall have the same Rights of Sepulture in such Burial Ground as they respectively would have had in the Burial Ground or Burial Grounds in and for their respective Parish, subject to the Provisions herein contained.

Liabilities of old Burial Grounds transferred to new Burial Grounds.

XVI. Where any Burial Ground shall be closed in Terms of this Act, and a new Burial Ground provided in place thereof, the whole Burdens upon, and Liabilities attaching to, the Burial Ground so closed, shall be transferred to, and become Burdens upon, the Burial Ground provided in room thereof; and the Revenues of the new Burial Ground shall be liable for the same, in like Manner as the Revenues of the Burial Ground so closed were liable.

Management to be vested in Parochial Boards.

XVII. The general Management, Regulation, and Control of the Burial Grounds provided under this Act shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act and the Regulations to be made thereunder, be vested in and exercised by the respective Parochial Boards providing the same.

Boards may sell exclusive Rights of Burial

XVIII. Any Parochial Board, under such Restrictions and Conditions as they think proper, may sell the exclusive Right of Burial, either in perpetuity or for a limited Period, in such Parts of any Burial Ground Ground provided by such Board as may with the Sanction of the Sheriff be appropriated to that Purpose, and also the Right of constructing any Chapel, Vault, or Place of Burial, with the exclusive Right of Burial therein in perpetuity or for a limited Period, and also the Right of erecting and placing any Monument, Gravestone, Tablet, or Monumental Inscription in such Burial Ground; provided always, that such exclusive Rights shall not extend in all to a Space greater than One Half of such Burial Ground. rial, and Right to erect Monuments, &c.

XIX. Any Parochial Board may make such Arrangements as they may from Time to Time think fit for facilitating the Conveyance of the Bodies of the Dead from the Parish or the Place of Death to the Burial Ground which shall be provided under this Act, or to any other Place of Burial, subject to the Provisions of this Act and the Regulations to be made thereunder; and it shall be lawful for any of the aforesaid Cemetery Companies to undertake any such Arrangement, and to carry the same into effect, subject to the Provisions and Regulations as aforesaid. Boards may make Arrangements for facilitating the Conveyance of Bodies to Burial Grounds.

XX. It shall be lawful for any Parochial Board, subject to the Provisions of this Act and the Regulations to be made thereunder, to hire, take on Lease, or otherwise to provide fit and proper Places in which Bodies may be received and taken care of previously to Interment, and to make Arrangements for the Reception and Care of the Bodies to be deposited therein, and for providing such Places such Boards may exercise the Powers vested in them under this Act for providing Burial Grounds. Places may be provided for Reception of Bodies until Interment.

XXI. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time, to make such Regulations in relation to the Burial Grounds and Places of Reception of Bodies previous to Interment which may be provided under this Act, as to him may seem proper for the Protection of the Public Health and the Maintenance of Public Decency; and the Parochial Boards and all other Persons having the Care of such Burial Grounds and Places for the Reception of Bodies shall conform to and obey such Regulations. Secretary of State may make Regulations as to Burial Grounds, &c.

XXII. No Funeral Procession, or Carriage in such Procession, and no Foot Passenger, shall, while going to or returning from the Place of Interment on the Occasion of any Interment, be liable in any Toll or Pontage. Exemption of Burials from Toll.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for any Parochial Board to enclose, lay out, and embellish any Burial Ground provided by such Board in such Manner as may be fitting and proper. Board may lay out, &c. Burial Ground.

XXIV. Every Parochial Board under this Act shall, subject to the Approval of the Sheriff of the County, fix and receive such Fees and Payments in respect of Interments in any Burial Ground provided by such Board as they shall think fit, and from Time to Time revise and alter such Fees and Payments, and a Table showing such Fees and Payments shall be printed and published, and shall be affixed and at all Times continued on some conspicuous Part of such Burial Ground. Board to fix Payments for Interments in Burial Ground.

XXV. The Provisions of "The Cemeteries Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Protection of the Cemetery, shall be incorporated with this Act, and be applicable to any Burial Ground provided under this Act, and "the Company" in these Clauses shall signify the Parochial Board under this Act. Certain Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 65. incorporated.

XXVI. The Expenses incurred by the Parochial Board of any Parish in carrying this Act into execution, in so far as the Sums received for exclusive Right of Burial or as Fees or other Payments in respect of Interments shall be insufficient, shall be raised by Assessment, to be levied in the same Way as that which may be in force for the Time being for the Relief of the Poor within the Parish; and the Parochial Board shall have like Powers for the levying of such Assessments as Parochial Boards have for the levying of Assessments for the Relief of the Poor. Expenses to be paid by Assessments.

XXVII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Parochial Board to borrow any Money required for providing and laying out any Burial Ground under this Act, and to charge the future Assessments under this Act with the Payment of such Money and Interest thereon: Provided that there shall be paid in every Year, in addition to the Interest of the Money borrowed and unpaid, not less than One Twentieth of the Principal Sum borrowed, until the whole is discharged. Power to borrow Money.

XXVIII. The Commissioners for carrying into execution an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-three, "to authorize for a "further Period the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited Amount for carrying "on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the Poor," and any Act or Acts amending or continuing the same, may from Time to Time make to the Parochial Board of any Parish, for the Purposes of this Act, any Loan, under the Provisions of the recited Act or the several Acts therein recited or referred to, upon Security of the Assessments for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish. The Public Works Loan Commissioners may advance Money for the Purposes of this Act.

XXIX. Minutes of all Proceedings of the Parochial Board, under this Act, with the Names of the Members who attend each Meeting, shall be kept; and the Parochial Board shall provide and keep Books in which shall be entered true and regular Accounts of all Sums of Money received and paid for or on account of the Purposes of this Act in the Parish, and of all Liabilities incurred by them for such Purposes, and of the several Purposes for which such Sums of Money are paid and such Liabilities incurred; and all such Books shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Examination of every Member of the Parochial Board and Ratepayer, without Fee, and they may take Copies of or Extracts from such Books or any Part thereof, without paying for the same. Minutes of Proceedings of Board to be entered in a Book. Board to keep Accounts, which shall be open to Inspection.

XXX. The Parochial Board may appoint and may remove, at pleasure, a Clerk and such other Officers and Servants as shall be necessary for the Business of the Board in respect of and for the Purposes Board may appoint and remove Officers, &c.

poses of their Burial Ground, and may appoint reasonable Salaries, Wages, and Allowances for such Clerk, Officers, and Servants, and, when necessary, may hire a sufficient Office for transacting their Business.

Register of Burials to be kept in every Ground provided under this Act.

XXXI. All Burials within any Burial Ground provided under this Act shall be registered in a Register Book to be provided by the Parochial Board providing such Ground, and kept for that Purpose; and such Register Book shall be so kept by some Officer appointed by the said Board to that Duty; and in such Register Books shall be distinguished in what Parts of the Burial Ground the several Bodies (the Burials of which are entered in such Register Books) are buried; and in case such Burial Ground has been provided for more than One Parish, such Register shall be kept or indexed so as to facilitate Searches for Entries in such Books in respect of Bodies from the several Parishes; and such Register Books, or Copies or Extracts purporting to be thereof, shall be received in all Courts as Evidence of the Burials entered therein.

Registers to be Evidence.

Sheriff's Decisions to be final.

XXXII. No Interlocutor or Deliverance of a Sheriff under this Act, excepting as herein provided, shall be in any way subject to Review, or to be set aside by reason of any Defect of Form therein or in the Procedure on which it followed.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act to discontinue the taking of Toll on the Turnpike Roads leading from the City of Dublin and on the Turnpike Road from Kinnegad to Athlone, and to provide for the Maintenance of such Roads as public Roads, and for the Discharge of the Debts due thereon, and other Purposes. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS, under the Provisions of the Acts recited in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, 'Trustees were appointed for the Management and Maintenance of the Roads next herein-after 'mentioned, with Power to levy Tolls thereon: And whereas Her Majesty was, on the Thirteenth Day 'of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, pleased to issue a Commission under 'the Great Seal to certain Persons therein named, directing them, amongst other things, to inquire into 'and to report upon the Propriety of maintaining or abolishing the said Turnpike Trust Roads, namely, 'the Dublin, Malahide, Howth and Clontarf, the Dublin and Dunleer, the Dublin and Knocksedan, the 'Dublin by Ashbourne to Slane and Drogheda, the Ratoath, the Dublin and Navan, the Dublin and 'Mullingar, and the Road branching from same by Kinnegad to Athlone, and the Dublin and Carlow, 'and to further report upon the Receipt and Expenditure and the Accounts of each Trust aforesaid, and 'upon the Debts and Charges thereon, and upon the actual Value in each of the last Ten Years of the 'Debentures and Charges due by the said Trusts respectively, and the Mode of paying off the said 'Debentures and Charges which should appear to the said Commissioners most just and equitable, and 'the Proportion thereof which should be charged to the respective Counties or Baronies concerned: 'And whereas the said Commissioners have since made their Reports to Her Majesty, and have reported 'in favour of abolishing the Turnpikes on the said Roads, and have recommended that the said Roads 'should be maintained as the other free Highways of the Counties in which they may be situated, and 'have offered Suggestions as to the Mode in which the said Turnpike Trusts should be abolished, and 'the Debentures and Debts due thereon should be valued, apportioned, and discharged: And whereas 'it is expedient that certain Recommendations of the said Commissioners should be adopted, with Modi-'fications thereof; but such Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; that is to say,

Short Title.

Proceedings, &c. of Commissioner to be binding, and not to be removed by Certiorari.

V. All Certificates, Awards, and other Instruments made or executed pursuant to this Act by the Commissioner, and all Proceedings under this Act of such Commissioner, shall be binding and conclusive (except as in this Act otherwise provided) on all Parties thereto, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall not be removed or removable by Certiorari or by any other Writ or Process into any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Dublin.

Notices may be sent by Post.

VI. All Notices and other Documents by this Act directed to be delivered or given, except such as are to be given by Advertisement, may be sent by Post.

Remuneration of Commissioner.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to direct such Sum, not exceeding Two hundred Pounds, as he shall think fit, to be paid to the Commissioner to be appointed under this Act as a Remuneration for his Services in carrying this Act into execution, and in case of a Vacancy in the Office of such Commissioner, to direct a Sum not exceeding the said Sum of Two hundred Pounds to be paid to any other fit Person who shall be appointed to the Office of such Commissioner; and the Remuneration of every such Commissioner shall be provided and paid as Part of the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution: Provided, that if any such Commissioner shall die, be removed, or vacate his Office, before the making of a General Award as by this Act provided, then it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to direct that such Portion only as to the Lord Lieutenant shall seem just and reasonable of the Remuneration so originally directed to be paid to any Commissioner so dying, being removed, or vacating his Office, shall be paid in respect of the Services of such Commissioner.

Declaration to be taken by Commissioner.

VIII. Every Commissioner appointed under this Act shall, before he enters upon the Execution of his Office, make the following Declaration before One of the Justices of the Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland; that is to say,

'I A.B., do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of 'my Skill and Judgment, fulfil all the Powers and Duties of the Commission under "The Dublin and 'other Roads Turnpikes Abolition Act, 1855."'

And the Appointment of every such Commissioner, with the Time when and the Name of the Justice or Baron before whom he shall have made the said Declaration, shall be forthwith published in the Dublin Gazette.

Commissioner to carry Act into execution. Notice to be given of Sittings. Sittings may be adjourned.

IX. The Commissioner shall proceed, so soon as he conveniently can after the passing of this Act, to sit for the Execution thereof, and before proceeding to inquire into the Affairs of any Trust shall cause Notice to be given of the Day and Time at which he shall determine to hold any Sitting, other than adjourned Sittings, and of the Purpose thereof, by Advertisement to be inserted in some Newspaper circulating in the City of Dublin, and in some Newspaper or Newspapers circulating in each of the Counties in which may be situate the Turnpike Trusts in respect of which such Sitting may be intended to be held, Fourteen Days at least before the Time fixed for holding any such Sitting; and the Commissioner shall have Power to adjourn his Sittings from Time to Time and from Place to Place, as may be found necessary.

Commissioner to inquire into Debts, Conditions, &c. of Trusts.

X. The Commissioner shall make, so far as he shall deem necessary in order to the Execution of the several Powers and Duties hereby vested in him, full and diligent Inquiry into the Revenue and Debts of each of the several Turnpike Trusts to which the Acts of Parliament in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed apply, and shall examine and ascertain the Amount and Nature of all Mortgages, Rents, and other Debts to which he shall consider each such Trust to be liable, and shall ascertain all Particulars relating to such Trust which he shall deem essential; and the Commissioner shall require to be produced, and shall examine and compare with the Registries thereof, all Mortgages or other Securities in respect of which any Claims upon the Tolls of such Turnpike Trusts shall be made; and in case it shall appear appear to the Commissioner, by the Books of such Trust, or by any other Evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner, that any Person is a bonâ fide Mortgagee, Rentholder, or Creditor of such Trust, though the Mortgage or Security of such Person may have been lost, mislaid, or destroyed, the Commissioner shall include such Person among the Mortgagees, Rentholders, or Creditors of such Trust in respect thereof.

Power to summon Witnesses, and to require Production of Documents.

XI. The Commissioner may, by Summons under his Hand, require the Attendance before him, at a Time and Place to be mentioned in such Summons, of any Trustee or Officer of any of the said Trusts, as well as of any other Person whom he may think fit to examine upon any Question or Matter connected with or relating to the Execution of this Act, and may examine upon Oath any such Trustee, Officer, or Person, and may require the Production of any Books, Accounts, Maps, Acts of Parliament, or other Documents which the Commissioner may consider to relate to any such Question or Matter: Provided always, that no Person shall be obliged by any such Summons to go or travel more than Sixty Miles from the Place of his usual Abode; and the Commissioner may allow to any Witness attending pursuant to any such Summons such Expenses as he may deem reasonable.

As to giving false Evidence, refusing to give Evidence, destroying Documents, &c.

XII. Every Person who, being examined under the Authority of this Act by the Commissioner, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and every Person who, being summoned as aforesaid, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to attend or to give Evidence, and every Person who shall wilfully alter, suppress, conceal, destroy, or refuse to produce any such Books, Accounts, Maps, Acts of Parliament, or other Documents as aforesaid, shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, in the Discretion of the Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted.

Record of Proceedings.

XIII. The Commissioner shall make a full and particular Record in Writing of such of his Proceedings in execution of this Act as he shall deem essential.

Commissioner to ascertain Mortgages charged on each Trust, and Sums to be payable in respect of such Mortgages.

XIV. So soon as the Commissioner shall have ascertained all such Particulars relating to any such Turnpike Trust as he shall deem essential, he shall proceed to estimate and determine the Sums to be payable in respect of the Mortgages to the Payment of which he shall consider such Trust to be liable, in the Manner next herein-after provided; that is to say, firstly, all Interest which shall be due and unpaid upon such Mortgages upon the Fifth Day of January next after the passing of this Act shall be extinguished; secondly, the Sums to be payable in respect of the Mortgages of the several Trust Roads following, namely, the Dublin and Knocksedan, the Dublin by Ashbourne to Slane and Drogheda, and the Dublin and Mullingar, shall be the full Amount of the Principal Monies secured by such Mortgages; thirdly, the Sums to be payable in respect of the Mortgages of the said Trust Road from Dublin to Dunleer shall be One Twentieth Part of the Principal Monies secured by such Mortgages; fourthly, the Sums to be payable in respect of the Mortgages of the said Trust Road from Kinnegad to Athlone shall be One Moiety of the Principal Monies secured by such Mortgages; fifthly, the Sums to be payable in respect of the Mortgages or Sums advanced by the Exchequer Loan Commissioners to the Trustees of the said Trust Road from Dublin to Navan shall be the Sum of Six thousand Pounds, and the Residue of the Principal Monies so advanced, and all other Mortgages upon the said last-mentioned Trust Road, shall be extinguished; and, lastly, no Sum shall be payable in respect of the Mortgages of the said Trust Road from Dublin to Carlow.

Commissioner to ascertain Rents payable by each Trust.

XV. The Commissioner shall in like Manner ascertain the Nature and Amount of all Rents charged upon and payable out of the Tolls of any such Trust, and all Rents reserved on Leases, and the Sums to be payable in respect of every such Rent shall be an Annuity of the same annual Amount as such Rent, and for the same Term as such Rent may have been made payable: Provided, that when such Rent shall be payable or reserved during the Continuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, such Rent shall be deemed a perpetual Rent: Provided also, that when the Interest in any such Lease shall be sold under this Act, no Annuity shall be payable in respect of the Rent thereby reserved.

Commissioner to ascertain certain Debts due on such Trusts.

XVI. The Commissioner shall in like Manner ascertain the Nature and Amount of all Debts, other than Mortgages, to the Payment of which he shall consider each such Trust to be justly and properly liable; and the Sums to be payable in respect of all such Debts, other than Mortgages, shall be the full Amount of such Debts.

Debts so ascertained to be charged on Counties and Baronies. Apportionment of Charges and Annuities.

XVII. The Sums and Annuities which the Commissioner shall so determine to be payable in respect of any such Turnpike Trust shall be charged upon the Counties and Baronies of the Counties in which the Roads comprised in such Trust are locally situate as next herein-after provided; that is to say, where the whole of the Roads comprised in any such Trust shall be locally situate in One County only, One Half of such Charges and Annuities shall be apportioned to the County (except in the County of Dublin), and the other Half to and between the Baronies thereof in which such Roads are situate, in proportion to the Length of such Roads in each such Barony; and where the Roads comprised in any such Trust shall be locally situate in more Counties than One, such Charges and Annuities shall be divided, first between such Counties, by allotting specific Charges and Annuities to each such County as nearly in proportion to the Length of such Roads in each such County as the Number and Amount of such Charges and Annuities will admit, and the specific Charges and Annuities so allotted to each such County shall (except in the County of Dublin) be then apportioned between such County and the Baronies thereof as herein-before provided with respect to Trusts locally situate in One County only: Provided, that, as regards regards the County of Dublin, no Portion of such Charges and Annuities shall be apportioned to the said County, but the whole thereof shall be apportioned to and between the Baronies thereof in proportion to the Length of such Roads in each such Barony: Provided also, that when in the Division between such Counties of the Charges and Annuities in respect of any particular Trust any greater Proportion of such Charges and Annuities shall have been allotted to any such County than in the Proportion of such Roads therein, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to take the same into account in dividing the Charges and Annuities in respect of any other of such Trusts, or in the apportioning of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses herein-after mentioned, so as to make the aggregate of Charges and Annuities upon each such County in respect of such Roads therein locally situate as nearly as possible in the Proportions herein-before provided: Provided also, that when the Sum payable in respect of any specific Mortgage shall be of such Amount that the same cannot be properly allotted in the Manner aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to divide the same rateably between Counties and Baronies, anything herein contained with regard to allotting specific Sums to each County or Barony to the contrary notwithstanding.

Award of Commissioner.

XVIII. The Commissioner shall thereupon make, in the Case of each Turnpike Trust, a separate Award in Writing, and shall specify therein the Names of all such Persons as he shall have determined to be entitled to any Monies as Mortgagees or Creditors of such Trust, or to any Annuities, together with the Sums of Money or Annuities to which, in the Judgment of the Commissioner, the said Persons shall be respectively entitled, and shall also specify therein the Names of all such Persons as shall have claimed or who shall appear to be Creditors or Mortgagees or Rentholders of such Trust to whom the Commissioner shall have determined to award no Sum, and shall also specify therein the Apportionment which the Commissioner shall have made as aforesaid of the Sums of Money or Annuities payable in respect of such Trust by the Counties or Baronies in which such Trust Roads shall be situate; and the Commissioner shall forthwith deliver a Copy of his Award to the Clerk or other Officer of such Trust, and the said Clerk or other Officer shall, within Three Days from the Delivery of such Award, give Notice in Writing to the several Persons therein named of the Particulars of such Award regarding such Persons respectively.

Notice of Award to be sent to Parties interested.

Awards may be to Representatives of Persons under Disabilities.

XIX. Where any Monies or Annuities shall be due to any Infant, the Award may be made for the Payment of the Sum or Annuity therein specified to the Guardian of such Infant, or if there shall be no Guardian then to any Trustee for such Infant; and if any Monies or Annuities shall be due to a Lunatic or Idiot, then the Award may be made for such Payment to the Committee of such Lunatic or Idiot; and where any Monies or Annuities shall be due to any Person, in trust for others, the Award may be made for such Payment to the Trustee; or in case of the Refusal to act or Incapacity of any such Trustee, or if for any other Cause it shall to the Commissioner appear expedient, then the Commissioner by his said Award or by any Writing under his Hand may appoint another Trustee for the Purpose of receiving such Payment.

Provisions as to Payment of Expenses of Act, &c.

XX. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses attending or incident to the applying for and obtaining this Act, and the Expenses of the Commissioner in carrying this Act into execution, shall be paid as by this Act provided; and it shall be lawful for all Persons having Claims in respect of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, at any Time within Twelve Months after the passing of this Act, to deliver to the Commissioner an Account thereof; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioner, if he shall so think fit, to cause the same or any Part thereof to be taxed by the proper Officer or Officers; and the Commissioner shall award to the Persons entitled thereto the Amount of such Accounts, or in case of Taxation the Amount thereof as taxed; and the Commissioner shall keep an Account of all Expenses incurred by him in carrying this Act into execution, and may by his Award certify the Amount thereof; and the Commissioner shall apportion the Sums so awarded and the Amount of such Expenses so certified between the Counties and the Baronies of the Counties in which the said Turnpike Trusts are situate, as herein provided with respect to Charges for Roads locally situate in more than One County; and the said Awards of the Commissioners shall have the same Force and Effect as any other Awards made in pursuance of this Act: Provided that in dividing between Counties such Sums and Expenses the Commissioner may divide the same rateably, and without allotting specific Sums, anything herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided also, that the Sums so awarded, and the said Expenses of the Commissioner, so certified, shall be the First Charge on all Monies applicable to such Purpose which shall come to the Hand of the Commissioner by virtue of this Act, in preference to all other Claims whatsoever.

Commissioner to make a General Award.

XXI. So soon as conveniently may be after the Amount of the Sums and Annuities payable to the several Mortgagees, Creditors, and Rentholders of the Trusts, to which the Acts in Schedule (A.) to this Act apply, shall have been ascertained under this Act so far as the Commissioner may be enabled to ascertain the same, and after the Commissioner shall have ascertained the Amount of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses last aforesaid, and of the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution, and shall have made the several Awards by this Act directed, the Commissioner shall draw up a General Award, which shall specify the specific Sums and Annuities payable to the Mortgagees, Creditors, and Rentholders of the said Trusts allotted by the Commissioner to each County, and the Apportionment of each such specific Sum and Annuity between such County and the Baronies thereof, and in like Manner the Division and Apportionment ment made by the Commissioner of all Sums payable in respect of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and the Persons to whom the said Sums, Annuities, Costs, and Expenses shall be respectively payable, and as regards the said Annuites the said Award shall specify the Terms or Periods during which they shall be respectively payable: Provided always, that the Sums payable in respect of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and of all Debts, other than Mortgages and Rents, shall be payable in One Instalment, and not otherwise, and the said Award shall specify that such Sums shall be so payable: Provided also, that in such General Award the Commissioner may make such Alterations in the Divisions and Apportionments made in his previous Awards under this Act as he may deem necessary to render the aggregate of the Charges upon each County and the Baronies thereof as nearly as possible in the Proportion by this Act directed.

Award to be enrolled, &c.

XXII. Such General Award, when executed by the Commissioner, shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of Her Majesty's Court of Chancery in Ireland within Three Months after the Execution thereof, and a Copy thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of each County in which may be situate any of the said Trusts, and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby authorized and required to receive and deposit the same amongst the Records of the County; and such Award, when so executed and enrolled, shall be binding and conclusive upon all Persons whomsoever; and a Copy thereof, certified by the proper Officer of Her Majesty's Rolls Office, shall be Evidence that it was duly made, and that all the Requisitions of this Act in relation thereto were complied with.

Commissioner may make Supplemental Awards.

XXIII. In case, after such General Award shall have been so made, any Claims shall be made in respect of Debts, Mortgages, or Rents not included in such General Award, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to entertain the same, and to make Supplemental Awards in relation thereto, as herein-before provided with respect to the General Award under this Act, which Supplemental Awards shall be considered Amendments of or Additions to such General Award, and shall be enrolled and deposited with the Clerk of the Peace in like Manner, and the Creditors, Mortgagees, and Rentholders included in such Supplemental Awards shall for the Purposes of this Act be considered as included in such General Award.

Grand Juries to present Interest, Annuities, &c.

XXIV. The Sums and Annuities which the Commissioner shall have ascertained by the said General Award to be payable by any such County or any Barony thereof shall be payable by the Grand Jury of such County; and the Commissioner shall certify to the Secretary of such Grand Jury the Amount of such Sums of Money and Annuities, and the Manner by and in which the same are to be payable, pursuant to this Act; and such Grand Jury is hereby empowered and required, without Application at Presentment Sessions, from Time to Time to make Presentment of Interest, from the Fifth Day of January next after the passing of this Act, at the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Sums payable in respect of the said Mortgages, and of the Amount of the Gales from Time to Time due of such Annuities, and at the Assizes or Presenting Term next after the said Commissioner shall have so certified to present the whole Sums certified to be payable in respect of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, and also in respect of any Debts, other than Mortgages and Rents, to be raised off the County at large or any Barony thereof, pursuant to the said Certificate; and in default of such Presentment the Court at the Assizes, or in the County of Dublin at the Presenting Term, shall order the Amount of such Interest, Gales of Annuity, Costs, Expenses, or Debts, as the Case may be, to be raised off such County or any Barony thereof, and such Order shall have the Force of a Presentment; and the Treasurer of such County shall insert the Amount of such Interest, Gales of Annuity, Costs, Expenses, or Debts, as the Case may be, in his Warrants, and the same shall be applotted, raised, and levied as if the same had been duly presented; and when and so soon as the Amount of such Interest, Gales of Annuity, Costs, Expenses, or Debts shall be raised and received by the Treasurer of the County, such Treasurer shall immediately pay the same to the Persons entitled thereto: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize any Mortgagee to enforce Payment of the Principal Sum due upon and secured by any Mortgage.

Commissioner to give Mortgagees Certificate of Amount due.

XXV. So soon as the said General Award shall have been executed by the Commissioner, he shall cause to be prepared, and shall deliver to every Mortgagee and Rentholder entitled under the said General Award to any Monies or Annuities allotted to any particular County, a Mortgage or Security, setting forth the Principal Sum secured by such Mortgage, and the Rate of Interest payable thereon, or the Annuity to which such Rentholder may be entitled, as the Case may be, and the Counties to which the same have been respectively allotted; and such Mortgage may be in the Form in Schedule (B.) and such Annuity in the Form in Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed: Provided always, that no Mortgage or Security shall be given to any such Mortgagee or Rentholder until he shall have delivered up to the said Commissioner every Mortgage or other Security in his Possession or Power, whereby the Debt or Rent in respect of which such General Award was made may have been secured.

Register to be kept.

XXVI. The Treasurer of the County shall keep a Register of all Mortgages and Securities under this Act affecting the County, and before he shall make any Payment on Foot thereof to the Parties entitled thereto he shall enter in such Register the Number and Date thereof, and the Sums or Annuity therein specified, and the Name and Description of the Party to whom the same is or are payable; and every such Register shall be open to public Inspection during Office Hours at the Office of such Treasurer, without Fee or Reward.

XXVII. Any

Register of Transfers.

XXVII. Any Mortgagee or Rentholder entitled to any Mortgage or Annuity under this Act may transfer his Estate and Interest therein to any other Person by Deed duly stamped, truly stating his Name, the Date of his Mortgage or Security, the Name and Description of the Parties thereto, and the Consideration for such Transfers; and such Transfer of a Mortgage may be in the Form in Schedule (C.) and such Transfer of an Annuity in the Form in Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and the Treasurer of the County shall keep a Register of such Transfers; and all such Transfers shall, previous to Payment of any Sum on Foot of the Mortgage or Annuity therein expressed to be transferred, be produced to the Treasurer of the County, and such Treasurer shall, without Fee or Reward, cause an Entry to be made in such Register of its Date, and of the Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto, as stated in the Transfer; and upon any Transfer being so registered the Transferee, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to the full Benefit of the Mortgage or Annuity so transferred; and every such Transferee may in like Manner transfer his Estate and Interest in any such Mortgage.

Payment to be a Discharge.

XXVIII. Payment to the Persons named in the said Certificates, Awards, Mortgages, or Securities respectively, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns respectively, or to the Guardian of any Infant, or to the Committee of any Idiot or Lunatic, shall be a valid and effectual Payment and Discharge of and in respect to the Monies and Annuities by the said Awards directed to be paid; and the Treasurer of the County may pay any such Monies and Annuities to the Persons whom it shall be made to appear to his Satisfaction are the Persons or Bodies beneficially or as Trustees entitled thereto, and notwithstanding any Error or Omission in the said Awards as to the Persons or the Names or Descriptions of the Persons entitled thereto.

Treasurer of County may deposit Sums awarded in the Court of Chancery.

XXIX. If any Trustee entitled to any Money so awarded shall refuse to accept the same, or if it shall appear to the Treasurer of the County that there is no Person to whom Payment thereof can be lawfully made, as herein-before provided, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer to deposit the said Monies in the Bank of Ireland, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, to be placed to the Credit (under any Description which shall appear to the said Treasurer sufficient) of the Persons entitled thereto, and upon any such Deposit being made the Cashier of the Bank of Ireland shall give the said Treasurer a Receipt for such Money, and thereupon the said Treasurer shall be discharged from all further Responsibility or Duty in regard to the Money so deposited; and upon the Application by Petition of any Party making Claim to such Money or any Part thereof, the said Court of Chancery may make such Order in relation thereto as to such Court shall seem fit.

Claims to be extinguished.

XXX. Upon Payment, pursuant to this Act, of the Sums in the said Award mentioned, the Claims of all Persons in respect of the Sums so awarded, and of the Securities or Demands in respect of which such Sums shall have been so awarded, shall be extinguished.

Grand Juries may present for Mortgages.

XXXI. In case any Grand Jury shall be desirous of purchasing, paying off, or redeeming the said Mortgages or Annuities, or any of them, it shall be lawful for any such Grand Jury to present such Sum as shall appear to be necessary for that Purpose, to be apportioned as between the County and the Baronies thereof in the same Proportions as the Mortgages or Annuities intended to be paid off or redeemed shall have been apportioned, and the Amount of such Presentment shall be raised and levied as any other Monies to be presented, raised, and levied by such Grand Jury.

Power to Grand Juries to borrow Money to pay off Mortgages, &c.

XXXII. In case any of the said Grand Juries should be desirous of raising the Amount necessary to purchase, pay off, or redeem the said Mortgages, Annuities, Debts, or any of them, by way of Loan from any Person willing to make Advances of Money for the Purpose, it shall thereupon be lawful for any such Grand Jury at any Assizes, or if in the County of Dublin at any Presenting Term, to present such Sum as shall be intended to be raised by Loan in order to obtain such Advance, and to set forth in such Presentment that the said Sum shall be raised and levied by half-yearly Instalments of not less than Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, and likewise to present a Sum sufficient to pay the annual Interest of the Sum so advanced, and of the Balance thereof from Time to Time remaining due, at a Rate not exceeding Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and also to set forth in such Presentment the Proportions thereof as directed by the said Certificate to be raised on the County at large or upon any Barony thereof; and it shall be lawful for any such Grand Jury in every such Presentment to nominate and appoint a Committee of not less than Three or more than Five Persons to treat, agree, and contract for a Loan with any Person willing to make the same on the Security of such Presentment, and otherwise to carry the said Presentment into effect; and every such Presentment may be in the Form in Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed.

Grand Jury to nominate Committee to treat, &c. for a Loan.

Committee to negotiate Loan.

XXXIII. And it shall be lawful for the Committee so nominated and appointed, or any Three or more of them, to treat, agree with, and contract for a Loan with any Person willing to make the same on the Faith of such Presentment, and for the Rate of Interest not exceeding the Limit aforesaid to be paid in respect of such Loan; and the Terms of every such Contract shall be reduced to Writing on a certified Copy of such Presentment, and signed by the said Committee or any Three or more of them, and by the Person advancing such Money, and shall be delivered to such last-mentioned Person, and held by him as a Security for his Loan until the whole Amount thereof, with Interest as therein set forth, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

XXXIV. The

Loan to be paid to Treasurer.

XXXIV. The Loan shall be paid into the Account and to the Credit of the Treasurer of the County, and accounted for by him in like Manner as any other Monies by him received for the Use of the County, and all Securities given by him shall extend to such Monies; and the Treasurer, so soon as the said Loan shall have been so paid into his Credit as such Treasurer, shall pay and apply the same to and amongst the Persons entitled to the Sums in respect of which such Loan shall have been made.

Treasurer to insert in Warrants Instalments of Loan.

XXXV. The Treasurer of the County shall, without further Authority or Presentment in that Behalf, issue his Warrant for or include in his general Warrant at each Assizes, or, if in the County of Dublin, Presenting Term, such Portion of the whole Sum presented by the Grand Jury as aforesaid, together with such Sum for Interest thereon as may be necessary for the Purpose of paying to the Person so advancing Money the Instalments and Interest thereon as aforesaid, and it shall not be lawful for the Grand Jury to restrain the issuing of any such Warrant; and the Sum inserted in such Warrant shall be raised and levied as other Monies directed by any Warrant of such Treasurer are by Law raised and levied; and such Treasurer shall pay the Person so advancing Money all such Monies as shall be received by him by virtue of the Presentment and Warrants aforesaid, till the whole Loan, with the Interest thereon, shall be paid: Provided always, that all Monies in the Treasurer's Hands shall be applicable to pay the said Instalments of Principal, and the Interest thereon, according to the Terms of any such Loan, and if it shall happen that any Money shall be raised by virtue of any such Presentment which shall not be required for the Purposes for which it shall have been so raised, the same shall be carried to the Credit of the County or Barony from which it shall have been raised.

Grand Juries may redeem Mortgages or Annuities.

XXXVI. So soon as the Amount of the Presentment so made or the Loan so contracted for the Purpose of purchasing, paying off, or redeeming any such Mortgages or Annuities shall have been paid to or received by the Treasurer of the County, he shall apply the same in paying to such Mortgagees the Principal Sum due on Foot of their said Mortgages, or such less Sum as the said Mortgagees may be willing or shall have agreed to accept for their said Mortgages, or in redeeming the said Annuities, upon such Terms as the said Annuitants may be willing to accept: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to pay the said Annuitants, in redemption of their said Annuities, any greater Sum than at the Rate of One hundred Pounds for every Four Pounds of Annuity.

Redeemed Mortgages or Annuities to be cancelled.

XXXVII. When any such Mortgage or Annuity shall have been paid off or redeemed, the same shall be transferred by the Mortgagee or Annuitant to the Treasurer in the Manner herein provided, and the Deed of Transfer shall express that the same has been transferred to the said Treasurer, in trust for the County, and thereupon the said Mortgage or Annuity shall be extinguished, and the Security therefor shall be cancelled by the Treasurer, and delivered to the Clerk of the Peace, to be kept among the Records of the County, and the said Treasurer shall enter in the said Transfer Book a Memorandum that said Security has been so cancelled and delivered.

Acts named in Schedule (A.) to be repealed. Tolls to cease, and Roads declared public Roads.

XXXVIII. On and after the Fifth Day of January next after the passing of this Act, the several Acts set forth in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed are hereby repealed, and from thenceforth the Trustees appointed by the said Acts shall be discharged from the Execution of the Trusts and Powers thereby vested in them, and the Collection and taking of Tolls upon the Roads in the said Acts comprised shall absolutely cease; and upon and from the said Fifth Day of January the said Roads shall be and become and the same are hereby declared to be public Roads of the Counties in which such Roads are respectively situate, and shall be maintained and kept in repair in like Manner and shall be subject to the like Provisions as other public Roads within the said several Counties.

Officers to account, and deliver up Documents, &c.

XXXIX. The Officers employed under the said Acts hereby repealed shall, within Thirty Days after the said Fifth Day of January, make up, sign, and balance their Accounts up to the said Fifth Day of January, and shall lay the same before the Commissioner, who is hereby authorized to examine such Officers upon Oath as to the Truth of their Accounts, and to accept and receive any Balance that may be due by any such Officer; and every such Officer shall pay or deliver to the Commissioner, or to such Person as he shall direct and appoint to receive the same, all Monies, Balances, Securities, Vouchers, Receipts, Accounts, and other Documents, and also all Materials, Tools, Implements, and other Things in his Possession or Control by virtue of his said Office; and if any such Officer shall neglect or refuse to render such Accounts, or to pay any such Balance, or to deliver to the Commissioner or the Person appointed by him as aforesaid any of the Documents or Things aforesaid in his Possession or Control by virtue of his said Office, such Officer shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, in the Discretion of the Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted.

Penalty for not accounting.

Penalties, &c. how to be recovered.

XL. All Fines or Penalties inflicted or imposed by this Act may be sued for and recovered in a summary Way by the Order and Adjudication of any Justice or Justices of the Peace at Petty Sessions, under and subject to the several Provisions and Regulations relating to summary Jurisdiction contained in "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," and shall be applied in the Manner by the said Act directed.

Property of Trusts to vest in Commissioner.

XLI. Upon and from the said Fifth Day of January all Lands, Quarries, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and all Turnpikes, Toll Houses, Toll Bars, Toll Gates, Side Gates, Chains, Lamps, Lamp Posts, Monies, Choses in Action, and all other Property vested in or belonging to the Trustees of the several Roads, for the Purposes of the Trusts thereof, shall vest in the Commissioner for such Estate or Interest as the said Trustees shall have therein; and the said Trustees and their Officers and all other Persons in possession possession thereof shall surrender the same, and all the Title Deeds, Leases, Contracts, Instruments, or Things relating thereto, to the Commissioner, to be by him applied as by this Act directed.

Trust Property to be sold.

XLII. The Commissioner shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the said Fifth Day of January, sell and dispose or authorize the Sale and Disposal of the Estate and Interest in such of the Lands or other Real Property of each of the said Turnpike Trusts so vested in him as shall not be required for the Purposes of the said Roads, and the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereof, and of such Personal Property as aforesaid, either by Public Auction or by Private Contract, and either in One Lot or in several Lots, as to him shall seem fit, to such Persons as shall be willing to become the Purchasers thereof or of any Part thereof; and the Commissioner shall have full Power and Authority to enter into all necessary Contracts for Sales, or to rescind or vary the same, and to give full and effectual Discharges for the Purchase Money thereof or any Part thereof, and to execute all necessary Conveyances for vesting the same in the Purchasers thereof, or any Part thereof, for all the Estate or Interest therein which shall be vested in the Commissioner; and the Commissioner shall and he is hereby authorized and required to take down and remove all or any Turnpikes, Toll Houses, Toll Bars, Toll Gates, Side Gates, Chains, or other Things which shall encroach upon the Roads or any of them, and may, if he thinks fit, take down or remove all or any other Turnpikes, Toll Houses, Toll Bars, Toll Gates, Side Gates, Chains, or other Things the Property of the said Turnpike Trusts, and may sell and dispose of the Materials thereof in manner aforesaid: Provided always, that before the Commissioner shall sell and dispose of or offer for Sale and Disposal any Piece of Ground not wanted for the Purposes of the Road, he shall offer the same to the Person whose Lands shall adjoin thereto, and if such Person shall thereupon refuse or shall not agree to purchase the same such Land may be sold to any Person who may be willing to become the Purchaser thereof as aforesaid.

CAP. LXX.

An Act for further promoting the Establishment of Free Public Libraries and Museums in Municipal Towns, and for extending it to Towns governed under Local Improvement Acts, and to Parishes. [30th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and extend the Public Libraries Act, 1850:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

13 & 14 Vict. c. 65. repealed.

I. The Public Libraries Act, 1850, is hereby repealed; but such Repeal shall not invalidate or affect anything already done in pursuance of the same Act, and all Libraries and Museums established under that Act or the Act thereby repealed shall be considered as having been established under this Act, and the Council of any Borough which may have adopted the said Act of One thousand eight hundred and fifty, or established a Museum under the Act thereby repealed, shall have and may use and exercise all the Benefits, Privileges, and Powers given by this Act; and all Monies which have been borrowed by virtue of the said repealed Acts or either of them, and still remaining unpaid, and the Interest thereof, shall be charged on the Borough Rates, or a Rate to be assessed and recovered in the like Manner as a Borough Rate to be made by virtue of this Act.

Short Title of Act.

II. In citing this Act for any Purposes whatever it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Public Libraries Act, 1855."

Interpretation of Terms.

III. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions shall, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, have the following Meanings assigned to them respectively; that is to say, "Parish" shall mean every Place maintaining its own Poor; "Vestry" shall mean the Inhabitants of the Parish lawfully assembled in Vestry, or for any of the Purposes for which Vestries are holden, except in those Parishes in which there is a Select Vestry elected under the Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Twelve, or under the Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty, or under the Provisions of any Local Act of Parliament for the Government of any Parish by Vestries, in which Parishes it shall mean such Select Vestry, and shall also mean any Body of Persons, by whatever Name distinguished, acting by virtue of any Act of Parliament, Prescription, Custom, or otherwise, as or instead of a Vestry or Select Vestry; "Ratepayers" shall mean all Persons for the Time being assessed to Rates for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish; "Overseers of the Poor" shall mean also any Persons authorized and required to make and collect the Rate for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, and acting instead of Overseers of the Poor; "Board" shall mean the Commissioners, Trustees, or other Body of Persons, by whatever Name distinguished, for the Time being in Office and acting in the Execution of any Improvement Act, being an Act for draining, cleansing, paving, lighting, watching, or otherwise improving a Place, or for any of those Purposes; "Improvement Rates" shall mean the Rates, Tolls, Rents, Income, and other Monies whatsoever which, under the Provisions of any such Improvement Act, shall be applicable for the general Purposes of such Act.

IV. The

Town Councils of certain Boroughs may adopt this Act if determined by Inhabitants.

IV. The Mayor of any Municipal Borough the Population of which, according to the then last Census thereof, shall exceed Five thousand Persons, shall, on the Request of the Town Council, convene a Public Meeting of the Burgesses of the Borough, in order to determine whether this Act shall be adopted for the Municipal Borough, and Ten Days Notice at least of the Time, Place, and Object of the Meeting shall be given by affixing the same on or near the Door of every Church and Chapel within the Borough, and also by advertising the same in One or more of the Newspapers published or circulated within the Borough, Seven Days at least before the Day appointed for the Meeting; and if at such Meeting Two Thirds of such Persons as aforesaid then present shall determine that this Act ought to be adopted for the Borough, the same shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in such Borough, and shall be carried into execution in accordance with the Laws for the Time being in force relating to the Municipal Corporation of such Borough: Provided always, that the Mayor, or, in his Absence, the Chairman of the Meeting, shall cause a Minute to be made of the Resolutions of the Meeting, and shall sign the same; and the Resolutions so signed shall be conclusive Evidence that the Meeting was duly convened, and the Vote thereat duly taken, and that the Minute contains a true Account of the Proceedings thereat.

Expenses of carrying Act into execution in a Borough to be paid out of the Borough Fund.

V. The Expenses incurred in calling and holding the Meeting, whether this Act shall be adopted or not, and the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in such Borough, may be paid out of the Borough Fund, and the Council may levy by a separate Rate, to be called a Library Rate, to be made and recoverable in the Manner herein-after provided, all Monies from Time to Time necessary for defraying such Expenses; and distinct Accounts shall be kept of the Receipts, Payments, and Liabilities of the Council with reference to the Execution of this Act.

Board of any District within Limits of any Improvement Act may adopt this Act if determined by Inhabitants.

VI. The Board of any District, being a Place within the Limits of any Improvement Act, and having such a Population as aforesaid, shall, upon the Requisition in Writing of at least Ten Persons assessed to and paying the Improvement Rate, appoint a Time not less than Ten Days nor more than Twenty Days from the Time of receiving such Requisition for a Public Meeting of the Persons assessed to and paying such Rate in order to determine whether this Act shall be adopted for such District, and Ten Days Notice at least of the Time, Place, and Object of such Meeting shall be given by affixing the same on or near the Door of every Church and Chapel within the District, and also by advertising the same in One or more of the Newspapers published or circulated within the District, Seven Days at least before the Day appointed for the Meeting; and if at such Meeting Two Thirds of such Persons as aforesaid then present shall determine that this Act ought to be adopted for the District, the same shall thenceforth take effect, and come into operation in such District, and shall be carried into effect according to the Laws for the Time being in force relating to such Board.

Expenses of carrying Act into execution to be charged on Improvement Rate.

VII. The Expenses incurred in calling and holding the Meeting, whether this Act shall be adopted or not, and the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any such District, shall be paid out of the Improvement Rate, and the Board may levy as Part of the Improvement Rate, or by a separate Rate to be assessed and recovered in like Manner as an Improvement Rate, such Sums of Money as shall be from Time to Time necessary for defraying such Expenses; and the Board shall keep distinct Accounts of their Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities with reference to the Execution of this Act, which Accounts shall be audited in the same Way as Accounts are directed to be audited under the Improvement Act.

Certain Parishes may adopt this Act, with the Consent of Two Thirds of the Ratepayers.

The Vestry to appoint Commissioners for carrying the Act into execution, who shall be a Body Corporate.

VIII. Upon the Requisition in Writing of at least Ten Ratepayers of any Parish having such a Population as aforesaid, the Overseers of the Poor shall appoint a Time, not less than Ten Days nor more than Twenty Days from the Time of receiving such Requisition, for a Public Meeting of the Ratepayers in order to determine whether this Act shall be adopted for the Parish; and Ten Days Notice at least of the Time, Place, and Object of the Meeting shall be given by affixing the same on or near the Door of every Church and Chapel within the Parish, and also by advertising the same in One or more of the Newspapers published or circulated within the Parish, Seven Days at least before the Day appointed for the Meeting; and if at such Meeting Two Thirds of the Ratepayers then present shall determine that this Act ought to be adopted for such Parish, the same shall come into operation in such Parish, and the Vestry shall forthwith appoint not less than Three nor more than Nine Ratepayers Commissioners for carrying the Act into execution, who shall be a Body Corporate by the Name of "The Commissioners for Public Libraries and Museums for the Parish of in the County of ," and by that Name may sue and be sued, and hold and dispose of Lands, and use a Common Seal: Provided always, that in any Parish where there shall not be a greater Population than Eight thousand Inhabitants by the then last Census, it shall be lawful for any Ten Ratepayers to deliver a Requisition by them signed, and describing their Place of Residence, to the Overseers or One of the Overseers of the said Parish, requiring the Votes of the Ratepayers at such Meeting to be taken according to the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Sixty-nine, and the Votes at such Meeting shall thereupon be taken according to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament, and not otherwise.

One Third of such Commissioners to go out of Office yearly, and

IX. At the Termination of every Year (the Year being reckoned from and exclusive of the Day of the First Appointment of Commissioners) a Meeting of the Vestry shall be held, at which Meeting One Third or as nearly as may be One Third of the Commissioners, to be determined by Ballot, shall go out of Office, and the Vestry shall appoint other Commissioners in their Place, but the outgoing Commissioners others to be appointed, &c.

sioners may be re-elected; and the Vestry shall fill up every Vacancy among the Commissioners, whether occurring by Death, Resignation, or otherwise, as soon as possible after the same occurs.

General and Special Meetings of Commissioners.

X. The Commissioners shall meet at least once in every Calendar Month, and at such other Times as they think fit, at the Public Library or Museum or some other convenient Place; and any One Commissioner may summon a Special Meeting of the Commissioners by giving Three clear Days Notice in Writing to each Commissioner, specifying therein the Purpose for which the Meeting is called; and no Business shall be transacted at any Meeting of the Commissioners unless at least Two Commissioners shall be present.

Minutes of Proceedings of Commissioners to be entered in Books.

XI. All Orders and Proceedings of the Commissioners shall be entered in Books to be kept by them for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Commissioners or any Two of them; and all such Orders and Proceedings so entered, and purporting to be so signed, shall be deemed to be original Orders and Proceedings, and such Books may be produced and read as Evidence of all such Orders and Proceedings upon any judicial Proceeding whatsoever.

Distinct Accounts to be kept by Commissioners, and duly audited.

XII. The Commissioners shall keep distinct and regular Accounts of their Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities with reference to the Execution of this Act, which Accounts shall be audited yearly by the Poor Law Auditor, if the Accounts of Poor Rate Expenditure of the Parish be audited by a Poor Law Auditor, but if not so audited, then by Two Auditors not being Commissioners, who shall be yearly appointed by the Vestry, and the Auditor or Auditors shall report thereon, and such Report shall be laid before the Vestry by the Commissioners.

Expenses of executing Act in any Parish to be paid out of Poor Rate.

XIII. The Expenses of calling and holding the Meeting of the Ratepayers, whether this Act shall be adopted or not, and the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any Parish, to such Amount as shall be from Time to Time sanctioned by the Vestry, shall be paid out of a Rate to be made and recovered in like Manner as a Poor Rate, except that every Person occupying Lands used as Arable, Meadow, or Pasture Ground only, or as Woodlands or Market Gardens, or Nursery Grounds, shall be rated in respect of the same in the Proportion of One Third Part only of the full net annual Value thereof respectively; the Vestry to be called for the Purpose of sanctioning the Amount shall be convened in the Manner usual in the Parish; the Amount for the Time being proposed to be raised for such Expenses shall be expressed in the Notice convening the Vestry, and shall be paid, according to the Order of the Vestry, to such Person as shall be appointed by the Commissioners to receive the same: Provided always, that in the Notices requiring the Payment of the Rate there shall be stated the Proportion which the Amount to be thereby raised for the Purposes of this Act shall bear to the total Amount of the Rate.

Vestries of Two or more neighbouring Parishes may adopt the Act.

XIV. The Vestries of any Two or more neighbouring Parishes having according to the then last Census an aggregate Population exceeding Five thousand Persons may adopt this Act, in like Manner as if the Population of each of those Parishes according to the then last Census exceeded Five thousand, and may concur in carrying the same into execution in such Parishes for such Time as they shall mutually agree; and such Vestries may decide that a Public Library or Museum, or both, shall be erected in any One of such Parishes, and that the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution with reference to the same shall be borne by such Parishes in such Proportions as such Vestries shall mutually approve; the Proportion for each of such Parishes of such Expenses shall be paid out of the Monies to be raised for the Relief of the Poor of the same respective Parishes accordingly; but no more than Three Commissioners shall be appointed for each Parish; and the Commissioners so appointed for each of such Parishes shall in the Management of the said Public Library and Museum form One Body of Commissioners, and shall act accordingly in the Execution of this Act; and the Accounts of the Commissioners shall be examined and reported on by the Auditor or Auditors of each of such Parishes; and the surplus Money at the Disposal as aforesaid of such Commissioners shall be paid to the Overseers of such Parishes respectively, in the Proportion in which such Parishes shall be liable to such Expenses.

Rates levied not to exceed One Penny in the Pound.

XV. The Amount of the Rate to be levied in any Borough, District, or Parish in any One Year for the Purposes of this Act shall not exceed the Sum of One Penny in the Pound; and for the Purposes of the Library Rate all the Clauses of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the Manner of making Rates, to the Appeal to be made against any Rate, and to the Recovery of Rates, shall be incorporated with this Act; and whenever the Words "Special Act" occur in the Act so incorporated they shall mean "The Public Libraries Act, 1855;" the Accounts of the said Board and Commissioners respectively with reference to the Execution of this Act shall at all reasonable Times be open, Accounts of Board and Commissioners to be open to Inspection.

without Charge, to the Inspection of every Person rated to the Improvement Rate or to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, as the Case may be, who may make Copies of or Extracts from such Accounts, without paying for the same; and in case the Board or the Commissioners, or any of them respectively, or any of their respective Officers or Servants having the Custody of such Accounts, shall not permit the same Accounts to be inspected, or Copies of or Extracts from the same to be made, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Power to Council, &c. to borrow on Mortgage.

XVI. For carrying this Act into execution the Council, Board, or Commissioners respectively may, with the Approval of Her Majesty's Treasury, (and as to the Commissioners, with the Sanction also of the Vestry and the Poor Law Board,) from Time to Time borrow at Interest, on the Security of a Mortgage or Bond of the Borough Fund, or of the Rates levied in pursuance of this Act, such Sums of Money as as may be by them respectively required; and the Commissioners for carrying into execution the Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty, may from Time to Time advance and lend any such Sums of Money.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16. as to borrowing, extended to this Act.

XVII. The Clauses and Provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the borrowing of Money on Mortgage or Bond, and the Accountability of Officers, and the Recovery of Damages and Penalties, so far as such Provisions may respectively be applicable to the Purposes of this Act, shall be respectively incorporated with this Act.

Lands, &c. may be appropriated, purchased, or rented for the Purposes of this Act.

XVIII. The Council of any Borough and the Board of any District respectively may from Time to Time, with the Approval of Her Majesty's Treasury, appropriate for the Purposes of this Act any Lands vested, as the Case may be, in a Borough, in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and in a District in the Board; and the Council, Board, and Commissioners respectively may also, with such Approval, purchase or rent any Lands or any suitable Buildings; and the Council and Board and Commissioners respectively may, upon any Lands so appropriated, purchased, or rented respectively, erect any Buildings suitable for Public Libraries or Museums, or both, or for Schools for Science or Art, and may apply, take down, alter, and extend any Buildings for such Purposes, and rebuild, repair, and improve the same respectively, and fit up, furnish, and supply the same respectively with all requisite Furniture, Fittings, and Conveniences.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated.

XIX. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall be incorporated with this Act; but the Council, Board, and Commissioners respectively shall not purchase or take any Lands otherwise than by Agreement.

Lands, &c. may be sold or exchanged.

XX. The Council, Board, and Commissioners aforesaid respectively may, with the like Approval as is required for the Purchase of Lands, sell any Lands vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or Board, or Commissioners respectively, for the Purposes of this Act, or exchange the same for any Lands better adapted for the Purposes; and the Monies to arise from such Sale, or to be received for Equality of Exchange, or a sufficient Part thereof, shall be applied in or towards the Purchase of other Lands better adapted for such Purposes.

General Management to be vested in Council, Board, or Commissioners.

XXI. The general Management, Regulation, and Control of such Libraries and Museums, Schools for Science and Art, shall be, as to any Borough, vested in and exercised by the Council, and as to any District in and by the Board, and as to any Parish or Parishes in and by the Commissioners, or such Committee as such Council or Board may from Time to Time appoint, the Members whereof need not be Members of the Council or Board or be Commissioners, who may from Time to Time purchase and provide the necessary Fuel, Lighting, and other similar Matters, Books, Newspapers, Maps, and Specimens of Art and Science, for the Use of the Library or Museum, or School, and cause the same to be bound or repaired when necessary, and appoint salaried Officers and Servants, and dismiss the same, and make Rules and Regulations for the Safety and Use of the Libraries and Museums, and Schools, and for the Admission of the Public.

Property of Library, &c. to be vested in Council, &c.

XXII. The Lands and Buildings so to be appropriated, purchased, or rented as aforesaid, and all other Real and Personal Property whatever presented to or purchased for any Library or Museum established under this Act, or School, shall be vested, in the Case of a Borough, in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, in the Case of a District in the Board, and in the Case of a Parish or Parishes in the Commissioners.

If Meeting does not adopt Act, no other Meeting to be held for a Year.

XXIII. If any Meeting called as aforesaid to determine as to the Adoption of this Act for any Borough, District, or Parish shall determine against the Adoption, no Meeting for a similar Purpose shall be held for the Space of One Year at least from the Time of holding the previous Meeting.

Act may be adopted in the City of London if Two Thirds of Persons rated to the Consolidated Rate, assembled at a Public Meeting, assent.

XXIV. The Lord Mayor of the City of London shall, on the Request of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, convene a Public Meeting in manner herein-before mentioned of all Persons rated and assessed to the Consolidated Rate in the City of London, in order to determine whether this Act shall be adopted in the said City; and if at such Meeting Two Thirds of such Persons then present shall determine that this Act ought to be adopted for the City of London, the same shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in the City of London, and shall be carried into execution in accordance with the Laws for the Time being in force relating to the City of London: Provided always, that the Resolution of such Public Meeting, signed by the Lord Mayor, shall be reported to the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, and entered on the Minutes thereof, and that such Entry shall be Evidence; the Expenses incurred in calling and holding the Meeting, whether this Act shall be adopted or not, and the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in the City of London, shall be paid out of the Consolidated Rate, and the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London may levy a Part of the Consolidated Rate, or, by a separate Rate, to be assessed and recovered in like Manner as the Consolidated Rate, all Monies from Time to Time necessary for defraying such Expenses, and distinct Accounts shall be kept of the Receipts, Payments, and Liabilities of the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons with reference to the Execution of the Act.

Museums to be free.

XXV. The Admission to all Libraries and Museums established under this Act shall be open to the Public free of all Charge.

Extent of Act.

XXVI. This Act shall not extend to Ireland or Scotland.

CAP. LXXI.

An Act to authorize the Commissioners of the Treasury to make Arrangements concerning certain Loans advanced by way of Relief to the Islands of Antigua, Nevis, and Montserrat.

[30th July 1855.]

6 & 7 Vict. c. 63.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-three, ("for granting Relief to the Islands of Antigua, Saint Kitts, Nevis, Dominica, and Montserrat,") the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were authorized in manner therein mentioned to lend Exchequer Bills, for any Sum not exceeding One hundred thousand Pounds for the Service of the Island of Antigua, and any Sums not exceeding in the whole Fifty thousand Pounds for the Service of the Islands of Saint Kitts, Nevis, Dominica, and Montserrat, on the Credit of the Revenues and Public Property of the said Islands respectively, as soon as the said Commissioners should be satisfied that Repayment of the several Sums to be advanced (with Interest thereon, at the yearly Rate of Four Pounds by the Hundred,) was duly secured to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners by some Act or Acts passed or to be passed by the several Legislatures of the said Islands respectively: And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury accordingly advanced the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds to the Island of Antigua, the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds to the Island of Nevis, and the Sum of Twenty-three thousand Pounds to the Island of Montserrat, the Repayment of such several Sums, with Interest, having been secured by the Legislatures of the said respective Islands, as required by the said Act, and out of the Sums so advanced Advances were made under the Authority of the said respective Legislatures, to Persons who had suffered Losses by the Earthquakes in the said Islands: And whereas under the Circumstances of the said Islands the Payment of some of the Instalments of the Principal Money remaining due on the Securities given by the said Legislatures has been suspended: And whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners of the Treasury should be empowered to extend the Time for the Repayment of the Principal Monies remaining owing on the said Securities, and to reduce the Interest payable thereunder as herein-after mentioned:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Treasury may extend Time of Repayment of Loans to Antigua, Nevis, and Montserrat, and to reduce Interest to 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent.; corresponding Advantages being secured to private Borrowers.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to grant such Extension of the Period for Payment of the Principal Monies owing by the said Islands of Antigua, Nevis, and Montserrat respectively in respect of the said Loans, and to accept Payment thereof by such Instalments and at such Times as the said Commissioners in their Discretion may think proper and fix in the Case of each of the said Islands, and to accept Interest upon the Principal Monies remaining unpaid after the yearly Rate of Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum, instead of the said yearly Rate of Four Pounds per Centum, upon being satisfied that Acts have been passed by the Legislatures of such Islands respectively for securing on the Credit of the Revenue or public Property thereof the punctual Payment of the Instalments of Principal Monies, with Interest as aforesaid, at the Times and in manner fixed by the said Commissioners, and also for securing to the Persons indebted in respect of the Advances made out of the said Loans to the Sufferers in the said Islands Advantages corresponding with those granted to such Legislatures under this Act.

In case of Default of Payment at Times fixed under this Act, Interest and Instalments originally agreed upon may be required.

II. Provided always, That in case of Default in Payment of any of the Instalments of Principal Monies which may become payable from any of the said Islands under such Extension of Time, or of the said reduced Interest, at the Times fixed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to require from the Island so in default Payment of Interest at the yearly Rate of Four Pounds per Centum on the Principal Monies remaining due, and also Payment of such Principal Monies by such Instalments as were made payable by the Securities originally given by the Legislature of such Island; and such Interest and Instalments of Principal Monies which may be so required to be paid shall thereupon become payable accordingly.

CAP. LXXII.

An Act for legalizing and preserving the restored Standards of Weights and Measures.

[30th July 1855.]

5 G. 4. c. 74.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-four, "for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of Weights and Measures," it was enacted, that from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five the straight Line or Distance between the Centres of the Two Points in the Gold Studs in a certain straight Brass Rod then in the Custody of the Clerk of the House of Commons should be the original and genuine Standard of that Measure of Length or lineal Extension called a Yard, and that the same straight Line or Distance between the Centres of the said Two Points in the said Gold Studs in the said Brass Rod, the Brass being at the Temperature of Sixty-two Degrees by Fahrenheit's Thermometer, should be the "Imperial Standard Yard;" and that from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight 'hundred and twenty-five the Standard Brass Weight of One Pound Troy Weight made in the Year 'One thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, then in the Custody of the Clerk of the House of Com- 'mons, should be and the same was thereby declared to be the original and genuine Standard Measure of 'Weight, and that such Brass Weight should be the "Imperial Standard Troy Pound," and should be 'and the same was thereby declared to be the Unit or only Standard Measure of Weight from which all 'other Weights should be derived, computed, and ascertained, and that One Twelfth Part of the said 'Troy Pound should be an Ounce, and that One Twentieth Part of such Ounce should be a Penny- 'weight, and that One Twenty-fourth Part of such Pennyweight should be a Grain, so that Five 'thousand seven hundred and sixty such Grains should be a Troy Pound, and that Seven thousand such 'Grains should be and they were thereby declared to be a Pound Avoirdupois: And whereas by the 'said Act Provision was made for restoring the said Imperial Standard Yard and the said Imperial 'Standard Troy Pound respectively, in case of Loss, Destruction, Defacement, or other Injury, by 'Reference to the Length of a Pendulum and to the Weight of a Cubic Inch of Water respectively: 'And whereas the said Imperial Standard Yard and Standard Pound Troy were destroyed in the Fire 'at the Houses of Parliament: And whereas by the Researches of scientific Men Doubts were thrown 'on the Accuracy of the Methods provided by the said Act for the Restoration of the said Standards: 'And whereas there exist Bars and Weights which had been accurately compared with the said Standard 'Yard and Standard Pound Troy so destroyed as aforesaid, which afforded sufficient Means for restoring 'such original Standards: And whereas scientific Men acting for that Purpose under the Direction of 'the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have constructed a Standard of Length equivalent to the 'Imperial Standard Yard so destroyed, and Four accurate Copies of the Standard so constructed, and it 'having been deemed expedient that the Standard for Reference as a Measure of Weight should be a 'Pound Avoirdupois, there has been constructed in like Manner a Pound Weight Avoirdupois equiva- 'lent to the Pound Avoirdupois of Seven thousand such Grains as are mentioned in the said recited Act, 'and Four accurate Copies of the said Pound Avoirdupois so constructed: And whereas the Form 'adopted for the Standard of Length and for all the Copies thereof is that of a solid square Bar Thirty- 'eight Inches long and One Inch square in transverse Section, the Bar being of Bronze or Gun Metal; 'near to each End a cylindrical Hole is sunk (the Distance between the Centres of the Two Holes being 'Thirty-six Inches) to the Depth of Half an Inch; at the Bottom of this Hole is inserted in a smaller 'Hole a Gold Plug or Pin about One Tenth of an Inch in Diameter, and upon the Surface of this Pin 'there are cut Three fine Lines at Intervals of about the One Hundredth Part of an Inch transverse to 'the Axis of the Bar, and Two Lines at nearly the same Interval parallel to the Axis of the Bar; the 'Measure of Length is given by the Interval between the Middle transversal Line at one End and the 'Middle transversal Line at the other End, the Part of each Line which is employed being the Point 'Midway between the longitudinal Lines; and the said Points are herein referred to as the Centres of 'the said Gold Plugs or Pins: And whereas the Standard Pound Avoirdupois so constructed as afore- 'said, and the Copies thereof, are of Platinum, the Form being that of a Cylinder nearly 1·35 Inch in 'Height and 1·15 Inch in Diameter, with a Groove or Channel round it whose Middle is about 0·34 'Inch below the Top of the Cylinder, for Insertion of the Points of the Ivory Fork by which it is to be 'lifted; the Edges are carefully rounded off: And whereas the Standard of Length so constructed as 'aforesaid, the Bronze Bar, being marked "Copper 16 oz., Tin 2½, Zinc 1. Mr. Baily's Metal. No. 1. '" Standard Yard at 62°·00 Fahrenheit. Cast in 1845. Troughton & Simms, London," and the said 'Standard of Weight marked P.S. 1844, 1 lb., have respectively been deposited in the Office of the 'Exchequer at Westminster, and One of the said Copies of the said Standard of Length, the Bronze Bar, 'being marked "Copper 16 oz., Tin 2½, Zinc 1. Mr. Baily's Metal. No. 2. Standard Yard at 61°·94 '" Fahrenheit. Cast in 1845. Troughton & Simms, London," and One of the said Copies of the 'Standard of Weight marked No. 1, P.C. 1844, 1 lb., have been deposited at the Royal Mint; and One 'other of the said Copies of the Standard of Length, the Bronze Bar, being marked "Copper 16 oz., '" Tin 2½, Zinc 1. Mr. Baily's Metal. No. 3. Standard Yard at 62°·10 Fahrenheit. Cast in 1845. '" Troughton and Simms, London," and One other of the said Copies of the Standard of Weight marked 'No. 2. P.C. 1844, 1 lb., have been delivered to the Royal Society of London; and One other of the 'said Copies of the Standard of Length, the Bronze Bar, being marked "Copper 16 oz., Tin 2½, Zinc 1. '" Mr. Baily's Metal. No. 5. Standard Yard at 62°·16 Fahrenheit. Cast in 1845. Troughton & '" Simms, London," and One other of the said Copies of the Standard of Weight marked No. 3., P.C. '1844, 1 lb., have been deposited in the Royal Observatory of Greenwich; and the other of the said 'Copies of the Standard of Length, the Bronze Bar, being marked "Copper 16 oz., Tin 2½, Zinc 1. '" Mr. Baily's Metal. No. 4. Standard Yard at 61°·98 Fahrenheit. Cast in 1845. Troughton & '" Simms, London," and the other of the said Copies of the Standard of Weight marked No. 4. P.C. '1844, 1 lb., have been immured in the Cill of the Recess on the East Side of the lower Waiting Hall in 'the New Palace at Westminster: And whereas it is expedient to legalize the Standards so constructed 'and to provide for the Preservation thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

5 G. 4. c. 74. ss. 3. & 5. repealed.

I. So much of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth as relates to the Restoration of the Imperial Standard Yard and of the Standard Troy Pound respectively, in case of Loss, Destruction, Defacement, or other Injury, shall be repealed.

Restored Standard Yard established.

II. The straight Line or Distance between the Centres of the Two Gold Plugs or Pins in the Bronze Bar deposited in the Office of the Exchequer as aforesaid shall be the genuine Standard of that Measure of Length called a Yard, and the said straight Line or Distance between the Centres of the said Gold Plugs or Pins in the said Bronze Bar (the Bronze being at the Temperature of Sixty-two Degrees by Fahrenheit's Thermometer) shall be and be deemed to be the Imperial Standard Yard.

Standard Pound Avoirdupois.

III. The said Weight of Platinum marked P.S. 1844, 1 lb., deposited in the Office of the Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be the legal and genuine Standard Measure of Weight, and shall be and be denominated the Imperial Standard Pound Avoirdupois, and shall be deemed to be the only Standard Measure of Weight from which all other Weights and other Measures having Reference to Weight shall be derived, computed, and ascertained, and One equal Seven Thousandth Part of such Pound Avoirdupois shall be a Grain, and Five thousand seven hundred and sixty such Grains shall be and be deemed to be a Pound Troy.

Provisions of 5 G. 4. c. 74. not hereby repealed, &c. to remain in force.

IV. All the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth now in force, and not hereby repealed, and all other Enactments now in force in relation to Weights and Measures, shall continue in force and be applicable to the Standards of Weight and Measure hereby established, as if the same Standards had been established by the said Act of King George the Fourth instead of the Standard Yard and Standard Pound Troy so destroyed as aforesaid, and as if the Pound Troy of Five thousand seven hundred and sixty Grains had been established as a derivative Standard computed with Reference to the Pound Avoirdupois.

Copies of the Old Standards to continue to be legal.

V. All Weights and Measures, and Copies of Weights and Measures, which have been compared and verified or authenticated according to Law as Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, shall remain and be legal Weights and Measures for the same Time, for the same Purposes, and in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Weights and Measures hereafter duly verified to be deemed legal.

VI. All Weights and Measures which shall be hereafter verified and authenticated by Comparison with the said Imperial Standards of Weight and Measure, in such Manner as Her Majesty shall by any Orders in Council from Time to Time direct and appoint, shall be deemed and taken to be legal Secondary Weights and Measures.

Provision for Restoration of Standards in case of Loss, &c.

VII. If at any Time hereafter the said Imperial Standard Yard and Standard Pound Avoirdupois respectively, or either of them, be lost, or in any Manner destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may cause the same to be restored by Reference to or Adoption of any of the Copies so deposited as aforesaid, or such of them as may remain available for that Purpose.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act to extend the Period for applying for a Sale under the Acts for facilitating the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland. [30th July 1855.]

12 & 13 Vict. c. 77.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 67.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 64.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act further to facilitate the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland: And whereas a certain other Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue the Powers of applying for a Sale of Lands under the Act for facilitating the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland: And whereas a certain other Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for continuing and amending the Act for facilitating the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland: And whereas the extended Period within which such Applications under said Acts as are mentioned in Section Eleven of said lastly-recited Act might be made was limited to Two Years from the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three: And whereas it is expedient that said Period should be further extended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: All such Applications under the said recited Acts or any of them as are mentioned in Section Eleven of the said lastly-recited Act, and which are by said Section authorized to be made within Two Years from the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, may be made within Three Years from the said Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and all Orders and Proceedings by the said Acts or any of them authorized, and which might be made, had, or taken upon any Application made within the said Period of Two Years, may be made, had, and taken within the further Period authorized by this Act.

Period for Applications for Sale further extended.

CAP. LXXIV.

An Act to enable Grand Juries of Counties in Ireland to present for Payment of Expenses in certain Cases. [30th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient in certain Cases to enable Grand Juries in Ireland to present any necessary and proper Expenses which may have been incurred, with the Sanction of such respective Grand Juries, in making any Applotment of Grand Jury Cess, for Payment of which Expenses no Provision is now made by Law:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Grand Jury may present for certain Expenses incurred by Treasurers of Counties.

I. When the Treasurer or other Officer of any County, with the Sanction of the Grand Jury, or in the County of Dublin with the Sanction of the Finance Committee, shall have incurred or shall incur any necessary and proper Expenses in making any Applotment of Grand Jury Cess for Payment of which no Provision is made by Law, it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of such County, without previous Application to Presentment Sessions, to present to be raised off by such County all such necessary and proper Expenses as aforesaid as such Grand Jury may deem reasonable.

Continuance of Act.

II. This Act shall continue in force for Two Years from the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXVII.

An Act to give Effect to a Convention between Her Majesty and the United States of America. [30th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS a Convention was concluded between Her Majesty and the United States of America, and signed at London on the Eighth of February One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, of which the Ratifications were exchanged at London on the Twenty-sixth of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three: And by the said Convention it was agreed that all Claims on the Part of Corporations, Companies, or private Individuals, Subjects of Her Majesty, upon the Government of the United States, and all Claims on the Part of Corporations, Companies, or private Individuals, Citizens of the United States, upon the Government of Her Majesty, which might have been presented to either Government for its Interposition with the other since the Signature of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship concluded between Great Britain and the United States of America at Ghent on the Twenty-fourth of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and which yet remained unsettled, as well as any other such Claims which might be presented within the Time specified therein-after, should be referred to Two Commissioners, to be appointed in the following Manner, that is to say, One Commissioner should be named by Her Majesty, and One by the President of the United States; and it was thereby provided, that the Commissioners should, before proceeding to any other Business, name some Third Person to act as an Arbitrator or Umpire in any Case or Cases on which they might themselves differ in Opinion: And by the said Convention Her Majesty and the President of the United States of America solemnly and sincerely engaged to consider the Decision of the Commissioners conjointly, or of the Arbitrator or Umpire, as the Case might be, as absolutely final and conclusive upon each Claim decided upon by them or him respectively, and to give full Effect to such Decisions without any Objection, Evasion, or Delay whatsoever: And it was thereby stipulated, that every Claim should be presented to the Commissioners within Six Months from the Day of their First Meeting, unless in any Case where Reasons for Delay should be established to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, or of the Arbitrator or Umpire in the event of the Commissioners differing in Opinion thereupon, and then and in any such Case the Period for presenting the Claim might be extended to any Time not exceeding Three Months longer; and that the Commissioners should be bound to examine and decide upon every Claim within One Year from the Day of their First Meeting; and that

'all Sums of Money which might be awarded by the Commissioners, or by the Arbitrator or Umpire, on 'account of any Claim, should be paid by the one Government to the other, as the Case might be, within 'Twelve Months after the Date of the Decision, without Interest, and without any Deductions save as 'specified therein-after (as to Expenses): And the High Contracting Parties engaged to consider the 'Result of the Proceedings of the Commission as a full, perfect, and final Settlement of every Claim 'upon either Government, arising out of any Transaction of a Date prior to the Exchange of the Ratifi-'cations of that Convention; and further engaged that every such Claim, whether or not the same 'might have been presented to the Notice of, made, preferred, or laid before the said Commission, 'should, from and after the Conclusion of the Proceedings of the said Commission, be considered and 'treated as finally settled, barred, and thenceforth inadmissible: And it was thereby provided that the 'whole Expenses of the Commission, including contingent Expenses, should be defrayed by a rateable 'Deduction on the Amount of the Sums awarded by the Commission; provided always, that such 'Deduction should not exceed the Rate of Five per Cent. on the Sums so awarded; the Deficiency, if 'any, should be defrayed in Moieties by the Two Governments: And whereas by another Convention 'between Her Majesty and the said President, signed at Washington on the Seventeenth of July One 'thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was agreed that the Time limited by the first-mentioned 'Convention for the Termination of the Commission should be extended for a Period not exceeding 'Four Months from the Fifteenth of September then next, should such Extension be deemed necessary 'by the Commissioners or the Umpire: And whereas Commissioners were named by the High Con-'tracting Parties in pursuance of the said first-mentioned Convention, and such Commissioners appointed 'a Third Person to act as an Arbitrator or Umpire, as provided by such Convention, and the Claims pre-'sented to the said Commissioners were, within the extended Period authorized in this Behalf as aforesaid, 'examined and decided upon by the Commissioners, or in the Cases in which the Commissioners differed, 'by the said Arbitrator or Umpire: And whereas by such Decisions several Sums, amounting in the 'whole to Two hundred and seventy-seven thousand one hundred and two Dollars and Eighty-eight 'Cents, or, at the relative Value of Exchange as established by the Commissioners, Fifty-seven thousand 'two hundred and fifty-two Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Fourpence Sterling, were awarded to Subjects 'of Her Majesty in respect of their Claims upon the Government of the United States; and several 'Sums, amounting in the whole to Three hundred and twenty-nine thousand seven hundred and thirty-'four Dollars and Eighteen Cents, or, at the relative Value of Exchange established as aforesaid, Sixty-'eight thousand one hundred and thirty-one Pounds and Sevenpence Halfpenny Sterling, were awarded 'to Citizens of the United States in respect of their Claims upon Her Majesty's Government: And 'whereas by an Act of the Congress of the United States, approved by the President on the Third of 'March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, the said Sum of Two hundred and seventy-seven 'thousand one hundred and two Dollars and Eighty-eight Cents is to be paid to the duly authorized Agent 'of Her Majesty's Government, deducting therefrom, pursuant to the said Convention, on account of the 'Expenses of the said Commission, such rateable Proportion, not exceeding Five per Cent. of the whole 'Amount awarded to both Citizens of the United States and British Subjects, as might be sufficient to 'pay the said Expenses: And whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners of the Treasury should be 'enabled to cause the Sum payable under the said Act of Congress to be distributed among the British 'Subjects entitled under the Awards of the said Commissioners and Umpire:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Sums payable by Government of United States to be divided among British Subjects whose Claims have been allowed, and to be deemed a final Settlement of Claims.

I. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause the said Sum of Two hundred and seventy-seven thousand one hundred and two Dollars and Eighty-eight Cents, after such Deduction therefrom on account of Expenses of the said Commission as in the said first-recited Convention provided, to be paid and distributed to and among the several Parties to whom the several Sums constituting the said aggregate Sum of Two hundred and seventy-seven thousand one hundred and two Dollars and Eighty-eight Cents were awarded under the said Commission, in proportion to the several Sums so awarded to them respectively, or to their respective Executors, Administrators, or Assigns; and such Payments shall be deemed to be a full Satisfaction of the Claims of the said several Parties; and all Claims upon the Government of the United States intended to be provided for by the said Convention shall be considered as finally settled and barred.

CAP. LXXVIII.

An Act to reduce certain Duties payable on Stage Carriages, and to amend the Laws relating to Stamp Duties, and to Bonds and Securities to the Inland Revenue. [30th July 1855.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 79.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years 'of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Seventy-nine, certain Duties contained in a Schedule to the 'said Act were granted and made payable, and amongst others the following Duties on Stage Carriages 'in Great Britain, (that is to say,) for and in respect of every Mile which any Stage Carriage shall be 'licensed to travel the Duty of One Penny Halfpenny, and for and in respect of every such supple-'mentary Licence for a Stage Carriage as described in the said Schedule the Duty of Five Shillings;

'and

' and it is expedient to reduce the said Duties as herein-after mentioned :' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Duties on Stage Carriages and Supplementary Licences reduced.

I. From and after the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five there shall be charged and payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the following reduced Duties on Stage Carriages in Great Britain ; (that is to say,) for and in respect of every Mile which any Stage Carriage shall be licensed to travel One Penny, and for and in respect of every such supplementary Licence as aforesaid the Duty of One Shilling, in lieu of the Duties granted in the like Cases by the said recited Act : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to reduce or affect any Duty which shall accrue or be incurred on or before the said First Day of July.

Reduced Duties to be raised, &c. under existing Powers.

II. The said Duties by this Act granted and made payable shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in like Manner, and by and under the like Powers and Authorities, Rules and Regulations, as the said Duties granted by the said recited Act are now raised, levied, collected, and paid under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force.

Section 12 of 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 120. repealed.

III. From and after the passing of this Act Section Twelve of the Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty, whereby the Commissioners are authorized to compound with any Person for the Duties which may become payable in respect of any Stage Carriage, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Paper for Covers or Envelopes of Letters provided by any Person may be stamped with Postage Stamps.

IV. ' And whereas by certain Acts passed in that Behalf the Commissioners of Inland Revenue are ' directed to provide Stamps for denoting the several Rates of Postage of Letters on Paper provided by ' the said Commissioners for the Covers or Envelopes of Letters, and it is expedient to provide for the ' stamping with such Stamps Paper which any Person may send to the said Commissioners for that ' Purpose :' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and they are hereby empowered, under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time make or sanction in that Behalf, to stamp Paper which any Person may send to the said first-named Commissioners for the Purpose of being stamped for Covers or Envelopes of Letters with Stamps provided for denoting the several Rates of Postage, on Payment of the Amount of the Stamps required to be impressed on such Paper, and in Cases where such Amount shall not exceed Ten Pounds upon Payment in addition thereto of such Fee as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct or authorize to be taken in such Cases.

Prize Money Orders to be chargeable with the same Duties as Inland Bills.

V. ' And whereas under and by virtue of Two several Acts passed respectively, the one in the ' Second and Third Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter ' Fifty-three, and the other in the Third and Fourth Years of the said King's Reign, Chapter Twenty-' nine, a Stamp Duty of One Shilling is payable upon Orders made for the Payment of Prize Money, or ' Bounty Money, or Money upon Grants due to Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers, and it is ' expedient in lieu thereof to subject such Orders to the Stamp Duties chargeable on Inland Bills, ' Drafts, or Orders :' Be it enacted, That the Stamp Duty of One Shilling payable under the said Two last-mentioned Acts on Orders made for the Payment of Prize Money, or Bounty Money, or Money upon Grants due to Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers, shall cease, and in lieu thereof all such Orders shall be subject and liable to the like Stamp Duties as Inland Bills, Drafts, or Orders for the Payment of Money of the same Amount and of the like Tenor or Effect are now by Law subject and liable to.

Sections 195, 196, and 197 of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 107. to apply to Bonds and Securities relating to the Inland Revenue.

VI. And as to Bonds and other Securities relating to the Inland Revenue, all the Powers, Provisions, and Regulations concerning Bonds and other Securities relating to the Customs contained in Sections CXCV., CXCVI., and CXCVII. of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and seven, shall, mutatis mutandis, be deemed to extend and shall be applied to all Bonds and other Securities entered into or given, or to be entered into or given, by any Person or Persons under the Provisions of any Act relating to the Duties of Excise, or to any other of the Duties or Matters under the Control or Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or otherwise in relation, or incident thereto : Provided always, that in any Case in which, under the Provisions of the said Sections, any Certificate is required to be signed, or any other Matter is authorized to be done, by Commissioners of Customs, or any Number of them, any such Certificate or Matter in relation to any Bond or Security concerning or incident to the Inland Revenue shall respectively be signed and done by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or the like Number of them.

CAP. LXXIX.

An Act to amend the Law regarding the Burial of poor Persons by Guardians and Overseers of the Poor. [30th July 1855.]

7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. s. 31.

' WHEREAS by the Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred ' and one, Provisions were made for the Burial of poor Persons by Guardians and Overseers of ' the Poor : And whereas, in consequence of the closing of the Burial Grounds in many Parishes, and ' the Want of adequate Space in others, great Difficulty is frequently found in carrying into execution the ' above

'above Provisions, and it is expedient that other Provisions should be made:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

Where Burial Ground of Parish closed or overcrowded, Guardians or Overseers may bury in neighbouring Parish.

I. That where the Guardians of any Union or Parish, or any of their Officers duly authorized in that Behalf, or the Overseers of any Parish not under a Board of Guardians, shall undertake the Burial of any poor Person, or shall contribute Money or other Aid towards the same, and the Burial cannot take place in the Parish where, according to the Provisions of the said Act, the same would have been required to take place, by reason of the public Burial Ground of such Parish having been closed, and no other having been provided, or where, in consequence of the crowded State of such Burial Ground, the Guardians or Overseers respectively are of opinion that the Burial of such dead Body therein would be improper, it shall be lawful to bury such Body in a public Burial Ground (some Part of which has been consecrated) of or in some other Parish as near as conveniently may be to the Parish wherein the Burial would have been required to take place according to the Provisions of the said Act: Provided, that in all Cases of Burial under the Direction of the Guardians or their Officers, or of the Overseers, as aforesaid, the Fee or Fees payable by the Custom of the Place where the Burial may be, or under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, shall be paid by the said Guardians or Overseers for the Burial of each such Body, to the Person or Persons who by such Custom or under such Act of Parliament shall be entitled to receive such Fee or Fees.

Power to enter into Agreements with Cemetery Companies or Burial Boards.

II. The Guardians of any Union or Parish, or the Overseers of any Parish not under a Board of Guardians, may from Time to Time enter into Agreements with the Proprietors of any Cemetery established under the Authority of Parliament, or with any Burial Board duly constituted under the Statutes in that Behalf, for the Burial of the dead Bodies of any poor Persons which such Guardians or Overseers may undertake to bury, or towards the Burial whereof they may render Assistance; and thereupon the Burial of any such Body, under the Directions of the said Guardians or their Officer, or of such Overseers, or with their Aid respectively, in such Cemetery, or in the Burial Ground of such Burial Board, (unless the deceased Person, or the Husband or Wife or next of Kin of such deceased Person, have otherwise expressly desired,) shall be lawful: Provided, however, that no such Agreement shall be valid unless made in such Form and with such Stipulations as the Poor Law Board shall approve.

Construction of Words to be as in 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76., &c.

III. The Words contained in this Act shall be construed in like Manner as in the Act of the Fifth Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, and in the several Acts incorporated therewith.

CAP. LXXX.

An Act to ratify conditional Agreements entered into by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and to vest in the said Commissioners certain Property situate near the College of Edinburgh in the City of Edinburgh, together with the General Register House in the said City, and all Lands held therewith; and to enable the said Commissioners to acquire certain Property near the Palace of Holyrood. [30th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS in the Estimates for the Public Service passed in the last Session of Parliament certain Sums were set apart for the Formation of a National Museum of Industry for Scotland, and in particular for the Purchase of Ground sufficient for the Site of the said Museum, to be built in the Vicinity of the Buildings of the University and College of Edinburgh within the City of Edinburgh: And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, incorporated by an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-eight, have been appointed to carry out the Arrangements for the Purchase, Acquisition, and vesting in them of the Ground required for the Site of the said Museum: And whereas in pursuance of such Appointment to the said Commissioners a Deed of Agreement has been entered into between them on the one Part, and Robert Gray, Merchant, Edinburgh, Adam Black, Bookseller there, John Baird, Grocer, Glimerton, Hugh Paton, Carver and Gilder, Edinburgh, George Johnston, Temperance Hotel Keeper there, William Auld, Shoemaker there, and John Peterson, Merchant there, the surviving and acting Trustees vested in the Property and Buildings known as the College Street or Argyle Square Chapel, Edinburgh, therein-after described, for the Execution of the Trusts connected therewith, created by the deceased John Aikman, Minister of the Gospel in Edinburgh, by a Trust Disposition and Settlement executed by him, and bearing Date the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session the Fourteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, in favour of the said Robert Gray and others, on the other Part, the said Deed of Agreement bearing Date the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-second Days of March and Seventh and Twentieth Days of April, all in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and recorded in the Books of Her Majesty's Chancery in Scotland the Eighth and in the Books of Council and Session the Tenth Days of May and Year last mentioned; and reciting that it had been deemed expedient towards the Formation of the said Museum that the absolute Right to the said Property and Buildings should be acquired by and vested in the said Commissioners; and reciting that the said Commissioners, by and with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, had agreed with the said Trustees for the absolute Purchase of the said Property Agreement, dated 19th, 20th, and 22d March and 7th and 20th April 1855, for Purchase of Property near the College of Edinburgh as a Site for a National Museum of Industry.

'perty and Buildings at a Price to be paid therefor of Two thousand Pounds Sterling; and reciting that 'the said Property and Buildings, being vested in the said Trustees for the Execution of the Trusts afore- 'said, and no Power of Sale being conferred on them by the Titles under which they hold the same, it 'was not competent for the said Trustees to sell or dispose of the said Subjects, nor could they grant a valid 'Conveyance and Disposition thereof to the said Commissioners, without the Authority of Parliament; 'and by which Deed of Agreement it was agreed that the said Commissioner should within a reasonable 'Time, and without undue Delay after the Date and Execution of the said Deed of Agreement, (and at 'their own Expense,) apply for an Act of Parliament empowering the said Commissioners to purchase and 'acquire, and empowering the said Robert Gray, Adam Black, John Baird, Hugh Paton, George John- 'ston, William Auld, and John Peterson, as Trustees foresaid, and their Successors in Office, or so many 'of them as are declared to be a Quorum by the Deed constituting the said Trust, and the Survivors or 'Survivor of them, and all other Parties who were, could, should, or might be interested, to sell and 'dispose of the said Property and Buildings, and to grant, make, or execute, in favour of the said Com- 'missioners and their Successors, or other Disponees that might be considered necessary, a good and 'valid Conveyance and Disposition thereof, and all Rights and Pertinents held or connected therewith, 'which Property and Buildings are stated in the said Deed of Agreement to be described in the Title 'Deeds as follows, viz., all and whole that Area, with the Chapel or Place of Worship sometime ago 'erected thereon by the said John Aikman, situated at the West End of the College of Edinburgh, and 'bounded as follows, viz., by the Street leading from the College Wynd to the Potterrow on the East, the 'Street leading along the North Side of the College to Argyle Square on the North, the Property of 'the Trades Maiden Hospital on the West, and that large Tenement and Garden also belonging to the 'said John Aikman on the South, together with a Servitude over the whole Garden or Ground belonging 'to the said John Aikman lying behind the contiguous Tenement on the South of the said Chapel, for 'the Purpose of preserving entire the Light of the large Window in the South Side of the Chapel, 'with free Ish and Entry to the said Place of Worship from both of the said Streets, which Area 'whereon the said Chapel is built was purchased by the said John Aikman partly from James Dewar 'Esquire, of Vogrie, alongst with other Subjects contained in his Disposition to the said John Aikman, 'dated the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-ninth Days of July Eighteen hundred and one, and recorded in 'the Books of Council and Session the Sixteenth Day of April thereafter, and partly from the Governors 'of said Hospital; and the said Robert Gray, Adam Black, John Baird, Hugh Paton, George Johnston, 'William Auld, and John Peterson thereby agreed and bound and obliged themselves as Trustees 'foresaid, and their Successors in Office, that they should, upon being so empowered, sell, alienate, 'convey, and dispone to and in favour of the said Commissioners, or to such other Disponees as the 'said Commissioners should direct and appoint, at and for the foresaid Price of Two thousand Pounds 'Sterling, all and whole the aforesaid Subjects as before described, or by any other Description that 'might be considered necessary for the proper Identification thereof, together with all Right, Title, 'and Interest, Claim of Right, Property, and Possession which they or their Predecessors, or the said 'John Aikman or his Authors, had to the Premises, and for that Purpose to execute and deliver a good, 'valid, and effectual Disposition and Conveyance, containing all usual and necessary Clauses, in favour 'of the said Commissioners or such other Disponees as the said Commissioners might direct and appoint; 'and the said Commissioners should, on the Execution and Delivery of such Disposition and Conveyance, 'be bound to make Payment of the foresaid Sum of Two thousand Pounds without Deduction of any 'Expenses incurred by them in carrying out the Sale and Transference to them of the said Subjects or 'otherwise, such Payment to be made and applied under the Provisions of the Act of Parliament to be 'obtained as aforesaid; and it was thereby further declared and agreed to by the Parties, that the Term 'of Entry of the said Commissioners to the said Subjects should be as soon as might be agreed on after 'the passing of the Act of Parliament empowering the said Trustees as aforesaid to sell and dispone the 'said Subjects to the said Commissioners, or at least at the First Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas that should happen subsequent to the passing of the said Act, from which Time or Term, as the Case might 'be, the said Purchase Money, if not previously paid, should bear Interest until Payment thereof was 'made as might be directed by the Act of Parliament to be obtained as aforesaid: And whereas by 'another Deed of Agreement, bearing Date the Thirteenth Day of March and Twentieth Day of April, 'both in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and recorded in the Books of Her Majesty's 'Chancery in Scotland the Eighth and in the Books of Council and Session the Tenth Days of May and 'Year last mentioned, entered into between the said Commissioners on the one Part, and the Right 'Honourable John Melville, Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh, Adam Morrison, Francis Brown 'Douglas, George Clark, and John Kay, Esquires, Bailies, Peter Scott Fraser Esquire, Dean of Guild, 'and David Dickson Esquire, Treasurer, and also the remanent Members of the Town Council, all as 'representing the Community of the said City, as Patrons and Guardians of the University and College 'of Edinburgh, on the other Part, proceeding on a Recital of the Intention to form the said National 'Museum; and also reciting that certain Proposals were submitted on behalf of the Lords of the Committee 'of Privy Council for Trade to the said Magistrates and Town Council, for the Transfer to Her Majesty's 'Government by them of any Rights they might have in the Museum of the said University, on condi- 'tion that the proposed National Museum was made fully available to the Professors of the said Univer- 'sity

Agreement dated 13th March and 20th April 1855, for Transfer by the Town Council of Edinburgh of their Rights (if any) in the Museum of the University;

'sity for instructional Purposes, and to be open to the Public free of Charge during certain Days of the 'Week, and for the Acquisition by Her Majesty's Government of certain Subjects under the Management, 'Control, and Disposal of the said Magistrates and Town Council as Patrons and Guardians of or other-'wise as Trustees on behalf of the said University; and further reciting that the said Proposals having 'been considered at a Meeting of the said Magistrates and Town Council on the Eighth Day of August 'One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, they, by their Act of Council of that Date, did renounce 'all Right of Property in and Management of or Control over the Collections forming the Museum of 'Natural History in the said University belonging to them as Patrons and Guardians aforesaid to and in 'favour of the said Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, and they did thereby bind and 'oblige themselves and their Successors in Office to transfer all such Right, Title, and Interest which they 'had or could have as Patrons and Guardians aforesaid in or to the Area of Land in West College Street, 'bounded by the said Street on the East, the Grounds of the Trades Maiden Hospital on the West, the 'Houses of Lothian Street on the South, and the Independent Chapel occupied by the Congregation of 'the Reverend Doctor Alexander on the North, and for that Purpose to execute and deliver such legal 'Transfer and Conveyance as might be judged necessary, and that at the Expense of the said Lords, it 'being declared by the said Act of Council that such Renunciation and Transfer as aforesaid should be 'made on the Condition that the Views of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade 'expressed in the Documents referred to in the said Act of Council should be fully carried into execution 'by the said Lords; and also reciting that by the said Act of Council the said Magistrates and Council, 'considering that it might become necessary to widen the Approach by North College Street to the said 'Museum, did agree to concur in any Plan which might be concerted by the said Lords for widening the 'said Approach; and to cede so much of the Property on the North Side of the said Street belonging 'to them as Patrons and Guardians aforesaid as the said Lords might think necessary to throw into 'the said Street or Foot Pavement when so required to be widened; and also reciting that the said 'Area of Land in West College Street was originally acquired in Five separate Lots or Parcels by the 'Commissioners appointed by Royal Warrant to superintend the Erection of Buildings for the said 'University of Edinburgh and the Expenditure of the Parliamentary Grants therefor, and the said 'Lots or Parcels were feudally vested in the Honourable James Clerk Rattray, One of the Barons of 'the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, Robert Johnston, Merchant in Edinburgh, and Doctor Andrew 'Duncan junior, Secretary of the Senatus Academicus of the University of Edinburgh, being Three of 'and a Committee appointed by the said Commissioners appointed by Royal Warrant to superintend 'the Erection of Buildings for the said University and the Expenditure of the Parliamentary Grants 'therefor, for the Purpose of making certain Purchases for their Behoof, and the Survivors and Survivor 'of the said Baron Clerk Rattray, Robert Johnston, and Andrew Duncan junior, and the Heirs and 'Assignees of them, in trust and for Behoof of the said Commissioners, as the said Subjects, consisting 'of Five Lots or Parcels, were more particularly described in an Instrument of Sasine in favour of the 'said Baron Clerk Rattray, Robert Johnston, and Andrew Duncan junior, as Trustees foresaid, dated 'the Twelfth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and recorded in the 'Register of Sasines kept for the City of Edinburgh the same Day, and in the several Dispositions 'containing the Procuratories of Resignation on which the same proceeds and the other Titles of the 'said Subjects; and also reciting that the said Trustees were all dead, the said Robert Johnston having 'been the last Survivor of them, and that the Heirs of the said Robert Johnston, having made up a 'Title as Heir to him in the said Trust Subjects, had conveyed and disponed the same to the said 'Magistrates and Town Council on the same Trusts as the said Subjects were held by the said Robert 'Johnston as surviving Trustee foresaid, with a view to enabling the said Magistrates and Town Council 'the more effectually to carry out the said Arrangement for surrendering the said Subjects for the 'Purposes of the said National Museum, in which Subjects the said Magistrates had been infeft conform 'to Instrument of Sasine in their Favour recorded in the Burgh Register of Sasines for the City of 'Edinburgh the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and also reciting 'that the Property belonging to the said Magistrates and Town Council, or under their Management 'and Disposal as Patrons and Guardians foresaid, situated on the North Side of North College Street, 'of which they agreed to cede as much as the said Lords might think necessary to throw into the said 'Street or Foot Pavement, when so required to be widened as aforesaid, was originally acquired by 'certain Trustees appointed by the Subscribers to a Fund for rebuilding the College of Edinburgh, in 'separate Lots, from William Keith, Accountant in Edinburgh, Walter Scott, Writer to the Signet, and 'the Incorporation of Bakers of Edinburgh, to whom the respective Purchase Monies were paid, but no 'Title, so far as then appeared, was ever obtained from these Parties; and also reciting that the whole of 'the said Property in West College Street was required for the said National Museum; and also reciting 'that the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings had been appointed to carry 'out the Arrangements for the Acquisition of the Ground required for the Site of the said National 'Museum, and obtaining the same vested in them; therefore the said Right Honourable John Melville, 'Lord Provost, Adam Morrison, Francis Brown Douglas, George Clark, and John Kay, Esquires, Bailies, 'Peter Scott Fraser Esquire, Dean of Guild, and David Dickson Esquire, Treasurer, and the remanent 'Members of the Town Council of the said City of Edinburgh, as the Trustees feudally vested in the and to cede Property for widening and improving the Approach to the proposed National Museum of Industry.

'Subjects

'Subjects therein-after disponed, and as Patrons and Guardians of the University of Edinburgh, or as 'having Right in any other Character or Capacity whatever to the said Subjects, did thereby alienate, 'convey, and dispone to and in favour of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Build- 'ings, for the Purposes of the said National Museum, all and the whole the foresaid Area of Land in West 'College Street, described as bounded by the said Street on the East, the Grounds of the Trades Maiden 'Hospital on the West, the Houses of Lothian Street on the South, and the Independent Chapel occupied 'by the Congregation of the Reverend Doctor Alexander on the North, or as the said Area was other- 'wise described in the foresaid Instrument of Sasine in favour of the said Baron Clerk Rattray, Robert 'Johnston, and Andrew Duncan junior, and the other Titles of the said Subjects; and further the said 'Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council thereby agreed and bound and obliged themselves and their 'Successors in Office to concur in any Plan that might be concerted by the said Commissioners of Her 'Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for widening the Approach to the said Museum, and to cede to 'the said Commissioners so much of the foresaid Property on the North Side of North College Street 'belonging to them as Patrons and Guardians foresaid as the said Commissioners might think necessary 'to throw into the said Street or Foot Pavement, when required to be widened, and to grant such Deeds 'as might be legally requisite for fully vesting the Ground so to be ceded in the said Commissioners, at 'the Expense of the said Commissioners, which several Subjects therein described were stated to be 'delineated on a Plan thereof and of the other Subjects acquired or to be acquired by the said Commis- 'sioners for the Purposes of the said Museum, the Subjects first therein described being coloured Pink 'on said Plan, and the Subjects second therein mentioned being coloured Green thereon, which Plan is 'therein stated to be subscribed by the said Lord Provost and the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's 'Works and Public Buildings as relative to the said Deed of Agreement by which it was declared that 'the Disposition and Obligation therein contained were granted by the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, 'and Council only for the Purposes foresaid, and no otherwise, and which Purposes should be a Real 'Burden on the said Disposition granted and to be granted; and the said whole Parties thereto further 'considering, that in order to fortify the Title thereby conferred and to be conferred to the said several 'Subjects it had been deemed expedient that an Act of Parliament should be obtained for more effectually 'vesting the same in the said Commissioners; therefore it was thereby agreed to by and between the 'said several Parties thereto that the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings 'should within a reasonable Time and without undue Delay after the Date and Execution of the said 'Deed of Agreement, and at the Expense of the said Commissioners, apply for an Act of Parliament 'containing Clauses ratifying the said Deed of Agreement, and transferring to and vesting in the said 'Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Museum the several Subjects thereby disponed or to be 'disponed in the event and for the Purpose foresaid, and declaring them free and disburdened of the 'Trusts upon which the same were and had been held by the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and 'Council, and their Predecessors, and containing such other Clauses as might be considered necessary 'for carrying out the Object and Intention of the said Deed of Agreement, and specially, without Pre- 'judice to the said Generality, empowering the said Magistrates and Town Council to widen or alter the 'Approaches or Streets leading to the said Museum, in as far as they and the said Commissioners should 'consider necessary, but which Power so to be obtained should not impose or imply, or be deemed or 'taken to impose or imply, any Obligation on the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council to widen 'or alter the said Approaches or Streets at the Expense of the Community and Common Good of said 'City, or out of any other Fund under their Management and Control: And whereas by a Disposition 'dated the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Days of April One thousand eight hun- 'dred and fifty-five, made and executed by Henry Banks, Convener of the Incorporated Trades of the 'City of Edinburgh and Deacon of the Incorporation of Tailors of Edinburgh; Samuel Weir, Deacon of 'the Incorporation of Goldsmiths of Edinburgh; John Steele, Deacon of the Incorporation of Hammer- 'men of Edinburgh; Thomas Johnstone, Deacon of the Incorporation of Wrights of Edinburgh; 'Edward Macgill, Deacon of the Incorporation of Masons of Edinburgh; John Ramage, Deacon 'of the Incorporation of Bakers of Edinburgh; John Cox, Deacon of the Incorporation of Furriers of 'Edinburgh; Robert Legget junior, Deacon of the Incorporation of Skinners of Edinburgh; Thomas 'MacMillan, senior Deacon of the Incorporation of Fleshers of Edinburgh; John James, Deacon of the 'Incorporation of Shoemakers of Edinburgh; George Tibbets, Deacon of the Incorporation of Waulkers 'of Edinburgh; Robert Brown, Deacon of the Incorporation of Websters of Edinburgh; John Williams, 'Deacon of the Incorporation of Bonnetmakers of Edinburgh; George Crichton, Goldsmith, Edinburgh, 'and William Beattie, Builder, Edinburgh, Trades Councillors of the said City; George Roper Dickie, 'Preses of the Society of Barbers of Edinburgh; Gordon Brown, residing in Buccleugh Place, Edin- 'burgh; Robert Sclater, Die and Stamp Cutter, Edinburgh; James Nimmo, Brassfounder there; James 'Milne, Boot and Shoe Maker there; George Copland, Tailor there; James Thomson, Hosier, North 'Saint Andrew Street there; William Cushnie, residing at Malta Green Cottage there; Robert Legget 'senior, Skinner, Water of Leith there; and John Clark, residing in Teviot Row there, all then Gover- 'nors of the Maiden Hospital founded by the Craftsmen of Edinburgh and Mary Erskine, and erected or 'incorporated by Statute from Queen Anne, dated the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand seven 'hundred and seven, Heritable Proprietors of the Subjects thereby disponed, in consideration of the Disposition dated 13th, 14th, 16th, and 17th April 1855, for Purchase of Property from the Governors of the Maiden Hospital for the Purposes of the National Museum of Industry.

'Price therein mentioned, sold, alienated, and disponed from them and their Successors in Office to the 'said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, heritably and irredeemably, all and 'whole the Ground and Buildings known, used, and occupied as the Trades Maiden Hospital, bounded 'as therein described, all as the said Ground and Buildings were delineated and coloured Blue on a 'Plan thereof and of other adjoining Properties acquired or to be acquired by the said Commissioners 'which was subscribed by the said Henry Banks, Convenor foresaid, and John Clark, Treasurer of the 'said Hospital, on behalf of the Grantors of the said Disposition, as relative thereto, which Subjects 'thereby disponed were stated to be Part of the several Subjects therein-after described, or one or other 'of them, in which several Subjects the Governors of the said Hospital were infeft conform to Instrument 'of Resignation and Sasine in their Favour, dated the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand seven 'hundred and seven, and recorded in the Burgh Register of Sasines of Edinburgh the same Day, and 'also conform to another Instrument of Resignation and Sasine in their Favour, dated Tenth September 'One thousand seven hundred and six, and recorded in the said Burgh Register of Sasines the same 'Day; and the said Governors of the said Hospital did also thereby sell, alienate, and dispone to the 'said Commissioners all Privileges, Servitudes, Pertinents, and others held or connected therewith, and, 'without Prejudice to such general Conveyance, the Privilege and Servitude therein particularly 'described: And whereas the Subjects disponed by the said Disposition were acquired for the Purposes 'of the said National Museum: And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Agreements between 'the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings on the one Part, and the said 'Trustees for the Administration of the Affairs of the said Chapel, and the said Lord Provost, Magis-'trates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh respectively, on the other Part, should be ratified and 'carried into effect in manner herein-after provided, and that the said Disposition by the Governors of 'the said Trades Maiden Hospital in favour of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and 'Public Buildings should also be ratified in manner herein-after mentioned: And whereas it is expedient 'that the Buildings forming the General Register House in Edinburgh, and Ground whereon the same 'are built, and all other Property of whatever kind held or connected therewith, should be transferred 'to and vested in the said Commissioners: And whereas Inconveniences and Difficulties have arisen in 'the Acquisition by the said Commissioners for the Public Service of Property situated at or near the 'Palace of Holyrood or Precincts thereof, held by Parties who were, by the Titles thereof or otherwise, 'legally incapacitated from selling or disposing of the same and granting valid Conveyances thereof, and it 'is expedient that these Inconveniences and Difficulties should be removed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

The Register House, Edinburgh, to be vested in the Commissioners of Works.

Recited Deeds of Agreements confirmed.

I. The said herein-before recited Deed of Agreement, bearing Date the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-second Days of March and Seventh and Twentieth Days of April, all in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and recorded in the Books of Her Majesty's Chancery in Scotland the Eighth and in the Books of Council and Session the Tenth Days of May and Year last mentioned, entered into between the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings on the one Part, and the said Robert Gray, Adam Black, John Baird, Hugh Paton, George Johnston, William Auld, and John Peterson, the surviving and acting Trustees vested in the Property and Buildings known as the College Street or Argyle Square Chapel, Edinburgh, therein and herein-before described, for the Execution of the Trusts connected therewith created by the said deceased John Aikman, Minister of the Gospel in Edinburgh, by his said Trust Disposition and Settlement bearing Date the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session the Fourteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, on the other Part; as also the said Deed of Agreement bearing Date the Thirteenth Day of March and the Twentieth Day of April, both in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and recorded in the Books of Her Majesty's Chancery in Scotland the Eighth and in the Books of Council and Session the Tenth Days of May and Year last mentioned, between the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings on the one Part, and the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in their several Characters foresaid, on the other Part, and the Disposition and Obligation therein contained; as also the said Disposition dated the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Days of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by the said Governors of the Trades Maiden Hospital, Edinburgh, in favour of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, shall be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, and made valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Property near the College to be conveyed to the Commissioners of Works.

II. It shall be lawful to and in the Power of the said Robert Gray, Adam Black, John Baird, Hugh Paton, George Johnston, William Auld, and John Peterson, as Trustees foresaid, and their Successors in Office, or so many of them as are declared to be a Quorum by the Deed constituting the said Trust, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and all other Parties who are, can, shall, or may be interested, to sell and dispose of the said Property and Buildings known as the College Street or Argyle Square Chapel, Edinburgh, described in the said Deed of Agreement, to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and to grant, make, and execute, in favour of the said Commissioners or other Disponees that may be considered necessary, a Conveyance and Disposition of the said Property and Buildings, and all Rights, Servitudes, Privileges, and Pertinents held or connected therewith, as the same same are described in the said Deed of Agreement, or in the Title Deeds thereof, or by any other or additional Description that may be considered necessary or proper for the due Identification of the said Subjects, which Conveyance and Disposition so to be granted as aforesaid shall contain all usual and necessary Clauses for fully vesting the said Subjects in the said Commissioners, and the same shall be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

The Price to be paid by the said Commissioners to an Account at the Royal Bank of Scotland.

III. The said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall, on the Execution and Delivery to them of the aforesaid Conveyance and Disposition, pay or cause to be paid the Sum of Two thousand Pounds Sterling, together with the Interest that may have accrued thereon from the Time the said Commissioners may have obtained Entry to the said Subjects prior to the Delivery of such Conveyance and Disposition into the Royal Bank of Scotland, to an Account to be raised in the Books of said Bank in the Names of the Right Honourable John Melville, present Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh, Maurice Lothian Esquire, Procurator Fiscal for the County of Midlothian, and John Gibson junior, Esquire, Writer to the Signet, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Heirs Male of such Survivor, as Trustees or Trustee, for reinvesting the said Monies and carrying into effect the other Purposes herein-after mentioned.

Receipt of Treasurer to be a good Discharge.

IV. The Receipt of the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the said Bank shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds, and Interest thereon, and the said Commissioners shall not be in any way liable for or concerned with the Application, Misapplication, or Nonapplication of the Monies so to be paid by them as aforesaid, or any Part thereof.

Upon Execution of Conveyance and Payment of Price the Property to be disburdened of the Trusts, &c. affecting the same.

V. Immediately from and after the Execution and Delivery of the said Conveyance and Disposition, and on such Payment being made into the said Royal Bank of Scotland as aforesaid, the said Subjects to be therein comprised shall be and the same are by force and virtue of this Act absolutely freed and disburdened of the Trusts, Conditions, and Purposes, and all other Burdens affecting the same, created or imposed by the Trust Disposition and Settlement aforesaid of the said deceased John Aikman, or any subsequent Deed or Deeds made and executed by him, or by any Deeds executed by the Trustees acting under the said Trust Disposition and Settlement, or other Deeds executed by the said deceased John Aikman; all which, so far as they affect or can be made to affect the said Subjects, or the Grantors of the said Conveyance and Disposition in relation thereto, are hereby discharged and declared to be at an end as if the same had never existed, and such Conveyance and Disposition shall not be liable to Objection nor its Validity be in any way impaired or affected by reason of any Defect whatever in the Titles of the Grantors of such Conveyance and Disposition, or their Predecessors and Authors.

The Price to be invested, under the Direction of the Court of Session, in the Purchase of other Property, to be conveyed on the same Trusts.

VI. And the said John Melville, Maurice Lothian, and John Gibson junior, as Trustees aforesaid, and their foresaids, may and shall, with all convenient Speed, and with the Approbation of the Court of Session in either Division thereof, and under the Direction thereof, and by and with the Consent of the Trustees or Trustee acting for the Time under the said Trust Disposition and Settlement of the said deceased John Aikman, after Payment of all Expenses incurred in the Execution of the Trust hereby created, which they are hereby authorized to satisfy and pay in the first place, lay out, invest, and apply the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds so to be paid into the said Royal Bank of Scotland as aforesaid into the Account herein provided to be raised in the Books of the said Bank in the Names of the said John Melville, Maurice Lothian, and John Gibson junior, as Trustees foresaid, and also any Balance of Interest and Accumulations thereof that may remain after satisfying the Purposes herein-after provided for, in the Purchase of a Site for a suitable Chapel or Place of Worship, and the Balance thereof, if any, shall remain for and towards the Erection of such Chapel, or otherwise in the Purchase and Acquisition of any Building or Buildings, and converting the same into a suitable Chapel or Place of Worship, in lieu and place of the aforesaid Chapel and Ground on which the same is built, to be disponed to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under the Authority of this Act; and the Ground or Buildings so to be purchased and acquired, or erected as aforesaid by the Trustees herein-before appointed for the Purposes aforesaid shall be conveyed and disponed by the Parties from whom the same shall be so purchased and acquired, or by the same purchasing Trustees or Trustee, and by the Directions of the Court of Session in either Division thereof, to the Trustees acting for the Time under the said Trust Disposition and Settlement of the said deceased John Aikman, and under and subject to the same Trusts, Conditions, Ends, Uses, and Purposes as are specified in the said Trust Disposition and Settlement of the said deceased John Aikman, in the same Manner and to the like Effect as if the Ground and Buildings so to be acquired and purchased or erected as aforesaid had been the Subjects originally comprised within the said Trust Disposition and Settlement.

Interest accruing on the Capital in the meantime to be applied in providing a temporary Place of Worship.

VII. Until the Investment herein-before directed shall be made, the Interest accruing on the said Capital Sum of Two thousand Pounds by reason of its Deposit in such Bank as aforesaid shall be paid to the Trustees or Trustee acting for the Time under the said Trust Disposition and Settlement, to enable them to provide a temporary Place of Worship for the Congregation on whose Behalf the said Trust was created, and on such other Purposes of the Trust as Circumstances may render necessary or expedient: Provided always, that the Expenses incurred in the Execution of the Trust herein-before created shall form a preferable Charge upon and shall be satisfied and paid in the first place out of the said Interest, and shall not be defrayed, so long as the Interest is sufficient for that Purpose, out of the said Capital Sum of Two thousand Pounds.

Trustees on passing their Accounts to be discharged by Court of Session.

VIII. After having carried the Purposes of this Act into effect, so far as the same are committed to the said Trustees herein-before appointed, it shall be lawful to such Trustees and their foresaids, if he or they shall think it necessary for his or their own Relief, to apply to the said Court of Session in either Division thereof for a Discharge or Exoneration of their Proceedings, upon a Petition to be presented to the said Court in either Division thereof in a summary Way, and the said Court in either Division thereof is hereby required to order Production of the Accounts of the said Trustees, and after Consideration thereof, and if the same shall be found to be correct, to exonerate and discharge the said Trustees of his or their Intromissions, and to declare him and them quit and discharged thereof for ever.

Provision for the Appointment of new Trustees.

IX. If the said John Melville, Maurice Lothian, and John Gibson junior, or any of them, shall die, or be desirous to be discharged from or shall become incapable to act in the Trusts, Powers, and Authorities hereby in them vested, at any Time before the said Trusts, Powers, and Authorities shall have been duly performed and executed, then and in any of these Cases, when and so often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Session in either Division thereof, upon the Application either of the surviving Trustee or of the Trustees acting for the Time under the said Trust Disposition and Settlement of the said deceased John Aikman, or Quorum, or Survivor of them, to appoint any other fit Person or Persons to be a Trustee or Trustees for the Purposes aforesaid in the Place and Stead of such Trustee and Trustees as shall die, or be desirous to be discharged from or shall become incapable to act in the Execution of the Trusts, Powers, and Authorities by this Act given, and so from Time to Time as often as there shall be Occasion; and so often as any new Trustee or Trustees shall be appointed as aforesaid the Sums of Money paid to the Account of and vested in the said Trustees as aforesaid, and hereby vested in the said John Melville, Maurice Lothian, and John Gibson junior, shall thereupon become legally and effectually vested in such new Trustee or Trustees, and the Survivor or Survivors of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, upon the Trusts, and to and for the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, and with, under, and subject to all the Powers and Authorities by this Act given and declared.

Majority to be a Quorum.

X. The major Part of the Trustees acting in the Business and Affairs of the said Trust for the Time, while more than Two survive or continue, shall be a legal and sufficient Quorum for carrying all the Purposes of this Act into execution, and any One of them who only shall survive or continue shall at all Times have full Power to act by himself alone.

The Property near the College to be vested in the Commissioners of Works for the Purposes of the said National Museum.

XI. The Area of Land situated in West College Street of Edinburgh, herein-before described, and disponed in manner herein-before recited by the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the said City of Edinburgh to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, is hereby, but subject always to the Declarations and Real Burden contained in the Deed of Agreement second herein-before recited and confirmed, transferred to and vested in the said Commissioners for the Purposes of the said National Museum, and no otherwise, as fully and effectually as if the said Commissioners were infeft and seised therein, and the same, as well as the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council, shall be and are hereby declared freed and discharged of the Trusts upon which the said Area of Land was held by the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, and their Predecessors, in the same Manner and to the same Effect as if such Trusts had never existed: Provided always, that a Memorandum of the above Provision, whereby the said Area of Land is transferred to and vested in the said Commissioners, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, be signed by the Lord Provost for the Time being, and registered in the Burgh Register of Sasines for the City of Edinburgh, which Memorandum may be in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act.

The Town Council empowered to convey Property for widening the Street.

XII. The Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the said City shall be entitled, and are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, to convey and dispone to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings so much of the foresaid Property situated on the North Side of North College Street of Edinburgh, herein-before described, and belonging to the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council as Patrons and Guardians of the said University and College of Edinburgh, or in any other Capacity, as the said Commissioners may deem it necessary to throw into the said Street or Foot Pavement when required to be widened, and to grant all Deeds necessary for fully vesting the Ground so to be conveyed and disponed in the said Commissioners, at the Expense of the said Commissioners; and the Deed or Deeds so to be granted shall not be impugned on the Ground of any Defect of Title in the Grantors thereof, or on any other Ground in Law whatever, but the same shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Property acquired from Town Council not to be used for other Purposes than those of the National Museum, without their Consent.

XIII. The said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall not be entitled to put, and they are hereby debarred from putting, the foresaid Subjects already disponed and to be disponed to them by the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, to any other Uses or Purposes than those contained and expressed in the Deed of Agreement second herein-before recited and confirmed, without the Consent in Writing of the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council first had and obtained; and if the said Commissioners shall contravene this Provision, they shall be bound, on the Requisition in Writing of the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, to reconvey and dispone to them the said Subjects, or, in the Option of the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, to pay to them a suitable Compensation or Price for the said Subjects, as the same may be ascertained with reference to the Value of the said Subjects as at the Date of the passing of this Act.

XIV. The

XIV. The Disposition herein-before mentioned, granted by the Governors of the Trades Maiden Hospital, Edinburgh, shall not be liable to any Objection or its Validity affected by reason of any Defect in the Title of such Governors or their Predecessors in any respect whatever. Disposition granted by the Maiden Hospital to be valid.

XV. All the Buildings occupied as and forming Her Majesty's General Register House at Edinburgh, and all the Lands and Buildings connected therewith, and all Lands whereon the same are built, and all Lands or Heritages held therewith, or purchased or acquired therewith, or for the Improvement or Extension thereof, under any Royal Warrant or Signature, or under or by virtue of the Acts passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Third, Session Second, Chapter Fifty-seven, the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-two, the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, Chapter Forty-one, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or other Authority, together with the Feu Duties, Rents, and Casualties payable out of the said Lands or any Part thereof, shall from and after the passing of this Act be and the same are hereby vested in the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and their Successors, for ever, in their Corporate Capacity, for the Purposes specified in the aforesaid Royal Warrants, Signatures, Acts, or other Authority respectively, and shall be maintained and kept in repair by the said Commissioners by and out of such Funds as shall or may be from Time to Time appropriated by Parliament for such Purposes. General Register House vested in the Commissioners of Works.

XVI. 'And whereas it may happen that some Person or Persons, or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or 'Collegiate, or Trustees, or others, who are seised of or entitled to Houses, Ground, or other Subjects 'near or adjoining to the Precincts of the Palace of Holyrood which it may be necessary or desirable 'for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to purchase and acquire for 'the Public Service, may be willing to treat and agree to sell such Houses, Ground, or other Subjects, 'but are incapable of granting and conveying the same, by reason of Infancy, or other Disability by 'Tailzies or otherwise:' Be it enacted, That, for the Purpose of acquiring any such Houses, Ground, or other Subjects situate within Five hundred Yards from any Part of the said Palace, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," is incorporated with this Act: Provided always, that such Incorporation shall not enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to take or acquire such last-mentioned Houses, Ground, or other Subjects otherwise than by Agreement. Owners of Property near Holyrood empowered to sell same to Commissioners of Works. Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 19. incorporated for certain Purposes.

SCHEDULE referred to by the Act.

BE it remembered, That by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act], the Area of Land situate in West College Street of Edinburgh, herein-after described, and which was vested in the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Edinburgh, subject to certain Trusts, and disponed by them to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, was transferred to and vested in the said Commissioners for the Purposes and under the Conditions specified or referred to in the said Act of Parliament, and no otherwise, as fully and effectually as if the said Commissioners were infeft and seised therein, and the same, as well as the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, were declared freed and discharged of the Trusts upon which the said Area of Land was held by the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, and their Predecessors in the said Subjects, in the same Manner and to the same Effect as if such Trusts had never existed; which Area of Land is described as follows [here insert the Description of the said Area of Land as given in the before-recited Agreement between the said Commissioners and the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, or the Description given in the Titles thereof, or both, as may be deemed best for the proper Identification of the Subjects]. In witness whereof this Memorandum or Abstract of the above-recited Provision of the said Act of Parliament is in pursuance thereof signed by the Right Honourable the Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh, before these Witnesses,

C A P. LXXXI.

An Act to amend the Law concerning the certifying and registering of Places of Religious Worship in England. [30th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS by an Act of the First Session of the First Year of King William and Queen Mary, Chapter Eighteen, and an Act of the Fifty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and fifty-five, Places of Meeting of Congregations or Assemblies for Religious Worship of Protestants (save as therein excepted with respect to Places of Worship of the Established Church and otherwise) were required to be certified to the Bishop's or Archdeacon's Court, or to the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and to be registered in such Court, and recorded at such Sessions: And whereas by an Act of the Thirty-first Year of King George the Third, Chapter Thirty-two, every Place of Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship of Persons professing the Roman Catholic Religion is required to be certified to and recorded at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace: 1 W. & M. Sess. 1. c. 18. 52 G. 3. c. 155. 31 G. 3. c. 32.

'And

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 115. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 59. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 36.

'And whereas by the Two following Acts respectively, that is to say, an Act of the Session holden in 'the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and fifteen, and an 'Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, Her 'Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion, and Her Majesty's Subjects professing the 'Jewish Religion, in respect of their Places for Religious Worship, are made subject to the same Laws 'as Protestant Dissenters: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifteenth and 'Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, Places of Meeting of Congregations or Assem- 'blies for Religious Worship of Protestant Dissenters are required to be certified to the Registrar 'General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, and to be recorded in the General Register 'Office, in lieu of being certified to and registered and recorded in the Bishop's or Archdeacon's Court, 'and at the General or Quarter Sessions, as herein-before mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that 'all Places of Religious Worship, not being Churches or Chapels of the Established Church, should, if 'the Congregation should desire, but not otherwise, be certified to the said Registrar General:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

15 & 16 Vict. c. 36. repealed, but Places of Worship certified thereunder to have Force, &c.

I. The said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, shall be repealed: Provided always, that the certifying thereunder before the passing of this Act of any Place of Meeting for Religious Worship shall, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, have the same Force and Effect from the Time of such certifying as if the same had been duly certified, registered, and recorded as before the passing of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, was required by Law, and such Act and this Act had not been passed.

Places of Worship to be certified to Registrar General.

II. Every Place of Meeting for Religious Worship of Protestant Dissenters or other Protestants, and of Persons professing the Roman Catholic Religion, by the said Acts of King William and Queen Mary, the Thirty-first and Fifty-second Years of King George the Third, and the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, or any of them, required to be certified and registered or recorded, as therein mentioned, and not heretofore certified and registered or recorded in manner required by Law, and every Place of Meeting for Religious Worship of Persons professing the Jewish Religion, not heretofore certified and registered or recorded as aforesaid, and every Place of Meeting for Religious Worship of any other Body or Denomination of Persons, may be certified in Writing to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, through the Superintendent Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages of the District in which such Place may be situate; and such Certificate shall be in Duplicate, and upon Forms in accordance with Schedule A. to this Act, or to the like Effect, such Forms to be provided by the said Registrar General, and to be obtained (without Payment) upon Application to such Superintendent Registrar as aforesaid; and the said Superintendent Registrar shall, upon the Receipt of such Certificate in Duplicate, forthwith transmit the same to the said Registrar General, who, after having caused the Place of Meeting therein mentioned to be recorded as herein-after directed, shall return One of the said Certificates to the said Superintendent Registrar, to be re-delivered by him to the certifying Party, and shall keep the other Certificate with the Records of the General Register Office.

Places of Meeting to be recorded.

III. The said Registrar General shall cause all Places of Meeting for Religious Worship certified to him under this Act to be recorded in a Book to be kept by him for that Purpose at the General Register Office, and no such Place of Meeting as aforesaid shall be certified to or registered in any Court of any Bishop or Archdeacon, or be certified to or recorded at any General or Quarter Sessions; and the certifying to the said Registrar General of any such Place of Meeting for Religious Worship of Protestant Dissenters or other Protestants or Roman Catholics, or Persons professing the Jewish Religion, and of any Place of Meeting for Religious Worship of any other Body or Denomination of Persons, shall, subject to the Provisions herein contained, have the same Force and Effect as if such Place had been duly certified and recorded or registered and recorded as before the passing of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, was required by Law, and such Act and this Act had not been passed.

Certain Places of Meeting already certified may be certified to Registrar General, and be recorded by him.

IV. Any Place of Meeting for Religious Worship heretofore certified and registered or recorded in manner required by Law, and which continues to be used for Religious Worship, save any such Place of Meeting certified to the said Registrar General under the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, may, at any Time after the passing of this Act, be certified in Writing to such Registrar General through the Superintendent Registrar of the District in which such Place may be situate, and shall be recorded by such Registrar General in manner herein-before mentioned concerning Places of Meeting not heretofore certified and registered or recorded.

Fee of 2*s.* 6*d.* to be paid with Certificate.

V. Upon the Delivery of every Certificate to the Superintendent Registrar for Transmission to the Registrar General for the Purpose of being recorded under this Act, the Person delivering the same shall pay to such Superintendent Registrar for his own Use the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and it shall not be lawful to demand or take any greater Fee or Reward for the same respectively.

Notice to be given to Registrar General of

VI. Whenever any Place of Meeting for Religious Worship which may have been certified under the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, or this Act, shall have have wholly ceased to be used as a Place of Meeting for Religious Worship, the Person or One of the Persons who so certified or last certified the same (as the Case may be), or the Trustee or One of the Trustees for the Time being of such Place of Meeting, or the Owner or Occupier or One of the Owners or Occupiers thereof, shall, if then resident within the Superintendent Registrar's District within which such Place shall be situate, forthwith give Notice to the Registrar General through such Superintendent Registrar that such Place has so ceased to be used as a Place of Meeting for Religious Worship, such Notice to be in a Form in accordance with the Schedule B. to this Act, or to the like Effect, and which Form shall be provided by the said Registrar General, and may be obtained (without Payment) upon Application to the said Superintendent Registrar; and the Person giving such Notice shall sign the same in the Presence of such Superintendent Registrar or of his Deputy, who shall forthwith transmit the same through the General Post to the Registrar General at the General Register Office.

every Place of Meeting becoming disused for the Purposes for which it was certified.

VII. The said Registrar General shall, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and also at such subsequent Periods as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall from Time to Time in that Behalf order or direct, make out and cause to be printed a List of all Places of Meeting which have been certified to and recorded by him under the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, or this Act, and the Record of which has not been cancelled as herein-after provided, and shall state in such List the County and Superintendent Registrar's District within which each of such Places of Meeting is situated, and the Religious Denomination to which the Persons for the Time being certifying it belong, and shall cause a Copy of such List to be sent to every Superintendent Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, and such List shall be open at all reasonable Times to all Persons desirous of inspecting the same on Payment to such Superintendent Registrar of a Fee of One Shilling.

List of certified Places to be printed.

VIII. Whenever it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Registrar General, from any Notice which shall have been given to him as aforesaid or otherwise that any certified Place of Meeting for Religious Worship has wholly ceased to be used as such, the said Registrar General shall cause the Record of such Certification to be cancelled, and shall give public Notice of the Cancellation thereof by Advertisement in some Newspaper circulating within the District in which such Place of Meeting is situated, and in the London Gazette, and shall also expunge the Name of such Place from the List of certified Places so to be printed by him as aforesaid; and after such Cancellation and Publication thereof as aforesaid such Place shall cease to be deemed duly certified as by Law required, and shall so remain until it shall have been duly certified afresh under this Act.

Direction to the Registrar General to cancel Records of Certificates of Places of Worship ceasing to be used as such.

IX. Every Place of Meeting for Religious Worship certified to the said Registrar General under the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, or this Act, and recorded by him as aforesaid, so long as the same continues to be bonâ fide used as a Place of Religious Worship, and the Record of the Certification thereof has not been cancelled as herein-before is provided, shall be wholly freed and exempted from the Operation of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty-seven, intituled "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," and shall not be subject or liable to any of the Provisions of the same Act, save that the exempted Charities may avail themselves of the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Sections of the said Act, if they shall think fit.

Certified Places exempted from the Operation of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853."

X. Nothing in this Act shall affect or be construed to affect the Churches or Chapels of the United Church of England and Ireland, or the Celebration of Divine Service according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the said United Church by Ministers of such Church, in any Place hitherto used for such Purpose, or being now or hereafter duly consecrated or licensed by any Archbishop or Bishop or other Person lawfully authorized to consecrate or license the same.

Nothing to affect Churches, &c. of Established Church.

XI. The Registrar General, on Payment to him of a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, shall, with respect to any Place certified to him as a Place of Meeting for Religious Worship, the Record whereof remains uncancelled, give to any Person demanding the same a Certificate, sealed or stamped with the Seal of the General Register Office, that at the Time or respective Times in such Certificate in that Behalf stated the Place therein described was duly certified and duly recorded as required by this Act, and that at the Date of such sealed or stamped Certificate the Record of such Certification remained uncancelled; and every such sealed or stamped Certificate, if tendered in Evidence upon any Trial or other judicial Proceeding in any Civil or Criminal Court, shall be received as Evidence of the said several Facts therein mentioned, without any further or other Proof of the same.

Certificate of Place having been certified to be given.

XII. All Sums to be received by or on account of the Registrar General in pursuance of this Act shall be accounted for and paid in manner directed by the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, "for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England," with respect to Sums received by him or on his Account under the Provisions of that Act; and all Expenses incurred by the said Registrar General, or by any Superintendent Registrar, or Registrar, with his Sanction, and acting under his Direction or Authority, in carrying this Act into execution and making known its Provisions, shall be deemed to have been incurred in carrying on the Business of the General Register Office, and be defrayed accordingly.

Sums received by Registrar General to be accounted for, and Expenses defrayed as other Expenses of General Register Office.

XIII. Notwithstanding the Provisions of this or any other Act, all Marriages which heretofore have been had or solemnized in any Building which has been registered for the Solemnization of Marriages pursuant pursuant to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-five, but which may not have been certified as required by the Provisions of this or any other Act, shall be as valid in all respects as if such Place of Worship had been so certified.

To remove Doubts as to Validity of Marriage.

Extent of Act. XIV. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.
